PROSPECTUS
$69,300,000
9.5% Senior Secured Notes due 2015

$9,625,000

U.S. Concrete, Inc.

Offer to Exchange

Up to $69,300,000 aggregate principal amount of 9.5% Senior Secured Notes due 2015 which have been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 for all $55,000,000 aggregate principal amount of outstanding 9.5% Convertible Secured Notes due 2015.

We hereby offer, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this prospectus and the accompanying letter of transmittal & consent (which together constitute the “exchange offer”), to exchange up to $69,300,000 aggregate principal amount of our registered 9.5% Senior Secured Notes due 2015 (the “New Senior Notes”) for all $55,000,000 aggregate principal amount of our outstanding 9.5% Convertible Secured Notes due 2015 (the “Old Convertible Notes”) (in each case, assuming full participation in the exchange offer). The terms of the New Senior Notes will materially differ from the terms of the Old Convertible Notes, including without limitation the fact that the New Senior Notes, unlike the Old Convertible Notes, will not be convertible into our common equity.

The New Senior Notes will bear interest at a rate of 9.5% per annum. Interest on the New Senior Notes, unlike the Old Convertible Notes, will be payable semiannually in arrears on April 1 and October 1, commencing on October 1, 2013. The New Senior Notes will mature on October 1, 2015 (the “maturity date”), unless earlier repurchased or redeemed. We may redeem some or all of the New Senior Notes in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, at (1) 100% of their outstanding principal amount, together with any accrued and unpaid interest, through December 31, 2013, (2) 102% of their outstanding principal amount, together with any accrued and unpaid interest, from January 1, 2014, through December 31, 2014, and (3) 103% of their outstanding principal amount, together with any accrued and unpaid interest, from January 1, 2015 through the maturity date.

The New Senior Notes and the guarantees thereof, like the Old Convertible Notes and guarantees thereof, will rank equally in right of payment with all of our existing and future senior indebtedness. Our obligations under the New Senior Notes, like the Old Convertible Notes, will be guaranteed on a senior secured basis by substantially all of our subsidiaries located in the United States (the “guarantors”) as described herein. The New Senior Notes and the guarantees thereof, like the Old Convertible Notes and guarantees thereof, will be secured by first-priority liens on certain of the property and assets directly owned by us and each of the guarantors, including material owned real property, fixtures, intellectual property, capital stock of subsidiaries and certain equipment, subject to permitted liens and certain exceptions, and by a second-priority lien on our and the guarantors’ assets securing our asset-based revolving credit facility (the “Revolving Facility”) on a first-priority basis, including inventory (including as-extracted collateral), accounts, certain specified mixer trucks, chattel paper, general intangibles (other than collateral securing the New Senior Notes on a first-priority basis), instruments, documents, cash, deposit accounts, securities accounts, commodities accounts, letter of credit rights and all supporting obligations and related books and records and all proceeds and products of the foregoing, subject to permitted liens and certain exceptions. The New Senior Notes and the guarantees thereof, like the Old Convertible Notes and guarantees thereof, will be effectively subordinated to all indebtedness and other obligations, including trade payables, of each of our existing and future subsidiaries that are not guarantors.

In connection with the exchange offer, we are soliciting consents to amend the indenture and security documents governing the Old Convertible Notes, and the related intercreditor agreement (the "Amendments"). The Amendments will eliminate substantially all of the restrictive covenants and certain events of default contained in the indenture governing the Old Convertible Notes and provide for a release of all of the liens on the collateral securing the Old Convertible Notes and the related guarantees under the indenture and the security documents governing the Old Convertible Notes (as so amended, the Old Convertible Notes will be the "Amended Convertible Notes"). If you hold Old Convertible Notes and decline to exchange them in the exchange offer, you will, upon the consummation of the exchange offer, hold Amended Convertible Notes instead of Old Convertible Notes by operation of the Amendments. Subject to the terms and conditions described in this prospectus, we will exchange any and all Old Convertible Notes that are validly tendered and not properly withdrawn prior to 12:00 midnight, New York City time, on March 21, 2013, unless extended. You may withdraw Old Convertible Notes tendered in the exchange offer at any time prior to the expiration date. Consents may be revoked at any time prior to the expiration date. Consents may be revoked only by withdrawing the related Old Convertible Notes and the withdrawal of any Old Convertible Notes will automatically constitute a revocation of the related consents.

Our common stock is listed on NasdaqCM under the symbol "USCR." As of the date of this prospectus, $55,000,000 aggregate principal amount of the Old Convertible Notes is outstanding. We have not applied, and do not intend to apply, for listing the Old Convertible Notes, the New Senior Notes or the Amended Convertible Notes on any national securities exchange or automated quotation system.

You should carefully consider the risk factors beginning on page 11 of this prospectus before participating in this exchange offer, including without limitation the consequences of failure to exchange described on pages 19 and 40 of this prospectus.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of these securities or passed upon the adequacy or accuracy of this prospectus. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

Our Company

We are a major producer of ready-mixed concrete in select markets in the United States. We operate our business through two segments: our ready-mixed concrete segment and our aggregate products segment. We are a leading producer of ready-mixed concrete in substantially all the markets in which we have operations. Ready-mixed concrete products are important building materials that are used in a vast majority of commercial, residential and public works construction projects.

All of our operations are in (and all of our sales are made within) the United States. We operate principally in Texas, California and New Jersey/New York, with those markets representing approximately 41%, 28%, and 18%, respectively, of our consolidated revenues for the year ended December 31, 2012. According to publicly available industry information, those states represented a total of 30% of the consumption of ready-mixed concrete in the United States in 2012 (Texas: 16%; California: 10%; and New Jersey/New York: 4%). Our total revenue from continuing operations for the year ended December 31, 2012 was $531.0 million, of which we derived approximately 89.2% from our ready-mixed concrete segment, 3.4% from our aggregate products segment and 7.4% from our other operations. For more information on our consolidated revenues and results of operations for the years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011 and our consolidated total assets as of December 31, 2012 and 2011, see our Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere in this prospectus.

As of December 31, 2012, we had 101 fixed and 11 portable ready-mixed concrete plants and seven aggregates facilities. During 2012, these plants and facilities produced approximately 4.8 million cubic yards of ready-mixed concrete and 3.3 million tons of aggregates. We lease two other aggregates facilities to third parties and retain a royalty on production from those facilities.

On August 2, 2012, we executed a definitive asset purchase agreement to sell substantially all of the Company's California precast operations to Oldcastle Precast, Inc. ("Oldcastle"). The assets purchased by Oldcastle included certain facilities, fixed assets, and working capital items. The transaction was completed on August 20, 2012.

On September 14, 2012, we purchased four ready-mixed concrete plants and related assets and inventory from Colorado River Concrete L.P., Cindy & Robin Concrete, L.P. and E&R Artecona Family Limited Partnership (collectively, "CRC") in our west Texas market. The purchase of these assets allows us to expand our business in two of our major markets: west Texas and north Texas.

On October 30, 2012, we completed the acquisition of all the outstanding equity interests of Bode Gravel Co., a California subchapter S corporation ("Bode Gravel"), and Bode Concrete LLC, a California limited liability company ("Bode Concrete," and together with Bode Gravel, the "Bode Companies"), pursuant to an equity purchase agreement, dated October 17, 2012. Bode Gravel and Bode Concrete operate two ready-mixed concrete plants, one new portable plant and 41 mixer trucks in the San Francisco area and produced approximately 243,000 cubic yards of ready-mixed concrete in 2011.

On December 17, 2012, we completed the sale of substantially all of our assets associated with our Smith Precast operations ("Smith") located in Phoenix, Arizona, to Jensen Enterprises, Inc., dba Jensen Precast ("Jensen"). The assets purchased by Jensen included certain facilities, fixed assets and working capital items. In addition, Jensen assumed the obligations of a capital lease previously held by Smith.

Our Business

Our ready-mixed concrete segment engages principally in the formulation, preparation and delivery of ready-mixed concrete to the job sites of our customers. Ready-mixed concrete is a highly versatile construction material that results from combining coarse and fine aggregates, such as gravel, crushed stone and sand, with water, various chemical admixtures and cement. We also provide services intended to reduce our customers' overall construction costs by lowering the installed, or "in-place," cost of concrete. These services include the formulation of mixtures for specific design uses, on-site and lab-based product quality control, and customized delivery programs to meet our customers' needs. We generally do not provide paving or other finishing services, which construction contractors or subcontractors typically perform. We provide our ready-mixed concrete from our operations in north and west Texas, northern California, New Jersey, New York, Washington, D.C. and Oklahoma.

Our aggregate products segment produces crushed stone, sand and gravel from seven aggregates facilities located in New Jersey and Texas. We sell these aggregates for use in commercial, industrial and public works projects in the markets they serve, as well as consume them internally in the production of ready-mixed concrete in those markets. We produced approximately 3.3 million tons of aggregates in 2012 from these facilities with Texas producing 48% and New Jersey 52% of that total production. We believe our aggregates reserves provide us with additional raw materials sourcing flexibility and supply availability, although they provide us with a minimal supply of our annual consumption of aggregates. In addition, we have agreements to lease our sand pit operations in Michigan and one quarry in West Texas for which we receive a royalty based on the volume of product produced and sold during the terms of the leases.

The sale of our California and Arizona precast operations during 2012 represented a disposal of a significant majority of our previously reported precast operating segment. These disposals were part of our strategy to become the premier focused domestic supplier of ready-mixed concrete in the United States. As such, during the fourth quarter of 2012, we made changes to better align our operating and reportable segments with our overall strategy and the manner in which we organize and manage our business. Our two reportable segments now include ready-mixed concrete and aggregate products as described below. Historical segment results have been reclassified to conform with these changes.

We derive substantially all of our revenues from the sale of ready-mixed concrete and aggregate products to the construction industry in the United States. We typically sell our products under purchase orders that require us to formulate, prepare and deliver the product to our customers' job sites. The principal states in which we operate are Texas, California and New Jersey/New York. Revenue by principal location, as a percentage of revenue from continuing operations, was as follows:

North and west Texas	41	%	37	%
New Jersey/New York	18	%	21	%

We serve substantially all segments of the construction industry in our markets. Our customers include contractors for commercial and industrial, residential, street and highway and other public works construction. The approximate percentages of our concrete product revenue by type of construction activity were as follows in 2012 and 2011:

Commercial and industrial	52	%	67	%
Residential	20	%	16	%
Street, highway and other public works	28	%	17	%

The geographic markets for our products are generally local, and our operating results are subject to fluctuations in the level and mix of construction activity that occur in our markets. The level of activity affects the demand for our products, while the product mix of activity among the various segments of the construction industry affects both our relative competitive strengths and our operating margins. Commercial and industrial projects generally provide more opportunities to sell value-added products that are designed to meet the high-performance requirements of these types of projects.

Our customers are generally involved in the construction industry, which is a cyclical business and is subject to general and more localized economic conditions, including the recessionary conditions impacting all our markets. In addition, our business is impacted by seasonal variations in weather conditions, which vary by regional market. Accordingly, demand for our products and services during the winter months are typically lower than in other months of the year because of inclement weather. Also, sustained periods of inclement weather and other adverse weather conditions could cause the delay of construction projects during other times of the year.

The Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation

The material terms of the exchange offer and the consent solicitation are summarized below. In addition, we urge you to read the detailed descriptions in the sections of this prospectus entitled “The Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation.”

Securities Subject to the Exchange Offer	All of our outstanding 9.5% Convertible Secured Notes due 2015, which were issued on August 31, 2010. As of the date of this prospectus, $55,000,000 aggregate principal amount of our Old Convertible Notes is outstanding, of which approximately $34,692,000 aggregate principal amount has been tendered and not withdrawn.
The Exchange Offer	We are offering, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this prospectus and the accompanying letter of transmittal & consent, to exchange up to all of our outstanding Old Convertible Notes for $1,260 in principal amount of our 9.5% Senior Secured Notes due 2015 per $1,000 of principal amount of Old Convertible Notes. The Old Convertible Notes may be tendered and Consents may be delivered only in principal amounts equal to minimum denominations of $1,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof. No alternative, conditional or contingent tenders will be accepted.
The Consent Solicitation	As part of the exchange offer, we are soliciting the consent of the holders of the requisite aggregate principal amount of outstanding Old Convertible Notes to make amendments (the “Amendments”) to the indenture (the “Old Convertible Note Indenture”) and the security documents (the “Old Convertible Note Security Documents”) governing the Old Convertible Notes and to the related Intercreditor Agreement governing the priority of the liens securing our debt (the “Intercreditor Agreement”). A holder of Old Convertible Notes may not consent to the Amendments without tendering their Old Convertible Notes for exchange and may not tender their Old Convertible Notes for exchange without consenting to the Amendments.
Proposed Amendments	The Amendments would eliminate substantially all of the restrictive covenants contained in the Old Convertible Note Indenture and certain events of default and provide for a release (the “Collateral Release”) of all of the liens on the collateral securing the Old Convertible Notes and securing the related guarantees under the Old Convertible Note Indenture and the Old Convertible Note Security Documents. The Amendments would provide that the liens that formerly secured the Old Convertible Notes would instead secure the New Senior Notes, and would increase the maximum priority secured debt amount of the lenders under the Revolving Facility. See “The Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation—Amendments.”
Accrued and Unpaid Interest

Holders whose Old Convertible Notes are accepted for exchange will be entitled to receive a cash payment for accrued and unpaid interest on the Old Convertible Notes to, but excluding, the settlement date.

Expiration; Withdrawal of Tenders and Revocation of Consent

This exchange offer and consent solicitation will expire at 12:00 midnight, New York City time, March 21, 2013, or such later date and time to which we extend it. Subject to the requirements of the Exchange and Consent Agreements (as defined below), we may extend the expiration date for the exchange offer. A tender of Old Convertible Notes pursuant to this exchange offer may be withdrawn at any time prior to the expiration date, and such withdrawal will constitute a concurrent valid revocation of the related consent. Any Old Convertible Notes not accepted for exchange for any reason will be returned without expense to the tendering holder promptly after the expiration or termination of this exchange offer, and will remain outstanding as Amended Convertible Notes.

Settlement Dates

The New Senior Notes issued pursuant to this exchange offer will be delivered promptly following the expiration date to the holders whose Old Convertible Notes have been validly tendered and not properly withdrawn.

Conditions to this Exchange Offer

This exchange offer is subject to, among other things, the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part and certain other customary conditions, some of which we may waive, subject to the requirements of the Exchange and Consent Agreements. In addition, this exchange offer is conditioned on (1) at least 82.5% of the outstanding principal amount of Old Convertible Notes being validly tendered and not properly withdrawn (the "Minimum Tender Condition"), (2) the consent of the holders of at least 66 2/3% of the outstanding Old Convertible Notes not held by our affiliates (the "Minimum Consent Condition") and (3) the consent of the Revolving Facility Agent (as defined below) to the amendments to the Intercreditor Agreement. Some or all of these conditions may be waived by the Company subject to the terms and conditions of the Exchange and Consent Agreements. See “The Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation—Conditions to this Exchange Offer.”

For the purposes of the Minimum Consent Condition, the term "affiliates" refers to "Affiliates" of the Company as such term is used in the Old Convertible Note Indenture, and means any person which directly or indirectly controls or is controlled by, or is under direct or indirect common control with, the Company. For these purposes, “control” means the power to direct management and policies of the Company, directly or indirectly, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise.

If you wish to accept this exchange offer, you must complete, sign and date the accompanying letter of transmittal & consent, or a copy of the letter of transmittal & consent, according to the instructions contained in this prospectus and the letter of transmittal & consent. You must also mail or otherwise deliver the letter of transmittal & consent, or the copy, together with the Old Convertible Notes and any other required documents, to the Exchange and Information Agent at the address set forth on the cover of the letter of transmittal & consent. If you hold Old Convertible Notes through The Depository Trust Company (“DTC”) and wish to participate in this exchange offer, you must comply with the Automated Tender Offer Program ("ATOP") procedures of DTC, by which you will agree to be bound by the letter of transmittal & consent. By using the ATOP procedures to tender Old Convertible Notes, you will not be required to deliver a letter of transmittal & consent to the Exchange and Information Agent. However, you will be bound by the terms of the letter of transmittal & consent.

Procedures for Tendering Old Convertible Notes

You are urged to instruct your broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee as soon as possible in order to allow adequate processing time for your instruction prior to the expiration date.

Consequences of Failure to Exchange

If the Amendments become operative, the Old Convertible Notes that are not exchanged pursuant to the exchange offer will be subject to the terms of the Old Convertible Note Indenture as modified by the supplemental indenture effecting the Amendments and will remain outstanding as Amended Convertible Notes. Among other things, as a result of the adoption of the Amendments, substantially all of the restrictive covenants contained in the Old Convertible Note Indenture (and related references in the Old Convertible Notes) and certain events of default and related provisions with respect to the Old Convertible Notes will be eliminated and holders of Amended Convertible Notes will not be entitled to the benefits of such covenants or events of default. Further, as a result of the Amendments, holders of the Amended Convertible Notes will not be entitled to a security interest in any assets of the Company or the guarantors. The elimination of these covenants and events of default and security interest will permit the Company to take certain actions previously prohibited that could increase the credit risks with respect to the Company, adversely affect the market price and credit rating of the Amended Convertible Notes as described above or otherwise be materially adverse to the interests of holders of the Amended Convertible Notes, which would otherwise not have been permitted pursuant to the Old Convertible Note Indenture prior to the Amendments.

In addition, the outstanding principal amount of the Old Convertible Notes will be reduced if we consummate the exchange offer. This may adversely affect the liquidity of, and consequently market price for, Amended Convertible Notes. Furthermore, as a result of the Amendments, with respect to the interests in the assets securing the New Senior Notes, the Amended Convertible Notes and related guarantees will be effectively junior to the New Senior Notes and related guarantees.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations

The Exchange will be treated as a taxable transaction. For a summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the exchange offer, see “Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations.”

Use of Proceeds

Exchange and Consent Agreements

We have separately negotiated and entered into exchange and consent agreements with two holders (and their affiliates) of Old Convertible Notes who, as of the date hereof, in the aggregate hold approximately 63.1% of the outstanding principal amount of the Old Convertible Notes (the “Exchange and Consent Agreements”). Pursuant to the terms of the Exchange and Consent Agreements, these holders of Old Convertible Notes have agreed, subject to certain conditions, to tender all of their Old Convertible Notes in the exchange offer and consent to the Amendments. Pursuant to the terms of the Exchange and Consent Agreements, the exchange offer must be consummated prior to April 10, 2013. See “The Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation—Exchange and Consent Agreements.”

Ranking	The New Senior Notes, like the Old Convertible Notes, will be our and the guarantors' senior secured obligations and will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • rank equally in right of payment to all of our and the guarantors' existing and future senior indebtedness; • rank senior in right of payment to all of our and the guarantors' future subordinated indebtedness; • be effectively subordinated to all of our and the guarantors' obligations under the Revolving Facility, to the extent of the value of collateral securing those obligations on a first-priority basis; • be effectively senior to all our and the guarantors' obligations under the Revolving Facility, to the extent of the value of collateral securing the New Senior Notes on a first-priority basis; and • be structurally subordinated to indebtedness and other liabilities of any future non-guarantor subsidiaries.
Collateral	The New Senior Notes and related guarantees will be secured by first-priority liens on certain of the property and assets directly owned by us and each of the guarantors, including material owned real property, fixtures, intellectual property, capital stock of subsidiaries and certain equipment, subject to permitted liens (including a second-priority lien in favor of the administrative agent under the Revolving Facility (the "Revolving Facility Agent")) and certain exceptions (as described in the security documents governing the New Senior Notes (collectively, the "Security Documents")). Obligations under the Revolving Facility and those in respect of hedging and cash management obligations owed to the lenders (and their affiliates) party to the Revolving Facility (collectively, the "Revolving Facility Obligations") will be secured by a second-priority lien on such collateral.

The New Senior Notes and related guarantees will also be secured by a second-priority lien on our and the guarantors' assets securing the Revolving Facility Obligations on a first-priority basis, including inventory (including as-extracted collateral), accounts, certain specified mixer trucks, chattel paper, general intangibles (other than collateral securing the New Senior Notes on a first-priority basis), instruments, documents, cash, deposit accounts, securities accounts, commodities accounts, letter of credit rights and all supporting obligations and related books and records and all proceeds and products of the foregoing, subject to permitted liens and certain exceptions, as described in the Security Documents.

A material portion of the collateral that will secure the New Senior Notes secures the Revolving Facility Obligations on a first-priority basis and will secure the New Senior Notes on a second-priority basis. The remaining collateral that will secure the New Senior Notes (on a first-priority basis) also secures the Revolving Facility Obligations on a second-priority basis. See "Risk Factors—Risks Related to the New Senior Notes—There may not be sufficient collateral to pay all or any of the New Senior Notes."

The indenture that will govern the New Senior Notes (the “Indenture”) and the Security Documents will provide that any capital stock and other securities of any of our subsidiaries will be excluded from the collateral to the extent the inclusion of such capital stock in the collateral would cause such subsidiary to be required to file separate financial statements with the SEC pursuant to Rule 3-16 of Regulation S-X. In accordance with the collateral cutback provision, the collateral that will secure the New Senior Notes will include capital stock only to the extent that the applicable value of such capital stock is less than 20% of the principal amount of the New Senior Notes outstanding. The applicable value of the capital stock of any subsidiary is deemed to be the greatest of its par value, book value or market value. The list of subsidiaries whose capital stock is subject to the foregoing exclusion, and the extent to which their capital stock is excluded, was determined based upon internal company estimates of fair value and did not include third-party valuation of the subsidiaries, and should not be considered an indication as to what such subsidiaries might be able to be sold for in the market. This list and extent of the exclusion may change as the applicable value of such capital stock or the outstanding principal amount of New Senior Notes changes. See “Risk Factors—Risks Related to the New Senior Notes—The New Senior Notes will not be secured by a portion of the capital stock of any foreign subsidiaries or of certain domestic companies,” and “Description of the Notes.”

Intercreditor Agreement

In connection with the issuance of the Old Convertible Notes, we and the guarantors had entered into an intercreditor agreement with the collateral agent under the Old Convertible Note Security Documents (the “Old Collateral Agent”) and the Revolving Facility Agent. In connection with the exchange offer, the Intercreditor Agreement will be amended to reflect the elimination of the security interests of the Old Convertible Notes in our and the guarantors’ assets, which security interests will instead secure the New Senior Notes. The Amended Convertible Notes will be unsecured.

The Intercreditor Agreement will set forth the terms on which the Revolving Facility Agent and the collateral agent under the Security Documents (the “New Collateral Agent,” and the term “Collateral Agent” as used herein shall refer to the New Collateral Agent or Old Collateral Agent as context dictates) are permitted to receive, hold, administer, maintain, enforce and distribute the proceeds of their respective liens upon the collateral. The Intercreditor Agreement will grant (1) to the Revolving Facility Agent, the exclusive right to enforce rights, exercise remedies (including setoff) and make determinations regarding the release or disposition of, or restrictions on, the collateral that secures the Revolving Facility Obligations on a first-priority basis and (2) to the Collateral Agent under the Security Documents, the exclusive right to enforce rights, exercise remedies (including setoff) and make determinations regarding the release or disposition of, or restrictions on, the collateral that will secure the New Senior Notes on a first-priority basis, in each case subject to limitations described therein, which limitations include an access right of the Revolving Facility Agent to exercise remedies in respect of its assets located on real property on which the Collateral Agent has a first-priority lien under the Security Documents.

The Amendments, if and when given effect, will include amendments to the Intercreditor Agreement to increase the “ABL Cap Amount” (as defined therein) from $80.0 million to $102.5 million (plus an additional $10.25 million that may be used solely in a limited circumstance), to reflect the release of collateral securing the Old Convertible Notes, and to provide for the liens that formerly secured the Old Convertible Notes to instead secure the New Senior Notes. Following the consummation of the Amendments and the subsequent closing of the exchange offer, we will seek to increase the commitments under the Revolving Facility to an amount not to exceed $102.5 million.

See “Description of the Notes—Intercreditor Agreement” for information regarding certain terms of the Intercreditor Agreement.

Optional Redemption	Unlike the Old Convertible Notes, we may redeem some or all of the New Senior Notes in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, at (1) 100% of their outstanding principal amount, together with any accrued and unpaid interest, through December 31, 2013, (2) 102% of their outstanding principal amount, together with any accrued and unpaid interest, from January 1, 2014, through December 31, 2014, and (3) 103% of their outstanding principal amount, together with any accrued and unpaid interest, from January 1, 2015 through the maturity date. See “Description of the Notes—Redemption—Optional Redemption.”
Change of Control	If we experience a Change of Control (as defined in the Indenture), the holders of New Senior Notes will have the right to require us to repurchase their New Senior Notes in cash at par plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon. We will comply, to the extent applicable, with the requirements of Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act and any other securities laws or regulations in connection with the repurchase of New Senior Notes in the event of a change of control. See “Description of the Notes—Purchase at the Option of Holders Upon a Change of Control” and “Risk Factors.”
Restrictive Covenants	The Indenture, like the Old Convertible Note Indenture, will contain certain covenants that, among other things, limit our ability and the ability of our restricted subsidiaries to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• incur additional indebtedness or issue disqualified stock or preferred stock;• pay dividends or make other distributions or repurchase or redeem our stock or subordinated indebtedness or make investments;• sell assets and issue capital stock of our restricted subsidiaries;• incur liens;• make certain investments;• enter into agreements restricting our restricted subsidiaries’ ability to pay dividends;• enter into transactions with affiliates;• consolidate, merge or sell all or substantially all of our assets; and• designate our subsidiaries as unrestricted subsidiaries.
Absence of Public Market	These limitations are subject to a number of exceptions and qualifications. See “Description of the Notes—Certain Covenants.” We have not applied, and do not intend to apply, for listing of the New Senior Notes on a national securities exchange or automated quotation system.
Book-Entry Form	The New Senior Notes will be issued in book-entry form, which means that they will be represented by one or more permanent global securities registered in the name of DTC or its nominee. The global securities will be deposited with U.S. Bank National Association, as trustee under the Indenture (or its duly appointed successor, as the case may be, the “Trustee”), as custodian for the depositary. The New Senior Notes will be issued in denominations of $1.00 and integral multiples of $1.00 in excess thereof. See “Book-Entry, Delivery and Form.”

Risk Factors

An investment in the New Senior Notes involves substantial risks. See “Risk Factors” immediately following this summary for a discussion of certain risks relating to an investment in the New Senior Notes.

Summary of the Terms of the Old Convertible Notes, as amended by the Amendments

Issuer	U.S. Concrete, Inc.
Maturity Date	August 31, 2015.
Interest	9.5% per annum, payable quarterly in cash in arrears on March 1, June 1, September 1 and December 1, commencing June 1, 2013.
Guarantees	The Amended Convertible Notes will remain unconditionally guaranteed by each of the guarantors under the Revolving Facility. As of the date of this prospectus, all of our subsidiaries are guarantors.
Ranking	The Amended Convertible Notes will be unsecured, unlike the Old Convertible Notes, and will: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• rank equally in right of payment to all of our and the guarantors' existing and future senior indebtedness;• rank senior in right of payment to all of our and the guarantors' future subordinated indebtedness;• be effectively subordinated to all of our and the guarantors' obligations under the Revolving Facility, to the extent of the value of collateral securing those obligations;• be effectively subordinated to all of our and the guarantors' obligations under the Indenture and the New Senior Notes, to the extent of the value of collateral securing those obligations; and• be structurally subordinated to indebtedness and other liabilities of any future non-guarantor subsidiaries.
Conversion Rights	The Amended Convertible Notes, like the Old Convertible Notes, will be convertible, at the option of the holder, at any time on or prior to maturity, into shares of our common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the "Common Stock"), at an initial conversion rate of 95.23809524 shares of Common Stock per $1,000 principal amount of the Amended Convertible Notes (as may be adjusted from time to time, the "conversion rate"). Holders of the Amended Convertible Notes, like holders of the Old Convertible Notes, will have the right to convert all or any portion of their Amended Convertible Notes into the number of shares of Common Stock equal to the principal amount of the Amended Convertible Notes to be converted divided by the conversion rate then in effect. The conversion rate will be subject to adjustment to prevent dilution resulting from stock splits, stock dividends, combinations or similar events. There will be no limitation as to the principal amount of the Amended Convertible Notes you will be able to convert at any time.

In connection with any conversion, holders of the Amended Convertible Notes to be converted will also have the right to receive accrued and unpaid interest on such Amended Convertible Notes to the date of conversion (the "Accrued Interest"). We may elect to pay the Accrued Interest in cash or in shares of Common Stock. If we elect to satisfy our obligation to pay the Accrued Interest in shares, the number of shares issuable shall be determined by dividing the Accrued Interest by 95% of the trailing 10-day volume-weighted average price of the Common Stock.

Additional Conversion Rights

The Amended Convertible Notes, like the Old Convertible Notes, will be subject to conversion into Common Stock at our option if the closing price of the Common Stock exceeds 150% of the Conversion Price (as defined below) then in effect for at least 20 trading days during any consecutive 30-day trading period (a "Conversion Event"). "Conversion Price" means, per share of Common Stock, $1,000 divided by the applicable conversion rate, subject to adjustment. As of the date of this prospectus, the Conversion Price is approximately $10.50.

Collateral; Restrictive Covenants	The Amendments, if given effect, will eliminate substantially all of the restrictive covenants contained in the Old Convertible Note Indenture and certain events of default and provide for a release of all of the liens on the collateral securing the Old Convertible Notes and the related guarantees under the Old Convertible Note Indenture and the Old Convertible Note Security Documents. As a result, the Amended Convertible Notes, unlike the Old Convertible Notes, will not have any security interest and will lack substantially all of the restrictive covenants and events of default currently provided for in the Old Convertible Note Indenture. See "The Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation—Amendments."
Absence of Public Market	We have not applied, and do not intend to apply, for listing of the Amended Convertible Notes on a national securities exchange or automated quotation system.
Book-Entry Form	The Amended Convertible Notes will remain in book-entry form, which means that they will continue to be represented by one or more permanent global securities registered in the name of DTC or its nominee. The global securities have been deposited with U.S. Bank National Association, as trustee under the Old Convertible Note Indenture, as amended by the supplemental indenture implementing the Amendments (or its duly appointed successor, as the case may be), as custodian for the depositary. The Amended Convertible Notes will remain issued in denominations of $1,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof. See "Description of the Old Convertible Notes, as Amended by the Amendments—Book-Entry; Delivery and Form."
Risk Factors	The Amended Convertible Notes will entail certain risks. See "Risk Factors" immediately following this summary.

RISK FACTORS

Participating or not participating in the exchange offer involves substantial risks. In addition to the other information in this prospectus, you should carefully read and consider the risk factors set forth below and elsewhere in this prospectus before deciding to participate or not to participate in the exchange offer. Any such risks could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and liquidity. The price of the New Senior Notes could decline or our ability to make payments with respect to the New Senior Notes could be affected if one or more of these risks and uncertainties develop into actual events, causing you to lose all or part of your investment in the New Senior Notes. Certain statements in the “Risk Factors” section below are forward-looking statements. See “Forward-Looking Statements.”

Risks Related to the New Senior Notes

Our substantial indebtedness could adversely affect our financial condition and prevent us from fulfilling our obligations under the New Senior Notes.

Assuming full participation in the exchange offer, we will have approximately $69.3 million of outstanding senior indebtedness represented by the newly issued New Senior Notes.

Assuming the Amendments become effective, we will seek to increase the commitments under the Revolving Facility to an amount not to exceed $102.5 million. The Amendments include an increase in the ABL Cap Amount to $102.5 million (plus an additional $10.25 million that may be used solely in a limited circumstance). The Revolving Facility provides for overadvances and involuntary protective advances by the Revolving Facility lenders of up to $8.0 million in excess of the Revolving Facility commitments. In connection with an increase in Revolving Facility commitments to $102.5 million, the Revolving Facility lenders may require an increase in the maximum amount of overadvances and involuntary protective advances. As of December 31, 2012, we had approximately $13.3 million drawn under the Revolving Facility.

The negative covenants in the New Senior Notes will, and the negative covenants in the Revolving Facility do, allow us to incur additional indebtedness from other sources in certain circumstances.

As a result of our existing indebtedness and our capacity to incur additional indebtedness, we are, and anticipate continuing to be, a highly leveraged company. This level of indebtedness could have important consequences to holders of the New Senior Notes, including the following:

- it limits our ability to borrow money or sell stock to fund our working capital, capital expenditures, acquisitions and debt service requirements;
- our interest expense could increase if interest rates in general increase because a portion of our indebtedness bears interest at floating rates;
- it may limit our flexibility in planning for, or reacting to, changes in our business and future business opportunities;
- we are more highly leveraged than some of our competitors, which may place us at a competitive disadvantage;
- it may make us more vulnerable to a downturn in our business or the economy;
- the debt service requirements of our indebtedness could make it more difficult for us to make payments on the New Senior Notes and the Amended Convertible Notes;
- a substantial portion of our cash flow from operations will be dedicated to the repayment of our indebtedness, including indebtedness we may incur in the future, and will not be available for other purposes; and
- there would be a material adverse effect on our business and financial condition if we were unable to service our indebtedness or obtain additional financing, as needed.

It is possible we may not be able to generate sufficient cash flow from operations in the future to allow us to service our debt, pay our other obligations as required and make necessary capital expenditures, in which case we may need to dispose of additional assets and/or minimize capital expenditures and/or try to raise additional financing. There is no assurance that any of these alternatives would be available to us, if at all, on satisfactory terms.

We may not be able to generate sufficient cash flows to meet our debt service obligations.

Our ability to make payments on and to refinance our indebtedness, including the New Senior Notes, and to fund planned capital expenditures will depend on our ability to generate cash from our operations in the future. This, to a certain extent, is subject to general economic, financial, competitive, legislative, regulatory and other factors that are beyond our control.

Our business may not generate sufficient cash flow from operations and future sources of capital under the Revolving Facility or otherwise may not be available to us in an amount sufficient to enable us to pay our indebtedness, including the New Senior Notes, or to fund our other liquidity needs. If we complete an acquisition, our debt service requirements could increase. We may need to refinance or restructure all or a portion of our indebtedness, including the New Senior Notes, on or before maturity. We may not be able to refinance any of our indebtedness, including the Revolving Facility, the New Senior Notes and any Amended Convertible Notes, on commercially reasonable terms, or at all. If we cannot service our indebtedness, we may have to take actions such as selling assets, seeking additional equity or reducing or delaying capital expenditures, strategic acquisitions, investments and alliances. We may not be able to effect such actions, if necessary, on commercially reasonable terms, or at all.

There may not be sufficient collateral to pay all or any of the New Senior Notes.

The Revolving Facility Obligations are secured by first-priority liens on certain of our assets, including inventory (including, as-extracted collateral), accounts receivable, certain equipment, chattel paper, general intangibles (other than collateral that will secure the New Senior Notes on a first-priority basis), instruments, cash, deposits accounts, securities accounts, letter of credit rights and all supporting obligations, subject to permitted liens and certain exceptions. The New Senior Notes and related guarantees will have a second-priority lien on such assets. The New Senior Notes will also be secured by first-priority liens on substantially all of the other property and assets directly owned by us and our guarantors, including material owned real property, fixtures, intellectual property, capital stock of subsidiaries and certain equipment, subject to permitted liens and certain exceptions. The Revolving Facility Obligations are secured by a second-priority lien on such assets.

With respect to the assets that secure the Revolving Facility Obligations on a first-priority basis, the New Senior Notes will be effectively junior to these obligations to the extent of the value of those assets. The rights of the holders of the New Senior Notes with respect to the collateral securing the New Senior Notes will be limited pursuant to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement. Under the Intercreditor Agreement, the lenders under the Revolving Facility have the ability to restrict your right to proceed against the collateral over which the Revolving Facility Agent has a first-priority lien, subject to certain limitations and exceptions.

The collateral that secures the Revolving Facility Obligations on a first-priority basis will secure the New Senior Notes on a second-priority basis and is subject to any and all exceptions, defects, encumbrances, liens and other imperfections as may be or have been accepted by the lenders under the Revolving Facility and any other holders of first-priority liens on such collateral from time to time, whether existing on or after the date the New Senior Notes were issued. The existence of such exceptions, limitations, imperfections and liens could adversely affect the value of the collateral that will secure the New Senior Notes as well as the ability of the Collateral Agent to realize or foreclose on such collateral.

The value at any time of the collateral securing the New Senior Notes will depend on market and other economic conditions, including the availability of suitable buyers. By their nature, some or all of the pledged assets may be illiquid and may have no readily ascertainable market value. The value of the assets pledged as collateral for the New Senior Notes could be impaired in the future as a result of changing economic conditions, our failure to implement our business strategy, competition or other future trends. In the event of a foreclosure, liquidation, bankruptcy or similar proceeding, the proceeds from any sale or liquidation of the collateral may not be sufficient to pay our obligations under the New Senior Notes, in full or at all, together with our obligations under any other indebtedness that is secured on an equal and ratable basis by a first-priority lien on the collateral.

Accordingly, there may not be sufficient collateral to pay all of the amounts due on the New Senior Notes. Any claim for the difference between the amount, if any, realized by holders of the New Senior Notes from the sale of collateral securing the New Senior Notes and the obligations under the New Senior Notes will rank equally in right of payment with all of our other unsecured unsubordinated indebtedness and other obligations, including trade payables.

To the extent that third parties enjoy prior liens, such third parties may have rights and remedies with respect to the property subject to such liens that, if exercised, could adversely affect the value of the collateral. The Indenture will not require that we maintain a current level of collateral or maintain a specific ratio of indebtedness to asset values. Releases of collateral from the liens securing the New Senior Notes will be permitted under some circumstances (as discussed below).

The Security Documents generally allow us and our subsidiaries to remain in possession of, retain exclusive control over, to freely operate, and to collect, invest and dispose of any income from, the collateral that will secure the New Senior Notes. In addition, to the extent we sell any assets that constitute collateral, the proceeds from any such sale will be subject to the first-priority or second-priority lien, as applicable, that will secure the New Senior Notes to which the underlying assets were subject. In addition, if we sell any of our assets that constitute collateral securing the New Senior Notes and, with the proceeds from such sale, purchase assets that would not constitute collateral, the holders of the New Senior Notes would not receive a security interest in such purchased assets.

The Indenture and the Revolving Facility will restrict our ability to operate our business and to pursue our business strategies.

The Revolving Facility and the Indenture will limit our ability, among other things, to:

- incur additional indebtedness or issue disqualified stock or preferred stock;
- pay dividends or make other distributions or repurchase or redeem our stock or subordinated indebtedness or make investments;
- with respect to the Revolving Facility, make voluntary payments on any indebtedness;
- sell assets and issue capital stock of our restricted subsidiaries;
- incur liens;
- make certain investments;
- enter into agreements restricting our restricted subsidiaries' ability to pay dividends, make loans to other U.S. Concrete entities or restrict the ability to provide liens;
- enter into transactions with affiliates;
- consolidate, merge or sell all or substantially all of our assets; and
- with respect to the Indenture, designate our subsidiaries as unrestricted subsidiaries.

There are circumstances, other than repayment or discharge of the New Senior Notes, under which the collateral securing the New Senior Notes and guarantees will be released automatically, without your consent or the consent of the Trustee.

Under various circumstances, all or a portion of the collateral may be released, including:

- in whole or in part, as applicable, as to all or any portion of property subject to such liens which have been taken by eminent domain, condemnation or other similar circumstances;
- in whole upon:
 - satisfaction and discharge of the Indenture or as otherwise set forth in the Indenture; or
 - a legal defeasance or covenant defeasance of the Indenture as described in the Indenture;
- in part, as to any property that (1) is sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of by us or any subsidiary guarantor (other than to us or another subsidiary guarantor) in a transaction not prohibited by the Indenture at the time of such sale, transfer or disposition or (2) is owned or at any time acquired by a subsidiary guarantor that has been released from its guarantee in accordance with the Indenture, concurrently with the release of such guarantee; and
- in part, in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Security Documents.

In addition, the guarantee of a subsidiary guarantor will be released in connection with a sale or merger of such subsidiary guarantor in a transaction not prohibited by the Indenture.

Our failure to comply with the covenants contained in the agreement governing the Revolving Facility (the "Credit Agreement") or the Indenture, including as a result of events beyond our control, could result in an event of default which could materially and adversely affect our operating results and our financial condition.

The Revolving Facility contains certain covenants, including compliance with a fixed charge coverage ratio if our Availability (as defined in the Credit Agreement) falls below a certain threshold. In addition, the Revolving Facility requires us to comply with various operational and other covenants. The Indenture will also contain a financial covenant for compliance with a consolidated secured debt ratio (as defined in the Indenture). See “Description of Other Indebtedness” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations—Liquidity and Capital Resources” for a discussion of the financial covenants contained in our Revolving Facility and “Description of the Notes” for a discussion of financial covenants that will be contained in the Indenture. If there were an event of default under any of our debt instruments that was not cured or waived, the holders of the defaulted debt could cause all amounts outstanding with respect to the debt to be due and payable immediately. Our assets and cash flow may not be sufficient to fully repay borrowings under our outstanding debt instruments, either upon maturity or if accelerated upon an event of default. If we were required to repurchase the New Senior Notes or any of our other debt securities upon a change of control, we may not be able to refinance or restructure the payments on those debt securities. If, as or when required, we are unable to repay, refinance or restructure our indebtedness under, or amend the covenants contained in, the Revolving Facility, the lenders thereunder could elect to terminate their commitments thereunder, cease making further loans and institute foreclosure proceedings against the collateral that secures our obligations under the Revolving Facility on a first-priority basis, which also secures the New Senior Notes on a second-priority basis. If, as or when required, we are unable to repay, refinance or restructure our indebtedness under, or amend the covenants contained in, the Indenture, the holders of the New Senior Notes could institute foreclosure proceedings against the collateral that secures the New Senior Notes on a first-priority basis, which also secures our obligations under the Revolving Facility on a second-priority basis. Any such actions could force us into bankruptcy or liquidation.

The Intercreditor Agreement will limit the rights of the holders of the New Senior Notes and their control with respect to the collateral securing the New Senior Notes.

Under the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement, at any time that obligations that have the benefit of the first-priority liens are outstanding, any actions that may be taken in respect of the related collateral, including the ability to cause the commencement of enforcement proceedings against such collateral and to control the conduct of such proceedings, and the approval of amendments to and waivers of past defaults under, the collateral documents, will be at the direction of the collateral agent for the related obligations. The Revolving Facility Agent will direct all such actions with respect to the collateral securing the Revolving Facility Obligations on a first-priority basis, for so long as such Revolving Facility Obligations are outstanding. As a result, the Collateral Agent under the Security Documents will not have the ability to control or direct such actions with respect to such collateral, even if the rights of the holders of New Senior Notes are adversely affected. Additionally, to the extent such collateral is released from securing the first-priority lien obligations, the second-priority liens securing the New Senior Notes will also automatically be released to the extent the holders of the New Senior Notes are obligated to release such liens under the Indenture.

The imposition of certain permitted liens will cause the assets on which such liens are imposed to be excluded from the collateral securing the New Senior Notes and the related guarantees. There are certain other categories of property that are also excluded from the collateral.

The Indenture will permit certain liens in favor of third parties to secure additional debt, including purchase money indebtedness and capitalized lease obligations, and any equipment subject to such liens will be automatically excluded from the collateral securing the New Senior Notes and the related guarantees to the extent the agreements governing such indebtedness prohibit additional liens. Our ability to incur purchase money indebtedness and capitalized lease obligations is subject to the limitations as described under the caption "Description of the Notes." In addition, certain categories of assets will be excluded from the collateral securing the New Senior Notes and the related guarantees, as described in the Security Documents. Excluded assets will include, but not be limited to, among other things, leaseholds (except to the extent required to perfect a security interest in as-extracted collateral included in the collateral) and the proceeds thereof. If an event of default occurs and the New Senior Notes are accelerated, the New Senior Notes and the related guarantees will rank equally with the holders of other unsubordinated and unsecured indebtedness of the relevant entity with respect to such excluded property.

The New Senior Notes will not be secured by a portion of the capital stock of any foreign subsidiaries or of certain domestic subsidiaries.

The New Senior Notes will be secured by a pledge of the stock and other securities of our direct and indirect subsidiaries, other than securities in excess of 66% of the issued and outstanding equity interests of our foreign subsidiaries or, to an extent, of certain domestic subsidiaries. Under the SEC regulations in effect on August 31, 2010, if the par value, book value as carried by us or market value (whichever is greatest) of the capital stock, other securities or similar ownership interests of one of our subsidiaries pledged as part of the collateral is greater than or equal to 20% of the aggregate principal amount of the New Senior Notes then outstanding, such subsidiary would be required to provide separate financial statements to the SEC. Therefore, the Indenture and the Security Documents will provide that any capital stock and other securities of any of our subsidiaries will be excluded from the collateral to the extent the inclusion of such capital stock in the collateral would cause such subsidiary to file separate financial statements with the SEC pursuant to Rule 3-16 of Regulation S-X.

In accordance with the collateral cutback provision, the collateral that will secure the New Senior Notes will include capital stock only to the extent that the applicable value of such capital stock is less than 20% of the principal amount of the notes outstanding. The applicable value of the capital stock of any subsidiary is deemed to be the greatest of its par value, book value or market value.

Although we have not had an external third-party market valuation conducted as to the capital stock of our subsidiaries, we estimate that the value of the capital stock of the following subsidiaries and their respective parent companies exceeded 20% of the principal amount of the Old Convertible Notes as of December 31, 2012: Redi-Mix, LLC, Ingram Concrete, LLC, Eastern Concrete

Materials, Inc., Central Concrete Supply Co., Inc., Bode Gravel Co., Bode Concrete, LLC, U.S. Concrete Texas Holdings, Inc., Alberta Investments, Inc. and USC Atlantic, Inc. As a result, the pledge of the capital stock of these subsidiaries as it relates to the Old Convertible Notes is limited to capital stock of each such subsidiary with an applicable value of less than 20% of the outstanding principal amount of the Old Convertible Notes, or $11 million.

The aggregate percentage of consolidated assets and revenues represented by these subsidiaries as of December 31, 2012 is estimated to be 86% and 90%, respectively. As described above, assets of the subsidiaries whose capital stock is subject to the exclusion have been separately pledged as security for the Old Convertible Notes. The list of subsidiaries whose capital stock is subject to the foregoing exclusion, and the extent to which their capital stock is excluded, was determined based upon internal company estimates of fair value and did not include third-party valuation of the subsidiaries, and should not be considered an indication as to what such subsidiaries might be able to be sold for in the market.

