NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)Note 1. Basis of Presentation

U.S. Global Investors, Inc. (the Company or U.S. Global) has prepared the consolidated financial statements pursuant to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP) and the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) that permit reduced disclosure for interim periods. The financial information included herein reflects all adjustments (consisting solely of normal recurring adjustments), which are, in management s opinion, necessary for a fair presentation of results for the interim periods presented. The Company has consistently followed the accounting policies set forth in the notes to the consolidated financial statements in the Company s Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2006.

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries, United Shareholder Services, Inc. (USSI), A&B Mailers, Inc. (A&B), U.S. Global Investors (Guernsey) Limited (USGG), U.S. Global Brokerage, Inc. (USGB), and U.S. Global Investors (Bermuda) Limited (USBERM).

All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. Certain amounts have been reclassified for comparative purposes. The results of operations for the nine months ended March 31, 2007, are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the entire year.

Note 2. Common Stock Split and Dividend

On February 21, 2007, the Company s shareholders approved the first of two proposed amendments to the Company s Articles of Incorporation. The first amendment approved an increase in authorized shares that enabled the Company to effectuate a two-for-one stock split of the Company s outstanding stock. Shareholders of record as of March 19, 2007, received one additional share of class A common stock, par value $0.025 per share, for every outstanding share of class A common stock and one additional share of class C common stock, par value $0.025 per share, for every outstanding share of class C common stock. The amendment provided that the Company issue no fractional shares of common stock, and all shares were rounded up or down to the nearest whole number of shares. Accordingly, all per-share and share data in the accompanying consolidated financial statements and in these accompanying notes has been adjusted to give retroactive effect to this stock split.

On February 22, 2007, shareholders approved the second of two proposed amendments, which modified the relative dividend and liquidation preference rights of the different classes of common stock and permits conversion of class C common stock to class A common stock. As a result of approval of both proposals, shareholders of record on March 19, 2007, received a special cash dividend of $0.25 per share on based on the number of post-split shares held. Both the split and the dividend were distributed on March 29, 2007.

Note 3. Investments

As of March 31, 2007, the Company held investments with a market value of approximately $6.7 million and a cost basis of approximately $6.2 million. The market value of these investments is approximately 23.3 percent of the Company s total assets.

Investments in securities classified as trading are reflected as current assets on the consolidated balance sheet at their fair market value. Unrealized holding gains and losses on trading securities are included in earnings in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income.

Investments in securities classified as available for sale, which may not be readily marketable, are reflected as non-current assets on the consolidated balance sheet at their fair value. Unrealized holding gains and losses on available-for-sale securities are excluded from earnings and reported in other comprehensive income as a separate component of shareholders equity until realized. The following summarizes the market value, cost, and unrealized gain or loss on investments as of March 31, 2007, and June 30, 2006.

Note 5. Credit Facility

As of March 31, 2007, the Company has no borrowings.

The Company has access to a $1 million credit facility with a one-year maturity for working capital purposes. The Company must maintain certain quarterly financial covenants to access the line of credit. The covenants include:

(1) liquidity of $1 million or more in cash, cash equivalents and marketable securities; (2) a debt to equity ratio of .75 or less; and (3) a ratio of current assets to current liabilities of 2.0 or greater. The Company has been in compliance with all financial covenants during the fiscal year. Any use of this credit facility will be secured by the Company's eligible accounts receivable. As of March 31, 2007, this credit facility remained unutilized by the Company.

Effective April 25, 2007, subsequent to the fiscal quarter end, the credit agreement was renewed with the following amendments: the bank dropped the current ratio requirement, released the Company's accounts receivable as collateral, and agreed to allow borrowings without any form of borrowing base. The amended credit agreement will expire on February 1, 2008, and will be renewed annually.

Note 6. Stock-Based Compensation

In December 2004, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123 (revised 2004), Share-Based Payment (SFAS 123R). SFAS 123R eliminates the alternative to use the intrinsic value method of accounting that was provided in Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25 (APB 25), which generally resulted in no compensation expense recorded in the financial statements related to the issuance of equity awards to employees. SFAS 123R requires that the cost resulting from all share-based payment transactions be recognized in the financial statements. SFAS 123R establishes fair value as the measurement objective in accounting for share-based payment arrangements and requires all companies to apply a fair-value-based measurement method in accounting for generally all share-based payment transactions with employees.

