Revoking Your Proxy

You may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted at the Special Meeting. To do this, you must:

- enter a new vote over the Internet or by telephone, or by signing and returning a replacement proxy card;
- provide written notice by March 16, 2017 of the revocation to our Corporate Secretary at our principal executive offices, which are located at 12300 North Grant Street, Thornton, Colorado 80241; or
- attend the Special Meeting and vote in person.

Quorum and Voting Requirements

Stockholders of record at the close of business on January 23, 2017 are entitled to receive notice and vote at the meeting. On the record date, there were 1,543,271,232 issued and outstanding shares of our common stock. Each holder of our common stock voting at the meeting, either in person or by proxy, may cast one vote per share of common stock held on each of the matters to be voted on at the meeting.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business at the meeting. Assuming that a quorum is present, the following table summarizes the voting requirements to approve each proposal:

Proposal	Vote Required	Broker Discretionary Voting Allowed
Proposal No. 1 – To approve a Certificate of Amendment to the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of the Company's common stock from 2,000,000,000 to 20,000,000,000 (the "Authorized Share Increase").	The affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock.	Yes
Proposal No. 2 – To authorize an adjournment of the Special Meeting, if necessary, if a quorum is present, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the Authorized Share Increase (the "Adjournment Proposal").	The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of common stock present in person or by proxy at the Special Meeting.	Yes

Table of Contents

Votes cast by proxy or in person at the meeting will be tabulated by the election inspectors appointed for the meeting. Such inspectors will also determine whether a quorum is present. The election inspectors will treat abstentions as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but as unvoted for purposes of determining the approval of any matter submitted to the stockholders for a vote. Accordingly, abstentions will have the same effect as a vote “AGAINST” Proposal No. 1 and “AGAINST” Proposal No. 2.

If your shares are held in street name and you do not instruct your broker on how to vote your shares, your brokerage firm, in its discretion, is permitted to either leave your shares unvoted or vote your shares on matters that are considered routine. The Company believes that each of Proposal No. 1 and Proposal No. 2 will be considered a routine matter. Consequently, without your voting instructions, your brokerage firm will be able to vote your shares on Proposal No. 1 and Proposal No. 2 in its discretion.

Any such unvoted shares, called “broker non-votes,” refer to shares held by brokers who have not received voting instructions from their clients and who do not have discretionary authority to vote on non-routine matters. Broker non-votes will not be counted as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. Assuming that a quorum is present, broker non-votes (if any) will have the same effect as a vote “AGAINST” Proposal No. 1 at the Special Meeting. Assuming that a quorum is present, broker non-votes (if any) will have no effect on the approval of Proposal No. 2 at the Special Meeting.

Voting of Proxies

When a proxy is properly executed and returned, the shares it represents will be voted at the Special Meeting as directed. If no specification is indicated, the shares will be voted:

- “FOR” Proposal No. 1 to approve a Certificate of Amendment to the Company’s Amended and Restated Certificate (1) of Incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of the Company’s common stock from 2,000,000,000 to 20,000,000,000; and
 - (2) “FOR” Proposal No. 2 to authorize an adjournment of the Special Meeting, if necessary, if a quorum is present, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the Authorized Share Increase; and
 - (3) at the discretion of your proxies on any other matter that may be properly brought before the Special Meeting.

CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This proxy statement contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended, that are based on expectations, estimates and projections as of the date of this Proxy Statement. These forward-looking statements include but are not limited to statements and information concerning statements regarding:

the potential dilution of current shareholders of the Company if the Authorized Share Increase is approved and the Company issues shares of common stock upon conversion of its outstanding convertible notes and convertible preferred stock;

the market’s near and long term reaction to the Authorized Share Increase; and statements regarding our intention to engage in future equity transactions, each as further provided and described below.