The pledge of the capital stock of our subsidiaries securing the New Senior Notes will be subject to the same collateral cutback provision. We anticipate that the list of affected subsidiaries and the extent of the exclusion will be similar to the list and extent of exclusion with respect to the pledge securing the Old Convertible Notes, but will change as the applicable value of such capital stock changes. Also, the exclusion threshold will be tied to 20% of the outstanding principal amount of the New Senior Notes. We do not know what the outstanding principal amount of the New Senior Notes will be upon the closing of the exchange offer. If all Old Convertible Notes are exchanged for New Senior Notes, there will be $69,300,000 of New Senior Notes outstanding, and the collateral cutback threshold will be $13,860,000. If the Minimum Tender Condition is met and 82.5% of the Old Convertible Notes are exchanged for New Senior Notes, there will be $57,172,500 of New Senior Notes outstanding, and the collateral cutback threshold will be $11,434,500. If New Senior Notes are repurchased or otherwise cease to be outstanding at a later date, the collateral cutback threshold would decrease.

It may be more difficult, costly and time consuming for holders of the New Senior Notes to foreclose on the assets of a subsidiary than to foreclose on its capital stock or other securities, so the proceeds realized upon any such foreclosure could be significantly less than those that would have been received upon any sale of the capital stock or other securities of such subsidiary.

State law may limit the ability of the Collateral Agent to foreclose on the real property and improvements and leasehold interests included in the collateral.

The New Senior Notes will be secured by, among other things, liens on owned real property and improvements in multiple different U.S. jurisdictions. The laws of those states may limit the ability of the Trustee and the holders of the New Senior Notes to foreclose on the improved real property collateral located in those states. Laws of those states govern the perfection, enforceability and foreclosure of mortgage liens against real property interests that secure debt obligations such as the New Senior Notes. These laws may impose procedural requirements for foreclosure different from and necessitating a longer time period for completion than the requirements for foreclosure of security interests in personal property. Debtors may have the right to reinstate defaulted debt (even if it has been accelerated) before the foreclosure date by paying the past due amounts and a right of redemption after foreclosure. Governing laws may also impose security first and one form of action rules which can affect the ability to foreclose or the timing of foreclosure on real and personal property collateral regardless of the location of the collateral and may limit the right to recover a deficiency following a foreclosure.

The holders of the New Senior Notes, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent also may be limited in their ability to enforce a breach of the "no liens" covenant. Some decisions of state courts have placed limits on a lender's ability to accelerate debt secured by real property upon breach of covenants prohibiting the creation of certain junior liens or leasehold estates or a secured lender may need to demonstrate that enforcement is reasonably necessary to protect against impairment of the lender's security or to protect against an increased risk of default. Although the foregoing court decisions may have been preempted, at least in part, by certain federal laws, the scope of such preemption, if any, is uncertain. Accordingly, a court could prevent the Trustee, the Collateral Agent and the holders of the New Senior Notes from declaring a default and accelerating the New Senior Notes by reason of a breach of this covenant, which could have a material adverse effect on the ability of holders to enforce the covenant.

Your rights in the collateral may be adversely affected by the failure to perfect security interests in certain collateral acquired in the future.

Applicable law requires that certain property and rights acquired after the grant of a general security interest can only be perfected at the time such property and rights are acquired and identified. The Trustee or the Collateral Agent may not monitor and we may not inform the Trustee or the Collateral Agent of any future acquisition of property and rights that constitute collateral and the necessary action may not be taken to properly perfect the security interest in such after acquired collateral. The Collateral Agent will have no obligation to monitor the acquisition of additional property or rights that constitute collateral or the perfection of any security interest in favor of the New Senior Notes against third parties.

The collateral is subject to casualty risks and potential environmental liabilities.

We intend to maintain insurance or otherwise insure against hazards in a manner appropriate and customary for our business. There are, however, certain losses, including those due to fires, earthquakes, severe weather conditions and other natural disasters, that may be uninsurable or not economically insurable, in whole or in part. Insurance proceeds may not compensate us fully for our losses. If there is a complete or partial loss of any of the pledged collateral, the insurance proceeds may not be sufficient to satisfy all of our secured obligations, including the New Senior Notes, the related guarantees and the Revolving Facility.

In the event of a total or partial loss to any of our facilities, certain items of equipment or inventory may not be easily replaced. Accordingly, even though there may be insurance coverage, the extended period needed to manufacture or obtain replacement units or inventory could cause significant delays.

Moreover, the Collateral Agent or the Revolving Facility Agent, as applicable, may need to evaluate the impact of potential liabilities before determining to foreclose on collateral consisting of real property because secured creditors that hold a security interest in real property may be held liable under environmental laws for the costs of remediating the release or threatened release of hazardous substances at such real property. Consequently, such agent may decline to foreclose on such collateral or exercise remedies in respect thereof if it does not receive indemnification to its satisfaction from the holders of the New Senior Notes and/or the creditors under the Revolving Facility, as applicable.

Under the Indenture governing the New Senior Notes, unlike the Old Convertible Note Indenture, we will have the right to redeem all or any part of the then outstanding New Senior Notes at any time and from time to time at our sole option.

The Indenture governing the New Senior Notes, unlike the Old Convertible Note Indenture, will provide the Company with the right to redeem all or any part of the then outstanding New Senior Notes from time to time and at any time up to the maturity date. Should we choose to exercise this right, the redemption price for the New Senior Notes would be equal to (1) 100% of their outstanding principal amount, together with any accrued and unpaid interest, through December 31, 2013, (2) 102% of their outstanding principal amount, together with any accrued and unpaid interest, from January 1, 2014, through December 31, 2014, and (3) 103% of their outstanding principal amount, together with any accrued and unpaid interest, from January 1, 2015 through the maturity date. As a result of this redemption right, in the future we may redeem your New Senior Notes at a price that is less than the then present fair market value of such New Senior Notes.

Federal and state statutes allow courts, under specific circumstances, to void guarantees and require holders of the New Senior Notes to return payments received from guarantors.

Under the federal bankruptcy law and comparable provisions of state fraudulent transfer laws, a guarantee could be voided, or claims in respect of a guarantee could be subordinated to all other debts of that guarantor, if the guarantor at the time it incurred the indebtedness evidenced by its guarantee:

- received less than reasonably equivalent value or fair consideration for the incurrence of its guarantee and was insolvent or rendered insolvent by reason of such incurrence;
- was engaged in a business or transaction for which the guarantor's remaining assets constituted unreasonably small capital; or
- intended to incur, or believed that it would incur, debts beyond its ability to pay those debts as they mature.

The measures of insolvency for purposes of these fraudulent transfer laws will vary depending upon the law applied in any proceeding to determine whether a fraudulent transfer has occurred. Generally, however, a guarantor would be considered insolvent if:

- the sum of its debts, including contingent liabilities, was greater than the fair saleable value of all of its assets;

the present fair saleable value of its assets was less than the amount that would be required to pay its probable liability on its existing debts, including contingent liabilities, as they become absolute and mature; or it could not pay its debts as they become due.

We cannot assure you as to what standard a court would apply in determining whether a guarantor would be considered to be insolvent. If a court determined that a guarantor was insolvent after giving effect to the guarantee, it could void the guarantee of the New Senior Notes by a guarantor and require you to return any payments received from such guarantor.

Bankruptcy laws may limit your ability to realize value from the collateral.

The right of the Collateral Agent to repossess and dispose of the collateral upon the occurrence of an event of default under the Indenture is likely to be significantly impaired by applicable bankruptcy law if a bankruptcy case were to be commenced by or against us before the Collateral Agent repossessed and disposed of the collateral. Upon the commencement of a case under the Bankruptcy Code, a secured creditor such as the Collateral Agent is prohibited from repossessing its security from a debtor in a bankruptcy case, or from disposing of security repossessed from such debtor, without bankruptcy court approval, which may not be given. Moreover, the Bankruptcy Code permits the debtor to continue to retain and use collateral even though the debtor is in default under the applicable debt instruments, provided that the secured creditor is given “adequate protection.” The meaning of the term “adequate protection” may vary according to circumstances, but it is intended in general to protect the value of the secured creditor’s interest in the collateral as of the commencement of the bankruptcy case and may include cash payments or the granting of additional security if and at such times as the bankruptcy court in its discretion determines that the value of the secured creditor’s interest in the collateral is declining during the pendency of the bankruptcy case. A bankruptcy court may determine that a secured creditor may not require compensation for a diminution in the value of its collateral if the value of the collateral exceeds the debt it secures.

In view of the lack of a precise definition of the term “adequate protection” and the broad discretionary power of a bankruptcy court, it is impossible to predict:

- how long payments under the New Senior Notes could be delayed following commencement of a bankruptcy case;
- whether or when the Collateral Agent could repossess or dispose of the collateral;
- the value of the collateral at the time of the bankruptcy petition; or
- whether or to what extent holders of the New Senior Notes would be compensated for any delay in payment or loss of value of the collateral through the requirement of “adequate protection.”

In addition, the Intercreditor Agreement provides that, in the event of a bankruptcy, the Collateral Agent may not object to a number of important matters with respect to the first-priority collateral of the lenders under the Revolving Facility following the filing of a bankruptcy petition so long as any obligation under the Revolving Facility is outstanding. After such a filing, the value of such collateral securing the New Senior Notes could materially deteriorate and you would be unable to raise an objection. The right of the holders of obligations secured by first-priority liens on the collateral to foreclose upon and sell the collateral upon the occurrence of an event of default also would be subject to limitations under applicable bankruptcy laws if we or any of our subsidiaries become subject to a bankruptcy proceeding.

Any disposition of the collateral during a bankruptcy case would also require permission from the bankruptcy court. Furthermore, in the event a bankruptcy court determines the value of the collateral is not sufficient to repay all amounts due in respect of the Revolving Facility Obligations and the New Senior Notes, the holders of the New Senior Notes would hold a secured claim to the extent of the value of the collateral to which the holders of the New Senior Notes are entitled (after the application of proceeds of the collateral securing Revolving Facility Obligations on a first-priority basis) and unsecured claims with respect to such shortfall. The Bankruptcy Code only permits the payment and accrual of post-petition interest, costs and attorney’s fees to a secured creditor during a debtor’s bankruptcy case to the extent the value of its collateral is determined by the bankruptcy court to exceed the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the obligations secured by the collateral.

Any future pledge of collateral may be avoidable in bankruptcy.

Any future pledge of collateral in favor of the Trustee or the Collateral Agent, including pursuant to any security documents delivered after the date of the Indenture, may be avoidable by the pledgor (a debtor in possession) or by its trustee in bankruptcy if certain events or circumstances exist or occur, including, among others, if (1) the pledgor is insolvent at the time of the pledge, (2) the pledge permits the holders of the New Senior Notes to receive a greater recovery than if the pledge had not been given; and (3) a bankruptcy proceeding in respect of the pledgor is commenced within 90 days following the pledge, or, in certain circumstances, a longer period.

Lien searches may not have revealed all liens on the collateral.

We cannot guarantee that the lien searches on the collateral securing the New Senior Notes revealed or will reveal any or all existing liens on such collateral. Any existing lien, including undiscovered liens, could be significant, could be prior in ranking to the liens securing the New Senior Notes and could have an adverse effect on the ability of the Collateral Agent to realize or foreclose upon the collateral securing the New Senior Notes.

Security over all of the collateral may not be in place upon the date of issuance of the New Senior Notes or may not have been perfected on such date.

Certain security interests covering certain collateral, including mortgages on real property and related documentation, control agreements covering deposit accounts and securities accounts, and intellectual property security agreements covering trademarks may not have been in place on the date of issuance of the New Senior Notes or may not be perfected on such date. To the extent a security interest in certain collateral is perfected following the date of the Indenture, it might be avoidable in bankruptcy. See above “—Any future pledge of collateral might be avoidable in bankruptcy.”

An event that adversely affects the value of the New Senior Notes may occur, and that event may not constitute a Change of Control.

Some significant restructuring transactions may not constitute a Change of Control, in which case we would not be obligated to repurchase the New Senior Notes.

Upon the occurrence of a Change of Control, holders of the New Senior Notes will have the right to require us to repurchase their New Senior Notes. However, the definition of “Change of Control” will be limited to only certain transactions or events. Therefore, the change of control provisions will not afford protection to holders of the New Senior Notes in the event of other transactions or events that do not constitute a Change of Control but that could nevertheless adversely affect the New Senior Notes. For example, transactions such as leveraged recapitalizations, refinancings, restructurings, asset sales, mergers or acquisitions initiated by us may not constitute a Change of Control requiring us to repurchase the New Senior Notes. In the event of any such transaction, the holders would not have the right to require us to repurchase the New Senior Notes, even though each of these transactions could increase the amount of our indebtedness, or otherwise adversely affect our capital structure or any credit ratings or otherwise adversely affect the value of the New Senior Notes.

We may not be able to repurchase New Senior Notes or pay in cash amounts contemplated under the Indenture upon the occurrence of certain events.

Upon the occurrence of a Change of Control, the holders of the New Senior Notes will have the right to require us to repurchase their New Senior Notes at par plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon.

It is possible that we will not have sufficient funds at the time of the occurrence of a Change of Control to make any required repurchase of New Senior Notes. In addition, we have, and may in the future incur, other indebtedness with similar change of control provisions permitting other creditors to accelerate or to require us to repurchase our indebtedness upon the occurrence of similar events or on some specific dates.

Rating agencies may provide unsolicited ratings on the New Senior Notes that could cause the market value or liquidity of the New Senior Notes to decline.

We have not requested a rating of the New Senior Notes from any rating agency and believe it is unlikely that the New Senior Notes will be rated. However, if one or more rating agencies rate the New Senior Notes and assign the New Senior Notes a rating lower than the rating expected by investors, or reduces their rating in the future, the market price or liquidity of the New Senior Notes could be harmed.

There may be no active trading market for the New Senior Notes, and if one develops, it may not be liquid.

The New Senior Notes will constitute new issues of securities for which there is no established trading market. We do not intend to list the New Senior Notes on any national securities exchange or to seek the admission of the New Senior Notes for quotation through an automated quotation system. In addition, any market making activity will be subject to limits imposed by the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, and may be limited during and immediately following this exchange offer. There can be no assurance as to the development or liquidity of any market for the New Senior Notes, the ability of the holders of the New Senior Notes to sell their New Senior Notes or the price at which the holders would be able to sell their New Senior Notes. The liquidity of the trading market in the New Senior Notes, and the market price quoted for the New Senior Notes, may be adversely affected by changes in the overall market for high yield securities and by changes in our financial performance or prospects or in the prospects for companies in our industry generally. As a result, you cannot be sure that an active trading market will develop for the New Senior Notes.

The ability to transfer the New Senior Notes may be limited by the absence of an active trading market.

We have not listed, and do not currently intend to list, the New Senior Notes for trading on any stock exchange or market or automated quotation system. Holders of the New Senior Notes may be required to bear the risk of their investment for an indefinite period of time. Historically, the market for non-investment grade debt has been subject to substantial volatility, which could adversely affect the prices at which holders of New Senior Notes could sell such New Senior Notes. In addition, the price of the New Senior Notes may decline depending upon prevailing interest rates, the market for similar notes, our operating performance and other factors.

Future trading prices of the New Senior Notes will depend on many factors, including:

- our operating performance and financial condition;
- prevailing interest rates;
- our ability to complete the offer to exchange the Old Convertible Notes for the New Senior Notes;
- the interest of securities dealers in making a market; and
- the market for similar securities.

Historically, the market for non-investment grade debt has been subject to disruptions that have caused substantial volatility in the prices of securities similar to the New Senior Notes. The market for the New Senior Notes, if any, may be subject to similar disruptions. Any such disruptions may adversely affect the value of the New Senior Notes.

We may still be able to incur significantly more debt in the future. This could intensify already-existing risks related to indebtedness such as the New Senior Notes.

The terms of the Indenture and the Revolving Facility contain or will contain restrictions on our and the guarantors' ability to incur additional indebtedness. However, these restrictions are, or will be, subject to a number of important qualifications and exceptions and the indebtedness incurred in compliance with these restrictions could be substantial. Accordingly, we or the guarantors could incur significant additional indebtedness in the future, much of which could constitute secured, senior or pari passu indebtedness.

Risks Related to the Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation

If the proposed Amendments become effective, holders of Amended Convertible Notes will not be entitled to a security interest and will not benefit from the protections provided by the existing restrictive covenants, certain events of default and other provisions.

The proposed Amendments to the Old Convertible Note Indenture, which will require the consent of the holders of at least 66 2/3% of the outstanding principal amount of Old Convertible Notes not held by our affiliates, would eliminate substantially all of the restrictive covenants contained in the Old Convertible Note Indenture and certain events of default and provide for a release of all of the liens on the collateral securing the Old Convertible Notes and the related guarantees under the Old Convertible Note Indenture and the Old Convertible Note Security Documents. As a result, the holders of Amended Convertible Notes will not be entitled to the benefit of a secured position or any of those covenants, events of default and other provisions. The elimination or modification of these provisions will permit us to take certain actions previously prohibited without needing to obtain the consent of any holder of the Amended Convertible Notes. Those actions could increase the credit risks associated with us, as well as adversely affect the market price and credit rating of the Amended Convertible Notes. The release of the liens on the collateral securing the Amended Convertible Notes will leave any Amended Convertible Notes as general unsecured obligations. As such, they will be effectively subordinated to the Revolving Facility Obligations and the New Senior Notes to the extent of the value of the collateral securing such obligations.

If you participate in the exchange offer by tendering your Old Convertible Notes, you will no longer be able to convert your Old Convertible Notes into common stock of the Company.

The New Senior Notes, unlike the Old Convertible Notes, will not be convertible into common stock of the Company. As a result, by tendering your Old Convertible Notes in the exchange offer, you are surrendering your right to convert your debt instrument into common stock of the Company.

You may be adversely affected if you fail to exchange Old Convertible Notes in the exchange offer.

We will only issue New Senior Notes in exchange for Old Convertible Notes that are timely received by the exchange and information agent, together with all required documents, including a properly completed and signed letter of transmittal & consent. Therefore, you should allow sufficient time to ensure timely delivery of the Old Convertible Notes and you should carefully follow the instructions on how to tender your Old Convertible Notes. Neither we nor Global Bondholder Services Corporation, the exchange and information agent, are required to tell you of any defects or irregularities with respect to your tender of the Old Convertible Notes. If you are eligible to participate in this exchange offer and do not tender your Old Convertible Notes or if we do not accept your Old Convertible Notes because you did not tender your Old Convertible Notes properly, then, after we consummate this exchange offer, you will hold Amended Convertible Notes.

After this exchange offer is consummated, if you hold any Amended Convertible Notes, you may have difficulty selling them because there will be fewer Amended Convertible Notes outstanding.

After the consummation of the exchange offer, there may be no active trading market for the Amended Convertible Notes, and if one develops or remains, it may not be liquid.

We have not listed, and do not currently intend to list, the Old Convertible Notes for trading on any stock exchange or market or automated quotation system. To the extent that Old Convertible Notes are exchanged, the trading market for Amended Convertible Notes that remain outstanding is likely to be significantly more limited than it is at present. Historically, the market for non-investment grade debt with a smaller outstanding principal amount available for trading (a smaller "float") may command a lower price than would a comparable debt security with a larger float. Therefore, the market price for Amended Convertible Notes may be adversely affected to the extent that the principal amount of the Old Convertible Notes exchanged reduces the float. A reduced float may also make the trading price of Amended Convertible Notes more volatile.

Business Risks

Tightening of mortgage lending or mortgage financing requirements could adversely affect the residential construction market and prolong the downturn in, or further reduce, the demand for new home construction, which began in 2006 and has had a negative effect on our sales volumes and revenues.

Since 2006, the mortgage lending and mortgage finance industries experienced significant instability due to, among other things, defaults on subprime loans and adjustable rate mortgages. In light of these developments, lenders, investors, regulators and other third parties have questioned the adequacy of lending standards and other credit requirements for several loan programs made available to borrowers in recent years. This has led to reduced investor demand for mortgage loans and mortgage-backed securities, reduced market values for those securities, tightened credit requirements, reduced liquidity, increased credit risk premiums and increased regulatory actions. Deterioration in credit quality among subprime and other loans has caused many lenders to eliminate subprime mortgages and other loan products that do not conform to Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac, FHA or VA standards. While mortgage lending conditions have improved since 2010, fewer loan products and tighter loan qualifications in turn continue to make it more difficult for some categories of borrowers to finance the purchase of new homes. In general, these developments have been a significant factor in the downturn of, and have delayed any general improvement in, the housing market.

Approximately 20% of our 2012 revenue was from residential construction contractors. While mortgage lending conditions have slightly improved and lending volumes have increased since 2010, tightening of mortgage lending or mortgage financing requirements could adversely affect the availability to obtain credit for some borrowers, or reduce the demand for new home construction, which could have a material adverse effect on our business and results of operations in 2013. Another downturn in new home construction could also adversely affect our customers focused in this industry segment, possibly resulting in slower payments, higher default rates in our accounts receivable, and an overall increase in working capital.

There are risks related to our internal growth and operating strategy.

Our ability to generate internal growth will be affected by, among other factors, our ability to:

attract new customers; and

- differentiate ourselves in a competitive market by emphasizing new product development and value added sales and marketing, hiring and retaining employees and reducing operating and overhead expenses.

Our inability to achieve internal growth could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

One key component of our operating strategy is to operate our businesses on a decentralized basis, with local or regional management retaining responsibility for day-to-day operations, profitability and the internal growth of the individual business. If we do not implement and maintain proper overall business controls, this decentralized operating strategy could result in inconsistent operating and financial practices and our overall profitability could be adversely affected.

Our business is seasonal and subject to adverse weather.

Since our business is conducted outdoors, erratic weather patterns, seasonal changes and other weather-related conditions affect our business. Adverse weather conditions, including hurricanes and tropical storms, cold weather, snow, and heavy or sustained rainfall, reduce construction activity, restrict the demand for our products, and impede our ability to efficiently deliver concrete. Adverse weather conditions could also increase our costs and reduce our production output as a result of power loss, needed plant and equipment repairs, delays in obtaining permits, time required to remove water from flooded operations, and similar events. Severe drought conditions can restrict available water supplies and restrict production. Consequently, these events could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Our operating results may vary significantly from one reporting period to another and may be adversely affected by the cyclical nature of the markets we serve.

The relative demand for our products is a function of the highly cyclical construction industry. As a result, our revenues may be adversely affected by declines in the construction industry generally and in our local markets. Our results also may be materially affected by:

- the level of residential and commercial construction in our regional markets, including reductions in the demand for new residential housing construction below current or historical levels;
- the availability of funds for public or infrastructure construction from local, state and federal sources;
- unexpected events that delay or adversely affect our ability to deliver concrete according to our customers' requirements;
- changes in interest rates and lending standards;
- the changes in mix of our customers and business, which result in periodic variations in the margins of jobs performed during any particular quarter;
- the timing and cost of acquisitions and difficulties or costs encountered when integrating acquisitions;
- the budgetary spending patterns of customers;
- increases in construction and design costs;
- power outages and other unexpected delays;
- our ability to control costs and maintain quality;
- employment levels; and
- regional or general economic conditions.

As a result, our operating results in any particular quarter may not be indicative of the results that you can expect for any other quarter or for the entire year. Furthermore, negative trends in the ready-mixed concrete industry or in our geographic markets could have material adverse effects on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

We may lose business to competitors who underbid us, and we may be otherwise unable to compete favorably in our highly competitive industry.

Our competitive position in a given market depends largely on the location and operating costs of our plants and prevailing prices in that market. Generally, our products are price-sensitive. Our prices are subject to changes in response to relatively minor fluctuations in supply and demand, general economic conditions and market conditions, all of which are beyond our control. Because of the fixed-cost nature of our business, our overall profitability is sensitive to minor variations in sales volumes and small shifts in the balance between supply and demand. Price is the primary competitive factor among suppliers for small or less complex jobs, principally in residential construction. However, timeliness of delivery and consistency of quality and service, as well as price, are the principal competitive factors among suppliers for large or complex jobs. Concrete manufacturers like us generally obtain customer contracts through local sales and marketing efforts directed at general contractors, developers, governmental agencies and homebuilders. As a result, we depend on local relationships. We generally do not have long-term sales contracts with our customers.

Our competitors range from small, owner-operated private companies to subsidiaries or operating units of large, vertically integrated manufacturers of cement and aggregates. Our vertically integrated competitors generally have greater manufacturing, financial and marketing resources than we have, providing them with competitive advantages. Competitors having lower operating costs than we do or having the financial resources to enable them to accept lower margins than we do will have competitive advantages over us for jobs that are particularly price-sensitive. Competitors having greater financial resources or less financial leverage than we do to invest in new mixer trucks, build plants in new areas or pay for acquisitions also will have competitive advantages over us.

We depend on third parties for concrete equipment and supplies essential to operate our business.

We rely on third parties to sell or lease property, plant and equipment to us and to provide us with supplies, including cement and other raw materials, necessary for our operations. We cannot assure you that our favorable working relationships with our suppliers will continue in the future. Also, there have historically been periods of supply shortages in the concrete industry, particularly in a strong economy.

If we are unable to purchase or lease necessary properties or equipment, our operations could be severely impacted. If we lose our supply contracts and receive insufficient supplies from other third parties to meet our customers' needs or if our suppliers experience price increases or disruptions to their business, such as labor disputes, supply shortages or distribution problems, our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows could be materially adversely affected.

In 2006, cement prices rose at rates similar to those experienced in 2005 and 2004, as a result of strong domestic consumption driven largely by historic levels of residential construction that did not abate until the second half of 2006. From 2007 through 2011, residential construction slowed significantly, which resulted in a decline in the demand for ready-mixed concrete. However, during 2012, residential construction and related demand for ready-mixed concrete improved for the first time since 2006. While cement prices increased in 2012 as a result of this increased demand, cement supplies were at levels that indicated a very low risk of cement shortages in our markets. Should demand increase substantially beyond our current expectations, we could experience shortages of cement in future periods, which could adversely affect our operating results, through both decreased sales and higher cost of raw materials.

The departure of key personnel could disrupt our business.

We depend on the efforts of our executive officers and, in many cases, on senior management of our businesses. Our success will depend on retaining our senior-level managers and officers. We need to insure that key personnel are compensated fairly and competitively to reduce the risk of departure of key personnel to our competitors or other industries. To the extent we are unable to attract or retain qualified management personnel, our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows could be materially and adversely affected. We do not carry key personnel life insurance on any of our employees.

We may be unable to attract and retain qualified employees.

Our ability to provide high-quality products and services on a timely basis depends on our success in employing an adequate number of skilled plant managers, technicians and drivers. Like many of our competitors, we experience shortages of qualified personnel from time to time. We may not be able to maintain an adequate skilled labor force necessary to operate efficiently and to support our growth strategy, and our labor expenses may increase as a result of a shortage in the supply of skilled personnel.

Collective bargaining agreements, work stoppages and other labor relations matters may result in increases in our operating costs, disruptions in our business and decreases in our earnings.

As of December 31, 2012, approximately 33%, or 606, of our employees were covered by collective bargaining agreements, which expire between 2013 and 2016. Our inability to negotiate acceptable new contracts or extensions of existing contracts with these unions could cause work stoppages by the affected employees. In addition, any new contracts or extensions could result in increased operating costs attributable to both union and nonunion employees. If any such work stoppages were to occur, or if other of our employees were to become represented by a union, we could experience a significant disruption of our operations and higher ongoing labor costs, which could materially adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. Also, labor relations matters affecting our suppliers of cement and aggregates could adversely impact our business from time to time.

We contribute to 18 multiemployer pension plans. During 2006, the “Pension Protection Act of 2006” (the “PPA”) was signed into law. For multiemployer defined benefit plans, the PPA establishes new funding requirements or rehabilitation requirements, creates additional funding rules for plans that are in endangered or critical status, and introduces enhanced disclosure requirements to participants regarding a plan’s funding status. The Worker, Retiree and Employer Recovery Act of 2008 (the “WRERA”) was enacted in late 2008 and provided some funding relief to defined benefit plan sponsors affected by recent market conditions. The WRERA allowed multiemployer plan sponsors to elect to freeze their current funded status at the same funding status as the preceding plan year (for example, a calendar year plan that was not in critical or endangered status for 2008 was able to elect to retain that status for 2009), and sponsors of multiemployer plans in endangered or critical status in plan years beginning in 2008 or 2009 were allowed a three-year extension of funding improvement or rehabilitation plans (extended the timeline for these plans to accomplish their goals from 10 years to 13 years, or from 15 years to 18 years for seriously endangered plans). Additionally, if we were to withdraw partially or completely from any plan that is underfunded, we would be liable for a proportionate share of that plan’s unfunded vested benefits. Based on the information available from plan administrators, we believe that our portion of the contingent liability in the case of a full or partial withdrawal from or termination of several of these plans or the inability of plan sponsors to meet the funding or rehabilitation requirements would be material to our financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Our overall profitability is sensitive to price changes and minor variations in sales volumes.

Generally, our products are price-sensitive. Prices for our products are subject to changes in response to relatively minor fluctuations in supply and demand, general economic conditions and market conditions, all of which are beyond our control. Because of the fixed-cost nature of our business, our overall profitability is sensitive to price changes and minor variations in sales volumes.

Instability in the financial and credit sectors may impact our business and financial condition in ways that we currently cannot predict.

Adverse or worsening economic trends could have a negative impact on our suppliers and our customers and their financial condition and liquidity, which could cause them to fail to meet their obligations to us and could have a material adverse effect on our revenues, income from operations and cash flows. The uncertainty and volatility of the financial and credit sectors could have further impacts on our business and financial condition that we currently cannot predict or anticipate.

Turmoil in the global financial system could have an impact on our business and our financial condition. Accordingly, our ability to access the capital markets could be restricted or be available only on unfavorable terms. Limited access to the capital markets could adversely impact our ability to take advantage of business opportunities or react to changing economic and business conditions and could adversely impact our ability to execute our long-term growth strategy. Ultimately, we could be required to reduce our future capital expenditures substantially. Such a reduction could have a material adverse effect on our revenues, income from operations and cash flows.

If one or more of the lenders under our Revolving Facility were to become unable or unwilling to perform their obligations under that facility, our borrowing capacity could be reduced. Our inability to borrow additional amounts under our senior secured credit facility could limit our ability to fund our future operations and growth.

The Indenture and the Revolving Facility will restrict our ability to operate our business and to pursue our business strategies.

The Revolving Facility and the Indenture limit our ability, among other things, to:

- incur additional indebtedness or issue disqualified stock or preferred stock;
- pay dividends or make other distributions or repurchase or redeem our stock or subordinated indebtedness or make investments;
- with respect to the Revolving Facility, make voluntary payments on any indebtedness;
- sell assets and issue capital stock of our restricted subsidiaries;
- incur liens;
- make certain investments;
- enter into agreements restricting our restricted subsidiaries' ability to pay dividends, make loans to other U.S. Concrete entities or restrict the ability to provide liens;
- enter into transactions with affiliates;
- consolidate, merge or sell all or substantially all of our assets; and
- with respect to the Indenture, designate our subsidiaries as unrestricted subsidiaries.

Governmental regulations, including environmental regulations, may result in increases in our operating costs and capital expenditures and decreases in our earnings.

A wide range of federal, state and local laws, ordinances and regulations apply to our operations, including the following matters:

- land usage;
- street and highway usage;
- noise levels; and
- health, safety and environmental matters.

In many instances, we must have various certificates, permits or licenses in order to conduct our business. Our failure to maintain required certificates, permits or licenses or to comply with applicable governmental requirements could result in substantial fines or possible revocation of our authority to conduct some of our operations. Delays in obtaining approvals for the transfer or grant of certificates, permits or licenses, or failure to obtain new certificates, permits or licenses, could impede the implementation of any acquisitions.

Governmental requirements that impact our operations include those relating to air quality, solid waste management and water quality. These requirements are complex and subject to frequent change. They impose strict liability in some cases without regard to negligence or fault and may expose us to liability for the conduct of or conditions caused by others, or for our acts that complied with all applicable requirements when we performed them. Our compliance with amended, new or more stringent requirements, stricter interpretations of existing requirements, or the future discovery of environmental conditions may require us to make unanticipated material expenditures. In addition, we may fail to identify or obtain indemnification from environmental liabilities of acquired businesses. We generally do not maintain insurance to cover environmental liabilities.

Our operations are subject to various hazards that may cause personal injury or property damage and increase our operating costs.

Operating mixer trucks, particularly when loaded, exposes our drivers and others to traffic hazards. Our drivers are subject to the usual hazards associated with providing services on construction sites, while our plant personnel are subject to the hazards associated with moving and storing large quantities of heavy raw materials. Operating hazards can cause personal injury and loss of life, damage to or destruction of property, plant and equipment and environmental damage. Although we conduct training programs designed to reduce these risks, we cannot eliminate these risks. We maintain insurance coverage in amounts we believe are consistent with industry practice; however, this insurance may not be adequate to cover all losses or liabilities we may incur in our operations, and we may not be able to maintain insurance of the types or at levels we deem necessary or adequate, or at rates we consider reasonable. A partially or completely uninsured claim, if successful and of sufficient magnitude, could have a material adverse effect on us.

The insurance policies we maintain are subject to varying levels of deductibles. Losses up to the deductible amounts are accrued based on our estimates of the ultimate liability for claims incurred and an estimate of claims incurred but not reported. If we were to experience insurance claims or costs above our estimates, our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows might be materially and adversely affected.

We may incur material costs and losses as a result of claims that our products do not meet regulatory requirements or contractual specifications.

Our operations involve providing products that must meet building code or other regulatory requirements and contractual specifications for durability, stress-level capacity, weight-bearing capacity and other characteristics. If we fail or are unable to provide products meeting these requirements and specifications, material claims may arise against us and our reputation could be damaged. In the past, we have had significant claims of this kind asserted against us that we have resolved. There currently are claims, and we expect that in the future there will be additional claims, of this kind asserted against us. If a significant product-related claim or claims are resolved against us in the future, that resolution may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Our net revenue attributable to infrastructure projects could be negatively impacted by a decrease or delay in governmental spending.

Our business depends in part on the level of governmental spending on infrastructure projects in our markets. Reduced levels of governmental funding for public works projects or delays in that funding could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Some of our plants are susceptible to damage from earthquakes, for which we have a limited amount of insurance.

We maintain only a limited amount of earthquake insurance, and, therefore, we are not fully insured against earthquake risk. Any significant earthquake damage to our plants could materially adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Increasing insurance claims and expenses could lower our profitability and increase our business risk.

The nature of our business subjects us to product liability, property damage, personal injury claims and workers compensation claims from time to time. Increased premiums charged by insurance carriers may further increase our insurance expense as coverage expires or otherwise cause us to raise our self-insured retention. If the number or severity of claims within our self-insured retention increases, we could suffer losses in excess of our reserves. An unusually large liability claim or a string of claims based on a failure repeated throughout our mass production process may exceed our insurance coverage or result in direct damages if we were unable or elected not to insure against certain hazards because of high premiums or other reasons; the availability of, and our ability to collect on, insurance coverage is often subject to factors beyond our control. Further, allegations relating to workers' compensation violations may result in investigations by insurance regulatory or other governmental authorities, which investigations, if any, could have a direct or indirect material adverse effect on our ability to pursue certain types of business which, in turn, could have a material adverse effect on our financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

Applicable accounting rules relating to the conversion features of the Amended Convertible Notes, if any, may result in increased non-cash derivative loss and may cause volatility in our results of operations due to the requirement to adjust any derivative liability associated with the conversion features to fair value each quarter.

The conversion features that will be contained within the Amended Convertible Notes, like those within the Old Convertible Notes, will be deemed to be an embedded derivative under Accounting Standards Codification, or ASC, Topic 815, Derivatives and Hedging, or ASC 815. In accordance with ASC 815, an embedded derivative related to the conversion features will require bifurcation from the debt component of the Amended Convertible Notes and a separate valuation. We will recognize the embedded derivative as a liability on our balance sheet, measure it at its estimated fair value and recognize changes in its estimated fair value within our results of operations each quarter. We will estimate the fair value of the embedded derivative using acceptable valuation methodologies. Valuation methodologies are complex and require significant judgments. Additionally, given the volatility of our stock price and the stock price of other comparable companies, which will have a direct impact on our valuation, future changes in the estimated fair value of the conversion features of the Amended Convertible Notes may have a material impact on our results of operations. As a result of the required bifurcation of the embedded derivative related to the conversion features of the Amended Convertible Notes under ASC 815, the carrying value of the Amended Convertible Notes immediately following the consummation of the exchange offer will be less than the face value of such notes when originally issued as Old Convertible Notes. Such difference will be reflected as an increase to our interest expense using the effective interest rate method over the term of the Amended Convertible Notes. This discount accretion will result in a significantly higher rate of non-cash interest expense within our results of operations over the stated interest rate of the Amended Convertible Notes and a corresponding decrease to our net income.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any cash proceeds from the exchange offer and consent solicitation. Any Old Convertible Notes that are properly tendered pursuant to the exchange offer and consent solicitation and accepted for exchange will be retired and canceled.

RATIO OF EARNINGS TO FIXED CHARGES

The following table contains our ratio of earnings to fixed charges for the years ended December 31, 2011 and 2012. You should read these ratios in connection with our Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere in this prospectus. Because we did not have preferred stock outstanding during any such periods, our ratio of earnings to combined fixed charges and preferred dividends for any given period is equivalent to our ratio of earnings to fixed charges.

Ratio of Earnings to Fixed Charges	—	—
Deficiency of Earnings to Fixed Charges	$(10.9)	$(29.5)

For purposes of computing the ratios of earnings to fixed charges, "earnings" consist of our income (loss) from continuing operations before income taxes and fixed charges. "Fixed charges" consist of interest expense, the interest component of operating lease expense (for these purposes, one-third of rent expense was deemed to be representative of interest), and amortization of discount and capitalized expenses related to indebtedness.

Who is making the exchange offer?

We, U.S. Concrete, Inc., are offering to exchange an aggregate principal amount of up to $69,300,000 of new 9.5% Senior Secured Notes due 2015 for up to all of our outstanding 9.5% Convertible Secured Notes due 2015.

Who may participate in the exchange offer and consent solicitation?

Any holder of Old Convertible Notes may participate in the exchange offer and consent solicitation, subject to applicable law.

Some or all of these conditions may be waived by the Company subject to the terms and conditions of the Exchange and Consent Agreements. See “The Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation—Conditions to this Exchange Offer.”

Is there a limit to the aggregate principal amount of Old Convertible Notes that will be accepted for exchange in the exchange offer?

No, we are offering to exchange New Senior Notes for all of our currently outstanding Old Convertible Notes.

We may extend the expiration date for the exchange offer for any reason subject to the terms and conditions of the Exchange and Consent Agreements.

How do I participate in the exchange offer?

If you wish to accept this exchange offer, you must complete, sign and date the accompanying letter of transmittal & consent, or a copy of the letter of transmittal & consent, according to the instructions contained in this prospectus and the letter of transmittal & consent. You must also mail or otherwise deliver the letter of transmittal & consent, or the copy, together with the Old Convertible Notes and any other required documents, to the exchange and information agent at the address set forth on the cover of the letter of transmittal & consent. If you hold Old Convertible Notes through The Depository Trust Company (“DTC”) and wish to participate in this exchange offer, you must comply with the Automated Tender Offer Program procedures of DTC, by which you will agree to be bound by the letter of transmittal & consent.

WE ARE NOT PROVIDING FOR GUARANTEED DELIVERY PROCEDURES AND THEREFORE YOU MUST ALLOW SUFFICIENT TIME FOR THE NECESSARY TENDER PROCEDURES TO BE COMPLETED DURING NORMAL BUSINESS HOURS ON OR PRIOR TO THE EXPIRATION DATE. IF YOU HOLD YOUR OLD CONVERTIBLE NOTES THROUGH A BROKER, DEALER, COMMERCIAL BANK, TRUST COMPANY OR OTHER NOMINEE, YOU SHOULD KEEP IN MIND THAT SUCH ENTITY MAY REQUIRE YOU TO TAKE ACTION WITH RESPECT TO THE EXCHANGE OFFER A NUMBER OF DAYS BEFORE THE EXPIRATION DATE IN ORDER FOR SUCH ENTITY TO TENDER SECURITIES ON YOUR BEHALF ON OR PRIOR TO THE EXPIRATION DATE.

How do I deliver my consent to the Amendments to the Old Convertible Note Indenture and Old Convertible Note Security Documents?

Any holder that tenders Old Convertible Notes, and whose Old Convertible Notes are accepted for exchange by us, pursuant to the exchange offer will be deemed to have delivered a valid consent to the Amendments to the Old Convertible Note Indenture and the Old Convertible Note Security Documents.

Do I have to separately consent to approve the Amendments to the Old Convertible Note Indenture and the Old Convertible Note Security Documents and the related Intercreditor Agreement?

If you tender your Old Convertible Notes in the exchange offer, you will be deemed to consent to the Amendments. As a result, if you do not desire to approve the Amendments, you should not tender your Old Convertible Notes in the exchange offer. If you have tendered your Old Convertible Notes, you may revoke your consent prior to the expiration date by withdrawing your Old Convertible Notes from the exchange offer.

When will the proposed Amendments become effective?

If we receive the requisite consents to the Amendments, the Amendments to the Old Convertible Note Indenture, the Old Convertible Note Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreement will become effective immediately prior to the settlement of the exchange offer, which will occur on or about the first business day following the expiration date.

Can I withdraw tendered Old Convertible Notes and revoke my consent?

A tender of Old Convertible Notes pursuant to this exchange offer may be withdrawn at any time prior to the expiration date, and such withdrawal will constitute a concurrent valid revocation of the related consent. Any Old Convertible Notes not accepted for exchange for any reason will be returned without expense to the tendering holder promptly after the expiration or termination of this exchange offer.

When and how will I receive the New Senior Notes being offered in exchange for my Old Convertible Notes?

Once all of the conditions to the exchange offer are satisfied or waived prior to the expiration date and we are ready to accept all Old Convertible Notes properly tendered and not withdrawn, we will, promptly, effectuate the Amendments, then immediately accept the Old Convertible Notes and issue the New Senior Notes in exchange for the accepted Old Convertible Notes. The New Senior Notes will be issued in book-entry only form and will be represented by one or more permanent global securities deposited with a custodian for, and registered in the name of a nominee of, DTC.

Will the New Senior Notes be freely tradable?

Yes. Generally, the New Senior Notes you receive in the exchange offer will be freely tradable, subject to market conditions, unless you are an affiliate of U.S. Concrete, Inc., as that term is defined in the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Act, in which case you must comply with Rule 144 or another available exemption under the Securities Act. We do not intend to list the New Senior Notes on any securities exchange and there can be no assurance as to the development or liquidity of any market for the new notes. See “Risk Factors—Risks Related to the Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation.”

Do I have to pay any brokerage fees or commissions or transfer taxes?

Holders who tender Old Convertible Notes in this exchange offer will not be required to pay brokerage commissions or fees, or, subject to the instructions in the letter of transmittal & consent, transfer taxes with respect to the exchange of Old Convertible Notes. We will pay all charges and expenses, other than those transfer taxes described below under the caption "The Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation—Transfer Taxes," in connection with this exchange offer. It is important that you read the section labeled "The Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation—Fees and Expenses" below for more details regarding fees and expenses incurred in this exchange offer.

If I decide not to tender, how will the exchange offer affect my Old Convertible Notes?

If the Amendments become operative, the Old Convertible Notes that are not exchanged pursuant to the exchange offer will remain outstanding as Amended Convertible Notes and will be subject to the terms of the Old Convertible Note Indenture as modified by the supplemental indenture effecting the Amendments. The holders of such Amended Convertible Notes will, as a result of the Amendments, have lost substantially all of the protections provided by the current restrictive covenants contained in the Old Convertible Note Indenture and, with respect to the interests in the assets securing the New Senior Notes, the Amended Convertible Notes and related guarantees will be effectively junior to the New Senior Notes and related guarantees to the extent of the value of such assets because the Amended Convertible Notes will not be secured. Additionally, the liquidity and the trading market for the Amended Convertible Notes that remain outstanding may be impaired. You should read the section titled "Description of Other Indebtedness" and "Risk Factors—Risks Related to the Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation."

Are Dissenters' or Appraisal Rights Available in the exchange offer?

No dissenters' or appraisal rights are available in connection with the exchange offer.

Who can I talk to if I have questions about the exchange offer?

If you have any questions or otherwise need assistance, or if you need additional copies of the offering materials, please contact Global Bondholder Services Corporation, the exchange and information agent, at (866) 924-2200.

To receive copies of our recent SEC filings, you can contact us by mail or refer to the other sources described under "Where You Can Find More Information."

CAPITALIZATION

The following table sets forth our capitalization as of December 31, 2012 on an actual basis and as adjusted to give effect to the consummation of the exchange offer assuming all $55,000,000 aggregate principal amount of Old Convertible Notes we are offering to exchange in the exchange offer is exchanged for $69,300,000 aggregate principal amount of New Senior Notes, and reflecting the estimated expenses of the exchange offer (however, the Minimum Tender Condition is that 82.5%, or $45,375,000 aggregate principal amount, of the outstanding Old Convertible Notes are properly tendered and not validly withdrawn prior to the expiration date).

You should read this table in conjunction with our Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere in this prospectus.

(1) The net book value of our Old Convertible Notes is shown net of a discount related to the embedded derivative that was bifurcated and separately recorded as a liability on the balance sheet. The discount amortizes to interest expense over the term of the Old Convertible Notes resulting in accretion in the net book value of the Old Convertible Notes to its face value at maturity. The book values of the discount and embedded derivative were $8.9 million and $17.2 million, respectively, at December 31, 2012.

We intend to continue to explore various financing alternatives to improve our capital structure, including reducing debt, extending maturities or relaxing financial covenants. These may include new equity or debt financings or exchange offer with our existing security holders and other transactions involving our outstanding securities given their secondary market trading prices. In addition, we may consider buying Amended Convertible Notes and New Senior Notes in the market in the future, subject to restrictions in agreements and applicable law. We cannot provide assurances, if we pursue any of these transactions, that we will be successful in completing a transaction on attractive terms or at all.

