Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities

On May 29, 2009, the Company sold and issued $525,000 in principal amount of Secured Convertible Promissory Notes (Each a "Note," and collectively, the "Notes"). On June 1, 2009, the Company sold and issued a further $100,000 in principal amount of Notes. The investor group included eight individuals, including certain officers and employees of the Company as well as outside investors. The Notes were issued in a private placement exempt from registration requirements. There were no underwriters, underwriting discounts or commissions involved in the transactions, and the Company received cash consideration. The Notes carry an interest rate of 11% per annum, payable in cash quarterly, and are due upon the earlier of two years from issuance or a change in control of the Company. The Notes are convertible into common stock of the Company at a price of $0.50 per share and come with warrants to purchase additional shares of common stock of the Company at $0.50 per share (the "Warrants"). The Notes are convertible, and the Warrants exercisable, beginning six months after issuance. Each investor received Warrants exercisable for a number of shares of common stock equal to 75% of the principal amount of the Notes purchased by such investor, divided by $0.50 per share.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

(b) Resignation of Directors

Effective May 29, 2009, Ray Minehan resigned from our Board, and effective May 31, 2009 Patrick Arbor and Steve Town resigned from our Board. The Company intends to operate with a smaller Board going forward in view of the Company's plan to reduce the scale of its operations. At the time of resignation, there were no disputes between Messrs. Minehan, Arbor and Town and the Company.

On June 3, the Company announced the formation of a Board of Advisors in order to allow its executive committee to benefit from the strategic advice of senior financial services professionals and former company board members. Messrs. Minehan, Arbor and Town have each agreed to serve on the Advisory Board.
