PROXY STATEMENT FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
TO BE HELD ON JUNE 29, 2004

INTRODUCTION

This Proxy Statement and enclosed Proxy Card are being furnished commencing on or about May 28, 2004 in connection with the solicitation by the board of directors of GameStop Corp., a Delaware corporation (the Company), of proxies for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on June 29, 2004 (the Meeting) for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Any proxy given pursuant to such solicitation and received in time for the Meeting will be voted as specified in such proxy. If no instructions are given, proxies will be voted FOR the election of the nominees listed below under the caption Election of Directors Information Concerning the Directors and Nominees Nominees for Election as Director, FOR the ratification of the appointment of BDO Seidman, LLP as independent certified public accountants for the Company's fiscal year ending January 29, 2005 (collectively, the Proposals), and in the discretion of the proxies named on the Proxy Card with respect to any other matters properly brought before the Meeting and any adjournments thereof. Any proxy may be revoked by written notice received by the Secretary of the Company at any time prior to the voting thereof by submitting a subsequent proxy or by attending the Meeting and voting in person.

Only holders of record of the Company's voting securities as of the close of business on May 5, 2004 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting. As of the record date, 21,165,428 shares of Class A Common Stock, par value $.001 per share (Class A Common Stock), and 36,009,000 shares of Class B Common Stock, par value $.001 per share (Class B Common Stock), and together with the Class A Common Stock, the Common Stock) were outstanding. Each share of Class A Common Stock entitles the record holder thereof to one vote on each of the Proposals and on all other matters properly brought before the Meeting. Each share of Class B Common Stock entitles the record holder thereof to ten votes on each of the Proposals and on all other matters properly brought before the Meeting. All of the outstanding Class B Common Stock is held by Barnes & Noble, Inc. (Barnes & Noble). The presence of a majority of the combined outstanding shares of the Common Stock represented in person or by proxy at the Meeting will constitute a quorum.

The two nominees for director receiving the highest vote totals will be elected as directors of the Company to serve until the 2007 annual meeting of stockholders. The proposal to ratify the appointment of the Company's independent certified public accountants, and all other matters that may be voted on at the Meeting, will be decided by the affirmative vote of a majority (by vote) of the shares of Common Stock voting on the proposal in person or by proxy at the Meeting. Thus, abstentions and broker non-votes will not be included in vote totals with respect to such proposals and will have no effect on the outcome of the votes with respect thereto. It should be noted that Barnes & Noble controls the voting power of approximately 94.4% of the Common Stock outstanding as of May 1, 2004, and it has advised the Company that it intends to vote in favor of all of the Proposals.

A Proxy Card is enclosed for your use. YOU ARE SOLICITED ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS TO COMPLETE, SIGN, DATE AND RETURN THE PROXY CARD IN THE ACCOMPANYING ENVELOPE, which is postage paid if mailed in the United States.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORSPROPOSAL 1*Information Concerning the Directors and Nominees

Our board of directors currently consists of seven directors. Our certificate of incorporation divides our board of directors into three classes: Class I, whose terms will expire at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held in 2006, Class II, whose terms will expire at the Meeting, and Class III, whose terms will expire at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held in 2005. Michael N. Rosen and Edward A. Volkwein are in Class I; R. Richard Fontaine and Stephanie M. Shern are in Class II; and Daniel A. DeMatteo, Leonard Riggio and Gerald R. Szczepanski are in Class III. At each annual meeting of stockholders, the successors to directors whose terms will then expire will be elected to serve from the time of election and qualification until the third annual meeting following election.

In addition, our certificate of incorporation provides that the authorized number of directors may be changed only by resolution of the board of directors. Any additional directorships resulting from an increase in the number of directors will be distributed among the three classes so that, as nearly as possible, each class will consist of one-third of the total number of directors.

