PROXY STATEMENT
ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
TO BE HELD JUNE 20, 2003

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

The accompanying proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of Beta for the Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The meeting will be held in the 19th Floor Conference Room A, Warren Place Two, 6120 South Yale Avenue, Tulsa, Oklahoma, on Friday, June 20, 2003 at 10:00 a.m. CDT for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting, and at any adjournments thereof. The principal executive office of the Company is located at 6120 South Yale Avenue, Suite 813, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74136.

We will bear the cost of soliciting proxies. Proxies will be solicited primarily by mail, but may be supplemented by personal solicitation by officers, employees and directors of Beta. No additional compensation will be paid for their solicitation efforts. The Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders, Proxy Statement and Proxy are first being mailed to stockholders on May 22, 2003.

VOTING AT THE ANNUAL MEETING

The close of business on May 9, 2003 has been fixed by the Board of Directors as the record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. At that date, Beta had issued approximately 12,429,307 shares of voting common stock and 604,272 shares of voting preferred stock outstanding. Holders of common stock and holders of preferred stock will vote together as a single class.

As a common or preferred stockholder you are entitled to vote on all matters properly brought before the meeting, including the matters described in the Notice of Annual Meeting accompanying this Proxy Statement. Each share of common stock you own and each share of preferred stock you own entitles you to one vote on all matters to be voted upon by Beta's stockholders except in the case of cumulative voting rights for directors.

All stockholders of Beta have cumulative voting rights when voting for directors if written notice of a desire for cumulative voting is properly given by one or more stockholders in advance of the meeting. Cumulative voting means you are entitled to as many votes as equals the number of shares you hold on the record date multiplied by the number of directors to be elected. You may cast all votes for a single director or you may distribute your votes among any two or more of the persons you wish to vote for in the election of directors.

For stockholders to be able to exercise their right to cumulative voting, one or more stockholders must give written notice to the Secretary of the Company that they desire that the vote for the election of directors be cumulative. The notice must be given not less than 48 hours before the time of the meeting, or before 10:00 a.m. on June 18, 2003. At the meeting, before the commencement of the vote for the election of directors, the chairman or secretary of the meeting will announce that notice has been given to provide for cumulative voting. If no such notice is given, there will be no cumulative voting. In the absence of cumulative voting, each stockholder may cast one vote for each share held by him multiplied by the number of directors to be elected, but may not cast more votes than the number of shares owned for any candidate. Under either form of voting, the candidates receiving the highest number of votes, up to the number of directors to be elected, will be elected.

In the event of cumulative voting in the election of directors, the proxy solicited by the Board of Directors confers discretionary authority on the proxies to cumulate votes among the nominees in such proportion as they see fit. The proxy also confers discretionary authority on the persons named therein to vote with respect to the election of any person as a director where the nominee is unable to serve and matters incident to the conduct of the Annual Meeting, and any other matters of which Beta did not receive notice until after March 15, 2003.

QUORUM AND VOTING REQUIREMENTS

The presence of a majority of the outstanding shares of common and preferred stock, whether in person or by proxy, constitutes a quorum at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining a quorum.

Abstentions and withheld votes for directors will be treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists, but will not be counted as a vote in favor of such matter.

A broker non-vote occurs when a nominee holding shares of common stock for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power with respect to that item and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

Votes Required

Election of Directors: Under our bylaws, Directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast. A plurality means that the individuals who receive the largest number of votes cast are elected as directors up to the maximum number of directors to be chosen at the meeting. Any shares not voted (whether by withholding the vote, broker non-vote or otherwise) have no impact in the election of directors, except to the extent the failure to vote for an individual results in another candidate receiving a larger number of votes.

Ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as independent auditors for 2003: To be approved, this matter must receive more affirmative votes than votes in opposition of those shares present in person or by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote. Broker non-votes and abstentions on this matter have no impact on this matter.

Approval of the proposed Amendment of the Articles of Incorporation: To be approved, this matter requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares entitled to vote. Consequently, broker non-votes and abstentions on these matters have the effect of a vote against this matter.

