PROSPECTUS

Overstock.com, Inc.

65,465 Shares

Overstock.com, Inc. Common Stock Fund

Overstock.com, Inc. 401(k) Plan

Rescission Offer

Under the terms and conditions described in this prospectus, we are offering to rescind (the "Rescission Offer") the previous purchase of shares of Overstock.com, Inc. common stock, par value $0.0001 per share, in the Overstock.com, Inc. Stock Fund (the "Overstock.com Stock Fund") by persons who acquired such shares (the "Shares") through the Overstock.com, Inc. 401(k) Plan (the "Plan") between July 1, 2008 and June 30, 2009 (the "Purchase Period").

The Rescission Offer applies to Shares purchased during the Purchase Period at prices ranging from $6.77 per Share to $21.17 per Share.

If you purchased Shares pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period and accept the Rescission Offer, you will receive:

In the event you sold such Shares at a loss, an amount equal to the excess of the amount you paid for such Shares over the proceeds from your sale of the Shares, plus interest.

In the event you currently hold such Shares, upon your tender of such Shares to us by accepting the Rescission Offer, the amount you paid for such Shares, plus interest from the date of the purchase. However, we will not repurchase the Shares if the amount you paid for the Shares, plus interest, is less than the closing price of the Shares on the date of expiration of this Rescission Offer.

Although this prospectus uses the term "interest" when describing the calculation of the Rescission Offer price, the term is only intended to describe the method used to calculate the payment amount, and the payment is not considered interest for federal income tax purposes. Instead, the entire amount will be considered as a payment for the sale of your Shares.

The Rescission Offer will expire at 5:00 p.m., Mountain Time, on October 6, 2010 (the "Expiration Date").

Our common stock is listed on The NASDAQ Global Market under the trading symbol "OSTK." The last reported sale price of our common stock (as reported on The NASDAQ Global Market) on August 26, 2010, was $ per share. Our principal executive offices are located at 6350 South 3000 East, Salt Lake City, Utah 84121. Our telephone number is (801) 947-3100.

You may elect to accept the Rescission Offer by submitting a Rescission Offer Acceptance Form to us on or before the Expiration Date as set forth in this prospectus. You do not need to take any action to reject the Rescission Offer. If you fail to return the Rescission Offer Acceptance Form by the Expiration Date, you will be deemed by us to have rejected the Rescission Offer. Acceptance or rejection of the Rescission Offer may prevent you from maintaining any action against us based on a claim that we failed to register shares of our common stock purchased pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period. In any event, any such claim may be barred by applicable statutes of limitations. See "Risk Factors Your right of rescission, if any, under federal and state law may not survive if you affirmatively reject or fail to accept the Rescission Offer" on page 10.

Investing in shares of our common stock involves risks. See "Risk Factors" on page 10.

The Shares subject to the Rescission Offer may be deemed not to have been properly registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), because we inadvertently exceeded the number of shares of our common stock registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") for offer and sale to participants under the Plan.

The Staff of the SEC takes the position that an offer to rescind a sale of securities constitutes a new offer to sell the securities. Consequently, absent an applicable exemption, the new offer is subject to the registration provisions of the Securities Act. This prospectus is part of a Registration Statement on Form S-1 filed with the SEC to register these shares, regardless of whether or not you accept the Rescission Offer.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of these securities or passed upon the adequacy or accuracy of this prospectus. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

The date of this prospectus is August , 2010.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE RESCISSION OFFER

The following questions and answers are intended to address briefly some commonly asked questions regarding the Rescission Offer. These questions and answers do not address all questions that may be important to you as a participant in the Plan who acquired Shares between July 1, 2008, and June 30, 2009. Please refer to "The Rescission Offer" beginning on page 12 and the more detailed information contained elsewhere in this prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference into this prospectus, which you should read carefully.

Q: Why are you making the Rescission Offer?

A:

Plan participants can purchase interests in Overstock.com, Inc. common stock through the Plan. The Trustee of the Plan, Fidelity Management Trust Company (the "Trustee"), holds the Plan's shares of Overstock.com, Inc. common stock in the Overstock.com Stock Fund. Although the shares of Overstock.com, Inc. common stock held by the Trustee may have been purchased in the open market by the Trustee, the SEC takes the position that we are required to register with the SEC the deemed sale of these shares, as well as the sale of shares we have contributed directly to the Plan. Although we originally registered shares of our common stock for sale to Plan participants in connection with the Plan, we have discovered that we inadvertently exceeded the number of shares registered.

We are making the Rescission Offer with respect to 65,465 Shares sold pursuant to the Plan from July 1, 2008, through June 30, 2009. We are making the Rescission Offer to ensure compliance with the Securities Act and to limit any contingent liability we may have as a result of inadvertently exceeding the number of shares registered in accordance with applicable federal registration requirements. We believe that the statute of limitations period applicable to potential claims for rescission under the Securities Act is one year. In determining the Purchase Period, we selected a date after which no unregistered sales of Shares were made under the Plan as the ending date of the Purchase Period, and the date that is twelve months prior to that date. Non-employee members of our Board of Directors were not eligible to participate in the Plan and therefore are not eligible to participate in the Rescission Offer. Our current executive officers and employee members of our Board of Directors who purchased Shares pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period have informed us that they do not intend to participate in the Rescission Offer.

The Rescission Offer covers only the 65,465 Shares issued between July 1, 2008 and June 30, 2009, which is the twelve-month period covered by the Tolling Agreement described below under "The Rescission Offer Effect of the Rescission Offer." The Rescission Offer does not cover Shares issued prior to July 1, 2008 because we believe that the applicable statute of limitations had already expired with respect to shares issued prior to July 1, 2008 when we entered into the Tolling Agreement. The Rescission Offer does not cover Shares issued after June 30, 2009 because we filed a registration statement on Form S-8 registering the offer and sale of Shares in connection with the Plan after that date.

