NANO GROUP TRIES TO STORM COMPETITIVE TECHNOLOGIES' HEADQUARTERS

POLICE CALLED TO SCENE TO REMOVE JOHN NANO

Fairfield, CT (January 18, 2007) - Competitive Technologies, Inc.-(AMEX: CTT), a full service technology transfer and licensing provider, announced that its ex-CEO, Mr. John B. Nano, and three of his associates, today attempted to gain entry into Competitive Technologies' corporate headquarters. Mr. Nano and his group showed up unannounced, claiming that his group had won the recent proxy fight and demanding entry to CTT's offices. Competitive Technologies called the Fairfield Police Department to report Mr. Nano's actions and the police responded to the scene.

"We are appalled by Mr. Nano's erratic and irrational behavior today. Despite Mr. Nano's claims, no election of directors has yet taken place. In our press release yesterday, we published the information available from IVS Associates, Inc., the independent Inspectors of Election, about stockholders represented Tuesday at the Annual Meeting, and no quorum was present," said D.J. Freed, Ph.D., President and Chief Executive Officer of Competitive Technologies, Inc. "This is a critical time for CTT and we are disgusted by the chaos created by Mr. Nano's attempt to barge in on us, frightening our employees. We are looking forward to putting this matter behind us and moving forward with legitimate business initiatives, which we will do as soon as possible following the Annual Meeting of Stockholders, which is scheduled to resume on February 2, 2007 in accordance with Delaware law and the vote taken before Tuesday's meeting adjourned."

Stockholders also may vote by attending the reconvened Annual Meeting in person. Any CTT stockholder of record as of the close of business on November 20, 2006, who has not yet returned a proxy card, or voted by Internet or by telephone is strongly encouraged to contact Morrow & Co., Inc., a proxy solicitation firm that is assisting us in the solicitation of proxies, at 1-800-267-0201. Any stockholder who held shares in "street name" through their broker, bank or other custodian as of the close of business on November 20, 2006, may also contact such broker, bank or other custodian to receive proxy materials and vote their shares. If any stockholder has any questions or needs assistance in voting its shares, they are advised to call Morrow & Co., Inc., at 1-800-267-0201. The Company has engaged an independent firm to verify the voting results.
