Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On March 5, 2014, The Boeing Company (the “Company”) made certain amendments to the Company’s Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan, or SERP, pursuant to which eligible participants (generally, employees hired before 2009, which includes the Company’s named executive officers) will cease to accrue pension benefits under the SERP effective December 31, 2015. Plan participants affected by this change will instead transition to a new defined contribution benefit, effective January 1, 2016. Also, on March 5, 2014, the Company made certain amendments to the Company’s Supplemental Benefit Plan, or SBP, to reflect the new defined contribution benefit. This defined contribution benefit will consist of additional company contributions to the Company’s Voluntary Investment Plan, or VIP, and/or the SBP, as applicable, totaling 9%, 8% and 7% of eligible earnings for 2016, 2017 and 2018, respectively. Thereafter, participants will generally receive the same company contributions to the VIP and SBP as those hired after 2008. The Defined Contribution SERP benefit under the SBP will also be extended, effective January 1, 2016, to certain executives hired before 2009 in the form of an additional contribution equal to 5% of eligible earnings plus, for those participants who are 55 or over, an incremental amount (payable for seven years) based on years of service. The foregoing description of the amendments to the SERP and SBP, which are effective as of March 1, 2014, is qualified in its entirety by reference to the amended and restated SERP and SBP. Copies of the amended and restated SERP and SBP are filed as Exhibit 10.1 and Exhibit 10.2, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.