Amendment of Amended and Restated 1999 Incentive and Nonstatutory Stock Option Plan: To be approved, this matter must receive more affirmative votes than votes in opposition of those shares present in person or by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote. Broker non-votes and abstentions on this matter have no impact on this matter.

HOW TO REVOKE YOUR PROXY

You may revoke a proxy at any time before it is voted. You can do this by delivering a later dated proxy or by notifying the Secretary in writing specifically revoking the proxy. Your attendance and voting in person at the Annual Meeting will also revoke a proxy. If you do not make any specification on the proxy, your shares will be voted in accordance with the recommendation of the Board of Directors as stated herein, or at the discretion of the named proxies with regard to any other matter that may properly come before the Annual Meeting.

Beta believes that during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, its directors and executive officers complied with all these filing requirements, based solely on a review of copies of reports filed under Section 16(a) furnished to Beta and on the written representations of its directors and executive officers except for: (1) one delinquent initial Form 3 filing by David A. The Compensation Committee also administers the Amended and Restated 1999 Incentive and Nonstatutory Stock Option Plan. The committee presently consists of Robert C. Stone, Robert E. Davis, Jr. and David A. Wilkins. The Compensation Committee is discussed in more detail in the section entitled "Executive Compensation." This committee met three times during 2002.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

During 2002, the members of the Compensation Committee were Robert C. Stone, Robert E. Davis, Jr., outside directors of Beta and David A. Wilkins, President and Chief Executive Officer.

Report of the Compensation Committee

As the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, we are responsible for formulating and recommending to the full Board of Directors the compensation paid to Beta's executive officers, including Mr. Wilkins, the President and Chief Executive Officer. We generally review executive compensation on an annual basis. In reviewing the overall compensation of our executive officers, we consider the following components of executive compensation:

base salaries;

stock option grants;

cash bonuses;

insurance plans; and contributions by Beta to the retirement plan.

In establishing the compensation paid to our executives, we emphasize providing compensation that will (1) motivate and retain the executives and reward performance, (2) encourage the long term success of Beta, and (3) encourage the application of prudent decision making processes in an industry marked by volatility and high risk.

Historically, we have evaluated compensation paid to our executive officers based upon the following factors:

the growth in Beta's oil and gas reserves;

the market value of Beta's common stock;

cash flow;

the extent to which the executive officers have been successful in finding and creating opportunities for Beta to participate in drilling or acquisition ventures having quality prospects;

the ability of our executives to formulate and maintain sound budgets for drilling ventures and other business activities;

the overall financial condition of Beta;

the extent to which proposed business plans are met; and by comparing the compensation packages of our executive officers with the compensation packages of executive officers of other companies similar to Beta.

Edgar Filing: BETA OIL & GAS INC - Form DEF 14A

We do not assign relative weights or rankings to these factors. Instead, we make subjective determinations based upon a consideration of all of these factors.

In establishing base salaries for the executive officers, we have not relied on independent consultants to analyze or prepare formal surveys for us. However, we do make informal comparisons of our executives' compensation with the compensation paid to executives of other publicly and privately held companies similar to Beta. We also rely on our general knowledge and experience in the oil and gas industry, focusing on a subjective analysis of each of our executive's contributions to Beta's overall performance. In addition, we take into account the fact that we do not provide significant perquisites to our executive officers. While specific performance levels or "benchmarks" are not used to establish salaries or grant stock options, we do take into account historic comparisons of Beta's performance. With respect to awards of stock options, we attempt to provide the executives with an incentive compensation vehicle that could result in future additional compensation to the executives, but only if the value of our common stock increases for all stockholders. All stock options are granted with exercise prices equal to or greater than the fair market value of the common stock on the date of grant. When awarding stock options, we consider the number of options granted on prior occasions and the length of time between option grants.

