Item 8.01 Other Events

On July 16, 2015, Asta Funding, Inc. (the Company) made a payment to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) of approximately $13.0 million in anticipation of the conclusion of the examination by the IRS and in accordance with their notice of proposed adjustment, for the fiscal tax years ended September 30, 2009 through September 30, 2013. The adjustment is the result of a change in the accounting method used for income recognition for income tax purposes. Apart from the change in accounting method for income tax purposes, there were no other material disallowances or adjustments to other items of income, deductions, and credits to the tax returns under examination. Since the adjustment proposed by the IRS is a temporary difference and its related tax benefit is expected to be recognized in future tax years, the payment has been classified as a deferred tax asset. The payment does not include approximately $500,000 of interest related to the tax year of the IRS adjustment, September 30, 2013. The Company will be amending its Federal Tax Return for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2014, to reflect the new accounting method for income tax purposes. The Company anticipates it will recognize a portion of the deferred tax benefit in the September 30, 2014 tax year. There is no state and local tax liability as a result of the Federal tax examination.

The information in this Item 8.01 of the Current Report is being furnished and shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act) or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that Section, or incorporated by reference into the filings under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.