We believe that the only state securities laws potentially applicable to our issuance of Shares are those of the State of Utah, and that the original issuance of the Shares was exempt from the Utah registration requirements. Utah law provides that a person who buys a security from a person who sells the security in violation of the Utah registration requirements may sue either at law or in equity to recover the consideration paid for the security, together with interest at 12% per year from the date of payment, costs, and reasonable attorney fees, less the amount of income received on the security, upon the tender of the security or for damages if the person no longer owns the security. The Utah statute further provides that an action may not be maintained to enforce liability under this section unless brought before the earlier of: (i) the expiration of five years after the act or transaction constituting the violation; or (ii) the expiration of two years after the discovery by the plaintiff of the facts constituting the violation.

The Utah law also provides that a person may not sue under the section described above if: (i) the buyer or seller received a written offer, before suit and at a time when the buyer or seller owned the security, to refund the consideration paid together with interest at 12% per year from the date of payment, less the amount of any income received on the security, and the buyer or seller failed to accept the offer within 30 days of its receipt; or (ii) the buyer or seller received such an offer before suit and at a time when the buyer or seller did not own the security, unless the buyer or seller rejected the offer in writing within 30 days of its receipt.

Q: What will I receive if I accept the Rescission Offer?

A:

The answer to this question depends on whether you still hold the Shares purchased pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period:

If you have sold such Shares at a loss, we will pay you an amount equal to the amount of the loss, plus interest at a rate of 12% per year. Interest will be paid on the amount you originally paid for the Shares during the period from the date of your purchase of the Shares through the date of your sale of the Shares. Interest will also be paid on the loss you realized from your sale of the Shares from the date of your sale through the date that payment is made by us.

If you currently hold such Shares, we will repurchase such Shares for the amount you paid for such Shares, plus interest at a rate of 12% per year from the date you purchased the Shares through the Expiration Date. However, we will not repurchase the Shares if the amount you paid for the Shares, plus interest (to the Expiration Date), is less than the closing price of the Shares as of the Expiration Date, as it would not be economically beneficial to you.

Q: When and how will I receive payment for my Shares if I properly accept the Rescission Offer?

A:

If we receive a legible, properly completed Rescission Offer Acceptance Form from you on or before 5:00 p.m., Mountain Time, on the Expiration Date and we determine that you are eligible to accept the Rescission Offer, we expect that on or before October 14, 2010:

If you still have a Plan account, whether or not you are an active employee of Overstock.com, Inc., all proceeds to which you are entitled by accepting the Rescission Offer will be credited to your Plan account and invested in the Fidelity Freedom Income Fund. You may exchange the amount invested in the Fidelity Freedom Income Fund into other investment funds available under the Plan in accordance with the Plan's normal procedures.

If you no longer have a Plan account, a Plan account will be established for you and all proceeds to which you are entitled by accepting the Rescission Offer will be credited to your account and invested in the Fidelity Freedom Income Fund. You may exchange the amount invested in the Fidelity Freedom Income Fund into other investment funds available under the Plan in accordance with the Plan's normal procedures. Distributions from your Plan account will be managed in accordance with the terms of the Plan as follows:

Plan account balance greater than $1,000. If your Plan account balance is greater than $1,000 and you are currently not employed by Overstock.com, Inc., your assets will remain in the plan until you choose a distribution from the following options: (1) a direct rollover to an IRA or another qualified plan, (2) a lump sum payment, or (3) installment payments. Absent a consent to a distribution by you, your account balance will remain in the Plan until a distribution is required by the Plan's mandatory distribution rules. You should review the Plan Summary Plan Description for more information on mandatory distribution events.

Plan account balance of $1,000 or less. If your Plan account balance is less than or equal to $1,000 and you are currently not employed by Overstock.com, Inc., your account balance will automatically be distributed to you at the end of the year, and you may elect one of the following: (1) direct rollover to an IRA or another qualified plan, or (2) lump sum payment. You will receive notification and information about distribution options after the date your rescission proceeds are credited to your Plan account and before the distribution is made. If you do not make an election within 90 days following that notification, your account balance will be distributed to you in a lump sum.

To make any of the above elections, contact the Overstock.com, Inc. HR Department at (801) 947-5104. Proceeds will be transferred to your Plan account within approximately five business days following the Expiration Date.

We strongly encourage you to review the Plan's Summary Plan Description that contains additional information on distribution of account balances. To obtain a copy of the Plan's Summary Plan Description, contact the Overstock.com, Inc. HR Department at (801) 947-5104. Payment of proceeds directly to you may result in adverse tax consequences. See "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations."

Q: What interest rate will be used in calculating any amounts owed to me?

A:

We will use an annual interest rate of 12%. We selected this interest rate because it is the legal rate for rescission offers under the Utah Uniform Securities Act.

Q: Does it matter whether I purchased Shares through salary deferrals, rollover contributions, loan repayments, company contributions or transfers between investment funds?

A:

No. All purchases of Shares made pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period will be considered when determining whether you are eligible to accept the Rescission Offer.

Q: Am I required to accept the Rescission Offer?

A:

No. You are not required to accept the Rescission Offer. Your decision to accept or reject the Rescission Offer is completely voluntary. If you are an employee of Overstock.com, Inc., acceptance or rejection of the Rescission Offer will not have any bearing or effect on your employment status.

Q: Should I accept the Rescission Offer?

A:

You must make your own decision whether to accept the Rescission Offer. In making your decision whether to accept the Rescission Offer, you should consider all relevant factors in light of your particular circumstances, including the potential tax consequences of accepting the Rescission Offer (see "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences") and, if you now hold Shares you purchased during the Purchase Period, the possibility that the value of such Shares may increase or decrease after the Expiration Date.