As partial consideration for the forfeiture of Mr. Wilkins' incentive common stock options (vested and unvested) with his former employer, Mr. Wilkins was granted an option to purchase 500,000 shares of the Company's stock at an exercise price of $1.30 per share. These options will have a term of ten years and vest over a three-year period from the date of grant, with one third becoming exercisable on the first anniversary of the grant, one third becoming exercisable on the second anniversary of the grant and the remaining one third becoming exercisable on the third anniversary of the grant. We also awarded a $50,000 cash-signing bonus to Mr. Wilkins in October 2002 with an additional deferred signing bonus of $250,000 to be paid on January 1, 2003, $150,000 to be paid on July 1, 2003 and $150,000 to be paid on January 1, 2004.

In reviewing the overall compensation offered to Mr. Wilkins for commencement of his employment with Beta in 2002, we considered Beta's overall financial condition as well as the individual contributions that could be made by Mr. Wilkins. We feel that the stock option awards to our executive officers, including Mr. Wilkins, act as a catalyst to advancing the financial interests of stockholders along with those of management. It is our conclusion that the amount and types of compensation currently being paid to our executive officers are sufficient to motivate them and encourage their efforts to increase the value of Beta for all stockholders.

Provisions of the Internal Revenue Code that restrict the deductibility of certain compensation over one million dollars per year has not been a factor in our considerations or recommendations.

Respectfully Submitted,
Robert C. Stone
Robert E. Davis, Jr.
David A. Wilkins

Stock Options

We use stock options as part of the overall compensation of directors, officers and employees. In the following table, we show certain information with respect to stock options granted in 2002 to the named executive officers.

Option Grants in 2002

Name	Individual Grants (1)				Potential realizable value at assumed annual rates of stock price appreciation for option term
	Number of securities underlying Options#	Percent of total options granted to employees in 2002(2)	Exercise or base price ($/Sh)	Expiration date
					5%($)(3)	10%($)(3)

(1)

All options were granted on October 1, 2002 at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the common stock on that date. The options will have a term of ten years and vest over a three-year period from the date of grant, with one third ($\frac{1}{3}$) becoming exercisable on the first anniversary of the grant, one third ($\frac{1}{3}$) becoming exercisable on the second anniversary of the grant and the remaining one third ($\frac{1}{3}$) becoming exercisable on the third anniversary of the grant.

(2)

(3)

Caution is recommended in interpreting the financial significance of these figures. The figures are calculated by multiplying the number of options granted times the difference between a future hypothetical stock price and the option exercise price and are shown pursuant to rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. These amounts are calculated based on the indicated annual rates of appreciation and annual compounding from the date of grant to the end of the option term. Actual gains, if any, on stock option exercises are dependent on the future performance of the common stock and overall stock market conditions. There is no assurance that the amounts reflected in this table will be achieved.

- (2) As more fully described in the Summary Compensation Table and in the table under "Option Grants in 2002", Mr. Wilkins was granted 500,000 common stock options.
- (3) As more fully described in the Summary Compensation Table, stock options issued to Messrs. Antry and Feters under the Plan terminate three months from the termination date of employment. Mr. Antry had 55,000 stock options and Mr. Feters had 45,000 stock options issued under the Plan.

Directors' Compensation

Employee directors receive no additional compensation for service on the Board of Directors or any committee thereof. Beta's Bylaws state that non-employee directors of Beta shall not receive any stated salary for their services, but, by resolution of the Board of Directors, a fixed sum and expense of attendance, if any, may be allowed for attendance at each regular and special meeting of the Board of Directors. (All Beta directors receive actual expense reimbursements, and Beta currently pays $1,500 in fees per outside director per each Board and committee meeting.) In 2002, the aggregate of the directors' fees to all outside directors was $30,000. Non-employee directors currently receive 25,000 options each year on their anniversary date with a cap of 100,000 options. This policy will change so that effective July 1, 2003, directors will receive only 10,000 options each year on the date of the annual meeting but with no cap on the number of options which may be granted. New directors will receive 50,000 options for their initial year of service. The Chairman of the Board of Directors currently receives an additional 25,000 options each year but effective July 1, 2003, this will be reduced to 15,000 each year. The Chair of the Audit committee currently receives an additional 25,000 each year but this will be reduced to 15,000 effective July 1, 2003. The exercise price of these options is equal to 110% of the fair market value of the common stock on the date of grant. Beta maintains directors and officers liability insurance.

