Forward Looking Statements

This annual report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended. Forward-looking statements inherently involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those stated. Such statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties, including our ability to utilize the acquisitions we have made; possible significant variations in recognized revenue due to customer caused delays in installations; cancellation of contracts by our customers and competition, that could cause actual results to differ materially from historical earnings and those presently anticipated or projected. The Company does not assume any obligation to update the forward-looking information and cautions readers not to place undue reliance on any such forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date made.

PART I

Item 1. Description of Business

(a) Business Development.

In 1950, John, Ray, and Hartford Henry founded Henry Bros. Electronics. They sold Henry Bros. Electronics to Communication Group, Inc. ("CGI") in 1985. In 1989, Jim Henry, our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, and Irvin Witcosky, our President and Chief Operating Officer reacquired certain assets, including the name Henry Bros. Electronics ("HBE") from CGI. In 1991 we acquired the assets of the former Motorola CCTV division and formed Viscom Products, Inc. ("Viscom"). In 1999 we formed a company named Integcom Corp. incorporated in Delaware into which we transferred the both HBE and Viscom. In 2001 we changed our name to Diversified Security Solutions, Inc.

Edgar Filing: DIVERSIFIED SECURITY SOLUTIONS INC - Form 10KSB

In November 2001, we completed our initial public offering, including the underwriter's over-allotment option of an aggregate of 1,725,000 shares of common stock. Our shares are traded on the American Stock Exchange under the ticker symbol DVS.

In May 2002, we purchased Photo Scan Systems, Inc. ("Photo Scan") a security integrator located in southern California and changed its name to Henry Bros. Electronics, Inc. in December 2002.

In August 2002, Photo Scan acquired National Safe of California, Inc. which sells and services alarm security equipment, lock and timing mechanisms, vault security, control and backup systems and high resolution security equipment used by commercial banks.

In September 2002, Photo Scan acquired Corporate Security Integration, LLC. ("CSI") a security integrator located in Phoenix, Arizona, and subsequently changed its name to Henry Bros. Electronics, LLC.

In April 2004, we acquired Airorlite Communications, Inc., a company located in Saddle Brook, New Jersey, that specializes in the design, manufacture and maintenance of wireless communications equipment used to enhance emergency radio frequency services and cellular communication for both fixed and mobile applications.

Our principal executive offices are located at 280 Midland Avenue, Saddle Brook, New Jersey 07663, and our telephone number is (201) 794-6500.

(b) Business of Issuer

We are a single-source/turn-key provider of technology-based security solutions for medium and large commercial enterprises and government agencies in the United States.

Security Distributing and Marketing magazine ("SDM") ranks by 2003 revenue the top 100 largest firms selling closed circuit TV ("CCTV"), access control and integrated security systems. We were ranked No. 26 in SDM's Top Systems Integrators Report published in July 2004.

As a single-source/turn-key provider of diversified technology-based integrated security solutions, we can expedite project completion and optimize system manpower performance. The continually evolving security requirements of commercial and government entities, together with rapidly advancing technology, provides numerous opportunities for us to assist our clients with their security needs.

We believe that the following key attributes provide us with a sustainable competitive advantage:

- o Experience and expertise;
- o Technological sophistication;
- o Quality control; and
- o Strong list of references.

Our Strategy

Our strategy consists of the following components:

- o Maintain and develop long-term relationships with clients;
- o Focus on high value-added services;
- o Continue to expand our client base in targeted industries;
- o Maintain a high level of technological sophistication;
- o Sell additional services to our established client base; and
- o Pursue strategic acquisitions that would be complementary to our business and accretive to earnings

Our three operating units are integration, emergency preparedness planning programs and specialty products.

Our Integration Solution

At the beginning of each new client relationship, we designate one member of our professional staff as the client service contact. This individual is the point person for communications between the client and us and often serves as the client's project manager for all of its security needs. Our engagement may include:

- o Consulting and planning;
- o Engineering and design;
- o Systems installation and management;
- o Systems training; and
- o Maintenance and technical support.

Consulting and Planning

Security consulting and planning are the initial phases of determining a security solution for a project. We have developed a planning process that identifies all systems, policies and procedures that are required for the successful operation of a security system that will both meet a client's current needs and accommodate its projected future requirements. Our consulting and planning process includes the following steps:

- o Identify the client's objectives and security system requirements;

- o Survey the site(s), including inventory of physical components and software and evaluation of client's existing infrastructure and security system;
- o Assess and prioritize the client's vulnerabilities;
- o Develop and evaluate system alternatives;
- o Recommend a conceptual security plan design;
- o Estimate the cost of implementing the conceptual plan; and
- o Develop a preliminary implementation schedule.

As a result of this process, we provide the client with a master plan for an effective security solution that addresses routine operating needs as well as emergency situations.

We believe that our comprehensive planning process enables our clients to budget for their security requirements on a long-term basis, identify opportunities for cost reduction and prepare for future risks.

Engineering and Design

The engineering and design process involves preparation of detailed project specifications and working drawings by a team of our engineers, systems designers and computer-aided design system operators. These specifications and drawings detail the camera sensitivity requirements, layout of the control center, placement of cameras, card readers and other equipment and electrical requirements. Throughout our engineering and design process, our goal is to understand our client's operational preferences in order to design a system that is functional, cost-effective and accommodates our client's present and future requirements. In addition, we attempt to incorporate our client's existing personnel, equipment and other physical resources into the system design.

When retained as a single-source provider for turnkey security solutions, we select system components required under the specifications and drawings. We recommend that our customers buy proven off-the-shelf devices and software and resort to custom equipment only when absolutely necessary.

We have made a strategic decision not to represent any equipment manufacturer exclusively, thereby maintaining objectivity and flexibility in equipment selection. We believe that our technical proficiency with the products available from a wide range of manufacturers enables us to select components that will best meet a project's requirements.

Systems Installation and Management

Under the supervision of the manager of the project, our technicians install hardware, integrate hardware and software, and validate and test the system. Subcontractors typically perform the aspects of systems integration that do not require a high level of technical expertise, such as wire installation and basic construction. Components that may be integrated in a security system include the following:

- o Access control systems, which are designed to exclude unauthorized personnel from specified areas;

- o Intrusion detection systems, which detect unauthorized door and window openings, glass breakage, vibration, motion, noise and alarms and other peripheral equipment;
- o Closed circuit television systems, which monitor and record entry and exit activity or provide surveillance of designated areas;
- o Critical condition monitoring systems, which provide alarm monitoring and supervision of various systems and facilities; and
- o Intercoms, public address, fire detection signals and network connectivity that can expand a local security system into a closely controlled worldwide system.

Systems Training

Upon completion of a systems integration project, we typically will provide the customer with system documentation and training in the operation and maintenance of the system.

Maintenance and Technical Support

We provide maintenance and technical support services on a scheduled, on-call, or emergency basis. These services include developing and implementing maintenance programs both for security systems designed, engineered, or integrated by us and for existing systems.

Our Emergency Preparedness Planning Programs Solution

Our Emergency Preparedness Planning Programs ("EPPP") division works with companies and managers of high-rise office buildings to analyze their specific facilities needs with emergency preparedness plans. We provide demonstrations, training and recommendation to clients. Our evacuation planning division provides a wide array of services, including:

- o Develop emergency plans and procedures;
- o Expand existing fire/emergency and preparedness response plans;
- o Articulate building strategy to the tenants;
- o Provide tenant inclusion;
- o Increase building community unity, awareness and confidence; and
- o Employee training.

Our Specialty Products Solutions

The Company's specialty products solutions are provided by two wholly owned subsidiaries, Viscom's Products, Inc. ("Viscom") and Airorlite Communications,

Edgar Filing: DIVERSIFIED SECURITY SOLUTIONS INC - Form 10KSB

Inc. ("Airorlite"). Viscom has an integrated standard solution for mobile digital records for deployment on municipal buses and trains. Viscom products are manufactured by a third party vendor. Airorlite specializes in designing, manufacturing and maintaining wireless communications equipment used to enhance and extend emergency radio frequency services and cellular communication for both fixed and mobile applications.