You should note, however, that under the terms of the Rescission Offer, we will not repurchase any Shares unless our records indicate that (1) you sold Shares you purchased during the Purchase Period for less than you paid for them and/or (2) you now hold Shares you purchased during the Purchase Period that on the Expiration Date are worth less than the Rescission Offer price. In applying those criteria, we will use a "first-in, first-out," or "FIFO," principle in determining whether Shares were sold at a loss and whether you now hold Shares eligible for repurchase pursuant to the Rescission Offer. You should apply the same principle in determining whether or not to accept the Rescission Offer. An example calculation using the FIFO principle is included with the Rescission Offer Acceptance Form that accompanies this prospectus.

WE URGE YOU TO REVIEW THIS PROSPECTUS CAREFULLY BEFORE DECIDING WHETHER TO ACCEPT OR REJECT THE RESCISSION OFFER.

Table of Contents

If you have questions about the Rescission Offer acceptance process, you can call the Overstock.com, Inc. HR Department at (801) 947-5104, Monday through Friday between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Mountain Time.

Q: Will there be any restrictions on the future transfer of my shares if I do not accept the Rescission Offer?

A:

The shares of common stock which are the subject of this Rescission Offer have now been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 by virtue of the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part. We believe that these shares are transferable by plan participants in the ordinary course, subject to restrictions on trading that may be applicable from time to time (as in the case of the Company's customary "blackout" periods).

Q: Where can I find information about my purchases and sales of Shares?

A:

Detailed information about your purchases of Shares during the Purchase Period and any subsequent sales of such Shares is available to you through your online account. You can access your online account through 401K.com or NetBenefits.com.

If you are an active employee of Overstock.com, you can access your online account through the Overstock.com, Inc. intranet or by going directly to 401K.com or NetBenefits.com.

If you are not employed currently by Overstock.com, Inc., you can access your online account at 401K.com or NetBenefits.com.

Q: Will the Rescission Offer affect my ability to direct transactions in my account?

A:

Yes. In order to ensure smooth processing of the Rescission Offer, if you hold Shares purchased during the Purchase Period in the Overstock.com Stock Fund as of the Expiration Date, all transactions relating to the Overstock.com Stock Fund in your Plan account will be temporarily suspended on the Expiration Date whether or not you accept the Rescission Offer and whether or not we repurchase your Shares. This temporary suspension is called a "blackout period." As a result, you will be subject to the risk that, due to events in the securities markets, the value of your Plan account could significantly decline during this period and you would not be able to transfer funds in and out of the Overstock.com Stock Fund, to avoid this result. For more information about the blackout period, see "Notice of Blackout Period."

Q: Will the blackout period be longer if I accept the Rescission Offer?

A:

Yes. Whether you accept the Rescission Offer or not, all transactions in the Overstock.com Stock Fund will be temporarily suspended on the Expiration Date. However, the blackout period will be shorter if you do not accept the Rescission Offer, because the Trustee will not need to process any transactions in your account. If you accept the Rescission Offer, the Trustee will require additional time in order to process the transactions. The blackout period will commence at 2:00 p.m., Mountain Time, on the Rescission Offer Expiration Date of October 6, 2010; the blackout period is anticipated to end at 12:01 a.m., Mountain Time, on October 12, 2010, if you do not accept the offer and at 11:59 p.m., Mountain Time on October 14, 2010, if you accept the offer.

Q: What is the effect of the Rescission Offer on my ability to assert claims?

A:

The rights remaining to the recipients of a rescission offer are not clearly delineated under federal or certain state securities laws. The staff of the SEC takes the position that a rescission offer does not alter a person's remedies under the Securities Act.

For a more detailed description of the effect of the Rescission Offer on any applicable federal securities law claims, see "Risk Factors" The Rescission Offer may not bar claims relating to our issuance of shares in excess of the number registered, and we may continue to be contingently liable for rescission or damages in an indeterminate amount" and "Risk Factors Your right of rescission, if any, under federal and state law may not survive if you affirmatively reject or fail to accept the Rescission Offer."

Q: May I accept the Rescission Offer in part?

A:

No. If you accept the Rescission Offer, then you must accept it for all Shares that were purchased during the Purchase Period that you still hold as well as all Shares that you purchased during the Purchase Period that were sold at a loss. As described above, however, if you accept the Rescission Offer, we will only repurchase those Shares that, as of the Expiration Date, have a value less than the price you paid for the Shares, plus interest (to the Expiration Date).

If you do not accept the Rescission Offer, you will retain ownership of all of your Shares and will not receive any payment for the Shares subject to the Rescission Offer.

Q: What happens if I accept the Rescission Offer for Shares that I currently hold in my account but the amount I would receive for the Shares is less than the closing price of the Shares on the Expiration Date?

A:

If you submit a Rescission Offer Acceptance Form, we will not repurchase those Shares for which the price per Share that you paid, plus interest (to the Expiration Date), is less than the closing price of a Share as of the Expiration Date. Accordingly, those Shares will remain in your Plan account.

Q: What are the tax consequences if I accept the Rescission Offer?

A:

The federal tax consequences to you depend on your specific circumstances, including whether you currently have a Plan account.

If you currently have a Plan account, in general, the sale to us of Shares and the Plan's receipt of any funds pursuant to your acceptance of the Rescission Offer will not be considered taxable events for federal income tax purposes. This is because all the funds we pay as a result of your acceptance of the Rescission Offer will be paid to the Plan Trustee and not directly to you. However, upon any later withdrawal or distribution of funds from your Plan account, the distributed funds, including amounts attributable to the Rescission Offer generally will be taxable as ordinary income to you. Furthermore, an additional ten percent federal income tax may be imposed, depending on your age. See the section of this Prospectus entitled "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences" for more information.