THE EXCHANGE OFFER AND CONSENT SOLICITATION

No Recommendation

NONE OF THE COMPANY, OUR MANAGEMENT OR OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS (THE "BOARD") OR THE EXCHANGE AND INFORMATION AGENT MAKES ANY RECOMMENDATION AS TO WHETHER YOU SHOULD TENDER ANY OLD CONVERTIBLE NOTES OR REFRAIN FROM TENDERING OLD CONVERTIBLE NOTES IN THE EXCHANGE OFFER. ACCORDINGLY, YOU MUST MAKE YOUR OWN DECISION AS TO WHETHER TO TENDER OLD CONVERTIBLE NOTES IN THE EXCHANGE OFFER AND, IF SO, THE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF OLD CONVERTIBLE NOTES TO TENDER. PARTICIPATION IN THE EXCHANGE OFFER IS VOLUNTARY, AND YOU SHOULD CONSIDER CAREFULLY WHETHER TO PARTICIPATE. BEFORE YOU MAKE YOUR DECISION, WE URGE YOU TO READ CAREFULLY THIS PROSPECTUS, THE REGISTRATION STATEMENT OF WHICH IT FORMS A PART, AND THE EXHIBITS AND SCHEDULES TO THE REGISTRATION STATEMENT IN THEIR ENTIRETY, INCLUDING THE INFORMATION SET FORTH IN THE SECTION OF THIS PROSPECTUS ENTITLED "RISK FACTORS." WE ALSO URGE YOU TO CONSULT YOUR OWN FINANCIAL AND TAX ADVISORS IN MAKING YOUR OWN DECISION ON WHAT ACTION, IF ANY, TO TAKE IN LIGHT OF YOUR OWN PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES.

Purpose of the Exchange Offer

The purpose of the exchange offer is to replace our Old Convertible Notes with non-convertible instruments, thereby simplifying our capital structure.

Terms of this Exchange Offer

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this prospectus and in the letter of transmittal & consent, we will accept for exchange any Old Convertible Notes validly tendered and not properly withdrawn prior to the expiration date.

We will issue $1,260 principal amount of New Senior Notes for each $1,000 principal amount of Old Convertible Notes surrendered under this exchange offer. The Old Convertible Notes may only be tendered and Consents may only be delivered in amounts equal to minimum denominations of $1,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof. However, the New Senior Notes issued in exchange therefor will be issued in denominations of $1.00 and integral multiples of $1.00 in excess thereof.

The Old Convertible Notes are currently convertible, at the option of the holder, at any time on or prior to maturity, into shares of our common stock, par value $0.001 per share ("Common Stock"), at a conversion rate of 95.23809524 shares of Common Stock per $1,000 principal amount of Old Convertible Notes, or a conversion price of approximately $10.50 per share, subject to adjustment as set forth in the Old Convertible Note Indenture. The holders of the New Senior Notes being offered in this exchange offer will not be entitled to convert their New Senior Notes into shares of Common Stock.

The New Senior Notes will bear interest at 9.5% per year (calculated using a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months), payable semi-annually in cash in arrears on April 1 and October 1, commencing on October 1, 2013. The New Senior Notes, like the Old Convertible Notes, will be unconditionally guaranteed by each of the guarantors under the Revolving Facility and will be secured by first-priority liens on certain of the property and assets directly owned by us and each of the guarantors, including material owned real property, fixtures, intellectual property, capital stock of subsidiaries and certain equipment, subject to permitted liens (including a second-priority lien in favor of the Revolving Facility Agent) and certain exceptions (as described in the Security Documents). See "Description of the Notes."

The exchange offer is conditioned on, among other things, the conditions that (1) we shall have received, on or prior to the expiration of the exchange offer, consents to the Amendments, which have not been revoked, by the holders of at least 66 2/3% in principal amount of the outstanding Old Convertible Notes not held by our affiliates, (2) on or prior to the expiration of the exchange offer, at least 82.5% of the principal amount of outstanding Old Convertible Notes shall have been validly tendered and not properly withdrawn and (3) we shall have received consent from the Revolving Facility Agent regarding the amendments to the Intercreditor Agreement. Some or all of these conditions may be waived by the Company subject to the terms and conditions of the Exchange and Consent Agreements. See “—Conditions to this Exchange Offer.” For the purposes of the foregoing, the term "affiliates" refers to "Affiliates" of the Company as such term is used in the Old Convertible Note Indenture, and means any person which directly or indirectly controls or is controlled by, or is under direct or indirect common control with, the Company. For these purposes, “control” of means the power to direct management and policies of the Company, directly or indirectly, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise.

As of the date of this prospectus, $55,000,000 aggregate principal amount of the Old Convertible Notes is outstanding, of approximately $34,692,000 aggregate principal amount of which has been tendered and not withdrawn. This prospectus and the letter of transmittal & consent are being sent to all registered holders of Old Convertible Notes. There will be no fixed record date for determining registered holders of Old Convertible Notes entitled to participate in this exchange offer.

We intend to conduct this exchange offer in accordance with the applicable requirements of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations of the SEC. Old Convertible Notes that are not exchanged in this exchange offer will remain outstanding as Amended Convertible Notes and will continue to accrue interest. However, if adopted, the Amendments will eliminate substantially all of the restrictive covenants contained in the Old Convertible Note Indenture and certain events of default and provide for a release of all of the liens on the collateral securing the Old Convertible Notes and the related guarantees under the Old Convertible Note Indenture and the Old Convertible Note Security Documents. See “—Consequences of Failure to Exchange.”

We will be deemed to have accepted for exchange properly tendered Old Convertible Notes when we have given oral or written notice of the acceptance to the exchange and information agent. The exchange and information agent will act as agent for the tendering holders for the purposes of receiving the New Senior Notes from us and delivering New Senior Notes to such holders.

We expressly reserve the right to amend or terminate this exchange offer, and not to accept for exchange any Old Convertible Notes not previously accepted for exchange, if any of the conditions under the caption “—Conditions to this Exchange Offer” have not been satisfied, on or prior to the expiration date, subject to the terms and conditions of the Exchange and Consent Agreements.

Holders who tender Old Convertible Notes in this exchange offer will not be required to pay brokerage commissions or fees, or, subject to the instructions in the letter of transmittal & consent, transfer taxes with respect to the exchange of Old Convertible Notes. We will pay all charges and expenses, other than those transfer taxes described below, in connection with this exchange offer. It is important that you read the section labeled “—Fees and Expenses” below for more details regarding fees and expenses incurred in this exchange offer.

Consent Solicitation

As part of the exchange offer, we are soliciting the consent of holders of the Old Convertible Notes to amend certain terms and conditions of the Old Convertible Note Indenture, the Old Convertible Note Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreement. The Amendments would eliminate substantially all of the restrictive covenants contained in the Old Convertible Note Indenture and certain events of default and provide for a release of all of the liens on the collateral securing the Old Convertible Notes and the related guarantees under the Old Convertible Note Indenture and the Old Convertible Note Security Documents. The Amendments would also increase the ABL Cap Amount under the Intercreditor Agreement, which will increase the amount of Revolving Facility Obligations that are entitled to the benefit of a first-priority lien in certain collateral.

The consent of holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of Old Convertible Notes outstanding and not held by our affiliates will be required in order to effectuate the Amendments, other than those provisions relating to the collateral securing the Old Convertible Notes. The consent of holders of at least 66 2/3% of the aggregate principal amount of Old Convertible Notes outstanding and not held by our affiliates will be required in order to effectuate the Amendments with respect to the Old Convertible Note Security Documents and those provisions of the Old Convertible Note Indenture relating to the collateral.

If the Amendments are approved and effected, they will be binding on all holders of Old Convertible Notes, including those who do not give their consent to the Amendments and do not tender their Old Convertible Notes in the exchange offer, and therefore hold Amended Convertible Notes. If for any reason the exchange offer with respect to the Old Convertible Notes is not completed, the Amendments will not become effective and the Old Convertible Notes and related guarantees will continue to be subject to the same terms and conditions, and be secured by the same collateral, as before the exchange offer was made.

If you tender your Old Convertible Notes in the exchange offer, you will be deemed to consent to the Amendments. If you consent to the Amendments, you must tender your Old Convertible Notes. Tendered Old Convertible Notes may be withdrawn and consents revoked before the expiration date. Consents given in connection with the tender of Old Convertible Notes cannot be revoked without validly withdrawing Old Convertible Notes from the exchange offer, and Old Convertible Notes cannot be withdrawn from the exchange offer without also revoking the consent related to those Old Convertible Notes. Our receipt of the requisite number of consents or aggregate principal amount of Old Convertible Notes in advance of the expiration date will not result in any change in the terms of the exchange offer.

Amendments

If you tender any Old Convertible Notes at or prior to the expiration date, you will, by the act of tendering, be consenting to the Amendments to the Old Convertible Note Indenture, the Old Convertible Note Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreement.

Pursuant to the terms of the Old Convertible Note Indenture, the Amendments require the prior written consent of holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Old Convertible Notes outstanding and not held by our affiliates (except with respect to covenants related to the collateral, which require the consent of the holders of at least 66 2/3% of the aggregate principal amount of the Old Convertible Notes outstanding and not held by our affiliates). It is anticipated that a supplemental indenture and other documents effecting the Amendments will be executed on the date of or promptly following the expiration of the exchange offer, assuming the conditions to the exchange offer have been satisfied or waived, including the Minimum Tender Condition and the Minimum Consent Condition, and immediately prior to the issuance of New Senior Notes in exchange for Old Convertible Notes that have been properly tendered and not withdrawn.

The following is a summary of the Amendments with respect to the Old Convertible Notes, the Old Convertible Note Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreement and the Old Convertible Note Security Documents. See “Description of the Old Convertible Notes, as amended by the Amendments” for information regarding the terms of the Old Convertible Notes, the Old Convertible Note Indenture, the Old Convertible Note Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreement after giving effect to the Amendments.

Collateral Release. The Amendments would provide for the Collateral Release, including by amending the Old Convertible Note Indenture and the Intercreditor Agreement and by terminating or amending, as applicable to effect the Collateral Release, the Old Convertible Note Security Documents.

Amendments to Events of Default in the Old Convertible Note Indenture. The Amendments would eliminate certain Events of Default under the Old Convertible Note Indenture. The only Events of Default that would remain relate to payment defaults (clauses (i) and (ii) of Section 8.01), conversion (clauses (iii), (v) and (vi) of Section 8.01), bankruptcy defaults (with respect to U.S. Concrete only) (clauses (xi) and (xii) of Section 8.01) and guarantees (clause (xiii) of Section 8.01).

Amendments to Intercreditor Agreement. The Amendments would amend the Intercreditor Agreement to increase the “ABL Cap Amount” (as defined therein) from $80.0 million to $102.5 million (plus an additional $10.25 million that may be used solely in a limited circumstance), to reflect the Collateral Release, and to provide for the liens that formerly secured the Old Convertible Notes to instead secure the New Senior Notes. The Amended Convertible Notes will be unsecured.

Amendment to Old Convertible Notes. The Amendments would make any necessary conforming changes to the Old Convertible Notes.

Expiration Date; Extensions; Amendments

This exchange offer will expire at 12:00 midnight, New York City time on March 21, 2013, unless we extend it. The New Senior Notes issued pursuant to this exchange offer will be delivered promptly following the expiration date to the holders who validly tender their Old Convertible Notes.

In order to extend this exchange offer, we will notify the exchange and information agent orally or in writing of any extension. We will notify in writing or by public announcement to the registered holders of Old Convertible Notes of the extension no later than 9:00 a.m., New York City time, on the business day after the previously scheduled expiration date.

We reserve the right:

to extend this exchange offer or to terminate this exchange offer and to refuse to accept Old Convertible Notes not previously accepted if any of the conditions set forth below under the caption “—Conditions to this Exchange Offer” have not been, or we reasonably determine cannot be, satisfied, on or prior to the expiration date; or to amend the terms of this exchange offer in any manner.

Any such extension, termination or amendment will be subject to the rights and privileges of the signatories to the Exchange and Consent Agreements, subject to our right to terminate the exchange offer if the exchange has not been consummated prior to April 10, 2013, other than as a result of our breach of any of the terms of the Exchange and Consent Agreements or a delay in the consummation of the exchange offer caused by us.

Any such extension, termination or amendment will be followed as promptly as practicable by oral or written notice or public announcement thereof to the registered holders of Old Convertible Notes. If we amend this exchange offer in a manner that we determine to constitute a material change, including the waiver of a material condition, we will promptly disclose such amendment in a manner reasonably calculated to inform the holders of Old Convertible Notes of such amendment and will extend this exchange offer to the extent required by law, if necessary. Generally we must keep this exchange offer open for at least five business days after a material change. Pursuant to Rule 14e-1(b) under the Exchange Act, if we decrease the percentage of Old Convertible Notes being sought, we will extend this exchange offer for at least ten business days from the date that notice of such decrease is first published, sent or given by us to holders of the Old Convertible Notes. We currently do not intend to decrease the percentage of Old Convertible Notes being sought.

Without limiting the manner in which we may choose to make public announcements of any extension, termination or amendment of this exchange offer, we shall have no obligation to publish, advertise, or otherwise communicate any such public announcement, other than by issuing a timely press release to a financial news service.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the exchange offer to the contrary, we will not accept for exchange, or exchange any New Senior Notes for, any Old Convertible Notes, and we will terminate this exchange offer as provided in this prospectus before accepting any Old Convertible Notes for exchange if any of the following conditions have not been met, on or prior to the expiration of the exchange offer:

the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part shall have become effective and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement (and no proceeding for that purpose) shall have been instituted, or be pending, by the SEC; and

- the trustee under the indenture governing the Old Convertible Notes shall have executed and delivered the supplemental indenture giving effect to the Amendments to the Old Convertible Note Indenture;
- the indenture governing the New Senior Notes shall have been qualified under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended; and no order, statute, rule, regulation, executive order, stay, decree, judgment or injunction shall have been enacted, entered, issued, promulgated, enforced by or otherwise be in effect as the result of an act by any court or governmental authority, that prohibits the consummation of the exchange offer on, or consistent with, the terms and conditions set forth in this prospectus and of each of the Exchange and Consent Agreements, and such condition remains in effect.

Furthermore, we will not be required to accept for exchange, or exchange any New Senior Notes for, any Old Convertible Notes unless on or prior to the expiration of the exchange offer:

we have received consents to make the Amendments, which have not been revoked, by the holders of at least 66 2/3% in principal amount of outstanding Old Convertible Notes not held by our affiliates (the "Minimum Consent Condition");

at least 82.5% of the outstanding principal amount of Old Convertible Notes have been validly tendered and not properly withdrawn (the "Minimum Tender Condition"); and the Revolving Facility Agent has consented to the amendments to the Intercreditor Agreement to increase the ABL Cap Amount, to enable the New Senior Notes and related guarantees to have valid liens and perfected security interests on the collateral as described elsewhere herein, and to effect the Collateral Release.

We expressly reserve the right, at any time or at various times on or prior to the scheduled expiration date of the exchange offer, to extend the period of time during which this exchange offer is open (subject to the terms and conditions of the Exchange and Consent Agreements). This may include, without limitation, altering or waiving the Minimum Tender Condition. Consequently, we may delay acceptance of any Old Convertible Notes by giving oral or written notice of such extension of the expiration date to the registered holders of the Old Convertible Notes in accordance with the notice procedures described in the following paragraph. During any such extensions, all Old Convertible Notes previously tendered will remain subject to this exchange offer, and we may accept them for exchange unless they have been previously withdrawn. We will return any Old Convertible Notes that we do not accept for exchange for any reason without expense to their tendering holder promptly after the expiration or termination of this exchange offer.

We expressly reserve the right, subject to the terms and conditions of the Exchange and Consent Agreements, to amend or terminate this exchange offer on or prior to the scheduled expiration date of the exchange offer, and to reject for exchange any Old Convertible Notes not previously accepted for exchange, if any of the conditions of this exchange offer specified above are not satisfied, including the Minimum Tender Condition or the Minimum Consent Condition. We will give oral or written notice or public announcement of any extension, amendment, non-acceptance or termination to the registered holders of the Old Convertible Notes as promptly as practicable. In the case of any extension, such notice will be issued no later than 9:00 a.m., New York City time, on the business day after the previously scheduled expiration date.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Exchange and Consent Agreements, we may assert these conditions regardless of the circumstances that may give rise to them, or waive them in whole or in part at any time or at various times except as to the requirements that (i) the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part be declared effective and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement and no proceedings for that purposes shall have been instituted or pending and (ii) the indenture relating to the New Senior Notes be qualified under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended. If we waive any of the other conditions to the exchange offer, such waiver will apply equally to all holders of the Old Convertible Notes tendered in the exchange offer. If we fail to exercise any of the foregoing rights, that failure in itself will not constitute a waiver of such right. Each such right will be deemed an ongoing right that we may assert at any time or at various times except that all conditions to this exchange offer, other than those described in the first sentence of this section, must be satisfied or waived by us at or before the expiration of this exchange offer. There are no dissenters' rights of appraisal under Delaware law applicable to this exchange offer.

Procedures for Tendering and Delivering Consents

Only a holder of Old Convertible Notes may tender such Old Convertible Notes in this exchange offer. To tender in this exchange offer and give your consent to the Amendments, a holder must:

complete, sign and date the letter of transmittal & consent, or a facsimile of the letter of transmittal & consent; have the signature on the letter of transmittal & consent guaranteed if the letter of transmittal & consent so requires; and mail or deliver such letter of transmittal & consent or facsimile to the exchange and information agent prior to the expiration date; or

• comply with DTC's Automated Tender Offer Program procedures described below.

In addition, either:

• the exchange and information agent must receive Old Convertible Notes along with the letter of transmittal & consent; or

• the exchange and information agent must receive, prior to the expiration date, a timely confirmation of book-entry transfer of such Old Convertible Notes into the exchange and information agent's account at DTC according to the procedures for book-entry transfer described below or a properly transmitted agent's message.

We are not providing for procedures for tenders of Old Convertible Notes to be made by guaranteed delivery. Accordingly, you must allow sufficient time for the necessary tender procedures to be completed during normal business hours on or prior to the expiration date. If you hold your Old Convertible Notes through a broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee, you should keep in mind that such entity may require you to take action with respect to the exchange offer a number of days before the expiration date in order for such entity to tender Old Convertible Notes on your behalf on or prior to the expiration date. Tenders not completed prior to 12:00 midnight, New York City time, at the end of the expiration date will be disregarded and of no effect. To be tendered effectively, the exchange and information agent must receive any physical delivery of the letter of transmittal & consent and other required documents at the address set forth below under “—Exchange and Information Agent” prior to the expiration date.

The tender by a holder that is not withdrawn prior to the expiration date will constitute an agreement between such holder and us in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this prospectus and in the letter of transmittal & consent.

The method of delivery of Old Convertible Notes, the letter of transmittal & consent and all other required documents to the exchange and information agent is at the holder's election and risk. Rather than mail these items, we recommend that holders use an overnight or hand delivery service. In all cases, holders should allow sufficient time to assure delivery to the exchange and information agent before the expiration date. Holders should not send us the letter of transmittal & consent or Old Convertible Notes. Holders may request their respective brokers, dealers, commercial banks, trust companies or other nominees to effect the above transactions for them.

Any beneficial owner whose Old Convertible Notes are registered in the name of a broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee and who wishes to tender should contact the registered holder promptly and instruct it to tender on the owners' behalf. If such beneficial owner wishes to tender on its own behalf, it must, prior to completing and executing the letter of transmittal & consent and delivering its Old Convertible Notes, either:

- make appropriate arrangements to register ownership of the Old Convertible Notes in such owner's name; or
- obtain a properly completed bond power from the registered holder of Old Convertible Notes.

The transfer of registered ownership may take considerable time and may not be completed prior to the expiration date.

Signatures on a letter of transmittal & consent or a notice of withdrawal described below must be guaranteed by a member firm of a registered national securities exchange or of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., a commercial bank or trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States or another “eligible institution” within the meaning of Rule 17Ad-15 under the Exchange Act, unless the Old Convertible Notes tendered pursuant thereto are tendered:

• by a registered holder who has not completed the box entitled “Special Issuance Instructions” or “Special Delivery Instructions” on the letter of transmittal & consent; or

• for the account of an eligible institution.

If the letter of transmittal & consent is signed by a person other than the registered holder of any Old Convertible Notes listed on the Old Convertible Notes, such Old Convertible Notes must be endorsed or accompanied by a properly completed bond power. The bond power must be signed by the registered holder as the registered holder's name appears on the Old Convertible Notes and an eligible institution must guarantee the signature on the bond power.

If the letter of transmittal & consent or any Old Convertible Notes or bond powers are signed by trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, attorneys-in-fact, officers of corporations or others acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity, such persons should so indicate when signing. Unless waived by us, they should also submit evidence satisfactory to us of their authority to deliver the letter of transmittal & consent.

The exchange and information agent and DTC have confirmed that any financial institution that is a participant in DTC's system may use ATOP to tender. Participants in the program may, instead of physically completing and signing the letter of transmittal & consent and delivering it to the exchange and information agent, transmit their acceptance of this exchange offer electronically. They may do so by causing DTC to transfer the Old Convertible Notes to the exchange and information agent in accordance with its procedures for transfer. DTC will then send an agent's message to the exchange and information agent. The term "agent's message" means a message transmitted by DTC, received by the exchange and information agent and forming part of the book-entry confirmation, to the effect that:

DTC has received an express acknowledgment from a participant in its Automated Tender Offer Program that it is tendering Old Convertible Notes that are the subject of such book-entry confirmation; such participant has received and agrees to be bound by the terms of the letter of transmittal & consent; and the agreement may be enforced against such participant.

We will determine in our sole discretion all questions as to the validity, form, eligibility (including time of receipt), acceptance of tendered Old Convertible Notes and withdrawal of tendered Old Convertible Notes. Our determination will be final and binding. We reserve the absolute right to reject any Old Convertible Notes not properly tendered or any Old Convertible Notes the acceptance of which would, in the opinion of our outside counsel, be unlawful. We also reserve the right to waive any defects, irregularities or conditions of tender as to particular Old Convertible Notes. Our interpretation of the terms and conditions of this exchange offer (including the instructions in the letter of transmittal & consent) will be final and binding on all parties, subject to any rights of the signatories to the Exchange and Support Agreements pursuant to the terms thereof. Unless waived, any defects or irregularities in connection with tenders of Old Convertible Notes must be cured within such time as we shall determine. Although we intend to notify holders of defects or irregularities with respect to tenders of Old Convertible Notes, neither we, the exchange and information agent nor any other person will incur any liability for failure to give such notification. Tendere of Old Convertible Notes will not be deemed made until such defects or irregularities have been cured or waived. Any Old Convertible Notes received by the exchange and information agent that are not properly tendered and as to which the defects or irregularities have not been cured or waived will be returned to the exchange and information agent without cost to the tendering holder, unless otherwise provided in the letter of transmittal & consent, promptly following the expiration date.

Book-Entry Transfer

The exchange and information agent will make a request to establish an account with respect to the Old Convertible Notes at DTC for purposes of this exchange offer promptly after the date of this prospectus; and any financial institution participating in DTC's system may make book-entry delivery of Old Convertible Notes by causing DTC to transfer such Old Convertible Notes into the exchange and information agent's account at DTC in accordance with DTC's procedures for transfer.

Withdrawal of Tenders and Revocation of Consent

Except as otherwise provided in this prospectus, holders of Old Convertible Notes may withdraw their tenders at any time prior to the expiration date. The valid withdrawal of Old Convertible Notes will be deemed to be a concurrent revocation of the consent to the Amendments. Holders of Old Convertible Notes may only revoke their consent by validly withdrawing the related Old Convertible Notes prior to the expiration date.

For a withdrawal to be effective:

the exchange and information agent must receive a written notice, which notice may be by telegram, telex, facsimile transmission or letter of withdrawal at one of the addresses set forth below under “—Exchange and Information Agent,” or holders must comply with the appropriate procedures of DTC's Automated Tender Offer Program system.

Any such notice of withdrawal must:

- specify the name of the person who tendered the Old Convertible Notes to be withdrawn;
- identify the Old Convertible Notes to be withdrawn, including the principal amount of such Old Convertible Notes; and
- where certificates for Old Convertible Notes have been transmitted, specify the name in which such Old Convertible Notes were registered, if different from that of the withdrawing holder.

If certificates for Old Convertible Notes have been delivered or otherwise identified to the exchange and information agent, then, prior to the release of such certificates, the withdrawing holder must also submit:

- the serial numbers of the particular certificates to be withdrawn; and
- a signed notice of withdrawal with signatures guaranteed by an eligible institution unless such holder is an eligible institution.

If Old Convertible Notes have been tendered pursuant to the procedure for book-entry transfer described above, any notice of withdrawal must specify the name and number of the account at DTC to be credited with the withdrawn Old Convertible Notes and otherwise comply with the procedures of such facility. We will determine all questions as to the validity, form and eligibility, including time of receipt, of such notices, and our determination shall be final and binding on all parties. We will deem any Old Convertible Notes so withdrawn not to have been validly tendered for exchange for purposes of this exchange offer. Any Old Convertible Notes that have been tendered for exchange but that are not exchanged for any reason will be returned to their holder without cost to the holder (or, in the case of Old Convertible Notes tendered by book-entry transfer into the exchange and information agent's account at DTC according to the procedures described above, such Old Convertible Notes will be credited to an account maintained with DTC for Old Convertible Notes) as soon as practicable after withdrawal, rejection of tender or termination of this exchange offer. Properly withdrawn Old Convertible Notes may be retendered by following one of the procedures described under "—Procedures for Tendering and Delivering Consents" above at any time on or prior to the expiration date.

Exchange and Consent Agreements

In connection with the exchange offer, we have negotiated and entered into separate exchange and consent agreements, dated as of December 20, 2012 (the "Exchange and Consent Agreements"), with (1) affiliates of Whippoorwill Associates, Inc. and (2) affiliates of Monarch Alternative Capital LP who, as of the date hereof, hold approximately $22,717,000 and $11,975,000, respectively (or 41.3% and 21.8%, respectively) of the outstanding Old Convertible Notes in the aggregate. Pursuant to the Exchange and Consent Agreements, such security holders agreed to tender all of their Old Convertible Notes in the exchange offer and consent to the Amendments. As of the date hereof, such security holders have tendered and not withdrawn all of their Old Convertible Notes for exchange. Pursuant to the terms of the Exchange and Consent Agreements, we agreed to take all actions reasonably necessary to consummate the exchange offer prior to April 10, 2013.

We have agreed to reimburse the legal fees of counsel retained to represent, severally and not jointly, holders of Old Convertible Notes that have executed Exchange and Consent Agreements in connection with the entering into of such agreements. We have arranged for such counsel, subject to conflicts and other customary considerations, to upon request represent, severally and not jointly, any other holders of Old Convertible Notes who request such representation in connection with the exchange offer, and we have agreed to reimburse the legal fees of such counsel in connection with any such representation.

The foregoing description is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by a reference to the complete text of the Exchange and Consent Agreements, copies of which have been filed as exhibits to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part.

Fees and Expenses

We will bear the expenses of soliciting tenders. The principal solicitation is being made by mail; however, we may make additional solicitations by telegraph, telephone or in person by our officers and regular employees and those of our affiliates.

We have not retained any dealer-manager in connection with this exchange offer and will not make any payments to broker-dealers or others soliciting acceptances of this exchange offer. We will, however, pay the exchange and information agent reasonable and customary fees for its services and reimburse it for its related reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. Furthermore, Houlihan Lokey, Inc. ("Houlihan") was retained by and has acted as a financial adviser to the Company, was involved in discussions with the holders of Old Convertible Notes with respect to the Exchange and Consent Agreements and will be involved with discussions with investors regarding the exchange offer. We have agreed to pay Houlihan reasonable and customary fees (including a success fee), reimburse Houlihan for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and to indemnify Houlihan.

Our expenses in connection with this exchange offer include:

- SEC registration fees;
- fees and expenses of the Trustee;
- fees and expenses of exchange and information agent;
- accounting and legal fees and printing costs; and
- related fees and expenses.

Transfer Taxes

We will pay all transfer taxes, if any, applicable to the exchange of Old Convertible Notes under this exchange offer. The tendering holder, however, will be required to pay any transfer taxes, whether imposed on the registered holder or any other person, if:

certificates representing Old Convertible Notes for principal amounts not tendered or accepted for exchange are to be delivered to, or are to be issued in the name of, any person other than the registered holder of Old Convertible Notes tendered; tendered Old Convertible Notes are registered in the name of any person other than the person signing the letter of transmittal & consent; or a transfer tax is imposed for any reason other than the exchange of Old Convertible Notes under this exchange offer.

If satisfactory evidence of payment of such taxes is not submitted with the letter of transmittal & consent, the amount of such transfer taxes will be billed to that tendering holder.

Holders who tender their Old Convertible Notes for exchange will not be required to pay any transfer taxes. However, holders who instruct us to register New Senior Notes in the name of, or request that Old Convertible Notes not tendered or not accepted in this exchange offer be returned to, a person other than the registered tendering holder will be required to pay any applicable transfer tax.

Consequences of Failure to Exchange

Consummation of the exchange offer and consent solicitation may have adverse consequences to holders of Old Convertible Notes who elect not to participate in the exchange offer and therefore hold Amended Convertible Notes. In particular, the trading market for the Amended Convertible Notes could become more limited than the existing trading market for the Old Convertible Notes and could cease to exist altogether due to the reduction in the amount of the Old Convertible Notes outstanding upon consummation of the exchange offer. A more limited trading market might adversely affect both the value of the Amended Convertible Notes and the ability of the holders of the Amended Convertible Notes to sell the Amended Convertible Notes.

The Amendments would eliminate substantially all of the restrictive covenants contained in the Old Convertible Note Indenture and certain events of default and provide for a release of all of the liens on the collateral securing the Old Convertible Notes and the related guarantees under the Old Convertible Note Indenture and the Old Convertible Note Security Documents. As a result, if the Amendments become effective, holders of Amended Convertible Notes will not be entitled to the benefit of those covenants, liens, events of default and other provisions. The elimination or modification of these provisions will permit us to take certain actions previously prohibited without needing to obtain the consent of any holder of the Amended Convertible Notes. Those actions could increase the credit risks associated with us, as well as adversely affect the market price of the Amended Convertible Notes that remain outstanding. See “Risk Factors — Risks Related to the Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation.”

Accounting Treatment

We will record the New Senior Notes in our accounting records at their face value of $69,300,000. The Old Convertible Notes are recorded at a discount in our accounting records due to the embedded derivative that was bifurcated and separately valued on the balance sheet. Accordingly, we will recognize a gain or loss for accounting purposes in connection with this exchange offer to the extent the discounted amount of the Old Convertible Notes combined with the value of the embedded derivative is greater or less than the face value of the New Senior Notes at the time of the exchange. We will capitalize the expenses of this exchange offer as deferred financing costs and expense these costs over the life of the New Senior Notes.

Other

From time to time, we may in the future seek to acquire untendered Amended Convertible Notes in the open market or privately negotiated transactions, for cash or other consideration, through subsequent exchange offers or otherwise, on terms that may be more or less favorable than the terms of the exchange offer, but we will have no obligation to do so, and our right to do so may be limited by the terms and conditions of our Revolving Facility, the Indenture and other documents.

COMPARISON OF RIGHTS AMONG OLD CONVERTIBLE NOTES, AMENDED CONVERTIBLE NOTES AND NEW SENIOR NOTES

The following is a description of the material differences among the rights of holders of the Old Convertible Notes, the Amended Convertible Notes and the New Senior Notes. Since this is only a summary, it does not contain all of the information that may be important to you. You should carefully read this entire prospectus, and the full text of the documents referred to herein and filed as exhibits to or incorporated by reference in the registration statement, of which this prospectus forms a part, for a more complete understanding of the differences among being a holder of Old Convertible Notes, being a holder of Amended Convertible Notes and being a holder of New Senior Notes.

Amount and Interest

Old Convertible Notes: An aggregate principal amount of $55,000,000 of the Old Convertible Notes is issued, having an interest rate of 9.5% payable quarterly on March 1, June 1, September 1, and December 1.

Amended Convertible Notes: The aggregate principal amount of Amended Convertible Notes will be equal to the aggregate principal amount of Old Convertible Notes, $55,000,000, minus the aggregate principal amount of Old Convertible Notes exchanged for New Senior Notes. If the Minimum Tender Condition is satisfied, the aggregate principal amount of Amended Convertible Notes will be equal to or less than $9,625,000. If all Old Convertible Notes are exchanged for New Senior Notes, there will be no Amended Convertible Notes. The Amended Convertible Notes will have an interest rate of 9.5% payable quarterly on March 1, June 1, September 1 and December 1, commencing on June 1, 2013.

New Senior Notes: An aggregate principal amount of up to $69,300,000 of the New Senior Notes is being issued, having an interest rate of 9.5% payable semi-annually on April 1 and October 1, commencing on October 1, 2013.

Maturity Date

Old Convertible Notes: The Old Convertible Notes will mature and become payable in full on August 31, 2015.

Amended Convertible Notes: The Amended Convertible Notes will mature and become payable in full on August 31, 2015.

New Senior Notes: The New Senior Notes will mature and become payable in full on October 1, 2015.

Collateral

Old Convertible Notes: The Old Convertible Notes and related guarantees are currently secured by first-priority liens on certain of the property and assets directly owned by us and each of the guarantors, including material owned real property, fixtures, intellectual property, capital stock of subsidiaries and certain equipment, subject to permitted liens (including a second-priority lien pursuant to the Revolving Facility) with certain exceptions and by a second-priority lien on the assets of the Company and the guarantors securing the obligations under the Revolving Facility on a first-priority basis, including inventory (including as-extracted collateral), accounts, certain specified mixer trucks, chattel paper, general intangibles (other than collateral securing the Old Convertible Notes on a first-priority basis), instruments, documents, cash, deposit accounts, securities accounts, commodities accounts, letter of credit rights and all supporting obligations and related books and records and all proceeds and products of the foregoing, subject to permitted liens and certain exceptions. The ABL Cap Amount under the existing Intercreditor Agreement is $80.0 million.

Amended Convertible Notes: The Amended Convertible Notes will be unsecured.

New Senior Notes: Holders of the New Senior Notes will have the same collateral rights as holders of the Old Convertible Notes. The ABL Cap Amount under the Intercreditor Agreement, after giving effect to the Amendments, will be $102.5 million (plus an additional $10.25 million that may be used solely in a limited circumstance).

Accordingly, in certain circumstances, a larger amount of Revolving Facility Obligations will be entitled to the benefit of a first-priority lien in the collateral that will secure the Revolving Facility Obligations and the New Senior Notes than the amount of Revolving Facility Obligations that are currently entitled to the benefit of a first-priority lien in such collateral.

Conversion Rights

Old Convertible Notes: Each $1,000 principal amount of Old Convertible Notes is convertible into 95.23809524 shares of Common Stock, subject to adjustment as set forth in the Old Convertible Notes Indenture.

Amended Convertible Notes: Each $1,000 principal amount of Amended Convertible Notes is convertible into 95.23809524 shares of Common Stock, subject to adjustment as set forth in the Old Convertible Notes Indenture, as amended by the Amendments.

New Senior Notes: The New Senior Notes will not be convertible.

Optional Redemption

Old Convertible Notes: Except following a Conversion Event (as defined in the Old Convertible Notes Indenture), the Issuer may not redeem the Old Convertible Notes.

Amended Convertible Notes: Except following a Conversion Event (as defined in the Old Convertible Notes Indenture, as amended by the Amendments), the Issuer may not redeem the Amended Convertible Notes.

New Senior Notes: At any time, the Issuer may redeem all or any portion of the then outstanding New Senior Notes at the following percentages of the principal amount, plus interest:

Until December 31, 2013: 100%

January 1, 2014 - December 31, 2014: 102%

January 1, 2015 - October 1, 2015 (the Maturity Date): 103%

Holder's Put Right Upon a Change of Control

Old Convertible Notes: If a Fundamental Change of Control (as defined in the Old Convertible Note Indenture) occurs, each holder of Old Convertible Notes may require the Company to purchase all of such holder's Old Convertible Notes at a purchase price equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof together with any accrued and unpaid interest thereon.

Amended Convertible Notes: If a Fundamental Change of Control (as defined in the Old Convertible Note Indenture, as amended by the Amendments) occurs, each holder of Amended Convertible Notes may require the Company to purchase all of such holder's Amended Convertible Notes at a purchase price equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof together with any accrued and unpaid interest thereon.

New Senior Notes: Holders of New Senior Notes will have a similar put right to that of the holders of Old Convertible Notes. However, for holders of New Senior Notes, the put right will vest on a Change of Control (as defined in the Indenture), which, in addition to the events that would result in a Fundamental Change of Control, will include a merger or consolidation in which 90% or more of the consideration consists of common stock of a company registered on a national exchange, regardless of whether the market capitalization of the acquiror is greater than that of the Company when the merger or consolidation is publicly announced.

Geographical Restrictions on Investments and Asset Acquisitions

Old Convertible Notes: The Old Convertible Note Indenture does not contain covenants directly restricting the ability of the Company to make investments or asset acquisitions that are based on the geographical location of the target or its operations.

Amended Convertible Notes: The Old Convertible Note Indenture, as amended by the Amendments, does not contain covenants directly restricting the ability of the Company to make investments or asset acquisitions that are based on the geographical location of the target or its operations.

New Senior Notes: The Indenture will limit the ability of the Company to use the proceeds of Revolving Facility loans to finance new investments or asset acquisitions that are outside of California, Texas, Oklahoma, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia.

MARKET FOR OUR COMMON EQUITY

We operated and reorganized the Company under the provisions of Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code from April 29, 2010 until August 31, 2010, which we refer to as our Plan of Reorganization, or Plan. Our common stock that was canceled as a result of our Plan of Reorganization, or our Old Common Stock, ceased trading on the NASDAQ Global Select Market on May 10, 2010 and was traded in the over-the-counter market under the symbol "RMIX.PK" until the effective date of our Plan of Reorganization on August 31, 2010, or the Effective Date. Upon the Effective Date of the Plan, the Old Common Stock was canceled and holders of the Old Common Stock received warrants to acquire common stock in two tranches; which we refer to as Class A Warrants and Class B Warrants, or collectively as the Warrants. The holders of the 8.375% senior subordinated notes due 2014, or the Old Notes, were issued 11.9 million shares of new common stock on the Effective Date, which began trading on the over-the-counter Bulletin Board; which we refer to as the OTC Bulletin Board or OTC BB, on October 15, 2010 under the symbol "USCR". Our new common stock was listed and began trading on the NASDAQ Capital Market on February 1, 2011 under the symbol "USCR". The share price of the Old Common Stock bears no relation to the share price of the new common stock.

As of February 25, 2013, shares of our common stock were held by approximately 1,825 stockholders of record. The number of record holders does not necessarily bear any relationship to the number of beneficial owners of our common stock.

The following table sets forth, for the periods indicated, the range of high and low sales prices for our common stock:

	2012		2011
	High	Low	High	Low
First Quarter	$5.11	$3.25	$12.03	$7.75
Second Quarter	$6.18	$4.45	$9.79	$8.04
Third Quarter	$7.81	$4.94	$8.85	$4.00
Fourth Quarter	$9.16	$6.05	$4.50	$1.90

We have not paid or declared any dividends since our formation and currently do not intend to pay dividends or the foreseeable future. Additional information concerning restrictions on our payment of cash dividends may be found in "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations—Liquidity and Capital Resources," and Note 9 to our Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere in this prospectus, under the sub-heading "Convertible Secured Notes due 2015."

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Statements we make in the following discussion that express a belief, expectation or intention, as well as those that are not historical fact are forward-looking statements that are subject to various risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Our actual results, performance or achievements, or market conditions or industry results, could differ materially from those we express in the following discussion as a result of a variety of factors, including the risks and uncertainties to which we refer under the headings "Forward-Looking Statements" and "Risk Factors" in this prospectus.

Our Business

The sale of our California and Arizona precast operations during 2012 represented a disposal of a significant majority of our previously reported precast operating segment. These disposals were part of our strategy to become the premier focused domestic supplier of ready-mixed concrete in the United States. As such, during the fourth quarter of 2012, we made changes to better align our operating and reportable segments with our overall strategy and the manner in which we organize and manage our business. Our two reportable segments consist of ready-mixed concrete and aggregate products as described below. Historical segment results have been reclassified to conform with these changes.

We derive substantially all of our revenues from the sale of ready-mixed concrete and aggregate products to the construction industry in the United States. We typically sell our products under purchase orders that require us to formulate, prepare and deliver the product to our customers' job sites. The principal states in which we operate are Texas, California and New Jersey/New York. Revenue by principal location, as a percentage of revenue from continuing operations, was as follows:

North and west Texas	41	% 37	%
New Jersey/New York	18	% 21	%

We serve substantially all segments of the construction industry in our markets. Our customers include contractors for commercial and industrial, residential, street and highway and other public works construction. The approximate percentages of our concrete product revenue by type of construction activity were as follows in 2012 and 2011:

	2012	2011
Commercial and industrial	52	% 67	%
Residential	20	% 16	%
Street, highway and other public works	28	% 17	%

The geographic markets for our products are generally local, and our operating results are subject to fluctuations in the level and mix of construction activity that occur in our markets. The level of activity affects the demand for our products, while the product mix of activity among the various segments of the construction industry affects both our relative competitive strengths and our operating margins. Commercial and industrial projects generally provide more opportunities to sell value-added products that are designed to meet the high-performance requirements of these types of projects.

Our customers are generally involved in the construction industry, which is a cyclical business and is subject to general and more localized economic conditions, including the recessionary conditions impacting all our markets. In addition, our business is impacted by seasonal variations in weather conditions, which vary by regional market. Accordingly, demand for our products and services during the winter months are typically lower than in other months of the year because of inclement weather. Also, sustained periods of inclement weather and other adverse weather conditions could cause the delay of construction projects during other times of the year.

Ready-Mixed Concrete. Our ready-mixed concrete segment engages principally in the formulation, preparation and delivery of ready-mixed concrete to the job sites of our customers. Ready-mixed concrete is a highly versatile construction material that results from combining coarse and fine aggregates, such as gravel, crushed stone and sand, with water, various chemical admixtures and cement. We also provide services intended to reduce our customers' overall construction costs by lowering the installed, or "in-place," cost of concrete. These services include the formulation of mixtures for specific design uses, on-site and lab-based product quality control, and customized delivery programs to meet our customers' needs. We generally do not provide paving or other finishing services, which construction contractors or subcontractors typically perform. We provide our ready-mixed concrete from our operations in north and west Texas, northern California, New Jersey, New York, Washington, D.C. and Oklahoma.

Aggregate Products. Our aggregate products segment produces crushed stone, sand and gravel from seven aggregates facilities located in New Jersey and Texas. We sell these aggregates for use in commercial, industrial and public works projects in the markets they serve, as well as consume them internally in the production of ready-mixed concrete in those markets. We produced approximately 3.3 million tons of aggregates in 2012 from these facilities, with Texas producing 48% and New Jersey 52% of that total production. We believe our aggregates reserves provide us with additional raw materials sourcing flexibility and supply availability, although they provide us with a minimal supply of our annual consumption of aggregates. In addition, we have agreements to lease our sand pit operations in Michigan and one quarry in West Texas where we receive a royalty based on the volume of product produced and sold during the terms of the leases.

Market Trends

From 2007 through 2011, construction slowed significantly, which resulted in a decline in the demand for ready-mixed concrete. However, during 2012, construction and related demand for ready-mixed concrete improved for the first time since 2006. For the year ended December 31, 2012, our ready-mix concrete sales volume increased 19.6% compared to 2011. As a result of this higher sales volume and higher ready-mix sales prices, we experienced increases in our revenue period-over-period. We saw higher average ready-mix sales prices in most of our major markets during the fourth quarter of 2012 and have experienced increases in these prices period-over-period on a consolidated basis over the last seven consecutive fiscal quarters. Although higher raw material and fuel costs somewhat offset these improved volumes and average sales prices, we experienced improvements in operating efficiencies from the higher volumes. In addition, we continue to closely monitor our operating costs and capital expenditures.

Basis of Presentation

As described above, we now operate our business in two reportable segments: (1) Ready-mixed concrete and (2) Aggregate products. Our ready-mixed concrete segment produces and sells ready-mixed concrete. This segment serves the following principal markets: north and west Texas, California, New Jersey, New York, Washington, D.C. and Oklahoma. Our aggregate products segment includes crushed stone, sand and gravel products and serves the north and west Texas, New Jersey and New York markets in which our ready-mixed concrete segment operates.

In the fourth quarter of 2012, we changed the income measure used to evaluate performance of our segments to more closely align our reporting with the measure used to calculate the Company's compliance with debt covenants. Historical segment reporting has been recast to conform with this change.

We evaluate segment performance and allocate resources based on Adjusted EBITDA. We define Adjusted EBITDA as net income (loss) from continuing operations excluding interest, income taxes, depreciation, depletion and amortization, derivative gain (loss), and loss on extinguishment of debt. Additionally, Adjusted EBITDA is adjusted for items similar to certain of those used in calculating the Company's compliance with debt covenants. The additional items that are adjusted to determine our Adjusted EBITDA are:

• Non-cash stock compensation expense;

- Expenses associated with the relocation of our corporate headquarters; and
- Expenses associated with the departure of our former President and Chief Executive Officer during 2011 and hiring of our new President and Chief Executive Officer.

We consider Adjusted EBITDA an indicator of the operational strength and performance of our business. We have included Adjusted EBITDA because it is a key financial measure used by our management to (i) internally measure our operating performance and (ii) assess our ability to service our debt, incur additional debt and meet our capital expenditure requirements.

Adjusted EBITDA should not be construed as an alternative to, or a better indicator of, operating income or loss, is not based on accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and is not necessarily a measure of our cash flows or ability to fund our cash needs. Our measurements of Adjusted EBITDA may not be comparable to similar titled measures reported by other companies.

On August 20, 2012, we completed the sale of substantially all of the Company's California precast operations. On December 17, 2012, we completed the sale of substantially all of our assets associated with our Smith Precast operations. The results of operations for our California precast operations and Smith Precast operations have been included in discontinued operations for the periods presented.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our primary liquidity needs over the next 12 months consist of financing seasonal working capital requirements, servicing indebtedness under our Revolving Facility and our Old Convertible Notes and purchasing property and equipment. Our working capital needs are typically at their lowest level in the first quarter, increase in the second and third quarters to fund the increases in accounts receivable and inventories during those periods, and then decrease in the fourth quarter. Availability under the Credit Agreement is governed by a borrowing base primarily determined by our eligible accounts receivable, inventory and trucks (described below). While our working capital needs are typically at their lowest in the first quarter, our borrowing base typically declines also during the first quarter due to lower accounts receivable balances as a result of normal seasonality of our business caused by weather.

The projection of our cash needs is based upon many factors, including our forecasted volume, pricing, cost of materials and capital expenditures. Based on our projected cash needs, we believe that the Revolving Facility will provide us with sufficient liquidity in the ordinary course of business. The Revolving Facility is scheduled to mature in July 2015. If, however, the Revolving Facility is not adequate to fund our operations, or, in the event that our operating results and projected needs are proven to be incorrect, we would need to obtain an amendment to the Credit Agreement, seek other debt financing to provide additional liquidity, or sell assets. We continue to focus on managing our capital investment expenditures in order to maintain liquidity.