Marketing

Our marketing activities are conducted on both national and regional levels. We obtain engagements through direct negotiation with clients, competitive bid processes and referrals. At the national level, we conduct analyses of various industries and target those with significant demand for security solutions. At a regional level, we have developed and implemented a marketing plan that targets specific regions of the country. The plan identifies prospective clients within specific regions of the country and sets forth a strategy for developing relationships with them.

We have developed expertise in the security regulations applicable to airports and seaports, high-rise buildings, public transportation systems, healthcare, financial, educational and other vertical markets. We have identified several key industries or facility types that we believe have substantial and increasing requirements for security services, including corporate campuses and federal facilities.

Customers

We provide our products and services to customers in the public and private sectors through direct sales to end-users and through subcontracting agreements and have provided services to customers representing each of the vertical markets described under Marketing.

Competition

The security industry is highly fragmented and competitive. We compete on a local, regional and national basis with systems integrators, consulting firms and engineering and design firms. Our competitors include equipment manufacturers and vendors that also provide security services. Many of our competitors have greater name recognition and financial resources. We believe that we compete primarily on our ability to deliver solutions that effectively meet a client's requirements and, to a lesser extent and primarily in competitive bid situations, on price. Many of the larger public sector projects require performance bonds, which may limit our ability to compete with larger competitors as the prime contractor, depending upon the specifications of the project.

Employees

As of February 2005, we had 148 full time employees, including officers, of whom: 99 were engaged in engineering, systems installation and maintenance services, 32 in administration and accounting, and 17 in marketing and sales. None of our employees are covered by a collective bargaining agreement or are represented by a labor union. We consider our relationship with our employees to be satisfactory.

Our business requires substantial technical capabilities in many disciplines, from mechanics and computer science to electronics and advanced software. We emphasize continued training for new and existing technical personnel. Accordingly, we conduct training classes and seminars in-house, send select employees to technical schools and avail ourselves of training opportunities offered by equipment manufacturers and other specialists on a regular basis.

Pricing

We employ a variety of pricing strategies for our services. Systems integration projects are based upon the estimated cost of the equipment for the project including a profit margin, plus the estimated hours for each skill set, required to complete the project multiplied by the rate quoted, plus a profit margin. Pricing for engineering and maintenance services are determined based on the scope of the specific project and the length of our engagement. Proposals for consulting and threat assessment services are priced based on an estimate of hours multiplied by standard rates.

Risk Factors

You should carefully consider the risks and uncertainties described below, as well as all of the other information included in this annual report on Form 10-KSB.

We are dependent upon a small number of customers for a large portion of our revenues

We have a small number of customers from which we receive a large portion of our revenues. Although, no single customer comprised more than 10% of total revenues during 2004, our five largest projects represented approximately 25% of our revenues. Revenues from governmental agencies accounted for 20% in 2004 versus 21% in 2003. Consequently, we are often required to replace one customer with one or more other customers in order to generate the same amount of revenues. There can be no assurance that we will continue to be able to do so.

Some of our orders and contracts may be cancelled or modified so there is a risk that our backlog may not be fulfilled

Some of our orders and contract backlog are subject to cancellation or modification by our customers at any time so we cannot be certain that we will recognize revenues from them. As of December 31, 2004, our backlog was approximately $20,503,000.

We are dependent on a few vendors and rely on timely delivery of equipment from outside sources

There are a few vendors from whom we obtain devices and software for specific access control, imaging, remote transmission, smart key and mobile applications. The loss of any one of these companies as suppliers could have a materially adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations if we are unable to develop or acquire new technologies from other sources. We believe there are alternative vendors to source such products.

Timely vendor deliveries of equipment meeting our quality control standards from all suppliers are also important to our business because each installed system requires the integration of a variety of elements to be fully functional. The failure to deliver any component when required, in operating condition, can delay the project, triggering contract penalties, delay in progress payments and may result in cancellation of the project.

We have not been consistently profitable and may not be profitable in the future

For the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 our revenues were $29,725,718 and $18,261,065, respectively, and our net income (loss) was $44,021 and $(2,957,102), respectively. Our profit has not been continuous and we can make no assurances that we will be profitable in the future.

We experience intense competition for business from a variety of sources

In systems integration, we compete for new business with large construction firms, electrical contractors and consultants in the security business and other systems integrators. Many of our competitors are much larger and have greater resources. In order to effectively compete in the future, we may have to charge less for our services, which may result in lower profit margins.

We rely on only a few key executives

James E. Henry and Irvin F. Witcosky, our two key executives, are vital to our business operations. The loss of either of them could have a materially adverse impact on our business, financial condition or results of operations.

Our business and growth will suffer if we are unable to hire and retain highly skilled personnel

Competition for highly skilled employees is intense in our industry. The design and manufacture of our equipment, and the installation of our systems, requires substantial technical capabilities in many disparate disciplines from mechanics and computer science to electronics and advanced software. Our future success depends on our ability to attract, train, motivate and retain highly skilled employees. If we are unable to hire and retain skilled personnel, our growth may be restricted, the quality of our products and services diminished and our revenues and the value of your investment reduced. There is no assurance that we will be able to retain our skilled employees or attract, assimilate and retain other highly skilled employees in the future.

Lengthy revenues cycle

Edgar Filing: DIVERSIFIED SECURITY SOLUTIONS INC - Form 10KSB

Revenue of our services and products frequently involves a substantial commitment of resources to evaluate a potential project and prepare a proposal. In addition, approval of proposals often involves a lengthy process due to clients' internal procedures and capital expenditure approval processes. We may not be awarded a project that we have prepared a proposal for and, even if we are, a substantial period of time may elapse from when we make a proposal to when we can recognize revenues from the project.

Seasonality

Revenues of our services have typically been seasonal in nature and there could be periods of fluctuations in revenue volume due to the timing of project installations or factors that are beyond the Company's control, such as weather and construction delays.

We may make acquisitions or form joint ventures that are unsuccessful

Part of our growth strategy involves acquisitions or joint ventures with other system integrators. This strategy is subject to the following risks, the occurrence of which could have a materially adverse impact on our business, financial condition or results of operations:

- o We may not be able to identify suitable acquisition and joint venture candidates.
- o If the purchase price of an acquisition includes cash, we may need to use a significant portion of our available cash.
- o We could have difficulty assimilating the acquired company's operations and personnel or working with the joint venture. These difficulties could disrupt our ongoing business, distract our management and employees and increase our expenses and charges.

- o We may not be able to retain key employees of the acquired companies or maintain good relations with its customers or suppliers.
- o We may be required to incur additional debt.
- o We may be required to issue equity securities to pay for such acquisition, which will dilute existing shareholders.
- o We may have to incur significant accounting charges, such as for an impairment of intangible assets, which may adversely affect our results of operations.

The Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer own a significant amount of our common stock and their interests may be different from and conflict with yours

The interests of the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer

Edgar Filing: DIVERSIFIED SECURITY SOLUTIONS INC - Form 10KSB

could conflict with the interests of our other stockholders. Mr. Henry and Mr. Witcosky beneficially own a total of approximately 48.8% of our outstanding common stock. Accordingly, if they act together, they may have the power to control the election of all of our directors or other issues for which the approval of our shareholders is required.

Item 2. Description of Property

We lease a 17,055 square foot sales, office, and integration facility that also serves as our corporate office in Saddle Brook, New Jersey. This facility is a portion of a single-story, modern brick building in a commercial and industrial area. The lease on this space terminates on June 30, 2006, and provides for an annual rent of $98,400 until that date, payable in equal monthly installments of $8,200, plus taxes of approximately $600 per month. We are also responsible for the cost of property tax increases, utilities, repairs, maintenance, alterations, cleaning and insurance.

