As of November 15, 2007, there were 13,563,285 shares of common stock issued and outstanding and 500,000 shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock issued and outstanding. The following description is a summary of the capital stock of our Company and contains the material terms of our capital stock. Additional information can be found in our Articles of Incorporation (as amended) and our By-laws.

Common Stock

The Company is authorized to issue 33,333,333 shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share.

Holders of our common stock are entitled to one vote for each share held on all matters submitted to a vote of our shareholders. Holders of our common stock are entitled to receive dividends ratably, if any, as may be declared by the board of directors out of legally available funds, subject to any preferential dividend rights of any outstanding preferred stock (there are none currently). Upon our liquidation, dissolution or winding up, the holders of our common stock are entitled to receive ratably our net assets available after the payment of all debts and other liabilities and subject to the prior rights of any outstanding preferred stock. Holders of our common stock have no preemptive, subscription, redemption or conversion rights. The outstanding shares of common stock are fully paid and non-assessable. The rights, preferences and privileges of holders of our common stock are subject to, and may be adversely affected by, the rights of holders of shares of any series of preferred stock which we may designate and issue in the future without further shareholder approval.

Preferred Stock

We have authorized 666,666 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.001 per share, of which 33,333 shares have been designated as Series A Convertible Preferred Stock and are issued and outstanding.

Our Board of Directors has the authority, without further action by the shareholders, to issue from time to time the preferred stock in one or more series for such consideration and with such relative rights, privileges, preferences and restrictions that the Board may determine. The preferences, powers, rights and restrictions of different series of preferred stock may differ with respect to dividend rates, amounts payable on liquidation, voting rights, conversion rights, redemption provisions, sinking fund provisions and purchase funds and other matters. The issuance of preferred stock could adversely affect the voting power or other rights of the holders of common stock.

Each share of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock is convertible, at the option of the holder and subject to a 65 day written notice to the Company, at any time after the date of the issuance into three hundred (300) fully paid, nonassessable shares of the Company's common stock. The Series A Convertible Preferred shareholders have a priority over common stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up. Series A Convertible Preferred shareholders are entitled to vote on all matters upon which common shareholders can vote and each holder of Series A Preferred Stock is entitled to one vote for each share of common stock into which the Series A Preferred Stock held by such holder is then convertible. Preferred shares are entitled to dividends on a pro rata basis.

Callable Secured Notes

On July 25, 2006, the Company entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement with New Millennium Capital Partners, II, LLC, AJW Qualified Partners, LLC, AJW Offshore, Ltd. and AJW Partners, LLC (collectively, the "Investors"). Under the terms of the Securities Purchase Agreement, the Investors purchased an aggregate of (i) $2,000,000 in callable convertible secured notes (the "Notes"). The Notes carry an interest rate of 6% per annum and a maturity date of July 25, 2009. The Notes are convertible into shares of the Company's common stock at fifty percent (50%) (the "Applicable Percentage") of the average of the lowest three (3) trading prices for our shares of common stock during the twenty (20) trading day period prior to conversion. In addition, the Company has granted the Investors a security interest in substantially all of the Company's assets and intellectual property as well as registration rights. As of March 14, 2007, the Company had convertible debt outstanding under the Notes pursuant to Securities Purchase Agreement totaling $1,000,000.

On June 20, 2007 (the "Closing Date"), the Company entered into that certain Securities Purchase Agreement (the "Securities Purchase Agreement") with the Buyers set forth on Schedule I attached thereto (collectively the "Buyers" and together with the Company, the "Parties"). Pursuant to the Securities Purchase Agreement, the Company sold to the Buyers convertible notes (collectively, the "Notes") in the aggregate principal amount of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000), which are convertible into shares of the Company's common stock, par value $0.001 per share at the Buyers discretion.

The Notes mature on December 20, 2007, accrue interest at an annual rate of twelve percent (12%). At any time on or after 90 days following the Closing Date, the holders of the Notes may convert, on an aggregate basis, up to 50% of the outstanding and unpaid principal and interest into the Company's common stock, including, but not limited to, the shares held in escrow pursuant to the Pledge and Escrow Agreement, as described below. If the Notes are not paid in full by the maturity date, the holders of the Notes may convert any remaining unpaid principal and interest into the Company's common stock, convertible into shares of the Company's common stock at the option of the holder, in whole or in part at any time and from time to time, at a conversion price equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the average closing bid price of the Company's common stock during the five (5) trading days immediately preceding the date of conversion. In addition, the Company granted piggy-back registration rights for the shares of the Company's common stock underlying the conversion of the Notes.

Contemporaneously with the execution and delivery of the Securities Purchase Agreement, the Parties also executed a Security Agreement (the "Security Agreement") pursuant to which the Company has agreed to provide to the Buyers a security interest in Pledged Collateral (as such term is defined in the Security Agreement) to secure the Company's obligations under the Notes. In addition, the Company, the Buyers, Stephen Schaeffer and Earl Ingarfield entered into a Pledge and Escrow Agreement, whereby Messrs. Schaeffer and Ingarfield agreed to pledge an aggregate of 2,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock as a security interest for the Company's obligations under the Notes.

Dividends

The Company has not declared or paid cash dividends on its Common Stock since its inception and does not anticipate paying such dividends in the foreseeable future. The payment of dividends may be made at the discretion of the Board of Directors at that time and will depend upon, among other factors, on the Company's operations.

Anti-Takeover Effects Of Provisions Of The Articles Of Incorporation, By-laws And Nevada Law

Authorized but unissued shares of common stock and preferred stock would be available for future issuance without our stockholders' approval. These additional shares may be utilized for a variety of corporate purposes including, but not limited to, future public or direct offerings to raise additional capital, corporate acquisitions and employee incentive plans. The issuance of such shares may also be used to deter a potential takeover of the Company that may otherwise be beneficial to stockholders by diluting the shares held by a potential suitor or issuing shares to a stockholder that will vote in accordance with the desire of the Board of Directors. A takeover may be beneficial to stockholders because, among other reasons, a potential suitor may offer stockholders a premium for their shares of stock compared to the then-existing market price.

The existence of authorized but unissued and unreserved shares of preferred stock may enable the Board of Directors to issue shares to persons friendly to current management, which would render more difficult or discourage an attempt to obtain control of the Company by means of a proxy contest, tender offer, merger or otherwise, and thereby protect the continuity of the Company's management.

Transfer Agent And Registrar

Florida Atlantic Stock Transfer is the transfer agent and registrar of our common stock. Its address is 7130 Nob Hill Road, Tamarac, Florida 33321, and its telephone number is (954) 726-4954.

Item 5. Interests Of Named Experts And Counsel

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification Of Directors And Officers

Our Articles of Incorporation provide that, to the fullest extent permitted by law, none of our directors or officers shall be personally liable to us or our shareholders for damages for breach of any duty owed to our shareholders or us.

In addition, we have the power, by our by-laws or in any resolution of our shareholders or directors, to undertake to indemnify the officers and directors of ours against any contingency or peril as may be determined to be in our best interest and in conjunction therewith, to procure, at our expense, policies of insurance. At this time, no statute or provision of the by-laws, any contract or other arrangement provides for insurance of any of our controlling persons, directors or officers that would affect his or her liability in that capacity.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the small business issuer pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the small business issuer has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities, other than the payment by us of expenses incurred or paid by our directors, officers or controlling persons in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceedings, is asserted by such director, officer, or controlling person in connection with any securities being registered, we will, unless in the opinion of our counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by us is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issues.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and persons controlling our company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, we have been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by our Company of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of our company in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, our company will, unless in the opinion of our counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by us is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