Meetings and Committees of the Board

The Company is a controlled company under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) because greater than 50% of the voting power in the Company is held by Barnes & Noble. Companies that are controlled companies are exempt from the NYSE's corporate governance rules requiring that listed companies have (i) a majority of the board of directors consist of independent directors under the listing standards of the NYSE, (ii) a nominating/corporate governance committee composed entirely of independent directors and a written nominating/corporate governance committee charter meeting the NYSE's requirements, and (iii) a compensation committee composed entirely of independent directors and a written compensation committee charter meeting the NYSE's requirements. Notwithstanding the foregoing, as indicated below, the Company's Compensation Committee is composed entirely of independent directors.

The board of directors met five times during the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004 (fiscal 2003). All directors attended at least 75% of all of the meetings of the board of directors and the committees thereof on which they served during fiscal 2003.

The board of directors has two standing committees: the Audit Committee and the Compensation Committee.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee has the principal function of, among other things, reviewing the adequacy of the Company's internal system of accounting controls, the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the independent certified public accountants, conferring with the independent certified public accountants concerning the scope of their examination of the books and records of the Company, reviewing and approving related party transactions and considering other appropriate matters regarding the financial affairs of the Company. In addition, the Audit Committee has established procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of confidential and anonymous complaints regarding the Company's accounting, internal accounting controls and auditing matters. The board of directors has adopted a written charter setting out the functions of the Audit Committee, a copy of which is attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix A, is available on the Company's website at www.gamestop.com and is available in print to any stockholder who requests it, in writing to the Company's Secretary, GameStop Corp., 2250 William D. Tate Avenue, Grapevine, Texas 76051. As required by the charter, the Audit Committee will continue to review and reassess the adequacy of the charter annually and recommend any changes to the board of directors for approval. The current members of the Audit Committee are Stephanie M. Shern (Chairperson), Edward A. Volkwein and Gerald R. Szczepanski, all of whom are independent directors under the listing standards of the NYSE. In addition to meeting the independence standards of the NYSE, each member of the Audit Committee is financially literate and meets the independence standards established by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC). The board of directors has also determined that Mrs. Shern has the requisite attributes of an audit committee financial expert as defined by regulations promulgated by the SEC and that such attributes were acquired through relevant education and/or experience. The Audit Committee met nine times during fiscal 2003.

Compensation Committee. The principal function of the Compensation Committee is to, among other things, make recommendations to the board of directors with respect to matters regarding the approval of employment agreements, management and consultant hiring and executive compensation. The Compensation Committee is also responsible for administering the Company's 2001 Incentive Plan and the Company's Supplemental Compensation Plan (the Supplemental Compensation Plan). The current members of the Compensation Committee are Gerald R. Szczepanski (Chair) and Edward A. Volkwein, both of whom meet the independence standards of the NYSE. The Compensation Committee met two times during fiscal 2003.

Nominating Committee. As a controlled company, the Company is not required to, and does not have, a standing nominating committee or other committee performing a similar function. As discussed below, all of the members of the board of directors participate in the consideration of director nominees.

Minimum Qualifications

The Company does not set specific criteria for directors except to the extent required to meet applicable legal, regulatory and stock exchange requirements, including, but not limited to, the independence requirements of the NYSE and the SEC, as applicable. Nominees for director will be selected on the basis of outstanding achievement in their personal careers; board experience; wisdom; integrity; ability to make independent, analytical inquiries; understanding of the business environment; and willingness to devote adequate time to board of directors' duties. While the selection of qualified directors is a complex and subjective process that requires consideration of many intangible factors, the board of directors believes that each director should have a basic understanding of (i) the principal operational and financial objectives and plans and strategies of the Company, (ii) the results of operations and financial condition of the Company and of any of its significant subsidiaries or business segments, and (iii) the relative standing of the Company and its business segments in relation to its competitors.

Nominating Process

Consideration of new board of director's nominee candidates, if any, typically involves a series of internal discussions, review of information concerning candidates and interviews with selected candidates. The board of directors is willing to consider candidates submitted by a variety of sources (including incumbent directors, stockholders (in accordance with the process described below), Company management and third party search firms) when reviewing candidates to fill vacancies and/or expand the board of directors. When nominating a sitting director for re-election at an annual meeting, the board of directors will consider the director's performance on the board of directors and the director's qualifications in respect of the foregoing.