The principal factors that could adversely affect the amount of our internally generated funds include:

- deterioration of revenue, due to lower volume and/or pricing, because of weakness in the markets in which we operate;
- declines in gross margins due to shifts in our project mix or increases in the cost of our raw materials and fuel;
- any deterioration in our ability to collect our accounts receivable from customers as a result of weakening in construction demand or as a result of payment difficulties experienced by our customers; and
- inclement weather beyond normal patterns that could effect our concrete volumes.

Under the terms of the Old Convertible Note Indenture, we are required to meet a consolidated secured debt ratio test (as defined in the Old Convertible Note Indenture), which could restrict our ability to borrow the amount available under the Revolving Facility. The maximum consolidated secured debt ratio, as of the last day of each fiscal month is shown below:

Period	Consolidated Secured Debt Ratio
April 1, 2012 — March 31, 2013	7.50 : 1.00
April 1, 2013 — March 31, 2014	7.00 : 1.00
April 1, 2014 — March 31, 2015	6.75 : 1.00
April 1, 2015 — and thereafter	6.50 : 1.00

The consolidated secured debt ratio is the ratio of (a) our consolidated total indebtedness (as defined in the Old Convertible Note Indenture) on the date of determination that constitutes the Old Convertible Notes, any other pari passu lien obligations and any indebtedness incurred under the Revolving Facility (including any letters of credit issued thereunder) to (b) the aggregate amount of consolidated cash flow (as defined in the Old Convertible Note Indenture) for our then most recent four fiscal quarters for which our internal financial statements are available ending on or prior to the relevant date of determination. Based on consolidated cash flows for the four fiscal quarters ended December 31, 2012, our consolidated secured debt ratio was 3.22 to 1.00. In the event that we are not able to meet the consolidated secured debt ratio in the future, we would need to seek an amendment to the Old Convertible Note Indenture to provide relief from this covenant. If we do not meet this ratio and are unable to obtain an amendment or waiver of default, we could be in default under the Old Convertible Note Indenture as described below and, among other things, the amount we may borrow under the Revolving Facility could be restricted. Additionally, if our borrowings under the Revolving Facility are restricted, we may not have adequate liquidity to fund our operations. If we were to exceed the consolidated secured debt ratio, this would constitute an event of default under the Old Convertible Note Indenture if we failed to comply for 30 days after notice of the failure has been given to us by the Trustee or by holders of at least 25% of the aggregate principal amount of the Old Convertible Notes then outstanding. If an event of default occurs under the Old Convertible Note Indenture, the Trustee, or holders of at least 25% of the aggregate principal amount of the Old Convertible Notes then outstanding, may accelerate all aggregate principal and accrued and unpaid interest outstanding, which would become immediately due and payable. An event of default could also trigger cross default provisions in the Credit Agreement which could allow these creditors to accelerate outstanding indebtedness. Absent a waiver, amendment or adequate liquidity to fund operations, we would need to reduce or delay capital expenditures, sell assets, obtain additional capital or restructure or refinance our indebtedness. There can be no assurance that we could obtain additional capital or acceptable financing.

We intend to continue to explore various financing alternatives to improve our capital structure, including reducing debt, extending maturities or relaxing financial covenants. These may include new equity or debt financings or exchange offers with our existing security holders and other transactions involving our outstanding securities given their secondary market trading prices. In addition, we may consider buying Amended Convertible Notes and New Senior Notes in the market in the future, subject to restrictions in agreements and applicable law. We cannot provide assurances, if we pursue any of these transactions, that we will be successful in completing a transaction on attractive terms or at all.

The following key financial measurements reflect our financial position and capital resources as of December 31, 2012 and 2011 (dollars in thousands):

Cash and cash equivalents	$4,751	$4,229
Working capital	18,565	52,998
Total debt	$63,459	$61,086

Our cash and cash equivalents consist of highly liquid investments in deposits we hold at major financial institutions.

The discussion that follows provides a description of our arrangements relating to outstanding indebtedness.

Senior Secured Credit Facility due 2015

On August 31, 2012, we and certain of our subsidiaries entered into the Credit Agreement with certain financial institutions named therein, as lenders, or the Lenders, and Bank of America, N.A. as agent and sole lead arranger, or the Administrative Agent, which provides for the Revolving Facility. The Credit Agreement expires on July 1, 2015 and may be prepaid from time to time without penalty or premium. As of December 31, 2012, we had $13.3 million of outstanding borrowings and $12.2 million of undrawn standby letters of credit under the Revolving Facility. As of December 31, 2012, we had net borrowing availability of $52.4 million.

Our actual maximum credit availability under the Revolving Facility varies from time to time and is determined by calculating a borrowing base, which is based on the value of our eligible accounts receivable, inventory and vehicles, which serve as priority collateral on the facility, minus reserves imposed by the Lenders and other adjustments, all as specified in the Credit Agreement. The Credit Agreement also contains a provision for discretionary over-advances and involuntary protective advances by Lenders of up to $8 million in excess of the Revolving Facility commitments. The Credit Agreement provides for swingline loans, up to a $10 million sublimit, and letters of credit, up to a $30 million sublimit. The Credit Agreement also includes an uncommitted accordion feature of up to $45 million in the aggregate allowing for future incremental borrowings, subject to certain conditions, including the modification of the Old Convertible Note Indenture.

Advances under the Revolving Facility are in the form of either base rate loans or "LIBOR Loans" denominated in U.S. dollars. The interest rate for base rate loans denominated in U.S. dollars fluctuates and is equal to the greater of (a) Bank of America's prime rate; (b) the Federal funds rate, plus 0.50%; or (c) the rate per annum for a 30-day interest period equal to the British Bankers Association LIBOR Rate, as published by Reuters at approximately 11:00 a.m. (London time) two business days prior ("LIBOR"), plus 1.0%; in each case plus 1.50%. The interest rate for LIBOR Loans denominated in U.S. dollars is equal to the rate per annum for the applicable interest period equal to LIBOR, plus 2.75%. Issued and outstanding letters of credit are subject to a fee equal to 2.75%, a fronting fee equal to 0.125% per annum on the stated amount of such letter of credit, and customary charges associated with the issuance and administration of letters of credit. Among other fees, we pay a commitment fee of 0.375% per annum (due monthly) on the aggregate unused revolving commitments under the Revolving Facility.

Up to $30 million of the Revolving Facility is available for the issuance of letters of credit, and any such issuance of letters of credit will reduce the amount available for loans under the Revolving Facility. Advances under the Revolving Facility are limited by a borrowing base of (a) 90% of the face amount of eligible accounts receivable (reduced to 85% under certain circumstances), plus (b)) the lesser of (i) 55% of the value of eligible inventory or (ii) 85% of the product of (x) the net orderly liquidation value of inventory divided by the value of the inventory and (y) multiplied by the value of eligible inventory, and (c) the lesser of (i) $20.0 million or (ii) the sum of (A) 85% of the net orderly liquidation value (as determined by the most recent appraisal) of eligible trucks plus (B) 80% of the cost of newly acquired eligible trucks since the date of the latest appraisal of eligible trucks minus (C) 85% of the net orderly liquidation value of eligible trucks that have been sold since the latest appraisal date and 85% of the depreciation amount applicable to eligible trucks since the date of the latest appraisal of eligible trucks, minus (D) such reserves as the Administrative Agent may establish from time to time in its permitted discretion. The Administrative Agent may, in its permitted discretion, reduce the advance rates set forth above, adjust reserves or reduce one or more of the other elements used in computing the borrowing base.

The Credit Agreement contains usual and customary negative covenants for transactions of this type, including, but not limited to, restrictions on our ability to consolidate or merge; substantially change the nature of our business; sell, lease or otherwise transfer any of our assets; create or incur indebtedness; create liens; pay dividends; and make investments or acquisitions. The negative covenants are subject to certain exceptions as specified in the Credit Agreement. The Credit Agreement also requires that we, upon the occurrence of certain events, maintain a fixed charge coverage ratio of at least 1.0 to 1.0 for each period of twelve calendar months, as determined in accordance with the Credit Agreement. For the trailing twelve month period ended December 31, 2012, our fixed charge coverage ratio was 2.97 to 1.0. As of December 31, 2012, the Company was in compliance with all covenants.

The Credit Agreement also includes customary events of default, including, among other things, payment default, covenant default, breach of representation or warranty, bankruptcy, cross-default, material ERISA events, a change of control of the Company, material money judgments and failure to maintain subsidiary guarantees.

Senior Secured Credit Facility due 2014

Simultaneously with entering into the Credit Agreement referenced above, we terminated our agreement that governed our Senior Secured Credit Facility due 2014 (the "2010 Credit Agreement") which previously provided for a $75.0 million asset-based revolving credit facility. See Note 10 to our Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere in this prospectus for additional information.

Convertible Secured Notes due 2015

On August 31, 2010, we issued $55.0 million aggregate principal amount of Old Convertible Notes pursuant to a subscription offering contemplated by the Plan of Reorganization. The Old Convertible Notes are governed by the Old Convertible Note Indenture, dated as of August 31, 2010. Under the terms of the Old Convertible Note Indenture, the Old Convertible Notes bear interest at a rate of 9.5% per annum and will mature on August 31, 2015. Interest payments are payable quarterly in cash in arrears. Additionally, we recorded a discount of approximately $13.6 million related to an embedded derivative that was bifurcated and separately valued (see Note 11). This discount is being accreted over the term of the Old Convertible Notes and included in interest expense.

The Old Convertible Notes are convertible, at the option of the holder, at any time on or prior to maturity, into shares of our common stock, at an initial conversion rate of 95.23809524 shares of Common Stock per $1,000 principal amount of Old Convertible Notes, or the Conversion Rate. The Conversion Rate is subject to adjustment to prevent dilution resulting from stock splits, stock dividends, combinations or similar events. In connection with any such conversion, holders of the Old Convertible Notes to be converted shall also have the right to receive accrued and unpaid interest on such Old Convertible Notes to the date of conversion (the "Accrued Interest"). We may elect to pay the Accrued Interest in cash or in shares of Common Stock in accordance with the terms of the Old Convertible Note Indenture.

In addition, if a "Fundamental Change of Control" (as defined in the Old Convertible Note Indenture) occurs prior to the maturity date, in addition to any conversion rights the holders of Old Convertible Notes may have, each holder of Old Convertible Notes will have (i) a make-whole provision calculated as provided in the Old Convertible Note Indenture pursuant to which each holder may be entitled to additional shares of Common Stock upon conversion; which we refer to as the Make Whole Premium, and (ii) an amount equal to the interest on such Old Convertible Notes that would have been payable from the date of the occurrence of such Fundamental Change of Control; which we refer to as the Fundamental Change of Control Date, through the third anniversary of the Effective Date, plus any accrued and unpaid interest from the Effective Date to the Fundamental Change of Control Date (the amount in this clause (ii); which we refer to as the Make Whole Payment). We may elect to pay the Make Whole Payment in cash or in shares of Common Stock.

If the closing price of the Common Stock exceeds 150% of the Conversion Price (defined as $1,000 divided by the Conversion Rate) then in effect for at least 20 trading days during any consecutive 30-day trading period, or the Conversion Event, we may provide, at our option, a written notice, or the Conversion Event Notice, of the occurrence of the Conversion Event to each holder of Old Convertible Notes in accordance with the Old Convertible Note Indenture. Except as set forth in an Election Notice (as defined below), the right to convert Old Convertible Notes with respect to the occurrence of the Conversion Event shall terminate on the date that is 46 days following the date of the Conversion Event Notice, or the Conversion Termination Date, such that the holder shall have a 45-day period in which to convert its Old Convertible Notes up to the amount of the Conversion Cap (as defined below). Any Old Convertible Notes not converted prior to the Conversion Termination Date as a result of the Conversion Cap shall be, at the holder's election and upon written notice to the Company, or the Election Notice, converted into shares of Common Stock on a date or dates prior to the date that is 180 days following the Conversion Termination Date. The "Conversion Cap" means the number of shares of Common Stock into which the Old Convertible Notes are convertible and that would cause the related holder to "beneficially own" (as such term is used in the Exchange Act) more than 9.9% of the Common Stock at any time outstanding.

Any Old Convertible Notes not otherwise converted prior to the Conversion Termination Date or specified for conversion in an Election Notice shall be redeemable, in whole or in part, at our election at any time prior to maturity at par plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the Conversion Termination Date.

The Old Convertible Note Indenture contains certain covenants that restrict our ability to, among other things,

- incur additional indebtedness or issue disqualified stock or preferred stock;
- pay dividends or make other distributions or repurchase or redeem our stock or subordinated indebtedness or make investments;
- sell assets and issue capital stock of our restricted subsidiaries;
- incur liens;
- enter into transactions with affiliates; and
- consolidate, merge or sell all or substantially all of our assets.

The Old Convertible Notes are guaranteed by each of our existing, and will be guaranteed by each of our future, direct or indirect domestic restricted subsidiaries. In connection with the Old Convertible Note Indenture, on August 31, 2010, we and certain of our subsidiaries entered into a Pledge and Security Agreement, or the Pledge and Security Agreement, with the noteholder collateral agent. Pursuant to the Pledge and Security Agreement, the Old Convertible Notes and related guarantees are secured by first-priority liens on certain of the property and assets directly owned by the Company and each of the guarantors, including material owned real property, fixtures, intellectual property, capital stock of subsidiaries and certain equipment, subject to permitted liens (including a second-priority lien in favor of the Administrative Agent) with certain exceptions, including a limitation that the capital stock will constitute collateral securing the Old Convertible Notes only if the inclusion of such capital stock as collateral will not require us to file separate financial statements with the SEC pursuant to Rule 3-16 of Regulation S-X; which we refer to as the collateral cutback provision. In accordance with the collateral cutback provision, the collateral securing the Old Convertible Notes includes capital stock only to the extent that the applicable value of such capital stock is less than 20% of the principal amount of the notes outstanding. The applicable value of the capital stock of any subsidiary is deemed to be the greater of its par value, book value or market value. Although we have not had an external third-party market valuation conducted as to the capital stock of our subsidiaries, we estimate that the value of the capital stock of the following subsidiaries and their respective parent companies exceeded 20% of the principal amount of the Old Convertible Notes as of December 31, 2012: Redi-Mix, LLC, Ingram Concrete, LLC, Eastern Concrete Materials, Inc., Central Concrete Supply Co., Inc., Bode Gravel Co., Bode Concrete, LLC, U.S. Concrete Texas Holdings, Inc., Alberta Investments, Inc. and USC Atlantic, Inc. As a result, the pledge of the capital stock of these subsidiaries as it relates to the Old Convertible Notes is limited to capital stock of each such subsidiary with an applicable value of less than 20% of the outstanding principal amount of the Old Convertible Notes, or $11.0 million. The aggregate percentage of consolidated assets and revenues represented by these excluded subsidiaries as of December 31, 2012 is estimated to be 86% and 90%, respectively. As described above, assets of the excluded subsidiaries have been separately pledged as security for the Old Convertible Notes. The list of excluded subsidiaries was determined based upon internal company estimates of fair value and did not include third-party valuation of the subsidiaries, and should not be considered an indication as to what such subsidiaries might be able to be sold for in the market. The list of excluded subsidiaries may change as the applicable value of such capital stock or the outstanding principal amount of Old Convertible Notes changes. Obligations under the Revolving Facility and those in respect of hedging and cash management obligations owed to the lenders (and their affiliates) that are a party to the Credit Agreement; which we collectively refer to as the Revolving Facility Obligations, are secured by a second-priority lien on such collateral.

The Old Convertible Notes and related guarantees are also secured by a second-priority lien on the assets of the Company and the guarantors securing the Revolving Facility Obligations on a first-priority basis, including inventory (including as extracted collateral), accounts, certain specified mixer trucks, general intangibles (other than collateral securing the Old Convertible Notes on a first-priority basis), instruments, documents, cash, deposit accounts, securities accounts, commodities accounts, letter of credit rights and all supporting obligations and related books and records and all proceeds and products of the foregoing, subject to permitted liens and certain exceptions.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Our financial instruments consist of cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables, trade payables, long-term debt, other long-term obligations, and derivative liabilities. We consider the carrying values of cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables and trade payables to be representative of their respective fair values because of their short-term maturities or expected settlement dates. The carrying value of outstanding amounts under our Revolving Facility approximates fair value due to the floating interest rate, and the fair value of our Old Convertible Notes was approximately $68.8 million, including the embedded derivative of $17.2 million, at December 31, 2012, and was $53.8 million, including the embedded derivative of $1.6 million, at December 31, 2011. The fair value of issued Warrants was $4.9 million and $0.7 million at December 31, 2012 and 2011, respectively. The fair value of our long-term incentive plan associated with our acquisition of the Bode Companies during 2012 was $8.6 million, including the discount of $1.6 million. See Note 11 to our Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere in this prospectus for further information regarding our derivative liabilities, Note 12 regarding the long-term incentive plan related to the Bode Companies acquisition, and Note 13 regarding our fair value disclosure.

Cash Flow

Net cash provided by (used in):
Operating activities	$ 10,722	$(1,544)
Investing activities	(4,806) (3,929)
Financing activities	(5,394) 4,412
Net increase (decrease) in cash	$ 522	$(1,061)

Our net cash provided by or (used in) operating activities generally reflects the cash effects of transactions and other events used in the determination of net income or loss. Net cash provided by operating activities was $10.7 million for the year ended December 31, 2012, compared to net cash used in operating activities of $1.5 million in 2011. The 2012 period was favorably impacted by higher non-cash expenses included in our 2012 net loss, primarily the non-cash loss from derivative of $19.7 million, $16.3 million in depreciation, depletion, and amortization, the non-cash loss on extinguishment of debt of $2.6 million, $2.5 million in non-cash stock-based compensation, and $4.1 million in non-cash amortization of debt issuance costs, partially offset by $2.8 million in gains from sales of assets, and $4.0 million of non-cash income tax benefit, partially resulting from the acquisition of the Bode Companies which resulted in the reduction of our valuation allowance on our net deferred tax asset. During the 2011 period, our net cash used in operating activities primarily reflected the net loss for the period, favorably impacted by non-cash expenses included in our net loss for the period consisting primarily of $19.7 million of depreciation, depletion and amortization, $3.7 million in non-cash amortization of debt issuance costs, and $2.1 million of non-cash stock-based compensation, partially offset by a $13.4 million non-cash gain on our derivative.

We used $4.8 million of cash in investing activities in 2012 and used $3.9 million in 2011. During 2012, we received $27.0 million in proceeds from the sale of our California and Phoenix, Arizona precast operating units. In addition, we paid $28.6 million for acquisitions in our west Texas and northern California markets. Cash used in investing activities in 2011 generally reflected purchases of property, plant and equipment, partially offset by disposals of certain excess land and equipment.

Our net cash used in financing activities was $5.4 million in 2012 compared to $4.4 million provided by financing activities in 2011. During 2012, we reduced our borrowings under our credit facilities by $2.0 million and incurred $1.8 million of financing costs in conjunction with new credit arrangements. Our financing activities in 2011 consisted primarily of $6.8 million of net borrowings necessary to operate our business. These net borrowings in 2011 were partially offset by $1.6 million of note payments related to the acquisition of assets in our west Texas market and a redemption payment of our interest in the Michigan joint venture.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We do not currently have any off-balance sheet arrangements that have, or are reasonably likely to have a current or future effect on our financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources that is material to investors. From time to time, we may enter into noncancelable operating leases that would not be reflected on our balance sheet. For additional discussion on our operating leases, see Note 23 to our Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere in this prospectus.

Commitments

The following are our contractual commitments associated with our indebtedness and our lease obligations as of December 31, 2012 (in millions):

	Total	1 year or less	2-3 years	4-5 years	After 5 years
Contractual obligations
Principal on debt	$72.3	$1.9	$70.4	$—	$—
Interest on debt ⁽¹⁾	14.3	5.2	9.1	—	—
Operating leases	43.5	8.8	13.5	10.2	11.0
Total	$130.1	$15.9	$93.0	$10.2	$11.0

(1) Interest payments due under the Old Convertible Notes.

The following are our commercial commitment expirations as of December 31, 2012 (in millions):

	Total	Less Than 1 year	1-3 years	4-5 years	After 5 years
Other commercial commitments
Standby letters of credit	$12.2	$12.2	$—	$—	$—
Performance bonds	55.0	55.0	—	—	—
Total	$67.2	$67.2	$—	$—	$—

The standby letters of credit and performance bonds have not been drawn upon as of December 31, 2012. The following long-term liabilities included on the consolidated balance sheet are excluded from the table above: accrued employment costs, income tax contingencies, insurance accruals and other accruals. Due to the nature of these accruals, the estimated timing of such payments (or contributions in the case of certain accrued employment costs) for these items is not predictable. As of December 31, 2012, the total unrecognized tax benefit related to uncertain tax positions was $6.6 million. It is likely no reduction will occur within the next 12 months.

Acquisitions and Divestitures

Sale of California Precast Operations

On August 2, 2012, we executed a definitive asset purchase agreement to sell substantially all of the Company's California precast operations to Oldcastle for $21.3 million in cash, plus net working capital adjustments. The assets purchased by Oldcastle included certain facilities, fixed assets, and working capital items. The transaction was completed on August 20, 2012. The results of operations for these units have been included in discontinued operations for the periods presented.

Purchase of Colorado River Concrete Assets

On September 14, 2012, we purchased four ready-mixed concrete plants and related assets and inventory from CRC in our west Texas market for $2.4 million in cash and a $1.9 million promissory note at an annual interest rate of 4.5%, which will be paid in twenty-four equal monthly installments beginning in January 2013. The purchase of these assets allows us to expand our business in two of our major markets; west Texas and north Texas. We acquired plant and equipment valued at $3.2 million, inventory valued at $0.2 million, and goodwill valued at $1.0 million. No liabilities were assumed in the purchase. The goodwill ascribed to the purchase is related to the synergies we expect to achieve with expansion of these areas in which we already operate. We expect the goodwill to be deductible for tax purposes.

Purchase of Bode Gravel and Bode Concrete Equity Interests

On October 30, 2012, we completed the acquisition of all the outstanding equity interests of the Bode Companies pursuant to an equity purchase agreement, dated October 17, 2012. The Bode Companies operated two ready-mixed concrete plants, one new portable plant and 41 mixer trucks in the San Francisco area and produced approximately 243,000 cubic yards of ready-mixed concrete in 2011. The purchase price for the acquisition, which is subject to specified post-closing adjustments, was $24.5 million in cash, plus working capital and closing adjustments of $1.6 million, plus potential earn-out payments, contingent upon reaching negotiated volume hurdles, with an aggregate present value of up to $7.0 million in cash payable over a six-year period, resulting in total consideration fair value of $33.1 million. We funded the acquisition from cash on hand and borrowings under our 2012 Credit Facility.

Sale of Smith Precast Operations

On December 17, 2012, we completed the sale of substantially all of our assets associated with our Smith operations, located in Phoenix, Arizona, to Jensen for $4.3 million in cash and the assumption of certain obligations. The assets purchased by Jensen included certain facilities, fixed assets, and working capital items. In addition, Jensen assumed the obligations of a capital lease previously held by Smith. The results of operations for this unit have been included in discontinued operations for the periods presented.

Other

In October 2006, we acquired certain aggregate assets located in New Jersey. As a condition of the purchase agreement, additional consideration would be due if we were able to receive permits that allowed us to mine the minerals from certain areas. In April 2012, we obtained the permits necessary to allow us to mine this area of property. Accordingly, we accrued $1.4 million in additional purchase consideration during the quarter ended June 30, 2012. On October 5, 2012, we signed an agreement with the seller to pay a total of $1.0 million in lieu of the $1.4 million contractual payment due to a lower volume of aggregate assets available to mine than originally contemplated in the agreement. We signed a promissory note for the $1.0 million settlement, payable in eight equal quarterly installments at an annual interest rate of 2.5%, which began in November 2012. We made cash payments on these notes of approximately $0.1 million during the year ended December 31, 2012.

During the third quarter of 2012, we made the decision to sell certain of our land and buildings in northern California and classified these assets as held for sale. These assets were recorded at the estimated fair value less costs to sell, which approximated net book value of $2.6 million. This transaction closed during the fourth quarter of 2012 and we received $3.2 million in proceeds. Accordingly, we recorded a gain on sale of assets of $0.6 million, which is included in our statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2012.

In April 2011, we purchased the assets of a one-plant ready-mixed concrete operation in our west Texas market for $0.2 million in cash. In October 2010, we acquired three ready-mixed concrete plants and related assets in our west Texas market for approximately $3.0 million, plus the value of the inventory on hand at closing. We made cash payments of $0.4 million at closing and issued promissory notes for the remaining $2.6 million at an annual interest rate of 5%. We made cash payments on these notes of approximately $0.4 million during the year ended December 31, 2012.

During the second quarter of 2010, we made the decision to dispose of some of our transport equipment in northern California, and classified these assets as held for sale. These assets were recorded at the estimated fair value less costs to sell of approximately $0.8 million. In March 2011, we completed the sale of our transport equipment for approximately $0.9 million.

In August 2010, we entered into a redemption agreement to have our 60% interest in our Michigan subsidiary, Superior Materials Holdings, LLC, or Superior, redeemed by Superior. At the closing of the redemption on September 30, 2010, the Company and certain of our subsidiaries paid $640,000 in cash and issued a $1.5 million promissory note to Superior as partial consideration for certain indemnifications and other consideration provided by the minority owner and their new joint venture partner pursuant to the redemption agreement. In each of January 2011 and January 2012, we made payments of $750,000 to complete payment of the promissory note.

For additional discussion on our acquisitions and divestitures, see Note 2 to our Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere in this prospectus.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

Preparation of our financial statements requires us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses. Note 1 to our Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere in this prospectus describes the significant accounting policies we use in preparing those statements. We believe the most complex and sensitive judgments, because of their significance to our financial statements, result primarily from the need to make estimates about the effects of matters that are inherently uncertain. We have listed below those policies which we believe are critical and involve complex judgment in their application to our financial statements. Actual results in these areas could differ from our estimates.

Goodwill

We record as goodwill the amount by which the total purchase price we pay in our acquisition transactions exceeds our estimated fair value of the identifiable net assets we acquire. We test goodwill for impairment on an annual basis, or more often if events or circumstances indicate that there may be impairment. Generally, we test for goodwill impairment in the fourth quarter of each year, using a two-step process, which requires us to make certain judgments and assumptions in our calculations. The first step of the process involves estimating the fair value of our reporting units and comparing the result to the reporting unit's carrying value. We estimate fair value using an equally weighted combination of discounted cash flows and multiples of revenue and EBITDA. The discounted cash flow model includes forecasts for revenue and cash flows discounted at our weighted average cost of capital. Multiples of revenue and EBITDA are calculated using the trailing twelve months results compared to the enterprise value of the Company, which is determined based on the combination of the market value of our capital stock and total outstanding debt. If the fair value exceeds the carrying value, the second step is not performed and no impairment is recorded. If however, the fair value is below the carrying value, a second step is performed to calculate the amount of the impairment by measuring the goodwill at an implied fair value. We tested for impairment during the fourth quarter of 2012 and 2011 for our reporting unit with existing goodwill and determined that the fair value for the reporting unit well exceeded the carrying value, thus there was no impairment. Our fair value estimate was determined using estimates and assumption we believed to be reasonable at the time. Changes in those assumptions or estimates could impact the calculated fair value of the reporting unit. See Note 4 to our Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere in this prospectus for additional information about our goodwill.

Insurance Programs

We maintain third-party insurance coverage in amounts and against the risks we believe are reasonable. We share the risk of loss with our insurance underwriters by maintaining high deductibles subject to aggregate annual loss limitations. We believe our workers' compensation, automobile and general liability per occurrence retentions are consistent with industry practices, although there are variations among our business units. We fund these deductibles and record an expense for losses we expect under the programs. We determine the expected losses using a combination of our historical loss experience and subjective assessments of our future loss exposure. The estimated losses are subject to uncertainty from various sources, including changes in claims reporting and settlement patterns, judicial decisions, new legislation and economic conditions. Although we believe the estimated losses are reasonable, significant differences related to the items we have noted above could materially affect our insurance obligations and future expense. The amount accrued for self-insurance claims was $9.0 million as of December 31, 2012, compared to $9.9 million as of December 31, 2011, which is currently classified in accrued liabilities. The decrease in 2012 was primarily attributable to improved loss experience.

Income Taxes

We use the liability method of accounting for income taxes. Under this method, we record deferred income taxes based on temporary differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities and use enacted tax rates and laws that we expect will be in effect when we recover those assets or settle those liabilities, as the case may be, to measure those taxes. In cases where the expiration date of tax loss carryforwards or the projected operating results indicate that realization is not likely, we provide for a valuation allowance.

We have deferred tax assets, resulting from deductible temporary differences that may reduce taxable income in future periods. A valuation allowance is required when it is more likely than not that all or a portion of a deferred tax asset will not be realized. In assessing the need for a valuation allowance, we estimate future taxable income, considering the feasibility of ongoing tax-planning strategies and the realizability of tax loss carryforwards. Valuation allowances related to deferred tax assets can be impacted by changes in tax laws, changes in statutory tax rates and future taxable income levels. If we were to determine that we would not be able to realize all or a portion of our deferred tax assets in the future, we would reduce such amounts through a charge to income in the period in which that determination is made. Conversely, if we were to determine that we would be able to realize our deferred tax assets in the future in excess of the net carrying amounts, we would decrease the recorded valuation allowance through an increase to income in the period in which that determination is made. Based on the assessment, we recorded a valuation allowance of $44.9 million at December 31, 2012 and $38.8 million at December 31, 2011. In determining the valuation allowance in 2012 and 2011, we used such factors as (i) cumulative federal taxable losses, (ii) the amount of deferred tax liabilities that we generally expect to reverse in the same period and jurisdiction that are of the same character as the temporary differences giving rise to our deferred tax assets and (iii) certain tax contingencies under authoritative accounting guidance related to accounting for uncertainty in income taxes which, should they materialize, would be offset by our net operating loss generated in 2008 through 2012. We provided a valuation allowance in 2012 and 2011 related to certain federal and state income tax attributes we did not believe we could utilize within the tax loss carryforward periods.

In the ordinary course of business there is inherent uncertainty in quantifying our income tax positions. We assess our income tax positions and record tax benefits for all years subject to examination based upon management's evaluation of the facts, circumstances and information available at the reporting date. For those tax positions where it is more likely than not that a tax benefit will be sustained, we have recorded the highest amount of tax benefit with a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement with a taxing authority that has full knowledge of all relevant information. For those income tax positions where it is not more likely than not that a tax benefit will be sustained, no tax benefit has been recognized in the financial statements. See Note 17 to the Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere in this prospectus for further discussion.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

We evaluate the recoverability of our long-lived assets when changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the asset may not be recoverable in accordance with authoritative accounting guidance related to the impairment or disposal of long-lived assets. We compare the carrying values of long-lived assets to our projection of future undiscounted cash flows attributable to those assets. If the carrying value of a long-lived asset exceeds the future undiscounted cash flows we project to be derived from that asset, we record an impairment loss equal to the excess of the carrying value over the fair value. Actual useful lives and future cash flows could be different from those we estimate. These differences could have a material effect on our future operating results.

Derivative Instruments

We are exposed to certain risks relating to our ongoing business operations. However, derivative instruments are not used to hedge these risks. We are required to account for derivative instruments as a result of the issuance of the Warrants and Old Convertible Notes on August 31, 2010. None of our derivatives manage business risk or are executed for speculative purposes. All derivatives are required to be recorded on the balance sheet at their fair values. Each quarter, we determine the fair value of our derivative liabilities, and changes result in income or loss. Fair value is estimated using a lattice model for the Old Convertible Notes embedded derivative and a Black-Scholes model for the Warrants. The key inputs in determining fair value of our derivative liabilities of $22.0 million and $2.3 million at December 31, 2012 and 2011, respectively, include our stock price, stock price volatility, risk free interest rates and interest rates for conventional debt of similarly situated companies. Changes in these inputs will impact the valuation of our derivatives and result in income or loss each quarterly period. See Note 11 to our Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere in this prospectus for additional information about our derivatives.

Other

We record accruals for legal and other contingencies when estimated future expenditures associated with those contingencies become probable and the amounts can be reasonably estimated. However, new information may become available, or circumstances (such as applicable laws and regulations) may change, thereby resulting in an increase or decrease in the amount required to be accrued for such matters (and, therefore, a decrease or increase in reported net income in the period of such change).

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Revenue. Our 2012 total revenue increased by $85.2 million, or 19.1%, from $445.8 million in the 2011 period to $531.0 million in the 2012 period, due to increased sales of ready-mixed concrete. Ready-mixed sales increased $85.8 million, or 22.1%, from $388.1 million in the 2011 period to $473.8 million in the 2012 period, driven by a 19.6% volume increase and a 3.3% increase in our average selling price. Sales of aggregates increased to $32.0 million in the 2012 period from $23.9 million in the 2011 period, an increase of $8.1 million, or 34.0%, due to a 24.3% increase in volume and a 5.8% increase in average selling price. Other product revenues and eliminations, which includes our building materials, precast concrete products, lime slurry, hauling business, and eliminations of our intersegment sales, decreased $8.6 million, or 25.5%, to $25.2 million in the 2012 period from $33.9 million in the 2011 period, primarily due to increased intersegment eliminations for aggregate sales made to our ready-mixed concrete segment.

Cost of goods sold before depreciation, depletion and amortization. Cost of goods sold before depreciation, depletion and amortization, or DD&A, increased $62.1 million, or 15.8%, from $393.7 million in the 2011 period to $455.8 million in the 2012 period. Our costs increased primarily due to volume growth in our two segments - ready-mixed concrete and aggregates - resulting in higher material costs, delivery costs, and plant variable costs, which includes primarily labor and benefits, utilities, and repairs and maintenance. Plant fixed costs, which primarily consists of leased equipment costs, property taxes, dispatch costs, and plant management, remained relatively flat year over year.

Selling, general and administrative expenses. Selling, general and administrative, or SG&A, expenses increased $9.8 million, or 20.0%, in the 2012 period. Our increased SG&A costs were primarily a result of approximately $2.5 million of costs associated with the relocation of our corporate headquarters from Houston, Texas to Euless, Texas during 2012, as well as $3.4 million for higher bonus accruals, $1.9 million in higher legal fees, which included fees related to our acquisitions and divestitures during the year, and $0.4 million in higher non-cash stock compensation. SG&A expenses in 2011 included approximately $2.8 million of costs related to the departure of our former President and Chief Executive Officer and the costs related to the hiring of our new President and Chief Executive Officer in August 2011. As a percentage of total revenue, SG&A expenses were relatively flat at 11.1% in 2012 versus 11.0% in 2011.

Gain on sale of assets. We recorded a gain on sale of assets of $0.6 million in 2012 versus $1.2 million in 2011. In 2012, we sold certain of our land and buildings in northern California during the fourth quarter of 2012, for which we recorded a gain of $0.6 million. Our gain on sale of assets in 2011 included sales of excess vehicles, land and equipment.

Depreciation, depletion and amortization. Depreciation, depletion and amortization expense for 2012 decreased $2.9 million, or 15.7%, to $15.7 million, from $18.6 million for 2011, primarily due to certain assets becoming fully depreciated during 2012.

Income (loss) from operations. Income (loss) from operations increased $15.6 million, or 108.4%, to $1.2 million for 2012 from ($14.4) million for 2011. Increased revenue from both higher volume and higher pricing resulted in increased efficiencies that led to improvements in income from operations as a percentage of revenue, which we refer to as operating margins. Operating margins increased to 0.2% for 2012 compared to (3.2%) for 2011.

Interest expense, net. Net interest expense for 2012 was relatively flat at $11.3 million for 2012, compared to $11.1 million for 2011, reflecting interest on borrowings under our credit facilities, interest on our Old Convertible Notes, and non-cash amortization of our deferred financing costs and the discount on our Old Convertible Notes.

Derivative income (loss). For the 2012 period, we recorded a non-cash loss on derivative of $19.7 million related to fair value changes in our embedded Old Convertible Notes derivative and the Warrants. This was a $33.1 million change from the 2011 period, when we recorded a non-cash gain on derivative of $13.4 million. All derivatives are required to be recorded on the balance sheet at their fair values in accordance with United States Generally Accepted Accounting Practices, or U.S. GAAP. Each quarter, we determine the fair value of our derivative liabilities and any changes result in income or loss for the period. The key inputs in determining fair value of our derivative liabilities include our stock price, stock price volatility, risk free interest rates and interest rates for conventional debt of similarly situated companies. Changes in these inputs will impact the valuation of our derivatives and result in income or loss each quarterly period. For the year ended December 31, 2012, we recorded a non-cash loss from fair value changes in our Old Convertible Notes embedded derivative of approximately $15.5 million, primarily due to an increase in the price of our common stock and changes in our stock price volatility. In addition, we recorded a non-cash loss from fair value changes in the Warrants during 2012 of approximately $4.2 million due primarily to the increase in the price of our common stock.

Loss on extinguishment of debt. In the third quarter of 2012, we recorded a $2.6 million non-cash charge to write-off the unamortized balance of our deferred costs associated with the 2010 Credit Agreement that was terminated concurrently with the August 2012 signing of the Credit Agreement.

Other income, net. Other income for the 2012 period was $3.0 million compared to $1.1 million for the 2011 period. The increase in 2012 was primarily due to the receipt of $0.5 million in royalty payments related to mineral rights on a property in west Texas received during the second quarter of 2012, and the receipt of $0.6 million during the fourth quarter of 2012 for an insurance settlement related to litigation filed in previous years for which no benefit was expected to be received by the Company.

Income tax benefit. We recorded an income tax benefit allocated to continuing operations of approximately $3.8 million and $0.8 million for the years ended December 31, 2012 and December 31, 2011, respectively. Our effective tax rate differs substantially from the federal statutory rate primarily due to the application of a valuation allowance that reduced the recognized benefit of our deferred tax assets. In addition, certain state income taxes are calculated on bases different than pre-tax income (loss). This resulted in recording income tax expense in certain states that experience a pre-tax loss.

In accordance with U.S. GAAP, the recognized value of deferred tax assets must be reduced to the amount that is more likely than not to be realized in future periods. The ultimate realization of the benefit of deferred tax assets from deductible temporary differences or tax carryovers depends on the generation of sufficient taxable income during the periods in which those temporary differences become deductible. We considered the scheduled reversal of deferred tax liabilities, projected future taxable income, and tax planning strategies in making this assessment. Based on these considerations, we relied upon the reversal of certain deferred tax liabilities to realize a portion of our deferred tax assets and established a valuation allowance as of December 31, 2012 and 2011, for other deferred tax assets because of uncertainty regarding their ultimate realization. Our total net deferred tax liability as of December 31, 2012 and 2011 was $0.5 million and $1.1 million for each year, respectively.

We reorganized pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code under the terms of our Plan with an effective date of August 31, 2010. Under our Plan, our previously outstanding 8.375% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2014 were cancelled, giving rise to cancellation of indebtedness income, or CODI. The Internal Revenue Code, or IRC, provides that CODI arising under a plan of bankruptcy reorganization is excludible from taxable income, but the debtor must reduce certain of its tax attributes by the amount of CODI realized under the Plan. Our CODI and required tax attribute reduction did not cause a significant change in our recorded deferred tax liability. Our required reduction in tax attributes, or deferred tax assets, was accompanied by a corresponding release of valuation allowance that is currently reducing the carrying value of such tax attributes.

We underwent a change in ownership for purposes of Section 382 of the IRC as a result of our Plan and emergence from Chapter 11 on August 31, 2010. As a result, the amount of our pre-change net operating losses, or NOL's, and other tax attributes that are available to offset future taxable income are subject to an annual limitation. The annual limitation is based on the value of the corporation as of the effective date of the Plan. The ownership change and the resulting annual limitation on use of NOLs are not expected to result in the expiration of our NOL carryforwards if we are able to generate sufficient future taxable income within the carryforward periods. However, the limitation on the amount of NOLs available to offset taxable income in a specific year may result in the payment of income taxes before all NOLs have been utilized. Additionally, a subsequent ownership change may result in further limitation on the ability to utilize existing NOLs and other tax attributes.

Gain (loss) from discontinued operations. On August 2, 2012, we executed a definitive asset purchase agreement to sell substantially all of the Company's California precast operations to Oldcastle for $21.3 million in cash, plus net working capital adjustments. The assets purchased by Oldcastle included certain facilities, fixed assets, and working capital items. The transaction was completed on August 20, 2012. For 2012, we recognized a $1.5 million gain from the sale of these operations. The gain, results of operations, and income tax expense for these units have been included in discontinued operations for the periods presented.

On December 17, 2012, we completed the sale of substantially all of our assets associated with Smith located in Phoenix, Arizona, to Jensen for $4.3 million in cash and the assumption of certain obligations. The assets purchased by Jensen included certain facilities, fixed assets, and working capital items. In addition, Jensen assumed the obligations of a capital lease previously held by Smith. We recognized a $0.6 million gain in the fourth quarter of 2012 from the sale of these operations. The results of operations for this unit have been included in discontinued operations for the periods presented.

Segment information

Ready-mixed concrete

The following table sets forth key financial information for our ready-mixed concrete segment for the periods indicated:

Adjusted EBITDA	$41,486		$22,205	$19,281	86.8	%

Sales volume in thousands of cubic yards	4,839		4,047	792	19.6	%

Revenue. Our ready-mixed concrete sales provided 89.2% of our total revenue in 2012, versus 87.0% in 2011. Segment revenue increased $85.8 million, or 22.1%, over 2011 levels. This increase was driven primarily by a 19.6% increase in sales volume, or 0.8 million cubic yards. Increased volume provided $74.8 million, or approximately 87.3%, of our ready-mixed concrete revenue growth. We also experienced an approximate 3.3% increase in our ready-mix average selling price per cubic yard during 2012 when compared to 2011. Increased selling price contributed $12.6 million, or 14.7%, of our revenue growth. Increased sales reserves reduced our revenues by $1.3 million, or 1.4%. Our volume was higher in all of our major markets, excluding the New York/New Jersey area, which was down slightly versus prior year and was impacted by Hurricane Sandy. Our average selling price increased in all of our major markets.

Adjusted EBITDA. Adjusted EBITDA for our ready-mixed concrete segment increased from $22.2 million in the 2011 period to $41.5 million in the 2012 period, an increase of $19.3 million, or 86.8%. Driving this increase was a 19.6% increase in sales volume plus a 3.3% increase in our average selling price, which increased total revenue by $85.8 million. Partially offsetting the higher revenue was the increased cost of goods sold associated with the higher volume of sales. Our variable costs, which include primarily material costs, labor and benefits costs, utilities, and delivery costs, were all higher due to the higher volume. Conversely, we were able to spread our fixed plant costs, which consist primarily of property taxes, equipment rental, and plant management costs, which were flat year over year, over a higher volume, resulting in greater efficiencies and higher segment Adjusted EBITDA. Segment Adjusted EBITDA as a percentage of segment revenues increased to 8.8% in 2012 from 5.7% in the 2011 period, reflecting primarily the higher revenues and greater efficiencies.

Aggregate Products

The following table sets forth key financial information for our aggregate products segment for the periods indicated:

	(amounts in thousands, except selling prices)

Adjusted EBITDA	$4,142	$3,203	$939	29.3	%
Adjusted EBITDA as a percentage of segment revenue	12.9	% 13.4	%
Aggregates Data:

Revenue. Sales of our aggregate products provided 6.0% of our total revenue in 2012, compared to 5.4% in 2011. Segment revenue increased $8.1 million, or 34.0%, over prior year sales. We sell our aggregates to external customers and also sell them internally to our ready-mixed concrete segment at a market price. Approximately 42.9% of our 2012 aggregates sales, or $13.7 million, were to our ready-mixed segment, versus 43.8%, or $10.5 million, in 2011. Contributing to our overall aggregates revenue growth was a volume increase of 0.7 million tons, which provided $5.0 million, or 61.2%, of our aggregates revenue growth. Our average selling price rose 5.8%, which provided $1.2 million, or 14.5%, of our aggregates revenue increase. In addition, freight charges to deliver the aggregates to the external customer, which are included in revenue, increased $1.4 million during 2012 and contributed 16.9% to our aggregates revenue growth.

Adjusted EBITDA. Adjusted EBITDA for our aggregates segment increased to $4.1 million in the 2012 period from $3.2 million in the 2011 period, primarily reflecting the higher sales volume, partially offset by the related higher cost of goods sold. Our variable costs associated with cost of goods sold, which includes quarry labor and benefits, utilities, repairs and maintenance, pit costs to prepare the stone and gravel for use, and delivery costs, all increased due to the higher sales volumes. Our quarry fixed costs, which includes primarily property taxes, equipment rental, and plant management costs, increased slightly over the prior year, primarily due to higher overhead costs. Overall, our segment Adjusted EBITDA as a percentage of segment revenue decreased to 12.9% in 2012 from 13.4% in 2011, primarily due to the increase in fixed costs.

Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

We are exposed to certain risks relating to our ongoing business operations. However, derivative instruments are not used to hedge these risks. We are required to account for derivative instruments as a result of the issuance of the Warrants and Old Convertible Notes associated with our Plan of Reorganization. None of our derivatives manage business risk or are executed for speculative purposes.

All derivatives are required to be recorded on the balance sheet at their fair values. Each quarter, we determine the fair value of our derivative liabilities, and changes result in income or loss. The key inputs in determining fair value of our derivative liabilities of $22.0 million and $2.3 million at December 31, 2012 and 2011, respectively, include our stock price, stock price volatility, risk free interest rates and interest rates for conventional debt of similarly situated companies. Changes in these inputs will impact the valuation of our derivatives and result in income or loss each quarterly period. A 5% increase in the stock price, volatility and risk free interest rates would increase the value of our warrant derivative liability by approximately $1.1 million, resulting in a loss in the same amount. A 5% decrease would result in a decrease in the warrant derivative liability of approximately $1.1 million, and an increase in income of the same amount. A 5% increase in the stock price, volatility and conventional debt interest rates would increase the value of our embedded Old Convertible Notes derivative liability by approximately $1.3 million, resulting in a loss in the same amount. A 5% decrease would result in a decrease in the value of our embedded Old Convertible Notes derivative liability of approximately $2.1 million, and an increase in income of the same amount. During the year ended December 31, 2012, we recorded losses from fair value changes in our embedded Old Convertible Notes derivative of approximately $15.5 million, due primarily to an increase in the price of our common stock. Additionally, we recorded income from fair value changes in our Warrants of approximately $4.2 million during the year ended December 31, 2012, due primarily to the increase in the price of our common stock.

Borrowings under our Revolving Facility expose us to certain market risks. Interest on amounts drawn varies based on the floating rates under the agreement. Based on the $13.3 million outstanding under this facility as of December 31, 2012, a one percent change in the applicable rate would change our annual interest expense by $0.1 million.

