Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Adoption of Group Severance Plan

On May 11, 2005, Regal Cinemas, Inc. ("RCI"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Regal Entertainment Group ("Regal"), adopted and approved the RCI Severance Plan For Equity Compensation (the "Severance Plan"). Participation in the Severance Plan is limited to employees of Regal CineMedia Corporation ("RCM"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Regal and RCI, who held an unvested option to purchase shares of Regal's Class A common stock or shares of Regal's restricted Class A common stock pursuant to the terms of the Regal 2002 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Incentive Plan") immediately prior to such employee's termination of employment with RCM and commencement of employment with National CineMedia, LLC ("NCM"). As previously disclosed, NCM is a joint venture between a subsidiary of RCM and a subsidiary of AMC Entertainment, Inc. focusing on the marketing and sale of cinema advertising and promotional products, business communications and training services, and the distribution of digital alternative content. The Severance Plan is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this report and incorporated herein by reference.

Under the terms of and subject to the conditions to the Severance Plan, each eligible employee who participates in the Severance Plan (a "Participant") will, at the times set forth in the Severance Plan, be entitled to a cash payment equal to the sum of (1) the difference between the exercise price of each unvested option held by such Participant immediately prior to the date of his or her termination of employment with RCM and the fair market value of Regal's Class A common stock (calculated pursuant to the terms of the Severance Plan) and (2) the difference between the purchase price of each share of Regal's restricted stock held by such Participant immediately prior to his or her termination of employment by RCM and the fair market value of Regal's Class A common stock (calculated pursuant to the terms of the Severance Plan). Each Participant's cash payment will vest according to the year and date on which such unvested options and restricted stock held by such Participant would have vested pursuant to the terms of the Incentive Plan and the related award agreement had employment with RCM not ceased.

In addition, the Severance Plan provides that each Participant who was granted restricted stock under the Incentive Plan will be entitled to receive payments in lieu of dividend distributions in an amount equal to the per share value of dividends paid on Regal's Class A common stock times the number of shares of such restricted stock held by such Participant immediately prior to his or her termination of employment with RCM. Each such Participant will receive these payments in lieu of dividend distributions until the date that each such Participant's restricted stock would have vested in accordance with the Incentive Plan. Solely for purposes of the calculation of such payments with respect to restricted stock, in the event of any stock dividend, stock split or other change in the corporate structure affecting Regal's Class A common stock, there shall be an equitable proportionate adjustment (as contemplated by the Incentive Plan) to the number of shares of restricted stock held by each Participant immediately prior to his or her termination of employment with RCM. Please refer to Exhibit 10.1 hereto for the complete terms of the Severance Plan.

Amendment of 2002 Stock Incentive Plan.

On May 11, 2005, the stockholders of Regal approved an amendment to the Incentive Plan increasing the number of shares of Class A common stock authorized for issuance under the Incentive Plan from 16,110,241 to a total of 18,000,000 shares. The amendment to the Incentive Plan was filed as Appendix A to Regal's Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on April 15, 2005 and is incorporated herein and as Exhibit 10.2 hereto by reference thereto.

Item 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities.

As discussed above under Item 1.01, on May 11, 2005, RCI adopted and approved the Severance Plan. Pursuant to the terms of and subject to the conditions to the Severance Plan, each Participant will, at the times set forth in the Severance Plan, be entitled to a cash payment equal to the sum of (1) the difference between the exercise price of each unvested option held by such Participant immediately prior to the date of his or her termination of employment with RCM and the fair market value of Regal's Class A common stock (calculated pursuant to the terms of the Severance Plan) and (2) the difference between the purchase price of each share of Regal's restricted stock held by such Participant immediately prior to his or her termination of employment by RCM and the fair market value of Regal's Class A common stock (calculated pursuant to the terms of the Severance Plan). Each Participant's termination of employment with RCM is expected take place as of the close of business on May 24, 2005 and commencement of employment with NCM is expected the next business day on May 25, 2005. Based on information currently available to Regal, the maximum total cost of the Severance Plan assuming all conditions are met, including payments in lieu of dividend distributions on restricted stock, is estimated to equal approximately $15.0 million to $17.0 million. Pursuant to the terms of the NCM arrangements, approximately $4.0 million of such costs associated with the Severance Plan will be funded by NCM. As the Severance Plan provides for payments over future periods that are contingent upon continued employment with NCM, the cost of the Severance Plan will be
