which executive officers may participate was amended by the Board of Directors of Provident Financial Services, Inc. (the "Company").

2005 Performance-Based Incentive Plan. On July 27, 2005, the Board of Directors of the Company amended the 2005 Performance-Based Incentive Plan (the "2005 Incentive Plan"), the terms of which were previously disclosed by the Company in a Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on December 29, 2004. The amendment changes the composition of incentive payments that may be earned under the 2005 Incentive Plan from a mixture of cash and restricted stock that vests over five years to all cash. Prior to this amendment, the 2005 Incentive Plan provided that payments under the plan would be made in cash and in the form of restricted stock awards on a 75%/25% or 90%/10% basis, depending on the level of the participating senior officer.

All other terms of the 2005 Incentive Plan remain unchanged. The 2005 Incentive Plan is a performance-based incentive plan for the payment of incentive compensation to senior officers based on the Company's financial performance in 2005. The incentive payments under this plan are payable in 2006, based on the Company's 2005 financial performance compared with 2005 targets related to: (i) earnings per share (weighted 50%); (ii) efficiency ratio (weighted 25%); and (iii) return on average assets (weighted 25%) (collectively, the "Corporate Targets"). For a majority of the senior officers who will participate, payment of incentive compensation to each officer will also be based on the officer's performance against his or her 2005 individual objectives.

Incentive payments based on the Company's 2005 financial performance may be made if the Company's 2005 financial performance meets or exceeds 95% of the Corporate Targets ("Threshold"). Incentive payments will be a percentage of the senior officer's base salary, which percentage will increase based on the extent to which the Company's financial performance exceeds the Threshold.