Our operations are subject to factors affecting the overall strength of the U.S. economy and economic conditions impacting financial institutions, including the level of interest rates, availability of funds for construction and level of general construction activity. A significant decrease in the level of general construction activity in any of our market areas has had and may continue to have a material adverse effect on our consolidated revenues and earnings.

Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure Effective January 1, 2012 and following the completion of our 2011 audit, we changed the accounting firm engaged to complete our annual financial audit from PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to Grant Thornton LLP.

BUSINESS

Our Company

We are a major producer of ready-mixed concrete in select markets in the United States. We operate our business through two segments: our ready-mixed concrete segment and our aggregate products segment. We are a leading producer of ready-mixed concrete in substantially all the markets in which we have operations. Ready-mixed concrete products are important building materials that are used in a vast majority of commercial, residential and public works construction projects.

All of our operations are in (and all of our sales are made within) the United States. We operate principally in Texas, California and New Jersey/New York, with those markets representing approximately 41%, 28%, and 18%, respectively, of our consolidated revenues for the year ended December 31, 2012. According to publicly available industry information, those states represented a total of 30% of the consumption of ready-mixed concrete in the United States in 2012 (Texas: 16%; California: 10%; and New Jersey/New York: 4%). Our total revenue from continuing operations for the year ended December 31, 2012 was $531.0 million, of which we derived approximately 89.2% from our ready-mixed concrete segment, 3.4% from our aggregate products segment and 7.4% from our other operations. For more information on our consolidated revenues and results of operations for the years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011 and our consolidated total assets as of December 31, 2012 and 2011, see our Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere in this prospectus.

As of December 31, 2012, we had 101 fixed and 11 portable ready-mixed concrete plants and seven aggregates facilities. During 2012, these plants and facilities produced approximately 4.8 million cubic yards of ready-mixed concrete and 3.3 million tons of aggregates. We lease two other aggregates facilities to third parties and retain a royalty on production from those facilities.

On August 2, 2012, we executed a definitive asset purchase agreement to sell substantially all of the Company's California precast operations to Oldcastle Precast, Inc. The assets purchased by Oldcastle included certain facilities, fixed assets, and working capital items. The transaction was completed on August 20, 2012.

On September 14, 2012, we purchased four ready-mixed concrete plants and related assets and inventory from Colorado River Concrete L.P., Cindy & Robin Concrete, L.P. and E&R Artecona Family Limited Partnership, in our west Texas market. The purchase of these assets allows us to expand our business in two of our major markets: west Texas and north Texas.

On October 30, 2012, we completed the acquisition of all the outstanding equity interests of Bode Gravel Co., a California subchapter S corporation, and Bode Concrete LLC, a California limited liability company, pursuant to an equity purchase agreement, dated October 17, 2012. Bode Gravel and Bode Concrete operate two ready-mixed concrete plants, one new portable plant, and 41 mixer trucks in the San Francisco area and produced approximately 243,000 cubic yards of ready-mixed concrete in 2011.

On December 17, 2012, we completed the sale of substantially all of our assets associated with our Smith Precast operations located in Phoenix, Arizona, to Jensen Enterprises, Inc., dba Jensen Precast. The assets purchased by Jensen included certain facilities, fixed assets, and working capital items. In addition, Jensen assumed the obligations of a capital lease previously held by Smith.

Business Segments and Products

The sale of our California and Arizona precast operations during 2012 represented a disposal of a significant majority of our previously reported precast operating segment. These disposals were part of our strategy to become the premier focused domestic supplier of ready-mixed concrete in the United States. As such, during the fourth quarter of 2012, we made changes to better align our operating and reportable segments with our overall strategy and the manner in which we organize and manage our business. Our two reportable segments consist of ready-mixed concrete and aggregate products as described below. Historical segment results have been reclassified to conform with these changes. We also engage in other operations not associated with a reportable segment, including our building materials stores, hauling operations, lime slurry, Aridus® rapid-drying concrete technology, brokered product sales, a recycled aggregates operation, and one remaining precast concrete plant in Pennsylvania.

Ready-Mixed Concrete

General

Our ready-mixed concrete segment engages principally in the formulation, preparation and delivery of ready-mixed concrete to the job sites of our customers. Ready-mixed concrete is a highly versatile construction material that results from combining coarse and fine aggregates, such as gravel, crushed stone and sand, with water, various chemical admixtures and cement. We also provide services intended to reduce our customers' overall construction costs by lowering the installed, or "in-place," cost of concrete. These services include the formulation of mixtures for specific design uses, on-site and lab-based product quality control, and customized delivery programs to meet our customers' needs. We generally do not provide paving or other finishing services, which construction contractors or subcontractors typically perform. We provide our ready-mixed concrete from our operations in north and west Texas, northern California, New Jersey, New York, Washington, D.C. and Oklahoma.

Products and Services

Our ready-mixed concrete products consist of proportioned mixes we prepare and deliver in an unhardened plastic state for placement and shaping into designed forms at the job site. Selecting the optimum mix for a job entails determining not only the ingredients that will produce the desired permeability, strength, appearance and other properties of the concrete after it has hardened and cured, but also the ingredients necessary to achieve a workable consistency considering the weather and other conditions at the job site. We believe we can achieve product differentiation for the mixes we offer because of the variety of mixes we can produce, our volume production capacity and our scheduling, delivery and placement reliability. Additionally, we believe our environmentally friendly concrete (EF Technology®) initiative, which utilizes alternative materials and mix designs that result in lower carbon dioxide, or CO₂ emissions, helps differentiate us from our competitors. We also believe we distinguish ourselves with our value-added service approach that emphasizes reducing our customers' overall construction costs by reducing the in-place cost of concrete and the time required for construction.

From a contractor's perspective, the in-place cost of concrete includes both the amount paid to the ready-mixed concrete manufacturer and the internal costs associated with the labor and equipment the contractor provides. A contractor's unit cost of concrete is often only a small component of the total in-place cost that takes into account all the labor and equipment costs required to build the forms for the ready-mixed concrete and place and finish the ready-mixed concrete, including the cost of additional labor and time lost as a result of substandard products or delivery delays not covered by warranty or insurance. By carefully designing proper mixes and using advances in mixing technology, we can assist our customers in reducing the amount of reinforcing steel, time and labor they will require in various applications.

We provide a variety of services in connection with our sale of ready-mixed concrete that can help reduce our customers' in-place cost of concrete. These services include:

- production of formulations and alternative product recommendations that reduce labor and materials costs;
- quality control, through automated production and laboratory testing, that ensures consistent results and minimizes the need to correct completed work; and
- automated scheduling and tracking systems that ensure timely delivery and reduce the downtime incurred by the customer's placing and finishing crews.

We produce ready-mixed concrete by combining the desired type of cement, other cementitious materials (described below), sand, gravel and crushed stone with water and, typically, one or more admixtures. These admixtures, such as chemicals, minerals and fibers, determine the usefulness of the product for particular applications.

We use a variety of chemical admixtures to achieve one or more of five basic purposes:

- relieve internal pressure and increase resistance to cracking in subfreezing weather;
- retard the hardening process to make concrete more workable in hot weather;
- strengthen concrete by reducing its water content;
- accelerate the hardening process and reduce the time required for curing; and
- facilitate the placement of concrete having low water content.

We frequently use various mineral admixtures as supplements to cement, which we refer to as cementitious materials, to alter the permeability, strength and other properties of concrete. These materials include fly ash, ground granulated blast-furnace slag, silica fume and other natural pozzolans. These materials also reduce the amount of cement content used which results in a reduction in CO₂ emissions.

We also use fibers, such as steel, glass, synthetic and carbon filaments as additives in various formulations of concrete. Fibers help control shrinkage cracking, thus reducing permeability and improving abrasion resistance. In many applications, fibers can replace welded steel wire and reinforcing bars. Relative to the other components of ready-mixed concrete, these additives generate comparatively high margins.

Marketing and Sales

Our marketing efforts primarily target concrete sub-contractors, general contractors, governmental agencies, property owners and developers, and home builders whose focus extends beyond the price of ready-mixed concrete to product quality, on-time delivery and reduction of in-place costs.

General contractors typically select their suppliers of ready-mixed concrete. In large, complex projects, an engineering firm or division within a state transportation or public works department may influence the purchasing decision, particularly if the concrete has complicated design specifications. In connection with large, complex projects and in government-funded projects generally, the general contractor or project engineer usually awards supply orders on the basis of either direct negotiation or a competitive bidding process. We believe the purchasing decision for many jobs ultimately is relationship-based.

Our marketing and sales strategy emphasizes the sale of value-added products and solutions to customers more focused on reducing their in-place building material costs than on the price per cubic yard of ready-mixed concrete. Key elements of our customer-focused approach include:

- corporate-level marketing and sales expertise;
- technical service expertise to develop innovative new branded products;
- and
- training programs that emphasize successful marketing and sales techniques that focus on the sale of high-margin concrete mix designs.

We have also formed a strategic alliance to provide alternative solutions for designers and contractors by using value-added concrete products. Through this alliance, we offer color-conditioned, fiber-reinforced, steel-reinforced and high-performance concrete and utilize software technology that can be used to design buildings constructed of reinforced concrete.

Operations

Our ready-mixed concrete plants consist of fixed and portable facilities that produce ready-mixed concrete in wet or dry batches. Our fixed-plant facilities produce ready-mixed concrete that we transport to job sites by mixer trucks. Our portable plant operations deploy our 11 portable plant facilities to produce ready-mixed concrete at the job site that we direct into place using a series of conveyor belts or a mixer truck. We use our portable plants to service high-volume projects or projects in remote locations. Several factors govern the choice of plant type, including:

- production consistency requirements;
- daily production capacity requirements;
- job site proximity to fixed plants; and
- capital and financing.

Generally, we construct wet batch plants to serve markets that we expect to have consistently high demand, as opposed to dry batch plants that will serve those markets that we expect will have a less consistent demand. A wet batch plant generally has a higher initial cost and daily operating expenses, but (i) yields greater consistency with less time required for quality control in the concrete produced, and (ii) generally has greater daily production capacity than a dry batch plant. We believe that construction of a wet batch plant having an hourly capacity of 250 cubic yards currently would cost approximately $1.6 million, while a dry batch plant having an hourly capacity of 150 cubic yards currently would cost approximately $0.7 million. As of December 31, 2012, our batch plants included 17 wet batch plants and 95 dry batch plants.

Our batch operator at a dry batch plant simultaneously loads the dry components of stone, sand and cement with water and admixtures in a mixer truck that begins the mixing process during loading and completes that process while driving to the job site. In a wet batch plant, the batch operator blends the dry components and water in a plant mixer from which an operator loads the already mixed concrete into a mixer truck, which leaves for the job site promptly after loading.

Any future decisions we make regarding the construction of additional plants will be impacted by market factors, including:

- the expected production demand for the plant;
- capital and financing;
- the expected types of projects the plant will service; and
- the desired location of the plant.

Mixer trucks slowly rotate their loads en route to job sites in order to maintain product consistency. Our mixer trucks typically have load capacities of 10 cubic yards, or approximately 20 tons, and an estimated useful life of 12 years. A new truck of this size currently costs between $160,000 and $225,000, depending on the geographic location and design specifications. Depending on the type of batch plant from which the mixer trucks generally are loaded, some components of the mixer trucks usually require refurbishment after three to five years. As of December 31, 2012, we operated a fleet of over 900 owned and leased mixer trucks, which had an average age of approximately ten years.

In our ready-mixed concrete operations, we emphasize quality control, pre-job planning, customer service and coordination of supplies and delivery. We obtain orders for ready-mixed concrete in advance of actual delivery. A typical order contains specifications the contractor requires the concrete to meet. After receiving the specifications for a particular job, we use computer modeling, industry information and information from previous similar jobs to formulate a variety of mixtures of cement, aggregates, water and admixtures which meet or exceed the contractor's specifications. We perform testing to determine which mix design is most appropriate to meet the required specifications. The test results enable us to select the mixture that has the lowest cost and meets or exceeds the job specifications. The testing center creates and maintains a project file that details the mixture we will use when we produce the concrete for the job. For quality control purposes, the testing center also is responsible for maintaining batch samples of concrete we have delivered to a job site.

We use computer modeling to prepare bids for particular jobs based on the size of the job, location, desired margin, cost of raw materials and the design mixture identified in our testing process. If the job is large enough and has a projected duration beyond the supply arrangement in place at that time, we obtain quotes from our suppliers as to the cost of raw materials we use in preparing the bid. Once we obtain a quotation from our suppliers, the price of the raw materials for the specified job is informally established. Several months may elapse from the time a contractor has accepted our bid until actual delivery of the ready-mixed concrete begins. During this time, we maintain regular communication with the contractor concerning the status of the job and any changes in the job's specifications in order to coordinate the multisourced purchases of cement and other materials we will need to fill the job order and meet the contractor's delivery requirements. We confirm that our customers are ready to take delivery of manufactured products throughout the placement process. On any given day, one of our plants may have production orders for dozens of customers at various locations throughout its area of operation. To fill an order:

- the customer service office coordinates the timing and delivery of the concrete to the job site;
- a load operator supervises and coordinates the receipt of the necessary raw materials and operates the hopper that dispenses those materials into the appropriate storage bins;
- a batch operator, using a computerized batch panel, prepares the specified mixture from the order and oversees the loading of the mixer truck with either dry ingredients and water in a dry batch plant or the premixed concrete in a wet batch plant; and
- the driver of the mixer truck delivers the load to the job site, discharges the load and, after washing the truck, departs at the direction of the dispatch office.

Our central dispatch system, where available, tracks the status of each mixer truck as to whether a particular truck is:

- loading concrete;
- en route to a particular job site;
- on the job site;
- discharging concrete;
- being rinsed down; or
- en route to a particular plant.

The system is updated continuously on the trucks' status via signals received from sensors. In this manner, the dispatcher can determine the optimal routing and timing of subsequent deliveries by each mixer truck and monitor the performance of each driver.

Our plant managers oversee the operations of each of our plants. Our operational employees also include:

- maintenance personnel who perform routine maintenance work throughout our plants;
- mechanics who perform the maintenance and repair work on our rolling stock;
- testing center staff who prepare mixtures for particular job specifications and maintain quality control;
- various clerical personnel who perform administrative tasks; and
- sales personnel who are responsible for identifying potential customers and maintaining existing customer relationships.

We generally operate each of our plants on an extended single shift, with some overtime operation during the year. On occasion, however, we may have projects that require deliveries around the clock.

Aggregate Products

Our aggregate products segment produces crushed stone, sand and gravel from seven aggregates facilities located in New Jersey and Texas. We sell these aggregates for use in commercial, industrial and public works projects in the markets they serve, as well as consume them internally in the production of ready-mixed concrete in those markets. We produced approximately 3.3 million tons of aggregates in 2012 from these facilities with Texas producing 48% and New Jersey 52% of that total production. We believe our aggregates reserves provide us with additional raw materials sourcing flexibility and supply availability, although they provide us with a minimal supply of our annual consumption of aggregates. In addition, we have agreements to lease our sand pit operations in Michigan and one quarry in West Texas for which we receive a royalty based on the volume of product produced and sold during the terms of the leases.

For financial information regarding our reporting segments, see Note 20 to our Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere in this prospectus.

Industry Overview

Concrete has many attributes that make it a highly versatile construction material. In recent years, industry participants have developed various uses for concrete products, including:

- high-strength engineered concrete to compete with steel-frame construction;
- concrete housing;
- flowable fill for backfill applications;
- continuous-slab rail-support systems for rapid transit and heavy-traffic rail lines; and
- concrete bridges, tunnels and other structures for rapid transit systems.

Other examples of successful innovations that have opened new markets for concrete include:

- sustainable construction;
- asphalt pavement with concrete, or “white topping”;
- paved shoulders to replace less permanent and increasingly costly asphalt shoulders;
- pervious concrete parking lots for water drainage management, as well as providing a long-lasting and aesthetically pleasing urban environment; and
- colored pavements to mark entrance and exit ramps and lanes of expressways.

Based on information from the National Ready-Mixed Concrete Association, or NRMCA, we estimate that, in addition to vertically integrated manufacturers of cement and aggregates, independent ready-mixed concrete producers currently operate approximately 4,500 plants in the United States. Larger markets generally have several producers competing for business on the basis of product quality, service, on-time delivery and price.

Annual usage of ready-mixed concrete in the United States dropped significantly in 2010 and 2011 from its “near record” 2006 level but showed a strong rebound during 2012 with construction activity on the rise. According to information available from the NRMCA, total volumes (measured in cubic yards) from the production and delivery of ready-mixed concrete in the United States over the past three years were as follows (in millions of cubic yards):

Edgar Filing: US CONCRETE INC - Form 424B3

According to recently published McGraw-Hill Construction data, the four major segments of the construction industry accounted for the following approximate percentages of the total volume of ready-mixed concrete produced in the United States in the past three years were as follows:

	2012	2011	2010
Commercial and industrial construction	15	% 14	% 14	%
Residential construction	16	% 13	% 13	%
Street and highway construction and paving	25	% 28	% 28	%
Other public works and infrastructure construction	44	% 45	% 45	%

Barriers to the start-up of new ready-mixed concrete manufacturing operations have been increasing. During the past decade, public concerns about dust, process water runoff, noise and heavy mixer and other truck traffic associated with the operation of these types of plants and their general appearance have made obtaining the permits and licenses required for new plants more difficult. Delays in the regulatory process, coupled with the capital investment that start-up operations entail, have raised the barriers to entry for those operations.

For a discussion of the general seasonality of the construction industry, see “Risk Factors—Business Risks—Our operating results may vary significantly from one reporting period to another and may be adversely affected by the seasonal and cyclical nature of the markets we serve” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” of this prospectus.

Cement and Other Raw Materials

We obtain most of the materials necessary to manufacture ready-mixed concrete on a daily basis. These materials include cement, other cementitious materials (fly ash, blast furnace slag) and aggregates (stone, gravel and sand), in addition to certain chemical admixtures. With the exception of chemical admixtures, each plant typically maintains an inventory level of these materials sufficient to satisfy its operating needs for a few days. Our inventory levels do not decline significantly or comparatively with declines in revenue during seasonally low periods. We generally maintain inventory at specified levels to maximize purchasing efficiencies and to be able to respond quickly to customer demand.

Typically, cement, other cementitious materials and aggregates represent the highest-cost materials used in manufacturing a cubic yard of ready-mixed concrete. We purchase cement from a few suppliers in each of our major geographic markets. Chemical admixtures are generally purchased from suppliers under national purchasing agreements.

Overall, prices for cement and aggregates increased in 2012, compared to 2011, in most of our major geographic markets. Generally, we negotiate with suppliers on a company-wide basis and at the local market level to obtain the most competitive pricing available for cement and aggregates. Demand for cement is increasing and will warrant scrutiny as construction activity picks up. Today, in most of our markets, we believe there is an adequate supply of cement and aggregates. We experienced slightly increased fuel costs during 2012, although we were able to effectively mitigate these fuel costs with higher prices for our products.

We recognize the value in advocating green building and construction as part of our strategy. We initiated EF Technology[®], our commitment to environmentally friendly concrete technologies that significantly reduce potential carbon dioxide, or CO₂, emissions. Our EF Technology[®] ready-mixed concrete products replace a portion of traditional raw materials with reclaimed fly ash, slag and other materials. This results in an environmentally superior and sustainable alternative to traditional ready-mixed concrete. We believe EF Technology[®] reduces greenhouse gases and landfill space consumption and produces a highly durable product. Customers can also receive Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design, or LEED, credits for the use of this technology. We believe our use of this technology creates a competitive advantage over smaller concrete producers and larger vertically integrated aggregate and cement companies that may not focus on this as a first solution. We are positioned to take advantage of the growing demand for these products which could expand our operating margins as they are a lower cost alternative to cement. We are also a supporter of the NRMCA Green-Star program, a plant-specific certification that utilizes an environmental management system based on a model of continual improvement.

Customers

Of our 2012 revenue, commercial and industrial construction contractors represented approximately 52%, residential construction contractors represented approximately 20% and street and highway construction contractors and other public works represented approximately 28%. In 2012, no single customer or project accounted for more than 10% of our total revenue.

We rely heavily on repeat customers. Our management and sales personnel are responsible for developing and maintaining successful long-term relationships with our key customers.

Competition

The ready-mixed concrete industry is highly competitive. Our competitive position in a market depends largely on the location and operating costs of our plants and prevailing prices in that market. Price is the primary competitive factor among suppliers for small or less complex jobs, principally in residential construction. However, timeliness of delivery and consistency of quality and service, along with price, are the principal competitive factors among suppliers for large or complex jobs. Our competitors range from small, owner-operated private companies to subsidiaries or operating units of large, vertically integrated manufacturers of cement and aggregates. Our vertically integrated competitors generally have greater financial and marketing resources than we have, providing them with a competitive advantage. Competitors having lower operating costs than we do or having the financial resources to enable them to accept lower margins than we do will have a competitive advantage over us for jobs that are particularly price-sensitive.

Competitors having greater financial resources or less financial leverage than we do may be able to invest more in new mixer trucks, ready-mixed concrete plants and other production equipment or pay for acquisitions which could provide them a competitive advantage over us. See “Risk Factors–Business Risks–We may lose business to competitors who underbid us, and we may be otherwise unable to compete favorably in our highly competitive industry.”

Employees

As of December 31, 2012, we had approximately 398 salaried employees, including executive officers and management, sales, technical, administrative and clerical personnel, and approximately 1,456 hourly personnel. The number of employees fluctuates depending on the number and size of projects ongoing at any particular time, which may be impacted by variations in weather conditions throughout the year.

As of December 31, 2012, approximately 606 of our employees were represented by labor unions having collective bargaining agreements with us. Generally, these agreements have multi-year terms and expire on a staggered basis between 2013 and 2016. Under these agreements, we pay specified wages to covered employees and in most cases make payments to multi-employer pension plans and employee benefit trusts rather than administering the funds on behalf of these employees.

We have not experienced any strikes or significant work stoppages in the past five years. We believe our relationships with our employees and union representatives are very good.

Training and Safety

Our future success will depend, in part, on the extent to which we can attract, retain and motivate qualified employees. We believe that our ability to do so will depend, in part, on providing a work environment that allows employees the opportunity to develop and maximize their capabilities. We require all field employees to attend periodic safety training meetings and all drivers to participate in training seminars. We employ a national safety director whose responsibilities include managing and executing a unified, company-wide safety program. Employee development and safety are criteria used in evaluating performance in our annual incentive plan for salaried employees.

Governmental Regulation and Environmental Matters

A wide range of federal, state and local laws, ordinances and regulations apply to our operations, including the following matters:

- land usage;
- street and highway usage;
- noise levels; and
- health, safety and environmental matters.

In many instances, we are required to have various certificates, permits or licenses to conduct our business. Our failure to maintain these required authorizations or to comply with applicable laws or other governmental requirements could result in substantial fines or possible revocation of our authority to conduct some of our operations. Delays in obtaining approvals for the transfer or grant of authorizations, or failures to obtain new authorizations, could impede acquisition efforts.

Environmental laws that impact our operations include those relating to air quality, solid waste management and water quality. These laws are complex and subject to frequent change. They impose strict liability in some cases without regard to negligence or fault. Sanctions for noncompliance may include revocation of permits, corrective action orders, administrative or civil penalties and criminal prosecution. Some environmental laws provide for joint and several strict liability for remediation of spills and releases of hazardous substances. In addition, businesses may be subject to claims alleging personal injury or property damage as a result of alleged exposure to hazardous substances, as well as damage to natural resources. These laws also may expose us to liability for the conduct of or conditions caused by others, or for acts that complied with all applicable laws when performed.

We have conducted Phase I environmental site assessments, which are non-intrusive investigations conducted to evaluate the potential for significant on-site environmental impacts, on substantially all the real properties we own or lease and have engaged independent environmental consulting firms to complete those assessments. We have not identified any environmental concerns associated with those properties that we believe are likely to have a material adverse effect on our business, financial position, results of operations or cash flows, but we can provide no assurance material liabilities will not occur. In addition, we can provide no assurance that our compliance with amended, new or more stringent laws, stricter interpretations of existing laws or the future discovery of environmental conditions will not require additional, material expenditures.

We believe we have all material permits and licenses we need to conduct our operations and are in substantial compliance with applicable regulatory requirements relating to our operations. Our capital expenditures relating to environmental matters were not material in 2012. We currently do not anticipate any material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations or cash flows as a result of our future compliance with existing environmental laws controlling the discharge of materials into the environment.

On July 21, 2010, President Obama signed into law the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act. The legislation, among other matters, requires mining companies to provide specific detailed information on health and safety violations on a mine-by-mine basis. The information concerning mine safety violations or other regulatory matters required by Section 1503(a) of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act and Item 104 of Regulation S-K is incorporated by reference as an exhibit 99.1 to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part.

Product Warranties

Our operations involve providing ready-mixed concrete that must meet building code or other regulatory requirements and contractual specifications for durability, stress-level capacity, weight-bearing capacity and other characteristics. If we fail or are unable to provide products meeting these requirements and specifications, material claims may arise against us and our reputation could be damaged. In the past, we have had significant claims of this kind asserted against us that we have resolved. There currently are, and we expect that in the future there will be, additional claims of this kind asserted against us. If a significant product-related claim is resolved against us in the future, that resolution may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Insurance

Our employees perform a significant portion of their work moving and storing large quantities of heavy raw materials, driving large mixer and other trucks in heavy traffic conditions and delivering concrete at construction sites or in other areas that may be hazardous. These operating hazards can cause personal injury and loss of life, damage to or destruction of properties and equipment and environmental damage. We maintain insurance coverage in amounts and against the risks we believe are in accord with industry practice, but this insurance may not be adequate to cover all losses or liabilities we may incur in our operations, and we may be unable to maintain insurance of the types or at levels we deem necessary or adequate or at rates we consider reasonable. For additional discussion of our insurance programs, see Note 23 to our Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere in this prospectus.

Properties

Facilities

The table below lists our concrete plants and aggregate quarries as of December 31, 2012. We believe these plants are sufficient for our current needs. The volumes shown are the volumes each location produced in 2012.

Locations	Owned		Leased		Total	Aggregate Product Volume (in thousands of tons)	Ready-Mixed Concrete Volume (in thousands of cubic yards)
	Fixed	Portable	Fixed	Portable
Ready-Mixed Concrete:

We produce crushed stone aggregates, sand and gravel, from seven aggregates facilities located in Texas and New Jersey. We also own two aggregate quarries that are leased to third parties for which we receive a royalty based on the volume of product produced and sold from the quarries during the term of the lease. We sell aggregates produced from the seven facilities in Texas and New Jersey for use in commercial, industrial and public works projects in the markets they serve, as well as consume them internally in the production of ready-mixed concrete in those markets. We produced approximately 3.3 million tons of aggregates in 2012, with Texas producing 48% and New Jersey 52% of that total production. We believe our aggregates reserves provide us with additional raw materials sourcing flexibility and supply availability, although they will provide us with minimal supply of our annual consumption of aggregates.

Equipment

As of December 31, 2012, we had a fleet of over 900 owned and leased mixer trucks and over 1,000 other rolling stock and vehicles. Our own mechanics service most of the fleet. We believe these vehicles generally are well maintained and are adequate for our operations. The average age of our owned mixer trucks is approximately ten years.

Legal Proceedings

From time to time, and currently, we are subject to various claims and litigation brought by employees, customers and other third parties for, among other matters, personal injuries, property damages, product defects and delay damages that have, or allegedly have, resulted from the conduct of our operations. As a result of these types of claims and litigation, we must periodically evaluate the probability of damages being assessed against us and the range of possible outcomes. In each reporting period, if we determine that the likelihood of damages being assessed against us is probable, and, if we believe we can estimate a range of possible outcomes, then we will record a liability. The amount of the liability will be based upon a specific estimate, if we believe a specific estimate to be likely, or it will reflect the low end of our range.

In May 2008, we received a letter from a multi-employer pension plan to which one of our subsidiaries is a contributing employer, providing notice that the Internal Revenue Service had denied applications by the plan for waivers of the minimum funding deficiency from prior years, and requesting payment of our allocable share of the minimum funding deficiency.

In April 2010, the multi-employer pension plan filed a civil complaint in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey to collect approximately $1.8 million for this minimum funding deficiency. During the third quarter of 2011, we entered into a settlement agreement with the multi-employer pension plan to pay the $1.8 million over three years plus interest. The $1.8 million was accrued in prior periods. We may receive future funding deficiency demands from this particular multi-employer pension plan, or other multi-employer plans to which we contribute. We are unable to estimate the amount of any potential future funding deficiency demands because the actions of each of the other contributing employers in the plans has an effect on each of the other contributing employers, the development of a rehabilitation plan by the trustees and subsequent submittal to and approval by the Internal Revenue Service is not predictable, and the allocation of fund assets and return assumptions by trustees are variable, as are actual investment returns relative to the plan assumptions.

As of March 8, 2013, there are no material product defect claims pending against us. Accordingly, our existing accruals for claims against us do not reflect any material amounts relating to product defect claims. While our management is not aware of any facts that would reasonably be expected to lead to material product defect claims against us that would have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition or results of operations, it is possible that claims could be asserted against us in the future. We do not maintain insurance that would cover all damages resulting from product defect claims. In particular, we generally do not maintain insurance coverage for the cost of removing and rebuilding structures, or so-called "rip and tear" coverage. In addition, our indemnification arrangements with contractors or others, when obtained, generally provide only limited protection against product defect claims. Due to inherent uncertainties associated with estimating unasserted claims in our business, we cannot estimate the amount of any future loss that may be attributable to unasserted product defect claims related to ready-mixed concrete we have delivered prior to December 31, 2012.

We believe that the resolution of all litigation currently pending or threatened against us or any of our subsidiaries will not materially exceed our existing accruals for those matters. However, because of the inherent uncertainty of litigation, there is a risk that we may have to increase our accruals for one or more claims or proceedings to which we or any of our subsidiaries is a party as more information becomes available or proceedings progress, and any such increase in accruals could have a material adverse effect on our consolidated financial condition or results of operations. We expect in the future that we and our operating subsidiaries will, from time to time, be a party to litigation or administrative proceedings that arise in the normal course of our business.

We are subject to federal, state and local environmental laws and regulations concerning, among other matters, air emissions and wastewater discharge. Our management believes we are in substantial compliance with applicable environmental laws and regulations. From time to time, we receive claims from federal and state environmental regulatory agencies and entities asserting that we may be in violation of environmental laws and regulations. Based on experience and the information currently available, our management does not believe that these claims will materially exceed our related accruals. Despite compliance and experience, it is possible that we could be held liable for future charges, which might be material, but are not currently known to us or cannot be estimated by us. In addition, changes in federal or state laws, regulations or requirements, or discovery of currently unknown conditions, could require additional expenditures.

As permitted under Delaware law, we have agreements that provide indemnification of officers and directors for certain events or occurrences while the officer or director is or was serving at our request in such capacity. The maximum potential amount of future payments that we could be required to make under these indemnification agreements is not limited; however, we have a director and officer insurance policy that potentially limits our exposure and enables us to recover a portion of future amounts that may be paid. As a result of the insurance policy coverage, we believe the estimated fair value of these indemnification agreements is minimal. Accordingly, we have not recorded any liabilities for these agreements as of December 31, 2012.

We and our subsidiaries are parties to agreements that require us to provide indemnification in certain instances when we acquire businesses and real estate and in the ordinary course of business with our customers, suppliers, lessors and service providers.

The Compensation-Setting Process

Committee Meetings

Our Compensation Committee (“Compensation Committee” or “Committee”) meets as often as it determines necessary to perform its duties and responsibilities and works with management to establish the agenda for each meeting.

The Committee typically meets at least annually with our Chief Executive Officer, Vice President of Human Resources, and General Counsel, and when appropriate and as needed, outside advisors. The Committee also meets as needed in executive sessions without management, including at least annually to evaluate the performance of our Chief Executive Officer, to determine his bonus for the prior fiscal year, to set his base salary for the then-current calendar year, and to consider and approve any grants to him of equity incentive compensation. The Committee typically receives and reviews materials in advance of each meeting. These materials include information that our management believes will be helpful to the Committee, as well as materials that the Committee has specifically requested. Depending on the agenda for the particular meeting, this information may include:

- reports of other officers' and general managers' compensation;
- financial reports on year-to-date performance versus budget and versus prior year performance;
- calculations and reports on levels of achievement of individual and corporate performance objectives;
- information regarding compensation levels at peer groups of companies identified by our Compensation Committee and compensation consultants, and reports our prior and current year performance versus those peer groups;

- management’s proposals for salary, bonus and long-term incentive compensation; and
- proposed bonus information for all eligible employees.

Management’s Role in the Compensation-Setting Process

Management plays a key role in the compensation-setting process for the executive officers, except with respect to the Chief Executive Officer. The most significant aspects of management’s role are:

- recommending salary adjustments and equity compensation awards;
- recommending strategic objectives and business performance targets for approval by the Compensation Committee in connection with incentive compensation plans; and
- evaluating employee performance.

The Compensation Committee has designated our Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and Vice President of Human Resources, collectively, as the “Administrator” of our short-term incentive plan, which is our annual cash bonus plan. The Compensation Committee chose those individuals because of their access to financial information and individual performance criteria necessary to administer the plan. The Administrator has the authority to interpret the plan, to exercise discretion in interpolating performance levels and award payouts outside of or between the designated benchmarks, as well as to take all steps and make all determinations in connection with the short-term incentive plan and bonus payouts as it deems necessary. All incentive award payouts must ultimately be approved by the Committee.

Our Chief Executive Officer also participates in Committee meetings at the Committee’s request to provide:

- information regarding our strategic objectives;
- his evaluations of the performance of all executive officers; and
- compensation recommendations as to all executive officers (excluding himself).

While the Committee considers the recommendation of our Chief Executive Officer, the Committee has the ultimate authority in making compensation decisions.

Executive Compensation Philosophy and Policies

Our ability to hire and retain executives and other key employees is essential to our success and the value provided to our stockholders. Thus, the objectives of our executive compensation program are to:

- attract and retain highly qualified and productive individuals;
- motivate executives to achieve annual and long-term financial and strategic goals;
- be competitive with our peers;
- align individual objectives with Company objectives without encouraging excessive risk-taking; and

- encourage an ownership mentality and align the long-term financial interest of our executives with those of our stockholders.

We believe that we offer a work environment in which executive employees are allowed to use their abilities to achieve personal and professional satisfaction. However, we also understand that our executive employees have a choice regarding where they pursue their careers, and the compensation we offer plays a significant role in their decisions to choose to remain with us. In order to achieve our objectives, our executive compensation program is designed to:

- Be competitive. We seek to deliver fair and competitive compensation for our executive employees, including the NEOs, by targeting the fixed portion of their compensation at or near the market median in the peer group described below.

- Pay for performance. We seek to compensate our executive employees fairly for their contributions to our short- and long-term financial and strategic performance by providing variable compensation through our annual short-term incentive plan and long-term equity incentive plan.

- Emphasize stock ownership. Our compensation philosophy includes using equity-based compensation to attract and retain executive officers and align executive compensation with the interests of our stockholders.

We believe these principles will reward and encourage our management to deliver increasing stockholder value over time, and help us to attract and retain top executive talent.

Compensation Consultants and Competitive Benchmarking

Compensation Consultants

In February 2012, the Compensation Committee engaged Towers Watson, a nationally recognized executive compensation consulting firm, to analyze our current compensation program to determine if it continued to be appropriate and properly support our business strategy and, if not, to recommend a revised compensation program for executives and key employees. In connection therewith, Towers Watson:

- had multiple conversations with the Chairman of our Compensation Committee and our Vice President of Human Resources from February 2012 through February 2013;

- advised the Compensation Committee in 2013 with respect to the review and selection of our 2013 peer group; and

- advised the Compensation Committee regarding the design and implementation of an annual short-term incentive plan for 2012 and valuation of our long-term equity incentive awards and respective performance metrics for 2013.

The Compensation Committee has assessed the independence of Towers Watson pursuant to applicable SEC and NASDAQ rules and has concluded that Towers Watson's work for the Compensation Committee does not raise any conflict of interest.

We have used both Towers Watson and Equilar, a proxy compensation database resource, in prior years, including 2009, 2010 and 2011 to obtain compensation data for competitive benchmarking to ascertain the median target level for total compensation and various compensation elements for our executive officers, including the NEOs and certain other positions within the Company. Other than the information obtained from Towers Watson, no other compensation consultants were engaged for the purpose of determining 2012 compensation.

Competitive Benchmarking

Generally, in setting each executive's base salary, annual bonus, and long-term incentive compensation, our Compensation Committee considers comparative compensation information for equivalent positions from selected peer companies, using benchmark and market data collected and prepared by Towers Watson, Equilar and our management. As discussed above, our compensation policy generally attempts to provide annual base salaries, bonuses and equity compensation opportunities for our NEOs, as well as for other employees, that are competitive (i.e., at approximately the 50th percentile) within the peer group described below. While the Committee considers data from peer companies, the Committee does not employ a formulaic approach in setting compensation.

The Compensation Committee generally uses the 50th percentile as a benchmark for each component of compensation. The Committee takes into consideration each executive's tenure with our Company, overall experience and level of performance when determining the level of his or her base salary relative to the median. The level of bonus and long-term incentive compensation pay for each executive relative to the 50th percentile reflects each executive's level of performance and our annual performance relative to our budget approved by our Board as well as the current number of shares available for issuance under our long-term equity incentive plan. However, our Compensation Committee has the flexibility to adjust compensation for key executives with significant industry experience and/or outstanding sustained performance over a period of time, and for executives within individual business units that achieve excellent performance when our results are below budget in the aggregate.

For 2012, compensation data was obtained from Equilar to ascertain the median target level for total compensation. We have used Equilar for the past seven years as a cost-effective solution to obtain peer group compensation data. For 2012, we obtained compensation data for a group of companies with revenues between $400 million and $700 million for which compensation data was available for their top 25 employees. We considered this group of companies to be our peer group for compensation setting purposes for 2012, and this peer group is comprised of Ameron International Corp., Apogee Enterprises, Inc., Builders FirstSource, Inc., Core Laboratories N.V., Eagle Materials, Inc., Great Lakes Dredge and Dock Inc., Huttig Building Products, Integrated Electrical Services, Inc., M.I. Homes, Inc., Matrix Service Inc., Myr Group Inc., Pike Electric Corp., Primoris Services Corp., Simpson Manufacturing Co., Inc., and Texas Industries, Inc. We believe this group of companies was an appropriate peer group for 2012 because their revenues were similar to our revenues, and revenue size provides a reasonable point of reference for comparing like positions and scope of responsibility.

For 2013, the Compensation Committee worked with Towers Watson to revise our peer group to include companies that are more comparable to us in both industry and geographic markets, as well as revenue and mix. Our revised peer group for 2013 is comprised of the following sixteen companies with a median revenue of $573 million:

- Argan, Inc.
- Eagle Materials, Inc.
- Forbes Energy Services Ltd.
- Furmanite Corporation
- Great Lakes Dredge and Dock Inc.
- Headwaters Incorporated
- Integrated Electrical Services, Inc.
- Martin Marietta Materials, Inc.
- Matrix Service Co.
- Monarch Cement Co.
- Myr Group Inc.
- Orion Marine Group, Inc.
- Sterling Construction Co., Inc.
- Texas Industries, Inc.
- United States Lime & Minerals, Inc.
- Vulcan Materials Company

We believe this group of companies is an appropriate peer group for compensation setting purposes because their revenues, industry and geographic markets are most similar to our Company, providing a reasonable point of reference for comparing like positions and scope of responsibility for purposes of executive compensation. It is the Committee's view that (i) we compete for executive officers and employees from companies that are represented by this group, and (ii) investors consider the performance of these public companies when deciding to make an investment in the construction materials sector.

Given the changing nature of our industry and the construction industry, the actual companies used in the benchmarking process may vary from year to year.

Components of Executive Compensation

The primary components of our executive compensation programs are as follows:

- Annual Base Salaries. This fixed component of pay is based on an individual's particular skills, responsibilities, experience and performance. The executive officers, as well as other salaried employees, are eligible for annual increases based on performance, experience and/or changes in job responsibilities.

- Annual Bonuses. This variable cash component of pay is based on Company performance, business unit performance, and an individual's achievement of specified goals measured over a performance period of one year.

- Long-Term Equity Incentives. This variable equity component of pay is based on an individual's compensation grade level. For 2012, we granted awards of restricted stock to certain Named Executive Officers, with 60% of any award vesting annually over a three-year period and the remaining 40% vesting upon attainment of a specified performance measure.

- 401(k) Plan. All executive officers are eligible to participate in our 401(k) Plan, which we make available to substantially all of our employees, and pursuant to which we match 50% of the first 5% of an employee's contributions, but not exceeding statutory limitations. Effective April 1, 2013, we will increase the match from 50% of the first 5% to 50% of the first 6% of an employee's contributions, subject to statutory limitations.

- Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Plan. On March 1, 2013, the Board adopted a non-qualified deferred compensation plan anticipated to be effective sometime in 2013. All executive officers, including our current NEOs, will be eligible to participate in the non-qualified deferred compensation plan, under which they may defer up to 75% of their base compensation and 100% of their incentive compensation.

- Health and Welfare Benefits. All executive officers are eligible to participate in health and welfare benefit programs that are available to substantially all salaried employees which provide for basic life, disability and health insurance needs. We do not offer any post-employment retiree health or welfare benefits.

•Severance Benefits. We have entered into executive severance agreements with each of our NEOs, which provide the NEOs with varying severance compensation and benefits if their employment is terminated in a qualifying termination.

Analysis of Our 2012 Executive Compensation Program

Base Salary

Our Compensation Committee’s general approach is to determine base salaries by evaluating (i) the levels of responsibility, prior experience and breadth of knowledge of the executive, (ii) internal equity issues, and (iii) external pay practices. The Committee reviews executive salaries annually based on a variety of factors, including individual scope of responsibility and accountability, individual performance, general levels of market salary increases, peer group data, and our overall financial results. The Committee generally grants salary increases within a pay-for-performance framework. The Committee assesses performance for base salary purposes based on goal accomplishments, with such goals being set by supervisors, or in the case of the Chief Executive Officer, by the Board. Salaries for all employees, including NEOs, were increased 2% across the Company in 2012 in light of market increases to base pay of 2-3%.

The 2012 base salaries for the NEOs, which became effective April 1, 2012, were as follows:

Name and Title(1)	2012 Base Salary (2)
William J. Sandbrook - President and Chief Executive Officer	$739,500
William M. Brown - Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer	280,000
Wallace H. Johnson - Vice President Marketing and Sales	224,400
Niel L. Poulsen - Vice President and General Manager - Redi-Mix, LLC	240,000
Jeff L. Davis - Vice President and General Manager – Central Concrete Supply Co., Inc.	255,314
James C. Lewis - Former Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer	280,500
Kent D. Cauley - Former Vice President of Finance	178,500

1. Mr. Lewis resigned effective April 26, 2012, Mr. Konnie resigned effective June 29, 2012 and Mr. Cauley resigned effective August 31, 2012.

This amount represents the base salary that was in effect for each NEO as of December 31, 2012, (or, if earlier, the date the NEO resigned from the Company), and does not reflect the amount actually received by the NEO for all of 2012. For amounts actually received by each NEO for 2012 see the “Summary Compensation Table” below.

Effective April, 1 2013, all salaried employees including Messrs. Brown, Johnson, Poulsen and Davis received a 2.5% increase in their base salary. Mr. Sandbrook received a 4% increase in his base salary effective April 1, 2013. The Committee deemed this increase was earned due to his role in the improved performance of the Company in 2012.

Annual Bonus

2012 Annual Salaried Team Member Incentive Plan

Our Compensation Committee typically awards cash bonuses to executive officers on an annual basis. For 2012, the Committee adopted a short-term incentive plan for all our salaried employees, including all our executive officers (the “2012 Plan”). We changed the 2011 short-term incentive plan in 2012 in order to foster an improved safety culture, reward for sound cash stewardship, as well as increase levels of profitability in both the short-term and the long-term. The purpose of the 2012 Plan was to attract, retain, motivate and reward team members for successful Company, business unit and individual performance, with rewards that were commensurate with the level of performance attained. The cash bonus award is intended to be a significant part of an executive officer's total compensation package subject to the performance of the executive officer.

Eligibility. Each salaried employee and executive officer employed by us on December 31, 2012, was considered an eligible participant in the 2012 Plan. Participants hired during 2012 were eligible to receive a pro-rata award that was reflective of their time spent with the Company. In order to receive an award, a Performance Review Form must have been completed by the participant's supervisor and submitted to Human Resources on or before January 31, 2013.

Performance Levels.

Threshold. In order for a bonus to be paid out under the 2012 Plan, the overall Company Adjusted EBITDA performance must have been equal to or greater than 80% of the budget set at the beginning of 2012. The Adjusted EBITDA budget for 2012 was $16,000,000 and therefore, the corresponding threshold was $12,800,000.

Target. In order for a bonus to be paid at 100% of the individual's target, the Company Adjusted EBITDA performance must have been equal to or greater than the target Adjusted EBITDA of $48,000,000. Actual Adjusted EBITDA performance between the threshold of $12,800,000 and the target of $48,000,000 will result in bonus payments being made on an interpolated basis.

Our actual 2012 Company Adjusted EBITDA performance exceeded the threshold level making every participant in the 2012 Plan eligible to receive a bonus award. However, our actual Adjusted EBITDA achievement did not reach the required target level for full payment of target bonuses under the 2012 Plan.

Corporate performance objectives typically have been established based on Adjusted EBITDA, relative to budgeted levels for each business unit and for the overall Company. We define Adjusted EBITDA as our net income (loss) from continuing operations, excluding interest, income taxes, depreciation and amortization, derivative gain (loss), and loss on extinguishment of debt. Additionally, Adjusted EBITDA is adjusted for items similar to certain of those used in calculating the Company's compliance with debt covenants. The additional items that are adjusted to determine our Adjusted EBITDA are:

- non-cash stock compensation expense;
- expenses associated with the relocation of our corporate headquarters; and
- expenses associated with the departure of our former President and Chief Executive Officer and the hiring of our new President and Chief Executive Officer.

Our Compensation Committee periodically reviews the appropriateness of this financial measure, as used in our incentive plans (including the 2012 Plan), the degree of difficulty in achieving the targets based on this measure, as well as certain strategic and nonfinancial objective criteria.

