CONCERO TO CEASE OPERATIONS

Expects Cash Distribution to Stockholders

AUSTIN, TX, August 14, 2002 . . . Concero Inc. today announced that its board of directors has decided to cease Concero's operations and liquidate the corporation, subject to required stockholder approval. Following an orderly disposition of Concero's assets and liabilities, the board of directors expects to declare a cash distribution to stockholders. Concero has released all but a small number of employees who will help manage the liquidation.

Timothy D. Webb will assist Concero with the sale of its Marquee software product and continue in his capacity as Chief Executive Officer until September 6, 2002, at which time he will leave Concero to pursue other endeavors. Kevin B. Kurtzman, a Concero director, will serve as Chief Executive Officer upon Mr. Webb's departure.

Forward-Looking Statements Disclosure

"Safe Harbor" Statements under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995: This press release contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties, including Concero's cessation of operations and anticipated liquidation and distribution to stockholders. Forward-looking statements are based on current information and assumptions that by their nature are dynamic and subject to change. Forward-looking statements regarding Concero's anticipated liquidation and distribution to stockholders are contingent upon, among other things, (i) approval by Concero's stockholders and (ii) capital in excess of outstanding obligations.

For further discussion of these and other factors, please refer to our recent filings with the SEC, particularly the Form 10-K filed March 29, 2002 and the Form 10-Q filed August 14, 2002.
