Renewal of Continuing Connected Transactions

Summary

The Agreements, which are entered into between the Company and/or its subsidiaries and China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its other subsidiaries, have been renewed on December 30, 2004.

As China Telecommunications Corporation is the Company's controlling shareholder (such term as defined under the Hong Kong Listing Rules), the transactions contemplated under the Agreements constitute continuing connected transactions of the Company for the purposes of Chapter 14A of the Hong Kong Listing Rules. As each of the percentage ratios (other than the profits ratio) of each of the transactions contemplated under the Agreements is, on an annual basis, less than 2.5%, they therefore fall under Rule 14A.34 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules. Accordingly, the Company is subject to the reporting and announcement requirements set out under Rules 14A.45 to 14A.47 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules in respect of the Agreements, but is exempt from the requirements of independent shareholders' approval under the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Introduction

Reference is made to the Announcement, in which the Company announced that the Company and/or its subsidiaries have entered into, among others, the following agreements with China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its other subsidiaries:

1. the Centralized Services Agreement;
2. the Comprehensive Services Agreement;

3. the Property Leasing Agreements;
4. the Property Sub-leasing Agreements;
5. the IT Services Agreements; and
6. the Equipment Procurement Agreements.

As disclosed in the Announcement, the Company will, upon any variation or renewal of the Agreements, comply in full with all applicable requirements set out in Chapter 14A of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Each of the Agreements has a term expiring on December 31, 2004, which will be renewed for further periods of one year unless it is terminated in accordance with its provisions.

On December 30, 2004, the Agreements have been renewed in accordance with their respective provisions.

Connection between the parties

As the Agreements are entered into between the Company and/or its subsidiaries and China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its other subsidiaries, and as China Telecommunications Corporation is the Company's controlling shareholder (such term as defined under the Hong Kong Listing Rules), the transactions contemplated under the Agreements constitute continuing connected transactions of the Company for the purpose of Chapter 14A of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

The Agreements

The Agreements have been automatically renewed, and the substance of the terms of each Agreement has remained unchanged. We will not be setting out in this announcement the commercial background of, and reasons for such Agreements, which are detailed in the Announcement.

Centralized Services Agreement

The Centralized Services Agreement relates to the provision of centralized services, such as the Company's provision of management business to customers of China Telecommunications Corporation, and the Company's use of international telecommunications facilities of China Telecommunications Corporation. It was entered into between the Company and China Telecommunications Corporation on September 10, 2002, and was subsequently supplemented by supplemental agreements dated October 26, 2003 and April 13, 2004. It has a term of one year ending on December 31, 2004, upon which it will be renewed for further periods of one year unless the Company provides three months' written notification to China Telecommunications Corporation of its intention not to renew.

The apportionment of the aggregate costs for the provision of management business is pro rata in accordance with the revenues generated by each party. The apportionment of costs incurred for the use of international telecommunications facilities is pro rata in accordance with the volume of international calls handled by each party.

Comprehensive Services Agreement

The Comprehensive Services Agreement relates to the provision of comprehensive services by China Telecommunications Corporation to the Company, including the procurement of telecommunications equipment such as optic fibers, network designs, software upgrade, system integration, manufacture of calling cards and so on. It will expire on December 31, 2004, and will be renewed for further periods of one year unless terminated by either party with at least three months' written notification to the other party.

The comprehensive services under the Comprehensive Services Agreement are provided at:

1. the government prescribed prices;

Edgar Filing: CHINA TELECOM CORP LTD - Form 6-K

2. where there are no government prescribed prices but where there are government guided prices, the government guided prices;
3. where there are no government prescribed prices nor government guided prices, the market price, which is the price at which the same type of comprehensive services are provided by Independent Third Parties in the ordinary course of business; and
4. where none of the above is applicable, the price to be agreed between the parties, which shall be the reasonable costs incurred in providing such services, together with a reasonable profit margin.

A-2

Property Leasing Agreements

Certain subsidiaries of the Company and certain subsidiaries of China Telecommunications Corporation entered into the Property Leasing Agreements from October 2002 to April 2004, in relation to the lease of properties by the former to the latter, and vice versa. Each Property Leasing Agreement will expire on December 31, 2004, and will be renewed for further periods of one year, unless the relevant subsidiary of the Company provides three months' written notification to the relevant subsidiary of China Telecommunications Corporation of its intention not to renew.

The rental charge in respect of the property which is subject to each Property Leasing Agreement is determined based on market rates, with reference to amounts stipulated by local price bureaus, taking into consideration the specific needs of the PRC telecommunications industry. The rental charges under each Property Leasing Agreement is subject to review each year.

Property Sub-leasing Agreements

Certain subsidiaries of the Company and certain subsidiaries of China Telecommunications Corporation entered into the Property Sub-leasing Agreements from October 2002 to April 2004, in relation to the sub-lease of properties, which have been leased by the latter from Independent Third Parties, to the former. Each Property Sub-leasing Agreement will expire on December 31, 2004, and will be renewed for further periods of one year, unless the relevant subsidiary of the Company provides three months' written notification to the relevant subsidiary of China Telecommunications Corporation of its intention not to renew.

Under each Property Sub-leasing Agreement, the amounts payable by the relevant subsidiary of the Company is equivalent to the rental charges payable by the relevant subsidiary of China Telecommunications Corporation to the relevant Independent Third Party, which are based on market rates and negotiated on an arm's length basis.

IT Services Agreements

Certain subsidiaries of the Company and certain subsidiaries of China Telecommunications Corporation entered into the IT Services Agreements from October 2002 to April 2004, in relation to the provision of certain information technology services, such as office automation and software adjustment, by the latter to the former. Each IT Service Agreement will expire on December 31, 2004, and will be renewed for further periods of one year, unless the relevant subsidiary of the Company provides three months' written notification to the relevant subsidiary of China Telecommunications Corporation of its intention not to renew.

The relevant subsidiary of China Telecommunications Corporation has the right to participate in the bidding for the right to provide the relevant subsidiary of the Company with services under a particular IT Services Agreement, and the charges payable are determined by reference to market rates as reflected by prices obtained through the tender process. A-3

2. in respect of domestic telecommunications equipment and other domestic non-telecommunications materials, 3% of the contract value."Annual Caps

We set out below the maximum aggregate annual values (the Annual Caps) for the year ending December 31, 2004, which had been previously disclosed in the Announcement, together with the Annual Caps for the year ending December 31, 2005, for each of the transactions contemplated under the Agreements:

In addition to the aforesaid, the adjustments made to the Annual Caps for the year ending December 31, 2005 (as compared to the Annual Caps for the year ending December 31, 2004) are partly due to the change in the composition of the Company's connected persons upon completion of the Acquisition. The Board (including the independent non-executive directors of the Company) is of the view that the Agreements have been entered into in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Group, that they are (i) on normal commercial terms; or (ii) should there be no comparable terms, on such terms which shall be no less favorable than that provided to Independent Third Parties or (if applicable) that provided by Independent Third Parties, that they have been implemented in accordance with the terms contained therein, and that they are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company's shareholders as a whole.

As each of the percentage ratios (other than the profits ratio) of each of the transactions contemplated under the Agreements is, on an annual basis, less than 2.5%, they therefore fall under Rule 14A.34 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules. Accordingly, the Company is subject to the reporting and announcement requirements set out under Rules 14A.45 to 14A.47 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules in respect of the Agreements, but is exempt from the requirements of independent shareholders' approval under Chapter 14A of the Hong Kong Listing Rules. Details of the Agreements will be disclosed in the Company's next published annual report and accounts, as required under Rule 14A.46 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.
