Proxy Statement
Combined 2002 and 2003 Annual Meeting of Shareholders

This Proxy Statement is being furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Andersen Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), of proxies for use at the Combined 2002 and 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company, or at any adjournment or postponement thereof (the "Annual Meeting"), for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Combined 2002 and 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Proxies are being solicited from the holders of the Andersen Group, Inc. Common Stock, $.01 par value (the "Common Stock").

THE ANNUAL MEETING

Time and Place; Purposes

The Annual Meeting will be held on June 20, 2003 at 11:15 a.m., at Eden Tree Farm, 55 Brookville Road, Glen Head, New York. At the Annual Meeting, stockholders will be asked to consider and vote upon (i) the election of directors for the ensuing year (the "Election of Directors"); and (ii) such other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

The date of this Proxy Statement is May 27, 2003. The Proxy Statement and the related form of Proxy are first being mailed to holders of the Common Stock on or about May 30, 2003.

Proxies received by the Company in the proper form will be voted at the Annual Meeting, and at any adjournment or postponement thereof, as specified therein by the stockholders executing such proxies.

Voting Rights; Votes Required For Approval

The Board has fixed the close of business on April 24, 2003 (the "Record Date") as the date for the determination of holders of the Common Stock entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. Only holders of record of such shares at the close of business on the Record Date are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. As of the Record Date, there were 2,099,908 shares of Common Stock outstanding. The holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy, will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote on the proposal set forth herein.

Votes are counted by tellers of the Company's transfer agent. These tellers will canvas the stockholders present at the Annual Meeting, count their votes and count the votes represented by proxies presented. The Election of Directors requires the affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote in the election at the Annual Meeting.

A stockholder who has given a proxy may revoke it at any time prior to its exercise at the Annual Meeting either by filing with the Secretary of the Company, Andersen Group, Inc., 405 Park Avenue, Suite 1202, New York, New York 10022, a written revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or by voting in person at the Annual Meeting. If you abstain from voting in connection with the Election of Directors, such abstention will not be counted as a vote cast and will have no effect on the result of the vote. If you do not give instructions to your broker on how to vote in connection with the Election of Directors, such non-vote will be counted as a vote "FOR" the Election of Directors. Unless the proxy specifies that it is to be voted against or is an abstention on a listed matter, proxies will be voted in the discretion of the proxy holders as to any other matter that may come before the Annual Meeting.

The cost of the solicitation of proxies by the Board from the stockholders will be borne by the Company. Proxies may be solicited by additional mailings or communications, personal interviews and telephone by the directors, officers and employees of the Company, at no additional compensation. Upon request, the Company will reimburse brokers, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them in forwarding proxy materials to beneficial owners of each share of Common Stock.

The Company will provide, without charge, to each person to whom this Proxy Statement is delivered, upon written or oral request of such person and by first class mail or other equally prompt means, a copy of the Company's Annual Reports on Form 10-K for each of the fiscal years ended February 28, 2002 and February 28, 2003, including the financial statements and schedules thereto, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Requests should be directed by mail to Francis E. Baker, Secretary, Andersen Group, Inc., 405 Park Avenue, Suite 1202, New York, New York 10022 or by phoning the Company at (212) 826-8942.

In addition, during each of the fiscal years 2002 and 2003, Mr. John S. Grace, our employee, received a salary of $15,000; plus $6,000 for Board of Directors fees and $500 for each Board of Directors meeting attended.