Consideration of Stockholder-Nominated Directors

The board of directors will consider potential nominees submitted by stockholders if a vacancy arises or if the board of directors decides to expand its membership, and at such other times as the board of directors deems necessary or appropriate. The Company's Bylaws provide that, in order for a stockholder to nominate a person for election to the board of directors at an annual meeting of stockholders, such stockholder must give written notice to the Company's Secretary, GameStop Corp., 2250 William D. Tate Avenue, Grapevine, Texas 76051, not less than 30 days nor more than 60 days prior to the meeting; provided, however, that in the event that less than 40 days notice or prior public disclosure of the date of the meeting is given to stockholders, notice by the stockholder must be given not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which such notice of the date of the meeting was mailed or such public disclosure was made. Such notice must contain the proposing stockholder's record name and address, and the class and number of shares of the Company which are beneficially owned by such stockholder. Such notice must also contain all information relating to such nominee that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, including such person's written consent to being a nominee and to serving as a director if elected.

Grants of Stock Options in Last Fiscal Year

The following table shows all grants of options to acquire shares of our Class A Common Stock granted to the executive officers named in the summary compensation table in the Executive Compensation section of this Proxy Statement for the year ended January 31, 2004. The options for executive officers to acquire shares of our Class A Common Stock were granted on March 2, 2004, based on performance for the year ended January 31, 2004. The potential realizable value is calculated based on the term of the option at its date of grant. It is calculated assuming that the fair market value of our Class A Common Stock on the date of grant appreciates at the indicated annual rates compounded annually for the entire term of the option and that the option is exercised and sold on the last day of its term for the appreciated stock. These numbers are calculated based on the requirements of the SEC and do not reflect our estimate of future stock price growth.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Company's executive officer compensation program is administered by the Compensation Committee of the board of directors, as discussed below. The program is based upon the following guiding principles:

1. The pay and benefits provided by the Company to its executive officers should be competitive and allow the Company to attract and retain individuals whose skills are critical to the long-term success of the Company.
2. The compensation offered by the Company should reward and motivate individual and team performance in attaining business objectives and maximizing stockholder value.

The Compensation Committee reviews the Company's executive compensation program each year. This review includes a comparison of the Company's executive compensation, corporate performance, stock appreciation and total return to stockholders with that of other companies, including other retailers.

The key elements of the Company's executive compensation package consist of base salary, annual bonus and stock options. The Company's policies with respect to each of these elements are discussed below. In addition, while the elements of compensation described below are considered separately, the Compensation Committee also considers and reviews the full compensation package afforded by the Company to its executive officers, including insurance and other benefits. The Compensation Committee makes its determinations after receiving and considering the recommendations of the Company's chief executive officer.

Base Salaries. An executive officer's base salary is determined by evaluating the responsibilities of the position held, the individual's experience and the competitive marketplace for executive talent. The base salary is intended to be competitive with base salaries paid to executive officers with comparable qualifications, experience and responsibilities at other companies.

Annual Bonuses. In addition to a base salary, each executive officer is eligible for an annual cash bonus. Bonuses for executive officers of the Company are based upon the criteria used in, and are calculated in accordance with, the Supplemental Compensation Plan.

The Supplemental Compensation Plan provides that participating executive officers are entitled to a cash bonus in an amount equal to a percentage of their base salary which shall be pre-determined for each participating executive officer by the Compensation Committee for each fiscal year. The bonus amount is calculated after each fiscal year in accordance with a sliding scale formula based on the extent to which a pre-established performance target is attained. In general, not later than 90 days after the commencement of each fiscal year of the Company (and before 25% of the relevant period of service has elapsed), the Compensation Committee will establish in writing a performance target for each participating executive officer (the "Target"), the attainment of which is substantially uncertain. Targets are subject to adjustment for recapitalizations, dividends, stock splits and reverse splits, reorganizations, issuances of additional shares, redemptions of shares, option or warrant exercises, reclassifications, significant acquisitions and divestitures and other extraordinary events.