Bonus Award Weighting and Criteria. After the threshold Adjusted EBITDA performance is met, the percent of an individual's target bonus available for payout is determined by our Adjusted EBITDA performance to budget, then by the business unit's Adjusted EBITDA performance to budget (if applicable), and then by the individual's performance against established objectives. For employees in corporate staff positions, 75% of the determination is based on the total Company Adjusted EBITDA performance and 25% is based on the individual's performance against established objectives. For employees with business unit responsibility, 35% of the determination is based on the total Company Adjusted EBITDA, 40% is based on the business unit Adjusted EBITDA, and 25% is based on the individual's performance against established objectives. Each NEO and participant in the 2012 Plan had an individual target bonus percentage that was (i) based on their grade level, and (ii) expressed as a percentage of their annual base salary, and could potentially earn amounts under the 2012 Plan that range from $0 (if the threshold Adjusted EBITDA performance is not met) to a designated maximum level, based on performance actually achieved. The grade level and target and maximum percentage applicable to each of the NEOs are as set forth in the chart below (because Messrs. Lewis, Konnie and Cauley were not employed as of December 31, 2012 and hence were not eligible to receive an award under the 2012 Plan, they are not included in the chart below):

Edgar Filing: US CONCRETE INC - Form 424B3

Named Executive Officer	Grade Level	Target %	Maximum %
William J. Sandbrook	21	100%	200%
William M. Brown	19	40%	80%
Niel L. Poulsen	19	40%	80%
Jeff L. Davis	19	40%	80%
Wallace H. Johnson	18	35%	70%

The amount of a participant's available target bonus to be paid out under the individual component was determined by the accomplishment of certain objectives specified for the participant and other individual performance criteria. These performance metrics were established at the beginning of 2012 and may have included goal accomplishment, quality of work and where appropriate, managerial competence and safety. The maximum bonus payout that any participant could receive was 200% of their target bonus based on superior performance. The 2012 individual performance objectives of each of the NEOs were as follows:

William J. Sandbrook: (i) achieve 2012 total company Adjusted EBITDA budget of $16,000,000; (ii) develop, implement and begin execution of a three (3) year strategic plan including acquisitions and divestitures; (iii) plan, implement, execute, and complete the corporate headquarters relocation from Houston to Euless, Texas; and (iv) management of trade working capital.

•William M. Brown: Payment of a 2012 bonus was established as part of Mr. Brown's offer letter.

•Wallace H. Johnson: (i) develop a marketing strategy to make the Company a leader in each of our markets as the Green Concrete Option; (ii) development of a new Company website with updated websites for each business unit tied to the Company's website; (iii) establish five (5) new license agreements with producers for Aridus; and (iv) roll out and implement corporate-lead business processes and initiatives involving ConAdd, Command QC, OnBase, and OBIEE.

•Niel L. Poulsen: (i) management of trade working capital; (ii) management of safety, including improvement of recordable incident rates, lost time incident rates, and workers' compensation cost per hour; and (iii) improvement in business unit Adjusted EBITDA.

•Jeff L. Davis: (i) management of trade working capital; (ii) management of safety, including improvement of recordable incident rates, lost time incident rates, and workers' compensation cost per hour; and (iii) improvement in business unit contribution margin.

2012 Bonus Awards to Named Executive Officers. The Compensation Committee met in the first quarter of 2013, and pursuant to the 2012 Plan, awarded cash bonuses to participants and NEOs to be paid on March 15, 2013 out of an approved bonus pool of $3.8 million. In 2012, the Company achieved Adjusted EBITDA above the threshold level, Mr. Poulsen's business unit achieved Adjusted EBITDA above the target level, Mr. Davis' business unit achieved Adjusted EBITDA above the target level, Mr. Sandbrook achieved his performance objectives at the target level and Messrs. Johnson, Poulsen and Davis achieved their performance objectives above the threshold level. Based on these performances, the annual bonus calculation for each of the NEOs is set forth in the table below:

Named Executive Officer (1)	Target Bonus Award	Individual Target Bonus (Base Pay x Target Percentage)	Corporate Bonus Percentage	Business Unit Percentage	Individual Goal Factor	2012 Annual Bonus
William J. Sandbrook	100% of base salary	$739,500	75%	0%	25%	$484,373
William M. Brown (2)	40% of base salary	112,000	75%	0%	25%	40,197
Wallace H. Johnson	35% of base salary	78,540	75%	0%	25%	43,590
Niel L. Poulsen	40% of base salary	96,000	35%	40%	25%	83,712
Jeff L. Davis	40% of base salary	$102,125	35%	40%	25%	$70,467

1. Messrs. Lewis, Konnie and Cauley resigned prior to December 31, 2012 and did not receive a bonus pursuant to the 2012 Plan.

2. Pursuant to Mr. Brown's offer of employment, he received a signing bonus of $25,000, which is not reflected in the chart above. In addition, pursuant to his offer of employment, Mr. Brown's 2012 annual bonus under the 2012 Plan was guaranteed at his target base amount of 40% of his base salary pro-rated in accordance with his length of employment with us in the amount of $40,197. Mr. Brown's offer of employment also provides that, for 2013, 50% of his target bonus amount will be guaranteed.

2013 Incentive Plan. In December of 2012, the Committee approved the 2013 Annual Salaried Incentive Compensation Plan (the "2013 Plan"). The 2013 Plan replaced the 2012 Plan, but retains the Adjusted EBITDA and individual performance metrics. Similar to the 2012 Plan, for 2013, if the threshold Adjusted EBITDA is met, the percent of an individual's target bonus available for payout will be determined by the Company's Adjusted EBITDA performance to budget, the business unit's Adjusted EBITDA performance to budget, and then by the individual's performance to established objectives. For employees within business units, 35% of the determination will be based on the U.S. Concrete Adjusted EBITDA, 40% based on the business unit Adjusted EBITDA, and 25% based on the individual's performance against established objectives

The Company revised the threshold Adjusted EBITDA performance levels of the 2013 Plan in order to reflect the Compensation Committee's decision that incentive awards should focus on improving the Company and business unit financial performance as well as the overall ability of plan participants to positively affect Company and business unit performance in the current economic environment.

Long Term Incentive Compensation, Restricted Stock Units, Nonqualified Stock Option Awards, and Restricted Stock

Our Compensation Committee believes that equity compensation is one of the most effective means of creating a long-term link between the compensation provided to executive officers and other key management personnel and the interests of our stockholders. In 2010, we adopted the Management Equity Incentive Plan (the "MEIP"), which is an omnibus equity-based compensation plan that permits the grant of a variety of different equity-based awards to eligible participants, including the Named Executive Officers. We have historically granted restricted stock units ("RSUs") with associated Incentive RSUs ("IRSUs"), nonqualified stock options, and restricted stock awards to our executive officers under the MEIP.

The Compensation Committee currently awards restricted shares with a combination of time- and performance-based vesting criteria as long-term incentive compensation for all executives. Sixty percent (60%) of the shares subject to the awards will vest over three (3) years in equal annual installments from the date of grant, contingent upon the executive's continued employment. The remaining forty percent (40%) of the number of shares granted pursuant to the awards are subject to certain performance hurdles that must be achieved and are subject to the executive's continued employment. The Compensation Committee has elected to use restricted shares with a combination of time- and performance-based vesting criteria because:

- restricted shares with a combination of time and performance-based vesting criteria provide a motivating form of incentive compensation, help to align the interests of executives with those of our stockholders, foster employee stock ownership, and contribute to the focus of the management team on increasing value for our stockholders; and
- the extended vesting period, which is subject to the executive's continued employment with us, encourages executive retention.

Our equity awards are designed to be competitive with the market of similar sized companies. As a result, it is generally our goal to make awards at the 50th percentile of our peer group as our overall level of profitability improves.

Additionally, in determining the number of shares to be granted to our executive officers, our Compensation Committee takes into account each individual's position, scope of responsibility, and performance.

The Compensation Committee met in the first quarter of 2012 and approved equity awards to certain NEOs that were granted effective as of April 1, 2012. Messrs. Davis and Poulsen were each granted 15,000 shares of restricted stock and Mr. Johnson was awarded 10,000 shares of restricted stock. Sixty percent (60%) of such shares will vest over three (3) years in equal annual installments from the date of grant, subject to the executive's continued employment, and forty percent (40%) of the number of shares granted, which we refer to as the Performance Shares, are subject to additional performance and continued employment requirements. Fifty percent (50%), or half, of the Performance Shares will vest should our share price attain a market-closing share price of $10.00 per share for ten (10) consecutive business days within three (3) years from the date of grant, subject to the executive's continued employment. The other fifty percent (50%), or half of the Performance Shares will vest should our share price attain a market-closing share price of $14.00 per share for ten (10) consecutive business days within three (3) years from the date of grant, subject to the executive's continued employment. Mr. Brown received an award of 30,000 restricted shares on August 22, 2012, pursuant to his offer of employment, which are subject to the same vesting conditions described above.

Messrs. Lewis, Konnie and Cauley were not granted equity awards in 2012 as they notified the Company of their intention to resign prior to the date the Committee approved equity award grants for 2012.

In addition, the Compensation Committee did not grant Mr. Sandbrook any equity in 2012 as the award of 750,000 restricted shares made to him in 2011 in connection with his appointment as Chief Executive Officer was intended to cover the first three years of his employment. The restricted shares granted to Mr. Sandbrook in 2011 are subject to the same vesting conditions as described above with respect to the restricted shares granted in 2012, except that different performance hurdles apply to Mr. Sandbrook's Performance Shares. Per the original grant, fifty percent (50%), or half, of the Performance Shares granted to Mr. Sandbrook will vest should our share price attain a market-closing share price of $16.00 per share for ten (10) consecutive business days within three (3) years from the date of grant and the other fifty percent (50%) of the Performance Shares will vest should our share price attain a market-closing share price of $20.00 within four (4) years from the date of the grant, in each case, subject to Mr. Sandbrook's continued employment. On June 8, 2012, the Board, upon recommendation by the Compensation Committee, revised the $16.00 hurdle to $12.00 in order to recognize and reward Mr. Sandbrook's performance with the Company to date, and to provide him with further incentive to continue his leadership. Mr. Sandbrook will be eligible for another equity grant after August 22, 2014.

Consistent with past practice, the Compensation Committee met in the first quarter of 2013 and approved equity awards to the NEOs (other than Mr. Sandbrook, for the reasons described above) that were granted effective as of April 1, 2013, pursuant to the MEIP. Messrs. Brown, Poulsen and Davis were each granted 10,000 shares of restricted stock and Mr. Johnson was awarded 5,000 shares of restricted stock. As the number of shares approved for each NEO's award was based on a market closing price of $11.25 per share, the number of shares for each award will be adjusted to the nearest 100 shares based on the market closing price on March 29, 2013 to reflect the value of the award as approved. Sixty percent (60%) of such shares will vest over three (3) years in equal annual installments from the date of grant, contingent upon the continued employment of the executive. The remaining forty percent (40%) of the shares granted, which we refer to as the Performance Shares, are subject to additional performance and continued employment requirements. Fifty percent (50%), or half, of the Performance Shares will vest should the average of the daily volume-weighted average share price of the Company's Common Stock over any period of twenty (20) consecutive trading days attain $18.00 per share within the three (3) year period from the date of grant, subject to the executive's continued employment. The other fifty percent (50%), or half of the Performance Shares will vest should the average of the daily volume-weighted average share price of the Company's Common Stock over any period of twenty (20) consecutive trading days attain $22.00 per share within the three (3) year period from the date of grant, subject to the executive's continued employment.

401(k) Plan

We maintain a 401(k) plan in which all non-union employees (hourly and salaried) are eligible to participate. Effective January 1, 2012, the match was increased from forty (40%) to fifty percent (50%) of each dollar contributed by a participating employee up to five percent (5%) of an employee's eligible compensation, not to exceed the statutory maximum. Effective as of April 1, 2013, the Committee approved an increase in the Company's match to fifty percent (50%) of each dollar contributed by a participating employee up to six percent (6%) of an employee's eligible contribution.

Perquisites and Other Benefits

We provide our executive officers with the opportunity to participate in our other employee benefits programs and to receive certain perquisites. The employee benefits programs in which our executive officers participate (which provide benefits such as medical coverage and group term life insurance protection) are generally the same programs offered to all our salaried employees. These programs are intended to promote the health and financial security of our employees. The programs are provided at competitive market levels to attract, retain and reward employees.

Perquisites did not constitute a material portion of the compensation to the NEOs for 2012. However, we do provide payment for the premiums associated with additional term life insurance and whole life insurance for our Chief Executive Officer. We believe the perquisites we do provide are less than those provided by other companies in our industry and are reasonable given recent economic conditions.

Severance Benefits Pursuant to Executive Severance Agreements

Certain executive officers, including each of our NEOs, entered into executive severance agreements with the Company. Each executive severance agreement provides for severance payments and other benefits following termination of the applicable officer's employment under various scenarios, as described below. We believe these severance benefits reflect the fact that it may be difficult for such executives to find comparable employment within a short period of time. Each such agreement also contains a confidentiality covenant, requiring the applicable officer to not disclose our confidential information at any time, as well as noncompetition and nonsolicitation covenants, which prevent the executive from competing with us or soliciting our customers or employees during employment and for one year after the officer's employment terminates (subject to extension in the event of a change in control, so that the noncompetition and nonsolicitation covenants will extend to cover the number of months post-termination used to determine the severance benefits payable to him. These agreements are described in further detail below under “Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control.”

Deferred Compensation Plan

On March 1, 2013, the Board adopted a non-qualified deferred compensation plan anticipated to be effective sometime in 2013. All executive officers, including our current NEOs, will be eligible to participate in the non-qualified deferred compensation plan, under which they may defer up to 75% of their base compensation and 100% of their incentive compensation.

COMPENSATION PROGRAM AND RISK MANAGEMENT

Our Compensation Committee has conducted a comprehensive review of our compensation structure from the perspective of enterprise risk management and the design and operation of our executive and employee compensation arrangements generally and has concluded that the risks arising from our compensation policies and overall actual compensation practices for employees are not reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on our Company. Our compensation program as a whole does not encourage or incite our executives or other employees to take unnecessary and excessive risks or engage in other activities and behavior that threaten the value of the Company or the investments of our shareholders, as evidenced by the following design features that we believe mitigate risk-taking:

- Compensation Mix. To encourage appropriate decision-making and facilitate the alignment of the interests of our employees with those of the Company and its shareholders, our compensation program is structured to provide an appropriate balance of “fixed” and “variable” or “at risk” compensation. We believe that the allocation of variable compensation between annual cash incentives and long-term equity incentive compensation along with fixed base salaries meets our objectives and affords us the ability to attract, retain and motivate executives by providing predictable fixed income to meet the current living requirements and significant variable compensation opportunities for long term wealth accumulation.
- Base Salaries. While base salary is the only fixed element of compensation that we provide to our executives and other employees, we believe that the amounts paid are sufficient to meet the essential financial needs of these executives and employees. Consequently, our incentive compensation arrangements are intended to reward their performance if, and only to the extent that, the Company and our shareholders also benefit financially from their stewardship.
- Annual Incentives. Our annual short-term incentive plan applies to salaried employees at each of our business units. While our annual short-term incentive plan for salaried employees differs from year-to-year, cash bonuses are generally awarded under the plan based on some combination of Company and business unit financial results, and individual and business unit accomplishment of strategic goals, which may include strategic position in the market, improvement in operational efficiencies, development of new products, implementation and utilization of information technology, employee development, accomplishment of various safety goals, and completion of specific transactions or projects. We do not believe that the pursuit of these objectives will lead to behaviors that focus executives on their individual enrichment rather than our long-term welfare, and we believe that the annual bonus plan does not encourage excessive risk-taking as the bonus amounts are based on multiple financial and non-financial goals and objectives.
- Long-Term Equity Awards. In addition to the strategic focus of our short-term cash bonus plan, our equity compensation program is specifically intended to create a long-term link between the compensation provided to executive officers and other key management personnel and gains realized by our stockholders. Our Compensation Committee uses restricted shares with a combination of performance based vesting criteria as long-term incentive compensation because, among other reasons, these awards provide a motivating form of incentive compensation, while contributing to the focus of our management team on increasing value for our stockholders. As these awards vest over multiple years, and the vesting of the awards is based generally on continued service with the Company, we believe the awards do not encourage executives to achieve short-term increases in stock price to the detriment of long-term growth.

Compliance with Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m)

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally disallows a deduction to public companies to the extent of excess annual compensation over $1 million paid to certain executive officers, except for qualified performance-based compensation. The Compensation Committee plans to review this matter as appropriate and take action as may be necessary to preserve the deductibility of compensation payments to the extent reasonably practical and consistent with our compensation objectives.

Clawback Policy

To date, our Board of Directors has not adopted formal clawback policy to recoup incentive based compensation upon the occurrence of a financial restatement, misconduct, or other specified events. However, restricted stock agreements covering grants to our NEOs in 2011 and later years do include language providing that the award may be canceled and the award recipient may be required to reimburse us for any realized gains to the extent required by applicable law or any clawback policy that we adopt. Our Compensation Committee is currently evaluating the practical, administrative, and other implications of implementing and enforcing a clawback policy in compliance with the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010 once additional guidance is promulgated by the SEC.

Conclusion

Based upon its review of our overall executive compensation program, the Compensation Committee believes our executive compensation program, as applied to our executive officers, is appropriate and is necessary to retain the executive officers who are essential to our continued development and success, to compensate those executive officers for their contributions and to enhance stockholder value. The Committee believes that the total compensation opportunities provided to our executive officers create a commonality of interests and alignment of our long-term interests with those of our stockholders.

The figures shown in the "Salary" column of this table reflect the amount actually received by the NEO as base salary during a specified year, not the NEO's annual rate of pay for the applicable year. The rates of pay are most likely higher than amounts shown if an NEO began employment with us during a particular year or if an NEO received a salary increase during the year. Annual pay increases for all executive officers are generally not effective until April of a given year. In addition, an officer's rate of pay may change over the course of the year due to a change in job title or responsibilities.

The amounts shown in this column for 2012 reflect the $25,000 signing bonus paid to Mr. Brown upon acceptance of his employment offer, a pro-rata target bonus of $40,197 for Mr. Brown for 2012, and the $30,000 retention bonus paid to Mr. Johnson upon relocation of our headquarters to Euless, Texas.

The amounts shown in the "Stock Awards" column represent the aggregate grant date fair value of the awards of restricted stock granted in 2012, determined in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 718 to the named executive officers other than Mr. Sandbrook. We determined the fair market value of a restricted stock award on the grant date using the closing price of our common stock on the date of grant. The values shown in this column are not representative of the amounts that may eventually be realized by the executive, which are subject to achievement of the time-and performance-based vesting conditions applicable to the awards and our share price at the time of vesting. For Mr. Sandbrook, represents the incremental fair value, computed as of June 8, 2012, in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 718, with respect to the award of 750,000 restricted shares made to Mr. Sandbrook in 2011. As discussed above under "Analysis of our 2012 Executive Compensation Program-Long Term Equity Incentive Compensation," the Board amended this award on June 8, 2012 to revise certain performance hurdles. Assumptions used in the calculations of the 2012 amounts are included in Note 9 to our audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2012, which are included in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2012.

The amounts in this column reflect the cash bonuses to the named individuals earned in 2012 and paid in 2013, 4. under the 2012 Annual Salaried Team Member Incentive Plan, which is discussed under the heading "Analysis of Our 2012 Executive Compensation Program—Annual Bonus."

The amounts in the "All Other Compensation" column for fiscal year 2012 reflect; (a) matching contributions under our 401(k) Plan of $6,250, $6,282, $4,781, $6,250, $2,295, $3,467 and $3,587 for each of Messrs. Sandbrook, Johnson, Poulsen, Davis, Lewis, Cauley and Konnie, respectively; (b) additional life insurance premiums paid by us for Mr. Sandbrook in the amounts of $20,400 and $9,195; (c) relocation fees of $30,000, $121,508, $23,474 and 5. $75,065 for Mr. Sandbrook, Mr. Brown, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Poulsen; (d) $14,025, $13,730, and $15,672 to Messrs. Lewis, Cauley and Konnie, respectively for accrued, but unused vacation paid out in connection with their resignations; (e) $402,078 and $536,559 in severance to Mr. Cauley and Mr. Konnie, respectively, in addition to $6,856 and $7,231 for COBRA insurance for Mr. Cauley and Mr. Konnie, respectively; and (f) $11,400 to Mr. Poulsen for auto allowance.

6. No information is reported for Mr. Sandbrook in 2010, as he joined the Company in August 2011.

7. No information is reported for Mr. Brown for 2010 and 2011, as he joined the Company August 2012.

8. No information is reported for Mr. Poulsen for 2010 and 2011, as he joined the Company in January 2012.

GRANTS OF PLAN-BASED AWARDS FOR FISCAL YEAR 2012

The following table summarizes the non-equity and equity plan-based awards that our Named Executive Officers received or were eligible to receive during fiscal year 2012. Our NEOs are eligible to receive all non-equity awards pursuant to the 2012 Annual Salaried Team Member Incentive Plan. All equity awards were granted pursuant to the U.S. Concrete, Inc. 2010 Management Equity Incentive Plan.

The NEOs are eligible to earn annual non-equity incentive compensation under our short-term incentive plan for each fiscal year based on achievement of certain performance measures. The overall Company Adjusted EBITDA for 2012 was above the Adjusted EBITDA threshold, so the Company made bonus payments to the named individuals earned in 2012 and paid in 2013, under the 2012 Annual Salaried Team Member Incentive Plan, which is discussed in further under the heading "Analysis of Our 2012 Executive Compensation Program—Annual Bonus."¹ The actual amount paid to Messrs. Sandbrook, Johnson, Poulsen and Davis was $484,373, $43,590, $83,712, and $70,467, respectively, that will be paid by March 15, 2013. The percentage of base pay for the NEOs for the target bonus was as follows: Mr. Sandbrook (100%), Messrs. Brown, Poulsen and Davis (40%) and Mr. Johnson (35%). The percentage of base pay for the NEO maximum bonus was as follows: Mr. Sandbrook (200%), and Messrs. Brown, Poulsen and Davis (80%) and Mr. Johnson (70%).

Each Incentive RSU represents the right to receive a cash payment equal to .35020 of a share of our common stock rather than a settlement in the form of shares of our common stock. The applicable performance criteria for the Incentive RSUs are described below.

The amounts in this column represent the Restricted Stock Awards granted on April 1, 2012 to Messrs. Johnson, Poulsen, and Davis and on August 22, 2012, to Mr. Brown. Sixty percent (60%) of these shares will vest over three (3) years annually in equal installments from date of grant and forty percent (40%), which we refer to as the Performance Shares, will vest based on performance conditions over the same three (3) year period. The Performance Shares vest in equal portions, with fifty percent (50%) vesting should the share price attain a market-closing share price of $10.00 per share for ten (10) consecutive business days within three (3) years from the date of grant, and fifty percent (50%) vesting should the share price attain a market-closing share price of $14.00 per share for ten (10) consecutive business days within three (3) years from the date of grant.

Represents the incremental fair value, computed as of June 8, 2012, in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 718, with respect to the award of 750,000 restricted shares made to Mr. Sandbrook in 2011. As discussed above under "Analysis of our 2012 Executive Compensation Program-Long Term Equity Incentive Compensation," the Board amended this award on June 8, 2012 to revise certain performance hurdles.

The grant date fair value of the restricted stock award was calculated as follows, the August 22, 2012 award for Mr. Brown is based on the closing price of $6.14 per share for 18,000 of such shares, $3.53 per share for 6,000 of such shares and $2.11 per share for the remaining 6,000 of such shares.

The grant date fair value of the restricted stock award was calculated as follows, the April 1, 2012 award for Mr. Johnson is based on the closing price of $4.66 per share for 6,000 of such shares, $1.87 per share for 2,000 of such shares and $1.02 per share for the remaining 2,000 of such shares.

The grant date fair value of the restricted stock award was calculated as follows, the April 1, 2012 award for Mr. 7. Poulsen is based on the closing price of $4.66 per share for 9,000 of such shares, $1.87 per share for 3,000 of such shares and $1.02 per share for the remaining 3,000 of such shares.

The grant date fair value of the restricted stock award was calculated as follows: the April 1, 2012 award for Mr. 8. Davis is based on the closing price of $4.66 per share for 9,000 of such shares, $1.87 per share for 3,000 of such shares and $1.02 per share for the remaining 3,000 of such shares.

Employment Terms

Although the Company has not entered into an employment agreement with any of its Named Executive Officers, certain employment terms are included in each of their executive severance agreements, the severance provisions of which are detailed below under "Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control". Each such agreement specifies the executive's position, location of employment, monthly base salary and annual paid vacation entitlement.

U.S. Concrete, Inc. Management Equity Incentive Plan

We adopted the 2010 U.S. Concrete, Inc. Management Equity Incentive Plan (the "Incentive Plan") in September 2010 pursuant to which awards to employees and directors can be made in the form of stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock, RSUs and other equity or equity-based grants, in addition to grants denominated in cash. The Incentive Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee and as of December 31, 2012, there were 519,614 shares of U.S. Concrete common stock reserved for issuance in connection with awards made under the Incentive Plan.

Nonqualified Stock Option Award Agreements

Pursuant to each nonqualified stock option award agreement issued in accordance with the Incentive Plan, the option vests in equal quarterly installments over the three year period following the date of grant, subject to the executive's continued employment on each vesting date. Any portion of the option that is unvested on the date of termination will be forfeited, except that if the executive's employment is terminated without "cause," any portion of the option that would have become vested during the six-month period following termination will become vested on the date of termination. An optionee generally has until the earlier of (i) 90 days following termination (or 1 year following a termination without cause) or (ii) expiration of the original option term to exercise vested options. All options, vested or unvested, will be forfeited on termination with cause. Each option award agreement also contains covenants by the executive not to solicit customers or employees of U.S. Concrete during employment and for one year thereafter and an ongoing covenant not to disclose U.S. Concrete's confidential information. Additionally, pursuant to the terms of each Named Executive Officer's executive severance agreement, upon a change in control all outstanding unvested options will become fully vested and exercisable. Each of these terms and conditions are described in greater detail in the "Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control" section below.

Restricted Stock Unit Award Agreements

Pursuant to each RSU award agreement issued in accordance with the Incentive Plan, the RSUs vest in equal quarterly installments over the three year period following the date of grant, subject to the executive's continued employment on each vesting date. Any portion of the RSUs that are unvested on the date of termination will be forfeited, except that if the executive's employment is terminated without "cause," any portion of the RSUs that would have become vested during the six month period following termination will become vested on the date of termination. Additionally, pursuant to the terms of each Named Executive Officer's executive severance agreement, upon a "change in control" all outstanding unvested RSUs will become fully vested. Upon vesting, the executive will receive the number of shares of U.S. Concrete common stock that correspond to the number of RSUs that have become vested.

Additionally, with respect to each RSU awarded under the agreement, the executive will receive one Incentive RSU which will entitle the executive to receive a payment equal to 0.35020 of a share of Common Stock to be delivered within 30 days following the later of the date on which (i) the related RSU vests, or (ii) the "Performance Goal" is achieved. Each Incentive RSU will vest on the same schedule as the related RSU and will be immediately forfeited and canceled if such RSU is forfeited and canceled for any reason. With respect to Incentive RSU grants, the "Performance Goal" will be deemed to have been achieved on the earlier of (a) the conversion on a cumulative basis of 95% of our 9.5% Old Convertible Notes issued pursuant to the Old Convertible Note Indenture or (b) the date we deliver a conversion event notice in accordance with the terms of such Old Convertible Note Indenture. If the Performance Goal is not achieved prior to August 31, 2015, each Incentive RSU will expire without any payment being made with respect thereto. Each of these terms and conditions are described in greater detail in the "Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control" section below.

Restricted Stock Award Agreements

Pursuant to each restricted stock award agreement issued in accordance with the Incentive Plan, sixty percent (60%) of such shares granted pursuant to an award will vest over three (3) years in equal annual installments from the date of grant and forty percent (40%) of the number of shares granted pursuant to an award will vest based on both the passage of time and the satisfaction of certain performance criteria. On June 8, 2012, the Board, upon recommendation of the compensation committee, revised certain performance criteria applicable to the restricted stock award granted to Mr. Sandbrook in 2011. Specifically, the Board revised the $16.00 hurdle to $12.00 in order to recognize and reward Mr. Sandbrook's performance with the Company to date, and to provide him with further incentive to continue his leadership. The incremental fair value associated with this modification is reported above in the "Stock Awards" column to the Summary Compensation Table and the "Grant Date Fair Value of Stock and Options Awards" column to the Grants of Plan-Based Awards for Fiscal Year 2012 table. Any portion of the RSAs that are unvested on the date of termination will be forfeited, except that if the executive's employment is terminated without "cause," any portion of the RSUs that would have become vested during the six month period following termination will become vested on the date of termination. Additionally, pursuant to the terms of each Named Executive Officer's executive severance agreement, upon a "change in control" all outstanding unvested RSAs will become fully vested. Each of these terms and conditions are described in greater detail in the "Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control" section below.

The time- and- performance-based vesting conditions are divided in equal portions, fifty percent (50%) will vest should the share price attain a market-closing share price of $10.00 per share for ten (10) consecutive business days within 3 years from the date of grant and 50% will vest should the share price attain a market-closing share price of $14.00 per share for 10 consecutive business days within 3 years from the date of grant.

The market value of the unvested restricted stock awards and RSUs is calculated using the closing market price of our common stock as of December 31, 2012, the last trading day of 2012, which was $9.05. The value of the 6. Incentive RSUs as of December 31, 2012 was determined to be zero due to the low probability of the units becoming issued shares as of that date.

PENSION BENEFITS

We do not maintain any defined benefit pension plans that provide for payments or other benefits at, following, or in connection with the retirement of any of our Named Executive Officers.

POTENTIAL PAYMENTS UPON TERMINATION OR CHANGE IN CONTROL

Severance Benefits Pursuant to Executive Severance Agreements

Certain executive officers, including each of our NEOs, entered into executive severance agreements with the Company. Each executive severance agreement provides for severance payments and other benefits following termination of the applicable officer's employment under various scenarios, as described below. We believe these severance benefits reflect the fact that it may be difficult for such employees to find comparable employment within a short period of time. Each such agreement also contains a confidentiality covenant, requiring the applicable officer to not disclose our confidential information at any time, as well as noncompetition and nonsolicitation covenants, which prevent the executive from competing with us or soliciting our customers or employees during the executive officer's employment and for one year after the officer's employment terminates (subject to extension in the event of a change in control, so that the noncompetition and nonsolicitation covenants will extend to cover the number of months post-termination used to determine the severance benefits payable (as described below)).

In the case of a termination of the applicable officer's employment (that is not in connection with a "change in control") either by us without "cause" or by the officer for "good cause" (each term as defined below), the officer would generally be entitled to the following severance benefits:

- a lump-sum payment in cash equal to the officer's monthly base salary in effect on the date of termination multiplied by 24 in the case of certain officers, including Messrs. Sandbrook and Johnson, and multiplied by 12 in the case of all other applicable officers, including Messrs. Brown, Poulsen and Davis;
- a lump-sum payment in cash equal to the amount of the officer's target bonus for the bonus year in which the termination occurs, prorated based on the number of days in the bonus year that have elapsed prior to the termination;
- payment of all applicable medical continuation premiums for continuation coverage under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act, or COBRA, for the benefit of the officer (and his covered dependents as of the date of his termination, if any) under his then-current plan election for 18 months after termination;
- a lump-sum payment in cash equal to the value of the officer's accrued but unpaid salary through the date of such termination, plus the officer's unused vacation days earned for the year prior to the year in which the termination occurs and a pro rata portion of the vacation days earned for the year in which the termination occurs; and
- (a) in the case of certain officers, including Messrs. Sandbrook and Johnson, a pro rata portion of all outstanding and previously unvested stock options, restricted stock awards, restricted stock units and similar awards granted to the officer by us prior to the date of termination (the "Unvested Awards") that would otherwise have vested during the six-month period following the date of termination if such termination had not occurred will become vested and exercisable (as applicable), and vested stock options will remain exercisable until the earlier of (1) the expiration of the twelve-month period following termination, and (2) the expiration date of the original term of the applicable stock option; (b) in the case of certain officers, including Messrs. Brown and Poulsen, fifty percent of all Unvested Awards that would otherwise have vested during the twelve month period following the date of involuntary termination shall immediately vest upon the date of termination; and (c) in the case of all other applicable officers, including Mr. Davis, immediate vesting of all Unvested Awards, and immediate lapsing of any restrictions, forfeiture conditions or other conditions or criteria applicable to any such awards on the date of termination.

Our senior management and other employees have made significant contributions to us over the past several years, and we believe that it is important to protect them in the event of a change in control. Further, it is our belief that the interests of our senior management should be aligned with our stockholders, and providing change in control benefits should eliminate, or at least reduce, the reluctance of senior management to pursue potential change in control transactions that may be in the best interests of our stockholders generally, but that may result in loss of employment for an individual NEO.

In the event there is a “change in control” of our Company and within one year thereafter the officer’s employment is terminated by us without cause or by the officer for good cause, the officer would generally be entitled to the following severance benefits:

- a lump sum payment in cash equal to (a) the sum of (1) the officer’s monthly base salary in effect on the termination date multiplied by 12, and (2) the amount of the officer’s full target bonus for the bonus year in which termination occurs, multiplied by (b) in the case of Mr. Sandbrook and Johnson, 2.5, and in the case of Mr. Brown, Poulsen and Davis, 2.0;
- a lump-sum payment in cash equal to the value of the officer’s accrued but unpaid salary through the date of such termination, plus the officer’s unused vacation days earned for the year prior to the year in which the termination occurs and a pro rata portion of the vacation days earned for the year in which the termination occurs;
- payment by the Company of all applicable medical continuation premiums for continuation coverage under COBRA for the benefit of the officer (and his covered dependents as of the date of his termination, if any) under his then-current plan election for 18 months after termination; and
- all Unvested Awards shall become fully vested.

In the case of termination by reason of the officer’s death or long-term/permanent disability, the officer or his heirs would be entitled to substantially the same benefits as outlined above for a termination by us without cause or by the officer for good cause in the absence of a change in control, except that any Unvested Awards would not become vested, but instead would terminate immediately, with the exception of any unvested restricted stock units which would immediately vest.

In the case of a termination of the applicable officer’s employment either by us for cause or by the officer without good cause, the officer would be entitled to payments for his accrued but unpaid pro rata monthly base salary and unused vacation, in each case through the date of termination, but all Unvested Awards would be canceled. Also, in the case of a termination by us for cause, all vested stock options held by the officer would remain exercisable for a period of up to 90 days, after which they would expire.

We may be required to reduce the amount of the payments due to Messrs. Sandbrook, Brown, Johnson and Poulsen in certain situations. Their executive severance agreements provide that in the event any payment or distribution to such individual would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, and the aggregate amount of all payments that would be subject to the excise tax reduced by all federal, state and local taxes applicable thereto, including the excise tax, is less than the amount such individual would receive, after all such applicable taxes, if such individual received payments equal to an amount which is $1.00 less than three times the such individual’s “base amount,” as defined in and determined under Section 280G of the Code, then, such payments shall be reduced or eliminated to the extent necessary so that the aggregate payments received by such individual will not be subject to the excise tax. In no event, however, will we provide them with a tax gross-up payment or other tax assistance payment in the event that an excise tax is imposed upon the executive officer under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Under each executive severance agreement, we would have “cause” to terminate the applicable officer’s employment in the event of:

- the officer's gross negligence, willful misconduct or willful neglect in the performance of his material duties and services to us;
- the officer's final conviction of a felony by a trial court, or his entry of a plea of nolo contendere to a felony charge;
- any criminal indictment of the officer relating to an event or occurrence for which he was directly responsible which, in the business judgment of a majority of our Board of Directors, exposes our Company to ridicule, shame or business or financial risk; or
- a material breach by the officer of any material provision of the executive severance agreement.

On the other hand, the officer generally would have "good cause" to terminate his employment if there is:

- a material diminution in his then current monthly base salary;

- a material change in the location of his principal place of employment by us;
- any material diminution in his current position or any title or position to which he has been promoted;
- any material diminution of his authority, duties or responsibilities from those commensurate and consistent with the character, status and dignity appropriate to his current position or any title or position to which he has been promoted (provided, however, that if at any time he ceases to have such duties and responsibilities because we cease to have any securities registered under Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or cease to be required to file reports under Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, then the officer’s authority, duties and responsibilities will not be deemed to have been materially diminished solely due to the cessation of such publicly traded company duties and responsibilities);
- any material breach by us of any material provision of the executive severance agreement, including any failure by us to pay any amount due under the executive severance agreement; or
- with respect to Mr. Sandbrook, any restructuring of his direct reporting relationship within our Company.

Under each executive severance agreement, a “change in control” will be deemed to have occurred on the earliest of any of the following dates:

- the date our Company merges or consolidates with any other person or entity, and the voting securities of our Company outstanding immediately prior to such merger or consolidation do not continue to represent (either by remaining outstanding or by being converted into voting securities of the surviving entity) more than 50% of the total voting power of the voting securities of our Company or such surviving entity outstanding immediately after such merger or consolidation;
- the date our Company sells all or substantially all of our assets to any other person or entity;
- the date our Company is dissolved;
- the date any person or entity together with its affiliates becomes, directly or indirectly, the beneficial owner of voting securities representing more than 50% of the total voting power of all then outstanding voting securities of our Company; or
- the date the individuals who constituted the nonemployee members of our Board of Directors (the “Incumbent Board”) as of the effective date of the agreement cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority of the nonemployee members of our Board, provided that, for purposes of this clause, any person becoming a director whose election or nomination for election by our stockholders was approved by a vote of at least 80% of the directors comprising the Incumbent Board then still in office (or whose election or nomination was previously so approved) will be considered as though such person were a member of the Incumbent Board; provided, however, a “change in control” shall not be deemed to have occurred in connection with any bankruptcy or insolvency of our Company, or any transaction in connection therewith.

Based on a hypothetical termination date of December 31, 2012 for each of our NEOs who were employed by us on December 31, 2012, the severance benefits for those NEOs due to a termination either by us without “cause” or by the officer for “good cause” in the absence of a change in control pursuant to the terms of the executive severance agreements would have been as follows:

Lewis Resignation

On February 20, 2012, James C. Lewis, the Company's then Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, gave notice of his intention to leave the Company for personal reasons, which became effective upon April 26, 2012. No payments were made to Mr. Lewis pursuant to his Executive Severance Agreement in connection with his resignation and all Unvested Awards were canceled.

Konnie Severance Agreement

On February 28, 2012, Gary J. Konnie, the Company's then Vice President – Human Resources, gave notice of his intention to leave the Company for personal reasons, effective upon the Company's relocation of its corporate headquarters to Euless, Texas, on June 29, 2012. Mr. Konnie's Executive Severance Agreement, effective October 1, 2010, provided that Mr. Konnie may terminate for "good cause" if there is a change in the location of his principal place of employment. Because the relocation to Euless, Texas constituted a change in the location of his principal place of employment by us, upon his departure from the Company, Mr. Konnie was eligible to receive severance payments pursuant to Section 1.2(a)(ii) of his Executive Severance Agreement. Pursuant to the Severance Agreement, Mr. Konnie received severance in the amount of $559,462.

Mr. Konnie agreed to provide consulting services to the Company for a period of 6 months following his resignation. Pursuant to the Consulting Agreement, Mr. Konnie received $10,000 per month, paid upon the first day of each month, for the consulting services for the period of July 1, 2012 through December 31, 2012. During the Consulting Term, Mr. Konnie was entitled to reimbursement for all business travel and other out-of-pocket expenses reasonably incurred by Mr. Konnie in the performance of the services.

Cauley Severance Agreement

On April 27, 2012, Kent D. Cauley, the Company's then Vice President and Controller and principal accounting officer, gave notice of his intention to leave the Company for personal reasons, effective upon the Company's relocation of its corporate headquarters to Euless, Texas, on June 29, 2012. Mr. Cauley's resignation became effective on August 31, 2012. Mr. Cauley's Executive Severance Agreement, effective February 28, 2011, provided that Mr. Cauley may terminate for "good cause" if there is a change in the location of his principal place of employment. Because the relocation to Euless, Texas constituted a change in the location of his principal place of employment by us, upon his departure from the Company, Mr. Cauley was eligible to receive severance payments pursuant to Section 1.2(a)(ii) of his Executive Severance Agreement. Pursuant to the Severance Agreement, Mr. Cauley received severance in the amount of $422,664.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

Director Retainers and Meeting Fees

For 2012, we paid to each of our nonemployee directors the following fees, with the retainers paid quarterly in advance and the meeting fees paid quarterly in arrears:

- an annual retainer of $40,000 to the Chairman of the Board, in addition to the Board and committee retainers listed below;
- an annual retainer of $40,000 to each member of the Board;
- $1,500 for each Board meeting attended in person and $1,000 for each Board meeting attended telephonically;
- an annual retainer of $15,000 for the Chairman of the Audit Committee;
- an annual retainer of $15,000 for the Chairman of the Compensation Committee;
- an annual retainer of $5,000 for each member (non-chair) of the Audit Committee and Compensation Committee; and
- $1,000 for each Board committee meeting attended (in person or telephonic), unless the committee meeting is held on the same day as a Board meeting, in which case the committee member receives no additional fee for attending that committee meeting.

Effective October 12, 2012, we increased the annual retainer we pay to all Board members from $40,000 to $50,000, and, in addition, we increased the annual retainer we pay to the Chairman of the Board from $40,000 to $50,000.

Director Equity Compensation

In 2010, we adopted the Management Equity Incentive Plan, which we refer to as the MEIP, which provides that five percent (5%) of the shares of common stock under the plan may be allocated to director awards and, on May 7, 2012, we amended the MEIP to increase the permitted allocation of shares to directors from 5% to 8.25%.

The Directors initially received a two-year grant in October 2010. Thus no equity awards were made to directors in 2012 except for the award of 9,350 Restricted Stock Units, which we refer to as RSUs, and 9,350 Incentive RSUs, which we refer to as IRSUs, made to Mr. Rossi on July 1, 2012, who joined the Board in November 2011. The Company has recently decided to provide annual awards to Directors as per their remuneration for service to the Company. On January 23, 2013, subject to stockholder approval at the Annual Meeting on May 15, 2013, we adopted the U.S. Concrete, Inc. Long Term Incentive Plan, which we refer to as the LTIP, and pursuant to the LTIP and subject to its approval by stockholders, we made an annual equity grant to Mr. Davis as Chairman of the Board, of 16,830 RSUs, and to Messrs Rayner, Cellar, Lundin, Sutherland and Rossi of 11,220 RSUs, respectively, with 75% of such award vesting on July 1, 2013 and 25% of such award vesting on October 1, 2013, provided the award recipient remains a member of the Board through the applicable vesting dates. The 75% vesting on July 1, 2013 is provided as a catchup of vesting as the awards should have been issued in October 2012.

Other Director Compensation

Edgar Filing: US CONCRETE INC - Form 424B3

We do not pay any additional compensation to our employees for serving as directors, but we reimburse all directors for out-of-pocket expenses they incur in connection with attending Board and committee meetings or otherwise in their capacity as directors.

The table below summarizes the compensation we paid to our nonemployee directors during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2012.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION FOR FISCAL YEAR 2012(1)

Name	Fees Earned or Paid in Cash	RSU Awards (2)	Total
Eugene I. Davis	$114,500		$114,500
Kurt M. Cellar	85,000		$85,000
Michael D. Lundin	75,000		$75,000
Robert M. Rayner	82,000		$82,000
Colin M. Sutherland	82,000		$82,000
Theodore P. Rossi (3)	$73,000	$46,750	$119,750

Mr. Sandbrook has served as a director from August 22, 2011 until present. He is not included in this table as he was an employee in 2012 and thus received no additional compensation for his service as a director. The compensation Mr. Sandbrook received in 2012 is fully reflected in the Summary Compensation Table below.

Amounts reported in the "Stock Awards" column represent the aggregate grant date fair value for RSU and IRSU awards granted to the nonemployee directors during 2012, calculated in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 718. Additional information on the assumptions used in the computation of our share-based compensation is included in Note 18 to our consolidated financial statements in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2012. No equity awards were granted to nonemployee directors in 2012, except to Mr. Rossi who received an award of 9,350 RSUs and 9,350 IRSUs on July 1, 2012. The RSUs became fully vested October 1, 2012 and the IRSUs shall be deemed to have been achieved upon the attainment of the applicable "Performance Goal," which occurs on the earlier of (a) the conversion on a cumulative basis of 95% of our 9.5% Company's Convertible Secured Notes due in 2015 issued pursuant to the Indenture dated August 31, 2010 between the Company, U.S. Bank National Association, as Trustee and Noteholder Collateral Agent, and the Guarantors named therein, which we refer to as the Indenture, or (b) the date the Company delivers a Conversion Event Notice in accordance with the terms of the Indenture. If the Performance Goal is not achieved prior to the Maturity Date (as defined in the Indenture), each IRSU will expire without any payment being made with respect thereto. Unearned IRSUs will be forfeited in the event of a successful completion of our Exchange Offer for the 9.5% Convertible Secured Notes recently launched with the filing of a Form S-4 Registration Statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 6, 2013. The aggregate grant date fair value of $46,750 for Mr. Rossi's 2012 stock awards is based on (i) the closing price of $5.00 per share for our common stock on June 30, 2012 (since the July 1, 2012 grant date was not a trading day), with respect to the RSU awards, and (ii) the determination that the grant date fair value with respect to the IRSUs was $0 due to the probability of the IRSUs becoming issued shares.

As of December 31, 2012, Mr. Rossi was the only nonemployee director who held any outstanding, unvested stock awards. Because the RSUs awarded to him in 2012 vested in full on October 1, 2012, the only outstanding unvested stock awards held by Mr. Rossi as of December 31, 2012 were 9,350 IRSUs. None of the nonemployee directors held any outstanding, unexercised stock options as of December 31, 2012.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

All members of our Compensation Committee, Messrs. Cellar, Lundin, Sutherland and Rossi are “independent directors” in accordance with the applicable Nasdaq listing standards. No member of the Compensation Committee was, during the year ended December 31, 2012, an officer or employee of U.S. Concrete or any of its subsidiaries. During the year ended December 31, 2012, no member of the Compensation Committee had any material interest in a transaction involving the Company (except for the director compensation arrangements described below) or a material business relationship with, or any indebtedness to, the Company. No interlocking relationship existed during the year ended December 31, 2012 between any member of the Board of Directors or the Compensation Committee and an executive officer of the Company.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT AND RELATED STOCKHOLDERS MATTERS

The following table shows the beneficial ownership of our common stock as of March 18, 2013 (except as set forth in the footnotes below) by each person who we know beneficially owns more than 5% of the outstanding shares of our common stock, each of our current directors, our current named executive officers and all our current directors and current executive officers as a group. Unless otherwise indicated in the footnotes below, each individual named has sole voting and dispositive power with respect to the shares shown, and the address of all those persons is c/o U.S. Concrete, Inc., 310 North Main Street, Euless, Texas 76039.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Pursuant to our Code of Ethics and Business Conduct, all employees (including our NEOs) who have, or whose immediate family members have, any direct or indirect financial or other participation in any business that competes with, supplies goods or services to, or is a customer of the Company, are required to disclose such matters to our Chief Executive Officer or General Counsel prior to transacting such business. Our employees are expected to make reasoned and impartial decisions in the work-place.

