Corvex and Related Comment on Commonwealth REIT's Inaccurate Disclosure

NEW YORK, April 1, 2014 Corvex Management LP and Related Fund Management, LLC, whose separately managed investment funds collectively own approximately 9.6% of the outstanding shares of Commonwealth REIT (NYSE:CWH), today commented on Commonwealth's inaccurate disclosure in its Form 8-K filed yesterday.

We are disappointed by the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by the officers of Commonwealth REIT yesterday. In the filing, signed by John C. Popeo, Commonwealth's current Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer, Commonwealth describes a letter received from The New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) describing certain deficiencies in meeting various listing standards as a result of the decision of the holders of over 81% of the outstanding shares to remove the entire Board of Trustees. Mr. Popeo goes on to note that the NYSE has also notified the Company that if the above deficiencies are not cured by April 2, 2014, the Company will be deemed noncompliant and the NYSE will disseminate a below compliance indicator for the Company on April 4, 2014.

But conspicuously absent from the filing is any mention of correspondence previously received by Commonwealth's counsel from the NYSE informing Commonwealth that the NYSE does not intend to delist CWH as long as a special meeting to elect new Trustees is held within a timeframe reasonably consistent with the date previously proposed by Commonwealth, or May 23, 2014. This communication, which is reproduced below, was used by Commonwealth only last Thursday to support its argument before the Arbitration Panel that there was no need to accelerate the special meeting to a date earlier than the May 23rd date proposed by Commonwealth. In addition to attaching the correspondence reproduced below, Commonwealth's counsel represented to the Arbitration Panel that [t]he NYSE has confirmed it does not intend to delist CWH if it uses the May 23 date [as the date of the special meeting].

In light of the delayed timeframe Commonwealth has proposed for holding the special meeting, we urge Commonwealth's officers to communicate accurately with its shareholders, particularly when referencing sensitive matters such as the Company's listing status during its transition to a new Board.

We also urge Commonwealth and its advisors to complete by close of business today the filing of their preliminary information statement with the SEC and accelerate completion of the special meeting to elect a new Board. We are highly confident that regulators, including the SEC, will cooperate with the Company to make sure that a definitive information statement can be filed and disseminated to shareholders as early as the end of this week.

The text of the correspondence, dated March 25, 2014, between Commonwealth's counsel and the Staff of the NYSE, follows:

Margaret,

Thanks for the update. We will need to designate the company as below compliance during the period prior to the election of the new board and will send a letter to that effect that will trigger an 8-K filing requirement. Typically, we give companies a reasonable period of time to correct any defects in their board structure. Given CWH's intention of holding a meeting to elect a new board as soon as possible, this unusual situation should have no further implications for the company's listing status as long as it takes action within a timeframe reasonably consistent with that proposed in the release. I am copying [REDACTED], the vice president in charge of our continued listing compliance program as [REDACTED] staff will need to liaise with the company on this issue.

Regards,

[REDACTED], Please see attached press release that is being issued by Commonwealth REIT this morning. CWH is providing this announcement to the NYSE directly. This is a courtesy copy, as I have previously discussed the status of the consent solicitation to remove CWH's Board with you. CWH will also provide a letter to the NYSE Corporate Compliance Department later today.

Thank you,

Margaret