If you do not currently have an individual Plan account because you have directed and caused a full distribution from the Plan, any amounts paid in respect of the Rescission Offer will be paid to a new Plan account established for you and will not be considered a taxable event for federal income tax purposes. These amounts will be distributed to you under the Plan's distribution rules, which vary based on your personal circumstances, such as your Plan account balance, age, and employment. Thus, you should review the Plan's Summary Plan Description for more information on your distribution options. A direct rollover into an individual retirement account or other qualified retirement plan is not considered to be a taxable event for federal income tax purposes. If the proceeds from the Rescission Offer are not rolled over, however, and you receive a distribution from the Plan, such distribution will generally be taxable as ordinary income to you. An additional ten percent federal income tax may be imposed depending on your age. See the section of this Prospectus entitled "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences" for more information.

You should also consult with your own tax advisor regarding the specific consequences to you of the Rescission Offer, including the U.S. federal, state, local, foreign and other tax consequences and the potential changes in applicable tax law.

WE MUST RECEIVE YOUR LEGIBLE AND PROPERLY COMPLETED RESCISSION OFFER ACCEPTANCE FORM ON OR BEFORE 5:00 P.M., MOUNTAIN TIME, ON THE EXPIRATION DATE OF OCTOBER 6, 2010. OTHERWISE, YOU WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE REJECTED THE RESCISSION OFFER. WE WILL, IN OUR SOLE DISCRETION, DETERMINE WHETHER YOUR RESCISSION OFFER ACCEPTANCE FORM HAS BEEN PROPERLY COMPLETED AND WHETHER YOU ARE ELIGIBLE TO ACCEPT THE RESCISSION OFFER.

Proceeds, if any, will be disbursed to your 401(k) Plan account within approximately 5 business days following the Expiration Date of the Rescission Offer.

We recommend that you write down your identification number printed on your Rescission Offer acceptance form. You will need to provide that identification number if you change your mind and decide to revoke your acceptance of the offer prior to the Expiration Date.

Q: What happens if I do not return the Rescission Offer Acceptance Form?

Q: What happens to my Plan account if I reject the Rescission Offer?

A:

If you hold Shares in the Overstock.com Stock Fund as of the Expiration Date, you will be subject to the blackout period even if you reject the Rescission Offer. This temporary suspension is called a "blackout period," which will begin at 2:00 p.m., Mountain Time, on October 6, 2010. We currently anticipate the blackout period will end at 12:01 a.m., Mountain Time, on October 12, 2010, if you reject the Rescission Offer. You will be notified in the event that the blackout period is extended past such date. The Shares will remain in your account and this Rescission Offer will not affect your ability to sell Shares once the blackout period ends.

Q: Can I change my mind after I have mailed my signed Rescission Offer Acceptance Form?

A:

Yes. You can change your decision about accepting or rejecting the Rescission Offer by delivering notice of the change to us as described below at any time before 5:00 p.m., Mountain Time, on the Expiration Date.

If you change your decision and want to reject the Rescission Offer after having submitted the Rescission Offer Acceptance Form, then you may reject the Rescission Offer by sending a notice via mail, overnight delivery service or fax that includes your name, your identification number located on your Rescission Offer Acceptance Form, and a clear indication that you are rejecting the Rescission Offer. You may send your notice of rejection to:

Overstock.com, Inc. Rescission Offer
6350 South 3000 East
Salt Lake City, Utah 84121

You may fax your notice of rejection to (801) 947-3296.

THIS NOTICE OF REJECTION MUST BE LEGIBLE AND RECEIVED BY MAIL, OVERNIGHT DELIVERY SERVICE OR FAX AT THE ABOVE ADDRESS ON OR BEFORE 5:00 P.M., MOUNTAIN TIME, ON THE EXPIRATION DATE OF OCTOBER 6, 2010. OTHERWISE YOU WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE ACCEPTED THE RESCISSION OFFER PURSUANT TO YOUR ELECTION ON THE ORIGINAL RESCISSION OFFER ACCEPTANCE FORM(S).

Q: Does the Rescission Offer affect any loan repayments I am currently making to the Plan?

A:

If you have an outstanding loan from the Plan, the amount that you are required to repay will not change as a result of your acceptance or rejection of the Rescission Offer. The Plan does not currently permit new loans. New distribution requests made during the blackout period will be delayed until after the blackout period ends. Any requests made during the blackout period do not need to be resubmitted after the blackout period ends.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in our common stock involves risks. You should carefully consider the following risk factors relating to the Rescission Offer in addition to the risks identified in "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" above and the risks identified in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009, including those risks identified under the caption "Risk Factors" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K. Please see "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 18.

The Rescission Offer may not bar claims relating to our issuance of shares in excess of the number registered, and we may continue to be contingently liable for rescission or damages in an indeterminate amount.

It is not certain that the Rescission Offer will have the effect of barring claims relating to our issuance of shares of common stock in excess of the number we registered. If a person accepts the Rescission Offer, but subsequently asserts a claim against us for an additional remedy, we would expect to assert that the person's acceptance of the Rescission Offer eliminated any liability we might have had to that person under section 12 of the Securities Act. We do not believe that the original issuance of the Shares violated the registration requirements of any state securities laws. Should the Rescission Offer be rejected, we may continue to be contingently liable for rescission or damages under federal law. In addition, the Rescission Offer will not prevent regulators from pursuing enforcement actions or imposing penalties and fines against us with respect to any violations of securities laws. In any event, we do not expect the Rescission Offer to have a material impact on our financial condition or liquidity.

Your right of rescission, if any, under federal and state law may not survive if you affirmatively reject or fail to accept the Rescission Offer.

The rights remaining to the recipients of a rescission offer are not clearly delineated under federal or certain state securities laws. If you affirmatively reject or fail to accept the Rescission Offer, it is unclear whether your federal right of rescission, if any, will be preserved. The staff of the SEC takes the position that a rescission offer does not alter a person's remedies under the Securities Act. However, the few federal courts that have addressed this issue in the past have suggested that, at least in certain circumstances, a person who rejects or fails to accept a rescission offer may be precluded from later seeking similar relief.