Our Board of Directors has adopted a written policy for the review, approval and ratification of transactions with related persons. The policy covers related party transactions between us and any of our executive officers and directors or their respective affiliates, director nominees, 5% security holders or family members of any of the foregoing. Related party transactions covered by this policy are reviewed by our Board of Directors to determine whether the transaction is in our best interests and the best interests of our stockholders. As a result, approval of related-party business will be denied if we believe that an employee's interest in such business could influence decisions relative to our business, or have the potential to adversely affect our business or the objective performance of the employee's work. Our Board members are also responsible for complying with our Code of Ethics and Business Conduct, which is in writing and is available on our Web site at www.us-concrete.com under Investor Relations – Corporate Governance. You may also obtain a written copy by making a request to our Corporate Secretary by mail at U.S. Concrete, Inc., 331 North Main Street, Euless, Texas 76039 or by phone by calling (817) 835-4100.

Described below are transactions or agreements related to our securities and/or that we have entered into with parties that are related to us.

Warrants

On August 31, 2010, we issued warrants to acquire Common Stock, or the New Warrants, in two tranches: Class A Warrants and Class B Warrants. The New Warrants were issued to holders of our common stock that was canceled as a result of our Plan of Reorganization, or the Old Common Stock, pro rata based on a holder's stock ownership as of the effective date of our Plan of Reorganization.

In connection with the issuance of the Class A Warrants, we entered into a Class A Warrant Agreement, or the Class A Warrant Agreement with American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC, or AST, as warrant agent. Subject to the terms of the Class A Warrant Agreement, holders of Class A Warrants are entitled to purchase shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $22.69 per share. In connection with the issuance of the Class B Warrants, the Company entered into a Class B Warrant Agreement, or Class B Warrant Agreement, and, together with the Class A Warrant Agreement, or the Warrant Agreements, with AST, as warrant agent. Subject to the terms of the Class B Warrant Agreement, holders of Class B Warrants are entitled to purchase shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $26.68 per share. Subject to the terms of the Warrant Agreements, both classes of New Warrants will have a seven-year term and will expire on the seventh anniversary of the Effective Date. The New Warrants may be exercised for cash or on a net issuance basis.

If, at any time before the expiration date of the New Warrants, we pay or declare a dividend or make a distribution on the Common Stock payable in shares of our capital stock, or make subdivisions or combinations of our outstanding shares of Common Stock into a greater or lesser number of shares or issue any shares of our capital stock by reclassification of Common Stock, then the exercise price and number of shares issuable upon exercise of the New Warrants will be adjusted so that the holders of the New Warrants will be entitled to receive the aggregate number and kind of shares that they would have received as a result of the event if their New Warrants had been exercised immediately before the event. In addition, if we distribute to holders of the Common Stock an Extraordinary Distribution (defined in each Warrant Agreement to include assets, securities or warrants to purchase securities), then the exercise price of the New Warrants will be decreased by the amount of cash and/or the fair market value of any securities or assets paid or distributed on each share of Common Stock; however, no adjustment to the exercise price will be made if, at the time of an Extraordinary Distribution, we make the same distribution to holders of New Warrants as we make to holders of Common Stock pro rata based on the number of shares of Common Stock for which the New Warrants are exercisable.

Registration Rights Agreement

In connection with the issuance of the Old Convertible Notes, we entered into a registration rights agreement, dated August 31, 2010 (the "Registration Rights Agreement"), under which we agreed, pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth therein, to register the Old Convertible Notes and the Common Stock into which the Old Convertible Notes convert. Under the Registration Rights Agreement, we were required to use commercially reasonable efforts to file a registration statement covering the resale by the Electing Holders (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement) of convertible notes that are Registrable Securities (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement) by the first business day following the date that was 366 days following the Effective Date. The Electing Holders include (1) affiliates of Whippoorwill Associates, Inc., and (2) affiliates of Monarch Alternative Capital LP, each of which is also a beneficial holder of more than five percent (5%) of our outstanding common stock, and may include other holders of more than five percent (5%) of our outstanding common stock. We were also required to file a registration statement covering the resale of shares of Common Stock that constitute Registrable Securities by the Electing Holders, on a delayed or continuous basis, within 180 days of the date on which the convertible notes were initially issued. We have filed a registration statement covering the resale of shares of Common Stock that constitute registrable securities for the Electing Holders as described above, and it was declared effective by the SEC on April 8, 2011. We also filed a registration statement covering the resale of the convertible notes that constitute registrable securities for the Electing Holders as described above, and it was declared effective by the SEC on October 26, 2011.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

On August 31, 2010 (the "Bankruptcy Date"), we and certain of our subsidiaries (collectively, the "Debtors") consummated the transactions contemplated by the Debtors' Plan (the "Plan"), pursuant to Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code, dated July 27, 2010, as confirmed by the Confirmation Order of the Bankruptcy Court entered on July 29, 2010, and emerged from Chapter 11 in accordance with the Plan.

On the Bankruptcy Date, the Old Common Stock was canceled pursuant to the Plan. On the Bankruptcy Date, the Company issued an aggregate of approximately 11.9 million shares of Common Stock, pursuant to the Plan. In connection with the Plan, the Company adopted an Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the "Certificate") and the Third Amended and Restated By-Laws (the "By-laws"), effective as of the Bankruptcy Date. Set forth below is a description of the Common Stock and other relevant provisions of the Certificate and By-laws. This description of our capital stock is only a summary and is qualified by applicable law and by the provisions of our Certificate and By-laws, copies of which are available as set forth under "Where You Can Find More Information." Common Stock

The Certificate authorizes the issuance of 100,000,000 shares of Common Stock, par value $0.001 per share, and 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.001 per share (the "Preferred Stock"). All of the Common Stock issued under the Plan is fully paid and non-assessable.

Each share of Common Stock (1) has one vote on all matters voted upon by the stockholders of the Company; provided, however, that, except as otherwise required by law, holders of Common Stock, as such, are not entitled to vote on any amendment to the Certificate (including any certificate of designations relating to any series of Preferred Stock) that relates solely to the terms of one or more outstanding series of Preferred Stock if the holders of such affected series are entitled, either separately or together with the holders of one or more other such series, to vote thereon pursuant to the Certificate (including any certificate of designations relating to any series of Preferred Stock), (2) affords no cumulative voting or preemptive rights and (3) is not convertible, redeemable, assessable or entitled to the benefits of any sinking or repurchase fund.

Holders of Common Stock are entitled to dividends in such amounts and at such times as our Board in its discretion may declare out of funds legally available therefor, subject to the preferences that may apply to any shares of preferred stock outstanding at the time.

Preferred Stock

Pursuant to the Certificate, we are authorized to issue "blank check" preferred stock, which may be issued from time to time in one or more series upon authorization by the Board. The Board, without further approval of the stockholders, is authorized to fix the dividend rights and terms, conversion rights, voting rights, redemption rights and terms, liquidation preferences, and any other rights, preferences and restrictions applicable to each series of the Preferred Stock. The issuance of Preferred Stock, while providing flexibility in connection with possible acquisitions and other corporate purposes could, among other things, adversely affect the voting power of the holders of the Common Stock and, under certain circumstances, make it more difficult for a third party to gain control of us, discourage bids for the Common Stock at a premium or otherwise affect the market price of the Common Stock.

Anti-takeover Effects of the Certificate and the Bylaws

Some provisions of the Certificate and the Bylaws may be deemed to have an anti-takeover effect and may delay or prevent a tender offer or takeover attempt that a stockholder might consider to be in its best interest, including those attempts that might result in a premium over the market price for the shares held by stockholders.

These provisions include:

Board vacancies

The Certificate authorizes the Board to fill vacant directorships or increase the size of the Board, which may deter a stockholder from removing incumbent directors and simultaneously gaining control of the Board by filling the vacancies created by this removal with its own nominees.

Cumulative voting

The Certificate does not grant our stockholders the right to cumulative voting in the election of directors. As a result, stockholders may not aggregate their votes for a single director.

Special meeting of stockholders

The Certificate provides that special meetings of our stockholders may be only be called by the Chairman of the Board or by the Board pursuant to a resolution a majority of the Board approves by an affirmative vote.

Authorized but unissued shares

Our authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock are available for future issuance without stockholder approval. These additional shares may be utilized for a variety of corporate purposes, including future public offerings to raise additional capital, corporate acquisitions and employee benefit plans. The existence of authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock could render more difficult or discourage an attempt to obtain control of a majority of the Common Stock by means of a proxy contest, tender offer, merger or otherwise.

Section 203 of Delaware General Corporation Law

As of the Bankruptcy Date, we were not subject to Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (as amended, the "DGCL") because we did not have a class of voting stock that is listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 stockholders and we had not elected by a provision in our original Certificate or any amendment thereto to be governed by Section 203 of the DGCL. Upon the listing of our Common Stock on the Nasdaq on February 1, 2011, we became subject to Section 203 of the DGCL, except that the restrictions contained in Section 203 of the DGCL do not apply if the business combination is with an interested stockholder who became an interested stockholder before the time that our Common Stock was listed on the Nasdaq.

Transfer Agent

Indemnification of Directors and Officers

The Bylaws provide that each person who was or is made or is threatened to be made a party or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he, or a person for whom he is the legal representative, is or was a director or officer of the Company or, while a director or officer of the Company, is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust, enterprise or nonprofit entity, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, is indemnified and held harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, against all liability and loss suffered and expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by such person. The rights conferred in the Bylaws includes the right to have the Company pay the expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition, provided, however, that, to the extent required by law, such payment of expenses in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding shall be made only upon receipt of an undertaking by the indemnitee to repay all amounts advanced if it should be ultimately determined that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified under the Bylaws or otherwise.

The Certificate provides that no director of the Company shall be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for a breach of fiduciary duty as a director, subject to certain exceptions.

DESCRIPTION OF OTHER INDEBTEDNESS

Revolving Facility

On August 31, 2012, we and certain of our subsidiaries party thereto as “Borrowers” and certain of our subsidiaries party thereto as “Guarantors” entered into a Loan and Security Agreement with Bank of America, N.A. as Agent and Sole Lead Arranger and certain financial institutions party thereto as “Lenders.” The key terms of the Revolving Facility are described below. Such description is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Revolving Facility, a copy of which has been incorporated by reference as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part and which is available upon request as described under the caption “Where You Can Find More Information.”

The Revolving Facility provides for a revolving credit facility with $80.0 million of Lender commitments. The Company’s actual maximum credit availability under the Revolving Facility varies from time to time and is determined by calculating a borrowing base, which is based on the value of the eligible accounts receivable, inventory and vehicles of the Company and the other co-borrowers, minus reserves imposed by the Lenders and other adjustments, all as specified in the Revolving Facility. The Revolving Facility also contains a provision for up to $8.0 million of overadvances and involuntary protective advances by Lenders. The Revolving Facility provides for swingline loans, up to a $10.0 million sublimit, and letters of credit, up to a $30.0 million sublimit. The Revolving Facility also includes an uncommitted accordion feature of up to $45.0 million in the aggregate allowing for future incremental borrowings, subject to certain conditions. As of December 31, 2012, the Company had $13.3 million in borrowings outstanding under the revolving credit facility and $12.2 million of undrawn standby letters of credit under the Revolving Facility. Proceeds from advances under the Revolving Facility may also be used to finance working capital, permitted acquisitions, and for other lawful corporate purposes.

Following the closing of the exchange offer and the consummation of the Amendments, we will seek to exercise the accordion feature of the Revolving Facility to increase the commitments under the Revolving Facility. We anticipate that the lenders under the Revolving Facility will increase their commitments from $80.0 million to an amount not to exceed $102.5 million, and may increase the provision for overadvances and involuntary protective advances. After giving effect to the Amendments, the ABL Cap Amount will be $102.5 million (plus an additional $10.25 million that may be used solely in a limited circumstance and may not be used for overadvances or involuntary protective advances).

The loans under the Revolving Facility are scheduled to mature on July 1, 2015. The Revolving Facility is secured by liens on substantially all assets owned by the Company and its subsidiaries. Some of the liens securing the Revolving Facility are first-priority liens, including those on inventory (including as-extracted collateral), accounts, certain specified mixer trucks, chattel paper, general intangibles (other than collateral that will secure the New Senior Notes on a first-priority basis), instruments, documents, cash, deposit accounts, securities accounts, commodities accounts, letter of credit rights and all supporting obligations and related books and records and all proceeds and products of the foregoing, subject to permitted liens and certain exceptions, and others are second-priority liens on assets owned by the Company and its subsidiaries currently securing the Old Convertible Notes on a first-priority basis, including material owned real property, fixtures, intellectual property, capital stock of subsidiaries and certain equipment, subject to permitted liens and certain exceptions.

Interest Rates and Fees

Advances under the Revolving Facility are in the form of either base rate loans or “LIBOR Loans” denominated in U.S. dollars. The interest rate for base rate loans denominated in U.S. dollars fluctuates and is equal to the greatest of (a) Bank of America’s prime rate; (b) the Federal funds rate, plus 0.50%; and (c) the rate per annum for a 30-day interest period equal to the British Bankers Association LIBOR Rate, as published by Reuters at approximately 11:00 a.m. (London time) two business days prior (“LIBOR”), plus 1.0%; in each case plus 1.50%. The interest rate for LIBOR Loans denominated in U.S. dollars is equal to the LIBOR rate per annum for the applicable interest period plus 2.75%. Among other fees, we pay a commitment fee of 0.375% per annum (due monthly) on the aggregate unused revolving commitments under the Revolving Facility. We also pay fees with respect to any letters of credit issued under the Revolving Facility.

Covenants and Events of Acceleration

The Revolving Facility contains usual and customary negative covenants for transactions of this type, including, but not limited to, restrictions on our ability, and in certain instances, our subsidiaries’ ability, to consolidate or merge; substantially change the nature of its business; sell, lease or otherwise transfer any of its assets; create or incur indebtedness; create liens; pay dividends; and make investments or acquisitions. The negative covenants are subject to certain exceptions as specified in the Revolving Facility. The Revolving Facility also requires us, upon the occurrence of certain events, to maintain a Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio of at least 1.0 to 1.0 for each period of twelve calendar months, as determined in accordance with the Revolving Facility.

The Revolving Facility also includes customary events of default, including, among other things, payment default, covenant default, breach of representation or warranty, bankruptcy, cross-default, material ERISA events, a change of control of the Company, material money judgments and failure to maintain subsidiary guarantees.

The Old Convertible Notes

On August 31, 2010, the Company issued $55.0 million aggregate principal amount of the Old Convertible Notes pursuant to a subscription offering contemplated by that certain Joint Plan of Reorganization, pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, which was originally filed with the Bankruptcy Court on the Petition Date and supplemented by the Supplement to that certain Joint Plan of Reorganization pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code filed with the Bankruptcy Court on July 19, 2010 and July 22, 2010, and amended on July 27, 2010, relating to the Company and certain of its subsidiaries. The Old Convertible Notes are governed by the Old Convertible Note Indenture. A more detailed description of the Old Convertible Notes prior to giving effect to the Amendments can be found under the caption "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operation—Liquidity and Capital Resources—Convertible Secured Notes due 2015."

If the Amendments are approved and effected, they will be binding on all holders of Old Convertible Notes, including those who do not give their consent to the Amendments and do not tender their Old Convertible Notes in the exchange offer, and therefore hold Amended Convertible Notes. If for any reason the exchange offer with respect to the Old Convertible Notes is not completed, the Amendments will not become effective and the Old Convertible Notes and related guarantees will continue to be subject to the same terms and conditions, and be secured by the same collateral, as before the exchange offer was made. A more detailed description of the Amendments and of the Amended Convertible Notes can be found under the captions "The Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation—Amendments" and "Description of the Old Convertible Notes, as amended by the Amendments," respectively.

Intercreditor Agreement

On August 31, 2010, we and certain of our subsidiaries party thereto as guarantors entered into the Intercreditor Agreement dated as of August 31, 2010 among JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as predecessor in interest to Bank of America, N.A., U.S. Bank National Association as trustee and as noteholder collateral agent, the Company and each guarantor (as it may be amended, amended and restated, modified, supplemented, extended, renewed or replaced from time to time the "Intercreditor Agreement"). The Intercreditor Agreement sets forth the terms of the relationship between the Lenders under the Revolving Facility and the holders of the Old Convertible Notes, as described in more detail in the section titled "Description of the Notes."

In addition, the Amendments, if and when given effect, will include amendments to the Intercreditor Agreement to increase the "ABL Cap Amount" (as defined therein) from $80.0 million to $102.5 million (plus an additional $10.25 million that may be used solely in a limited circumstance), to reflect the release of collateral securing the Old Convertible Notes, and to provide for the liens that formerly secured the Old Convertible Notes to instead secure the New Senior Notes.

DESCRIPTION OF THE NOTES

U.S. Concrete, Inc. (the “Issuer”) will issue up to $69,300,000 aggregate principal amount of 9.5% Senior Secured Notes due 2015 (the “Senior Notes”) under an indenture (the “Indenture”) among itself, the Guarantors (as defined below) and U.S. Bank National Association, as trustee (the “Trustee”) and as noteholder collateral agent (together with any successor thereto in such capacity, the “Noteholder Collateral Agent”). The terms of the Senior Notes include those expressly set forth in the Indenture and those made part of the Indenture by reference to the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended (the “TIA”).

The following description is a summary of the material provisions of the Senior Notes, the Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreement and the Security Documents and does not purport to be complete. This summary is subject to the detailed provisions of, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, the Senior Notes, the Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreement and the Security Documents, including the definitions of certain terms used in the Indenture. We urge you to read these documents because they, and not this description, define your rights as a holder of the Senior Notes. You may request a copy of the Senior Notes, the Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreement and the Security Documents from us as described under “Where You Can Find More Information.”

For purposes of this description, references to the “Issuer,” “we,” “our” and “us” refer only to U.S. Concrete, Inc., a Delaware corporation, and not to its subsidiaries. You can find definitions of certain terms used in this description under the heading “—Certain Definitions.”

Release of a Guarantor

A Guarantor will be released from its obligations under its Note Guarantee and its obligations under the Indenture:

- (i) in the event of a sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of such Guarantor, by way of merger, consolidation or otherwise; provided, that the Net Available Proceeds of such sale or other disposition are applied in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Indenture, including “—Certain Covenants—Limitations on Asset Sales;”
- (ii) in connection with any sale or other disposition of Capital Stock of that Guarantor to a Person that is not (either before or after giving effect to such transaction) the Issuer or a Restricted Subsidiary, if the sale or other disposition does not violate the covenant described in “—Certain Covenants—Limitations on Asset Sales” and the Guarantor ceases to be a Restricted Subsidiary as a result of the sale or other disposition;
 - if such Guarantor is designated as an Unrestricted Subsidiary or otherwise ceases to be a Restricted Subsidiary, in
- (iii) each case in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture, upon effectiveness of such designation or when it first ceases to be a Restricted Subsidiary, respectively; or
- (iv) if the Issuer exercises its legal defeasance option or its covenant defeasance option pursuant to “—Legal Defeasance and Covenant Defeasance” or if the Issuer's obligations under the Indenture are discharged in accordance “—Discharge of Indenture.”

Payment on the Senior Notes; Paying Agent and Registrar; Transfer and Exchange

The Issuer will pay the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on the Senior Notes in the manner described below. An installment of principal of, or interest on, the Senior Notes will be considered paid on the date it is due if the Trustee or Paying Agent (other than the Issuer or an Affiliate thereof) holds on that date U.S. Legal Tender designated for and sufficient to pay the installment.

The Issuer will maintain or cause to be maintained an office or agency in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, where (a) Senior Notes may be presented or surrendered for registration of transfer or for exchange (“Registrar”), (b) Senior Notes may, subject to the terms of the Senior Notes, be presented or surrendered for payment (“Paying Agent”) and (c) notices and demands to or upon the Issuer in respect of the Senior Notes and the Indenture may be served. The Issuer may act as Registrar or Paying Agent, except that for the purposes of “—Legal Defeasance and Covenant Defeasance” and “—Discharge of Indenture,” neither the Issuer nor any Affiliate of the Issuer may act as Paying Agent. The Registrar will keep a register of the Senior Notes and of their transfer and exchange and the entries in such register will be conclusive as to the ownership of each of the Senior Notes, absent manifest error. The Issuer, upon notice to the Trustee, may have one or more co-registrars and one or more additional paying agents reasonably acceptable to the Trustee. The term “Registrar” includes any co-registrar and the term “Paying Agent” includes any additional paying agent. The Issuer will initially appoint the Trustee as Registrar and Paying Agent until such time as the Trustee has resigned or a successor has been appointed. The Issuer may change any Paying Agent or Registrar without notice to any Holder. A Holder may transfer or exchange Senior Notes at the office of the Registrar in accordance with the Indenture. The Registrar and the Trustee may require a holder, among other things, to furnish appropriate endorsements and transfer documents. No service charge will be imposed for any registration of transfer or exchange of Senior Notes, but the Issuer may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any transfer tax or similar governmental charge payable in connection therewith.

Without the prior written consent of the Issuer, the Registrar will not be required to register the transfer of or exchange of any Senior Note (i) during a period beginning at the opening of business 15 days before the sending of a notice of redemption of Senior Notes and ending at the Close of Business on the day of such sending, (ii) selected for redemption in whole or in part pursuant to the optional redemption provisions of the Indenture, except the unredeemed portion of any Senior Note being redeemed in part, and (iii) beginning at the opening of business on any Record Date and ending at the Close of Business on the related Interest Payment Date.

Any Holder of a beneficial interest in a global note, by acceptance of such beneficial interest, agrees that transfers of beneficial interests in such global note may be effected only through a book-entry system maintained by the Holder of such global note (or its agent) in accordance with the applicable legends thereon, and that ownership of a beneficial interest in such global note shall be required to be reflected in a book-entry system.

The registered Holder of a Senior Note may be treated as the owner of it for all purposes.

Maturity; Interest

The Senior Notes will mature on October 1, 2015.

The Senior Notes will bear interest at rate of 9.5% per annum from the Issue Date until maturity. The Issuer will pay interest semi-annually on April 1 and October 1 of each year, or if any such day is not a Business Day, on the next succeeding Business Day (each an "Interest Payment Date"), commencing October 1, 2013. Interest on the Senior Notes accrues from the most recent date to which interest has been paid or, if no interest has been paid, from the date of original issuance. The Issuer will pay interest (including post-petition interest in any proceeding under any Bankruptcy Law) on overdue principal and premium, if any, from time to time on demand to the extent lawful at the rate equal to 2% per annum in excess of the then applicable rate on the Senior Notes; it will pay interest (including post-petition interest in any proceeding under any Bankruptcy Law) on overdue installments of interest (without regard to any applicable grace periods) from time to time on demand at the same rate to the extent lawful. Interest on the Senior Notes is computed on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months.

The Issuer will pay interest on the Senior Notes to the Persons who are registered Holders of Senior Notes at the Close of Business on the March 15 or September 15 next preceding the Interest Payment Date (each a "Record Date"), even if such Senior Notes are canceled after such Record Date and on or before such Interest Payment Date, except as provided in the Indenture with respect to defaulted interest. The Issuer will pay principal, premium, if any, and interest on the Senior Notes in such coin or currency of the United States of America as at the time of payment is legal tender for payment of public and private debts ("U.S. Legal Tender"). Principal, premium, if any, and interest on the Senior Notes will be payable at the office or agency of the Issuer maintained for such purpose except that, at the option of the Issuer, the payment of interest may be made by check mailed to the Holders of the Senior Notes at their respective addresses set forth in the register of Holders of Senior Notes; provided, that for Holders that have given wire transfer instructions to the Issuer at least three Business Days prior to the applicable payment date, the Issuer will make all payments of principal, premium and interest by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the accounts specified by the Holders thereof. Until otherwise designated by the Issuer, the Issuer's office or agency in New York will be the office of the Trustee maintained for such purpose.

Security

The Senior Notes and the Note Guarantees will be secured by first-priority liens on certain of the property and assets directly owned by the Issuer and each of the Guarantors, including material owned real property, fixtures, intellectual property, capital stock of subsidiaries and certain equipment, subject to permitted liens (including a second-priority lien in favor of the Bank Collateral Agent) and certain exceptions (as described in the Security Documents).

Obligations under the ABL Facility and those in respect of hedging and cash management obligations owed to the lenders (and their affiliates) party to the ABL Facility are secured by a second-priority lien on such collateral. The Senior Notes and the Note Guarantees will also be secured by a second-priority lien on the assets of the Issuer and the Guarantors securing the ABL Obligations (as defined below) on a first-priority basis, including inventory (including as-extracted collateral), accounts, certain specified mixer trucks, chattel paper, general intangibles (other than collateral that will secure the Senior Notes on a first-priority basis), instruments, documents, cash, deposit accounts, securities accounts, commodities accounts, letter of credit rights and all supporting obligations and related books and records and all proceeds and products of the foregoing, subject to permitted liens and certain exceptions, as described in the Security Documents. A material portion of the collateral that will secure the Senior Notes will secure the ABL Obligations on a first-priority basis and will secure the Senior Notes on a second-priority basis. The remaining collateral that will secure the Senior Notes (on a first-priority basis) will secure ABL Obligations on a second-priority basis. See “Risk Factors—Risks Related to the New Senior Notes—There may not be sufficient collateral to pay all or any of the New Senior Notes.”

Intercreditor Agreement

On August 31, 2010, the Issuer and the Guarantors entered into the Intercreditor Agreement. The Intercreditor Agreement currently sets forth the terms of the relationship between the holders of the ABL Obligations and the holders of the Convertible Notes. In connection with this offering, the Intercreditor Agreement will be amended (the “Intercreditor Agreement Amendment”) to, among other things, replace all references to the Convertible Notes with references to the Senior Notes. The Intercreditor Agreement Amendment is described below under the caption “—First Amendment to Intercreditor Agreement”. The following paragraphs are a summary of the material provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement, as currently in effect and as it will be amended by the Intercreditor Agreement Amendment in connection with this offering. Unless otherwise provided below, all provisions of the amended Intercreditor Agreement that will apply to the Senior Notes are substantially similar to the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement as currently in effect that apply to the Convertible Notes. Where appropriate in the context, for purposes of the following description of the Intercreditor Agreement, the term “Intercreditor Agreement” means the Intercreditor Agreement as in effect prior to the effectiveness of the Intercreditor Agreement Amendment.

Restrictions on Claims Subject to Priority Treatment

The Intercreditor Agreement, as amended by the Intercreditor Agreement Amendment, will provide that the holders of the ABL Obligations will be entitled to a first-priority lien (subject to certain exceptions) on the ABL Collateral to secure (a) up to the ABL Cap Amount of the principal amount of revolving loans and letters of credit, less the amount of certain permanent commitment reductions under the ABL Facility as a result of the prepayment of such obligations with the net proceeds from any asset dispositions (for the avoidance of doubt, other than as a result of any replacement, refunding or refinancing of an ABL Obligation (as defined below)), plus (b) interest, indemnities, fees, expenses and other obligations incurred under the ABL Facility and the documents, agreements and instruments governing the ABL Facility (collectively, the “ABL Documents”), plus (c) cash management obligations and obligations in respect of hedging arrangements owed to a lender under the ABL Facility or any affiliate of a lender (collectively, the “ABL Obligations”). The “ABL Cap Amount” is currently $80,000,000, and will be increased by the Intercreditor Agreement Amendment to $102.5 million (plus an additional $10.25 million that may be utilized solely for any future “ABL DIP Financing” as such term is defined in the Intercreditor Agreement). The holders of Senior Notes will be entitled to a first-priority lien (subject to certain exceptions) on the Senior Notes Collateral to secure the principal, interest, indemnities, fees, expenses and other obligations incurred by the Issuer and its subsidiaries under the Senior Note Documents (collectively, the “Senior Notes Obligations”). The holders of the ABL Obligations will also be entitled to a second-priority lien (subject to certain exceptions) on the Senior Notes Collateral to secure the ABL Obligations. The holders of the Senior Notes Obligations will also be entitled to a second-priority lien (subject to certain exceptions) on the ABL Collateral to secure the Senior Notes Obligations.

Restrictions on Enforcement of Liens

The Intercreditor Agreement will provide that so long as the ABL Obligations or Senior Notes Obligations, as applicable, remain outstanding, whether or not any insolvency or liquidation proceeding has been commenced by or against the Issuer or any other Guarantor, the Noteholder Collateral Agent, the holders of the Senior Notes, the Bank Collateral Agent and holders of ABL Obligations will not, as applicable, exercise or seek to exercise any rights or remedies (including setoff) with respect to any Collateral in respect of which such Person does not have a first-priority lien.

The Intercreditor Agreement will provide that the Bank Collateral Agent (on behalf of the holders of the ABL Obligations) or Noteholder Collateral Agent (on behalf of the holders of the Senior Notes Obligations), as applicable, shall have the exclusive right, to enforce rights, exercise remedies (including setoff) and make determinations regarding the release and disposition with respect to the Collateral in which the Bank Collateral Agent or the Noteholder Collateral Agent, as applicable, has a first priority secured lien, without any consultation with or the consent of such other Person, subject to limitations and exceptions set forth in the Intercreditor Agreement. The Intercreditor Agreement will provide that, until the repayment in full and termination of the ABL Obligations has occurred, the Noteholder Collateral Agent and the holders of the Senior Notes Obligations shall not take or cause to be taken any action that would hinder, delay, limit or prohibit any exercise of remedies under the ABL Facility or other ABL Documents with respect to the ABL Collateral, including any foreclosure, sale, lease, exchange, transfer or other disposition of the ABL Collateral, whether by foreclosure or otherwise, or that would challenge or contest such lien or that would subordinate the priority of the liens securing the ABL Obligations in respect of the ABL Collateral to the liens securing the Senior Notes Obligations or make the liens on the ABL Collateral securing the Senior Notes Obligations equal ranking to the liens securing the ABL Obligations therein.

The Intercreditor Agreement will provide that, until the repayment in full and termination of the Senior Notes Obligations has occurred, the Bank Collateral Agent and the holders of the ABL Obligations shall not take or cause to be taken any action that would hinder, delay, limit or prohibit any exercise of remedies under the Senior Notes or Security Documents with respect to the Senior Notes Collateral, including any foreclosure, sale, lease, exchange, transfer or other disposition of the Senior Notes Collateral, whether by foreclosure or otherwise, or that would challenge or contest such lien or that would subordinate the priority of the liens securing the Senior Notes Obligations in respect of the Senior Notes Collateral to the liens securing the ABL Obligations or make the liens on the Senior Notes Collateral securing the ABL Obligations equal ranking to the liens securing the Senior Notes Obligations therein; provided, that the Intercreditor Agreement provides the Bank Collateral Agent the right of access to the Senior Notes Collateral to process and prepare the ABL Collateral for sale and to sell or remove the ABL Collateral for a period of 120 days from the earlier of (i) the Bank Collateral Agent giving written notice to the Noteholder Collateral Agent of its election to request access to any parcel or item of Senior Notes Collateral and (ii) the Bank Collateral Agent receiving written notice from the Noteholder Collateral Agent that the Noteholder Collateral Agent has acquired control or possession of relevant Senior Notes Collateral or has, through the exercise of remedies or otherwise, sold such Senior Notes Collateral to any third party purchaser.

Insolvency or Liquidation Proceedings

Until the repayment in full and termination of the ABL Obligations has occurred, if the Issuer or any Guarantor is subject to any insolvency or liquidation proceeding and the Bank Collateral Agent (acting at the direction of the requisite holders of ABL Obligations) desires to consent (or not object) to:

- (1) the use of cash collateral constituting ABL Collateral; or
- the provision of financing to the Issuer or any Guarantor, whether from the holders of ABL Obligations or any
- (2) other third party under applicable Bankruptcy Law secured by the ABL Collateral (each, a "Post-Petition ABL Financing");

then the Noteholder Collateral Agent will agree, on behalf of itself and the other holders of Senior Notes Obligations, that each holder of Senior Notes Obligations:

- will, subject to certain limitations and conditions set forth in the Intercreditor Agreement, be deemed to have consented to, and will raise no objection to, nor support any other Person objecting to, the use of such cash collateral or to such Post-Petition ABL Financing on the grounds of a failure to provide "adequate protection" for the
- a) Noteholder Collateral Agent's Lien on the Senior Notes Collateral to secure the Senior Notes Obligations or on any other grounds (and will not request any adequate protection solely as a result of such Post-Petition ABL Financing except as permitted in the Intercreditor Agreement); and
- to the extent the Liens on the ABL Collateral securing the ABL Obligations are subordinated to or on parity with the Liens securing such Post-Petition ABL Financing, and subject to the other limitations and exceptions set forth in the Intercreditor Agreement, will subordinate (and will be deemed under the Intercreditor Agreement to have subordinated) the Liens securing the Senior Notes Obligations on any such ABL Collateral to (i) the Liens securing
- b) such Post-Petition ABL Financing (and, if applicable, such subordination shall be on the same terms as the Liens securing the ABL Obligations are subordinated thereto), (ii) any adequate protection provided to the Bank Collateral Agent or the holders of ABL Obligations and (iii) any "carve-out" for professional and customary fees and expenses agreed to by the Bank Collateral Agent or the holders of ABL Obligations and approved by the relevant bankruptcy court.

Until the repayment in full and termination of the Senior Notes Obligations has occurred, if the Issuer or any Guarantor is subject to any insolvency or liquidation proceeding and the Noteholder Collateral Agent (acting at the direction of the requisite holders of Senior Notes Obligations) desires to consent (or not object) to:

- (1) the use of cash collateral constituting Senior Notes Collateral; or the provision of financing to the Issuer or any Guarantor, whether from the holders of Notes Obligations or any (2) other third party under applicable Bankruptcy Law secured by the Senior Notes Collateral (each, a “Post-Petition Senior Notes Financing”);

then the Bank Collateral Agent will agree, on behalf of itself and the other holders of ABL Obligations, that each holder of ABL Obligations:

- will, subject to certain limitations and conditions set forth in the Intercreditor Agreement, be deemed to have consented to, and will raise no objection to, nor support any other Person objecting to, the use of such cash collateral or to such Post-Petition Senior Notes Financing on the grounds of a failure to provide “adequate protection”
- a) for the Bank Collateral Agent’s Lien on the ABL Collateral to secure the ABL Obligations or on any other grounds (and will not request any adequate protection solely as a result of such Post-Petition Senior Notes Financing, except as permitted in the Intercreditor Agreement); and
- to the extent the Liens on the Senior Notes Collateral securing the Senior Notes Obligations are subordinated to or on parity with the Liens securing such Post-Petition Senior Notes Financing, and subject to the other limitations and exceptions set forth in the Intercreditor Agreement, will subordinate (and will be deemed under the Intercreditor Agreement to have subordinated) the Liens securing the ABL Obligations on any such Senior Notes Collateral to (i)
- b) the Liens securing such Post-Petition Senior Notes Financing (and, if applicable, such subordination shall be on the same terms as the Liens securing the Senior Notes Obligations are subordinated thereto), (ii) any adequate protection provided to the Senior Notes Collateral Agent or the holders of Senior Notes Obligations and (iii) any “carve-out” for professional and customary fees and expenses agreed to by the Senior Notes Collateral Agent or the holders of Senior Notes Obligations and approved by the relevant bankruptcy court.

Each of the Bank Collateral Agent, the holders of the ABL Obligations, the Noteholder Collateral Agent and the holders of Senior Notes Obligations will agree that they will not oppose any sale or disposition of any Collateral that is supported by the holder of the first-priority lien in such Collateral and the Person holding a second-priority lien in the Collateral will be deemed to have consented under Section 363 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (and otherwise) to any sale supported by the Person holding the first-priority lien in such Collateral and to have released their liens in such assets upon consummation of such sale, but shall retain a lien in the proceeds of such sale; provided, that the Bank Collateral Agent must receive at least 60 days prior notice of the consummation of any sale of real property.

Until the repayment in full of the ABL Obligations, the Noteholder Collateral Agent will agree, on behalf of itself and the other holders of Senior Notes Obligations, that none of them shall seek (or support any other Person in seeking) relief from the automatic stay of Section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Law or from any other stay in any insolvency or liquidation proceeding or take any action in derogation thereof, in each case in respect of the ABL Collateral, without the prior written consent of the Bank Collateral Agent. Until the repayment in full of the Senior Notes Obligations, the Bank Collateral Agent and holders of ABL Obligations will agree that none of them shall seek relief from the automatic stay of Section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Law or from any other stay in any insolvency or liquidation proceeding or take any action in derogation thereof in respect of the Senior Notes Collateral, without the prior written consent of the Noteholder Collateral Agent. In addition, neither the Noteholder Collateral Agent nor the Bank Collateral Agent shall seek any relief from the automatic stay with respect to any Collateral that constitutes both ABL Collateral and Notes Collateral without providing 30 days’ prior written notice to the other, unless otherwise agreed by both the Bank Collateral Agent and the Noteholder Collateral Agent.

Subject to the other limitations and exceptions set forth in the Intercreditor Agreement, the Noteholder Collateral Agent (on behalf of itself and the other holders of Senior Notes Obligations) and the Bank Collateral Agent (on behalf of itself and the other holders of the ABL Obligations) will agree that none of them shall contest (or support any other Person contesting) (i) any request by such Person for adequate protection of its interest in the Collateral in which such Person has a first priority secured lien or (ii) any objection by such Person to any motion, relief, action, or proceeding based on a claim by such Person that its interests in the Collateral in which such Person has a first priority secured lien are not adequately protected (or any other similar request under any law applicable to a insolvency or liquidation proceeding).

Order of Application

The Intercreditor Agreement will provide that, (i) any proceeds of any ABL Collateral pursuant to the enforcement of the ABL Facility or any ABL Document or the exercise of any remedial provision thereunder, shall be applied: first, to the payment of costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses and court costs) of the Bank

Collateral Agent and the holders of the ABL Obligations in connection with such enforcement; second, to the payment of the ABL Obligations in such order as specified in the ABL Facility (excluding any amounts in excess of the ABL Cap Amount); third, to the payment of the Senior Notes Obligations; and fourth, to the payment of any amounts in excess of the ABL Cap Amount, and (ii) any proceeds of any Senior Notes Collateral pursuant to the enforcement of the Senior Notes or any Security Document or the exercise of any remedial provision thereunder, shall be applied: first, to the payment of costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses and court costs) of the Noteholder Collateral Agent and the holders of the Senior Notes Obligations in connection with such enforcement; second, to the payment of the Senior Notes Obligations in such order as specified in the Senior Notes; and third, to the payment of the ABL

Obligations (including any amounts in excess of the cap on ABL Obligations). To the extent any excess proceeds remain after the above application, the Bank Collateral Agent or Noteholder Collateral Agent, as applicable, shall deliver such excess proceeds to whosoever may be lawfully entitled to receive the same or as a court of competent jurisdiction may direct.

Release of Liens on Collateral

The Intercreditor Agreement will provide that the (i) second-priority lien held by the Noteholder Collateral Agent, on behalf of the holders of the Senior Notes Obligations, on the ABL Collateral (other than the proceeds of such ABL Collateral) shall be automatically and unconditionally released with no further consent or action of any Person upon any release, sale or disposition of the ABL Collateral that results in a release of the lien granted to the Bank Collateral Agent, on behalf of the holders of the ABL Obligations under the ABL Documents and (ii) second-priority lien held by the Bank Collateral Agent, on behalf of the holders of the ABL Obligations, on the Senior Notes Collateral (other than the proceeds of such Senior Notes Collateral) shall be automatically and unconditionally released with no further consent or action of any Person upon any release, sale or disposition of the Senior Notes Collateral that results in a release of the lien granted to the Noteholder Collateral Agent, on behalf of the holders of the Senior Notes Obligations under the Indenture and Security Documents. In order to effect such foregoing releases, the parties shall promptly execute and deliver any release documents and instruments as the other shall request.

Amendment of Security Documents

The Intercreditor Agreement will provide that in the event the Bank Collateral Agent or the other holders of ABL Obligations and the relevant guarantors enter into any amendment, waiver or consent in respect of any guarantee or any security or collateral document with respect to the ABL Documents for the purpose of adding to, or deleting from, or waiving or consenting to any departures from any provisions of, any guarantee or any security or collateral document with respect to the ABL Documents or changing in any manner the rights of the Bank Collateral Agent, the other holders of ABL Obligations, the Issuer or any other guarantor thereunder, then to the extent such amendment, waiver or consent is with respect to the ABL Collateral, it shall apply automatically to any comparable provision of the Indenture and the comparable Security Document without the consent of the Noteholder Collateral Agent or the holders of the Senior Notes Obligations and without any action by the Noteholder Collateral Agent, the Issuer or any other guarantor, provided, that, (i) no such amendment, waiver or consent shall have the effect of removing assets except to the extent that a release of such lien is permitted by the Intercreditor Agreement; and (ii) notice of such amendment, waiver or consent shall have been given to the Noteholder Collateral Agent no later than 30 days after its effectiveness, provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the effectiveness and validity thereof.

The Intercreditor Agreement will provide that in the event the Noteholder Collateral Agent or the other holders of Senior Notes Obligations and the relevant guarantors enter into any amendment, waiver or consent in respect of any guarantee or any security or collateral document with respect to the Indenture and/or the Security Documents for the purpose of adding to, or deleting from, or waiving or consenting to any departures from any provisions of, any guarantee or any security or collateral document with respect to the Indenture and/or the Security Documents or changing in any manner the rights of the Noteholder Collateral Agent, the other holders of Senior Notes Obligations, the Issuer or any other guarantor thereunder, then to the extent such amendment, waiver or consent is with respect to the Senior Notes Collateral, it shall apply automatically to any comparable provision of the ABL Documents without the consent of the Bank Collateral Agent or the holders of the ABL Obligations and without any action by the Bank Collateral Agent, the Issuer or any other guarantor, provided, that, (i) no such amendment, waiver or consent shall have the effect of removing assets except to the extent that a release of such lien is permitted by the Intercreditor Agreement; and (ii) notice of such amendment, waiver or consent shall have been given to the Bank Collateral Agent no later than 30 days after its effectiveness, provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the effectiveness and validity thereof.

Purchase Option

If an event of default has occurred and is continuing and remains uncured or unwaived for at least 30 consecutive days with respect to the ABL Obligations or the Senior Notes Obligations, as the case may be, then all or a portion of the holders of the ABL Obligations or of the holders of the Senior Notes Obligations, as the case may be, shall have the option at any time upon 5 business days' prior written notice given (i) to the Noteholder Collateral Agent (in the case of the holders of the ABL Obligations) to purchase all of the Senior Notes Obligations or (ii) to the Bank Collateral Agent (in the case of the holders of the Senior Notes Obligations) to purchase all of the ABL Obligations, such purchase to be consummated in either case within 20 calendar days after notice of election of such option. The purchase price shall be equal to the full amount of all ABL Obligations or Senior Notes Obligations, as applicable, then outstanding and unpaid (including principal, interest, fees and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses but specifically excluding any prepayment premium, make-whole, termination or similar fees) and, with respect to the purchase of the ABL Obligations, shall include the furnishing of cash collateral to the Bank Collateral Agent, in a manner and in such amounts as the Bank Collateral Agent determines is reasonably necessary to provide security for any issued and outstanding letters of credit, hedging obligations and cash management obligations comprising part of the ABL Obligations.

First Amendment to Intercreditor Agreement

In connection with this offering, the Intercreditor Agreement will be amended by the Intercreditor Agreement Amendment to replace all references to the Convertible Notes with references to the Senior Notes. The Intercreditor Agreement Amendment will also increase the “ABL Cap Amount” under the Intercreditor Agreement from $80,000,000 to $102.5 million (plus an additional $10.25 million that may be used solely in a limited circumstance). ABL Obligations in excess of the ABL Cap Amount would have a lower payment priority than other ABL Obligations and Senior Notes Obligations in the event of an application of proceeds of ABL Collateral in connection with the collection, sale or disposition of ABL Collateral. See “—Restrictions on Claims Subject to Priority Treatment” and “—Order of Application.”

Release of Collateral

Collateral may be released from the Lien and security interest created by the Security Documents at any time or from time to time in accordance with the provisions of the Security Documents, the Intercreditor Agreement or the Indenture. The Issuer and the Guarantors will be entitled to a release of property and other assets included in the Collateral from the Liens securing the Senior Notes under one or more of the following circumstances:

- (i) to enable the Issuer or any Guarantor to sell, exchange or otherwise dispose of any of the Collateral to the extent not prohibited under “—Certain Covenants—Limitations on Asset Sales;”
- (ii) in the case of a Guarantor that is released from its Guarantee with respect to the Senior Notes, the release of the property and assets of such Guarantor;
- (iii) pursuant to an amendment or waiver in accordance with “—Amendment, Supplement and Waiver;”
- (iv) pursuant to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement; or
- (v) if the Senior Notes have been discharged or defeased pursuant to “—Discharge of Indenture” or “—Legal Defeasance and Covenant Defeasance;” provided, that in the case of any release in whole pursuant to clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) above, all amounts owing at such time to the Trustee under the Indenture, the Senior Notes, the Senior Notes Guarantees, the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreement have been paid.

