ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS.

At their regular meeting on December 16, the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Eastman Kodak Company, a New Jersey corporation (the "Company"), approved a number of changes to the Company's by-laws (the "By-laws") and amended and restated the By-laws to effect those changes. The changes to the By-laws generally have the effect of modernizing and clarifying the By-laws, in some cases by setting forth specific procedures for actions by shareholders and directors, and conforming certain provisions of the By-laws to the current provisions set forth in the New Jersey Business Corporation Act and the Company's Certificate of Incorporation.

Among other items, the Board adopted a typical advance notice provision for public companies requiring shareholders to provide the Company with written notice of any matters (other than proposals submitted pursuant to Rule 14a-8 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934) the shareholder desires to bring before any annual meetings, including nominations for directors, at least 90 days prior to the anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, clarified the procedures for the calling of special meetings and actions by written consent by shareholders, clarified the indemnification and expense reimbursement standards and procedures for directors and officers, made provisions for notices of meetings by facsimile and email, established procedures for setting up Board committees and raised the quorum requirement to a majority for meetings of the Board, removed the requirement that the annual meeting must be held in May and, consistent with recently adopted New York Stock Exchange listing standards, required that each standing committee have a charter approved by the Board. In addition, the changes to the By-laws eliminated certain provisions already provided for by operation of New Jersey law.

The description of the amendments to the By-laws set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Amended and Restated By-laws attached as Exhibit 3 and hereby incorporated in its entirety.