Each participating executive officer is entitled to receive a cash bonus in the amount of their pre-determined percentage of Base Salary (the "Target Bonus") as follows:

Percentage of

If the Fiscal Year Results were:	Target Bonus Received is:
Less than 85% of Target	None
85% or more but less than 90% of Target	50%

Table of Contents

90% or more but less than 100% of Target	75%
100% or more but less than 110% of Target	100%
110% or more but less than 125% of Target	110%
125% or more of Target	125%

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event will the maximum cash bonus payable to any participating executive officer under the Supplemental Compensation Plan exceed $1,500,000 with respect to any fiscal year. No bonuses are paid until the Compensation Committee certifies the extent to which the Target has been attained.

Stock Options. The general purpose of long-term awards, currently in the form of stock options, is to align the interests of the executive officers with the interests of the Company's stockholders. Additionally, long-term awards offer executive officers an incentive for the achievement of superior performance over time and foster the retention of key management personnel. In determining annual stock option grants, the Compensation Committee bases its decision on the individual's performance and potential to improve stockholder value. The issuance of options at 100 percent of the fair market value also assures that executives will receive a benefit only when the stock price increases.

Compensation of Chief Executive Officer. R. Richard Fontaine's compensation is determined pursuant to the principles noted above, including a bonus as determined by the criteria used in the Supplemental Compensation Plan. Specific consideration is given to Mr. Fontaine's responsibilities and experience in the industry and the compensation package awarded to chief executive officers of other comparable companies.

Impact of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Compensation Committee has considered the potential impact of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), adopted under the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993. This section disallows a tax deduction for any publicly held corporation, for individual compensation exceeding $1,000,000 in any taxable year paid to its chief executive officer or any of its four other highest paid officers unless (i) the compensation is payable solely on account of the attainment of performance goals, (ii) the performance goals are determined by a committee of two or more outside directors, (iii) the material terms under which compensation is to be paid are disclosed to and approved by stockholders and (iv) the determining committee certifies that the performance goals were met. Because it is in the best interests of the Company to qualify to the maximum extent possible the compensation of its executives for deductibility under applicable tax laws, the Company obtained stockholder approval in July 2003 for the Supplemental Compensation Plan, which provides for the payment of compensation in compliance with the above guidelines.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Agreements with Barnes & Noble

In connection with the consummation of our initial public offering in February 2002, we entered into various agreements with Barnes & Noble relating to our relationship with Barnes & Noble following the completion of our initial public offering.

Separation Agreement

We entered into a separation agreement with Barnes & Noble, which governs our respective rights and duties with respect to our initial public offering and the possible distribution to Barnes & Noble stockholders of its shares of our capital stock, if any, and contains covenants designed to facilitate such a distribution and to protect its intended tax-free nature. However, we cannot assure you as to whether or when such a distribution will occur.

If Barnes & Noble decides to pursue a distribution to its stockholders, we have agreed that we will cooperate with Barnes & Noble in all respects to accomplish a distribution and, at Barnes & Noble's direction, promptly take all actions necessary or desirable to effect a distribution to Barnes & Noble stockholders, including the registration under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act"), as amended, of Barnes & Noble's shares of our capital stock.

We have also agreed that, as a result of the ownership by Barnes & Noble of a significant portion of our Common Stock and in order for Barnes & Noble to pursue a distribution to Barnes & Noble stockholders of our Common Stock which would qualify as a tax-free distribution under Section 355 of the Code ("Section 355 distribution"), we will not take certain actions without the approval of Barnes & Noble, including:

issuing or agreeing to issue shares of our capital stock in an amount that would result in Barnes & Noble ceasing to own an amount of our capital stock which constitutes "control" for purposes of Section 368(c) of the Code or any successor statute or provision, as such definition may be amended from time to time;

until two years after a Section 355 distribution, entering into or permitting any transaction or series of transactions which would result in a person or persons acquiring or having the right to acquire shares of our capital stock that would comprise 50% or more of either the value of all outstanding shares of our capital stock or the total combined voting power of our outstanding voting stock; and until two years after a Section 355 distribution, liquidating, disposing of, or otherwise discontinuing the conduct of any portion of our active trade or business.