Employment Agreements

Ronald N. Cerny had an employment agreement that is contained in a March 7, 1993 letter, as amended on February 23, 1995, and as further amended on March 20, 1995, which among other things, provided for severance pay in the event of involuntary termination for other than cause. In such case, we, at our option, would provide Mr. Cerny with twelve months of notice or salary and fringe benefits, or any combination thereof. The agreement also specified that, in the event of a change of control situation, if Mr. Cerny were to be hired on a full time basis for a period of at least one year by the new owner of the business and his employment was not renewed to Mr. Cerny's satisfaction at the end of the one year period, then Mr. Cerny would be entitled to one year of severance. Under terms of the sale of JM Ney's net assets, in December 2001, Deringer formally notified us that it was not going to hire Mr. Cerny after the closing of the transaction. Accordingly, upon the closing of the Ney-Deringer transaction, we advised Mr. Cerny that his employment with us would terminate on March 25, 2003. In July 2002, we reached an agreement with Mr. Cerny to settle the amount owed pursuant to this agreement. Under the settlement, Mr. Cerny was paid $299,678 in addition to which payment we agreed to pay Mr. Cerny's health and dental insurance premiums and provide Mr. Cerny with a vehicle for a period of one year.

We have established deferred compensation trusts for the benefit of Francis E. Baker and Oliver R. Grace, Jr. The investments within the accounts continue to be our assets, subject to the claims of our general creditors until disbursements are made from the accounts for the benefit of either Mr. Baker or Mr. Grace, Jr.. We will receive income tax deductions upon such disbursements. At February 28, 2002, the trusts held $550,059 and $88,827 for the benefit of Mr. Baker and Mr. Grace, respectively. At February 28, 2003, the trusts held $440,703 and $89,067 for the benefit of Mr. Baker and Mr. Grace Jr., respectively.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

Since July 2000, Francis E. Baker, our Chairman and Secretary, has been compensated directly by MBC in monthly payments at the annual rate of $250,000.

During fiscal years 2002 and 2003, we allocated $125,000 and $0 respectively of expenses, to MBC for administrative services provided by us to MBC.

During the fiscal year ended February 28, 2003, the Company paid Thomas L. Seifert, P.C. a total of $190,000 in legal fees for services provided by Mr. Seifert while he was an employee of entities owned or controlled by Oliver R. Grace, Jr., the Company's CEO and President, or John S. Grace, a Director of the Company. The fees paid were comprised of $25,000 of fees accrued during the fiscal year ended February 28, 2002 relating to the Company's sale of a real estate property, services provided in connection with the sale of JM Ney's operating assets and $50,000 for general legal work and advice. In addition, at February 28, 2003, the Company had accrued $30,000 for unbilled services to this firm. Thomas L. Seifert, PC has represented to the Company that portions of the fees paid to him as it were in turn paid to certain of these entities that acted as his employer as reimbursement for the compensation paid to their employee. Since June 2002, the Company has provided Thomas L. Seifert, PC office space in corporate headquarters without charge.

Other Related Transactions

During fiscal 2000, Oliver R. Grace, Jr., our President and Chief Executive Officer, extended the Company a $1,000,000 loan for the purpose of increasing our investment in MBC. This loan, which bore interest at the annual rate of 8.5%, and was secured by a first lien on real estate owned by our wholly-owned subsidiary was paid in full in December 2001 in connection with the sale of our real estate property. In connection with the loan, Mr. Grace, Jr. also received a warrant to purchase 18,706 shares of our Common Stock at an exercise price of $16.04 per share, which expired in February 2003.

During April 2000, we borrowed an additional $200,000 from Mr. Grace, Jr. in exchange for a 8.5% secured note and a warrant to purchase 5,393 shares of Common Stock at $11.13 per share, which expired in April 2003. This note was repaid in April 2001.

During fiscal 2002, we paid Mr. Grace, Jr. interest totaling approximately $99,000 pursuant to these loans.

During fiscal 2001 our Chairman and Secretary, Francis E. Baker, was granted a bonus in the form of the forgiveness of $111,743 of a $223,487 unsecured non-interest-bearing note payable from Mr. Baker to us. In May 2001, Mr. Baker repaid us the remaining $111,744 balance of this note.

Through May 31, 2002, we leased office space from a company owned by Oliver R. Grace, Jr., President and Chief Executive Officer, for which we paid $40,476 and $10,1119 during the fiscal years ended February 28, 2002 and 2003, respectively. The Company believes that the lease payments made approximate fair market value rates.

