Ite	m 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement
Effe	ective September 6, 2007, we entered into a Master Lease Amendm	nent with Wal-Pat, LLC, an entity owned by Robert Amerson and Steven

Clark, which eliminates annual lease escalation provisions. In addition, Wal-Pat is required to notify us at least thirty (30) days in advance of any future proposed sale of any of the premises or a proposed sale of a majority of the equity interests in Wal-Pat. In such event, we have the right to accept, renegotiate or terminate the leases. We have a future right of first refusal in connection with a sale of the leased Wal-Pat facilities. In the event of a future sale of Flanders, which includes a merger, sale of substantially all of our assets or acquisition of greater than 50% of our shares, by parties other than Mr. Clark or Mr. Amerson, then Flanders is granted the right to terminate or renegotiate the terms of the Wal-Pat leases. We also have a fair market value purchase option for the facilities we lease from Wal-Pat. See the attached Master Lease Amendment filed as Exhibit for additional information, the terms of which are incorporated herein by reference. A form of the original Wal-Pat lease is also filed as

Exhibit for reference purposes.
