March 14, 2019

Dear Grainger Shareholders:

We are pleased to invite you to attend the 2019 annual meeting of shareholders of W.W. Grainger, Inc. on Wednesday, April 24, 2019, at 10 a.m. Central Daylight Time. This year's annual meeting will be held at our headquarters located at 100 Grainger Parkway in Lake Forest, Illinois.

At the meeting, we will report on our operations and other matters of current interest. Shareholders will also vote on the matters described in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting and Proxy Statement and any other matters properly brought before the meeting.

As in prior years, we have elected to deliver our proxy materials to the majority of our shareholders over the Internet. This delivery process allows us to provide shareholders with the information they need, while at the same time conserving natural resources and lowering the cost of delivery. The Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders on the following page contains instructions on how to:

Vote by Internet, by telephone or by mail; and Receive a paper copy of the proxy materials by mail.

Please take the time to carefully read the Notice of Annual Meeting and Proxy Statement that follow. Whether or not you plan to attend the meeting, please ensure that your shares are represented by giving us your proxy. You can do so by telephone, by Internet, or by signing and dating the enclosed proxy form and returning it promptly in the envelope provided.

We look forward to seeing you at the meeting.

Sincerely,

D.G. Macpherson

Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer

Corporate Governance

THE ROLE OF THE BOARD

The Board of Directors of the Company (the Board) acts as the steward of the Company for the benefit of the Company's shareholders. Our Directors bring to the Board a wealth of business experience and a track record of good business judgment in various situations relevant to the Company's operations. Our Directors exercise their business judgment in the best interests of the Company consistent with their fiduciary duties, and in alignment with shareholder value.

Our Board recognizes the importance of ensuring that our overall business strategy is designed to create long-term value for Grainger's shareholders. The Board maintains an active role in formulating, planning and overseeing the implementation of Grainger's strategy. Each year, for example, the Board travels to one of our strategic operating locations. In 2018, the Board visited our Toronto distribution center, met with employees, and held its formal Board and Committee meetings at the headquarters of our Canadian business, Acklands Grainger Inc.

The Board has a robust annual strategic planning process during which key elements of our business and financial plans, strategies and near- and long-term initiatives are developed and reviewed. This process culminates with a full-day Board session with our senior leadership team to review Grainger's overall strategy, opportunities, challenges, and capabilities. The annual strategy process also helps shape the strategic content presented in our communications with the investment community. In addition to business strategy, the Board reviews Grainger's short-term and long-term financial plans, which serve as the basis for the annual operating and capital plans for the upcoming year. The Board evaluates progress made, as well as related challenges and risks, with respect to our strategy and plans throughout the year.

Operating Principles of the Board of Directors

The Board recognizes that defining its role under the Company's operating principles is an evolving process. In 1995, the Board established the W.W. Grainger, Inc. Operating Principles for the Board of Directors (the Operating Principles). The Operating Principles are not intended to cover all issues that may arise, but rather to provide a general framework of reference to assist the Board in the performance of its duties and responsibilities. Each year, the Board reviews and revises the Operating Principles, as appropriate, to address emerging needs and practices. The Operating Principles are available in the Governance section of Grainger's website at <http://www.grainger.com/investor>.

DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

Our Board of Directors is committed to excellence in its governance practices, including Board composition. Of our Board, 10 of 11 Directors are independent. The Board has adopted "categorical standards" to assist it in making independence determinations of Director nominees. The categorical standards are intended to help, for example, the Board determine whether certain relationships between nominees and Grainger are "material relationships" for purposes of the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE) independence standards. The categorical standards adopted by the Board have more restrictive thresholds than the NYSE's bright line revenue test for non-independence. The categorical standards adopted by the Board are set forth in Appendix A to this proxy statement and are also available in the Governance section of Grainger's website at <http://www.grainger.com/investor>.

Table of Contents

Grainger's Board has 10 independent Directors and one management Director. The Board considered a variety of factors, including related party transactions, in assessing the independence of the Directors against the NYSE's independence standards and Grainger's categorical standards. The Board considered ordinary course business transactions and charitable donations by the Company where a Director serves as an officer and/or a board member. The Board determined that no Director had any direct or indirect material interest in any transactions or donations. Similar transactions and donations are likely to occur in the future and are not expected to impair the independence of the Directors involved. Mr. Macpherson is a Grainger employee and, accordingly, is not considered "independent." However, the Board has determined that each of Mses. Hailey and Perez, and Messrs. Adkins, Anderson, Levenick, Novich, Roberts, Santi, Slavik, and Watson has no material relationship with Grainger within the meaning of the NYSE independence standards and Grainger's categorical standards and is, therefore, independent.

BOARD QUALIFICATIONS, ATTRIBUTES, SKILLS AND BACKGROUND

In addition to independence, the Board and the Board Affairs and Nominating Committee (the BANC) believe that a diverse, experienced and vibrant board also is of utmost importance for the broad-based thinking needed to reach the sound decisions that drive shareholder value. As evidence of this commitment to a diversity of perspectives, our Board is currently comprised of 11 Directors of varying experience and background, including two new Directors appointed in 2017.

We determined that the Board's various experiences and viewpoints benefit us most when they are aligned with our global business needs, reflective of our strong corporate governance practices, and consistent with our corporate social responsibility goals. As a result of the Board's ongoing refreshment efforts, we added Directors with expertise in the technology and digital space, as well as in leading corporate social responsibility initiatives for a global business. Our three newest Directors, Rodney Adkins, Beatriz Perez and Lucas Watson, have enhanced the diversity of our Board in addition to bringing their valuable perspectives and experiences.

A breadth of Board perspectives supports our business as a broad line, business-to-business distributor of maintenance, repair and operating (MRO) products and services with 2018 sales of $11.2 billion. Grainger operates through its distribution centers, eCommerce platform, contact centers, branches and sales and service representatives with approximately 24,600 employees primarily in the United States and Canada, and with a presence in Europe, Asia, and Latin America. Approximately 5,200 suppliers provide Grainger with approximately 1.7 million products stocked in Grainger's distribution centers and branches worldwide. More than 3.5 million customers worldwide rely on Grainger for products such as safety, gloves, ladders, motors and janitorial supplies, along with services like inventory management and technical support. Grainger's purpose is to help businesses keep their operations running and their people safe.

Board Refreshment

The Board believes that a fully engaged Board is a strategic asset of the Company, and fresh viewpoints and perspectives are important for informed decision-making. At the same time, the Company believes that Directors develop a deeper understanding of the Company over time, which provides significant shareholder value, and that year-over-year Director continuity is beneficial to shareholders.

Table of Contents

Corporate Governance

Even before Board vacancies arise, the Board periodically evaluates whether its Directors collectively have the right mix of experience, qualifications, attributes, skills, backgrounds and diverse viewpoints necessary for it to be a good steward for the Company's shareholders. The results of these evaluations are used to identify desirable skill sets for potential Board nominees and to screen Director candidates. In 2017, the Board codified this skills matrix evaluation practice into the BANC's charter.

Also part of the planning for Board refreshment and Director succession, the BANC periodically considers potential Director candidates. As a result of these ongoing reviews, in the last five years, the Board appointed four new Directors.

The Board previously disclosed its membership expectations in the Company's Criteria for Membership on the Board of Directors (the Criteria). The Board's Criteria list the various factors that the BANC should consider in reviewing candidates for the Board. For example, the Criteria insures turnover by generally prescribing a retirement age of 72 for non-employee Director candidates. Within the last three years, two of our Directors did not stand for re-election based on retirement age.

Number of Directors	2	2	7

Board Tenure

The Board believes that it has the appropriate mix of relatively new Directors and those with longer service to and financial interest in the Company. One longstanding Director, Mr. Slavik, is the beneficial owner of approximately 6.5% of the Company's shares as of March 4, 2019. Mr. Slavik's beneficial ownership of Company shares pre-dates Grainger's initial public offering in 1967.

As a group, the average tenure of the 2019 nominees for election to Grainger's Board of Directors is approximately 12 years, with 30% of the non-employee nominees having Board tenure of less than five years. See Board Qualifications, Attributes, Skills and Background / page 2-4 of this proxy statement for a matrix reflecting tenure for each nominee.

Board Diversity

In addition to relevant business experience, qualifications, attributes, skills, and the willingness to become involved with Grainger, the Board's Criteria also enumerate personal characteristics that the Board should consider, including reputation for ethics and integrity, common sense and judgment, independent and objective thought, and the consideration of diverse opinions.

Regarding diversity, the Criteria specify that consideration will be given to candidates without regard to race, color, religion, gender or national origin. To ensure that the Board benefits from diverse perspectives, it proactively seeks qualified nominees from a variety of backgrounds, including candidates of gender, age, and racial diversity. We have established a standing relationship with a nationally recognized third party search firm to assist us in identifying potential new Directors. In any retained search for Board candidates, the Board is seeking candidates with gender and racial diversity and will only consider and interview slates that include gender and racially diverse candidates.

Our Board's diversity is set forth below.

Number of Directors	2	8	1

ANNUAL ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Grainger's Directors are elected each year at the annual meeting of shareholders. As set forth in the Operating Principles for the Board of Directors, Grainger expects all Directors and nominees to attend annual meetings. At the 2018 annual meeting, all of the persons serving as Directors at the time were in attendance. In addition, during 2018, all Directors attended 100% of Board and Committee meetings.