He will also receive a $150,000 bonus payable on July 1, 2003 and a $150,000 bonus payable on January 2, 2004 if he is still employed on those dates. Mr. Wilkins was granted an option to purchase 500,000 shares of our stock at an exercise price of $1.30 per share. The Company also committed to grant to him on December 31, 2003 (if he is still employed at that time) an option to purchase 100,000 shares at a price equal to the Company's common stock closing price on The Nasdaq Stock Market on that date. These options will have a term of ten years and vest over a three-year period from the date of grant, with one third becoming exercisable on the first anniversary of the grant, one third becoming exercisable on the second anniversary of the grant and the remaining one third becoming exercisable on the third anniversary of the grant.

1. A $100 investment was made in the Company's common stock and each index on 7/9/99.
2. The indices are weighted daily, using the market capitalization on the previous trading day.
3. If the quarterly interval, based on the fiscal year end, is not a trading day, the preceding trading day is used.
4. All dividends are reinvested on the ex-dividend date.

The indices in the performance graph compare the annual cumulative total stockholder return on Beta's common stock with the cumulative total return of The Nasdaq Stock Market (U.S.) Index and a peer group index comprised of 5 U.S. companies engaged in crude oil and natural gas operations whose stocks were traded on Nasdaq during the period from July 9, 1999 through December 31, 2002. AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

The Board of Directors has adopted a resolution setting forth a proposed amendment to delete Article Sixth of the Company's Articles of Incorporation to remove the provision for cumulative voting for directors. The resolution adopted by the Board of Directors, which will be presented for approval by the stockholders at the annual meeting, is set forth below:

RESOLVED, that, subject to the approval of the stockholders of the Company, the Articles of Incorporation of the Company be, and the same hereby is, amended by deleting Article Sixth and renumbering Article Seventh to Article Sixth.

The Board of Directors believes that it is advisable for the stockholders to eliminate the right of stockholders to vote cumulatively in the election of directors. Nevada law and the Articles of Incorporation now provide cumulative voting rights to stockholders in the election of directors, so long as at least one stockholder gives written notice at least 48 hours in advance of the stockholder meeting of his or her desire to exercise cumulative voting rights in the election of directors at that meeting. This allows each stockholder to have a number of votes equal to the number of shares of common and preferred stock such stockholder is entitled to vote multiplied by the number of directors to be elected at the meeting. The stockholder may allocate such votes to or among one or more nominees for director in any manner desired by the stockholder. The candidates receiving the highest number of votes, up to the number of directors to be elected, are elected. Cumulative voting may enable a stockholder or group of stockholders representing a small minority of the votes cast in an election of directors to cause the election of one or more nominees for director. Without cumulative voting, a holder or holders of shares representing a majority of the votes cast in an election of directors will be able to elect all directors standing for election.

The Board of Directors believes that each director should only be elected if such director receives a plurality of the votes cast and that each director should represent the interest of all stockholders rather than the interest of a minority stockholder or special constituency. The Company, however, is not aware of any attempt by a group of stockholders of the Company to elect a director by using cumulative voting to achieve minority representation on the Board. The Board believes that the system of electing directors whereby those directors are elected who receive a plurality of votes cast by stockholders as a whole will best insure that the Board will act for the benefit of all stockholders. Accordingly, the Board believes that it is in the best interests of the Company and all of its stockholders to eliminate cumulative voting.

While the Board of Directors does not consider the elimination of cumulative voting as an anti-takeover measure, the absence of cumulative voting could have the effect of preventing stockholders holding a minority of the Company's voting capital stock from obtaining representation on the Board. The elimination of cumulative voting might also, under certain circumstances, render more difficult or discourage a merger, tender offer or proxy contest, the assumption of control by a holder of a large block of the Company's stock or the removal of incumbent management.