On July 1, 2005 (the first day of the Company's 2006 fiscal year), the Company adopted SFAS 123R using a modified prospective application, as permitted under SFAS 123R. Accordingly, prior period amounts were not restated. Under this application, the Company is required to record compensation expense for all awards granted after the date of adoption and for the unvested portion of previously granted awards that remain outstanding at the date of adoption.

Prior to the adoption of SFAS 123R, the Company applied Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees (APB 25) to account for stock-based awards. Beginning with the 2006 fiscal year, with the adoption of SFAS 123R, stock-based compensation expense was recorded for the cost of stock options.

Stock-based compensation expense for the three months ended March 31, 2007, was $9,855 ($6,504 after tax). As of March 31, 2007, there was approximately $9,855 of total unrecognized share-based compensation cost related to share-based compensation granted under the plans that will be recognized over the remainder of the fiscal year.

Stock compensation plans

The Company's stock option plans provide for the granting of either incentive or nonqualified stock options to employees and non-employee directors. Options are subject to terms and conditions determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. In connection with the two-for-one stock split described in Note 2, the Board of Directors authorized an adjustment to outstanding options so that a proportionate number of shares underlying each option are maintained. Options in the table below have been adjusted to give retroactive effect to the stock split.

The following table summarizes information about our stock option plans for the nine months ended March 31, 2007.

	Number of Options	Weighted Average Exercise Price
Options outstanding, beginning of year	146,000	$ 1.47

Exercised	60,000	$ 1.20

Note 7. Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share (EPS) excludes dilution and is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted EPS reflects the potential dilution of EPS that could occur if options to issue common stock were exercised.

The following table sets forth the computation for basic and diluted earnings per share (EPS):

Share information has been restated for all periods presented in the table to reflect the two-for-one stock split effectuated on March 29, 2007. The diluted EPS calculation excludes the effect of stock options when their exercise prices exceed the average market price for the period. For the quarter ended March 31, 2007, and 2006, no options were excluded from diluted EPS. The Company has repurchased 25,634 shares of its class A common stock from employees during the nine months ended March 31, 2007. Upon repurchase, these shares are classified as treasury shares and are deducted from outstanding shares in the earnings per share calculation.

Note 8. Income Taxes

The Company and its subsidiaries file a consolidated federal income tax return. Provisions for income taxes include deferred taxes for temporary differences in the bases of assets and liabilities for financial and tax purposes, resulting from the use of the liability method of accounting for income taxes. The current deferred tax liability primarily consists of temporary differences in the deductibility of prepaid expenses and accrued liabilities, as well as unrealized gains on trading securities. The long-term deferred tax asset is composed primarily of unrealized losses on available-for-sale securities.

A valuation allowance is provided when it is more likely than not that some portion of the deferred tax amount will not be realized. No valuation allowance was included at March 31, 2007, or June 30, 2006, respectively.

Note 9. Financial Information by Business Segment

Note 10. Contingencies and commitments

The Company continuously reviews all investor, employee and vendor complaints, and pending or threatened litigation. The likelihood that a loss contingency exists is evaluated under the criteria of SFAS No. 5, Accounting for Contingencies, through consultation with legal counsel, and a loss contingency is recorded if the contingency is probable and reasonably estimable at the date of the financial statements.

During the normal course of business, the Company may be subject to claims, legal proceedings, and other contingencies. These matters are subject to various uncertainties, and it is possible that some of these matters may be resolved unfavorably. The Company establishes accruals for matters for which the outcome is probable and can be reasonably estimated. Management believes that any liability in excess of these accruals upon the ultimate resolution of these matters will not have a material adverse effect on the consolidated financial statements of the Company.