Eleven Directors, all current Board members, have been nominated by the Board for election at this year's annual meeting of shareholders. All Directors are elected for a one-year term. Each Director will, therefore, serve until the 2020 annual meeting of shareholders.

As required under Illinois law, majority voting and cumulative voting apply to all Grainger Director elections. Under our majority voting standard, Directors are elected by the votes of a majority of the shares of Grainger common stock represented in person or by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote. Under cumulative voting, shareholders have the right to cumulate their votes in the election of Directors. This means that you have a number of votes in the election equal to the number of shares you own multiplied by the number of Directors being elected. You can cast those votes for the nominees as you choose. For example, you may cast all your votes for one nominee or you may apportion your votes among two or more nominees. In any matter other than the election of Directors, each of your shares is entitled to one vote.

A shareholder directing to withhold authority for re-election of a Director will have the same effect as votes against the election of that Director. Assuming a quorum is present, broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of the vote. If any of the nominees for Director mentioned below should be unavailable for election, a circumstance that is not expected, the person or persons voting your proxy may exercise discretion to vote for a substitute nominee selected by the Board.

CANDIDATES FOR BOARD MEMBERSHIP

The Board Affairs and Nominating Committee (the Committee) recommends to the Board candidates for Board and Committee membership.

Before recommending candidates to the Board, the Committee reviews the results of the annual Board evaluation process and its skills matrix in determining the desired skill set for potential new candidates. The Committee then determines the preferred qualities and characteristics for potential Board nominees, which is then shared with our third party search firm, by periodically evaluating whether the Board members collectively have the right mix of experience, qualifications, attributes, skills, backgrounds and diverse viewpoints necessary for the Board to be a good steward for the Company's shareholders.

Table of Contents

Corporate Governance

The Committee screens Board candidates based on a number of criteria, including ethical standards, judgment, independence and objectivity, strategic perspective, record of accomplishment, business knowledge, experience applicable to Grainger's goals, and diversity.

The Committee is assisted with its recruitment efforts by a nationally recognized third party search firm, which helps identify candidates that satisfy the Board's criteria. In addition to Board candidates recommended by the Committee, suggestions as to nominees are received from employees, search firms, shareholders, and others.

The proxy access provisions of our By-laws permit a qualifying shareholder or group of up to 20 qualifying shareholders who have maintained continuous qualifying ownership of 3% or more of our outstanding common stock for at least the previous three years to nominate and include in our proxy materials qualifying Director nominees constituting up to the greater of two Directors or 20% of the Directors then serving on the Board at the time of the nomination, presuming that the shareholder(s) and nominee(s) satisfy the requirements specified in our By-laws.

Any shareholder who would like the Committee to consider a candidate for Board membership should send a letter of recommendation containing the name and address of the proposing shareholder and of the proposed candidate and setting forth the business, professional, and educational background of the proposed candidate, as well as a description of any agreement or relationship between the proposing shareholder and proposed candidate. A written consent of the proposed candidate to be identified as a nominee and to serve as a Director if elected must also be provided. The communication should be sent by mail or other delivery service to the attention of the Corporate Secretary at Grainger's headquarters.

NOMINEES AND DIRECTOR EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

The nominees have provided the following information about themselves, including their ages as of March 14, 2019. Each nominee has provided information on his or her relevant background that includes the nominee's experience for at least the past five years. Grainger's nominees have varied experience, qualifications, attributes, skills, and backgrounds that assist them in providing guidance and oversight to Grainger's management.

The Board has identified experience, qualifications, attributes, skills, and backgrounds that, in light of Grainger's business, structure and challenges, are relevant to service on the Board of Directors. The Board considers nominees who have demonstrated integrity and accomplishment in their business and professional careers and who possess the necessary experience and background to contribute to the Board and Grainger. In addition, the nominees have engaged in continuing education and other programs to remain current in their particular areas of expertise, to further their understanding of corporate governance, and in other matters relevant to Grainger.

The Board believes each of the current nominees qualifies for service on the Board of Directors. Moreover, each of the current nominees has significant leadership experience in large, multifaceted organizations. This leadership experience includes developing and executing corporate strategy, overseeing operations, and managing risks in organizations similar in size or complexity to Grainger.

The summaries, provided below, are not a comprehensive statement of each nominee's background, but are provided to describe the primary experience, qualifications, attributes, skills, and background that led the Board to nominate each individual.

BOARD MEETINGS AND COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP

The Company's Operating Principles for the Board of Directors (the Operating Principles) provide for the Board's Committees and the process for selecting Committee leadership. The BANC's recommendations are considered by the Board following each annual meeting of shareholders. The Committees are appointed by the Board based on recommendations of the BANC. As required by each Committee's charter, all members of each Committee must be "independent" Directors.

Five meetings of the Board were held in 2018. Committee members have the opportunity to meet in closed session, without management present, during each Committee meeting. Accordingly, each Board meeting included at least one executive session, during which only independent Directors were present. The Committees report regularly to the full Board on their activities and actions.

The Board has delegated certain responsibilities and authority to its standing Committees, as described below.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

Number of Meetings Held in Fiscal 2018: 5

The Audit Committee of the Board (the Audit Committee) met five times in 2018. The Board has determined that each of the members of the Audit Committee is "independent," as that term is defined in the independence requirements for audit committee members contained in the applicable rules of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) and in the listing standards of the NYSE. The Board has determined that each of the members of the Audit Committee is financially literate and that each of Ms. Hailey, Mr. Anderson, Mr. Novich, and Mr. Santi is an "audit committee financial expert," as that term is defined in the applicable rules of the SEC. Further, in accordance with applicable NYSE listing standards, the Board has considered Mr. Anderson's simultaneous service on the audit committees of more than three public companies, namely the audit committees of Grainger, PulteGroup Inc., James Hardie Industries plc, and Stericycle, Inc., and has determined that this service will not impair his ability to serve effectively on the Company's Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee assists the Board in its oversight responsibility with respect to the following:

Grainger's financial reporting process;

Grainger's systems of internal accounting, financial, and disclosure controls;

the integrity of Grainger's financial statements;

Grainger's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements;

Grainger's enterprise risk management systems and processes, including as to business continuity, cybersecurity, privacy, and legal and other risks;

the qualifications and independence, as well as the appointment, compensation, retention, evaluation, and termination, of Grainger's independent auditor, the resolution of disagreements between management and the independent auditor regarding financial reporting, and the selection of the auditor's lead audit partner;

the performance of Grainger's internal audit function and the independent auditor;

the pre-approval of audit and permissible non-audit services and fees to be provided by the independent auditor;

activities and amendments relative to the Company's ERISA plans that involve the investment of funds, subject to coordination with the Compensation Committee of the Board where appropriate;

the establishment of procedures for the receipt, retention, and treatment of complaints regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, and auditing matters; and compliance with Grainger's Business Conduct Guidelines, including reviews of potential violations communicated through the Company's confidential reporting channels.

BOARD AFFAIRS AND NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Number of Meetings Held in Fiscal 2018: 5

The Board Affairs and Nominating Committee of the Board (the BANC) met five times in 2018. The Board has determined that each of the members of the BANC is "independent," as defined in the independence requirements for members of nominating committees contained in the applicable listing standards of the NYSE.

The BANC assists the Board in its oversight responsibility as follows:

makes recommendations to the Board regarding the makeup and size of the Board and the types and functions of its Committees and their initial respective charters;

establishes specific written criteria by which Director nominees shall be qualified; periodically evaluates whether the Board members collectively have the right mix of experience, qualifications, attributes, skills, background's and diverse viewpoints necessary for the Board to be a good steward for the Company's shareholders;

determines the preferred qualifications and characteristics for potential Board nominees, which is shared with our third party search firm; identifies and screens potential nominees, consistent with the criteria approved by the Board;

makes recommendations concerning Director and nominee independence, attendance and performance;

reviews any transactions between Grainger and related persons (as further discussed below);

evaluates in its annual review the overall performance of the Board and its Committees; oversees corporate governance, including

- recommending corporate governance guidelines, including annual review of the Committee charters, the Operating Principles for the Board, and the Criteria for Membership on the Board,

Edgar Filing: GRAINGER W W INC - Form DEF 14A

- recommending the Lead Director,
- recommending Board Committee responsibilities, Committee Chairs, and members,
- determining policies regarding rotation of Directors among the Committees,
- evaluating the Board in the area of corporate governance, including the adequacy of the information supplied to the Board,
- evaluating the Board's performance of its oversight responsibilities relative to the management of Grainger, and
- recommending retirement, compensation, and other policies applicable to Directors.

oversees on an annual basis the Company's corporate social responsibility activities to advance the interest of shareholders, including involvement in the communities Grainger serves and promotion of a sustainable environment;

makes initial assessments regarding major issues or proposals concerning corporate governance; works with the Compensation Committee to annually review senior management organization and succession; and leads the annual review of management's performance, including the CEO to the extent necessary to supplement the Compensation Committee of the Board's review of CEO performance relative to CEO compensation goals and objectives.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

Number of Meetings Held in Fiscal 2018: 5

The Compensation Committee of the Board (the Compensation Committee) met five times in 2018. The Board has determined that each member of the Compensation Committee is "independent," as defined in the independence requirements for members of compensation committees in the applicable rules of the SEC, the listing standards of the NYSE, and under the Internal Revenue Code.