Edgar Filing: BETA OIL & GAS INC - Form DEF 14A

If approved by the stockholders, the proposed amendment will become effective upon the filing of a Certificate of Amendment with the Secretary of State of Nevada amending the Company's Articles of Incorporation, which will occur as soon as reasonably practicable. No changes will be made in the respective rights and privileges pertaining to the outstanding shares of common or preferred stock. At any time before the effective date of the amendment, even after approval of the amendment by stockholders, the Board of Directors may abandon the proposed amendment without further action by the stockholders..

The Board of Directors recommends a vote for the amendment of the Articles of Incorporation.

AMENDMENT OF AMENDED AND RESTATED 1999 INCENTIVE AND NONSTATUTORY STOCK OPTION PLAN

Description of Proposed Amendment

The Board of Directors has adopted a resolution setting forth a proposed Amendment Number 1 to the Amended and Restated 1999 Incentive and Nonstatutory Stock Option Plan (the "Plan"). The purpose of the amendment is to increase the total number of shares of common stock available for issuance from time to time pursuant to awards granted under the Plan. Currently, the total number of shares of common stock available for issuance pursuant to awards granted under the Plan is 700,000. The amendment would provide that the number of shares available for issuance pursuant to awards under the Plan would be 1,450,000.

As of April 24, 2003, there were 68,917 shares of the original 700,000 shares of common stock available for future grants of awards under the Plan and there were stock options and options reserved for further grants of 631,083 shares outstanding under the Plan. The total number of shares of common stock currently subject to outstanding stock options and reserved for future grants of awards under the Plan represents approximately 4.8 percent of the Company's total outstanding shares of common stock on April 24, 2003. Options for a total of 15,000 shares have been exercised under the Plan since its inception.

While the Board of Directors is cognizant of the potential dilutive effect of compensatory stock awards, it also recognizes the significant motivational and performance benefits that are achieved from making such awards. The Board of Directors took the potential dilutive effect into account when determining the number of shares of common stock that may be subject to outstanding awards at any one time under the amendment.

A copy of the amendment is attached hereto as Exhibit A. The Company will furnish a copy of the Plan to any stockholder upon written request to the Secretary of the Company, 6120 South Yale Avenue, Suite 813, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74136. The Amendment, which was approved by the Board of Directors on April 17, 2003, will not take effect unless the proposal receives more affirmative votes than votes in opposition of those shares present in person or by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote. The purpose of the Plan is to strengthen the ability of the Company to attract and retain well-qualified executive, managerial and professional personnel and to encourage stock ownership by such personnel in order to increase their proprietary interest in the Company's success. The Company's challenge in the current employment market is to ensure that such personnel are appropriately recognized, rewarded, and encouraged to stay with the Company, help it grow, and, by doing so, continue to add stockholder value. In that regard, the Company relies heavily upon stock options to compensate its executive, managerial and professional personnel and to retain and motivate such personnel and desires to continue that practice because it believes that stock options encourage and reward effective management that results in long-term corporate financial success, as measured by stock price appreciation.

Description of the Plan

General. On September 11, 2000, a majority of our shareholders ratified and approved the adoption of the Company's Amended and Restated 1999 Incentive and Nonstatutory Stock Option Plan previously approved by the Board of Directors. The plan authorizes the Compensation Committee to grant stock option awards to officers, directors and employees. The plan provides, among other things, the following:

The maximum number of shares, which may be optioned and sold under the plan, is 700,000 shares.

Edgar Filing: BETA OIL & GAS INC - Form DEF 14A

The per share exercise price for common shares to be issued pursuant to the exercise of an option shall be no less than the fair market value of Beta's common stock as of the date of grant.

The per share exercise price for common shares to be issued to persons owning more than 10% of the voting stock of Beta at the date of grant, shall be no less than 110% of the fair market value of Beta's common stock as of the date of grant.

