- (a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;

10-Q, or portion thereof will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and

- (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K, 11-K, 20-F, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period. (Attach extra sheets if needed)

Additional time will be needed for the Registrant to complete the preparation of its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002. The extension is needed to permit the Registrant to complete its analysis of the deferred and current tax accounts and to restate its financial statements for prior years. In addition, since Arthur Andersen was Registrant's previous accountants and are not in a position to audit the restatement, Registrant's new independent accountants will need to re-audit the financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000. This analysis was undertaken in connection with the Registrant's deferred tax study in 2002 which spans over a period of 20 years. As a result of this study, the Registrant has preliminarily identified a cumulative total of approximately $4.5 million of previously recognized current and deferred tax expense which should not have been recognized in 2001 and earlier periods. Registrant expects to report a corresponding reduction in taxes on income for prior periods presented along with an increase in beginning retained earnings in 2000.

The Registrant currently plans to file its Form 10-K by the 15th calendar day following the prescribed due date of the Form 10-K, as contemplated by Rule 12b-25(b) (2).

The Registrant is in the process of confirming the effect of its analysis described in Part III above on its current and deferred tax accounts for all periods presented. In its release dated February 26, 2003, the Registrant announced total operating income for its year ended December 31, 2002 of $37.6 million, compared to $36.7 million for its year ended December 31, 2001, and net income for 2002 of $20.3 million, or $1.34 per diluted share, compared to net income of $20.4 million, or $1.33 per diluted share, for 2001. These amounts do not give effect to any adjustment resulting from the completion of the analysis described in Part III above and will change to the extent there are adjustments to taxes on income for the year ended December 31, 2001 and prior thereto.