The Compensation Committee assists the Board in its oversight responsibility as follows:

oversees Grainger in the area of compensation and benefits to ensure that:

- the Board appropriately discharges its responsibilities relating to senior management compensation,
- the Company maintains a market competitive compensation structure designed to attract, motivate, develop, and retain key talent,
- compensation and benefit policies and practices reflect the highest level of transparency and integrity,
- compensation is aligned with shareholder value creation and strategic objectives;
- compensation, especially senior management compensation, is linked to both personal and Company performance, and provides appropriate incentives to increase shareholder value,
- the Company's compensation policies and practices for all employees are designed with appropriate incentives that do not encourage unnecessary or excessive risk taking, and are administered in a transparent manner,
- the interests of shareholders are protected, and
- all equity-based plans and incentive plans are appropriately designed and administered, including the review and approval of the performance measures applicable to the Company's short-term and long-term incentive plans.

provides independent oversight of the administration of the Company's shareholder approved equity plans; annually reviews and approves CEO compensation, as follows:

- review and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to CEO compensation,
- evaluate CEO performance in light of those corporate financial goals and objectives, with assistance from the Lead Director and the other Board Committees, as appropriate, and

- together with the other independent Directors, determines and approves, in its sole discretion, the CEO's total compensation based on the above evaluation, in executive session without members of management present.

reviews and recommends to the Board for approval the compensation paid to the CEO's direct reports, including the other Named Executive Officers;

- Members of management (including some of the Named Executive Officers) assist the Compensation Committee in providing recommendations for the design of Grainger's compensation program for its Named Executive Officers, other officers, and employees. Management also recommends salary and award levels for the Committee's review and recommendation, except those related to the CEO.

together with the other independent Directors as directed by the Board, determine, in their sole discretion, the appropriate compensation design and level of CEO compensation in executive session without members of management present; approves annual grants of equity-based compensation awards (including, stock options, restricted stock units (RSUs), and performance restricted stock units (PRSUs)) to Named Executive Officers, other officers and employees under approved shareholder plans; and, may delegate to management limited authority to grant "off-cycle" equity-based compensation awards of stock options and RSUs to non-officer employees, and to CEO direct reports that are new hires; and, awards under this authority are granted pursuant to terms and conditions approved by the Compensation Committee. Management informs the Compensation Committee of the awarded grants at the Compensation Committee's next meeting. The pool of shares available to management under this delegation is refreshed annually by the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee may terminate this delegation of authority at its discretion; and retain, terminate, and approve the compensation for an independent compensation consultant that will report directly to the Compensation Committee, determine the independence of such independent compensation consultant, and routinely meet in an executive session with the independent compensation consultant, without management present.

LEADERSHIP STRUCTURE

The Board has strong governance structures and processes in place to ensure the independence of the Board. These structures and processes, which are reflected in the Operating Principles for the Board of Directors (the Operating Principles) and the Committee charters, allow for the independent Directors to effectively exercise the Board's authority in overseeing critical matters of strategy, operations, enterprise risk management, and financial reporting.

The Board carefully considered its leadership structure and believes that a combined Chairman/CEO position represents the best long-term leadership structure for Grainger. In the Board's view, having a single individual serving as both the Chairman and CEO assists in the timely flow of relevant information, which supports effective Board decision-making and provides a useful connection between the Board and management so that Board actions are appropriately and efficiently executed. The Board's Lead Director structure helps assure these functions are properly and timely performed. The Board does not believe that separating the role of the Chairman and CEO would result in strengthening Grainger's corporate governance or in creating or enhancing long-term value for our shareholders.

The duties performed by the independent Directors, either collectively or through Committees comprised solely of independent Directors, include selecting the Chairman and CEO and evaluating his or her performance, and setting his or her compensation. In deciding that a combined Chairman and CEO position is the appropriate long-term leadership structure for Grainger, the Board also recognizes the need for independent leadership and oversight. Since 1995, the Operating Principles provide for a leadership role to the independent Director serving as Chair of the BANC. Over time, this Lead Director has been responsible for facilitating Board involvement on major issues and/or proposals, reviewing meeting agenda and information to be provided to the Board, consulting with Directors, the CEO and management, and presiding at executive sessions of the Board.

The Board believes that given Grainger's corporate governance structures and processes, a combined Chairman and CEO position in conjunction with an independent Lead Director provides effective oversight of management by the Board and results in a high level of management accountability to shareholders.

LEAD DIRECTOR

In 2010, the Board revised its Operating Principles and Grainger's By-laws to create the leadership position of Lead Director, to be elected by and from the Board's independent Directors. The current Lead Director, Mr. Stuart L. Levenick, was appointed to serve in this capacity after the April 2014 annual meeting of shareholders. Among the duties assigned to the Lead Director is the responsibility for:

presiding at meetings of the Board at which the Chairman is not present, including executive sessions of the independent Directors;

serving as the primary liaison between the Chairman and the independent Directors;

calling meetings of the independent Directors, if appropriate, to review and approve the types of information sent to the Board;

coordinating with the Board Affairs and Nominating Committee and the applicable Board Committee Chairs the annual self-evaluation of the performance and effectiveness of the Board, its Committees and individual Directors;

leading the Board in its annual review of the Board and management's performance, including the CEO, to the extent necessary to supplement the Compensation Committee's review of the CEO's performance relative to applicable compensation goals and objectives;

being available, as necessary, for consultation and communication with major shareholders; coordinating with the BANC the Director recruitment and interview process; and reviewing and approving meeting schedules to ensure that there is sufficient time for discussion of all agenda items.

BOARD, COMMITTEE AND DIRECTOR EVALUATIONS

The Board recognizes that a rigorous evaluation process is an essential component of strong corporate governance practices and promoting ongoing Board effectiveness. Each year, the Board conducts a three-part evaluation process coordinated by the Lead Director and the Committee Chairs: full Board evaluation, Committee evaluations, and Director self-assessment. These evaluations, which are annually reviewed by an external corporate governance expert, ask Directors to rate how the Board performs and seek feedback on more open-ended topics, including Board and Committee processes and effectiveness, including for example:

the priority of Board issues, including issues and items that should be discussed at future meetings;

the quality and timeliness of information provided to the Board;

the quality of discussions, including Director candor and engagement; and the areas for improvement in overall Board effectiveness.

The results of the evaluations are compiled anonymously and include responses and comments. The results of the completed Board evaluations and individual Director self-assessments are furnished to the Lead Director, while the results of the completed evaluations for the Committees are furnished to the corresponding Committee Chairs, and then discussed at the Board and Committee meetings, respectively. Below is an overview of the key steps in the annual evaluation process:

The information gained through this process helps shape the content of educational presentations to the Board and identify the skill sets desirable in Director searches conducted from time-to-time by the Board.

As a result of the Board's 2018 evaluation process, the Board identified the need for Director education opportunities in digital marketing. Accordingly, later in 2018, all Directors participated in a half-day digital marketing seminar, led by two marketing professors from Kellogg School of Management, Northwestern University.

BOARD OVERSIGHT

The Board oversees its management to, among other things, encourage management communication with our shareholders, ensure effective succession planning to maximize long-term corporate performance, evaluate management's performance against its goals, help management assess long-term strategies for, and oversee risk management processes and policies of, the Company, and to evaluate the Company's commitment to social responsibility.

Board's Role in Shareholder Engagement

The Board believes it is important that the Company's strategy is effectively communicated to its shareholders, and that shareholders' perspectives are understood and considered by the Board. During 2017 and 2018, the Board's Lead Director met with a variety of institutional investors to explain the Company's corporate governance practices and policies as part of a corporate governance roadshow.

As part of its oversight role, the Board routinely receives reports and briefings from the Company's Investor Relations team. Grainger has a comprehensive shareholder engagement program. During 2018, we engaged with a significant cross-section of our shareholder base, including large institutional investors, pension funds, and other investors. Our CEO, CFO and VP of Investor Relations, and other members of our Investor Relations team, maintain regular contact throughout the year with a broad base of shareholders to understand their concerns on various topics, including financial performance, strategy, competitive environment, and environmental, social and governance matters. Contact with shareholders includes quarterly earnings calls, individual meetings and other channels of communication. In 2018, we engaged with institutional shareholders representing more than 30% of our outstanding shares. Throughout the shareholder engagement in 2018, the Board routinely received updates from the Company's Vice President, Investor Relations, regarding shareholder concerns, trends, and various questions.

We will continue to engage with our shareholders on a regular basis to understand their perspectives and, as appropriate, incorporate their feedback on our performance, business strategies, executive compensation programs and corporate governance practices.

Succession Planning and Management Development

Our Board recognizes that it has an important duty to ensure senior leadership continuity by overseeing the development of executive talent and planning for the efficient succession of the CEO and other key leadership positions. Our Board has delegated primary oversight responsibility for succession planning and management development to the BANC. The Committee reports on its activities to the full Board, which routinely addresses succession planning during executive sessions.

Our Board generally conducts, at least once a year, an in-depth review of senior leader development and succession planning, including emergency succession scenarios. This review addresses the Company's management development initiatives, assesses senior management resources, and identifies individuals who should be considered as potential future senior executives. To ensure that the succession planning and management development process supports and enhances Grainger's strategic objectives, the Board and the BANC also regularly consult with the Chairman of the Board and CEO on the Company's organizational needs, the leadership potential and related development plans for key managers, and plans for future development and emergency situations.

