Item 4. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

On January 9, 2002, following our acquisition of Ferris Productions, Inc., we dismissed Bailey and Associates P.C. as our auditors and appointed Ham, Langston & Brezina, LLP, Certified Public Accountants of Houston, Texas, the firm which had previously audited the financial statements of Ferris Productions, Inc., to audit our consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2001. Our client-auditor relationship with Thomas O. Bailey and Associates, P.C. had ceased on or about November 30, 2001. Our Board of Directors approved the change.

The independent auditor's report of Bailey and Associates P.C. on our financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2000 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, and was not modified as to audit scope or accounting principles. However, the report did include an explanatory statement indicating that as a result of our continuing losses there is substantial doubt as to our ability to continue as a going concern.

During our two most recent fiscal years and through the date of the change in auditors, we did not have any disagreements with Bailey and Associates P.C. on any matter of accounting principles or practice, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which if not resolved to the satisfaction of Bailey and Associates P.C. would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter thereof in connection with its independent auditor's report.