The maximum terms of the options shall be a maximum of ten years or such lesser time period as the Board of Directors determines. The maximum time period for options to be issued to persons owning more than 10% of the voting stock of Beta at the date of grant shall be five years from the date of grant.

The Plan provides for the granting to employees of incentive stock options within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and for the granting of nonstatutory stock options to consultants and Company directors who are not employees. If an employee is granted incentive stock options, but, as of the time of the grant the underlying value of the stock issuable on exercise of the options in any particular year exceeds $100,000, then the options with respect to the stock having a value as of the time of grant in excess of $100,000 will not qualify as incentive stock options and instead will be non-statutory stock options under the Plan. There are approximately 14 employees who are eligible to receive options under the Plan. The market price for Beta's common stock underlying the common stock options as of May 2, 2003 based on average of the high and low bid price on the Nasdaq National Market System was $.85 per share of common stock.

Administration of the Plan. The Compensation Committee appointed by our Board of Directors is administering the Plan. This committee consists of two outside, independent directors, Robert C. Stone and Robert E. Davis, Jr. and David A. Wilkins, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and President and director.

This Compensation Committee has the power, subject to the approval of our Board of Directors, to determine the terms of the options granted, including the number of shares subject to each option, the exercisability and vesting requirements of each option, and the form of consideration payable upon the exercise of such option (i.e., whether cash or exchange of existing shares of Beta common stock in a cashless transaction or a combination thereof).

Summary of Awards. The Plan requires that the exercise price of the stock options granted under such plan shall not be less than (but may be higher than) 100% of the fair market value per share as determined on the date of grant. However, if an employee who is granted a stock option owns, at the time of grant, stock representing more than 10% of the voting power of all classes of Beta stock, the exercise price for options which are incentive stock options may not be less than 110% of the fair market value per share on the date of grant.

So long as our stock is reported on The Nasdaq Stock Market, the fair market value per share on the date of grant of a stock option under the Plan shall be the average of the last reported highest bid and the lowest asked prices quoted on The Nasdaq Stock Market on such date. The average of the last reported highest bid and the lowest asked prices quoted on the Nasdaq National Market System on May 2, 2003, was $.85 per share.

The Plan will continue in effect for 10 years from August 20, 1999 (i.e., the date first adopted by our Board of Directors), unless sooner terminated by our Board of Directors. Unless otherwise provided by our Board of Directors, the stock options granted under the Plan will terminate immediately prior to the consummation of a proposed dissolution or liquidation of Beta.

The options granted under the Plan must be exercised no later than 10 years after the date of grant. However, in the case of an optionee who owns, at the time of grant, stock representing more than 10% of the combined voting power of all classes of Beta stock, the term of the incentive stock options may not be for more than five (5) years.

Upon the termination of an optionee as our employee, he/she must exercise his/her option within the period of time not exceeding three (3) months (as set forth in such stock option) after he/she ceases to be our employee. If an optionee becomes disabled and due to such disability ceases to be our employee, he/she must exercise his/her option within 12 months after termination of employment. Upon the death of an optionee during employment, the optionee's estate or person acquiring the right to exercise such option by bequest or inheritance may exercise such option at any time within 12 months following the date of such optionee's death, but only to the extent that the optionee could have exercised such option (under its terms) if his/her employment had continued uninterrupted for such 12-month period.

Edgar Filing: BETA OIL & GAS INC - Form DEF 14A

The options granted under the Plan may only be exercised by the optionee during his/her lifetime and are not transferable except by will or by the laws of descent and distribution. The shares of Beta common stock transferred to an optionee as a result of the exercise of a stock option are "restricted securities" under Rule 144 as promulgated under the 1933 Act and may only be resold or transferred in compliance with such rule and the registration requirements or an exemption from such requirements under the 1933 Act.