Board's Role in Risk Oversight

The Board has overall responsibility for risk oversight. Its role is to oversee risk assessment and risk management processes and policies used by Grainger to identify, assess, monitor and address potential financial, compensation, operational, strategic and legal risks on an enterprise-wide basis. In addition, the risks monitored include threats to information technology systems and other issues of cyber security as part of our overall Enterprise Risk Management (ERM) initiatives. As part of these initiatives, the Board oversees and reviews the Company's processes for cybersecurity risk, including the Company's framework for detecting, mitigating and addressing cybersecurity incidents.

Both the Board and the Audit Committee regularly review Grainger's risk assessment and risk management processes and policies, including receiving regular reports from the Company's Chief Information Security Officer, and the members of Grainger's management who are responsible for risk assessment and risk management on the effectiveness of Grainger's ERM initiatives. As part of its oversight responsibility, the Compensation Committee assesses the relationship between potential risk created by Grainger's compensation programs and their impact on long-term shareholder value.

Corporate Social Responsibility

Grainger is committed to being a responsible corporate citizen and strives to integrate environmental, social and governance (ESG) principles into the daily operation of its business. Grainger's Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) platform includes our commitment to operating responsibly, valuing our people, serving our communities and sustaining our environment. These commitments shape our focus on corporate citizenship and fuel our determination to make a positive difference today and in the future.

We integrate citizenship initiatives into the Company's strategy and daily operations at each level of our business. This begins with oversight by the BANC. The BANC annually reviews the Company's promotion of environmental sustainability and community engagement. In addition, the BANC receives routine reports and updates on ESG matters. In 2017, the Board appointed a new Director with expertise in sustainability. The Company's CSR Advisory Council, led by a senior executive and comprised of a select group of senior-level team members, provides guidance, strategic awareness and counsel to the Company's CSR program. Also, the Company has a cross-functional CSR Working Group that implements day-to-day programs and drives progress toward the success of our roadmap.

The Company began reporting with reference to the Global Reporting Initiative's Sustainability Reporting Standards in 2016 and, since 2017, has been a member of the Dow Jones Sustainability Index. In 2018, the Company met its emissions reduction target two years early.

Grainger publishes an annual CSR report that is periodically updated and, while it is available on Grainger's website at <http://www.GraingerCSR.com>, it is not being incorporated by reference into this proxy statement.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

Grainger's non-employee Directors each receive an annual cash retainer of $100,000 and an annual deferred stock grant of $145,000. The Lead Director and Directors serving as Committee Chairs receive an additional annual cash retainer.

Grainger's non-employee Directors are compensated at a level that approximates median market practice. In benchmarking Director pay, Grainger uses the same compensation comparator group that is used to benchmark compensation for Grainger's executives as described in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis / page 39. The Compensation Committee's independent compensation consultant periodically reviews and updates the comparator group as well as comparative compensation information and advises on Director compensation.

The Directors' compensation program, which was last adjusted in April 2018, consists of the following:

Annual Cash Retainer for each Director	$100,000
Annual Retainer for the Lead Director	$25,000
Deferred Stock Unit Grant for each Director	$145,000
Chair Retainers:
Audit Committee	$20,000
Compensation Committee	$15,000
Board Affairs and Nominating Committee	$10,000

All non-employee Directors receive an annual deferred stock unit grant worth $145,000. In 2018, the number of shares covered by each grant was equal to $145,000 divided by the 200-day average stock price through January 31 (a methodology consistent with the calculation used for equity awards to grant-eligible employees), rounded up to the next whole share. Beginning with the 2019 equity grants, Grainger will adjust this methodology for both Directors and grant-eligible employees from a 200-day average to a 20-day average to better reflect market practice. The deferred stock units are settled in shares upon termination of service as a Director. Directors may defer their annual cash retainers, Lead Director retainer, Committee Chair retainers (as applicable), and meeting fees into a deferred stock unit account.

Stock ownership guidelines applicable to non-employee Directors were established in 1998. These guidelines provide that within five years after election, a Director must own Grainger common stock and common stock equivalents having a value of at least five times the annual cash retainer fee for serving on the Board. The hedging or pledging of Company shares by Directors or executive officers is prohibited by Company policy (see Hedging and Pledging Prohibition / page 56). No Directors (or executive officers) have hedged or pledged any of the shares beneficially owned by them and all Directors are currently in compliance with the ownership guidelines.

Grainger matches Directors' charitable contributions on a three-to-one basis up to a maximum Company contribution of $7,500 annually and provides discounts on product purchases, both on the same basis as provided to U.S. Grainger employees.

Mr. Macpherson, who is an employee of Grainger, does not receive any compensation for serving as a Director.

(1) Represents cash fees received in 2018.

(2) Represents the grant date fair value of an award of 755 deferred stock units made on April 25, 2018, with immediate vesting that will be paid upon termination from service, computed in accordance with the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 718. The number of stock units was determined by dividing the grant dollar value by the 200-day average stock price as of January 31 in the year of the grant, a methodology consistent with the calculation used for equity awards to grant-eligible employees. Beginning with the 2019 equity grants, Grainger will adjust this methodology for both Directors and grant-eligible employees from a 200-day average to a 20-day average to better reflect market practice.

(3) Represents amount paid by the Company to charitable organizations as part of the Company's matching gift program with respect to donations made and matched in 2018. The Directors receive no direct or indirect benefit from the matching contributions.

Security Ownership of Management

The table below shows the ownership of Grainger common stock as of March 4, 2019, by our Directors, named executive officers, and all of our Directors and executive officers as a group.

Beneficial ownership is broadly defined by the SEC. In general, a person beneficially owns securities if the person, alone or with another, has voting power or investment power (the power to sell) over the securities. Being able to acquire either voting or investment power within 60 days, such as by exercising stock options, also results in beneficial ownership of securities. Unless otherwise indicated in the footnotes following the table, each of the named persons had sole voting and investment power with respect to the indicated number of Grainger shares.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires our Directors and officers and persons who own more than 10% of our common stock to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC and the NYSE, and to furnish us with copies of the reports. Specific due dates for these reports are prescribed by SEC rules and we are required to report in this proxy statement any failure by Directors, officers, or 10% holders to file such reports on a timely basis. Based on our review of such reports and written representations from our Directors and officers, we believe that all such filing requirements were timely met during 2018.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors assists the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities. The Board has determined that each of the members of the Audit Committee is "independent," as that term is defined in the independence requirements for audit committee members contained in the applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) and corporate governance standards of the New York Stock Exchange. The Audit Committee acts under a charter that is reviewed annually; and, it was last amended by the Board on December 12, 2018. The charter is available on the Governance section of Grainger's website at <http://www.grainger.com/investor>.

Management is responsible for the Company's internal controls and the financial reporting process and for compliance with applicable laws and regulations. Ernst & Young LLP (EY), the Company's independent auditor, was responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's most recent consolidated financial statements and expressing an opinion on the conformity of those financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, as well as expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes.

In performing these responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the Company's audited consolidated financial statements and the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting with management and EY. The Audit Committee discussed with EY matters required to be discussed under Statement on Auditing Standards No. 1301 "Communications with Audit Committees" adopted by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB). EY also provided to the Audit Committee the letter and written disclosures required by PCAOB standards concerning EY's independence and the Audit Committee discussed with EY the matter of the firm's independence.

Based on the review and discussions described above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2018, as filed with the SEC.

AUDIT FEES AND AUDIT COMMITTEE PRE-APPROVAL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

The following table sets forth the fees for professional services rendered by Ernst & Young with respect to fiscal years 2018 and 2017, respectively:

Audit Fees (1)	$ 5,736,000	$ 6,164,900
Audit-Related Fees (2)	223,500	224,100
Tax Fees (3)	700,000	678,500
All Other Fees (4)	7,000	3,000
Total Fees	$ 6,666,500	$ 7,070,500

- (1) Audit Fees. Consists of fees billed for professional services rendered for the audit of Grainger's annual financial statements and internal control over financial reporting, review of the interim financial statements included in Grainger's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, and other services normally provided in connection with Grainger's statutory and regulatory filings or engagements. Fees for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017 were originally reported to the Company by EY as $5,966,200. The amount reported in this table has been corrected to reflect the final fees as reported to the Company by EY following the filing of the Company's 2018 Annual Notice of Meeting and Proxy Statement.
- (2) Audit-Related Fees. Consists of fees billed for professional services rendered for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or a review of Grainger's financial statements and are not reported under "Audit Fees." These services include the audits of Grainger's employee benefit plans and various attest services.
- (3) Tax Fees. Consists of fees billed for professional services rendered for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning. These services include assistance with the preparation of various tax returns.
- (4) All Other Fees. Consists of fees billed for all other professional services rendered to Grainger, other than those reported as "Audit Fees," "Audit-Related Fees" and "Tax Fees."

Pre-Approval Policy for Audit and Non-Audit Services

The Audit Committee has adopted a policy for the pre-approval of all audit and permitted non-audit services to be provided to Grainger by its independent auditor and is responsible for the review and approval of any fees associated with those services. Also, specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee is required for any proposed services exceeding pre-approved fee levels.

Edgar Filing: GRAINGER W W INC - Form DEF 14A

Pre-approvals for categories of services are granted at the start of each fiscal year and are applicable for 12 months from the date of pre-approval. In considering these pre-approvals, the Audit Committee reviews detailed supporting documentation from the independent auditor for each proposed service to be provided. Unused pre-approval amounts are not carried forward to the next year.