We lease a 9,553 square foot sales and office facility in Fullerton, California. A two-story, concrete building in an office complex, this space is leased until November 15, 2006 at an average annual rent of $111,108 payable in equal monthly installments of $9,257, with additional costs for insurance, repairs and alterations, utilities, taxes and cleaning.

We lease a 4,200 square foot revenues and office facility in Grand Prairie, Texas near the Dallas-Fort Worth Airport. A single-story, cinder block building in an office complex, this space is leased until February 28, 2007 at an annual average rental of $39,900, payable in equal monthly installments of $3,325, with additional costs for insurance, repairs and alterations, utilities, taxes and cleaning.

We lease a 3,906 square foot revenues and office facility in Phoenix, Arizona. A single-story, concrete building in an office complex, this space is leased until August 2006 at an average annual rental of $44,820, payable in average monthly installments of $3,735, with additional costs for insurance, repairs and alterations, utilities, taxes and cleaning.

We sublease approximately 1,750 square feet of office space in New York City for sales and project management personnel. This lease expires on October 31, 2006, with an annual rental of $28,800, payable in equally monthly installments of $2,400, inclusive of utilities.

Our Airorlite subsidiary leases a 5,440 square foot sales, office and warehouse facility in Saddle Brook, New Jersey. This facility is in a single-story, modern brick building in a commercial and industrial area. The lease on this space terminates on November 30, 2005, and provides for an annual rent of $34,906 until that date, payable in equal monthly installments. We are also responsible for the cost of property taxes, utilities, repairs, maintenance, alterations, cleaning and insurance.

These facilities should meet our operational needs for the foreseeable future.

Item 3. Legal Proceedings

Edgar Filing: DIVERSIFIED SECURITY SOLUTIONS INC - Form 10KSB

We know of no material litigation or proceeding, pending or threatened, to which we are or may become a party.

Item 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Stockholders

At our 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders held on November 5, 2004, the following individuals, constituting all of the members of the Board of Directors, were elected. For each elected director, the results of the voting were:

Name -----	Number of Votes For -----	Votes Withheld -----
Robert S. Benou	5,134,264	15,950
Robert L. DeLia Sr.	5,132,764	17,450
James E. Henry	5,095,164	55,050
Joseph P. Ritorto	5,134,264	15,950
Brian Reach	5,127,764	22,450
Irvin F. Witcosky	5,127,764	22,450

The stockholders also voted to ratify the selection of Demetrius & Company, L.L.C. as our independent auditors for 2004. The results of the voting of this proposal were 5,102,313 in favor, 19,501 against and 28,400 abstentions. Stockholders also approved the granting of 52,550 shares of the Company's Common Stock to certain of its employees voting 5,071,053 in favor, 56,959 against and 22,202 abstaining.

PART II

Item 5. Market for Common Equity and Related Stockholder Matters

Our Common Stock is traded on the American Stock Exchange under the Symbol "DVS".

(a) The following table indicates high and low stock prices for each period.

2003 -----	High -----	Low -----

- (b) Number of Holders of Common Stock. The number of holders of record of our Common Stock on March 22, 2005 was 37. Since a portion of the shares of the common stock are held in street or nominee name, it is believed that there are significant number of additional number of beneficial owners of common stock.
- (c) Dividends. There were no cash dividends or other cash distributions made by us during the year ended December 31, 2004. Future dividend policy will be determined by our Board of Directors based on our earnings, financial condition, capital requirements and other existing conditions. It is anticipated that cash dividends will not be paid to the holders of our common stock in the foreseeable future.
- (d) Securities authorized for issuance under equity compensation plans.

* This amount includes options issuable pursuant to our 2002 Stock Option Plan. Our Board of Directors approved this plan on May 10, 2002. Our shareholders' approved it on October 28, 2002. The plan authorizes the issuance of options to purchase up to 230,000 share of our Common Stock to employees, directors, and consultants of the Company.

Also included are options issuable pursuant to our Incentive Stock Option Plan. The Board of Directors and our shareholders approved the adoption of the Incentive Stock Option Plan on December 23, 1999. Our Incentive Stock Option Plan provides for the granting of options to purchase a maximum of 500,000 shares of the Company's common stock.

 This amount includes a warrant to purchase 40,000 shares of our common stock granted on November 1, 2001 to the Wall Street Consultants, Inc. ("WSC") at a price of $7.00. This warrant was granted in consideration of services provided by WSC to the Company and expires in November 2006. Also included is a warrant to purchase 150,000 shares of our common stock granted to GunnAllen Financial, Inc. at a purchase price of $11.55 per share. The warrant was granted to GunnAllen as part of its compensation for acting as the underwriter of our initial public offering and expires on November 21, 2005. In addition, warrants to purchase 138,333 and 55,333 shares at $7.60 expiring January 27, 2010, were granted in connection with the issuance of 553,333 shares of our common stock to certain qualified institutional investors and the placement agent, respectively, in July 2004.

Item 6. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

(a) Overview

We are a turn-key provider of technology-based integrated security solutions for commercial enterprises and governmental agencies. Our three operating units are integration, evacuation planning and specialty products.

Our integration unit designs, customizes, installs, connects and maintains CCTV (closed circuit television) and access control systems for customers in the private and public sectors under the trade names, HBE and Henry Bros. Electronics. As part of an access control system, we may also install, maintain and monitor intrusion alarms, via a third party central station. We are able to offer a customer seamless solutions to its electronic security needs. We work with a customer to plan, engineer, design and install their security systems. We also provide maintenance and technical support.

Our emergency preparedness planning programs division works with companies and managers of high-rise office buildings to analyze their specific facility needs with emergency preparedness plans. We provide demonstrations, training and recommendation to clients. Our evacuation planning division provides a wide array of services, including:

- o Develop emergency plans and procedures;
- o Expand existing fire/emergency and preparedness response plans;
- o Articulate building strategy to the tenants;
- o Provide tenant inclusion; and
- o Increase building community unity, awareness and confidence.

Our specialty products business is comprised of two wholly owned subsidiaries, Viscom and Airorlite Communications. Viscom has an integrated standard solution for mobile digital recording used on municipal buses and trains. This product is being manufactured by a third party vendor. Airorlite specializes in designing, manufacturing and maintaining wireless communications equipment used to enhance and extend emergency radio frequency services and cellular communication for both fixed and mobile applications.

Comparison of the year ended December 31, 2004 to the year ended December 31, 2003

Revenues

Revenues for the year ended December 31, 2004 were $29,725,718, representing an increase of $11,464,653 or 62.8%, as compared to $18,261,065 for the year ended December 31, 2003. The increase in revenues was principally related to an increase of $8,737,089 in the Company's integration business. The companies that we acquired during 2002 continued to contribute significant revenues growth in 2004 as revenues doubled in the Company's California and Arizona regions. Revenues for 2004 in the New Jersey region increased by 11%, as government funding for security related projects has increased. In April 2004, the Company acquired Airorlite Communications Inc., a provider of wireless communication solutions. Revenues for Airorlite were $2,503,776 for the period April 1, 2004 through December 31, 2004. Revenues to governmental agencies represented 20% and 21% of total revenues, for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

Cost of Revenues

Cost of revenues for the year ended December 31, 2004 was $22,305,632, as compared to $14,908,700 for the year ended December 31, 2003. This was an increase of $7,396,932 or 49.6%. Gross profit margin was 25.0% for the year ended December 31, 2004, as compared to 21.5 % for the year ended December 31, 2003 (excluding the 2003 restructuring charge for Viscom Products). We attribute the increase in our gross margin percentage to the Airorlite Communications acquisition, which operates at a higher gross margin percentage than the Company's integration business. Integration margin for the year ended December 31, 2004 was 23.0%, as compared to 23.4% for the prior year. The company experienced cost overruns on three significant jobs in 2004, which resulted in the slightly lower margin.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Selling, general and administrative expenses decreased to $7,020,885 for the year ended December 31, 2004, from $8,339,337 for the year ended December 31, 2003. Selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of revenues decreased to 23.6% for the year ended December 31, 2004 versus 44.9% for the year ended December 31, 2003 excluding the Viscom restructuring charge. This decrease of $1,318,452, or 15.8%, was primarily attributable to lower 2004 spending as the 2003 shutdown of Viscom Products manufacturing operations had a full year impact, lower 2004 spending for marketing and revenues efforts of establishing the acquired companies from 2002, lower salary and related benefits and a one time 2003 charge from stock grants to employees. Partially offsetting these savings were increased provisions for doubtful accounts based on our strong revenue growth. As the Company's revenues increased in 2004, the infrastructure costs of the Company were absorbed, resulting in the favorable selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of revenues. The Company continues to search for productivity improvements to improve this ratio for 2005.

