Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

At the 2010 annual meeting of stockholders held on April 28, 2010, the stockholders of Ameriprise Financial, Inc. (the Company) approved an amendment to the Company's amended and restated certificate of incorporation (Certificate of Incorporation), which will result in the declassification of the Company's Board of Directors (Board). The Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, is attached as Exhibit 3.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

On April 29, 2010, a series of amendments to the Company's by-laws (By-Laws), approved by the Board in February 2010, became effective upon stockholder approval of the aforementioned amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation and the corresponding filing of a certificate of amendment with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. These amendments reflect recent changes in applicable law and update the By-Laws to conform to the amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation. A summary of the changes to the By-Laws is set forth below.

Amendments to Article I of the By-Laws, entitled Stockholders, include: the clarification that meetings of stockholders may be held by remote communication; the additional authority granted to the Board, and other conforming changes, to bifurcate the record date for stockholders entitled to receive notice of and the record date for stockholders entitled to vote at a stockholder meeting; the additional authority granted to the Board to adopt rules and regulations for the conduct of stockholder meetings; the addition of certain procedural powers granted to and obligations of the officer presiding over stockholder meetings; the addition of certain disclosure requirements for stockholders seeking to submit a nomination or proposal for an annual meeting; the clarification, and other conforming changes, that the advance notice requirement for a stockholder proposal related to business other than the nomination of a director shall be deemed satisfied where the stockholder has notified the Company of its intention to present the proposal in compliance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and such proposal has been included in the Company's proxy statement; the addition of the requirement that a stockholder or stockholder representative appear at the meeting of stockholders to present the nomination or proposal made by such stockholder; and the clarification that a contested election will occur if the number of candidates for the election of directors exceeds the number of directors to be elected as of the tenth (10th) day preceding the date the Corporation first mails its notice of meeting.

Amendments to Article II of the By-Laws, entitled Board of Directors, include: the elimination of the statement that the discretion of the Board may be limited by the By-Laws; the elimination of the classified Board commencing in 2013, and other conforming changes; the clarification that meetings do not need to occur in a specific place; the clarification that, prior to the 2013 annual meeting of stockholders, stockholders may only remove a director for cause and the addition of a new provision providing that, after the 2013 annual meeting of stockholders, stockholders may remove a director with or without cause; and the deletion of the statement that the Board's ability to fill a vacancy on the Board is subject to the Removal of Directors section of the By-Laws.

Amendments to Article III of the By-Laws, entitled Committees, include: the deletion of the requirement that a committee need be designated by a resolution adopted by a majority of directors then in office; the addition of the election of the Company to be governed by Section 141(c)(2) of the Delaware General Corporation Law; the deletion of the requirement that committee proceedings be reported to the Board at the Board meeting next following such proceedings; and the additional authority granted to committee members to resign via an electronic transmission.

The amendment to Article IV of the By-Laws, entitled Officers, grants officers the additional authority to resign via an electronic transmission.

Amendments to Article V of the By-Laws, entitled Capital Stock, include: clarifications as to the directors and officers authorized to sign stock certificates; and clarifications related to the aforementioned ability of the Board to bifurcate the record date for stockholder notice and voting rights.

The Company's amended and restated By-Laws are attached as Exhibit 3.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
