To Our Value Line

To Our Shareholders (unaudited):

For the twelve months ended December 31, 2007, the total return for The Value Line Fund (the Fund) was 19.50%. This was well above the S&P 500 Index<sup>(1)</sup> return of 5.49% for the same twelve-month period.

Despite reaching a new high in 2007, the stock market faced considerable uncertainty. For most of the year, the markets were concerned with the collapse of subprime mortgages and its effect on the credit markets. Financial companies were hit the hardest in 2007, beginning with mortgage firms. Finance companies posted writedowns in excess of $80 billion. The Federal Reserve Board was forced to raise liquidity and lower interest rates. The federal funds rate was cut 100 basis points from 5.25% to 4.25% last year. Two additional rate cuts have been voted so far in 2008.

The top performing sectors in the market for the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2007 were semiconductors and computers. Apple was a top performer with strong sales for its new iPhone. Other top performers were Google and Research in Motion. The worst performing sectors for the same period were financial services, including banks and homebuilding.

The Value Line Fund generally invests in multi-cap stocks that are ranked in the Highest category for relative price performance over the next six to twelve months by the Value Line Timeliness Ranking System. The System favors stocks with strong price and earnings momentum relative to those of all other equities in the Value Line Investment Survey of approximately 1,700 stocks. The Fund has very limited exposure to the financial sector, approximately one percent, which was the weakest sector of the market for the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2007. The Fund had three percent of its market value in the semiconductor sector, which was one of the top performing sectors for the same time period. In addition, the Fund had positions in Apple, Google, Research in Motion and Amazon, all top performers for the year, which contributed to its outperformance versus the S&P 500 Index.

We appreciate your confidence in the Value Line Fund and look forward to serving your investment needs in the future.

Sincerely,

Jean Bernhard Buttner
Chairman and President

Economic Observations (unaudited)

The year-ahead economic outlook is growing increasingly guarded, with weakness now present in the major consumer and industrial markets. What's more, there is no quick or easy solution for what ails the U.S. economy, with softness likely to continue in housing, retailing, and employment. The economy, which began to slow noticeably during the final quarter of 2007, when gross domestic product growth slowed to a minuscule 0.6%, is unlikely to pick up meaningfully until later in the new year if then. Indeed, we now think there is at least an even chance that the United States will fall into a recession in 2008.

Moreover, even a modest rate of business growth this year which would be a best-case scenario assumes that there will be no exogenous shocks to the system, such as a worsening of the situation in the Middle East or a further surge in oil prices. Either of these events, along with a marked worsening of the housing slump or a serious miscalculation by the Federal Reserve on the interest-rate front (where the nation's central bank is now taking aggressive action), might prove sufficiently troubling to almost assure a recession and perhaps a moderate to severe one or generate an unwanted increase in inflation.

Currently, inflation remains under control for the most part, thanks to generally contained labor costs and steady levels of productivity growth (i.e., labor cost efficiency). Adequate supplies of raw materials should also help keep the costs of production from undue escalation. We caution, though, that as the pace of economic growth accelerates after 2008 and 2009, some increase in pricing pressures may emerge. Absent a stronger long-term business expansion than we now forecast, or a further surge in oil prices, inflation should be held in relative check through the early years of the next decade.

(unaudited)

The following graph compares the performance of The Value Line Fund, Inc. to that of the S&P 500 Index. The Value Line Fund, Inc. is a professionally managed mutual fund, while the Index is not available for investment and is unmanaged. The returns for the Index do not reflect charges, expenses or taxes but do include the reinvestment of dividends. The comparison is shown for illustrative purposes only.

Comparison of a Change in Value of a $10,000 Investment in the Value Line Fund, Inc. and the S&P 500 Index*

* The Standard and Poor's 500 Stock Index is an unmanaged index that is representative of the larger-capitalization stocks traded in the United States.