Interest Income

Interest income for the year ended December 31, 2004 was $12,624, as compared to $10,326 for year ended December 31, 2003. The increase of $2,298 was due to having increased cash to invest.

Interest Expense

Interest expense for the year ended December 31, 2004 was $94,039, as compared to $106,464 for the ended December 31, 2003. The decrease of $12,425 was attributable to having an average lower debt balance of $1,783,342 for the year ended December 31, 2004 as compared to $2,306,076 for the year ended December 31, 2003.

Net (Loss) Income

As a result of the factors noted above, for the year ended December 31, 2004 our net income was $44,021, as compared to a net loss of ($2,957,102) for the year ended December 31, 2003. This resulted in basic earnings per share of $0.01 on weighted average common shares outstanding of 5,411,964 for the year ended December 31, 2004, as compared to basic loss per share of ($0.58) on weighted average common shares outstanding of 5,121,877 for the year ended December 31, 2003.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of December 31, 2004, we had cash and cash equivalents of $3,154,972, versus $1,927,416 as of December 31, 2003. This increase is attributable to the equity private funding in July 2004, in the net amount of $2,958,058. We have a total loan facility of $4,500,000 with Hudson United Bank and have certain debt maturing from May 2005 through November 2005. The amount available under the revolving credit facility was approximately $2,330,000, as of December 31, 2004. We are in compliance with the various loan covenants as of December 31, 2004. Our working capital was $9,187,176 as of December 31, 2004. We have total short-term debts due of approximately $1,394,809 and purchase orders with our vendors to fulfill customer orders of approximately $3,840,000.

During the year ended December 31, 2004, net cash used in operations was $269,351. We purchased property and equipment of $236,295 and generated $1,900,077 in cash from financing activities. In addition, the company utilized $166,875 of net cash to acquire Airorlite Communications, Inc. in 2004

Our capital requirements have grown substantially as a result of the growth of our operations and staffing since our public offering. Our cash and cash equivalents have increased by $1,227,556 significantly during the year ended December 31, 2004, due primarily to our sale of 553,333 shares of our common stock, which was partially offset by total debt payments of $1,081,273. We believe that our current cash and available lines of credit should be sufficient to meet our capital requirements for the next twelve months. However, we may seek additional equity and /or debt financing to grow our operations.

Critical Accounting Policies

The Company's consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America, which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Management uses its best judgment in valuing these estimates and may, as warranted, solicit external professional advice. The following critical accounting policies, some of which are impacted significantly by judgments, assumptions and estimates, affect the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Income Recognition

Revenue from system installations are generally recognized on the completed-contract method, in which revenues are recognized when the contract is substantially complete. The completed-contract method applies to those contracts completed within a period of time, generally, less than two months. Contracts that are expected to be longer than two months are accounted for on the percentage-of-completion method.

The percentage-of-completion method recognizes revenues earned based on the percentage of contract costs incurred to the estimated total contract costs. The excess of costs and estimated earnings over billings and excess of accumulated billings over costs are not presented in periods in which management has determined that the amounts are not material. Provision for estimated earnings and losses, if any, on uncompleted contracts are made in periods in which such losses are determined. In general, we determine a contract to be substantially completed after:

1. The scope of work is completed which includes installing the equipment as required in the contract.
2. System is functional and has been tested.
3. Training has been provided.

On larger projects (generally those in excess of $50,000) a substantial completion document is issued and final submittals are provided after the above is completed. Each month, the Chief Financial Officer meets with Operational Management to discuss the status of all open projects and to review each project's financial results. Based upon these discussions, a formal decision is made to close the project for financial reporting purposes once a project is determined to be substantially complete. The majority of the Company's contracts are completed within a year.

Service contracts, which are generally separate and distinct legal agreements from project contracts, are billed either monthly or quarterly on the last day of the month covered by the contract. Accordingly, revenues from service contracts are recognized monthly. In 2004, the Company did not bundle any significant service contracts within our systems installation work.

The Emergency Preparedness Planning Programs division provides emergency planning services to commercial real estate owners and managers. In general, project labor is the predominant cost associated with the completion of these projects. The Company utilizes labor as the output measure in order to recognize revenue and believes this to be an accurate matching of costs and revenue.

Revenue from product sales (primarily specialty products) are recognized when title and risk of loss passes to the customer.

Trade Receivables and Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

The preparation of financial statements requires our management to make estimates and assumptions relating to the collectibility of our accounts receivable. Management specifically analyzes historical bad debts, customer credit worthiness, current economic trends and changes in our customer payment terms when evaluating the adequacy of the allowance for doubtful accounts. The Company has a concentration risk in trade accounts receivable with significant revenues to the government and local agencies. The credit evaluation process has mitigated the credit risk, while losses have been minimal and within management's expectations.

Inventory Valuation

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market value. Cost has been determined using the first-in, first-out method. Inventory quantities on-hand are regularly reviewed, based on product demand and revenue forecast data. Where necessary, provisions for excess and obsolete inventory are recorded. A significant change in the demand or forecast, in addition to inventory purchases, can result in excess inventory on hand, requiring additional write-downs.

Warranty

The Company offers warranties on all products, including parts and labor that range from one year to four years depending upon the type of product concerned. For products made by others, the Company passes along the manufacturer's warranty to the end user.

Intangible Assets

The Company's intangible assets include goodwill and other intangibles that consist of the fair value of acquired customer lists, service contracts, acquired trade names and covenants not to compete. Goodwill represents the excess of purchase price over the fair value of net assets acquired.

Effective January 1, 2002, the company adopted the provisions of Statement of Financial and Accounting Standards (SFAS) 142 "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets." In accordance with that statement, goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite lives are not amortized, but are tested at least annually for impairment. Prior to January 1, 2002 the company had not recorded goodwill or other intangible assets of indefinite lives. Intangible assets with estimable useful lives, consisting primarily of acquired customer lists, service contracts and covenants not to compete, are amortized on straight-line bases over their estimated useful lives of three to fifteen years and are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset or asset group may not be recoverable. If the intangible assets' remaining useful life is changed, the amortization of the intangible asset will be amortized over the remaining useful life. If the asset being amortized is determined to have an indefinite useful life, the asset will be tested for impairment. The impairment test will consist of measuring its fair value with its carrying amount. If the carrying amount of the intangible assets exceeds its fair value, an impairment loss is recognized for an amount equal to the excess and the adjusted carrying amount is recognized as its new accounting basis.

Goodwill

The Company's goodwill impairment test is based on a two part procedure consistent with the requirements of SFAS 142. The first test consists of determining the fair value of the reporting unit and comparing it to the carrying value of the reporting unit. If the carrying value of the reporting unit exceeds the fair value of the reporting unit, a second test is performed. In step two, the implied fair value of the goodwill (which is the excess of the fair value of the reporting unit over the fair value of the net assets) is compared to the carrying value of the goodwill. An impairment loss is recognized for any excess value of goodwill over the implied value. We determined the Company's reporting unit by analyzing geographic region as management evaluates the Company's performance in this manner. We identified four separate and distinct operating units for the testing requirements of SFAS 142. We evaluated each reporting unit for impairment.