Awards granted. Since inception of the Plan, options for the following number of shares have been granted (net of expirations or cancellations) under the Plan to the named executive officers of the Company and specified groups: Steve Antry, former President, Chief Executive Officer and Director, 55,000 options, all of which have expired; R. Thomas Feters, former Managing Director of Exploration and Director, 45,000 options, all of which have expired; all current executive officers as a group, 200,000 options; all current directors who are not executive officers as a group, 189,583 options; Cheryl R. Collarini, nominee for director, 0 options; and all employees, including all current officers who are not executive officers, as a group, 116,583 options. Future awards under the Plan are not yet determinable.

Federal Income Tax Consequences. The Company believes that under present federal income tax laws the following are the federal income tax consequences generally arising with respect to awards granted under the Plan. The grant of an option will create no tax consequences for the participant or the Company. The participant will have no taxable income upon exercising an incentive stock option (except that the alternative minimum tax may apply) and the Company will receive no deduction.

Persons exercising a non-qualified stock option will recognize ordinary income equal to the difference between the exercise price and the fair market value of the stock acquired on the date of exercise. When a person exercises a nonstatutory stock option, the Company generally will be entitled to a deduction for the amount recognized as ordinary income by the person.

The treatment to a participant of a disposition of shares acquired upon the exercise of an option depends on how long the shares have been held and on whether such shares are acquired by exercising an incentive stock option or by exercising a nonstatutory stock option. Generally, there will be no tax consequences to the Company in connection with a disposition of shares acquired under an option except that the Company will be entitled to a deduction (and the employee will recognize ordinary income) if shares acquired under an incentive stock option are disposed of before the applicable incentive stock option holding periods have been satisfied.

With respect to awards granted under the Plan involving stock that is restricted as to transferability and subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture, a participant will recognize ordinary income equal to the fair market value of the shares received at the earlier of the time at which the shares become transferable or not subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture unless the participant elects to be taxed at the time of the award notwithstanding the restrictions (to minimize the tax payable in respect of the appreciation in the value of the stock from the time it is awarded until the restrictions lapse). The Company generally will be entitled to a deduction for the same amount.

The foregoing provides only a very general description of the application of federal income tax laws to awards under the Plan. The summary does not address the effects of foreign, state and local tax laws.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote for the amendment of the Amended and Restated 1999 Incentive and Nonstatutory Stock Option Plan.

RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

On May 5, 2003 we appointed Ernst & Young, LLP ("EY") as independent auditors effective June 20, 2003, to perform the audit of our financial statements for fiscal year 2003. If the stockholders do not ratify the appointment of EY, the audit committee will reconsider the appointment

We expect that representatives of EY will be present at the Annual Meeting, will be given an opportunity to make a statement at the meeting if they desire to do so and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

HEIN + ASSOCIATES LLP (HEIN) audited our financial statements for fiscal year 2002 and was our independent auditor from 1997 to 2002. We are engaging a different independent accounting firm for 2003 due to our desire to have independent auditors with an office and presence in Tulsa, Oklahoma where our corporate office is located. HEIN does not maintain a Tulsa office and we currently utilize auditors from HEIN's Orange County, California office. HEIN will remain our independent auditors until June 20, 2003. In connection with the audits for the Company's fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, there were no disagreements with HEIN on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of HEIN, would have caused it to make reference thereto in its report on the financial statements of the Company for such time periods. Also, during those time periods, there were no "reportable events," as such term is used in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

The reports of HEIN on the financial statements of the Company for the two fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, neither contained an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

On April 30, 2003, with the approval of our Board of Directors, the Audit Committee approved the engagement of EY as our independent auditors for its 2003 fiscal year. On May 5, 2003 we engaged EY. We notified HEIN of our decision on May 6, 2003.

During the Company's two fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, the Company did not consult with EY with respect to the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's consolidated financial statements, or any other matters or reportable events listed in Items 304(a)(2)(i) and (ii) of Regulation S-K.

We expect that representatives of HEIN will be present at the Annual Meeting, will be given an opportunity to make a statement at the meeting if they desire to do so and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.