Any statements that involve discussions with respect to predictions, expectations, beliefs, plans, projections, objectives, assumptions or future events or performance (often but not always using phrases such as “expects” or “does not expect”, “is expected”, “anticipates” or “does not anticipate”, “plans”, “budget”, “scheduled”, “forecasts”, “estimates”, “believes” or “intends” or variations of such words and phrases or stating that certain actions, events or results “may”, “could”, “would”, “might” or “will” be taken, will occur or be achieved) are not statements of historical fact and may be forward-looking statements and are intended to identify forward-looking statements.

These forward-looking statements are based on the beliefs of the management of the Company as well as on assumptions that such management believes to be reasonable, based on information currently available at the time such statements were made. However, there can be no assurance that forward-looking statements will prove to be accurate.

By their nature, forward-looking statements are based on assumptions and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of the Company to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are subject to a variety of risks, uncertainties and other factors which could cause actual events or results to differ from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements, including, without limitation:

potential future decreases in the price of our common stock due to, among other things, the issuance of shares of common stock upon the conversion of our outstanding convertible preferred stock and convertible notes causing dilution of the common stock, the announcement of the Authorized Share Increase, our inability to make our common stock more attractive to a broader range of institutional or other investors, as a result of, among other things, investors viewing the Authorized Share Increase negatively or due to future financial results, market conditions, the market perception of our business, our inability to increase revenues and reduce costs or other factors adversely affecting the market price of our common stock, notwithstanding the Authorized Share Increase or otherwise;

unanticipated negative reactions to the Authorized Share Increase or unanticipated circumstances or results that could negatively affect interest in our common stock by the investment community; or general business, economic, and competitive uncertainties.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

We have recently engaged in two investment transactions which have significantly impacted (i) the number of our common shares which are currently outstanding and (ii) the number of our common shares which we may issue in the future.

Tertius Common Stock Private Placement

On January 19, 2017, we issued 333,333,333 shares of unregistered common stock in a private placement to Tertius Financial Group Pte. Ltd. (“Tertius”). Tertius is a Singapore based entity controlled and 50% owned by our President and CEO, Victor Lee. The shares issued to Tertius represented approximately 24% of our outstanding shares of common stock on a post transaction basis. There are no registration rights associated with this transaction.

We issued the 333,333,333 common shares to Tertius in exchange Tertius canceling its $600,000 promissory note (including accrued interest of approximately $4,340) that was issued by the Company to Tertius on December 6, 2016. The consideration paid by Tertius represented an effective price of $0.00181 per share, which was an approximate 14% discount to the last sale price on the OTCQB market of $0.0021 on January 18, 2017.

Table of Contents

Our Board approved this transaction because it believed that the terms were attractive and fair to the Company. The transaction decreased the Company's outstanding debt and involved the issuance of shares at a fixed, rather than a variable, price. The transaction also reflected a long-term investment commitment of our CEO, due to the fact that there are no registration rights associated with these shares and future sales of these shares into the public markets will be subject to significant limitations due to (i) the affiliation of Tertius with our CEO and (ii) Tertius' status as a greater than 10% stockholder of the Company.

Lastly, by issuing common shares rather than a convertible security, Tertius will have full voting rights with respect to its investment. The 333,333,333 shares currently owned by Tertius will be entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. Tertius has indicated that at the Special Meeting it intends to vote for the increase to the number of our authorized common shares.

Hong Kong Boone Group Series K Preferred Stock Private Placement

On February 8, 2017, we entered into securities purchase agreement with Hong Kong Boone Group Limited ("Boone"). Boone is multinational industrial group of companies that specializes in industrial control system integration and hydraulic pressure systems. Boone is part of the larger Boone Group of industrial companies, with headquarters based in Guangzhou City, China. Among other activities, Boone Group specializes in the procurement, planning, installation and ongoing maintenance of on-grid solar farm projects in China.

Under the agreement, we will privately place up to $20,000,000 of our newly designated Series K Convertible Preferred Stock ("Series K Preferred Stock"). We will sell 1,000 shares of Series K Preferred Stock to Boone in exchange for $1,000,000 of gross proceeds on or before each of (i) February 24, 2017, (ii) March 27, 2017, (iii) April 27, 2017, (iv) May 27, 2017 and (v) June 27, 2017. We will sell 15,000 shares of Series K Preferred Stock to Boone in exchange for $15,000,000 of gross proceeds on or before July 27, 2017. The closing of this tranche is conditioned upon the Company and Boone agreeing to mutually satisfactory restrictions providing that Company's use of such $15,000,000 proceeds shall be limited to $1,000,000 per month. There are no registration rights applicable to the Series K Preferred Stock.