Income Taxes

Deferred taxes are provided on an asset and liability method whereby deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible temporary differences and operating loss carry forwards and deferred tax liabilities are recognized for taxable temporary differences. Temporary differences are the differences between the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax basis. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are adjusted for the effects of changes in tax laws and rates on the date of enactment.

Item 7. Financial Statements

Refer to pages F-1 through F-24.

Item 8. Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure

During the year ended December 31, 2004, there were no changes in or disagreements with the Company's principal independent accountant on accounting or financial disclosure.

Item 8a. Controls and Procedures

(a) The Company carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of the Company's management, including the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures, as defined under Rule 13a-15(e) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based upon that evaluation, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures:

- (i) are effective in timely alerting them to material information relating to the Company (including its consolidated subsidiaries) required to be included in the Company's periodic SEC filings;
- (ii) are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports that it files or submits under the Securities and Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the Commission's rules and forms; and
- (iii) include, without limitations, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports that it files or submits under the Securities and Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, including its principal executive and principal financial officers or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

(b) Change in Internal Controls over Financial Reporting

As required by Rule 13a-15(d), the Company's executive management including the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Operating officer and the Chief Financial Officer, also conducted an evaluation of the Company's internal controls over financial reporting to determine whether any change occurred during the Company's last fiscal quarter that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal controls over financial reporting. Based on that evaluation, there have been no changes in the Company's internal controls over financial reporting during the year covered by this report that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect our internal controls over financial reporting.

Audit Committee and Audit Committee Financial Expert

The Board has a separately designated, standing Audit Committee, in accordance with regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee reviews, with the Company's independent public accountants, the scope and adequacy of the audit to be performed by the accountants, the Company's accounting practices, procedures and policies, and all related-party transactions. The Audit Committee has adopted an Audit Committee Charter. The Audit Committee met four times during 2004. The Audit Committee currently consists of Robert Benou and Joseph Ritorto. The Board of Directors has determined that it has at least one expert serving on the Company's Audit Committee. The Company's Board of Director believes that Robert Benou is an "audit committee financial expert" and is an independent member of the Board of Directors.

Compliance with Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act

The Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 requires our directors, officers and persons who own more than 10% of our Common Stock to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission initial reports and changes in beneficial ownership of our Common Stock and other equity securities. Our directors, officers and greater than 10% beneficial owners are required by SEC regulation to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. To our knowledge, for the year ended December 31, 2004, based solely on a review of the copies of such reports furnished to the Company and representations by these individuals that no other reports were required during the year ended December 31, 2004, all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to our directors, officers and greater than 10% beneficial owners have been timely filed except that Joseph Ritorto and Douglas Beck (our former Chief Financial Officer) did not timely file a Form Four for Messrs. Ritorto and Beck which have since been filed.

Code of Ethics

The Company has adopted a code of ethics that applies to its principal executive officer, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer or controller, or persons performing similar functions.

Compensation of Directors

Directors who are also our employees receive no additional compensation for attendance at board meetings. The Company non-employee directors receive a quarterly fee of $1,250 and annual stock option grant to purchase 2,000 shares of the Company's common stock at the closing share price on the day of the grant and $1,000 for attendance at each Board or Committee meeting. In May 2004, Messrs. Benou, DeLia Sr. and Ritorto each received an option to purchase 2,000 shares of our common stock at $7.19 exercisable through May 2009. All directors are entitled to be reimbursed for their travel, lodging and other out-of-pocket expenses related to their attendance at board and committee meetings.

Employment Agreements and Termination of Employment and Change in Control Arrangements

Messrs. Henry and Witcosky are serving as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and President and Chief Operating Officer, respectively, under employment agreements for five years that commenced January 1, 2000. These agreements provide for an initial annual compensation of $135,000, an increase of 10% in compensation as of January 2002 and in each subsequent year of the agreements and an one-year non-competition covenant covering the security business that commences after termination of employment. In December 2003, Messrs. Henry and Witcosky voluntarily waived the receipt of their respective salaries by twenty percent to help reduce the Company's costs. This salary reduction was not restored in 2004.

In August 2003, Mr. Massad resigned from his position as Vice President, Treasurer, and Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Massad also resigned from the Company's Board of Directors. Prior to his resigning as the company's Treasurer, Chief Financial Officer and Vice President, Mr. Massad had entered into a five-year agreement with the Company that commenced January 1, 2000. His initial annual compensation under such contract was $110,000. The agreement also provided for a 10% increase per annum as of January 2002 and in each subsequent year of the agreement. Mr. Massad was granted an option to purchase 9,000 shares of the Company's common stock. This option was granted under the Company's Incentive Stock Option Plan and is exercisable at $5.625 per share. The option expires in December 2009. Mr. Massad's employment agreement has been amended and provides for a reduced salary and terminates on December 31, 2005.

Item 11. Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management and Related Stockholder Matters

The following table sets forth, as of March 22, 2005 certain information regarding beneficial ownership of our common stock by each person who is known by us to beneficially own more than 5% of our common stock. The table also identifies the stock ownership of each of our directors, each of our officers, and all directors and officers as a group. Except as otherwise indicated, the stockholders listed in the table have sole voting and investment powers with respect to the shares indicated.

Unless otherwise indicated, the address for each of the named individuals is Diversified Security Solutions, Inc., 280 Midland Avenue, Saddle Brook, New Jersey 07663.

Shares of common stock which an individual or group has a right to acquire within 60 days pursuant to the exercise or conversion of options, warrants or other similar convertible or derivative securities are deemed to be outstanding for the purpose of computing the percentage ownership of such individual or group, but are not deemed to be outstanding for the purpose of computing the percentage ownership of any other person shown in the table.

The applicable percentage of ownership is based on 5,739,398 shares outstanding as of March 22, 2005.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders of Diversified Security Solutions, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheet of Diversified Security Solutions, Inc. as of December 31, 2004, and the related consolidated statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for each of the years in the two year period then ended December 31, 2004. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with standards of the Public Company Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Diversified Security Solutions, Inc. as of December 31, 2004, and the consolidated results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years in the two-year period then ended December 31, 2004, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Diversified Security Solutions, Inc., (the "Company") and its subsidiaries, are systems integrators providing design, installation and support services for a wide variety of security, communications and control systems. The Company specializes in turnkey systems that integrate many different technologies. Systems are customized to meet the specific needs of its customers. The Company markets nationwide with an emphasis in the New York, Dallas, Phoenix and Southern California metropolitan areas. Customers are primarily medium and large businesses and governmental agencies. The Company derives a majority of its revenues from project installations and to a smaller extent, maintenance service revenues. In April 2004, the Company completed its acquisition of Airorlite Communications, Inc. ("Airorlite"). Airorlite specializes in designing, manufacturing and maintaining wireless communications equipment used to enhance and extend emergency radio frequency services and cellular communication for both fixed and mobile applications. There has been a shift in revenues by geographic region and the table below shows the revenues percentages by geographic location for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003:

	December 31,
	2004	2003
	----	----
New Jersey/ New York	35%	54%
California	33	26
Texas	13	12
Arizona	7	5
	---	---
Total integration	88	97
Specialty Products	12	3
	---	---
Total revenues	100%	100%

The Company's headquarters are located in Saddle Brook, New Jersey. Sales and service facilities are located near the Dallas-Fort Worth Airport, Phoenix Arizona Airport, two facilities in the New York City metro area (Saddle Brook, New Jersey), and Fullerton, California. During the third quarter of 2003, the Company's subsidiary, Viscom Products ("Viscom"), restructured its operations and began purchasing products from a third party vendor. Viscom will continue to sell product and maintain system installations.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Principles of Consolidation - The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries. All material intercompany transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Income Recognition - Revenue from system installations are generally recognized on the completed-contract method, in which revenues are recognized when the contract is substantially complete. The completed-contract method applies to those contracts completed within a period of time, generally, less than two months. Contracts that are expected to be longer than two months are accounted for on the percentage of completion method.