The Company's Controller monitors services provided by the independent auditor and overall compliance with the pre-approval policy. The Corporate Controller reports periodically to the Audit Committee about the status of outstanding engagements, including actual services provided and associated fees, and must promptly report any noncompliance with the pre-approval policy to the Chairman of the Audit Committee.

Corporate Governance

The Audit Committee may delegate pre-approval authority for audit and non-audit services to one or more of its members, and such authority has been delegated to the Chair of the Audit Committee. The decisions of any member to whom such authority is delegated must be presented to the full Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting. The Audit Committee may not delegate to management its responsibilities to pre-approve services performed by the Company's independent auditor. The Audit Committee periodically reviews reports summarizing all services provided by the independent auditor.

The Audit Committee is directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, retention, evaluation, termination and oversight of the independent external audit firm that performs audit services. In considering Ernst & Young LLP's (EY) appointment for the 2019 fiscal year, the Committee reviewed the firm's qualifications and competencies, including the following factors:

EY's historical performance and its recent performance during its engagement for the 2018 fiscal year;

EY's capability and expertise in handling the breadth and complexity of the Company's operations;

the qualifications and experience of key members of the engagement team, including the lead audit partner, for the audit of the Company's financial statements;

the quality of EY's communications with the Audit Committee regarding the conduct of the audit, and with management with respect to issues identified in the audit;

external data on audit quality and performance, including recent PCAOB reports on EY; and EY's reputation for integrity and competence in the fields of accounting and auditing. EY has been retained as the Company's independent auditor continuously since 2005. To ensure continuing auditor independence, the Audit Committee periodically considers whether there should be a regular rotation of the independent auditor. The Audit Committee ensures that the mandated rotation of EY's personnel occurs routinely and the Audit Committee is directly involved in the review, selection and evaluation of EY's lead engagement partner.

The Audit Committee and the Board of Directors believe that the continued retention of EY to serve as the Company's independent auditor for the year ending December 31, 2019 is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders, and the Board is asking shareholders to ratify this appointment. Representatives of EY are expected to be present at the meeting to respond to appropriate questions of shareholders and to make any desired statements.

Approval of the proposal requires the affirmative votes of a majority of the shares of Grainger common stock represented in person or by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote. Abstentions will have the same effect as votes against the proposal. In the event the proposal is not approved, the Board will consider the negative vote as a mandate to appoint another independent auditor for the next year.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD

The Compensation Committee reviewed and discussed the Compensation Discussion and Analysis (CD&A) with management. Based on such review and discussion, the Compensation Committee has recommended to the Board of Directors that the CD&A be included in the Company's proxy statement for its 2019 annual meeting of shareholders and in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2018, as filed with the SEC. The Compensation Committee acts under a charter that is reviewed annually and was last approved by the Board on December 12, 2018. The Amended and Restated charter is available in the Governance section of Grainger's website at <http://www.grainger.com/investor>.

INDEPENDENT COMPENSATION CONSULTANT; FEES

In overseeing the Company's compensation programs, the Compensation Committee of the Board (the Compensation Committee) develops programs based on its own deliberations, programs and recommendations from management, and compensation and benefits consultants, including its independent compensation consultant.

After a review of the factors prescribed by the SEC and the NYSE rules and regulations, the Compensation Committee determined that Deloitte Consulting LLP (Deloitte Consulting) is independent and retained Deloitte Consulting as its independent compensation consultant.

At the Compensation Committee's direction, the independent compensation consultant:

attends Compensation Committee meetings;

assists the Compensation Committee in the review of goals and objectives for the CEO compensation;

provides the Compensation Committee with comparable compensation market data, including pay levels and pay practices of both our comparator companies and general industry;

Edgar Filing: GRAINGER W W INC - Form DEF 14A

helps the Compensation Committee evaluate recommendations proposed by management; assists with incentive compensation program design, structure, and selection of the metrics; annually reviews and recommends appropriate comparator companies used for compensation studies; conducts or assists in risk reviews of the Company's performance and incentive-based compensation programs; and provides periodic updates on executive compensation trends and regulatory developments, and undertakes special projects as assigned.

The following table sets forth the fees for services rendered by Deloitte Consulting and its affiliates with respect to fiscal year 2018:

Executive Compensation Consulting	$ 217,380
All Other Consulting	$ 2,636,296
Total Fees	$ 2,853,676

Executive Compensation Consulting Fees: Consists of fees billed for services provided to advise the Compensation Committee with respect to executive and Director compensation.

All Other Consulting Fees: Consists of fees billed for all other services provided to Grainger. None of these fees are related to compensation matters.

Affiliates of Deloitte Consulting have provided other services to Grainger that are unrelated to executive compensation matters. The decision to engage an affiliate of Deloitte Consulting for these other services was made by management. The Board has been informed of this ongoing work and the use of an affiliate of Deloitte Consulting but neither the Board nor the Compensation Committee specifically approved these services. After a review of the factors prescribed by the SEC and the NYSE rules and regulations, the Compensation Committee determined that its compensation consultant, Deloitte Consulting, did not have any conflicts of interest.

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

INTRODUCTION

This Compensation Discussion and Analysis (CD&A) describes the Company's compensation philosophy and programs generally, and explains the compensation paid to the most highly compensated executives in 2018 – the Named Executive Officers (NEOs).

Named Executive Officers (NEOs) for 2018

D.G. Macpherson	Chairman of the Board & Chief Executive Officer (CEO)
Thomas B. Okray	Senior Vice President & Chief Financial Officer
John L. Howard	Senior Vice President & General Counsel
Paige K. Robbins	Senior Vice President, Grainger Chief Digital Officer
Deidra C. Merriwether	Senior Vice President, U.S. Direct Sales & Strategic Initiatives
Ronald L. Jadin	Former Senior Vice President & Chief Financial Officer
Joseph C. High	Former Senior Vice President & Chief People Officer

The titles in the table above reflect positions held by the NEOs as of the end of 2018, and remain unchanged as of the date of this proxy statement.

Leadership Transitions

Several leadership transitions took place during 2018, including:

Mr. Okray was appointed as Grainger's Senior Vice President & Chief Financial Officer on May 2, 2018, replacing Mr. Jadin who retired effective May 2, 2018.

Ms. Merriwether was designated as an executive officer of the Company effective October 31, 2018.

Mr. High retired as Grainger's Senior Vice President & Chief People Officer effective August 31, 2018.

Executive Summary

The Company's compensation program is based upon a philosophy that is applied to all Company employees to attract and retain the best people and provide them appropriate performance-based incentives that encourage them to achieve results that create long-term shareholder value.

The Company's overall compensation structure is designed to drive profitable growth leading to shareholder value creation. Employees at all levels of the Company, including its executives, are provided incentives to grow the business (Sales Growth) while achieving attractive investment returns (Return on Invested Capital, or ROIC) for the Company's shareholders. For executives, the compensation program is designed to link pay to performance and is structured to reward both annual and long-term Company performance while not encouraging excessive risk taking.

Pay for performance highlights for 2018 include:

short-term financial results exceeded expectations and therefore the payout for the annual bonus program was above target;
and long-term results for the three-year 2016 Performance Share cycle met profitability expectations, therefore payout approximated target.

A key difference in 2018 to the Company's compensation plan design and administration was the Company's change to the long-term incentive mix for awards to 50% stock options and 50% performance restricted stock units (RSUs) (from 50% stock options and 50% performance shares). This change occurred in response to market practice and to provide appropriate incentives to drive shareholder value creation.

In 2018, NEO compensation mix did not change, as it includes a combination of base salary, short-term incentives, long-term equity incentives including RSUs and stock options, and a performance-based retirement vehicle. These components are combined to provide Company executives with appropriate incentives for profitable long-term growth.

The Company's NEO compensation is comprised of the following components:

Base Salary	Establishes a market competitive and appropriate level of fixed compensation to attract and retain leaders.	Based on individual performance.	Fixed	Short-Term
Annual Incentives (Management Incentive Program)	Encourages annual results that create shareholder value.	Linked to annual achievement of predetermined Company objectives sales growth and ROIC.	Performance Based	Short-Term
Stock Options	Directly links managers' and shareholders' interests by tying long-term incentives to stock appreciation.	The initial grant value (above or below target) is linked to individual performance, while the ultimate value of the program is linked to stock price performance prior to exercise.	Performance Based	Long-Term
RSUs	Aligns compensation with the Company's business strategy and the long-term creation of shareholder value.	Linked to achieving a predetermined Company 3-year profitability.	Performance Based	Long-Term

Edgar Filing: GRAINGER W W INC - Form DEF 14A

Retirement/Profit Sharing

Aligns the interests of the employees and shareholders as the Company's annual contribution varies year to year based on ROIC.

Linked to financial performance - contributions greater than 8% are based on Company performance.

Target total compensation for the Company's employees is generally set to approximate the market median. The weighting of the individual compensation components varies by level, with more senior level executives having a greater emphasis on performance-based long-term compensation which aligns management to shareholders. As shown in the table below, NEO compensation is structured so that the largest component is long-term equity (stock options and PRSUs), followed by base salary and the performance-based annual incentives. Each NEO's compensation is compared to equivalent positions in a comparator group selected by the Compensation Committee (with assistance from the Committee's independent compensation consultant). NEO base salaries and long-term incentive grants are determined based on many factors including individual performance, responsibilities, and the overall relation to market levels of compensation.