Shares of the Series K Preferred Stock will be convertible at the option of the holder into common stock at a fixed conversion price equal to $0.004. This fixed conversion price represented an approximate 74% premium to the last sale price on the OTCQB market of $0.0023 on February 7, 2017.

Table of Contents

At no time may the Series K Preferred Stock be converted if the number of shares of common stock to be received by the holder pursuant to such conversion, when aggregated with all other shares of common stock then beneficially (or deemed beneficially) owned by the holder, would result in the holder beneficially owning more than 19.99% of all common stock then outstanding.

Our Board approved this transaction because it believed that the terms were attractive and fair to the Company. The transaction involves the issuance of convertible securities with a fixed conversion price rather than a variable conversion price. The fixed conversion price was at a significant premium to our current stock price. The transaction also reflected a long-term investment commitment of Boone, due to the fact that there are no registration rights associated with these securities and future sales of the common shares underlying the Series K Preferred Stock into the public markets will be subject to significant limitations due to Boone's status as a greater than 10% beneficial stockholder of the Company.

PROPOSAL NO. 1:

APPROVAL OF AN AMENDMENT TO THE COMPANY'S AMENDED
AND RESTATED CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF AUTHORIZED SHARES OF THE COMPANY'S COMMON STOCK

Overview

Our Board of Directors has adopted, declared advisable and is submitting for stockholder approval an amendment to our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of our common stock from 2,000,000,000 to 20,000,000,000.

Background

Significant Increase in Outstanding Shares; Previous Reverse Stock Split; Recent Authorized Share Increase

During the past 12 months, the Company has needed the ability to issue extremely large amounts of common stock in order to raise capital to fund ongoing operations. In order to enable the Company to issue such large amounts of common stock:

- on June 1, 2016, the Company implemented a one-for-twenty reverse common stock split, which reverse split reduced the number of our outstanding common shares but which did not reduce the number of our authorized shares of common stock; and
- on August 15, 2016, the Company amended its certificate of incorporation to increase its number of authorized shares of common stock from 450 million to 2 billion.

These measures enabled the Company to issue a large number of shares of common stock in accordance with the terms of our issued and outstanding convertible securities. These measures also enabled the Company to conduct several private placements of newly issued convertible and non-convertible securities in order to raise additional capital for operations. Conversions of our outstanding convertible securities by the holders of such securities resulted in the very substantial dilution of stockholders over the course of the last 12 months.

Table of Contents

The very large number of shares of common stock issued over the past year is due primarily to the following factors:

- The conversion price of many of our outstanding convertible securities being variable rather than fixed.
- The conversion price of many of our outstanding convertible securities being set at a discount to the Company's then current per share trading market price on the date of the conversion. Certain of the conversion price formulas contained in the Company's convertible securities being changed at various times pursuant to (i) adjustment or default provisions contained in the terms of the convertible securities or (ii) negotiated agreements between the Company and the holder of the convertible securities. These changes resulted in conversion price formulas that were more favorable to the holders of the convertible securities and more dilutive to stockholders generally.
- The continued decline in the price of the Company's shares of common stock throughout the past year. The decline was especially severe in the months immediately following the Company's June 1, 2016 reverse stock split. The conversion of large amounts of the Company's outstanding convertible securities into common stock by the holders of such securities at increasingly lower conversion prices which occurred throughout the period as our stock price declined. The sale of large amounts of common stock into the public markets by the holders of our convertible securities following such conversions. Such sales of large amounts of common stock into the public markets increased the downward pressure on the Company's stock price.
- The issuance of 333,333,333 shares of unregistered common stock in a private placement to Tertius on January 19, 2017.

