Forward-looking statements

This prospectus and each prospectus supplement includes and incorporates forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The words anticipates, believes, estimates, expects, intends, may, plans, projects, will, would, and other expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements.

Actual results or events could differ materially from the forward-looking statements we make. Among the factors that could cause actual results to differ materially are the factors discussed under Business Risk Factors in our Form 10-K for the year ended September 30, 2004. We also will include or incorporate by reference in each prospectus supplement important factors that we believe could cause actual results or events to differ materially from the forward-looking statements that we make. Our principal executive offices are located at 18167 U.S. Highway 19 North, Suite 300, Clearwater, Florida 33764. Our telephone number at that address is (727) 531-1700.

Use of proceeds

Except as may be otherwise set forth in the prospectus supplement accompanying this prospectus, we will use the net proceeds we receive from sales of common stock offered hereby for general corporate purposes. Pending utilization of the net proceeds, we intend to use the net proceeds to repay short-term indebtedness under our credit facility. Our credit facility provides us with a line of credit with asset-based borrowing availability of up to $260 million for working capital and inventory financing, which is determined pursuant to a borrowing base formula. The credit facility accrues interest at a rate of LIBOR plus 175 to 260 basis points, which is determined in accordance with a Performance Pricing grid as defined in the credit facility and matures in December 2006, with two one-year renewal options remaining. The credit facility also permits approved-vendor floorplan borrowings of up to $20 million.

We will not receive any of the proceeds from any sale of shares of common stock hereunder by the selling stockholder.

Prospectus supplements

This prospectus provides you with a general description of the proposed offering of shares of our common stock. Each time that we or the selling stockholder sell securities under this prospectus, we will provide a prospectus supplement that will contain specific information about the terms of that offering. The prospectus supplement may also add to or change information contained in this prospectus and should be read as superseding this prospectus. You should read both this prospectus and any prospectus supplement together with additional information described under the heading "Where you can obtain additional information."

The prospectus supplement to be attached to the front of this prospectus will describe the terms of any common stock that we or the selling stockholder offer and any initial offering price to the public in that offering, the purchase price and net proceeds that we or the selling stockholder will receive, and the other specific terms related to that offering of common stock.

Description of capital stock

We are authorized to issue 24,000,000 shares of common stock, $.001 par value, and 1,000,000 shares of undesignated preferred stock, $.001 par value. At December 31, 2004, we had outstanding 15,846,329 shares of common stock and had reserved 2,509,385 shares of common stock for issuance with respect to options outstanding under various stock option plans. No shares of preferred stock were outstanding at that time. The following description of our capital stock is intended to be a summary and does not describe all provisions of our restated certificate of incorporation, as amended, our amended and restated bylaws, or Delaware law applicable to us. For a more thorough understanding of the terms of our capital stock, you should refer to our restated certificate of incorporation, as amended, our amended and restated bylaws, and the Rights Agreement dated August 28, 2001 between us and American Stock Transfer & Trust Company. Reference also is made to our Registration Statement on Form 8-A (Registration No. 1-14173) and Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended September 30, 2004.

Common stock

Holders of shares of common stock are entitled to receive dividends when, as, and if declared by our board of directors out of funds legally available therefor, subject to the prior dividend rights of any shares of preferred stock from time to time outstanding.

Each share of common stock is entitled to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders. Holders of shares of common stock do not have cumulative voting rights. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of our company, after the satisfaction in full of the liquidation preferences of holders of any shares of preferred stock then outstanding, holders of shares of common stock are entitled to ratable distribution of the remaining assets available for distribution to stockholders. The shares of common stock are not subject to redemption by operation of a sinking fund or otherwise. Holders of shares of common stock are not entitled to pre-emptive rights. The issued and outstanding shares of common stock are fully paid and nonassessable.

Our restated certificate of incorporation, as amended, authorizes our board of directors, without any vote or action by the holders of our common stock, to issue preferred stock from time to time in one or more series. Our board of directors is authorized to determine the number of shares and to fix the designations, powers, preferences, and the relative participating, optional, or other rights of any series of preferred stock. Issuances of preferred stock would be subject to the applicable rules of the New York Stock Exchange or other organizations on which our securities are then quoted or listed. Depending upon the terms of preferred stock established by our board of directors, any or all series of preferred stock could have preference over the common stock with respect to dividends and other distributions and upon our liquidation. If any shares of preferred stock are issued with voting powers, the voting power of the outstanding common stock would be diluted.