Note 11. Items submitted for shareholder approval

On November 8, 2006, the Board of Directors of the Company approved submitting to class A and class C shareholders a proxy to split the shares (two-for-one), increase the number of authorized shares, eliminate the dividend and liquidity preference of class A shareholders, and to allow class C shareholders to convert their shares to class A. The Board also approved paying a $0.25 per share dividend (post-split) in the event the shareholders approve the proposal to amend the articles of incorporation to reflect no dividend or liquidation preference for class A shareholders and to allow the convertibility of class C shares to class A shares. Refer to the proxy filed with the SEC on November 21, 2006, and amended January 16, 2007, and February 1, 2007, for additional details. On February 21, and February 22, 2007, the shareholders approved all proposals submitted. On March 29, 2007, the stock split became effective and shareholders of record were paid a $.25 per share dividend (post-split).

ITEM 1a. Risk Factors

For a discussion of risk factors which could affect the Company, please refer to Item 1A. Risk Factors, in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2006.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

U.S. Global Investors, Inc. has made forward-looking statements concerning the Company's performance, financial condition, and operations in this report. The Company from time to time may also make forward-looking statements in its public filings and press releases. Such forward-looking statements are subject to various known and unknown risks and uncertainties and do not guarantee future performance. Actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in such forward-looking statements due to a number of factors, some of which are beyond the Company's control, including but not limited to (i) the volatile and competitive nature of the investment management industry, (ii) changes in domestic and foreign economic conditions, (iii) the effect of government regulation on the Company's business, and (iv) market, credit, and liquidity risks associated with the Company's investment management activities. Due to such risks, uncertainties, and other factors, the Company cautions each person receiving such forward-looking information not to place undue reliance on such statements. All such forward-looking statements are current only as of the date on which such statements were made.

BUSINESS SEGMENTS

The Company, with principal operations located in San Antonio, Texas, manages two business segments: (1) the Company offers a broad range of investment management products and services to meet the needs of individual and institutional investors, and (2) the Company invests for its own account in an effort to add growth and value to its cash position. Although the Company generates the majority of its revenues from its investment advisory segment, the Company holds a significant amount of its total assets in investments. The following is a brief discussion of the Company's two business segments.

Investment Management Products and Services

The Company generates substantially all of its operating revenues from managing and servicing USGIF, USGAF and other advisory clients. These revenues are largely dependent on the total value and composition of assets under its management. Fluctuations in the markets and investor sentiment directly impact the funds' asset levels, thereby affecting income and results of operations.

During the nine months ended March 31, 2007, SEC-registered mutual fund assets under management averaged $4.57 billion versus $2.99 billion for the same period ended March 31, 2006. This increase was primarily due to significant increase in the natural resource and foreign equity funds under management.

The Company provides advisory services to various offshore clients, namely Meridian Global Gold and Resources Fund Ltd., Meridian Global Energy and Resources Fund Ltd., U.S. Global Investors Balanced Natural Resources Fund, Ltd., and Endeavour Mining Capital Corp. The Company generally receives a monthly advisory fee and a quarterly or annual performance fee, if any, based on an agreed-upon performance measurement. Based on information released by Endeavour Mining Capital, for the first nine months of fiscal 2007, the performance fee to date accruing to U.S. Global totals approximately $3,412,000. The final performance fee payable to U.S. Global, if any, will be determined as of June 30, 2007, based on the financial results of Endeavour Mining Capital for the entire fiscal year. Under the accounting policies adopted by U.S. Global Investors, the performance fees are calculated and recorded only once a year at the end of the fiscal year in accordance with the terms of the advisory agreement. This and other performance fees may fluctuate significantly from year to year based on factors that may be out of the Company's control. These fluctuations could result in the recording of no performance fees. The contracts between the Company and the offshore clients expire periodically, and management anticipates that its offshore clients will renew the contracts.

Investment Activities

Management believes it can more effectively manage the Company's cash position by broadening the types of investments used in cash management and continues to believe that such activities are in the best interest of the Company. Company compliance personnel review and monitor these activities, and various reports are provided to investment advisory clients.

Investment income (loss) from the Company's investments includes:

realized gains and losses on sales of securities;

unrealized gains and losses on trading securities;

realized foreign currency gains and losses;

other-than-temporary impairments on available-for-sale securities; and dividend and interest income.