The Rescission Offer may also affect your right of rescission and your right to damages, if any, under state law. We believe that the sale of the Shares that are the subject of the Rescission Offer were exempt from registration under state laws. Furthermore, we believe that the Rescission Offer is exempt from registration under the laws of such states and thus need not comply with the laws of such states regulating such offers. However, we do not make any representation as to the compliance of this Rescission Offer with applicable state law. Under most state laws, acceptance or rejection of rescission offers may preclude offerees from initiating an action against the rescission offeror in connection with the registration of securities that are the subject of the rescission offer. We may assert, among other defenses, in any litigation initiated by a person eligible to participate in the Rescission Offer who accepts or rejects the Rescission Offer, that such person is estopped from asserting such claims as a result of the Rescission Offer.

Generally, the statute of limitations for enforcement of federal statutory rescission rights by a security holder is one year commencing on the date of the sale of the security sold in violation of the federal registration requirements. Statutes of limitations under state laws vary by state, with the limitation time period under many state statutes not typically beginning until the facts giving rise to a violation are known. Our Rescission Offer is not an admission that we did not comply with any federal and state registration or disclosure requirements nor is it a waiver by us of any applicable statute of limitations or any potential defense we may have. Determining when a statute of limitations expires under federal or state law can be a difficult issue, and you should consult with an attorney if you have any questions regarding how federal or state statutes of limitations may apply to any claims you have.

The Rescission Offer may terminate any right you may have to rescind your acquisition of Shares under state law.

We believe that the only state securities laws potentially applicable to our issuance of Shares are those of the State of Utah, and that the original issuance of the Shares was exempt from the Utah registration requirements. Utah law provides that a person who buys a security from a person who sells the security in violation of the Utah registration requirements may sue either at law or in equity to recover the consideration paid for the security, together with interest at 12% per year from the date of payment, costs, and reasonable attorney fees, less the amount of income received on the security, upon the tender of the security or for damages if the person no longer owns the security. The Utah statute further provides that an action may not be maintained to enforce liability under this section unless brought before the earlier of: (i) the expiration of five years after the act or transaction constituting the violation; or (ii) the expiration of two years after the discovery by the plaintiff of the facts constituting the violation.

The Utah law also provides that a person may not sue under the section described above if: (i) the buyer or seller received a written offer, before suit and at a time when the buyer or seller owned the security, to refund the consideration paid together with interest at 12% per year from the date of payment, less the amount of any income received on the security, and the buyer or seller failed to accept the offer within 30 days of its receipt; or (ii) the buyer or seller received such an offer before suit and at a time when the buyer or seller did not own the security, unless the buyer or seller rejected the offer in writing within 30 days of its receipt.

You will not be permitted to conduct any transactions relating to the Overstock.com Stock Fund within your Plan account for a period of time following the Expiration Date.

Because you will not be permitted to conduct any transactions with respect to your Plan account relating to the Overstock.com Stock Fund during this period, you will be subject to the risk that due to events in the securities markets, the value of your account could significantly decline during this period and you would not be able to make transfers to avoid or mitigate this result. In addition, any proceeds you receive for the sale of Shares in the Rescission Offer will not be deposited into your Plan account for up to approximately five business days following the Expiration Date. If you still have a Plan account, whether or not you are an active employee of Overstock.com, these proceeds will be allocated to your Plan account and invested in the Fidelity Freedom Income Fund. If you do not have a Plan account, a Plan account will be created for you and the funds will be invested in the Fidelity Freedom Income Fund. In all cases, you will be subject to the risk that the purchase price of the applicable investment could increase in value prior to the reinvestment of proceeds in your account, resulting in a higher Share cost for such investment. See "Notice of Blackout Period" for additional information.

Holders who do not accept the Rescission Offer may exercise their legal rights even after the end of the Rescission Offer.

An eligible holder who does not accept the Rescission Offer may assert his or her legal rights under section 12 of the Securities Act throughout the remaining statutory period, although in that case we would expect to assert, among other defenses, that the holder is estopped from asserting claims at that point.

THE RESCISSION OFFER

Background and Reasons for the Rescission Offer

The Plan is a qualified defined contribution plan under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The purpose of the Plan is to provide a voluntary, systematic method for participants to save a specified percentage of the participant's compensation for retirement and to defer federal income tax and, where allowed, state, city and county income tax, on such compensation. Fidelity Management Trust Company is the Trustee of the Plan.

Amounts in participants' accounts are held in a trust fund maintained for the benefit of participants in the Plan. There are currently 28 funds available to participants under the Plan.

One of the investment choices in the Plan is the Overstock.com Stock Fund, which gives participants the opportunity to invest some or all of the amounts deposited in their Plan account in shares of our common stock. To effectuate purchases and sales of Shares by participants, the Trustee from time to time purchases and sells our common stock in the open market at market prices.

Plan participants can purchase shares of our common stock through the Plan. The Trustee holds the Plan's shares of Company common stock in the Overstock.com Stock Fund. Although the shares of our common stock held by the Trustee may have been purchased in the open market by the Trustee, the SEC takes the position that we are required to register the deemed sale of these shares, as well as shares we contribute directly, to Plan participants with the SEC. In late June 2009 we discovered that investments in the Overstock.com Stock Fund under the Plan exceeded the number of shares we had registered on Form S-8 by 203,737 shares. We first exceeded the number of shares registered on Form S-8 on August 16, 2006. We discovered that we had exceeded the number of shares registered in connection with the audit of the Plan's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2008. Our inadvertent failure to register with the SEC the sale of certain shares of our common stock under the Plan may have constituted a violation of Section 5 of the Securities Act (which generally requires registration of offers and sales of securities) and may give rise to liability under Section 12 of the Securities Act (which generally provides a rescission remedy for offers and sales of securities in violation of Section 5).