These components and the use of performance-based pay are consistent with the compensation mix of the comparator group. The tables below show compensation components as a percentage of the total target compensation package.

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

"2018 Adjusted ROIC" means the Company's Return on Invested Capital calculated using operating earnings, adjusted (as reconciled to its most directly comparable GAAP measure in Part II, Item 7 (p. 20) of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2018), divided by net working assets (a 5-point average for the year-to-date). Net working assets are working assets minus working liabilities defined as follows: working assets equal Total assets less cash equivalents (part of Cash and cash equivalents; 5-point average of $173.6 million), LIFO reserves (part of Inventories net; 5-point average of $386.7 million), Deferred income taxes, and investments in unconsolidated entities (part of Other assets). Working liabilities equal Total current liabilities less Short-term debt, Current maturities of long-term debt and Income taxes payable. For purposes of the 2018 MIP payout, the Compensation Committee has accepted the Company's calculation of 2018 Adjusted ROIC.

"Annual Compensation" consists of base salary and the annual incentive plan as described further under "Annual Incentives."

"Fixed/Individual Based Compensation" consists of base salary as described further under "Base Salaries."

"Long-term Compensation" consists of stock options, PRSUs, and retirement profit sharing. Annual retirement profit sharing contributions are based on the Company's short-term performance; distributions are restricted, with full vesting of contributions once a participant has achieved five years of service with the Company as described further under "Long-Term Incentives" and "Other Benefits."

"Peers" are the comparator group in the 2018 Deloitte Consulting Compensation Study as described further under "Compensation Comparator Group."

"Performance Based Compensation" consists of the annual incentive plan, long-term incentives, and retirement profit sharing as described further under "Annual Incentives" and "Long-Term Incentives."

The Company's compensation structure links pay with Company performance. Our 2018 financial results exceeded expectations and therefore the annual bonus payment was above target. The Company's long-term plan, established in 2016, met the target results for three year ROIC and therefore payout approximated target for this program.

Table of Contents

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

The Company is focused on profitable daily sales growth over the short- and long-term. The Company believes that using capital efficiency (ROIC) and revenue (sales growth) is appropriate because the metrics are tied to shareholder values in both the short-term and long-term:

Different Performance Goals. The short-term incentive program focuses on one-year sales growth compared to the prior year and a pre-determined ROIC, with both measures linked to the Company's one-year plan. The long-term incentive program focuses on three-year average ROIC performance.

Different Time Periods. The short-term incentive program focuses on the achievement of sales growth and ROIC over one year. The long-term incentive program focuses on three-year average ROIC performance above 18%.

Company-Wide Performance Measures. Performance is measured at the Company- wide level as opposed to specific business unit or regional levels.

Maximum Payout is Capped. Short-term incentive plans are capped at 200% of the target award and long-term incentives are capped at 100% of the target shares.

As a result, the Company believes that ROIC and sales growth are appropriate metrics and do not create unreasonable risk.

Compensation Philosophy, Plans, and Practices

As part of the Company's pay for performance philosophy, the Company's compensation program includes several features that maintain alignment with shareholders:

Emphasis on Variable Performance-Based Compensation. Between 40% and 88% of the NEOs' target compensation is tied to Company performance.

Performance Thresholds and Caps. Both the annual incentive and performance share programs require a threshold level of performance in order to achieve any payment, and the maximum payments are capped.

Stock Ownership Requirements. The Chairman and CEO is required to hold equity in the Company worth at least 6x his base salary, and all other NEOs are required to hold at least 3x base salary. Those who fail to achieve ownership requirements will not receive future equity-based awards.

Edgar Filing: GRAINGER W W INC - Form DEF 14A

Double-Trigger Change in Control Requirements. Both the existing Change in Control Agreements and awards under the W.W. Grainger, Inc. 2015 Incentive Plan, as amended and restated as of October 31, 2018 (the 2015 Incentive Plan), have double-trigger change in control provisions.

Prohibition on Hedging and Pledging. NEOs and Directors are prohibited from hedging their ownership in Company shares, and from pledging Company shares as collateral for a loan or a margin account.

Claw back Provisions. The Company has established recoupment policies with respect to executive compensation in the event of fraud, criminal misconduct, materially inaccurate financial statements, conduct that violates Company policy, misconduct that causes or is discovered to have caused damage or injury to the Company's property or reputation or violations of non-competition or non-solicitation agreements, or in the event an Executive receives any amount in excess of what the Executive should have received for any reason.

Table of Contents

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Executive Physicals. In order to ensure the stability of the leadership team, the Company requires that the NEOs and certain other Company officers have periodic physical examinations.

Annual Risk Reviews. The Company conducts an annual risk review based on a process recommended by the Compensation Committee of the Board's independent compensation consultant.

The Company's compensation programs also maintain alignment with shareholders by not including certain features:

No Cash Buyouts of Underwater Stock Options, Repricing, or Stock Options issued at a discount. Stock options issued will not be repriced, replaced, or regranted through cancellation or by lowering the exercise price of a previously granted stock option.

No Excessive Change in Control Agreements. The maximum cash benefit is equal to 2x salary and target bonus.

No Change in Control Agreements with Excise Tax Gross-ups.

No Tax Gross-ups on Perquisites.

No Employment Agreements. The Company does not maintain any employment agreements with its NEOs.

No Dividend Equivalents Paid on Unearned Performance-Based Awards

Overall, the Company's compensation program is designed to be straightforward and understandable to its employees and shareholders, and to drive long-term shareholder value creation by aligning compensation with both individual and Company performance.

Compensation Committee of the Board

The Compensation Committee of the Board is responsible for the Company's compensation programs.

The Compensation Committee oversees the Company's compensation and benefit programs for all officers and employees. The Committee is responsible for ensuring that the Company's compensation practices provide appropriate incentives to increase long-term shareholder value, reflect the highest level of integrity, and protect the interests of shareholders. One of its responsibilities is to make certain that a competitive compensation structure is in place that will attract, reward, and retain employees and to motivate them to grow the business profitably. The Committee is also charged with ensuring that compensation, especially for executives, is linked to both individual and Company performance, and ensuring that compensation policies and practices for all employees do not include incentives to take inappropriate risk.

In setting individual compensation levels, the Compensation Committee selects a compensation comparator group of companies and reviews studies of total compensation paid to executives in those comparator group companies with similar duties and responsibilities. The Committee then considers a variety of reference points, including competitive compensation data at the 25th, 50th, and 75th percentiles, individual and Company performance, the executive's overall experience, replaceability, internal equity, unique skills, and management's recommendation to determine appropriate compensation for each executive. All elements of compensation are valued and reviewed in evaluating the relative competitiveness of the Company's compensation practices against the comparator group. Target total compensation for the Company's employees and executives as a whole (including the NEOs) is generally set to approximate the market median.

The Compensation Committee reviews at least annually a tally sheet for each NEO to evaluate the potential value of all compensation. The tally sheet includes each NEO's current base salary, annual incentive award, and the value of all outstanding equity-based awards (both vested and unvested), deferrals, benefits, and perquisites, as well as potential payments under retirement and certain change in control situations. Since no NEO has an employment agreement with the Company that guarantees continued employment, the tally sheets also facilitate the Committee's evaluation of vested and unvested awards and the retention value of these awards.

Under its charter, the Compensation Committee makes executive compensation decisions and recommends actions to the Board of Directors and to shareholders (for example, related to the advisory Say on Pay vote or equity plan proposals), as appropriate.

In discharging its responsibilities, the Committee regularly consults with independent advisors, compensation consultants, and the Company's management. After a review of the factors prescribed by the SEC and the NYSE, the Compensation Committee determined that its compensation consultant, Deloitte Consulting, is an independent advisor under the applicable rules and regulations. The Compensation Committee's charter is available in the Governance section of Grainger's website at <http://www.grainger.com/investor>.

Risk Assessment

The Compensation Committee's oversight responsibility includes assessing the relationship between potential risk created by the Company's compensation programs and their impact on long-term shareholder value. The Company's compensation programs are designed to include risk-mitigating features, and the Committee also engaged its independent compensation consultant (Deloitte Consulting) to assist with the process of an annual internal risk assessment of all incentive-based compensation, including short-term and long-term incentive programs.

The incentive compensation programs include risk-mitigating components, such as:

balanced performance measures sales growth combined with profitability;

robust performance measure selection and rigorous targets;

balanced mix of short-term and long-term incentives;

balanced mix of equity vehicles stock options are combined with performance shares;

claw back provisions to recoup incentive compensation;

stock ownership, retention, and holding requirements; and clear business conduct guidelines.

Since 2009, the Committee has engaged its independent compensation consultant, Deloitte Consulting, to conduct a risk assessment that is completed every three years. Deloitte Consulting conducted the Company's most recent triennial risk assessment in 2018 and the results were discussed with the Committee. For the interim years, the Company will conduct an annual internal risk review based on practices and methodologies recommended by the Committee's independent compensation consultant.

Based on the risk review and the Committee's discussions, the Committee does not believe that the Company's compensation policies and practices are reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Say on Pay

At the 2018 annual meeting of shareholders, the annual advisory vote to approve the compensation of the Company's NEOs received the support of 97% of the shareholders voting on the proposal. The Compensation Committee has considered these results and believes that they confirm the appropriateness of the Company's current executive compensation policies and practices. The Company routinely discusses its compensation philosophy with its shareholders as part of investor relations activities.