The issuance of large amounts of common stock pursuant to the Company's variable-priced convertible securities and other market factors resulted in a rapid decline in the market price of our common stock. This decline in market price resulted in a greater number of shares of common stock being issued to settle conversion of many of these convertible securities. This downward pressure on our stock price was amplified by the effect of the reverse stock split in June 2016.

The following table summarizes as of various dates over the past year (i) the number of our issued and outstanding common shares, (ii) the number of our authorized common shares, and (iii) our stock price.

Current Commitments to Issue Shares of Common Stock

As of February 22, 2017, we had 2,000,000,000 shares of common stock authorized for issuance under our Certificate of Incorporation, of which 1,897,791,791 shares of our common stock were outstanding. As described below,

we may issue large amounts of additional shares as follows in connection with our existing outstanding convertible securities and our existing compensation plans:

- 672,208 shares of common stock for issuance in connection with our various employee benefit and compensation plans;
- 145,331,634 shares of common stock for issuance in connection with the conversion of the Company's Series A preferred stock; (1) (2)
- 50,110 shares of common stock for issuance in connection with the exercise of outstanding rights to acquire common stock issued to certain investors;
- 81,941,667 shares of common stock for issuance in connection with the conversion of the Company's outstanding Series E preferred stock; (1) (2)

- 697,995,633 shares of common stock for issuance in connection with the conversion of the Company's outstanding Series G preferred stock; (1) (2)
- 150,188,704 shares of common stock for issuance in connection with the conversion of the Company's outstanding Series J and Series J-1 preferred stock; (2)
- 1,973,462,905 shares of common stock for issuance in connection with the conversion of the Company's outstanding secured and unsecured convertible notes; (1) (2) and
- 5,000,000,000 shares of common stock for issuance in connection with the conversion of the Company's Series K preferred stock (none of which are currently outstanding) which may be issued under the Company's recent securities purchase agreement with Boone which was announced February 14, 2017. (2)

The share amounts shown as being potentially issuable are current estimates. The amount of shares that would actually be issued by the Company could be less or more than the amounts shown based upon a number of factors, including the then current trading market price for the Company's common stock. These convertible securities have a variable conversion price that is based upon a discount to the Company's common stock trading price as of the (1) time of conversion. Accordingly, the number of potentially issuable shares will increase or decrease, respectively, as the trading market price for the common stock decreases or increases. The estimated amounts shown above have been calculated assuming that common stock would be issued by the Company (in accordance with and after giving effect to various discounted and other applicable pricing provisions of the applicable contracts) as of February 22, 2017.

Table of Contents

The share amounts shown above also assume the maximum number of common shares that could be issued under the applicable contracts. The applicable contracts contain a number of ownership cap restrictions that limit the numbers of shares that could be issued in any particular time period or under any particular set of circumstances. The share estimates above do not give effect to those contractual restrictions.

Using the assumptions described above, we could be required to issue up to 8,172,817,464 additional shares of common stock pursuant to our existing plans, securities and contracts.

Terms of Currently Outstanding Convertible Securities

As described above, the Company has significant amounts of outstanding convertible securities. Many of these convertible securities have a variable conversion price that is based upon a discount to the Company's common stock trading price as of the time of conversion. The following table summarizes the conversion price terms applicable to the Company's existing convertible securities.

Purpose of the Authorized Share Increase

The Board is recommending this increase in authorized shares of common stock primarily to give the Company appropriate flexibility to issue shares in the future. The additional shares would provide the Company greater flexibility to settle our obligations under our outstanding convertible notes and outstanding convertible preferred stock by allowing us to issue shares rather than make payments in cash. The additional shares would also permit the Company to issue shares for general corporate purposes and to provide for future corporate needs. The shares may be issued by the Board in its discretion, subject to any further stockholder action required in the case of any particular issuance by applicable law, regulatory agency, or under the rules of any stock exchange or stock market on which the Company's common stock is then listed or traded.

The newly authorized shares of common stock would be issuable for any proper corporate purpose, including issuances of shares (rather than cash payments) to settle our obligations on our outstanding convertible notes and outstanding convertible preferred stock, future acquisitions, investment opportunities, capital raising transactions of equity or convertible debt securities, stock splits, stock dividends, issuance under current or future equity compensation plans, employee stock plans and savings plans or for other corporate purposes.