This source of revenue does not remain consistent and is dependent on market fluctuations, the Company's ability to participate in investment opportunities, and timing of transactions.

As of March 31, 2007, the Company held investments with a market value of approximately $6.7 million and a cost basis of approximately $6.2 million. The market value of these investments is approximately 23.3 percent of the Company's total assets.

For the nine months ended March 31, 2007, the Company had net realized gains on available-for-sale securities of $454,388 compared with $544,414 for the nine months ended March 31, 2006, and net realized gains on trading securities of $229,727 for the nine months ended March 31, 2007, compared with net realized gains of $235,936 for the nine months ended March 31, 2006. The change in net unrealized holding gains and losses on trading securities held at March 31, 2007, and 2006, which has been included in income for the nine-month period, was ($147,032) and $1,420,855, respectively.

For available-for-sale securities with declines in value that are deemed other than temporary, the cost basis of the securities is reduced accordingly, and the resulting loss is realized in earnings. The Company recorded other than temporary declines of $0 and $28,655 for the nine months ended March 31, 2007, and 2006, respectively.

Dividend and interest income for the nine months ended March 31, 2007, was $675,821 compared with $191,032 for the nine months ended March 31, 2006.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS – NINE MONTHS ENDED MARCH 31, 2007 AND 2006

The Company posted net income of $7,352,809 ($0.49 income per share) for the nine months ended March 31, 2007, compared with a net income $4,813,936 ($0.32 income per share) for the nine months ended March 31, 2006.

Revenues

Total consolidated revenues for the nine-month period ended March 31, 2007, increased approximately $10,878,000 or 42.0 percent, compared with the nine-month period ended March 31, 2006. This increase was primarily attributable to the following:

Mutual fund investment advisory fees grew by approximately $8,404,000 as a result of increased assets under management;

Transfer agent fees increased by approximately $1,988,000 primarily as a result of growth in the number of shareholder accounts;

Other advisory fees increased by approximately $1,595,000 as a result of the growth and performance of offshore funds the Company advises.

Expenses

Total consolidated expenses for the nine-month period ended March 31, 2007, increased approximately $7,187,000 or 39.1 percent, compared with the nine-month period ended March 31, 2006. This was largely attributable to the following:

Omnibus fees increased by approximately $2,737,000 due to increased asset flows through broker/dealer platforms;

Consistent with continued growth in the Eastern European Fund, subadvisory fees increased by approximately $1,554,000;

General and administrative expenses increased by approximately $1,510,000 primarily due to consulting fees, audit and accounting fees, legal fees, proxy-related expenses, and travel and entertainment; and

Driven by strong fund performance, compensation expense increased by approximately $1,308,000.

Much of the mutual fund asset growth across all funds has been realized through broker/dealer platforms. These broker/dealers typically charge an asset-based fee for assets held through their platforms. Accordingly, net platform distribution (omnibus) fees have increased as assets have grown through these platforms.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS THREE MONTHS ENDED MARCH 31, 2007 AND 2006

The Company posted net income of $2,412,273 ($0.16 income per share) for the three-month period ended March 31, 2007, compared with net income of $2,550,408 ($0.17 income per share) for the three-month period ended March 31, 2006.

Revenues

Total consolidated revenues for the quarter ended March 31, 2007, increased approximately $887,000, or 7.7 percent, compared with the quarter ended March 31, 2006. This increase was primarily attributable to the following:

Mutual fund investment advisory fee grew by approximately $1,149,000 as a result of increased assets under management and growth and performance of offshore funds;

Other advisory fees increased by approximately $539,000 as a result of the growth and performance of offshore funds the Company advises; and

Transfer agent fees increased by approximately $240,000 primarily as a result of growth in the number of shareholder accounts.