The percentage of completion method recognizes revenues earned based on the percentage of contract costs incurred to total estimated contract costs. The excess of costs and estimated earnings over billings and excess of accumulated billings over costs are not presented in periods in which management has determined that the amounts are not material. Provision for estimated earnings and losses, if any, on uncompleted contracts are made in periods in which such losses are determined. In general, we determine a contract to be substantially completion after:

1. The scope of work is completed which includes installing the equipment as required in the contract.
2. System is functional and has been tested.
3. Training has been provided.

On larger projects (generally those in excess of $50,000) a substantial completion document is issued and final submittals are provided after the above is completed. Each month, the Chief Financial Officer meets with Operational Management to discuss the status of all open projects and review the project's financial results. Based upon these discussions, a formal decision is made to close the project for financial reporting purposes once a project is determined to be substantially complete. The majority of the Company's contracts are completed within a year.

Service contracts, which are generally separate and distinct legal agreements from project contracts, are billed either monthly or quarterly on the last day of the month covered by the contract. Accordingly, revenues from service contracts are recognized monthly. In 2004, the company did not bundle any significant service contracts with our systems installation work.

The Emergency Preparedness Planning Programs division provides emergency planning services to commercial real estate owners and managers. In general, project labor is the predominant cost associated with the completion of these projects. The company utilizes labor as the output measure in order to recognize revenue and believes this to be an accurate matching of costs and revenue.

Revenue from product sales (primarily specialty products) are recognized when title and risk of loss passes to the customer.

Use of Estimates - The preparation of financial statements, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States, requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash Equivalents - The Company considers highly liquid instruments with original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Trade Receivables - Trade receivables are stated at net realizable value. This value includes an appropriate allowance for estimated uncollectible accounts. The allowance is calculated based upon the evaluation and the level of past due accounts and the relationship with and the economic status of our customers.

Inventories - Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market value. Cost has been determined using the first-in, first-out method. Inventory quantities on-hand are regularly reviewed, and where necessary, reserves for excess and obsolete inventories are recorded.

Property and Equipment - Property and equipment are recorded at cost, net of accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is computed on a straight-line basis over estimated useful lives of five to seven years. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the shorter of related lease terms or the estimated useful lives. Upon retirement or sale, the costs of the assets disposed of and the related accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and any resulting gain or loss is included in the determination of income. Repairs and maintenance costs are expensed as incurred. Annually, the Company routinely reviews its property and equipment for impairment, and accordingly, will write-down those assets to their estimated fair value.

Intangible Assets - The Company's intangible assets include goodwill and other intangibles that consist of the fair value of acquired customer lists, service contracts acquired, trade names, and covenants not to compete. Goodwill represents the excess of purchase price over fair value of net assets acquired.

Effective January 1, 2002, the company adopted the provisions of Statement of Financial and Accounting Standards (SFAS) 142 "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets". In accordance with that statement goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite lives are not amortized, but are tested at least annually for impairment. Prior to January 1, 2002, the company had not recorded goodwill or other intangible assets of indefinite lives. Intangible assets with estimable useful lives, consisting primarily of acquired customer lists, service contracts and covenants not to compete are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives of five to fifteen years and are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset or asset group may not be recoverable. If the intangible asset's remaining useful life is changed, the intangible asset will be amortized over the remaining useful life. If the asset being amortized is determined to have an indefinite useful life, the asset will be tested for impairment. The impairment test will consist of measuring its fair value with its carrying amount. If the carrying amount of the intangible assets exceeds its fair value, an impairment loss is recognized for an amount equal to the excess and the adjusted carrying amount is recognized as its new accounting basis. The company recorded an impairment charge of approximately $77,000 and $21,000 for the write down of customer lists and service contract rights for the years ended December 31, 2004 and December 31, 2003, respectively. In addition, the Company recorded an impairment charge of approximately $65,000 for the write-down of a trade name for the year ended December 31, 2003.

Goodwill - The Company's goodwill impairment test is based on a two part procedure consistent with the requirements of SFAS 142. The first test consists of determining the fair value of the reporting unit and comparing it to the carrying value of the reporting unit. If the carrying value of the reporting unit exceeds the fair value of the reporting unit, a second test is performed. In step two, the implied fair value of the goodwill (which is the excess of the fair value of the reporting unit over the fair value of the net assets) is compared to the carrying value of the goodwill will. An impairment loss is recognized for any excess value of goodwill over the implied value. We determined the Company's reporting unit by analyzing geographic region as management evaluates the Company's performance in this manner. We identified four separate and distinct operating units for the testing requirements of SFAS 142. We evaluated each reporting unit for impairment. In 2004 and 2003, no charges to operations resulted from the required goodwill impairment evaluations.

Computer Software Product Cost - The Company accounts for software development costs in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 86, "Accounting for the Costs of Computer Software to be Sold, Leased or Otherwise Marketed," ("SFAS 86") under which certain software development costs incurred subsequent to the establishment of technological feasibility are capitalized and amortized over the estimated lives of the related products.

Technological feasibility is established upon completion of a working model. All costs incurred prior to demonstrating technical feasibility have been charged to cost of revenues. These capitalized costs are subject to an ongoing assessment of recoverability based on anticipated future revenues and changes in hardware and software technologies. To date, costs incurred subsequent to the establishment of technological feasibility were approximately $694,000 as of December 31, 2003.

These costs were amortized over the estimated product life using the straight-line method up to a maximum of five years. Management decided to outsource the manufacturing operations for Viscom during the third quarter of 2003. Accordingly, in addition to regular amortization expense of approximately $79,000 for the year ended December 31, 2003, the Company expensed approximately $136,000 of the unamortized value of computer software development costs for the year ending December 31, 2003 to operations. The company did not incur any capitalized software product costs in 2004.

Concentrations of Credit Risk - Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of cash, cash equivalents and accounts receivable. As of December 31, 2004, the Company had cash balances at certain financial institutions in excess of federally insured limits. However, the Company does not believe that it is subject to unusual credit risk beyond the normal credit risk associated with commercial banking relationships.

DIVERSIFIED SECURITY SOLUTIONS, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

Credit risk is generally diversified due to the large number of customers that make up the Company's customer base and their geographic dispersion resulting from three acquisitions in 2002. The Company performs ongoing credit evaluation of its customers. In 2004, there were no revenues to a single customer in excess of 10% of the Company's total revenues. Revenues to local government agencies were 20% and 21% of total revenues for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

Income Taxes - Deferred taxes are provided on the asset and liability method whereby assets and liabilities are recognized for taxable temporary differences. Temporary differences are the differences between the amounts reported for financial statement purposes and corresponding amounts for tax purposes. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are adjusted for the effects of changes in tax laws and rates on the date of enactment.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments - The carrying amounts of the Company's financial instruments, which include cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable, accrued expenses, short and long-term debt, approximate their fair values as of December 31, 2004.

Advertising Costs - The Company expenses advertising cost when the advertisement occurs. Total advertising expenses amounted to approximately $44,466 and $39,000 for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

Stock Based Compensation - In December 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 148 "Accounting for Stock Based Compensation - Transition and Disclosure". SFAS No. 148 provides alternative methods of transitions to SFAS No 123's fair value method of accounting for stock based employee compensation, but does not require companies to use fair value method. It also amends the disclosure provisions of SFAS No. 123 and APB No.25 to require, in the summary of significant policies, the effect of an entity's accounting policy with respect to stock based employee compensation on reported net income and earnings per share in annual and interim financial statements. The provision of this statement is effective for fiscal years ending after December 15, 2002, and interim reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2002. Accordingly, the fair value of all options granted on and after January 1, 2003 is to be charged against income over the vesting period. In 2004, the company charged $68,114 to operations for the fair value of those options granted subsequent to January 1, 2003. Those issued prior to adoption are accounted for under the intrinsic value method in accordance with APB No. 25. Refer to footnote 8 to the financial statement illustrating the effect on the earnings (loss). The Company adopted the perspective method as permitted by SFAS No. 148 on January 1, 2003.