Other than issuing shares (in lieu of making cash payments) on our existing convertible notes and existing convertible preferred stock, there are no immediate agreements, plans, arrangements, commitments or understandings with respect to issuance of any of the additional shares of common stock that would be authorized by the proposed amendment. However, the Board believes that these additional shares will provide the Company with needed ability to issue shares in the future to take advantage of market conditions or favorable opportunities without the potential expense or delay incident to obtaining stockholder approval for a particular issuance.

If the Authorized Share Increase is approved it will increase the number of shares of common stock available for issuance to settle our outstanding convertible notes and convertible preferred stock. Absent the availability of shares of common stock, the Company would be forced to settle the convertible notes by payment of the outstanding principal and accrued interest in cash, if available. Further, the Company would be forced to redeem outstanding shares of convertible preferred stock for cash. If the Company does not have sufficient cash to make such payments on the outstanding convertible notes and outstanding convertible preferred stock, the Company would be unable to continue operations if it cannot otherwise negotiate the settlement of such obligations.

For this reason, the Board determined that the Authorized Share Increase would give the Company greater flexibility in settling these securities by increasing the number of shares of common stock available for issuance.

Since inception, we have incurred losses and anticipate that we will continue to incur losses for the foreseeable future. To fund ongoing operations, therefore, we will need to rely on additional financings of our equity and convertible debt securities. If the Authorized Share Increase is not approved by our stockholders, our future financing alternatives will be severely limited by the lack of unissued and unreserved authorized shares of common stock. If the Company does not have unissued and unreserved authorized shares of common stock sufficient to facilitate future offerings of our equity and convertible debt securities, the Company may be unable to raise the amount of working capital needed to continue operations.

In addition, our success depends in part on our continued ability to attract, retain and motivate highly qualified management and operations personnel, and if the Authorized Share Increase is not approved by our stockholders, the lack of unissued and unreserved authorized shares of common stock to provide future equity incentive opportunities that the Compensation Committee of our Board deems appropriate could adversely impact our ability to achieve these goals. In short, the Board believes approval of this Proposal 1 is important to access the capital markets, attract, retain and motivate employees, and pursue other business opportunities integral to our growth and success.

The Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation also authorizes the issuance of 25,000,000 shares of preferred stock. The proposed amendment does not increase the number of shares of preferred stock that the Company is authorized to issue.

Rights of Additional Authorized Shares

The additional authorized shares of common stock, if and when issued, would be part of the existing class of common stock and would have the same rights and privileges as the shares of common stock currently outstanding. Generally, our stockholders do not have preemptive rights with respect to our common stock. Accordingly, should the Board elect to issue additional shares of common stock, existing stockholders would not have any preferential rights to purchase the shares. We, however, have entered into agreements with several investors which grant such investors certain preemptive rights to purchase our securities.

Potential Risks and Adverse Effects of the Authorized Share Increase

Future issuances of common stock or securities convertible into common stock will have a significant dilutive effect on the earnings per share, book value per share, voting power and percentage interest of holdings of current stockholders. If the Authorized Share Increase is approved, our stockholders will experience significant dilution as a result of shares of common stock being issued pursuant to our outstanding convertible notes and outstanding convertible preferred stock. Further, due to our need to raise additional capital in order to fund continuing operations, our stockholders will also experience significant dilution as a result of shares of common stock being issued in connection with future financings that the Company may complete.

The Board cannot predict the effect of the Authorized Share Increase upon the market price for our shares of common stock.

The Authorized Share Increase will dramatically increase the number of authorized shares of common stock. A large amount of available shares of common stock could have adverse consequences, including but not limited to if the price of our common stock continues to decrease, the number of shares of common stock required to settle our convertible notes and our convertible preferred stock will continue to increase, and we may be required to issue a large number of shares of common stock to settle such conversions, which could massively dilute current stockholders, or if we run out of available authorized shares of common stock, we could be forced to make large cash payments, for which we may not have sufficient available capital.

