Item 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT.

On April 20, 2005, Archipelago Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Archipelago), entered into a definitive merger agreement (the Original Agreement) with the New York Stock Exchange, Inc., a New York Type A not-for-profit corporation (the NYSE), pursuant to which Archipelago and the NYSE agreed to combine their businesses and become wholly-owned subsidiaries of NYSE Group, Inc. (NYSE Group), a newly-created, for-profit and publicly-traded holding company (the Transaction). On July 20, 2005, Archipelago, NYSE, NYSE Group and certain of their affiliates entered into a definitive Amended and Restated Agreement and Plan of Merger (Amended Agreement) that amended and restated the terms and condition of the Original Agreement which was reported on a Current Report on Form 8-K filed on July 21, 2005. On October 20, 2005 Archipelago, NYSE, NYSE Group and certain of their affiliates entered into an amendment (Amendment) to the Amended Agreement. A copy of the Amendment is incorporated herein by reference as Exhibit 2.1. The description of the Amendment as set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Amendment.

On October 20, 2005, as contemplated by the Lock-Up Agreement described below, the NYSE Group, entered into a registration rights agreement (Rights Agreement) with General Atlantic Partners 77, L.P., GAP-W Holdings, L.P., GapStar, LLC, GAP Coinvestment Partners II, L.P., and GAPCO GmbH & Co. KG. (collectively, the GAP Entities). A copy of the Rights Agreement is incorporated herein by reference as Exhibit 2.2. The description of the Rights Agreement set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Rights Agreement.

Brief Description of the Material Terms and Conditions of the Agreements

Amendment to Amended Agreement

The Amendment revised the mechanics of the issuance of the consideration (but not the amount) to be received by the NYSE members who elect to receive cash in the transaction. Specifically, the Amendment provides that shares of mandatorily redeemable preferred stock (rather than cash) of a NYSE Merger Corporation Sub, Inc. a wholly-owned subsidiary of the NYSE, would be issued in the NYSE corporation merger. Under the Amendment, these shares of preferred stock would automatically be redeemed three hours after their issuance for $300,000 in cash per share. Although the Amendment modified the corporate mechanics by which NYSE members would receive cash in the mergers, the Amendment did not affect the amount of cash or number of shares of NYSE Group common stock that any NYSE member would receive in the transaction or the consideration payable to Archipelago stockholders in the transaction. The reason for structuring the cash component of the consideration in this manner is to provide certain NYSE members that are not U.S. persons with deferral of certain non-U.S. income tax on their receipt of shares of NYSE Group common stock in the mergers.

Rights Agreement

On April 20, 2005 the NYSE entered into a Support and Lock-Up Agreement (Lock-Up Agreement) with the GAP Entities (which was amended and restated on July 20, 2005) under which the parties agreed that, among other things, the GAP Entities would not transfer or sell for a period of time, any of the shares of NYSE Group common stock (Subject Shares) received by the GAP Entities in the merger, as that term is defined in the Amended Agreement (Merger), and the GAP Entities would be granted the right to registration of the Subject Shares under certain terms and conditions to be set forth in the Rights Agreement.

The Rights Agreement contains provisions regarding: (1) certain demand registration rights of the GAP Entities upon the first, second and third anniversaries of the Mergers for all or some of their shares of NYSE Group common stock that are not subject to transfer restrictions and are not freely transferable; (2) piggy-back registration rights in the event the NYSE Group proposes a registered offering of NYSE Group common stock for its own account and permits certain of its stockholders to participate in the offering, in which case the GAP Entities will also be entitled to participate in the offering pro rata with the other stockholders that are participating in the offering; and (3) registration procedures and allocation of registration-related expenses.

The Rights Agreement also contains other customary terms and conditions including the fact that the NYSE Group has the right to postpone effecting a registration requested by the GAP Entities pursuant to the Lock-Up Agreement for a period of time not to exceed 45 days if NYSE Group determines in good faith that effecting the registration would materially and adversely affect an offering of securities of NYSE Group (the preparation of which has already commenced) or would require NYSE Group to disclose material non-public information (the disclosure of which during such period would not be in the best interests of NYSE Group). NYSE Group may not postpone such a registration more than twice during any period of 12 consecutive months.

Collectively, the GAP Entities own approximately 22% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Archipelago. General Atlantic LLC (formerly General Atlantic Partners, LLC) is the general partner of GAP 77, the general partner of GAP-W and the sole member of GapStar. The general partners of GAPCO II are managing directors of General Atlantic. GAPCO Management GmbH (GAPCO Management) is the general partner of GAPCO KG. The managing directors of General Atlantic make voting and investment decisions with respect to GAPCO Management and GAPCO KG. General Atlantic, GAP 77, GAP-W, GapStar, GAPCO II, GAPCO KG and GAPCO Management (collectively, the GA Group) are a group within the meaning of Rule 13d-5 of the Exchange Act. William E. Ford, a director of Archipelago who is also expected to be a director of NYSE Group immediately after the completion of the Transaction, is president and a managing director of General Atlantic and a general partner of GAPCO II.