Performance Data:**

	Average Annual Total Return	Growth of an Assumed Investment of $10,000
1 year ended 12/31/07	19.50%	$ 11,950
5 years ended 12/31/07	12.33%	$ 17,882
10 years ended 12/31/07	4.15%	$ 15,012

** The performance data quoted represent past performance and are no guarantee of future performance. The average annual total returns and growth of an assumed investment of $10,000 include dividends reinvested and capital gains distributions accepted in shares. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investment, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than its original cost. The performance data and graph do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on fund distributions or the redemption of fund shares.

FUND EXPENSES (unaudited):

Example

As a shareholder of the Fund, you incur ongoing costs, including management fees; distribution and service (12b-1) fees; and other Fund expenses. This Example is intended to help you understand your ongoing costs (in dollars) of investing in the Fund and to compare these costs with the ongoing costs of investing in other mutual funds.

The Example is based on an investment of $1,000 invested at the beginning of the period and held for the entire period (July 1, 2007 through December 31, 2007).

Actual Expenses

The first line of the table below provides information about actual account values and actual expenses. You may use the information in this line, together with the amount you invested, to estimate the expenses that you paid over the period. Simply divide your account value by $1,000 (for example an $8,600 account value divided by $1,000=8.6), then multiply the result by the number in the first line under the heading Expenses Paid During Period to estimate the expenses you paid on your account during this period.

Hypothetical Example for Comparison Purposes

The second line of the table below provides information about hypothetical account values and hypothetical expenses based on the Fund's actual expense ratio and an assumed rate of return of 5% per year before expenses, which is not the Fund's actual return. The hypothetical account values and expenses may not be used to estimate the actual ending account balance or expenses you paid for the period. You may use this information to compare the ongoing costs of investing in the Fund and other funds. To do so, compare this 5% hypothetical example with the 5% hypothetical examples that appear in the shareholder reports of the other funds.

Please note that the expenses shown in the table are meant to highlight your ongoing costs only and do not reflect any transactional costs, such as sales charges (loads), redemption fees, or exchange fees. Therefore, the table is useful in comparing ongoing costs only, and will not help you determine the relative total costs of owning different funds. In addition, if transactional costs were included, your costs would have been higher.

	Beginning account value 7/1/07	Ending account value 12/31/07	Expenses* paid during period 7/1/07 thru 12/31/07
Actual	$ 1,000.00	$ 1,083.83	$ 4.20
Hypothetical (5% return before expenses)	$ 1,000.00	$ 1,021.17	$ 4.08

* Expenses are equal to the Fund's annualized expense ratio of 0.80% multiplied by the average account value over the period, multiplied by 184/365 to reflect the one-half period. This expense ratio may differ from the expense ratio shown in the Financial Highlights.

Notes to Financial Statements

1. Significant Accounting Policies

Value Line Fund, Inc. (the Fund) is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, as a diversified, open-end management investment company whose primary investment objective is long-term growth of capital.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The following is a summary of significant accounting policies consistently followed by the Fund in the preparation of its financial statements.

(A) Security Valuation. Securities listed on a securities exchange are valued at the closing sales prices on the date as of which the net asset value is being determined. Securities traded on the NASDAQ Stock Market are valued at the NASDAQ Official Closing Price. In the absence of closing sales prices for such securities and for securities traded in the over-the-counter market, the security is valued at the midpoint between the latest available and representative asked and bid prices. Short-term instruments with maturities of 60 days or less at the date of purchase are valued at amortized cost, which approximates market value. Short-term instruments with maturities greater than 60 days at the date of purchase are valued at the mid point between the latest available and representative asked and bid prices, and commencing 60 days prior to maturity such securities are valued at amortized cost. Securities for which market quotations are not readily available or that are not readily marketable and all other assets of the Fund are valued at fair value as the Board of Directors may determine in good faith. In addition, the Fund may use the fair value of a security when the closing market price on the primary exchange where the security is traded no longer accurately reflects the value of a security due to factors affecting one or more relevant securities markets or the specific issuer.

In September 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 157, Fair Value Measurements (SFAS No. 157). SFAS No. 157 defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and expands disclosure about fair value measurements. SFAS No. 157 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. Management is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of SFAS No. 157 will have on the Fund's financial statement disclosures.

