Item 8.01 Other Events.

On June 18, 2010, BankAtlantic Bancorp, Inc. (the Company) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) and distributed to its shareholders of record as of the close of business on June 14, 2010 the prospectus supplement and accompanying base prospectus (the Prospectus) relating to the Company's previously announced rights offering of up to $25,000,000 of its Class A Common Stock. The Prospectus forms a part of the Company's Registration Statement on Form S-3 (Registration No. 333-164896) which was filed with the SEC on February 12, 2010 and declared effective by the SEC on May 4, 2010 (the Registration Statement). The Company is filing the items included as Exhibits 4.3, 5.1.1, 99.1, 99.2, 99.3, 99.4, 99.5, 99.6 and 99.7 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, each of which relates to the Company's rights offering, for the purpose of incorporating such items as exhibits to the Registration Statement.

In the Prospectus, the Company disclosed that it expects to adopt a shareholder rights plan aimed at preserving the Company's ability to utilize its available net operating losses to offset future taxable income. As contemplated, the shareholder rights plan would be designed with a goal of preventing an ownership change for purposes of Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code. The shareholder rights plan, if triggered, would cause substantial dilution to any person or group that acquires 5% or more of the outstanding shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock or owns 5% or more of the outstanding shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock and thereafter acquires any additional shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock without the Company's approval; provided, however, that the issuance of shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock pursuant to the exercise of basic subscription rights in the Company's rights offering will be exempt from the operation of the shareholder rights plan. Although the anticipated adoption of the shareholder rights plan is not in response to any effort to acquire control of the Company, the shareholder rights plan, if adopted, would make it more difficult for a third party to acquire a controlling position in the Company's common stock without the Company's approval. As described in the Prospectus and previously disclosed by the Company, regardless of whether the Company adopts the shareholder rights plan prior to the expiration of the rights offering, the Company may determine not to accept any particular over-subscription request in the rights offering if, in the Company's judgment based on information available to it, the issuance of shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock in respect thereof would jeopardize or limit the Company's ability to utilize its available net operating losses to offset future taxable income. The Company cautions, however, that there is no assurance that it will ultimately adopt the shareholder rights plan, that the shareholder rights plan, if adopted, will be implemented in all instances so as to successfully protect against any limitation on the Company's ability to utilize its available net operating losses to offset future taxable income or that determinations made by the Company regarding the impact of shares issued pursuant to over-subscription requests in the rights offering on the Company's ability to utilize its available net operating losses will prove to be correct.