Subsequent Events: The CCTV and MBC Share Acquisitions

In May 2003, the Company and Asinio Commercial Limited ("Asinio") terminated their agreements which they had entered into in April 2002, as amended in August and September 2002, under which the Company would have acquired 100% of the outstanding stock of CCTV including the exchange of 4,000,000 shares of Company common stock in exchange for the shares of CCTV that were to have been acquired by Asinio from OAOMoskovskayaTelekommunikatsionayaKorporatsiya ("COMCOR").

Concurrent with the termination of the Asinio agreements, on May 23, 2003, the Company entered into agreements with COMCOR pursuant to which the Company will issue 4,220,879 shares of its common stock to COMCOR in exchange for the equity of CCTV to be held by COMCOR, including the equity of CCTV to be acquired by COMCOR in exchange for the extinguishment of approximately $1,380,500 of amounts owed or to be owed to COMCOR from CCTV. Consummation of this transaction is subject to among other things, i) the approval of the Company's stockholders, and ii) the Company's acquisition of substantially all of the shares of MBC's common stock that it does not currently own.

In connection with the agreements, the Company committed to making i) a $3.5 million investment into CCTV within 20 days, ii) a $1.0 million investment in CCTV within 20 days of the closing of the acquisition of the CCTV shares and iii) $1.5 million investment into CCTV at the earlier of the closing of a rights offering or August 31, 2004. The agreements also provide for an additional $5,829,000 of capital contributions to CCTV from the Company by March 31, 2005. To the extent such contributions are not made, then the Company will be obligated to issue up to 477,994 additional shares of its common stock to COMCOR.

Pursuant to the agreements signed, effective April 1, 2003, COMCOR also agreed to eliminate the fee it charged CCTV for transportation network services that had been charged at the rate of 10% of CCTV's television service revenue. COMCOR also agreed to limit CCTV's payment obligations for the lease of secondary node switching stations to the lesser of i) $350 per secondary node per month and ii) 20% of CCTV's television service revenues, calculated on a cumulative basis beginning January 1, 2003. At May 20, 2003, CCTV was leasing 234 secondary nodes from COMCOR. CCTV has plans to reduce the use of up to 63 of these nodes within the next six months, and to lease an additional approximately 68 secondary nodes from COMCOR as further build-out of its access network occurs.

Concurrent with the closing of the proposed acquisition of CCTV equity from COMCOR, the Company intends to acquire the 75% of MBC equity that it does not currently own in exchange for 2,250,000 shares of Company common stock. To partially satisfy its additional funding requirements discussed above, after the closing of the acquisition, the Company intends to contribute approximately $1,250,000 to CCTV comprised of MBC's loans and advances to CCTV, 4,402 shares of the stock of the Institute for Automated Systems and the extinguishment of a $138,144 liability of CCTV through the planned issuance of approximately 33,427 shares of the Company's common stock. Such contribution would reduce the number of shares of the Company's common stock that the Company would be obligated to issue to COMCOR, in the absence of any other qualifying contributions made by the Company to CCTV, from 477,994 to 374,941.

BOARD COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee of the Board is responsible for reviewing the Company's executive compensation program and policies each year and determining the compensation of the Company's senior executive officers. The Compensation Committee's determination on compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and other executive officers is reviewed with and approved by the entire Board.

For the fiscal years 2002 and 2003, the Compensation Committee of the Board was comprised of Messrs. James J. Pinto and Louis A. Lubrano, independent directors.

The fiscal years 2002 and 2003 base pay of each of the Company's executive officers were determined on the basis of the individual's responsibilities and performance and a comparison with salaries paid by competitors of the Company. The bonus component of executive compensation is directly related to corporate and business unit performance. The Compensation Committee's overall policy regarding compensation of the Company's executive officers is to provide competitive salary levels and compensation incentives that attract and retain individuals of outstanding ability in key positions that recognize individual performance and the Company's performance relative to the performance of other companies of comparable size, complexity and quality, and that support both the short-term and long-term goals of the Company. The executive compensation program includes elements which, taken together, constitute a flexible and balanced method of establishing total compensation for senior management.

Compensation paid to the Company's executive officers for fiscal years 2002 and 2003 consisted primarily of salary, bonus and contributions made by the Company in respect of its 401(k) Plan.