The Company is required to seek shareholder vote on the frequency of the advisory Say on Pay vote every six years. In 2011 and 2017, management recommended an annual advisory Say on Pay vote. The next advisory frequency vote is scheduled for 2023.

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Role of Management

Management assists the Compensation Committee in the design, recommendation, and implementation of compensation programs.

Members of management assist the Compensation Committee by routinely recommending programs that management believes will provide the appropriate level of compensation and incentives consistent with the Company's compensation philosophy. Consistent with this process, management works with advisors from Deloitte Consulting to develop market information and recommends adjustments in base salaries, annual incentive targets, and long-term incentive awards to be reviewed by the Compensation Committee and approved by the Board. For NEOs other than Mr. Macpherson, the recommendations also include the structure and targets of short-term and long-term incentive programs, as well as changes to programs required for regulatory compliance. These recommendations are reviewed and approved by the Chairman of the Board and CEO before they are presented to the Compensation Committee. Mr. Macpherson's compensation is reviewed by the Compensation Committee in conjunction with its independent compensation consultant, together with other independent Directors (as directed by the Board), in executive session without members of management present.

Compensation Comparator Group

The Company's compensation program is regularly benchmarked against a Compensation Committee-approved comparator group of companies that are similar to the Company in size and complexity. The Company performs these studies to understand current market practices and to provide a reference point for compensation discussions.

Every year, the Compensation Committee determines a compensation comparator group of companies and undertakes a study of total compensation paid to executives occupying similar positions with similar duties and responsibilities in the comparator companies. All elements of compensation are valued and considered when determining the relative competitiveness of the Company's compensation practices. A comparator group compensation study was conducted in 2018 (2018 Compensation Study).

The 2018 comparator group consists of 19 businesses that are relatively similar in complexity and size to the Company and represent the types of major companies with which the Company historically competes for executive talent. The companies that were selected for the 2018 Compensation Study are generally within a range of 0.5 to 2.0 times Grainger's annual revenue. The competitive market for executive talent includes companies both within and outside the same industry or sector as the Company. Most of the Company's publicly traded direct competitors tend to be too small in sales or scope of operations for direct compensation comparisons with the Company. Including a broader range of companies provides a more representative depiction of the Company's competitive market for talent. Therefore, companies used for compensation comparison purposes differ from those in the industry indices used in the Company Performance Graph in Part II, Item 5 of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2018.

The Committee relied on its independent compensation consultant, Deloitte Consulting, for survey and market data. The role of management in selecting the comparator group was limited to providing general comments on the relevance of each industry represented by the comparator companies.

The Compensation Committee reviewed and approved the comparator group and considered the findings of the 2018 Compensation Study in conjunction with a tally sheet listing the potential value of all compensation available for the NEOs. The Compensation Committee concluded that the NEOs' earned and potential awards for 2018 were consistent with the Company's pay philosophy, Company and individual performance, and market practices (as reflected in the 2018 Compensation Study). Based on this review and the strong support from shareholders on the Say on Pay proposal, the Committee did not make material adjustments to the design of the Company's compensation programs. The next Compensation Study and comparator group validation is scheduled to take place in 2019.

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Base Salaries

Base salaries are intended to provide an appropriate level of fixed compensation to attract and retain executives. Base salaries are determined after a detailed evaluation of individual performance, competitive market levels, and executive experience.

Annual base salary adjustments are considered and implemented to reflect individual performance, contribution and experience, and to maintain market competitiveness. The 2018 Compensation Study showed that, on average, the Company's base salaries for NEOs were approximately 14% above the market median.

Base salary increases for the NEOs, with the exception of Mr. Macpherson, are reviewed and approved by the Chairman of the Board and CEO before they are presented to the Compensation Committee for review and recommendation to the Board. The Committee reviews these recommendations in conjunction with its independent compensation consultant.

The compensation awarded to Mr. Macpherson was determined by the Board with assistance from the Compensation Committee and its independent compensation consultant. The Compensation Committee reviews and approves the corporate goals and objectives relevant to Mr. Macpherson's compensation and evaluates each individual's performance in light of those goals and objectives. Together with the other independent Directors (as directed by the Board), the Compensation Committee determined and approved Mr. Macpherson's compensation level based on this evaluation, in executive session without members of management present.

Following the annual performance management review process (which is similar to the process in which all employees participate), base salaries are reviewed and adjusted (if appropriate) to reflect individual and Company performance, base salaries for comparable positions from market studies, experience, tenure, fairness and internal equity.

Based on the process outlined above, on April 1, 2018, Mr. Macpherson's base salary remained flat at $1,030,000 (+0.0%).

The following base salary adjustments were made for the other NEOs effective April 1, 2018:

Mr. Okray's base salary was set at $700,000 upon his appointment as Grainger's Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer effective May 2, 2018;

Mr. Howard's base salary was increased to $705,000 (+0.8%);

Ms. Robbins' base salary was increased to $510,000 (+1.2%); and

Ms. Merriwether's base salary was increased to $452,962 (+3.7%).

Annual Incentives

Annual incentives are intended to provide an appropriate level of variable compensation to encourage executives to achieve annual results that create shareholder value without encouraging excessive risk taking.

NEOs are eligible to receive short-term cash-based incentives on the achievement of specified annual Company-wide financial performance measures set forth in the Company Management Incentive Program (MIP). The Company structures the MIP to motivate performance that balances short-term and long-term results and aligns the interests of management with shareholders.

Each NEO's target incentive award under the annual incentive program is based on a review of competitive market practice and is designed to approximate a market value that is generally at the median of the comparator group. The following table displays the 2018 MIP target payment, which is paid based on total Company results, applicable to each NEO.

D.G. Macpherson	135%(1)	135%
Thomas B. Okray	90%(2)	135%
John L. Howard	80%(3)	135%
Paige K. Robbins	80%(4)	135%

Joseph C. High	75%(6)	135%

(1) Mr. Macpherson's 2018 target incentive was increased from 125% to 135% of target effective April 1, 2018. Accordingly, his 2018 incentive amount is pro-rated at 125% of target for 3 months and 135% of target for 9 months.

(2) Mr. Okray was appointed as Grainger's Senior Vice President & Chief Financial Officer effective May 2, 2018. Accordingly, his 2018 incentive amount is pro-rated for his 8 months of service in 2018.

Edgar Filing: GRAINGER W W INC - Form DEF 14A

- (3) Mr. Howard's 2018 target incentive was increased from 75% to 80% of target effective April 1, 2018. Accordingly, his 2018 incentive amount is pro-rated at 75% of target for 3 months and 80% of target for 9 months.
- (4) Ms. Robbins' 2018 target incentive was increased from 60% to 80% of target effective April 1, 2018. Accordingly, her 2018 incentive amount is pro-rated at 60% for 3 months and 80% for 9 months.
- (5) Mr. Jadin retired effective May 2, 2018. Accordingly, his 2018 incentive amount is pro-rated for his 4 months of service in 2018.
- (6) Mr. High retired effective August 31, 2018. Accordingly, his 2018 incentive amount is pro-rated for his 8 months of service in 2018.

The Compensation Committee and management perform a thorough analysis in setting financial measures and goals for the Company MIP to ensure the program appropriately balances the Company's objectives, is aligned with long-term shareholder interest, and has appropriate and effective risk-mitigating components. While the measures and goals are clearly aligned with the Company's strategy, they also account for current economic conditions. The combination of sales growth and ROIC performance, as well as threshold, target, and maximum payment levels, serves to mitigate risk to the Company's shareholders.

The Company believes the design of the annual incentive program creates shareholder value and encourages performance by focusing on profitable sales growth and ROIC. The basic framework of the MIP has been in place for more than ten years, although specific objectives and performance target levels have been modified on a year-by-year basis in light of the current economic and competitive environment. This framework was selected to align with Company strategy and to balance sales growth with profitability, efficiency, expense management, and asset management. ROIC reflects how effectively management uses Company assets and is generally defined by the Company as pre-tax operating earnings divided by net working assets. Year-over-year daily sales growth is determined by year-over-year results. Acquisitions and divestitures that occur during the year are not included in the calculation of daily sales growth or ROIC. These measures are consistent with the Company's objective of growing profitably over time, which it believes is closely linked with shareholder value creation.

The 2018 Company MIP was based on the Company's 2018 Adjusted ROIC and year-over-year daily sales growth. The Company determined the payment earned for ROIC and the payment earned for sales growth, and the two amounts were added together:

$$\text{MIP Payment} = (\text{Sales Growth Performance} + \text{ROIC Performance})$$

The following table shows various payout scenarios that were established at the beginning of the year for 2018:

For the year 2018, reported sales growth was 7.2% and 2018 Adjusted ROIC was 28.5%. This resulted in a final Company MIP payout of 135% of target.

The Company believes that it establishes sales growth and ROIC targets that are rigorous and provide an appropriate level of motivation. Under the Terms and Conditions of the MIP, the Committee has the discretion to adjust the reported financial results for incentive plan purposes to correct for any unusual circumstances, both positive and negative, that might affect ROIC or sales growth.

