Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 19, 2005, we amended our two principal corporate credit agreements: (a) our $3.0 billion revolving and term loan credit facility dated December 2004 and (b) our $299 million term loan credit facility dated October 2005. The amendments, among other things:

modify the calculation methodology of our financial covenants and lower our minimum EBITDA to interest expense ratio requirement during 2006; and require us to use the net unrestricted sales proceeds from our Ceredo and New York City plants to prepay, subject to our indentures, the December 2004 term loan.

Additionally, the amendment to the December 2004 facilities alters the timing for the revolving facility becoming unsecured and the suspension of several covenants by adding an additional requirement that the $299 million term loan facility also be paid in full.

On October 26, 2005, we entered into an amendment of our two principal corporate credit agreements. The amendments conformed to our senior secured notes the amount of additional indebtedness that we are permitted to have at any time outstanding.

The summary description of the amendments to our credit agreements is qualified by reference to the amendments, which are filed as exhibits to this Form 8-K.

The lenders and agents under these amendments have provided, and may in the future provide, investment banking, underwriting, lending, commercial banking and other advisory services to us. These parties have received, and may in the future receive, customary compensation from us for such services.