For fiscal 2002 and 2003, the Compensation Committee established the compensation of Oliver R. Grace, Jr., the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, using the same criteria used to determine compensation for other executive officers.

For fiscal 2002 and 2003, the Compensation Committee did not establish the compensation of Francis E. Baker, the Company's non-employee Chairman and Secretary. Since July 2000, Mr. Baker has been compensated directly by MBC in monthly payments at the annual rate of $250,000.

It is the opinion of the Compensation Committee that the aforementioned compensation structures provide features which properly align the Company's executive compensation with corporate performance and interests of its stockholders and which offer competitive opportunities in the marketplace.

Under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations promulgated thereunder, deductions for employee remuneration in excess of $1 million which is not performance based are disallowed for publicly traded companies. The Compensation Committee has determined that it is unnecessary at this time to seek to qualify the components of its compensation program within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The foregoing report has been approved by all members of the Compensation Committee

Pension Benefits

The following table sets forth the estimated aggregate annual benefit payable upon retirement or at normal retirement age for each level of remuneration specified at the listed years of service in accordance with our defined benefit plan. The pension benefits are based on calendar year earnings and are payable in the form of a life annuity. For calendar years 2001 and 2002, the maximum annual compensation limits for determining pension benefits were $170,000 and $200,000, respectively.

Pension Plan Table
Years of Service

Remuneration	5	10	15	20	25	30
$100,000	$ 4,300	$ 8,600	$12,900	$17,200	$21,500	$25,800
125,000	5,863	11,725	17,588	23,450	29,313	33,175
150,000	7,425	14,850	22,275	29,700	37,125	44,550
200,000	10,550	21,100	31,650	42,200	52,750	63,300

An individual's pension benefits are equal to the greater of the following two calculations: (A) .75% of final average earnings (average annual earnings for the five consecutive years of highest earnings in the employee's last 10 years of employment), plus .50% of final average earnings in excess of covered compensation (covered compensation equals the average of the Social Security wage base for the individual based upon his/her age) multiplied by the employee's years of service as a qualified employee (up to a maximum of 40 years), or (B) the sum of the individual's accrued pension benefit at December 31, 1993 calculated pursuant to (A) plus the individual's average compensation for the years since December 31, 1993 (average compensation equals the highest average annual earnings for the five consecutive years since December 31, 1993, up to a maximum, which for calendar year 2001 was $170,000) multiplied by the percentages in (A), multiplied by the number of years of service since December 31, 1993. Pension benefits payable upon retirement are increased by a late retirement factor due to the delay in receipt of benefits if the employee continues to work after attaining the age of 65.

Pension benefits are not reduced on account of social security benefits received by the employee. Average earnings is the sum of the amounts shown in the columns labeled "Salary" and "Bonus" in the Summary Compensation Table. For purposes of the Pension Plan Table, the amount used for covered compensation is for an individual born in 1957, which is roughly representative for the individuals named in the Summary Compensation Table. The executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table have the following years of credited service for pension plan purposes under the Table: Mr. Grace, Jr. 11 years; Mr. Cerny 9 years; and Mr. O'Shea 7 years. Mr. Baker's pension benefits were computed in accordance with (B) of the above formula and were enhanced by the late retirement factor pursuant to the Plan. The estimated aggregate annual benefit being paid to Mr. Baker from the Company's defined benefit pension plan is $29,913.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), and related rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") require our directors and executive officers and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of our equity securities to file with the SEC initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of our Common Stock and other equity securities. Related rules of the SEC also require such persons to furnish us with copies of all reports filed pursuant to Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act.

Ronald N. Cerny, former President of JM Ney, made a late filing with the SEC on May 9, 2002 on a Form 4 filed in connection with the exercise of incentive stock options on March 26, 2002. Based solely on our review of the copies of the reports received or written representations from certain reporting persons, we believe that all other Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its directors, officers and stockholders owning more than 10% of the Common Stock were complied with during the fiscal years ended February 28, 2002 and February 28, 2003.