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Incentive amounts paid to Mr. Macpherson, Mr. Howard, Ms. Robbins, Mr. Jadin, and Mr. High were based on the performance targets established for the 2018 MIP and were made under a separate annual incentive program described in the 2015 Incentive Plan. Prior to the enactment of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 (TCJA), this program was intended to qualify annual incentives for tax deductibility under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code (Section 162(m)). After the enactment of the TCJA, these annual incentives are no longer deductible under Section 162(m). Under the program, the Committee allocates a portion of an incentive pool to each participant.

Consistent with current practice, the 2019 MIP will continue to utilize daily sales growth along with ROIC as performance measures and all NEOs will be aligned to the Company MIP.

Long-Term Incentives

The Company annually provides long-term incentives to NEOs and other key managers in order to align with the following elements of the Company's strategy to improve shareholder value:

achieve long-term business goals and objectives that increase shareholder value (including achieving financial performance that balances growth, profitability, and asset management);

reward management for taking prudent action and achieving results that create shareholder value;

attract qualified leaders to join the Company; and retain management through business cycles.

In 2018, in response to market practice, the Company changed the long term incentive mix from 50% stock options and 50% performance shares to 50% stock options and 50% PRSUs. Providing a mix of different types of equity awards is consistent with market practice for senior executives. Using both stock options and PRSUs provides incentives to drive shareholder value creation and the three-year vesting schedule aids in executive retention. The Company's long-term incentives for NEOs are provided under shareholder-approved incentive plans.

The target number of shares provided for stock options and PRSUs is designed to approximate an economic value that targets the median of the compensation comparator group for comparable jobs. The Compensation Committee annually establishes the target value of the award based on the executive's position. The actual award may be adjusted up or down to reflect individual performance. In 2018, the value was converted to shares using the 200-day average stock price as of January 31, 2018. Beginning with the 2019 equity grants, Grainger will adjust this methodology for both Directors and grant-eligible employees from a 200-day average to a 20-day average to better reflect market practice.

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

NEO Long-Term Incentives

Stock Options	50%	3-year vesting; 10 year term	Grant allocated based on individual performance; long-term value based on appreciation in stock price.
PRsUs	50%	3-year vesting contingent on performance	3-year average ROIC.

Stock Options

The Company's stock options provide the right to purchase Company stock at a specified price over a ten-year term with three-year vesting. They are intended to directly link management's and shareholders' interests by tying a substantial portion of long-term incentives to stock price appreciation. The ten-year term is designed to focus the NEOs on long-term value creation. Three-year vesting encourages meaningful retention before an executive can realize any value created by stock price appreciation. Stock option repricing is not permitted under any of the Company's equity incentive plans. Stock options are awarded at an exercise price equal to the closing price of the Company's common stock reported on the business day of the grant.

Performance Restricted Stock Units (PRsUs)

The Company's PRsU program provides the NEOs and other executives with a potential share payout depending on ROIC achievement over a three-year cycle. The actual number of shares paid to an NEO will be either 0% or 100% of the target number of PRsUs awarded. The Compensation Committee (with the assistance of its independent compensation consultant) and management perform a thorough analysis in setting the financial measures and goals for a three-year performance cycle that begins January 1 of the first year. The ROIC component is measured at the end of the third year based on the three-year average. These measurement dates reinforce a long term focus. No dividend equivalents are paid on PRsUs.

The Compensation Committee selected these performance measures because they balance sales growth with long-term profitability, expense management, and asset management and align with objectives established in the annual incentive program. The Committee may use different sales growth and ROIC objectives and targets from year to year to maximize alignment with then-current business objectives and to reflect economic conditions.

2016-2018 Performance Share Cycle

For the 2016-2018 performance share cycle, the program was designed to reward for achievement based on a three-year average ROIC and 2018 sales. The sales goal was established when 2015 sales were $10.0 billion. The Company's average ROIC performance over the three-year period ending in 2018

In 2018, sales were $11.2 billion, and 3-year average ROIC for the performance period 2016 - 2018 was 25.8%. Accordingly, the participants earned 97% of their target. The Compensation Committee has accepted the Company's calculation of the 3-year average ROIC for purposes of the 2016 - 2018 performance share cycle.

2017-2019 Performance Share Cycle

The structure of the 2017 Performance Share Program is similar to the 2016 program. It is driven by total Company sales achieved in 2019 and 3-year average ROIC. The adjustment to the Target will be made by adding the results of the following two tables:

<$11.4B	0%

≥24.0%	100%

Three-year average ROIC at or above 24% or sales at or above $12.24 billion in 2019 can independently achieve 100% of the target award. Achieving both will yield 200% of the target award. This award will remain at risk through 2019.

2018-2020 PRSU Cycle

The 2018 PRSU Program focuses on maintaining profitability over a three-year period. It is driven by total Company 3-year average ROIC. The adjustment to the Target will be based on the results of the following table:

<18%	0%
≥18%	100%

This award will remain at risk through 2020.

The Company will continue to evaluate equity vehicles for the 2019 program to remain responsive to market practice while continuing to provide appropriate incentives to drive shareholder value creation.

Stock Ownership Guidelines

As of December 31, 2018, all officers subject to stock ownership guidelines, including the NEOs, are in compliance with the guidelines.

The Company continues to believe that requiring executive ownership of Company stock creates alignment between executives and shareholders and encourages executives to act to increase shareholder value. In 1996, the Company established stock ownership guidelines for its NEOs and other officers. In 2011, the Company increased the minimum ownership requirement for the CEO from 5x base salary to 6x and established a retention ratio for equity awards. The stock ownership guidelines for the current NEOs are as follows:

D.G. Macpherson	6x	Yes
Thomas B. Okray	3x	Yes
John L. Howard	3x	Yes
Paige K. Robbins	3x	Yes
Deidra C. Merriwether	3x	Yes

These stock ownership guidelines must be met within three years of being appointed an officer or assuming a new position and are reviewed annually by the Board. NEOs are required to hold exercised option shares and other stock awards until ownership requirements are met. Officers who fail to achieve these ownership levels will not be allowed to sell shares received from the vesting of equity awards until they comply with the guidelines. Shares owned directly by the officer (including those held as a joint tenant or as a tenant in common), shares owned in a self-directed IRA, shares owned or held for the benefit of a spouse or minor children, PRSUs, and RSUs are counted toward meeting the guidelines. Stock options (whether vested or unvested) and performance share awards are not counted toward meeting the ownership guidelines.

Hedging and Pledging Prohibition

The Company's Business Conduct Guidelines (which are available in the Governance section of Grainger's website at <http://www.grainger.com/investor>) prohibit employees and the Board of Directors from engaging in any financial arrangement (including, without limitation, short sales, put and call options) that establish a short position in Company stock and are designed to hedge or offset, any decrease in market value of the Company's (or its subsidiaries') equity securities. Company officers and Directors are also prohibited from pledging any Company stock as collateral for a loan or for a margin account. No Directors or executive officers have hedged or pledged any of the shares beneficially owned by them

Other Benefits

The other components of the Company's compensation program for NEOs are substantially similar to those available for most of the Company's other employees, other than the benefits discussed in this section. This includes the same health and welfare benefits and the same performance-based retirement profit sharing contribution methodology that is applied to the U.S.-based employees who are retirement profit sharing participants. The Company provides Supplemental Profit Sharing Plans solely to maintain an equal percentage of retirement profit sharing compensation contribution to approximately 160 employees, including NEOs, who would be subject to contribution or compensation limitations imposed on qualified plans by the Internal Revenue Code. The Company does not provide any other supplemental retirement benefits to its NEOs or other employees based in the United States.

Retirement profit sharing is the primary Company-sponsored retirement vehicle for U.S.-based employees. Retirement profit sharing aligns the interests of the Company's employees, management, and shareholders as the Company's annual contribution to retirement profit sharing is based on ROIC. The Company contributes a minimum of 8% of payroll to the plan and provides employees the opportunity to share in the success of the Company beyond this amount only if a threshold return on capital is achieved. The Company's Profit Sharing Plan includes a 401(k) feature for all U.S.-based employees, including the NEOs. Of the 8% Company contribution, the first 3% (which is funded from the retirement profit sharing pool) will go into the 401(k).

Effective April 2011, the Company requires that the NEOs and certain other Company officers have periodic physical examinations that are paid for by the Company. The Company believes that periodic physical exams are helpful in maintaining the effectiveness of its executive talent. There are currently 11 participants in the program.

Messrs. Macpherson and Howard and certain other Company officers have grandfathered participation in the Company's Executive Death Benefit Plan that was discontinued effective December 31, 2009. The beneficiary of a participant who dies while employed by the Company is entitled to a taxable benefit of 120 monthly payments of 50% of the participant's monthly compensation, calculated on the basis of salary and target annual incentive. The Company's policy is that, unless offered to other employees, it will not make payments, grants, or awards following the death of an executive in the form of unearned salary or unearned bonuses, accelerated vesting or the continuation in force of unvested equity grants, awards or un-granted equity, perquisites, and other payments or awards made in lieu of compensation.

Officers are allowed the business use of corporate aircraft, which is chartered by the Company from a third party provider on an as needed basis. Officers also are allowed the business use of a car and driver, while Mr. Macpherson is allowed personal use of a car and driver, subject to reimbursement of the incremental cost of use. These benefits represent a cost-effective method of allowing the Company's top executives to more effectively use their time. All other benefits, including the retirement profit sharing contribution percentages and various welfare benefits provided to U.S. NEOs and other executive officers, are comparable to those provided to the majority of salaried and hourly U.S.-based Company employees.
