Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

No change is being reported.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

On March 29, 2004, the ADLT Class 7 Liquidating Trust (the "Trust") sold 1,000,000 shares of the issuer's common stock to private equity investors pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement, dated March 19, 2004. The shares of the issuer that were sold by the Trust were not registered in reliance on the so-called "Section 4(1 $\frac{1}{2}$ )" exemption under the Securities Act of 1933. However, the issuer has agreed to register these shares for resale in accordance with its obligations to the Trust, and the Trust's transferees, pursuant to the Second Amended and Restated Investor Agreement (the "Investor Agreement").

As a result of this transaction, the Trust beneficially owns 541,011 shares of the issuer's common stock. The Trust will continue its purpose of conducting an orderly liquidating of these remaining shares and other assets formerly owned by Advanced Lighting Technologies, Inc. ("Advanced Lighting"). In addition, Bridge Associates, LLC, as trustee of the Trust, will continue to seek opportunities to sell the assets held by the Trust in order to maximize the value of those assets for the Trust's beneficiaries. As of the date of this statement, no transaction that would lead to a disposition of the remaining shares has been identified, and the remaining shares have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"). However, the Trust has the right under the Investor Agreement to require the issuer to cause the remaining 541,011 shares to be registered under the Securities Act. The transfer of the remaining 541,011 shares continues to be subject to certain restrictions contained in the Investor Agreement, including a restriction against a transfer of the issuer's shares that would cause any person to receive an interest greater than 5% of the "Voting Securities" (as defined in the Investor Agreement) unless otherwise consented to by the issuer.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

(a) The Trust beneficially owns 541,011 shares of the issuer's common stock. This represents approximately 8.3% of the Issuer's common stock outstanding as of date of this statement.

(b) The Trust has the sole power to vote and dispose of 541,011 shares of the issuer's common stock. However, pursuant to the Investor Agreement, until such time as the Trust no longer holds 7.5% of the issuer's common stock, the Trust has agreed to vote its shares with the issuer's management on all matters (other than the election of directors) only in the same proportion as the remaining shareholders of the issuer vote. Under the Investor Agreement, the Trust's power to dispose of its shares is restricted.

(c) No change is being reported.

(d)-(e) Not applicable.

Item 6.

Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

(a) On March 18, 2004, Advanced Lighting, the issuer and the Trust entered into a modified Investor Agreement, which provides, among other things, as follows:

The Trust's agreement not to solicit proxies with respect to the election or removal of any of the issuer's directors;

The Trust's agreement not to deposit the issuer's shares in a voting trust or to join a group or otherwise act in concert with a third person for the purpose of acquiring, holding, voting or disposing of the shares of the issuer;

The Trust's agreement to notify the issuer's management if it plans to acquire or dispose of the issuer's common stock (but only so long as the Trust holds at least 7.5% of the common stock of the issuer);

The Trust's agreement to vote the shares with the issuer's management on all matters (other than the election of directors) only in the same proportion as the remaining shareholders of the issuer vote (but only so long as the Trust holds at least 7.5% of the common stock of the issuer); and Certain restrictions in the Trust's ability to dispose of the issuer's shares (but only so long as the Trust holds at least 7.5% of the common stock of the issuer).

The parties modified the Investor Agreement to account for the fact that Advanced Lighting assigned warrants representing the right to acquire 42,000 shares of the issuer's common stock to two former employees of Unison Fiber Optics Lighting, an affiliate of Advanced Lighting. The modification of the Investor Agreement has retroactive effect to the parties' original agreement, dated January 6, 2004.

(b) The Trust sold 1,000,000 shares of the issuer's common stock to private equity investors pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement, dated March 19, 2004.
