Item 8.01 Other Events.

Reading International, Inc.'s ("we," "our," "us," "Reading" or the "Company") through its press release dated September 5, 2017, announced that the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Los Angeles entered a Tentative Statement of Decision (the "Tentative Ruling") in the matter regarding the James J. Cotter Living Trust ("Cotter Living Trust"), Case No. BP159755 (the "Trust Litigation") on August 29, 2017.

The Tentative Ruling declares that the 2014 Amendment to the Cotter Living Trust signed by Mr. Cotter, Sr., is invalid. Accordingly, upon the Tentative Ruling becoming final, Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter will continue as the sole Co-Trustees of the Cotter Living Trust, as it existed prior to the 2014 Amendment, and Margaret Cotter will likewise continue as the sole trustee of the Voting Trust created under the Cotter Living Trust to hold the Reading voting common stock held by the Cotter Living Trust, again as it existed prior to the 2014 Amendment.

The Tentative Ruling also provides, again subject to becoming final, for the appointment of a temporary trustee ad litem with the narrow and specific authority to obtain offers to purchase the Reading stock in the voting trust or the citrus farms previously owned by Mr. Cotter, Sr., but not to exercise any other powers without court approval. The temporary trustee has no authority to sell the Company under the Tentative Ruling; the Superior Court acknowledging that it has no jurisdiction over a "sale of the Company."

As previously disclosed in our Report on Form 10Q for the periods ended June 30, 2017, our Board of Directors has appointed a Special Independent Committee to, among other things, review, consider, deliberate, investigate, analyze, explore, evaluate, monitor and exercise general oversight of any and all activities of our Company directly or indirectly involving, responding to or relating to any potential change of control transaction relating to a sale by the Cotter Living Trust of its holdings of Reading's voting common stock. The Special Independent Committee will be reviewing the scope and implications of the Tentative Ruling and, consistent with its delegated authority, working to protect the best interests of our Company and stockholders generally.

For more information, see the press release attached as exhibit 99.1, hereto.
