Item 8.01. Other Events.

Freedom Acquisition Holdings, Inc. (AMEX: FRH.U) (the Company) announced today that on January 19, 2007 the underwriters for the Company's initial public offering (the IPO) exercised a portion of their over-allotment option and purchased an additional 4.8 million units. Each unit consists of one share of common stock and one warrant to purchase an additional share of common stock. The IPO, including the exercise of the over-allotment option, generated total gross proceeds of $528.0 million to the Company (excluding the proceeds from the offering of $4.5 million sponsors' warrants received upon consummation of the IPO and the $50.0 million co-investment by its sponsors that will occur immediately prior to its consummation of a business combination).

In addition, the Company announced today that commencing on January 29, 2007, the holders of the Company's units may elect to separately trade the common stock and warrants included in the Company's units. Those units not separated will continue to trade on the American Stock Exchange under the symbol FRH.U, and each of the common stock and warrants will trade on the American Stock Exchange under the symbols FRH and FRH.WS, respectively.

A copy of the Press Release issued by the Company announcing the exercise of the over-allotment option and the separation of the units is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.
