PROXY STATEMENT
FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
To Be Held On June 2, 2006

INTRODUCTION

General

This Proxy Statement is being furnished to the shareholders of The Enstar Group, Inc. (the Company) in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of the Company (the Board) for use at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on Friday, June 2, 2006 (the Annual Meeting), at the Embassy Suites Hotel at 300 Tallapoosa Street, Montgomery, Alabama 36104, 9:00 a.m., local time, and at any adjournment thereof.

Record Date

The Board has fixed March 31, 2006 as the record date (the Record Date) for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. Only holders of common stock, par value $.01 per share, of the Company (Common Stock) as of the Record Date are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. On the Record Date, the Company had issued and outstanding 5,517,909 shares of Common Stock. Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote on each matter being considered at the Annual Meeting. No cumulative voting rights are authorized, and appraisal rights for dissenting shareholders are not applicable to the matters being proposed. It is anticipated that this Proxy Statement will be first mailed to shareholders of the Company on or about April 27, 2006.

Voting and Proxies

When the enclosed form of proxy is properly executed and returned, the shares it represents will be voted as directed at the Annual Meeting or, if no direction is indicated on an executed proxy, such shares will be voted in favor of the proposals set forth in the Notice attached hereto. Any shareholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time before it is voted. All proxies delivered pursuant to the solicitation are revocable at any time at the option of the persons executing them by giving written notice to the Secretary of the Company, by delivering a later-dated proxy or by voting in person at the Annual Meeting. Any beneficial owner of shares of Common Stock as of the Record Date who intends to vote such shares in person at the Annual Meeting must obtain a legal proxy from the record owner and present such proxy at the Annual Meeting in order to vote such shares. Votes cast by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting will be tabulated by the inspector of elections appointed for the meeting who will also determine whether a quorum is present for the transaction of business.

The presence in person or by proxy of holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock outstanding on the Record Date will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. The affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares of Common Stock present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote is required to elect directors. The affirmative vote of the majority of the shares of Common Stock represented at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter is required with respect to the ratification of the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as the Company's independent auditors and any other matter that may properly come before the Annual Meeting. At the Annual Meeting, votes cast for or against any matter may be cast in person or by proxy. Shares of Common Stock held by nominees for beneficial owners will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present if the nominee has the discretion to vote on at least one of the matters presented, even if the nominee may not exercise discretionary voting power with respect to other matters and voting instructions have not been received from the beneficial owner (a broker non-vote). Broker non-votes will not be counted as votes for or against matters presented for shareholder consideration. Abstentions with respect to a proposal are counted for purposes of establishing a quorum. If a quorum is present, abstentions have the effect of a vote against any proposal, except for the election of directors.

As of the date of this Proxy Statement, management of the Company has no knowledge of any business other than that described herein which will be presented for consideration at the Annual Meeting. In the event any other business is properly presented at the Annual Meeting, the persons named in the enclosed proxy will have authority to vote such proxy in accordance with their judgment on such business.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

(Item 1)

Board of Directors

In accordance with the Bylaws of the Company, the Board currently consists of seven members. The Company's Articles of Incorporation divide the Board into three classes. Directors for each class are elected to serve a term of three years at the annual meeting of shareholders held in the year in which the term for such class expires. Nominees for vacant or newly created director positions stand for election at the next annual meeting following the vacancy or creation of such director positions, to serve for the remainder of the term of the class in which their respective positions are apportioned. The terms of two current directors, T. Whit Armstrong and T. Wayne Davis, expire at the Annual Meeting. At the Annual Meeting, T. Whit Armstrong and T. Wayne Davis will stand for election to serve as directors for three-year terms expiring at the 2009 annual meeting of shareholders, or until their successors are duly elected and qualified. In accordance with the Bylaws of the Company, a director who is not also an employee of the Company may serve as a director only until the next annual meeting following such director's 70th birthday.

The Board has no reason to believe that any of the nominees for the office of director will be unavailable for election as directors. However, if at the time of the Annual Meeting any nominee should be unable or decline to serve, the persons named in the proxy will vote as recommended by the Board either (i) to elect a substitute nominee recommended by the Board, (ii) to allow the vacancy created thereby to remain open until filled by the Board or (iii) to reduce the number of directors for the ensuing year. In no event, however, can a proxy be voted to elect more than two directors. The election of directors requires the affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares held by shareholders present and voting at the Annual Meeting in person or by proxy.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

The Board recommends a vote FOR T. Whit Armstrong and T. Wayne Davis to hold office until the 2009 annual meeting of shareholders, or until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

The Board of Directors

The Board has determined that each of T. Whit Armstrong, T. Wayne Davis, Gregory L. Curl, and Paul J. Collins is an independent director as such term is defined in Rule 4200(a)(15) of the Marketplace Rules of the National Association of Securities Dealers (the NASD).