We have generally agreed to indemnify Barnes & Noble and its affiliates against any and all tax-related losses incurred by Barnes & Noble in connection with any proposed tax assessment or tax controversy with respect to a Section 355 distribution to Barnes & Noble stockholders to the extent caused by any breach by us of any of our representations, warranties or covenants made in the separation agreement. This indemnification does not apply to actions which Barnes & Noble permits us to take as a result of a determination under the tax-related covenants described above.

In addition, we have agreed that, so long as Barnes & Noble owns at least 50% of our existing common stock, we will not, without their approval:

take any action which has the effect of limiting Barnes & Noble's ability to freely sell, pledge or otherwise dispose of shares of our common stock or limiting the legal rights of

or denying any benefit to Barnes & Noble as a stockholder of us in a manner not applicable to our stockholders generally;

issue any shares of common stock or any rights, warrants or options to acquire our common stock, if after giving effect to such issuance, Barnes & Noble would own less than 50% of the then outstanding shares of our common stock; or to the extent that Barnes & Noble is a party to, or enters into, any agreements that provide that actions of its subsidiaries may result in its being in breach or default under any agreement, and we have been advised of the existence of these agreements, take any actions that may result in Barnes & Noble being in breach or default.

In addition, we have agreed that, for so long as Barnes & Noble is required to consolidate our results of operations and financial position or account for its investment in our Company, we will: (1) provide Barnes & Noble with financial information regarding our Company and our subsidiaries, copies of all quarterly and annual financial information and other reports and documents we intend to file with the SEC prior to such filings, as well as final copies upon filing and copies of our budgets and financial projections, as well as the opportunity to meet with our management to discuss such budgets and projections; (2) consult with Barnes & Noble regarding the timing and content of earnings releases; (3) cooperate fully, and cause our accountants to cooperate fully, with Barnes & Noble in connection with any of its public filings; (4) use our best efforts to enable our auditors to complete their audit of our financial statements such that they will date their opinion the same date that they date their opinion on Barnes & Noble's financial statements; (5) provide to Barnes & Noble and its auditors all information required for Barnes & Noble to meet its schedule for the filing and distribution of its financial statements; (6) make available to Barnes & Noble and its auditors work papers related to the annual audit of our Company as well as access to the personnel who perform the annual audit of our and our subsidiaries' books and records so that Barnes & Noble and its auditors may conduct reasonable audits relating to our financial statements; (7) adhere to generally accepted accounting principles, applied in a manner consistent with Barnes & Noble; and (8) notify and consult with Barnes & Noble regarding any changes to our accounting principles.

We have generally agreed to indemnify Barnes & Noble and its affiliates against all liabilities arising out of any incorrect, inaccurate or incomplete financial or other information we provide to Barnes & Noble pursuant to the terms of the separation agreement.

Insurance Agreement

We entered into an insurance agreement with Barnes & Noble, pursuant to which Barnes & Noble will allow us to participate in Barnes & Noble's worker's compensation, property and general liability and directors' and officers' liability insurance programs. We reimburse Barnes & Noble for our pro rata share of the cost of providing these insurance programs. In fiscal 2003, as a subsidiary of Barnes & Noble, Barnes & Noble charged us approximately $2,363,000 for our insurance program.

The insurance agreement will remain in force unless terminated:

by mutual agreement of us and Barnes & Noble;

by us, as to all or any portion of the services upon not less than 180 days' prior notice;

by Barnes & Noble upon not less than 180 days' prior notice;

by either us or Barnes & Noble because of an uncured default by either of us;

by declaration of the agreement's invalidity under applicable law or force majeure; or automatically, in the event of the bankruptcy or a change of control of either us or Barnes & Noble.

Operating Agreement

We entered into an operating agreement with Barnes & Noble, pursuant to which we operate the existing video game departments in 10 Barnes & Noble stores. We pay Barnes & Noble a licensing fee equal to 7.0% of the aggregate gross sales of each such department. In fiscal 2003, Barnes & Noble charged us approximately $974,000 in connection with our operation of such departments in Barnes & Noble stores.