(B) Repurchase Agreements. In connection with transactions in repurchase agreements, the Fund's custodian takes possession of the underlying collateral securities, the value of which exceeds the principal amount of the repurchase transaction, including accrued interest. To the extent that any repurchase transaction exceeds one business day, it is the Fund's policy to mark-to-market the collateral on a daily basis to ensure the adequacy of the collateral. In the event of default of the obligation to repurchase, the Fund has the right to liquidate the collateral and apply the proceeds in satisfaction of the obligation. Under certain circumstances, in the event of default or bankruptcy by the other party to the agreement, realization and/or retention of the collateral or proceeds may be subject to legal proceedings.

(C) Federal Income Taxes. It is the Fund's policy to comply with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to regulated investment companies, including the distribution requirements of the Tax Reform Act of 1986, and to distribute all of its taxable income to its shareholders. Therefore, no federal income tax provision is required.

In July 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes (an Interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109 (the Interpretation or FIN 48)). The Interpretation establishes for all entities, including pass-through entities such as the Fund, a minimum threshold for financial statement recognition of the benefit of positions taken in filing tax returns (including whether an entity is taxable in a particular jurisdiction), and requires certain expanded tax disclosures. The Interpretation is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006, and is to be applied to all open tax years as of the date of effectiveness. As of December 31, 2007, management has reviewed the tax positions for the tax years still subject to tax audit under the statute of limitations, evaluated the implication of FIN 48, and determined that there is no impact to the Fund's financial statements at this time.

(D) Security Transactions and Distributions. Security transactions are accounted for on the date the securities are purchased or sold. Interest income is accrued as earned. Realized gains and losses on sales of securities are calculated for financial accounting and federal income tax purposes on the identified cost basis. Dividend income and distributions to shareholders are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Distributions are determined in accordance with income tax regulations which may differ from generally accepted accounting principles.

(E) Foreign Currency Translation. The books and records of the Fund are maintained in U.S. dollars. Assets and liabilities which are denominated in foreign currencies are translated to U.S. dollars at the prevailing rates of exchange. The Fund does not isolate changes in the value of investments caused by foreign exchange rate differences from the changes due to other circumstances.

Income and expenses are translated to U.S. dollars based upon the rates of exchange on the respective dates of such transactions.

Net realized foreign exchange gains or losses arise from currency fluctuations realized between the trade and settlement dates on securities transactions, the differences between the U.S. dollar amounts of dividends, interest, and foreign withholding taxes recorded by the Fund, and the U.S. dollar equivalent of the amounts actually received or paid. Net unrealized foreign exchange gains and losses arise from changes in the value of assets and liabilities, other than investments, at the end of the fiscal period, resulting from changes in the exchange rates. The effect of the change in foreign exchange rates on the value of investments is included in realized gain/loss on investments and change in net unrealized appreciation/depreciation on investments.

(F) Representations and Indemnifications. In the normal course of business, the Fund enters into contracts that contain a variety of representations and warranties which provide general indemnifications. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown, as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Fund that have not yet occurred. However, based on experience, the Fund expects the risk of loss to be remote.

(G) Foreign Taxes. The Fund may be subject to foreign taxes on income, gains on investments, or currency repatriation, a portion of which may be recoverable. The Fund will accrue such taxes and recoveries as applicable, based upon its current interpretation of tax rules and regulations that exist in the markets in which it invests.

2. Capital Share Transactions, Dividends and Distributions to Shareholders

Transactions in capital stock were as follows:

	Year Ended December 31, 2007	Year Ended December 31, 2006
Shares sold	237,070	424,616
Shares issued to shareholders in reinvestment of dividends and distributions	2,111,782	1,309,937
	2,348,852	1,734,553
Shares repurchased	(2,315,940)	(2,180,922)
Net increase/(decrease)	32,912	(446,369)

	Year Ended December 31, 2007	Year Ended December 31, 2006
Distributions per share from net realized gains	$ 2.0136	$ 1.1869

The Value Line Fund, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

3. Purchases and Sales of Securities

Purchases and sales of investment securities, excluding short-term securities, were as follows:

	Year Ended December 31, 2007
Purchases:
Investment Securities	$418,977,163
Sales:
Investment Securities	$451,565,309

4. Income Taxes

At December 31, 2007, information on the tax components of capital is as follows:

Cost of investments for tax purposes	$ 176,781,026
Gross tax unrealized appreciation	$ 28,697,750
Gross tax unrealized depreciation	(2,400,337)
Net tax unrealized appreciation on investments	$ 26,297,413
Undistributed ordinary income	$ 2,308,197
Undistributed long-term gain	$ 1,548,132

The difference between book and tax basis unrealized appreciation/(depreciation) on investments was primarily attributed to wash sale loss deferrals.

Permanent book tax differences relating to the current year were reclassified within the composition of the net asset accounts. The Fund decreased accumulated net investment loss by $227,361 and decreased accumulated net realized gain by approximately $227,361. Net assets were not affected by this reclassification. These reclassifications were primarily due to differing treatments of net operating losses for tax purposes.

The tax composition of distributions to shareholders for the years ended December 31, 2007 and December 31, 2006 were as follows:

	2007	2006
Ordinary income	$23,180,166	$ 6,149,470

	2007	2006
Long-term capital gain	4,560,647	11,225,160
	$27,740,813	$17,374,630

5. Investment Advisory Fee, Service and Distribution Fees and Transactions With Affiliates

An advisory fee of $1,351,288 was paid or payable to Value Line, Inc., the Fund's investment adviser, (the Adviser), for the year ended December 31, 2007. This was computed at the rate of 0.70% of the first $100 million of the Fund's average daily net assets plus 0.65% on the excess thereof, and paid monthly. The Adviser provides research, investment programs, supervision of the investment portfolio and pays costs of administrative services, office space, equipment and compensation of administrative, bookkeeping and clerical personnel necessary for managing the affairs of the Fund. The Adviser also provides persons, satisfactory to the Fund's Board of Directors, to act as officers and employees of the Fund and pays their salaries and wages. Direct expenses of the Fund are charged to the Fund while common expenses of the Value Line Funds are allocated proportionately based upon the funds' respective net assets. The Fund bears all other costs and expenses.

The Fund has a Service and Distribution Plan (the Plan), adopted pursuant to Rule 12b-1 under the Investment Company Act of 1940, for the payment of certain expenses incurred by Value Line Securities, Inc. (the Distributor), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Adviser, in advertising, marketing and distributing the Fund's shares and for servicing the Fund's shareholders at an annual rate of 0.25% of the Fund's average daily net assets. For the year ended December 31, 2007, fees amounting to $500,496, before fee waivers, were accrued under the Plan. Effective August 31, 2006 the Distributor voluntarily waived the 12b-1 fee. Effective May 1, 2007, the Distributor contractually agreed to waive the Fund's 12b-1 fee for a one year period. For the year ended December 31, 2007, the fees waived amounted to $500,496. The Distributor has no right to recoup prior waivers.

For the year ended December 31, 2007, the Fund's expenses were reduced by $9,617 under a custody credit arrangement with the custodian.

Certain officers and directors of the Adviser and the Distributor are also officers and directors of the Fund.

The Adviser and/or affiliated companies and the Value Line, Inc. Profit Sharing and Savings Plan owned 552,280 shares of the Fund's capital stock, representing 3.49% of the outstanding shares at December 31, 2007. In addition, officers and directors of the Fund as a group owned 12,215 shares of the Fund, representing less than 1% of the outstanding shares.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of The Value Line Fund, Inc.

In our opinion, the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities, including the schedule of investments, and the related statements of operations and of changes in net assets and the financial highlights present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Value Line Fund, Inc. (the Fund) at December 31, 2007, the results of its operations for the year then ended, the changes in its net assets for each of the two years in the period then ended and the financial highlights for each of the five years in the period then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These financial statements and financial highlights (hereafter referred to as financial statements ) are the responsibility of the Fund's management; our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits of these financial statements in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits, which included confirmation of securities at December 31, 2007 by correspondence with the custodian and brokers, provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.