During 2005, the Company had an Audit Committee that was composed of T. Whit Armstrong, Chairman, T. Wayne Davis, Gregory L. Curl and Paul J. Collins. The Board has determined that each Audit Committee member meets the independence standards for audit committee members, as set forth in the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the NASD listing standards, and the NASD's financial knowledge requirements. The Board has determined that Mr. Curl is an audit committee financial expert, as such term is defined in Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission) regulations, and that Mr. Curl and Mr. Armstrong meet the NASD's professional experience requirements. The Audit Committee is responsible for, among other things, appointing (subject to shareholder ratification) the accounting firm that will serve as independent auditors for the Company and reviewing and pre-approving all audit and non-audit services provided to the Company by its independent auditors. The Audit Committee is also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting and accounting practices and monitoring the adequacy of internal accounting, compliance and control systems. The Board has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee which complies with the applicable requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and related rules of the Commission and the NASD.

During 2005, the Company had a Compensation Committee that was composed of T. Wayne Davis, Chairman, T. Whit Armstrong and Gregory L. Curl. In addition, J. Christopher Flowers served on the Compensation Committee until Mr. Curl was appointed to the Committee in June 2005. Other than Mr. Flowers, each director who served on the Compensation Committee during fiscal 2005 qualifies as a non-employee director as such term is defined in Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), and an independent director as such term is defined in NASD Rule 4200(a)(15). The Compensation Committee is responsible for, among other things, reviewing, determining and establishing, upon the recommendation of the Chief Executive Officer (with the exception of the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer) salaries, bonuses and other compensation for the Company's executive officers and for administering the Company's stock option plans.

The Company does not have a nominating committee or a nominating committee charter. It is the position of the Board that, given the small size of the Board, it is appropriate for the independent directors, rather than a separate committee comprised of most or all of such independent directors, to recommend director candidates. In November 2003, the Board adopted a resolution regarding the nomination of directors. Pursuant to such resolution, director nominees must be recommended to the Board by a majority of the independent directors as such term is defined in NASD Rule 4200(a)(15). The Board has determined that each of T. Wayne Davis, T. Whit Armstrong, Paul J. Collins and Gregory L. Curl is an independent director (the Independent Directors). When identifying and reviewing director nominees, the Independent Directors consider the nominees' personal and professional integrity, ability and judgment and other factors deemed appropriate by the Independent Directors. For incumbent directors, the Independent Directors review each director's overall service to the Company during such director's term, including the number of meetings attended, level of participation and quality of performance. The Independent Directors considered and nominated the candidates proposed for election as directors at the Annual Meeting, with the Board unanimously agreeing on all actions taken in this regard.

During 2005, the Board held a total of five meetings, the Audit Committee held a total of four meetings and the Compensation Committee held one meeting. In addition, the Independent Directors met in an executive session of the Board a total of four times. All directors attended all of the meetings of the Board and all committees on which they served during 2005, except for Gregory L. Curl, who did not attend two meetings of the Board, and Paul J. Collins, who did not attend one meeting of the Audit Committee. Directors are encouraged but not required to attend the Annual Meeting. Except for Gregory L. Curl, all directors attended the 2005 annual meeting of shareholders.

Communications with the Board

Shareholders may communicate with the Board by sending an email to treasurer@enstargroup.com or by sending a letter to Enstar Board of Directors, c/o the Treasurer, 401 Madison Avenue, Montgomery, Alabama 36104. The Treasurer will receive the correspondence and forward it to the Chairman of the Audit Committee or to any individual director or directors to whom the communication is directed. The Treasurer has the authority to discard or disregard any inappropriate communications or to take other appropriate actions with respect to such inappropriate communications.