Our board of directors has adopted a stockholders' rights plan. Under the plan, we issued a dividend of one preferred share purchase right, or right, for each share of common stock of our company held by stockholders of record as of the close of business on September 7, 2001. Each right entitles stockholders to buy one one-thousandth of a share of Series A Junior Participating Preferred Stock of our company at an exercise price of $50.00 per share, subject to adjustment. The plan was not adopted in response to any specific takeover threat. The plan, however, was designed to assure that all of our stockholders receive fair and equal treatment in the event of any proposed takeover of our company and to guard against coercive or unfair tactics to gain control of our company without paying all stockholders a premium for that control.

The following table sets forth certain information regarding the selling stockholder's beneficial ownership of our common stock as of the date of this prospectus. Because the selling stockholder may sell none, all, or a portion of the shares it holds pursuant to this prospectus, no meaningful estimate can be given as to the amount or percentage of shares that will be held by the selling stockholder after completion of any offering by the selling stockholder. The selling stockholder has sole voting and investment power with respect to all shares of common stock beneficially owned by it.

Name	Shares beneficially owned		Number of shares registered under this prospectus
	Number	Percent
BCMM Holdings, Inc.(1)	1,861,200	11.8%	1,861,200

(1) BCMM Holdings, Inc. is a wholly owned subsidiary of Brunswick Corporation. BCMM Holdings, Inc. and Brunswick Corporation maintain their principal executive offices at 1 North Field Court, Lake Forest, Illinois 60045.

Through operating subsidiaries, we are a party to various dealer agreements with Brunswick. We are the nation's largest retailer of Sea Ray, Boston Whaler, Meridian, and Hatteras recreational boats and yachts, all of which are manufactured by Brunswick. Sales of new Brunswick boats accounted for approximately 60% of our revenue in fiscal 2004. We believe our sales represented in excess of 10% of all Brunswick marine sales, including 34% of its new Sea Ray boat sales, during our 2004 fiscal year. For a further discussion of the business relationship between Brunswick and us, see Item 1, "Business" of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended September 30, 2004.

Brunswick acquired the shares at the time of our initial public offering in 1998. Brunswick informed us that it desired to sell the shares to raise funds for general corporate purposes, including possible acquisitions. Brunswick also informed us that its desire to sell the shares is not an indication of a change in its business relationship with us. We and Brunswick are currently exploring possible ways to expand that business relationship in the future. Although we had the right to purchase the shares from Brunswick, we agreed to file the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part to facilitate Brunswick's sale of the shares and thereby increase the public float of our common stock.

Plan of distribution

We and the selling stockholder may sell the shares of common stock described in this prospectus from time to time in one or more of the following ways:

to or through underwriters or dealers,

directly to one or more purchasers,

through agents, or through a combination of any of those methods of sale.

The prospectus supplement with respect to the offered shares of common stock will describe the terms of the offering, including the following:

the name or names of any underwriters or agents,

the name of the selling stockholder,

the number of shares being sold by us and the selling stockholder, any initial public offering price,

the proceeds to us from such sale,

any underwriting discounts or agency fees and other items constituting underwriters or agents compensation, any discounts or concessions allowed or reallowed or paid to dealers, and any securities exchanges on which the shares may be listed.

We and the selling stockholder may distribute the shares from time to time in one or more of the following ways:

at a fixed public offering price or prices, which may be changed, at prices relating to prevailing market prices at the time of sale, at varying prices determined at the time of sale, or at negotiated prices.

Underwriters, dealers, or agents may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions, or commissions from us or our purchasers as their agents in connection with the sale of the securities. These underwriters, dealers, or agents may be considered to be underwriters under the Securities Act of 1933. As a result, discounts, commissions, or profits on resale received by underwriters, dealers, or agents may be treated as underwriting discounts and commissions. Each prospectus supplement will identify any underwriter, dealer, or agent and describe any compensation received by them from us. Any initial public offering price and any discounts or concessions allowed or reallowed or paid to dealers may be changed from time to time.

In connection with any offering, the underwriters may engage in stabilizing transactions, over-allotment transactions, syndicate covering transactions, and penalty bids in accordance with Regulation M under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Stabilizing transactions permit bids to purchase the underlying security so long as the stabilizing bids do not exceed a specified maximum.