Possible Anti-Takeover Implications of the Authorized Share Increase

The Company has no intent or plan to employ the additional unissued authorized shares as an anti-takeover device. As indicated above, the purpose of the Authorized Share Increase is to ensure that we have sufficient authorized common stock to, among other things, consummate future equity and convertible debt financings. However, the Company's authorized but unissued shares of common stock could be issued in one or more transactions that could make a change of control more difficult and therefore more unlikely.

Table of Contents

Our Board did not propose the Authorized Share Increase in response to any effort known to our Board to accumulate common stock or to obtain control of the Company by means of a merger, tender offer or solicitation in opposition to management. Further, our Board does not currently contemplate recommending the adoption of any other amendments to our Certificate of Incorporation that could be construed as limiting the ability of third parties to take over or effect a change of control.

The issuance in the future of additional authorized shares of common stock may have the effect of diluting the earnings or loss per share and book value per share, as well as the ownership and voting rights of the holders of our then-outstanding shares of common stock. In addition, an increase in the number of authorized but unissued shares of common stock may have a potential anti-takeover effect, as our ability to issue additional shares could be used to thwart persons, or otherwise dilute the stock ownership of stockholders, seeking to control us. The Authorized Share Increase is not being recommended by our Board as part of an anti-takeover strategy.

Effectiveness of the Authorized Shares Increase and Required Vote

If the proposed amendment is adopted, it will become effective upon the filing of a certificate of amendment to our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. The adoption of this amendment requires the approval of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock.

Form of the Authorized Share Increase

If stockholders approve this Proposal No. 1, the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation will be amended to increase the number of shares of common stock the Company is authorized to issue from 2,000,000,000 to 20,000,000,000. The par value of the common stock will remain at $0.0001 per share. The amendment would amend the first sentence of Article 4 of the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation to read in its entirety as follows:

“The total number of shares of all classes of stock that the Corporation shall have authority to issue is twenty billion (20,000,000,000) shares of common stock, having a par value of $0.0001 per share, and twenty-five million (25,000,000) shares of preferred stock, having a par value of $0.0001 per share.”

The remaining text of Article 4 of the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation will remain unchanged. The form of the amendment is attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix A.

ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL

Overview

If at the Special Meeting the number of shares of common stock present or represented and voting in favor of the Authorized Share Increase is insufficient to approve the Authorized Share Increase, management may move to adjourn, postpone or continue the Special Meeting in order to enable the Board to continue to solicit additional proxies in favor of the Authorized Share Increase.

In this Adjournment Proposal, we are asking you to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by the Board to vote in favor of adjourning, postponing or continuing the Special Meeting and any later adjournments. If the stockholders approve the Adjournment Proposal, we could adjourn, postpone or continue the Special Meeting, and any adjourned session of the Special Meeting, to use the additional time to solicit additional proxies in favor of the Authorized Share Increase. Among other things, approval of the Adjournment Proposal could mean that, even if proxies representing a sufficient number of votes against the Authorized Share Increase have been received, we could adjourn, postpone or continue the Special Meeting without a vote on the Authorized Share Increase and seek to convince the holders of those shares to change their votes to votes in favor of the Authorized Share Increase.

Required Vote

The Adjournment Proposal will be approved if a majority of the shares of common stock present in person or by proxy at the Special Meeting votes FOR the proposal. Accordingly, abstentions, if any, will be counted as votes AGAINST the Adjournment Proposal. No proxy that is specifically marked AGAINST the Authorized Share Increase will be voted in favor of the Adjournment Proposal, unless it is specifically marked FOR the discretionary authority to adjourn, postpone or continue the Special Meeting to a later date.

Recommendation

The Board believes that if the number of shares of common stock present or represented at the Special Meeting and voting in favor of the Authorized Share Increase is insufficient to approve such proposals, it is in the best interests of the stockholders to enable the Board, for a limited period of time, to continue to seek to obtain a sufficient number of additional votes to approve the amendment.