Compensation of Directors

Directors who are not employees of the Company receive a quarterly retainer fee of $6,250 and per meeting fees as follows: (i) $2,500 for each Board meeting attended other than a telephone Board meeting; (ii) $1,000 for each telephone Board meeting attended; (iii) $1,000 for each Committee meeting attended; and (iv) $1,500 for each Committee meeting attended by a Committee Chairperson. In addition, each Committee Chairperson receives a quarterly retainer fee of $500. Such outside directors' fees are payable at the election of the director either in cash or in stock units under the Company's Deferred Compensation and Stock Plan for Non-Employee Directors, as amended (the "Deferred Plan"). If a director elects to receive stock units instead of cash, the stock units are payable only upon the director's termination. The number of shares to be distributed in connection with such termination would be equal to one share of Common Stock for each stock unit, with cash paid for any fractional units. The distribution of stock units is also subject to acceleration upon certain events constituting a change in control of the Company. All current non-employee directors, other than Gregory L. Curl, have elected to receive 100% of their compensation in stock units in lieu of cash payments. Mr. Curl has elected to receive a portion of his compensation in cash. As of December 31, 2005, a total of $853,000 in retainer and meeting fees had been deferred under the Deferred Plan. In addition, directors are entitled to reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in attending all meetings.

In April 2005, Paul J. Collins was granted options to purchase 5,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $57.81 per share (which was the market price of the Common Stock at that time). During 2005, no other options to purchase shares of Common Stock were granted to directors for their service as directors.

REPORT OF COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Compensation Committee") was created in 1996 and currently consists of Messrs. Davis, Armstrong and Curl. The Compensation Committee is responsible for (i) establishing the compensation of the Company's Named Executive Officers upon the recommendation of the Chief Executive Officer (with the exception of the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer) and (ii) considering the issuance of stock options for executive officers and directors. Mr. Frazer, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, is responsible for recommending to the Compensation Committee the compensation for the other executive officers of the Company. The Compensation Committee has reviewed the applicability of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Section 162(m) may in certain circumstances deny a federal income tax deduction for compensation to an executive officer that is in excess of $1 million per year. Because the Committee has determined that the compensation for all executive officers for 2006 will remain the same as for 2005, it is not anticipated that compensation to any executive officer of the Company during 2006 will exceed the $1 million threshold.

Compensation Policy and Overall Objectives. The Company's executive compensation policy is designed to attract, retain and motivate executive officers needed to achieve the Company's strategic objectives and to maximize the Company's performance and shareholder value.

The Company supports these goals through a compensation strategy principally involving competitive salaries and long-term incentive opportunities. Compensation consists of both fixed pay elements (base salary and benefits) and long-term incentives to encourage and reward distinctive contributions to the success of the organization. Salary and benefit levels reflect position responsibilities and strategic importance and are targeted at market median base salary levels. Total cash compensation has been below market median levels because the Company has not paid annual bonuses. Long-term incentive opportunities reward key executives for financial and non-financial performance that enhances shareholder value. Long-term incentive opportunities have been at or above market median levels.

In 1997, the Company retained an independent compensation consulting firm to assist it in analyzing its executive compensation program. The consulting firm recommended that the Company adopt a policy of providing a significant percentage of certain executive officers' total compensation based on the Company's performance. In addition, the consultant provided the Compensation Committee with an analysis of senior executive compensation using published survey data for the financial services industry. In 2003, the Compensation Committee again retained an independent compensation consulting firm, which provided it with an updated analysis of senior executive compensation using published industry data. The Compensation Committee considered these recommendations and the compensation analyses in establishing the base salaries for the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Operating Officer and the other executive officers for 2005. The base salaries for the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Operating Officer and other executive officers have not changed since 2003.

Base Salary. Each executive officer's base salary, including Mr. Frazer's base salary, is determined based upon a number of factors including the executive officer's responsibilities, contribution to the achievement of the Company's business plan goals, demonstrated leadership skills and overall effectiveness and length of service. Base salaries are also designed to be competitive with those offered in the various markets in which the Company competes for executive talent and are analyzed with a view towards desired base salary levels over a three-year to five-year time period. Although these and other factors are considered in setting base salaries, no specific weight is given to any one factor.

Cash Bonuses. The Company did not pay any cash bonuses to the Named Executive Officers during 2005.

Long-Term Incentives. Long-term incentives are provided pursuant to the CEO Plan, the 1997 Outside Directors Plan, the 2001 Outside Directors' Plan, the Incentive Plan, as amended, and the Deferred Plan. Stock option plans are designed to encourage and reward distinctive contributions to the Company's success and to align executives' and shareholders' interest in the enhancement of shareholder value. Stock options are used by the Company to encourage long-term service by executives. No stock options were granted to the Named Executive Officers in 2005.