We are making the Rescission Offer with respect to 65,465 Shares sold pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period. We are making the Rescission Offer to ensure compliance with the Securities Act and to limit any contingent liability we may have as a result of possible noncompliance with applicable federal registration requirements in connection with the purchase of Shares by Plan participants. Non-employee members of our Board of Directors were not eligible to participate in the Plan and therefore are not eligible to participate in the Rescission Offer. Our current executive officers and employee directors who purchased Shares pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period do not intend to participate in the Rescission Offer.

The Rescission Offer covers only the 65,465 Shares issued between July 1, 2008 and June 30, 2009, which is the twelve-month period covered by the Tolling Agreement described below under "The Rescission Offer Effect of the Rescission Offer." The Rescission Offer does not cover Shares issued prior to July 1, 2008 because we believe that the applicable statute of limitations had already expired with respect to shares issued prior to July 1, 2008 when we entered into the Tolling Agreement. The Rescission Offer does not cover Shares issued after June 30, 2009 because we filed a registration statement on Form S-8 registering the offer and sale of Shares in connection with the Plan after that date.

This Rescission Offer is the only rescission offer we will make relating to the inadvertent issuances. The offer is a partial offer in that we are making it only to certain purchasers as described in this prospectus. We do not intend to make a future offer covering any other purchasers who are not covered by this offering. We do not expect the Rescission Offer to have any material effect on us, whether holders of all, some, or none of the Shares eligible for the Rescission Offer accept the Rescission Offer.

Effect of the Rescission Offer

If you reject, fail to timely accept, or fail to accept in full, the Rescission Offer by 5:00 p.m., Mountain Time, on the Expiration Date, or if you accept the Rescission Offer but we determine that you are not eligible to accept the Rescission Offer under the terms set forth in this prospectus, you will retain ownership of the Shares in the Plan and will not receive any payment for the Shares subject to the Rescission Offer. In addition, the Shares that are subject to the Rescission Offer, for purposes of applicable federal securities law, will be registered securities as of the date of this prospectus.

Your acceptance of the Rescission Offer may preclude you from later seeking similar relief, if any is available. For federal securities law purposes, rejection or the failure to accept a rescission offer may not terminate an offeree's right to bring a civil action against the offeror for failure to register securities under the Securities Act before expiration of the applicable statute of limitations. The staff of the SEC takes the position that a rescission offer does not alter a person's remedies under the Securities Act. However, the few federal courts that have addressed this issue in the past have suggested that, at least in certain circumstances, a person who rejects or fails to accept a rescission offer may be precluded from later seeking similar relief.

The above discussion relates primarily to your potential rescission rights and does not address the antifraud provisions of federal securities laws or rights under state securities laws, common law or equity. We do not believe that acceptance or rejection of the Rescission Offer will have any effect on any rights of any holder under applicable antifraud provisions of federal or state securities laws or under common law or equity. We believe that the sale and issuance of the Shares that are the subject of the Rescission Offer were exempt from registration under state laws. Furthermore, we believe that this Rescission Offer is exempt from registration under state laws and thus need not comply with state laws regulating such offers. However, we do not make any representation as to the compliance of this Rescission Offer with any applicable state law. Under most state laws, acceptance or rejection of rescission offers may preclude offerees from initiating an action against the rescission offeror in connection with the registration of securities that are the subject of the rescission offer.

Generally, the federal statute of limitations for enforcement of such statutory rights by a security holder is one year commencing on the date of the sale of the security sold in violation of the federal registration requirements. We believe that the one-year federal statute of limitations on sales of shares of our common stock prior to July 1, 2008 has expired. We have entered into a Tolling Agreement with the Overstock.com, Inc. Employee Benefits Committee (the "Committee"), acting on behalf of the Plan, for the benefit of participants in the Plan who acquired shares of Overstock Common Stock between July 1, 2008 and June 30, 2009. A copy of the Tolling Agreement has been filed as an exhibit to this registration statement, and reference is hereby made to the text of the Tolling Agreement for further information about its terms. Our Rescission Offer is not an admission that we did not comply with any federal or state registration or disclosure requirement nor is it a waiver by us of any applicable statute of limitations or any potential defense we may have. Determining when a statute of limitations expires under federal or state law can be a difficult issue, and you should consult with an attorney if you have any questions regarding how federal or state statutes of limitations may apply to any claims you have or regarding any of your legal rights and remedies before deciding whether or not to accept the Rescission Offer.

If you fail to accept the Rescission Offer with respect to Shares eligible for the Rescission Offer, you will assume the risks of continued ownership of those Shares in the Plan, including the risk that the market price of the Shares on the date or dates you eventually transfer funds held in the Plan out of the Overstock.com Common Stock Fund may be less than the amount you might receive for those Shares by accepting the Rescission Offer. Failure to accept the Rescission Offer may also affect any right you may have to rescind your acquisition of eligible Shares under either federal or state law. See "Risk Factors" beginning on page 10.

Terms of the Rescission Offer

If you purchased Shares through the Plan during the Purchase Period and have already sold such Shares at a loss, you may accept the Rescission Offer, in which case you will receive an amount equal to the amount you paid for the Shares less the proceeds of the sale of the Shares, plus interest at a rate of 12% per year. We selected this interest rate because it is the legal rate for rescission offers under the Utah Uniform Securities Act. Interest will be paid on the amount originally paid for the Shares from the date you purchased the Shares through the date you sold the Shares. Interest will also be paid on the loss realized from your sale of the Shares from the date of such sale through the date that payment is made by us.