The operating agreement will remain in force unless terminated:

by mutual agreement of us and Barnes & Noble;

automatically, in the event that we no longer operate any department within Barnes & Noble's stores;

by us or Barnes & Noble, with respect to any department, upon not less than 30 days prior notice;

by Barnes & Noble because of an uncured default by us;

automatically, with respect to any department, if the applicable store lease in which we operate that department expires or is terminated prior to its expiration date; or automatically, in the event of the bankruptcy or a change in control of either us or Barnes & Noble.

Tax Disaffiliation Agreement

We entered into a tax disaffiliation agreement with Barnes & Noble which governs the allocation of federal, state, local and foreign tax liabilities and contains agreements with respect to other tax matters arising prior to and after the date of our initial public offering. The tax disaffiliation agreement became effective at the time of our initial public offering and, among other things, sets forth the procedures for amending returns filed prior to the date of our initial public offering, tax audits and contests and record retention. In general, we are responsible for filing and paying our separate taxes for periods after our initial public offering and Barnes & Noble is responsible for filing and paying its separate taxes for periods after our initial public offering. In general, with respect to consolidated or combined returns that include Barnes & Noble and us prior to our initial public offering, Barnes & Noble is responsible for filing and paying the related tax liabilities and will retain any related tax refunds.

Under the tax disaffiliation agreement, without the prior written consent of Barnes & Noble, we may not amend any tax return for a period in which we were a member of Barnes & Noble's consolidated tax group. Barnes & Noble has the sole right to represent the interests of its consolidated tax group, including our Company, in any tax audits, litigation or appeals that involve, directly or indirectly, periods prior to the time that we ceased to be a member of their consolidated tax group (the date of the offering), unless we are solely liable for the taxes at issue and any redetermination of taxes would not result in any additional tax liability or detriment to any member of Barnes & Noble's consolidated tax group. In addition, we and Barnes & Noble have agreed to provide each other with the cooperation and information reasonably requested by the other in connection with the preparation or filing of any amendment to any tax return, the determination and payment of any amounts owed relating to periods prior to the date of the offering and in the conduct of any tax audits, litigation or appeals.

We and Barnes & Noble have agreed to indemnify each other for tax or other liabilities resulting from the failure to pay any taxes required to be paid under the tax disaffiliation agreement, tax or other liabilities resulting from negligence in supplying inaccurate or incomplete information or the failure to cooperate with the preparation of any tax return or the conduct of any tax audits, litigation or appeals. The tax disaffiliation agreement requires us to retain records, documents and other information necessary for the audit of tax returns relating to periods prior to the date we ceased to be a member of Barnes & Noble's consolidated tax group and to provide reasonable access to Barnes & Noble with respect to such records, documents and information.

Registration Rights Agreement

In the event that Barnes & Noble does not divest itself of all of its shares of our common stock in a distribution, Barnes & Noble could not freely sell all of its shares without registration under the Securities Act. Accordingly, we entered into a registration rights agreement with Barnes & Noble to provide it with registration rights relating to the shares of our common stock which it holds.

The registration rights agreement provides Barnes & Noble with registration rights relating to the shares of our common stock held by Barnes & Noble immediately after our initial public offering and any shares of our common stock Barnes & Noble acquires thereafter. Barnes & Noble is able to require us to register under the Securities Act all or any portion of our shares covered by the registration rights agreement. In addition, the registration rights agreement provides for various piggyback registration rights for Barnes & Noble. Whenever we propose to register any of our securities under the Securities Act for ourselves or others, subject to customary exceptions, we must provide prompt notice to Barnes & Noble and include in that registration all shares of our stock which Barnes & Noble owns and requests to be included.