Expenses

Total consolidated expenses for the quarter ended March 31, 2007, increased approximately $1,248,000, or 16.7 percent, compared with the quarter ended March 31, 2006. This was largely attributable to the following:

General and administrative expenses increased by approximately $660,000 primarily due to legal and consulting fees, proxy-related expenses, and travel and entertainment; and

Omnibus platform fees increased by approximately $530,000 due to increased mutual fund asset flows through broker/dealer omnibus platforms.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

At March 31, 2007, the Company had net working capital (current assets minus current liabilities) of approximately $21.0 million and a current ratio (current assets divided by current liabilities) of 5.6 to 1. With approximately $12.8 million in cash and cash equivalents and approximately $6.7 million in marketable securities, the Company has adequate liquidity to meet its current obligations. Total shareholders' equity was approximately $24.1 million, with cash, cash equivalents, and marketable securities comprising 67.8% of total assets.

As of March 31, 2007, the Company has no borrowings. The Company has access to a $1 million credit facility with a one-year maturity for working capital purposes. Any use of this credit facility will be secured by the Company's eligible accounts receivable. As of March 31, 2007, this credit facility remained unutilized by the Company. The Company's available working capital and potential cash flow are expected to be sufficient to cover current expenses. Effective April 25, 2007, subsequent to the fiscal quarter end, the credit agreement was renewed with the following amendments: the bank dropped the current ratio requirement, released the Company's accounts receivable as collateral, and agreed to allow borrowings without any form of borrowing base. The amended credit agreement will expire on February 1, 2008 and will be renewed annually.

The investment advisory and related contracts between the Company and USGIF and USGAF will expire on February 28, 2008, and May 31, 2008, respectively. Management anticipates the board of trustees of both USGIF and USGAF will renew the contracts. The contracts between the Company and the offshore clients expire periodically and management anticipates that its offshore clients will renew the contracts.

Management believes current cash reserves, financing obtained and/or available, and potential cash flow from operations will be sufficient to meet foreseeable cash needs or capital necessary for the above-mentioned activities and allow the Company to take advantage of opportunities for growth whenever available.

ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In June 2006, the FASB issued Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes—an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109 (FIN 48). FIN 48 clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an enterprise's financial statements in accordance with SFAS No. 109 by prescribing a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken on a tax return. If a tax position is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination, then an enterprise would recognize in its financial statements the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50 percent likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement of the tax position. FIN 48 will be effective for the fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006. The provisions of FIN 48 are required to be applied to all tax positions in all open tax years. The Company is in the process of evaluating the impact, if any, of adoption on the Company's financial position and results of operation.

In September 2006, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 157, Fair Value Measurements (FAS 157). FAS 157 establishes a single authoritative definition of fair value, sets out a framework for measuring fair value, and requires additional disclosures about fair value measurements. FAS 157 applies only to fair value measurements that are already required or permitted by other accounting standards. FAS 157 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. The Company is currently evaluating the impact that adopting SFAS 157 will have on its financial position and results of operation.

In February, 2007, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 159, The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities—Including an amendment of FASB Statement No. 115 (FAS 159). FAS 159 permits companies to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. The Company is in the process of evaluating the potential future effect of FAS 159 on its financial statements.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

For a discussion of additional critical accounting estimates that the Company follows, please refer to the notes to the consolidated financial statements included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2006.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

The Company's balance sheet includes assets whose fair value is subject to market risks. Due to the Company's investments in equity securities, equity price fluctuations represent a market risk factor affecting the Company's consolidated financial position. The carrying values of investments subject to equity price risks are based on quoted market prices or, if not actively traded, management's estimate of fair value as of the balance sheet date. Market prices fluctuate, and the amount realized in the subsequent sale of an investment may differ significantly from the reported market value.

The Company's investment activities are reviewed and monitored by Company compliance personnel, and various reports are provided to investment advisory clients. The Company has in place a code of ethics that requires pre-clearance of any trading activity by the Company. Written procedures are also in place to manage compliance with the code of ethics.

The table below summarizes the Company's equity price risks as of March 31, 2007, and shows the effects of a hypothetical 25% increase and a 25% decrease in market prices.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

An evaluation of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures as of March 31, 2007, was conducted under the supervision and with the participation of management, including our chief executive officer and chief financial officer. Based on that evaluation, the chief executive officer and chief financial officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of March 31, 2007.

There has been no change in the Company's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the quarter ended March 31, 2007, that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.