If you currently hold Shares purchased through the Plan during the Purchase Period, you may accept the Rescission Offer, in which case the Trustee will transfer the Shares to Overstock.com and credit your Plan account with the amount you paid for the Shares, plus interest at a rate of 12% per year for the period from the date you purchased the Shares to the date payment is made by us. However, we will not repurchase any Share if the price you paid for the Share plus interest (to the Expiration Date) is less than the closing price of the common stock as of the Expiration Date, as it would not be economically beneficial to you.

Shares will be deemed sold in the order in which you purchased them. In order to determine which Shares acquired during the Purchase Period are eligible for repurchase and which, if any, Shares so acquired were sold at a loss, all Shares acquired on your behalf pursuant to the Plan will be matched against all sales of Shares during or after the Purchase Period by matching the first Share acquired with the first Share sold. This principle, commonly called "first-in, first-out," or "FIFO," will be used in determining which Shares you sold at a loss and which Shares you now hold are eligible for repurchase and should be used by you to help determine whether or not you wish to accept the Rescission Offer. An example of the application of the FIFO principle is included with the Rescission Offer Acceptance Form that accompanies this Prospectus.

The Rescission Offer will expire at 5:00 p.m., Mountain Time, on October 6, 2010. If we receive a legible and properly completed Rescission Offer Acceptance Form from you on or before the deadline specified in the preceding sentence, and we determine that you are eligible to accept the Rescission Offer, we expect any proceeds to which you are entitled will be credited to your Plan account, or a Plan account established for you, within approximately 5 business days following the Expiration Date.

If you still have a Plan account, whether or not you are an active employee of Overstock.com, Inc., we will credit all proceeds resulting from acceptance of the Rescission Offer to your Plan account, and the proceeds will be invested in the Fidelity Freedom Income Fund. If you no longer have a Plan account, a Plan account will be established for you and all proceeds payable to you under this Rescission Offer will be invested in the Fidelity Freedom Income Fund. The Plan's distribution rules vary based on your personal circumstances such as your account balance, age, and employment status. As a result, you should review the Plan's Summary Plan Description and the "Questions and Answers About the Rescission Offer" included in this Prospectus for more information on your distribution options. Payment of proceeds directly to you may result in adverse tax consequences (see "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations").

IF YOU FAIL TO NOTIFY US IN WRITING OF YOUR ACCEPTANCE OF THE RESCISSION OFFER ON OR PRIOR TO 5:00 P.M., MOUNTAIN TIME, ON THE EXPIRATION DATE, OCTOBER 6, 2010, OR ATTEMPT TO ONLY ACCEPT THE RESCISSION OFFER IN PART, YOU WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE REJECTED THE RESCISSION OFFER. ACCEPTANCE OR REJECTION OF THE RESCISSION OFFER MAY NOT TERMINATE YOUR RIGHT TO BRING A CIVIL ACTION AGAINST US FOR FAILURE TO REGISTER THE SHARES INCLUDED IN THE SHARES UNDER FEDERAL SECURITIES LAWS. HOWEVER, FEDERAL LAW DOES PROVIDE THAT YOU MAY LOSE ANY RESCISSION RIGHTS UNDER FEDERAL SECURITIES LAWS ONE YEAR FROM THE DATE OF PURCHASE OF SUCH SHARES.

You are urged to consult with your own tax advisor regarding the specific consequences to you of the Rescission Offer, including the U.S. federal, state, local, foreign and other tax consequences and the potential changes in applicable tax laws.

Your acceptance or rejection of the Rescission Offer, or the sale of the Shares representing our common stock and short-term liquid investments to us pursuant to the Rescission Offer or the receipt of the specified payment if you had previously sold your Shares at a loss, is not considered to be a taxable event before withdrawal or distribution of funds from your Plan account. If you currently have a Plan account, whether or not you are an active employee of Overstock.com, Inc., your proceeds from the Rescission Offer will be credited to your Plan account and will be invested in the Fidelity Freedom Income Fund. Upon any later withdrawal or distribution, any proceeds from the Rescission Offer will generally be taxable as ordinary income. An additional ten percent income tax may be imposed in cases of early withdrawal from the Plan, including proceeds of the Rescission Offer.

A direct rollover into an individual retirement account or other qualified retirement plan is not considered to be a taxable event. If the proceeds from the Rescission Offer are not rolled over, however, and you receive a distribution from the Plan, such distribution will generally be taxable as ordinary income to you as described above. An additional ten percent income tax may be imposed depending on your age.

To ensure compliance with U.S. Treasury Department Circular 230, we inform you that the preceding discussion (and any other discussion of U.S. federal tax issues herein) is not intended to be relied upon, and cannot be relied upon) by a participant in the Rescission Offer for the purpose of avoiding penalties that may be imposed under the Internal Revenue Code. Each prospective participant in the Rescission Offer should seek advice based on his or her own particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor.

Accordingly, this notice is intended to inform affected participants (and beneficiaries) of the Plan of a "blackout period" during which their right to direct or diversify their Plan investments may be temporarily suspended.

If you are being offered the opportunity to participate in this Rescission Offer and you hold Shares in the Overstock.com Stock Fund in your Plan account on the Expiration Date, all transactions related to the Overstock.com Stock Fund in your Plan account will be temporarily suspended on the Expiration Date. The temporary suspension is called a "blackout period" and applies whether or not you accept the Rescission Offer. The blackout period will begin at 2:00 p.m., Mountain Time, on October 6, 2010, and, if you accept the Rescission Offer, will end at 11:59 p.m., Mountain Time on October 14, 2010. You will be notified in the event that the blackout period is extended past October 14, 2010. If you do not accept the Rescission Offer, the blackout period is expected to end at 12:01 a.m., Mountain Time, on October 12, 2010. The blackout period will be shorter if you do not accept the Rescission Offer, because the Trustee will not need to process any transactions in your account. If you accept the Rescission Offer, the Trustee will require additional time in order to process the transactions.