The registration rights agreement sets forth customary registration procedures, including an agreement by us to make available our senior management for roadshow presentations. All registration expenses incurred in connection with any registration, other than underwriting commissions, will be paid by us. In addition, we are required to reimburse Barnes & Noble for the fees and disbursements of its outside counsel retained in connection with any such registration. The registration rights agreement also imposes customary indemnification and contribution obligations on us for the benefit of Barnes & Noble and any underwriters, although Barnes & Noble must indemnify us for any liabilities resulting from information provided by Barnes & Noble.

Barnes & Noble's rights under the registration rights agreement remain in effect with respect to the shares covered by the agreement until:

those shares have been sold under an effective registration statement under the Securities Act;

those shares have been sold to the public under Rule 144 under the Securities Act; or those shares have been transferred in a transaction where a subsequent public distribution of those shares would not require registration under the Securities Act.

Intercompany Loan

Barnes & Noble incurred an aggregate of approximately $202.4 million of indebtedness in connection with its acquisition of Babbage's in October 1999 and an aggregate of approximately $159.1 million of indebtedness in connection with its acquisition of Funco, Inc. (now known as GameStop, Inc.) in June 2000, for an aggregate of approximately $361.5 million of indebtedness. Barnes & Noble and the Company treated this amount plus additional amounts that Barnes & Noble provided from time to time to fund our operations as an intercompany loan owed to Barnes & Noble by us. Immediately prior to the closing of our initial public offering in February 2002, Barnes & Noble contributed to us as additional paid-in capital the difference between the aggregate amount of the intercompany loan balance and $250.0 million. This $250.0 million was evidenced by a demand note and repaid with a portion of proceeds from our initial public offering. The capital contribution by Barnes & Noble was $150.0 million as of the closing of our initial public offering.

Other Relationships

In October 1999, Barnes & Noble acquired Babbage's for $208.7 million from the owners of Babbage's, which included Leonard Riggio, R. Richard Fontaine and Daniel A. DeMatteo. Because our earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization for fiscal 2001 exceeded $54.3 million, Barnes & Noble made an additional payment to the former owners of Babbage's of approximately $9.7 million in March 2002.

Michael N. Rosen, our Secretary and one of our directors, is the Chairman of the New York office of Bryan Cave LLP, which is counsel to Barnes & Noble and its subsidiaries, including us. Mr. Rosen is also the Secretary and a director of Barnes & Noble and Barnes & Noble.com.

Independent Accountants

The firm of BDO Seidman, LLP (BDO Seidman) has been selected as independent accountants for the Company.

The independent accountants examine annual financial statements and provide other permissible non-audit and tax-related services for the Company. The Company and the Audit Committee have considered whether the non-audit services provided by BDO Seidman are compatible with maintaining the independence of BDO Seidman in its audit of the Company and are not considered prohibited services under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

Audit Fees. In fiscal 2003, the professional services of BDO Seidman totaled $258,253 for the Company's audit of the annual financial statements and for reviews of the Company's financial statements included in the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q filed with the SEC. For fiscal 2002, the Company paid BDO Seidman $275,750 for professional services rendered for the Company's audit of the annual financial statements and for reviews of the Company's financial statements included in the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q filed with the SEC. In fiscal 2002, the Company paid BDO Seidman $63,974 for services in respect of employee benefit plan audits ($34,500), due diligence related to acquisitions ($494) and consultation concerning financial accounting and reporting standards ($28,980).

Tax Fees. In fiscal 2003, the Company paid BDO Seidman $59,390 for tax-related services. In fiscal 2002, the Company paid BDO Seidman $23,440 for tax-related services. Tax-related services included professional services rendered for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning.

All Other Fees. The Company did not pay BDO Seidman any other fees in fiscal 2003 or fiscal 2002.

Pre-approval Policies and Procedures. The Audit Committee Charter adopted by the board of directors of the Company requires that, among other things, the Audit Committee pre-approve the rendering by the Company's independent auditor of all audit and permissible non-audit services. Accordingly, as part of its policies and procedures, the Audit Committee considers and pre-approves any such audit and permissible non-audit services on a case-by-case basis. Since its formation in September 2002, the Audit Committee has approved the services provided by BDO Seidman referred to above.