Edgar Filing: DIVERSIFIED SECURITY SOLUTIONS INC - Form 10KSB

Research and Development Costs - Costs of research and development for new products are charged to operations as incurred. The Company charged approximately $35,000 for the year ended December 31, 2003. No amounts were incurred for research and development in 2004.

F-10

Warranty - The Company offers warranties on all products, including parts and labor that ranges from one (1) to four (4) years, depending upon the product. For products made by others, the Company passes along the manufacturer's warranty to the end user. The Company charges operations with warranty expenses as incurred. For the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, warranty expense was approximately $152,500 and $401,000, respectively.

Net Income (Loss) Per Share - The computation of basic earnings (loss) per share is based upon the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period. The computation of diluted earnings per share includes the dilutive effects of common stock equivalents of options and warrants.

Segment Information - FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 131, "Disclosure About Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information" ("Statement 131"), that establishes standards for the reporting by public business enterprises of financial and descriptive information about reportable operating segments in annual financial statements and interim financial reports issued to shareholders. The Company has identified two operating segments in which it operates (integration and specialty products). The Company provides integration - the installation services for companies in need of closed circuit TV and access control systems (and associated maintenance and service of these systems) that are located throughout the United States: the specialty products and services segment is comprised of Viscom Products, Airorlite Communications and the Emergency Preparedness Planning Programs division. This division accounted for 1.4% and 1.5% of the Company's consolidated revenue for the period ended December 31, 2004 and December 31, 2003, respectively. The Company has consolidated this division with the specialty products and services segment due to quantitative threshold. The operating segments (see Note 14) are segments for which separate financial information is available and for which the operations are regularly evaluated by the Company's senior management in assessing performance and in deciding how to allocate resources.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards - In November 2004, the FASB issued Statement No. 151, Inventory Costs-an amendment of ARB No. 43, Chapter 4 (FAS 151), which is effective beginning January 1, 2006. FAS 151 requires that abnormal amounts of idle facility expense, freight, handling costs and wasted material to be recognized as current period charges. The Statement also requires that the allocation of fixed production overhead be based on the normal capacity of the production facilities. The effect of this Statement on the Company's financial position or results of operations has not yet been determined.

In December 2004, the FASB issued Statement No. 123R, Share-Based Payment

Edgar Filing: DIVERSIFIED SECURITY SOLUTIONS INC - Form 10KSB

(FAS 123R), which is effective beginning July 1, 2005. FAS 123R requires all share-based payments to employees to be expensed over the requisite service period based on the grant-date fair value of the awards. The Statement allows for either prospective or retrospective adoption and requires that the unvested portion of all outstanding awards upon adoption be recognized using the same fair value and attribution methodologies previously determined under Statement No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation. The effect of this Statement on the Company's financial position or results of operations has not yet been determined. As a result, pro forma compensation expense, as reflected in Note 8, may not be indicative of future expense to be recognized under FAS123R.

Certain amounts in the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003 have been reclassified to conform with the current year presentation.

6. LONG-TERM DEBT

A subsidiary of the Company has a revolving loan facility with Hudson United Bank (the "bank") whereby the subsidiary may borrow up to $3,500,000 at the bank's prime interest rate through May 1, 2005. In addition, the subsidiary has an equipment line of credit of $500,000 through November 1, 2005, with monthly interest payments at 1/2% above the bank's prime rate. The subsidiary also has a term loan for $500,000 due November 1, 2005, payable in monthly installments of $13,483 plus interest at bank's prime interest rate plus 1/2%.

As of December 31, 2004 these lines are summarized as follows:

	Amount of Facility	Balance Due	Unused Line
	-----	-----	-----
Revolving line	$3,500,000	$1,170,000	$2,330,000

During 2004, the Company was able to pay $600,000 of the revolving line of credit and pay off the equipment loan of $143,425. The revolving line loan agreement requires the Company to maintain certain loan covenants. In addition, the agreement prohibits selling, assigning, transferring or disposing of any fixed assets without obtaining the bank's consent in writing. The loan is cross-guaranteed by the parent company and the various subsidiary companies. As of December 31, 2004, the Company was in compliance with the various loan covenants. The line of credit will mature in 2005. The Company has begun discussions with Hudson United Bank to renew this line of credit.

8. INCENTIVE STOCK OPTION PLAN

The Company has a Stock Option Plan (the "1999 Plan"), for the benefit of employees of the Company, under which options to purchase up to a maximum of 500,000 shares of its common stock may be issued.

The maximum term of any option is ten years, and the option price per share may not be less than the fair market value of the Company's shares at the date the option is granted. However, options granted to persons owning more than 10% of the voting shares will have a term not to exceed five years, and the option price will not be less than 110% of fair market value. Options granted to an optionee will usually vest 33 1/3% annually, beginning on the first anniversary of the option grant, subject to the discretion of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors.

The 1999 Plan will terminate on December 23, 2009 or on such earlier date as the Board of Directors may determine. Any option outstanding at the termination date will remain outstanding until it expires or is exercised in full, which ever occurs first.

In November 2001, the Company granted 40,000 options with an exercise price of $7.00 per share, to a consultant for services rendered. These options vest ratably over five years and expire in November 2006. The options were not granted as part of the Company's 1999 Plan or 2002 Plan.

On May 10, 2002, the Board of Directors approved the 2002 Incentive Stock Option Plan (the "2002 Plan"), which the shareholders subsequently approved on October 28, 2002. The 2002 Plan allows the granting of incentive stock options or non-qualified stock options to the Company's employees, directors and consultants, up to a maximum purchase of 230,000 shares of its common stock. All stock options granted under the 2002 Plan will be exercisable at such time or times and in such installments, if any, as our Compensation Committee or the Board may determine and expire no more than ten years from the date of grant. The 2002 Plan will terminate on May 9, 2012, or such earlier date as the Board of Directors may determine. Any option outstanding at the termination date will remain outstanding until it expires or is exercised in full, which ever occurs first. The exercise price of the stock option will be at fair market value. Vesting is at the discretion of the Compensation Committee. The 2002 Plan allows for immediate vesting if there is a change of control. As of December 31, 2004, a total of 401,900 options are available for future grant under both the 1999 Plan and the 2002 Plan.

A summary of stock option activity under the 1999 Plan and the 2002 Plan are as follows:

9. STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY

Pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement (the "Stock Purchase Agreement"), on August 13, 2002, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company acquired all of the issued and outstanding common stock of National Safe of California, Inc. ("National Safe"). The purchase price of the acquisition was $2,000,000, subject to certain adjustments specified in the Stock Purchase Agreement, which was paid by issuing an aggregate of 283,566 shares of the Company's common stock. The Stock Purchase Agreement provided that in the event that the average closing price of the Company's common stock for the ten trading days immediately prior to August 13, 2003 was less than $7.053 per share, the Company would, within 10 days of the Reference Date, either purchase 212,675 of the Shares of $1,500,000 (subject to certain adjustments detailed in the Stock Purchase Agreement) or pay the seller an amount equal to the difference between (i) $1,500,000 and (ii) 212,675 (subject to certain adjustments detailed in the Stock Purchase Agreement) multiplied by such average closing price. In August 2003, the Company recorded additional goodwill of approximately $ 46,000 for the guarantee of the stock price. The Company issued 10,624 shares of common stock in connection with required adjustments to the purchase price of the acquisition. The value of the shares was approximately $69,000.

