Item 8.01. Other Events

On June 11, 2010, Unitrin, Inc. ("Unitrin") issued a press release, attached hereto as Exhibit 99.01, announcing the adoption of a trading plan (the "Plan") in accordance with SEC Rule 10b5-1 covering the sale over a period of one year of up to 1.5 million of the shares of common stock of Intermec, Inc. ("Intermec") that are owned by Unitrin. The Plan was adopted to facilitate Unitrin's diversification objectives for its investment portfolio. Unitrin currently owns 12,657,764 shares, or about 20.5%, of Intermec's outstanding common stock.

This report contains information that includes or is based upon forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Federal securities laws. Forward-looking statements give expectations or forecasts of future events, and can be identified by the fact that they relate to future actions, performance or results rather than strictly to historical or current facts. Any or all forward-looking statements may turn out to be wrong, and, accordingly, readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such statements. Forward-looking statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties that are difficult to predict, and are not guarantees of future performance. Among the general factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from estimated results are those listed in the Company's reports filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). No assurances can be given that the results contemplated in any forward-looking statements will be achieved at all or in any particular timetable, and the Company assumes no obligation to publicly correct or update any forward-looking statements as a result of any subsequent developments. However, readers are advised to consult any further disclosures the Company makes on related subjects in its SEC filings.