Severance and Employment Agreements. The Compensation Committee approved severance agreements for Nimrod T. Frazer, Cheryl D. Davis and Amy M. Dunaway in March 1998 (the "Severance Agreements"). The Severance Agreements provide that Nimrod T. Frazer, Cheryl D. Davis and Amy M. Dunaway will receive their base salary for a period of twelve months following a termination of employment, other than for cause, as defined in the Severance Agreements, or a voluntary termination.

The Compensation Committee also approved an employment agreement with John J. Oros in March 2000 (the "Employment Agreement"). The Employment Agreement provides for an initial one year term and automatic renewal for successive one year terms thereafter, subject to earlier termination as provided in the Employment Agreement. The Employment Agreement provides an annual base salary to Mr. Oros to be determined by the Board and reimbursement of up to $50,000 annually for office related expenses incurred by Mr. Oros in connection with the performance of his duties with the Company. The Employment Agreement also provides that the Board may award to Mr. Oros such bonuses, and in such amounts, as the Board shall determine in its sole discretion. In fiscal 2005, Mr. Oros received an annual base salary of $350,000. In determining Mr. Oros' compensation for 2006, the Committee specifically considered that beginning in February 2006, Mr. Oros was employed by and devoting time to J.C. Flowers & Co. LLC. Nevertheless, given that his priorities remain with Enstar, the overlapping nature of his duties, and the significant value that Mr. Oros brings to Enstar, the Committee determined that Mr. Oros' compensation should remain unchanged.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation. Mr. Frazer does not have an employment agreement with the Company. The Compensation Committee is responsible for determining Mr. Frazer's compensation annually. In fiscal 2005 Mr. Frazer received an annual base salary of $350,000. Mr. Frazer's base salary was based on, among other things, his responsibilities, his length of service, his contributions to the business and his overall leadership skills.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

As described earlier in this Proxy Statement, J. Christopher Flowers served on the Company's Compensation Committee until June 2005. As described below under the heading "Certain Transactions", Mr. Flowers and the Company have entered into numerous transactions, directly and indirectly. The Company believes that the terms of such transactions are no less favorable to the Company than would have been the case had such transactions been consummated with unrelated parties. The Board was made aware of all such transactions.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee is responsible for, among other things, appointing (subject to shareholder ratification) the accounting firm that will serve as independent auditors for the Company and reviewing and pre-approving all audit and non-audit services provided to the Company by its independent auditors. The

Table of Contents

Audit Committee is also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting and accounting practices and monitoring the adequacy of internal accounting, compliance and control systems. Management is responsible for the Company's system of internal controls, the financial reporting process and the assessment of the effectiveness of internal controls over financial reporting. The independent auditors are responsible for reviewing the Company's quarterly financial statements, for expressing an opinion on the conformity of the audited financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and for issuing reports and opinions on the operating effectiveness of the Company's internal controls over financial reporting and management's assessment of the effectiveness of the Company's internal controls over financial reporting.

Members of the Audit Committee rely, without independent verification, on the information provided to them and on the representations made by management and the opinions and communications of the Company's independent auditors. Accordingly, the Audit Committee's review does not provide an independent basis to determine that management has maintained appropriate accounting and financial reporting principles or appropriate internal controls and procedures designed to ensure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. Furthermore, the Audit Committee's activities do not ensure that the audit of the Company's financial statements has been carried out in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, that the financial statements are presented in accordance with accounting principals generally accepted in the United States of America or that the Company's independent auditors are in fact independent.

In fulfilling its responsibilities:

The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements, including management's report on internal controls over financial reporting, contained in the 2005 Annual Report on Form 10-K with the Company's management and the independent auditors prior to the filing of the Form 10-K with the Commission.

The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the unaudited financial statements contained in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for each of the quarters ended in 2005 with the Company's management and the independent auditors prior to the filing thereof with the Commission.

The Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communications with Audit Committees) and Rule 2-07 of Regulation S-X.

The Audit Committee received from the independent auditors written disclosures regarding the auditors independence, as required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and discussed with the auditors their independence from the Company and its management.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions noted above and subject to the limitations set forth above, the Audit Committee approved the inclusion of the audited financial statements and management's report on internal controls over financial reporting in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, for filing with the Commission.
