Item 1.01. Entry Into a Definitive Material Agreement

On June 13, 2011, Green Tech Products, Inc. (the “Seller”), an Iowa corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of GreenMan Technologies, Inc. (“GreenMan”), entered into a definitive Asset Purchase Agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”) with Irish Knight Holdings, L.L.C., an Iowa limited liability company co-owned by Timothy Mahoney and Ernest Knight, two senior managers of the Seller. Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, the Seller has agreed to sell, and the Buyer has agreed to buy, substantially all of the assets used in the Seller’s molded recycled rubber products business (the “Assets”).

The consideration for the purchase of the Assets will consist of (i) the assumption by the Buyer of substantially all of the Seller’s liabilities, which were approximately $1.1 million at March 31, 2011; (ii) a $50,000 stock inventory credit toward the purchase of products and services from the Buyer, which credit may be applied during the first nine months after completion of the sale; and (iii) a promissory note in the principal amount of $100,000 (the “Note”), which Note will bear interest at the rate of 6% per annum and will be payable in increasing monthly installments over a period of 60 months. The Seller will retain potential liabilities associated with certain pending litigation.

The Purchase Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants made by the parties to one another. The sale of the Assets is subject to customary closing conditions, including approval by GreenMan’s stockholders. GreenMan has agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to cause a meeting of its stockholders to be held to consider the approval of the sale of the Assets. In addition, at the closing of the transaction, GreenMan will enter into an indemnification agreement (the “Indemnification Agreement”) pursuant to which it will be required to defend and to indemnify one of the co-owners of the Buyer against any expenses he may incur in connection with the litigation being retained by the Seller.

The foregoing descriptions of the Purchase Agreement, the Note and the Indemnification Agreement do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by the terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement, the Note and the Indemnification Agreement, copies of which are filed as Exhibits 2.1, 4.1 and 4.2, respectively, and are incorporated by reference. These exhibits have been included to provide investors with information regarding their respective terms and are not intended to provide any other factual information about GreenMan, the Seller or the Buyer. The Purchase Agreement contains representations and warranties the parties thereto made to, and solely for the benefit of, one another. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified by information in a confidential disclosure schedule that the parties have exchanged in connection with signing the Purchase Agreement and that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties contained in the Purchase Agreement. Accordingly, investors should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts, since (i) they were made only as of the date of the Purchase Agreement or as of a prior, specified date, (ii) in some cases they are subject to qualifications with respect to materiality, knowledge and/or other matters, (iii) in some cases they are intended solely to allocate certain risks among the parties, and (iv) they are modified in important part by the underlying disclosure schedule. This disclosure schedule contains information that has been included in GreenMan’s prior public disclosures, as well as non-public information. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may have changed since the date of the Purchase Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in GreenMan’s public disclosures.

GreenMan intends to file a proxy statement and other relevant documents related to the proposed transaction with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”). GREENMAN’S STOCKHOLDERS ARE URGED TO READ GREENMAN’S PROXY STATEMENT AND OTHER RELEVANT MATERIALS WHEN THEY BECOME AVAILABLE BECAUSE THEY WILL CONTAIN IMPORTANT INFORMATION. Investors and security holders will be able to obtain the documents free of charge at the Commission’s web site, www.sec.gov, and GreenMan’s stockholders and investors may obtain free copies of the documents filed with the Commission by GreenMan (when they are available) by directing a request by mail or telephone to Charles Coppa, Chief Financial Officer, GreenMan Technologies, Inc., 7 Kimball Lane, Lynnfield Massachusetts 01940, (781) 224-2411.

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure

On June 14, 2011, GreenMan issued a press release announcing the execution of the Purchase Agreement. A copy of the press release is furnished with this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

The information contained in Item 7.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K (including Exhibit 99.1) is being furnished and shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or otherwise be subject to the liabilities of that section. Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits

Explanatory Note Regarding Exhibits

Investors should not rely on or assume the accuracy of representations and warranties in negotiated agreements that have been publicly filed because such representations and warranties may be subject to exceptions and qualifications contained in separate disclosure schedules, because such representations may represent the parties’ risk allocation in the particular transaction, because such representations may be qualified by materiality standards that differ from what may be viewed as material for securities law purposes or because such representations may no longer continue to be true as of any given date.