Over-allotment involves sales by the underwriters of shares of our common stock in excess of the number of shares the underwriters are obligated to purchase, which creates a syndicate short position. The short position may be either a covered short position or a naked short position. In a covered short position, the number of shares of our common stock over-allotted by the underwriters is not greater than the number of shares that they may purchase in the over-allotment option. In a naked short position, the number of shares of our common stock involved is greater than the number of shares in the over-allotment option. The underwriters may close out any covered short position by either exercising their over-allotment option and/or purchasing shares of our common stock in the open market.

Syndicate covering transactions involve purchases of our common stock in the open market after the distribution has been completed in order to cover syndicate short positions. In determining the source of shares to close out the short position, the underwriters will consider, among other things, the price of shares of our common stock available for purchase in the open market as compared to the price at which they may purchase shares through the over-allotment option so that if there is a naked short position, the position can only be closed out by buying shares in the open market. A naked short position is more likely to be created if the underwriters are concerned that there could be downward pressure on the price of the shares of our common stock in the open market after the pricing of any offering that could adversely affect investors who purchase in that offering.

Penalty bids permit the representatives of the underwriters to reclaim a selling concession from a syndicate member when the common stock originally sold by the syndicate member is purchased in a stabilizing or syndicate covering transaction to cover syndicate short positions.

These stabilizing transactions, syndicate covering transactions, and penalty bids may have the effect of raising or maintaining the market price of our common stock or preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of our common stock. As a result, the price of our common stock may be higher than the price that might otherwise exist in the open market. These transactions may be effected on the New York Stock Exchange or otherwise and, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time.

Underwriters, dealers, and agents may be entitled under agreements entered into with us to indemnification by us against certain civil liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933, or to contribution with respect to payments they may be required to make in respect of these liabilities thereof. Underwriters, dealers, and agents and their affiliates may be customers of, may engage in transactions with, or perform services for us in the ordinary course of business for which they receive compensation.

Legal matters

The validity of the shares of common stock offered hereby will be passed upon for us by Greenberg Traurig, LLP, Phoenix, Arizona. Robert S. Kant, a principal shareholder of Greenberg Traurig, P.A., has served as a director of our company since August 1998 and owns 30,436 shares of our common stock and holds options to purchase 26,000 shares of our common stock at various prices.

Item 15. Indemnification of directors and officers

The Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, the Amended and Restated Bylaws of the registrant provide that the registrant will indemnify and advance expenses, to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law, to each person who is or was a director or officer of the registrant, or who serves or served any other enterprise or organization at the request of the registrant (an Indemnitee ).

Under Delaware law, to the extent that an Indemnitee is successful on the merits in defense of a suit or proceeding brought against him or her by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, or agent of the registrant, or serves or served any other enterprise or organization at the request of the registrant, the registrant shall indemnify him or her against expenses (including attorneys fees) actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such action.

If unsuccessful in defense of a third-party civil suit or a criminal suit, or if such a suit is settled, an Indemnitee may be indemnified under Delaware law against both (i) expenses, including attorneys fees, and (ii) judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the registrant, and, with respect to any criminal action, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

If unsuccessful in defense of a suit brought by or in the right of the registrant, where the suit is settled, an Indemnitee may be indemnified under Delaware law only against expenses (including attorneys fees) actually and reasonably incurred in the defense or settlement of the suit if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the registrant except that if the Indemnitee is adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duty to the registrant, he or she cannot be made whole even for expenses unless a court determines that he or she is fully and reasonably entitled to indemnification for such expenses.

Also under Delaware law, expenses incurred by an officer or director in defending a civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding may be paid by the registrant in advance of the final disposition of the suit, action, or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the officer or director to repay such amount if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the registrant. The registrant may also advance expenses incurred by other employees and agents of the registrant upon such terms and conditions, if any, that the board of directors of the registrant deems appropriate.

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement.

Provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) of this section do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference into the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(e) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(i) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that:

(1) For purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, the information omitted from the form of prospectus filed as part of this registration statement in reliance upon Rule 430A and contained in a form of prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(1) or (4) or 497(h) under the Securities Act shall be deemed to be part of this registration statement as of the time it was declared effective.

(2) For the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each post-effective amendment that contains a form of prospectus shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