The blackout period is required to ensure smooth processing of the Rescission Offer. The Trustee will not permit any transactions related to your Plan account during the blackout period. This means:

you will be unable to direct or diversify your investments in your Plan account invested in the Overstock.com Stock Fund during the blackout period; and all requests for distributions (including hardship distributions) will be delayed until after the blackout period ends (any requests made during the blackout period do not need to be remade once the blackout period ends).

You will need to initiate any requests prior to 2:00 p.m., Mountain Time, on the date the blackout period begins for those requests to take effect. It is important that you review and consider the appropriateness of your current investments in light of your inability to direct or diversify investments in your Plan account during the blackout period. For your long-term retirement security, you should give careful consideration to the importance of a well-balanced and diversified investment portfolio, taking into account all your assets, income and investments. You should be aware that there is a risk to holding substantial portions of your assets in the securities of any one company, such as the Overstock.com Stock Fund, as individual securities tend to have wider price swings, up and down, in short periods of time, than investments in diversified funds. Our common stock may have a wide price swing during the blackout period resulting in a large loss, and you will not be able to direct the sale of Shares from your Plan account during the blackout period.

If you have any questions concerning this notice or the blackout period, including whether the blackout period has ended, you should contact the Overstock.com, Inc. HR Department at (801) 947-5104. Whether or not you are planning retirement in the near future, we encourage you to consider how this blackout period may affect your retirement planning, as well as your overall financial plan.

For additional information and limitations on Plan investments and how to direct investment of your Plan account, see the Plan's Summary Plan Description. To obtain a copy of the Plan's Summary Plan Description, you may contact the Overstock.com, Inc. HR Department at (801) 947-5104.

EXPERTS

The consolidated financial statements and schedule of Overstock.com, Inc. as of December 31, 2009, and for the year then ended, and management's assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2009 have been incorporated by reference herein in reliance upon the reports of KPMG LLP, independent registered public accounting firm, incorporated by reference herein, and upon the authority of said firm as experts in accounting and auditing.

The audit report on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2009, expresses an opinion that Overstock.com, Inc. did not maintain effective internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2009 because of the effect of material weaknesses on the achievement of the objectives of the control criteria and contains an explanatory paragraph that states that the Company lacked a sufficient number of accounting professionals with the necessary knowledge, experience and training to adequately account for and perform adequate supervisory reviews of significant transactions and the inadequate design of information technology program change and program development controls.

The financial statements as of December 31, 2008 and for each of the two years in the period ended December 31, 2008 incorporated in this Prospectus by reference to the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009 have been so incorporated in reliance on the report (which contains an explanatory paragraph relating to the Company's restatement of its financial statements as described in Note 3 to the financial statements) of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, an independent registered public accounting firm, given on the authority of said firm as experts in auditing and accounting.

Item 14. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

We are organized under the laws of the State of Delaware. Our Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, and bylaws, as amended, eliminate the personal liability of our directors to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law. In addition, our Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, and bylaws, as amended, provide indemnity for our current or former officers and directors against all liabilities and costs of defending an action or suit in which they were involved by reason of their positions with us. However, we cannot indemnify any person if a court finds that the person did not act in good faith. Our bylaws, as amended, also provide that we may purchase insurance to protect any director, officer, employee or agent against any liability. We have entered into separate indemnification agreements with each of our directors and executive officers, whereby we have agreed, among other things, to indemnify them to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law, subject to specified limitations, against certain liabilities actually incurred by them in any proceeding in which they are a party that may arise by reason of their status as directors, officers, employees or agents or may arise by reason of their serving as such at our request for another entity and to advance their expenses incurred as a result of any proceeding against them as to which they could be indemnified. We intend to enter into similar separate indemnification agreements with any directors or officers who may join us in the future. There is no pending litigation or proceeding involving any of our directors, officers, employees or other agents as to which indemnification is being sought nor are we aware of any pending or threatened litigation that may result in claims for indemnification.

The preceding discussion of provisions of our Certificate of Incorporation and the Delaware General Corporation Law is not intended to be exhaustive and is qualified by the applicable provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation and of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

Item 15. Recent Sales of Unregistered Securities

In June 2009, we discovered that we had inadvertently issued 203,737 more shares of our common stock in connection with our plan than had been registered with the SEC for offer in connection with the plan. These shares were contributed to or otherwise acquired by participants in the plan between August 16, 2006, and June 17, 2009. As a result, certain participants in the plan may have or have had rescission rights relating to the unregistered shares, although we believe that the federal statute of limitations applicable to any such rescission rights would be one year, and that the statute of limitations had already expired at June 30, 2009 with respect to most of the inadvertent issuances. At

December 31, 2009, approximately 65,000 shares or $744,000 of our common stock plus interest were classified outside stockholders' equity because of the potential rescission rights.

On August 31, 2009, we entered into a Tolling and Standstill Agreement (the "Agreement") with the Overstock.com, Inc. Employee Benefits Committee (the "Committee") relating to the Plan. We entered into the Agreement in order to preserve certain rights, if any, of Plan participants who acquired shares of our common stock in the Plan between July 1, 2008 and June 30, 2009.

In December 2009, we implemented a Non Qualified Deferred Compensation plan for senior management. The plan allows eligible members of senior management to defer their receipt of compensation from us beginning in 2010, subject to the restrictions contained in the plan. To the extent that interests in the plan constitute securities, we believe that the issuance of the interests was exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to Section 4(2) thereof and Rule 506 of Regulation D thereunder as a transaction not involving a public offering. The interests were not sold for cash or other consideration, and there were no proceeds to us.

Item 17. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(a) (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser, each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of a registration statement relating to an offering, other than registration statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use.

(b) That, for purposes of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) That insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(d) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities:

The undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

- (1) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424 (§230.424 of this chapter);
- (2) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;
- (3) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and
- (4) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.