Effective April 1, 2004, ACI Acquisition Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, purchased all of the issued and outstanding stock of Airorlite Communications, Inc ("Airorlite"). Airorlite was purchased for $200,000 cash and 37,000 shares of the Company's common stock, valued at $266,400. ACI Acquisition Corporation was subsequently renamed to Airorlite Communication's Inc. These shares were issued in reliance on the exemption provided by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, regarding transactions not involving a public offering.

On July 28, 2004, the Company completed a $3,319,998 private placement of its common stock to certain qualified institutional investors. Under the terms of the agreement, the Company sold an aggregate of 553,333 shares of common stock to Lakeshore International, Ltd, Global Bermuda Limited Partnership, Merced Partners Limited Partnership, Tamarack International, Ltd., SRG Capital LLC, TCMP Partners and Bristol Investment Fund, Ltd., each a qualified institutional investor, for $6.00 per share. The Company also has granted the investors a warrant to acquire 138,333 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $7.60 per share, exercisable for a period commencing six months after the date of issuance through the fifth anniversary of the issuance. In addition, the Placement Agent received a commission of 8% of the proceeds plus expenses and was issued a warrant to acquire 55,333 shares of common stock with the same terms as those issued to the institutional investors. After expenses, the net proceeds of the transaction were $2,958,058. The Company intends to use the net proceeds of the private placement for general corporate purposes. The securities issued in the private placement were offered and sold to the investors without registration under the Securities Act of 1933, in reliance upon the exemption provided by Regulation D and Section 4(2) of the Securities Act. Such securities may not be offered or sold in the United States in the absence of an effective registration statement or an exemption from registration requirements under the Securities Act. The Company filed a registration statement with the SEC covering the resale of the shares sold under this private placement and the shares issuable upon the exercise of the warrants on August 29, 2004, which statement was declared effective on September 7, 2004.

On December 31, 2003, the Board of Directors authorized the issuance of 52,550 shares of restricted stock to employees. These shares were valued at $294,280 and the Company included this expense in the Consolidated Statements of Operations for 2003. On November 5, 2004, the Company's shareholders approved the issuance of these shares. These shares carried a one year restriction and were issued on January 3, 2005.

During 2004, several individuals exercised their employee incentive stock options. Through December 31, 2004, options to exercise 18,525 shares of the Company's common stock have been issued.

Holders of common stock are entitled to one vote for each share held on all matters submitted for a vote of stockholders and do not have cumulative voting rights. Apart from preferences that may be applicable to any shares of preferred stock outstanding at the time, holders of our common stock are entitled to receive dividends ratably, if any, as may be declared from time to time by our board of directors out of funds legally available. Upon the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, the holders of common stock are entitled to receive ratably the net assets available after the payment of all liabilities and liquidation preferences on any outstanding preferred stock. Holders of common stock have no preemptive, subscription, redemption or conversion rights, and there are no redemption or sinking fund provisions applicable to the common stock.

Treasury Stock - In connection with the National Safe acquisition (as described above), the Company made a $500,000 non-recourse loan at 6% interest rate per annum, to the seller of National Safe that was collateralized by 70,891 shares of the Company's stock. On September 23, 2003, 70,891 shares of the Company's stock were placed in treasury when the seller defaulted on a note receivable to the Company. The Company cancelled the note and recorded treasury stock at a cost of $500,000 in 2003.

On November 5, 2004, a resolution of the Board of Directors determined that the shares held in treasury be restored to the status of authorized but unissued. The company recorded this transaction in 2004.

Preferred Stock - Our board of directors is authorized, without stockholder approval, to issue up to 2,000,000 shares of preferred stock in one or more series and to fix the rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions of these shares, including dividend rights, conversion rights, voting rights, terms of redemption and liquidation preferences, and to fix the number of shares constituting any series and the designations of these series. These shares may have rights senior to our common stock. The issuance of preferred stock may have the effect of delaying or preventing a change in control. The issuance of preferred stock could decrease the amount of earnings and assets available for distribution to the holders of our common stock or could adversely affect the rights and powers, including voting rights, of the holders of our common stock. At present, we have no plans to issue preferred stock in the foreseeable future.

Warrants - In connection with the Company's initial public offering in November 2001, the Company's underwriter was granted warrants to purchase up to 150,000 shares of common stock. The warrant exercise price is $11.55 a share and will expire in November 2005. The warrants contain provisions that protect holders against dilution, by adjustment of the exercise price and number of shares issuable upon exercise, on the occurrence of specific events such as stock dividends or other changes in the number of shares outstanding, except for shares issued under certain circumstances, including shares issued under the incentive stock option plan or any equity securities for which adequate consideration is received. The holder of the warrant does not possess any rights as a stockholder until and unless the warrant is exercised.

In connection with the Company's private placement of its common stock to certain qualified institutional investors (as noted above), such investors were issued warrants to acquire 138,333 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $7.60 per share, exercisable for a period commencing six months after the date of issuance through the fifth anniversary of the issuance. In addition, the Placement Agent was issued warrants to acquire 55,333 shares of common stock with the same terms as those issued to the institutional investors. These warrants will expire January 27, 2010.

A total of 1,095,141 common shares are reserved for exercise of employee stock options and warrants as of December 31, 2004.

10. COMMITMENTS

Leases - The Company leases its office and revenues facilities under operating leases that expire through 2007. Future minimum rental payments, under non-cancelable leases as of December 31, 2004, are as follows:

2005	$384,500
2006	257,000
2007	6,500

Total	$648,000

Rent expense under operating leases were approximately $381,000 and $368,000 for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

Employment Agreements - The Company had entered into employment agreements with two of its officers through 2005. The employment agreements provide for minimum aggregate annual compensation of approximately $359,000 for 2004, plus unspecified annual bonuses and 10% raises through 2005. Also, there is a one-year non-competition covenant that commences after termination of employment in certain contracts. In December 2003, both officers agreed to waive their salaries by 20% to approximately $261,000 until the Company becomes profitable. In 2004, the Company returned to profitability. However, these officers did not restore their salaries to the former levels.

11. EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN

As of January 1, 2003, the Company sponsored a 401-K plan, including discretionary profit sharing (the "401-K Plan"). The Company may match up to three percent of qualifying employees' compensation when contributed to the 401-K Plan. As of September 1, 2003, the Company temporarily stopped matching contributions to the 401-K Plan but may resume discretionary matches in the future. The Company's contributions to the employees' accounts vests equally over three years

12. RELATED PARTIED TRANSACTIONS

The Company paid consulting fees of approximately of $3,000 and $51,000, for the years ended December 31, 2004 and December 31, 2003, respectively, to a corporation that had one of the Company's directors as an officer.

The Company paid a former Director consulting fees of $2,400 for the year ended December 31, 2003.

13. RESTATEMENT

In conjunction with the Company's decision, in the third quarter of 2003, to outsource a product formerly manufactured by Viscom Products, the Company wrote-down inventory of approximately $582,000 and software development cost of approximately $136,000. In 2003, the Company inadvertently reported this as a single line item entitled Restructuring Charge in the Consolidated Statement of Operations. The Company has subsequently reclassified these items in the Consolidated Statements of Operations for 2003 and included these charges in the applicable line item.

15. CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

From time to time, the Company is subject to various claims with respect to matters arising out of the normal course of business. In management's opinion, none of these claims is likely to have a material affect on the Company's consolidated financial statements

16. SUBSEQUENT EVENT

In January 2005, the Company entered into an agreement with Administaff, Inc. to outsource its human resources and payroll functions. With the decision to outsource these functions, the company and its employees receive benefits that are available to larger companies. The Company's employees will enter into a co-employment relationship with Administaff. Administaff will handle the daily management of the human resource and payroll functions, for which they receive an administrative fee. The Company does not anticipate any adverse financial impact due to this change.