To the extent applicable, the Issuer will cause TIA § 313(b), relating to reports, and TIA § 314(d), relating to the release of property or securities subject to the Lien of the Security Documents, to be complied with. Any release of Collateral permitted by the terms described above will be deemed not to impair the Liens under the Indenture, the Collateral Agreement and the other Security Documents in contravention thereof. Any certificate or opinion required by TIA § 314(d) may be made by an officer or legal counsel, as applicable, of the Issuer except in cases where TIA § 314(d) requires that such certificate or opinion be made by an independent Person, which Person will be an independent engineer, appraiser or other expert selected by or reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this paragraph, the Issuer will not be required to comply with all or any portion of TIA § 314(d) if it reasonably determines that under the terms of TIA § 314(d) or any interpretation or guidance as to the meaning thereof of the SEC and its staff, including “no action” letters or exemptive orders, all or any portion of TIA § 314(d) is inapplicable to any release or series of releases of Collateral. In addition, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Subsidiaries of the Issuer may, among other things, without any release or consent by the Trustee (and without the delivery of any Officers’ Certificate or any other documents under the Indenture, except as specified in this paragraph, but otherwise in compliance with the covenants of the Indenture and the Security Documents), conduct ordinary course activities with respect to the Collateral including, without limitation (i) selling or otherwise disposing of, in any transaction or series of related transactions, any property subject to the Liens and security interests created by the Indenture or any of the Security Documents which has become worn out, defective or obsolete or not used or useful in the business; (ii) abandoning, terminating, canceling, releasing or making alterations in or substitutions of any leases or contracts subject to the Liens and security interests created by the Security Documents; (iii) surrendering or modifying any franchise, license or permit subject to the Liens and security interests created by the Security Documents which it may own or under which it may be operating; (iv) altering, repairing, replacing or changing the location or position of and adding to its structures, machinery, systems, equipment, fixtures and appurtenances; (v) granting a license of any intellectual property; (vi) selling, transferring or otherwise disposing of inventory in the ordinary course of business; (vii) collecting accounts receivable in the ordinary course of business or selling, liquidating, factoring or otherwise disposing of accounts receivable in the ordinary course of business; (viii) making cash payments (including for the repayment of Indebtedness or interest and in connection with the Issuer's cash management activities) from cash that is at any time part of the Collateral in the ordinary course of business that are not otherwise prohibited by the Indenture or the Security Documents; and (ix) abandoning any intellectual property which is no longer used or useful in the Issuer's business. The Issuer must deliver to the Trustee within 30 calendar days following the end of each fiscal year (or such later date as the Trustee shall agree), an Officers' Certificate to the effect that all releases and withdrawals during the preceding fiscal year (or since the date of the Indenture, in the case of the first such certificate) in which no release or consent of the Trustee was obtained in the ordinary course of the Issuer's and its Subsidiaries' business were not prohibited by the Indenture. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing to the contrary, the Trustee will execute and deliver to the Issuer all documents reasonably requested to evidence any such releases of Collateral. In addition, in lieu of releasing the Liens created by any of the Mortgages, the Trustee or Collateral Agent will, at the request of the Issuer, to the extent necessary to facilitate future savings of mortgage recording tax in states that impose such taxes, assign such Liens to any such new lender or collateral agent.

Sufficiency of Collateral
 In the event of foreclosure on the Collateral, the proceeds from the sale of the Collateral may not be sufficient to satisfy in full the obligations under the Senior Notes and the ABL Obligations. The amount to be received upon such a sale would be dependent on numerous factors, including but not limited to the timing and the manner of the sale. In addition, the book value of the Collateral should not be relied on as a measure of realizable value for such assets. By its nature, portions of the Collateral may be illiquid and may have no readily ascertainable market value. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the Collateral can be sold in a short period of time in an orderly manner. The Collateral includes assets that may only be usable, and thus retain value, as part of the existing operating business of the Issuer and Subsidiaries. Accordingly, any such sale of the Collateral separate from the sale of certain of the operating businesses of Issuer and Subsidiaries may not be feasible or of significant value.

Certain Bankruptcy Limitations

The right of the Noteholder Collateral Agent to take possession and dispose of the Collateral following an Event of Default is likely to be significantly impaired by applicable bankruptcy law if a bankruptcy proceeding were to be commenced by or against the Issuer or the Guarantors prior to the Noteholder Collateral Agent having taken possession and disposed of the Collateral. Under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, a secured creditor is prohibited from taking its security from a debtor in a bankruptcy case, or from disposing of security taken from such debtor, without bankruptcy court approval. Moreover, the U.S. Bankruptcy Code permits the debtor in certain circumstances to continue to retain and to use collateral owned as of the date of the bankruptcy filing (and the proceeds, products, offspring, rents or profits of such Collateral) even though the debtor is in default under the applicable debt instruments; provided that the secured creditor is given "adequate protection." The meaning of the term "adequate protection" may vary according to circumstances. In view of the lack of a precise definition of the term "adequate protection" and the broad discretionary powers of a bankruptcy court, it is impossible to predict how long payments under the Senior Notes could be delayed following commencement of a bankruptcy case, whether or when the Noteholder Collateral Agent could repossess or dispose of the Collateral, the value of the Collateral at the time of the commencement of such case, or whether or to what extent holders would be compensated for any delay in payment or loss of value of the Collateral through the requirement of "adequate protection."

Furthermore, in the event a bankruptcy court determines the value of the Collateral (after giving effect to any prior Liens) is not sufficient to repay all amounts due on the Senior Notes and any other pari passu obligations, the holders of the Senior Notes and such pari passu obligations would hold secured claims to the extent of the value of the Liens on the Senior Notes Collateral (but subject to any prior Liens), and would hold unsecured claims with respect to any shortfall.

Applicable federal bankruptcy laws permit the payment and/or accrual of post-petition interest, costs and attorneys' fees during a debtor's bankruptcy case only to the extent the claims are oversecured or the debtor is solvent at the time of reorganization. In addition, if the Issuer or the Guarantors were to become the subject of a bankruptcy case, the bankruptcy court, among other things, may avoid certain prepetition transfers made by the entity that is the subject of the bankruptcy filing, including, without limitation, transfers held to be preferences or fraudulent conveyances.

Redemption

Optional Redemption

The Issuer may, at its option, redeem outstanding Senior Notes, in whole or in part, at any time or from time to time, subject to the procedures described below, at the price applicable to such Redemption Date (the "Redemption Price"), expressed as percentages of the principal amount being redeemed as set forth below, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the applicable Redemption Date, in respect of the Senior Notes to be redeemed:

Period	Percentage
Through and including December 31, 2013	100%

January 1, 2014 – December 31, 2014	102%
January 1, 2015 – Maturity Date	103%

If the Issuer exercises its right to redeem the Senior Notes, the Issuer will send or cause to be sent a notice of such redemption at least fifteen (15) and not more than forty-five (45) days prior to the Redemption Date to the Holders of the Senior Notes to be redeemed.

In addition to any information required by law, each notice of redemption will specify the following:

- (i) the principal amount of Senior Notes to be redeemed;
- (ii) the date fixed for redemption;
- (iii) the Redemption Price at which such Senior Notes are to be redeemed;
- (iv) the place or places of payment, and that payment will be made upon presentation and surrender of the physical certificate or certificates representing such Senior Notes;
- (v) that the Redemption Price will be paid as specified in the notice; and
- (vi) that interest on such Senior Notes ceased to accrue as of the Redemption Date in accordance with the Indenture.

A notice of redemption may, at the election of the Issuer, be subject to one or more conditions precedent, including completion of a financing.

On or prior to the date fixed for redemption specified in the notice of redemption, the Issuer will deposit with a bank or trust company having an office or agency in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York an amount in cash sufficient to redeem on the date fixed for redemption all the Senior Notes so called for redemption at the appropriate Redemption Price.

If fewer than all of the outstanding Senior Notes are to be redeemed, Senior Notes to be redeemed will be selected by the Issuer from outstanding Senior Notes not previously called for redemption by lot or pro rata (as near as may be) or by any other equitable method determined by the Issuer in its sole discretion. If fewer than all Senior Notes represented by any certificate are redeemed, a new certificate shall be issued representing the unredeemed Senior Notes without cost to the Holder thereof.

If notice of redemption has been given as described above, on and after the date fixed for redemption (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Redemption Price), such Senior Notes shall be deemed no longer outstanding and the Holders thereof shall have no right in respect of such Senior Notes except the right to receive the Redemption Price thereof.

Mandatory Redemption

No sinking fund, mandatory redemption or other similar provision applies to the Senior Notes.

Purchase at the Option of Holders Upon a Change of Control

If a "Change of Control" occurs, each Holder has the right, at such Holder's option, to require the Issuer to purchase all of such Holder's Senior Notes, or any portion thereof in principal amount that is equal to $1.00 or an integral multiple thereof, on a date specified by the Issuer that is not less than 25 Business Days nor more than 30 Business Days after the Change of Control, subject to extension to comply with applicable law (the "Change of Control Purchase Date"), at a purchase price in cash equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof, together with accrued and unpaid interest thereon to, but excluding, the Change of Control Purchase Date (the "Change of Control Purchase Price"), subject to the satisfaction by the Holder of the requirements set forth below. If the Change of Control Purchase Date occurs after a Record Date and on or prior to the Interest Payment Date to which it relates, the Issuer will pay accrued and unpaid interest to the Holder of record as of the corresponding Record Date and the Change of Control Purchase Price payable to the Holder of such Note will be 100% of the principal amount of such Note.

A “Change of Control” will be deemed to occur at such time as:

The Issuer consolidates with or merges with or into another Person (other than any Subsidiary of the Issuer) and its outstanding Voting Stock is reclassified into, converted for or converted into the right to receive any other property or security, or the Issuer sells, conveys, transfers or leases all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person (other than its Subsidiary); provided, that the foregoing shall not constitute a Change of Control if (x)

(i) Persons that beneficially own the Issuer’s Voting Stock immediately prior to the transaction own, directly or indirectly, a majority of the Voting Stock of the surviving or transferee Person immediately after the transaction in substantially the same proportion as their ownership of the Issuer’s Voting Stock immediately prior to the transaction or (y) such transaction is a consolidation, merger or sale, lease, conveyance or other disposition the purpose of which is to effect the Issuer’s redomiciling;

Any “person” or “group”, other than the Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries or any employee benefit plan of the Issuer or such Subsidiary, is or becomes the “beneficial owner,” directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of the total voting power in the aggregate of all classes of the Issuer’s capital stock then outstanding and entitled to vote generally in elections of directors; or

(ii) During any period of 12 consecutive months after the Issue Date, Persons who at the beginning of such 12 month period constituted the Issuer’s Board of Directors, together with any new Persons whose election was approved by (iii) a vote of a majority of the Persons then still comprising its Board of Directors who were either members of the Board of Directors at the beginning of such period or whose election, designation or nomination for election was previously so approved, cease for any reason to constitute a majority of the Issuer’s Board of Directors.

For purposes of this definition, (i) “beneficial owner” is used as defined in Rules 13d-3 and 13d-5 under the Exchange Act, (ii) “group” has the meaning it has in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Exchange Act and (iii) “person” is used with the same meaning as that used within Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act, in each case whether or not applicable.

Within five (5) calendar days after the occurrence of a Change of Control, the Issuer shall deliver or cause to be delivered to all Holders of record of the Senior Notes as of such date at their addresses shown in the register for the Senior Notes a notice (the “Change of Control Issuer Notice”) with respect to such Change of Control. Simultaneously with providing such Change of Control Issuer Notice, the Issuer must publicly announce the relevant information through a reputable national newswire in the United States, file such press release with the SEC on Form 8-K and make such information available on the Issuer’s website.

The Change of Control Issuer Notice will:

- (i) state the Change of Control Purchase Price including the amount of interest accrued and unpaid per $1,000 principal amount of Senior Notes to, but excluding, the Change of Control Purchase Date and the Change of Control Purchase Date to which the Change of Control Issuer Notice relates;
- (ii) state the event constituting the Change of Control and the effective date of the Change of Control; state that Holders must exercise their right to elect purchase prior to Close of Business on the Business Day immediately preceding the Change of Control Purchase Date by sending a Change of Control Purchase Notice to the Paying Agent;
- (iii) immediately preceding the Change of Control Purchase Date by sending a Change of Control Purchase Notice to the Paying Agent;
- (iv) state the name and address of the Paying Agent;
- (v) state that Senior Notes must be surrendered to the Paying Agent to collect the Change of Control Purchase Price; state that a Holder may withdraw its Change of Control Purchase Notice in whole or in part at any time prior to
- (vi) Close of Business on the Business Day immediately preceding the Change of Control Purchase Date by delivering a valid written notice of withdrawal as described below; and
- (vii) state the CUSIP number of the Senior Notes.

For Senior Notes to be purchased at the option of the Holder, the Holder must deliver to the Paying Agent, at any time after the occurrence of the Change of Control and prior to Close of Business on the Business Day immediately preceding the Change of Control Purchase Date, a duly completed notice (the “Change of Control Purchase Notice”) in the form attached to the Indenture, which must specify:

- if the Senior Notes are Physical Senior Notes, the certificate numbers of the Holder's Senior Notes to be delivered
- (1) for purchase or if such Senior Notes are not Physical Senior Notes, the Holder's notice must comply with the appropriate procedures of the Depository and its direct and indirect participants;
 - (2) the portion of the principal amount of the Holder's Senior Notes to be purchased, which must be $1.00 or an integral multiple thereof;
 - (3) that the Holder's Senior Notes are to be purchased by the Issuer pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Senior Notes and the Indenture; and
- the method of delivery or book-entry transfer of the Senior Notes to the Trustee (or other Paying Agent appointed by the Issuer) at any time after delivery of the Change of Control Purchase Notice (together with all necessary endorsements) at the applicable Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee (or other Paying Agent appointed by the Issuer), such delivery being a condition to receipt by the Holder of the Change of Control Purchase Price therefor;
- (4) provided, that such Change of Control Purchase Price will be paid only if the Senior Notes so delivered to the Trustee (or other Paying Agent appointed by the Issuer) conform in all respects to the description thereof in the related Change of Control Purchase Notice and no written notice of withdrawal is received by the Paying Agent at any time prior to the Close of Business on the Business Day immediately preceding the Change of Control Purchase Date.

A Change of Control Purchase Notice may be withdrawn (in whole or in part) by means of a written notice of withdrawal delivered to the Paying Agent at any time prior to Close of Business time on the Business Day immediately preceding the Change of Control Purchase Date, specifying:

- if the Senior Notes are Physical Senior Notes, the certificate numbers of the withdrawn Senior Notes, or if such
- (i) Senior Notes are not Physical Senior Notes, the notice must comply with appropriate procedures of the Depository and its direct and indirect participants;
 - (ii) the principal amount of the Senior Notes with respect to which notice of withdrawal is being submitted, which must be $1.00 or integral multiples thereof; and
 - (iii) the principal amount, if any, of such Senior Notes which remains subject to the original Change of Control Purchase Notice and which has been or will be delivered for purchase by the Issuer, which must be $1.00 or integral multiples thereof.

The Issuer will, to the extent required, (i) comply with the provisions of Rule 14e-1 (or any successor provision) and any other tender offer rules under the Exchange Act that may be applicable at the time of the purchase of the Senior Notes and (ii) otherwise comply with all federal and state securities laws so as to permit the rights and obligations under “—Purchase at the Option of Holders Upon a Change of Control” to be exercised in the time and in the manner specified above.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Issuer will not be required to make an offer to purchase the Senior Notes after the Maturity Date.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Senior Notes may be purchased by the Issuer at the option of the Holders if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing other than an Event of Default that is cured by the payment of the Change of Control Purchase Price on the Change of Control Purchase Date.

Any purchase by the Issuer will be consummated by the delivery to the Trustee of the consideration to be received by the Holder promptly following the later of the Change of Control Purchase Date or the time of the book-entry transfer or delivery of the Senior Notes.

The definition of Change of Control includes a phrase relating to the conveyance, transfer, sale or lease of “all or substantially all” of our assets. There is no precise, established definition of the phrase “substantially all” under applicable law. Accordingly, the ability of a Holder to require us to purchase its Senior Notes as a result of the conveyance, transfer, sale or lease of less than all of our assets may be uncertain. In addition, the Chancery Court of Delaware has raised the possibility that a change of control as a result of a failure to have “continuing directors” comprising a majority of the board of directors may be unenforceable on public policy grounds.

If a Change of Control were to occur, we may not have enough funds to pay the Change of Control Purchase Price. Our ability to repurchase the Senior Notes for cash may be limited by restrictions on our ability to obtain funds for such repurchase through dividends from our subsidiaries, the terms of our then-existing borrowing arrangements or otherwise. See “Risk Factors—Risks Related to the New Senior Notes—We may not be able to repurchase New Senior Notes or pay in cash amounts contemplated under the Indenture upon the occurrence of certain events.” If we fail to purchase the Senior Notes when required following a Change of Control, we will be in default under the Indenture. In addition, we have, and may in the future incur, other indebtedness with similar change in control provisions permitting our holders to accelerate or to require us to purchase our indebtedness upon the occurrence of similar events or on some specific dates.

Certain Covenants

Limitations on Additional Indebtedness

The Issuer will not, and will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, incur any Indebtedness. Notwithstanding the above, the Issuer and the Restricted Subsidiary shall be permitted to incur “Permitted Indebtedness.” Each of the following shall be permitted (the “Permitted Indebtedness”):

- Indebtedness of the Issuer or any Guarantor under the ABL Facility in an aggregate principal amount at any time outstanding not to exceed $102,500,000 (with letters of credit being deemed to have a principal amount equal to the (i) maximum potential liability of the Issuer or such Guarantor) less, to the extent a permanent repayment and/or commitment reduction is required thereunder as a result of such application, the aggregate amount of Net Available Proceeds applied to repayments under the Credit Agreement in accordance with “—Limitations on Asset Sales;”
- (ii) (a) Senior Notes and Note Guarantees in respect thereof and (b) if unsecured, Convertible Notes (other than Convertible Notes exchanged for Senior Notes) and guarantees thereof;
- (iii) Indebtedness of the Issuer and the Restricted Subsidiaries to the extent outstanding on the Original Issue Date (other than Indebtedness referred to in clauses (i) and (ii) above);
- (iv) Indebtedness under Hedging Obligations (including Swap Obligations) of the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary in the ordinary course and not for the purpose of speculation;
- (v) Indebtedness of the Issuer owed to a Restricted Subsidiary and Indebtedness of any Restricted Subsidiary owed to the Issuer or any other Restricted Subsidiary; provided, however, (a) that upon any such Restricted Subsidiary ceasing to be a Restricted Subsidiary or such Indebtedness being owed to any Person other than the Issuer or a Restricted Subsidiary, the Issuer or such Restricted Subsidiary, as applicable, shall be deemed to have incurred Indebtedness not permitted by this clause (v); (b) any such Indebtedness made by a Note Party shall be evidenced by a promissory note pledged to the Noteholder Collateral Agent for the ratable benefit of the Noteholder Secured Parties pursuant to the Collateral Agreement; and (c) any such Indebtedness made by Note Parties to Subsidiaries that are not Guarantors is either a Permitted Investment or permitted by “—Limitations on Restricted Payments;”
- (vi) Indebtedness in respect of bid, performance, surety bonds, statutory, appeal, export or import, indemnities, customs or revenue bonds or similar instruments in the ordinary course of business and workers’ compensation claims, self-insurance obligations and bankers acceptances issued for the account of the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary in the ordinary course of business, including guarantees or obligations of the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary with respect to letters of credit supporting such bid, performance, surety bonds and workers’ compensation claims, self-insurance obligations and bankers acceptances;
- (vii) Purchase Money Indebtedness incurred by the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary, and Refinancing Indebtedness thereof, in an aggregate amount not to exceed at any time outstanding the greater of $20.0 million and 12.5% of Consolidated Net Tangible Assets at the time of the incurrence;
- (viii) Indebtedness arising from (a) the honoring by a bank or other financial institution of a check, draft or similar instrument inadvertently (except in the case of daylight overdrafts) drawn against insufficient funds in the ordinary course of business; provided, however, that such Indebtedness is extinguished within five (5) Business Days of incurrence and (b) without duplication of clause (a), Banking Services Obligations;
- (ix) Indebtedness arising in connection with endorsement of instruments for deposit in the ordinary course of business;
- (x) Refinancing Indebtedness with respect to Indebtedness incurred pursuant to clause (ii), (iii), (xi) or (xii) of this covenant or this clause (x);

- (A) Acquired Indebtedness of the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary, and (B) Indebtedness incurred by the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary in contemplation of, or in connection with, or to provide all or any part of the funds or credit support utilized to consummate, the transaction or series of related transactions pursuant to which such
- (xi) Person became a Subsidiary of or was otherwise acquired by the Issuer or a Restricted Subsidiary or was merged with or into or consolidated with the Issuer or a Restricted Subsidiary of the Issuer; provided that such Indebtedness shall not exceed the greater of $15.0 million or 10% of the Consolidated Net Tangible Assets at the time of incurrence;
- Acquired Indebtedness of the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary assumed or acquired in connection with a transaction governed by, and effected in accordance with, the first paragraph of “—Limitations on Mergers, Consolidations, Etc.” (except to the extent such Acquired Indebtedness was incurred in connection with or in contemplation of such acquisition);
- (xii) Indemnification, adjustment of purchase price, earn-out or similar obligations, in each case, incurred or assumed in connection with the acquisition or disposition of any business or assets of the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary or Equity Interests of a Restricted Subsidiary, other than guarantees of Indebtedness incurred by any Person acquiring all or any portion of such business, assets or Capital Stock for the purpose of financing any such acquisition; provided, that the maximum aggregate liability in respect of all such obligations outstanding
- (xiii) under this clause (xiii) shall at no time exceed (a) in the case of an acquisition, $5.0 million (provided that the amount of such liability shall be deemed to be the amount thereof, if any, reflected on the balance sheet of the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary (e.g., the amount of such liability shall be deemed to be zero if no amount is reflected on such balance sheet)) and (b) in the case of a disposition, the gross proceeds actually received by the Issuer and the Restricted Subsidiaries in connection with such disposition;
- (xiv) Any other Indebtedness of the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary if, after giving effect thereto, the Total Leverage Ratio does not exceed 5.00:1.00;
- Indebtedness of the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary incurred in the ordinary course of business under guarantees of Indebtedness of suppliers, licensees, franchisees or customers in an aggregate amount, together with
- (xv) the aggregate amount of Investments under clause (12) of the definition of “Permitted Investments,” not to exceed $5.0 million at any time outstanding;
- (xvi) The issuance by any of the Issuer’s Restricted Subsidiaries to the Issuer or to any of its Restricted Subsidiaries of shares of preferred stock; provided, however, that:
- (1) any subsequent issuance or transfer of Equity Interests that results in any such preferred stock being held by a Person other than the Issuer or a Restricted Subsidiary of the Issuer; and
- (2) any sale or other transfer of any such preferred stock to a Person that is not either the Issuer or a Restricted Subsidiary of the Issuer,
- will be deemed, in each case, to constitute an issuance of such preferred stock by such Restricted Subsidiary that was not permitted by this clause (xvi);
- The guarantee by the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary of the Issuer of Indebtedness of the Issuer or a
- (xvii) Restricted Subsidiary of the Issuer, in each case, to the extent that the guaranteed Indebtedness was permitted to be incurred by another provision of this covenant;
- (xviii) Contribution Indebtedness;
- The incurrence by the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary of Indebtedness consisting of obligations to pay
- (xix) insurance premiums in an amount not to exceed the annual premiums in respect of such insurance premiums at any one time outstanding;
- (xx) Indebtedness related to unfunded pension fund and other employee benefit plan obligations and liabilities to the extent they are permitted to remain unfunded under applicable law;
- Indebtedness supported by one or more letters of credit issued under the ABL Facility in accordance with clause
- (xxi) (i); provided that the amount of Indebtedness permitted to be incurred under this clause (xxi) supported by any such letter(s) of credit shall not exceed the amount of such letter(s) of credit;

(xxii) Indebtedness issued by the Issuer or any Guarantor to current or former officers, directors and employees, their respective estates, spouses or former spouses to finance the purchase or redemption of Equity Interests of the Issuer or any of its direct or indirect parent companies permitted by clause (iv) of the second paragraph of “—Limitations on Restricted Payments” not in excess of $2.0 million at any time outstanding; and (xxiii) The incurrence by the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary of additional Indebtedness or the issuance by the Issuer of Disqualified Stock or the issuance by any Restricted Subsidiary of preferred stock in an aggregate principal amount (or accreted value, as applicable) or liquidation value at any time outstanding, including all Indebtedness incurred to renew, refund, refinance, replace, defease or discharge any Indebtedness or liquidation value incurred pursuant to this clause (xxiii), not to exceed $5.0 million.

For purposes of determining compliance with this covenant, in the event that an item of Indebtedness meets the criteria of more than one of the categories of Permitted Indebtedness described in clauses (i) through (xxiii) above, the Issuer shall classify and may reclassify, in its sole discretion, such item of Indebtedness and may divide, classify and reclassify such Indebtedness in more than one of the types of Indebtedness described, except that Indebtedness incurred under the Credit Agreement on the Original Issue Date by the Issuer or any Guarantor shall be deemed to have been incurred under clause (i) above. In addition, for purposes of determining any particular amount of Indebtedness under this covenant, guarantees, Liens or letter of credit obligations supporting Indebtedness otherwise included in the determination of such particular amount shall not be included so long as incurred by a Person that could have incurred such Indebtedness.

The Issuer will not, and will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly use the proceeds of Indebtedness incurred under Permitted Indebtedness clause (i) to make any Permitted Investments of the types described in clauses (1)(i)(b), (7), (16), (19), (21) or (22) of that definition or to purchase real property or other fixed assets, in each case in an Investment amount or purchase price in excess of $2,000,000 in any transaction or series of related transactions, unless (1) such Investment is made in a Person engaged in a Permitted Business, or such fixed assets are useful in, and are intended to be used in, a Permitted Business, (2) substantially all of the business operations of such Person, or substantially all of such assets, as applicable, are or will be located in California, Texas, Oklahoma, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia or the District of Columbia, and (3) a strategic rationale exists for such Investment or acquisition based on expected synergies or other benefits to the Issuer. For purposes of this paragraph, the repayment of a note or other obligation in respect of the deferred purchase price of an Investment or asset from the proceeds of Indebtedness shall be deemed to constitute an indirect use of such proceeds of Indebtedness to make such Investment or purchase such assets. All determinations under this paragraph shall be made by the Issuer acting in good faith.

Limitations on Restricted Payments

The Issuer will not, and will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, make any Restricted Payment if at the time of such Restricted Payment:

- (i) A Default shall have occurred and be continuing or shall occur as a consequence thereof; or
- (ii) The amount of such Restricted Payment, when added to the aggregate amount of all other Restricted Payments made after the Original Issue Date (other than Restricted Payments made pursuant to clause (ii), (iii), (iv), (v), (vi), (viii), (ix), (x) or (xi)(B) of the next paragraph), exceeds the sum (the “Restricted Payments Basket”) of (without duplication):
 - (1) 50% of Consolidated Net Income for the period (taken as one accounting period) from the beginning of the first fiscal quarter commencing after the Original Issue Date to the end of the Issuer’s most recently ended fiscal quarter for which consolidated financial statements are available (or, if such Consolidated Net Income shall be a deficit, minus 100% of such aggregate deficit), plus
 - (2) Subject to clause (ii) of the next paragraph, 100% of the aggregate net cash proceeds received by the Issuer and 100% of the Fair Market Value at the time of receipt of assets other than cash, if any, received by the Issuer, either
 - (x) as contributions to the common equity of the Issuer after the Original Issue Date or (y) from the issuance and sale of Qualified Equity Interests after the Original Issue Date, other than (a) any such proceeds or assets received from a Subsidiary of the Issuer; (b) Excluded Contributions; or (c) Designated Preferred Stock, plus
 - (3)

The aggregate amount by which Indebtedness (other than any Subordinated Indebtedness) incurred by the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary subsequent to the Original Issue Date is reduced on the Issuer's balance sheet upon the conversion or exchange (other than by a Subsidiary of the Issuer) into Qualified Equity Interests (less the amount of any cash, or the fair value of assets, distributed by the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary upon such conversion or exchange (other than payments of interest with respect thereto)), plus

In the case of the disposition or repayment of or return on any Investment that was treated as a Restricted Payment made after the Original Issue Date, an amount (to the extent not included in the computation of Consolidated Net (4) Income) equal to the lesser of (i) 100% of the aggregate amount received by the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary in cash or other property (valued at the Fair Market Value thereof) as the return of capital with respect to such Investment and (ii) the amount of such Investment that was treated as a Restricted Payment, plus
 Upon a Redesignation of an Unrestricted Subsidiary as a Restricted Subsidiary, the lesser of (i) the Fair Market (5) Value of the Issuer's proportionate interest in such Subsidiary immediately following such Redesignation, and (ii) the aggregate amount of the Issuer's Investments in such Subsidiary to the extent such Investments reduced the Restricted Payments Basket and were not previously repaid or otherwise reduced.

The foregoing will not prohibit:

The payment by the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary of any dividend or the consummation of any redemption (i) within 60 days after the date of declaration of the dividend or giving or any redemption notice, if on the date of declaration or notice, the payment or redemption would have complied with the provisions of the Indenture;

The making of any Restricted Payment in exchange for, or out of or with the net cash proceeds of the substantially concurrent issuance and sale (other than to a Subsidiary of the Issuer) of, Qualified Equity Interests of the Issuer or (ii) from the substantially concurrent contribution of common equity capital to the Issuer; provided, that net cash proceeds from the issuance and sale of Qualified Equity Interests or from contributions to equity capital of the Issuer under this clause (ii) shall not be included for purpose of calculating amounts under clause (ii)(2) of the preceding paragraph;

The redemption of Subordinated Indebtedness of the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary (a) in exchange for, or (iii) out of the proceeds of the substantially concurrent issuance and sale of, Qualified Equity Interests or (b) in exchange for, or out of the proceeds of the substantially concurrent incurrence of, Refinancing Indebtedness permitted to be incurred under “—Limitations on Additional Indebtedness” and the other terms of the Indenture; Payments by the Issuer to redeem Equity Interests of the Issuer held by officers, directors or employees or former officers, directors or employees (or their transferees, estates or beneficiaries under their estates), upon their death, disability, retirement, severance or termination of employment or service; provided, that the aggregate cash consideration paid for all such redemptions shall not exceed the sum of (A) $2.0 million during any calendar year

(iv) (with unused amounts being available to be used in the following calendar year, but not in any succeeding calendar year) plus (B) the amount of any net cash proceeds received by or contributed to the Issuer from the issuance and sale after the Original Issue Date of Qualified Equity Interests of the Issuer to its officers, directors or employees that have not been applied to the payment of Restricted Payments pursuant to this clause (iv), plus (C) the net cash proceeds of any “key-man” life insurance policies that have not been applied to the payment of Restricted Payments pursuant to this clause (iv);

Payments of cash, dividends, distributions, advances or other Restricted Payments by the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary to allow the payment of cash in lieu of the issuance of fractional shares or upon the purchase, (v) redemption or acquisition of fractional shares, including in connection with (i) the exercise of options or warrants, (ii) the conversion or exchange of Equity Interests, (iii) stock dividends, splits or combinations or business combinations, or (iv) the conversion of the Convertible Notes or any payment made with respect thereto;

Repurchases of Equity Interests (i) deemed to occur upon the exercise of stock options or other similar stock-based awards under equity plans of the Issuer or any of the Issuer's Restricted Subsidiaries, warrants or other (vi) Equity Interests to the extent such Equity Interests represent a portion of the exercise price of those stock options, other similar stock-based awards under equity plans of the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary, warrants or other Equity Interests or (ii) in connection with a gross up for tax withholding related to such Equity Interests;

(vii) Additional Restricted Payments of $5.0 million;

(viii) Restricted Payments that are made with Excluded Contributions;

(ix) The redemption of Indebtedness that is contractually subordinated to the Senior Notes pursuant to provisions similar to those described in “—Purchase at the Option of Holders Upon a Change of Control” or “—Limitations on Asset Sales;” provided that, prior to such redemption, the Issuer (or a third party to the extent permitted by the Indenture) has made a Change of Control Offer or Asset Sale Offer, as the case may be, with respect to the Senior Notes as a result of such Change of Control or Asset Sale, as the case may be, and has repurchased all Senior Notes validly tendered and not withdrawn in connection with such Change of Control Offer or Asset Sale Offer, as the case may be;

- (x) The distribution, as a dividend or otherwise, of shares of Capital Stock of, or Indebtedness owed to the Issuer or a Restricted Subsidiary of the Issuer by, Unrestricted Subsidiaries;
- (xi) Any Restricted Payment made in connection with (A) the Transactions or (B) the Exchange Transactions; or Payments and distributions to dissenting stockholders pursuant to applicable law, pursuant to or in connection with a consolidation, merger or transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the Issuer and its Restricted
- (xii) Subsidiaries taken as a whole that complies with the terms of the Indenture, including “—Limitations on Mergers, Consolidations, Etc.”; provided, that no issuance and sale of Qualified Equity Interests pursuant to clause (ii), (iii) or (iv)(B) above shall increase the Restricted Payments Basket.

For purposes of determining compliance with this covenant, in the event that a Restricted Payment meets the criteria of more than one of the categories of Restricted Payments described in clauses (i) through (xiii) of the second paragraph of this covenant, or is entitled to be incurred pursuant to the first paragraph of this covenant, the Issuer will be entitled to classify such Restricted Payment (or portion thereof) on the date of its payment or later reclassify such Restricted Payment (or portion thereof) in any manner that complies with this covenant.

Limitations on Liens

The Issuer will not, and will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, create, incur, assume or permit or suffer to exist any Lien of any nature whatsoever against any assets of the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary (including Equity Interests of a Restricted Subsidiary), whether owned at the Original Issue Date or thereafter acquired, or any proceeds therefrom, or assign or otherwise convey any right to receive income or profits therefrom securing any Indebtedness (other than Permitted Liens).

Limitations on Asset Sales

The Issuer will not, and will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, consummate any Asset Sale unless:

- (i) The Issuer or such Restricted Subsidiary receives consideration at the time of such Asset Sale at least equal to the Fair Market Value of the assets included in such Asset Sale;
- (ii) At least 75% of the total consideration received in such Asset Sale consists of cash or Cash Equivalents; and
- (iii) With respect to any Asset Sale of any Senior Notes Collateral, the Net Available Proceeds from such Asset Sale are paid directly by the purchaser thereof to an Asset Sale Proceeds Account over which the Noteholder Collateral Agent has a fully perfected first-priority lien (subject to Permitted Liens) pursuant to arrangements reasonably satisfactory to the Noteholder Collateral Agent for application in accordance with this covenant.

For purposes of clause (ii) above, the following shall be deemed to be cash:

- (i) The amount (without duplication) of any Indebtedness (other than Subordinated Indebtedness) of the Issuer or such Restricted Subsidiary that is expressly assumed by the transferee in such Asset Sale and with respect to which the Issuer or such Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be, is unconditionally released by the holder of such Indebtedness,
- (ii) The amount of any obligations received from such transferee that are within 90 days converted by the Issuer or such Restricted Subsidiary to cash (to the extent of the cash actually so received), and
- (iii) The Fair Market Value of (i) any assets (other than securities) received by the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary to be used by it in the Permitted Business, (ii) Equity Interests in a Person that is a Restricted Subsidiary or in a Person engaged in a Permitted Business that shall become a Restricted Subsidiary immediately upon the acquisition of such Person by the Issuer or (iii) a combination of (i) and (ii).

If at any time any non-cash consideration received by the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be, pursuant to clause (ii) of the preceding paragraph in connection with any Asset Sale is repaid or converted into or sold or otherwise disposed of for cash (other than interest received with respect to any such non-cash consideration), then the date of such repayment, conversion or disposition shall be deemed to constitute the date of an Asset Sale hereunder and the Net Available Proceeds thereof shall be applied in accordance with this covenant.

If the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary engages in an Asset Sale, the Issuer or such Restricted Subsidiary shall, by no later than 12 months following the later of the consummation thereof and the Issuer's or Restricted Subsidiary's receipt of the Net Available Proceeds, have applied all or any of the Net Available Proceeds therefrom to:

If such Net Available Proceeds are proceeds of an Asset Sale of any asset that constitutes Collateral, prepay permanently or repay permanently any Indebtedness secured by such Collateral Security Documents; provided, that (i) if such Net Available Proceeds are proceeds of an Asset Sale of ABL Collateral, such Net Available Proceeds shall be applied as required under the ABL Facility;

If such Net Available Proceeds are proceeds of any Asset Sale (other than an Asset Sale of Collateral), to permanently reduce any Pari Passu Indebtedness; provided, however, that if any Pari Passu Indebtedness is so (ii) reduced, the Issuer will equally and ratably reduce Indebtedness under the Senior Notes by making an offer to all holders of Senior Notes to purchase at a purchase price equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, the pro rata principal amount of the Senior Notes; or

(A) Invest in the purchase of assets (other than securities) to be used by the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary in, or make capital expenditures with respect to, the Permitted Business, (B) acquire Equity Interests in a Person that is a Guarantor or in a Person engaged in a Permitted Business that shall become a Guarantor immediately upon the consummation of such acquisition or (C) a combination of (A) and (B). The Issuer will be deemed to have complied with the provisions set forth in this paragraph if (i) within 365 days after the Asset Sale that generated the Net Available Proceeds, the Issuer (or the applicable Restricted Subsidiary) has entered into and not abandoned or rejected a binding agreement to acquire all or substantially all of the assets of, or any Equity Interests of, another Permitted Business or to make a capital expenditure or acquire other assets that are used or useful in a Permitted Business and that acquisition or capital expenditure is thereafter completed within 180 days after the end of such 365-day period or (ii) in the event such binding agreement described in the preceding clause (iii) (i) is canceled or terminated for any reason before such Net Available Proceeds are applied, the Issuer (or the applicable Restricted Subsidiary) enters into another such binding commitment within 180 days of such cancellation or termination of the prior binding commitment; provided that if any second binding commitment is later canceled or terminated for any reason or not entered into before such Net Available Proceeds are applied within 180 days of such second binding commitment, then such Net Available Proceeds shall constitute Excess Proceeds (as defined below). In addition, during the period following the entering into of a binding agreement with respect to an Asset Sale and prior to the consummation thereof (which period cannot exceed 365 days), cash (whether or not actual Net Available Proceeds of such Asset Sale) used for the purposes described in subclause (A), (B) and (C) of this clause (iii) that are designated as uses in accordance with this clause (iii), and not previously or subsequently so designated in respect of any other Asset Sale, shall be deemed to be Net Available Proceeds applied in accordance with this clause (iii).

When the aggregate amount of Excess Proceeds equals or exceeds $15.0 million, the Issuer will be required to make an offer to purchase from all Holders and, if applicable, make an offer to purchase or redeem any Other Pari Passu Lien Obligations of the Issuer the provisions of which require the Issuer to do so with the proceeds from any Asset Sales, in an aggregate principal amount of Senior Notes and such Other Pari Passu Lien Obligations equal to the amount of such Excess Proceeds as follows:

The Issuer will (a) make an offer to purchase (a "Net Proceeds Offer") to all Holders in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Indenture, and (b) make an offer to purchase or redeem any such Other Pari Passu Lien Obligations (and permanently reduce the related loan commitment (if any) in an amount equal to the principal (i) amount so redeemed), pro rata in proportion to the respective principal amounts of the Senior Notes and such other Indebtedness required to be redeemed or purchased, the maximum principal amount of Senior Notes and Other Pari Passu Lien Obligations that may be purchased or redeemed out of the amount (the "Payment Amount") of such Excess Proceeds;

(ii) The offer price for the Senior Notes will be payable in cash in an amount equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Senior Notes tendered pursuant to a Net Proceeds Offer, plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon, if any, to the date such Net Proceeds Offer is consummated (the “Offered Price”), in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Indenture and the redemption price for such Other Pari Passu Lien Obligations (the “Pari Passu Indebtedness Price”) shall be as set forth in the related documentation governing such Indebtedness;

If the aggregate Offered Price of Senior Notes validly tendered and not withdrawn by Holders thereof exceeds the (iii) pro rata portion of the Payment Amount allocable to the Senior Notes, Senior Notes to be purchased will be selected on a pro rata basis; and

Upon completion of such Net Proceeds Offer in accordance with the foregoing provisions, the amount of Excess (iv) Proceeds with respect to which such Net Proceeds Offer was made shall be deemed to be zero, if applicable, and released from the Asset Sale Proceeds Account.

To the extent that the sum of the aggregate Offered Price of Senior Notes tendered pursuant to a Net Proceeds Offer and the aggregate Pari Passu Indebtedness Price paid to the holders of such Other Pari Passu Lien Obligations is less than the Payment Amount relating thereto (such difference constituting a "Net Proceeds Surplus"), the Issuer may use the Net Proceeds Surplus, or a portion thereof, for general corporate purposes, subject to the provisions of the Indenture.

Upon the commencement of a Net Proceeds Offer, the Issuer shall send, by first class mail, a notice to the Trustee and to each Holder at its registered address. The notice shall contain all instructions and materials necessary to enable such Holder to tender Senior Notes pursuant to the Net Proceeds Offer. Any Net Proceeds Offer shall be made to all Holders. The notice, which shall govern the terms of the Net Proceeds Offer, shall state:

(i) That the Net Proceeds Offer is being made pursuant to this covenant;

The Payment Amount, the Offered Price, and the date on which Senior Notes tendered and accepted for payment

(ii) shall be purchased, which date shall be at least 30 days and not later than 60 days from the date such notices is mailed (the "Net Proceeds Payment Date");

(iii) That any Senior Notes not tendered or accepted for payment shall continue to accrue interest;

(iv) That, unless the Issuer defaults in making such payment, any Senior Notes accepted for payment pursuant to the Net Proceeds Offer shall cease to accrue interest on and after the Net Proceeds Payment Date;

(v) That Holders electing to have any Senior Notes purchased pursuant to any Net Proceeds Offer shall be required to surrender the Senior Notes, with the form entitled "Option of Holder to Elect Purchase" on the reverse of the Note completed, or transfer by book-entry transfer, to the Issuer, a Depository, if appointed by the Issuer, or the Paying Agent at the address specified in the notice at least three days before the Net Proceeds Payment Date;

(vi) That Holders shall be entitled to withdraw their election if the Issuer, the Depository or the Paying Agent, as the case may be, receives, not later than the Net Proceeds Payment Date, a notice setting forth the name of the Holder, the principal amount of the Note the Holder delivered for purchase and a statement that such Holder is withdrawing his election to have such Note purchased;

(vii) That if the aggregate principal amount of Senior Notes surrendered by Holders exceeds the Payment Amount, the Issuer shall select the Senior Notes to be purchased on a pro rata basis (with such adjustments as may be deemed appropriate by the Issuer so that only Senior Notes in denominations of $1.00, or integral multiples thereof, shall be purchased); and (viii) That Holders whose Senior Notes were purchased only in part shall be issued new Senior Notes equal in principal amount to the unpurchased portion of the Senior Notes surrendered (or transferred by book-entry).

On the Net Proceeds Payment Date, the Issuer shall, to the extent lawful: (1) accept for payment all Senior Notes or portions thereof properly tendered pursuant to the Net Proceeds Offer, subject to proration if the aggregate Senior Notes tendered exceed the Payment Amount allocable to the Senior Notes; (2) deposit with the Paying Agent U.S. Legal Tender equal to the lesser of the Payment Amount allocable to the Senior Notes and the amount sufficient to pay the Offered Price in respect of all Senior Notes or portions thereof so tendered; and (3) deliver or cause to be delivered to the Trustee the Senior Notes so accepted together with an Officers' Certificate stating the aggregate principal amount of Senior Notes or portions thereof being repurchased by the Issuer. The Issuer shall publicly announce the results of the Net Proceeds Offer on the Net Proceeds Payment Date.

The Paying Agent shall promptly send to each Holder of Senior Notes so tendered the Offered Price for such Senior Notes, and the Trustee shall promptly authenticate pursuant to an Authentication Order and send (or cause to be transferred by book-entry) to each Holder a new Note equal in principal amount to any unrepurchased portion of the Senior Notes surrendered, if any; provided, that each such new Note shall be in principal amount of $1.00 or an integral multiple thereof. However, if the Net Proceeds Payment Date is on or after an interest Record Date and on or before the related Interest Payment Date, any accrued and unpaid interest shall be paid to the Person in whose name a Note is registered at the Close of Business on such Record Date.

The Issuer will comply with applicable tender offer rules, including the requirements of Rule 14e-1 under the Exchange Act and any other applicable laws and regulations in connection with the purchase of Senior Notes pursuant to a Net Proceeds Offer. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with the provisions of this covenant, the Issuer shall comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached its obligations under this covenant by virtue of this compliance.

Limitations on Transactions with Affiliates

The Issuer will not, and will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, in one transaction or a series of related transactions, at any time after the Original Issue Date sell, lease, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of its assets to, or purchase any assets from, or enter into any contract, agreement, understanding, loan, advance or guarantee with, or for the benefit of, any Affiliate (an "Affiliate Transaction"), unless:

Such Affiliate Transaction is on terms that are no less favorable to the Issuer or the relevant Restricted Subsidiary than those that would have been obtained in a comparable transaction at such time on an arm's-length basis by the

(i) Issuer or that Restricted Subsidiary from a Person that is not an Affiliate of the Issuer or that Restricted Subsidiary; and

(ii) The Issuer delivers to the Trustee:

With respect to any Affiliate Transaction involving aggregate value of $10.0 million or more, the certificates described in the preceding clause (x) and a written opinion as to the fairness of such Affiliate Transaction to the

(y) Issuer or such Restricted Subsidiary from a financial point of view issued by an Independent Financial Advisor to the Board of Directors of the Issuer.

(viii) relating to the offering of the Convertible Notes dated August 16, 2010 (including any documents incorporated by reference therein), as in effect on the Original Issue Date or as thereafter amended or replaced in any manner, that, taken as a whole, is not more adverse to the interests of the Holders in any material respect than such agreement as it was in effect on the Original Issue Date or (b) any transaction pursuant to any agreement referred to in the immediately preceding clause (a);

Any other agreement governing Indebtedness entered into after the Original Issue Date that contains

Additional Note Guarantees

The Issuer will cause each Subsidiary (including any newly formed or newly acquired Subsidiary or newly designated Restricted Subsidiary) (other than any designated Unrestricted Subsidiary or Foreign Subsidiary), within twenty (20) days of its acquisition, formation or designation, to:

- (i) In case of a newly formed or newly acquired Subsidiary, be designated as a Restricted Subsidiary;

Each Guarantor will be automatically and unconditionally released and discharged from its obligations under its Note Guarantee and the Indenture under the circumstances set forth in “—General—The Note Guarantees—Release of a Guarantor.”

Further Assurances

To the extent required by applicable law or the Security Documents, or upon reasonable request of the Trustee, the Issuer will, and will cause each Guarantor to, at their sole expense, subject to the terms, conditions and provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement, and the Security Documents promptly: (1) execute, acknowledge and deliver such Security Documents, the Intercreditor Agreement, instruments, financing statements, certificates, notices and other documents, make such filings, recordations and take such other actions as may be reasonably required by applicable law or as may be reasonably necessary or advisable to create and perfect, protect, assure, transfer, confirm or enforce first priority and second priority (as applicable) Liens and security interests in respect of the Collateral (including, without limitation, the filing of financing statements under the Uniform Commercial Code, and customary short-form security agreements with respect to Intellectual Property with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office and the U.S. Copyright Office and recording of Mortgages on each Material Real Property or other real property constituting Collateral); and (2) subject to the terms, conditions and provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement and the Security Documents, promptly deliver to the Noteholder Collateral Agent certificates, if any, representing the capital stock and membership interests of the Guarantors. In addition, from time to time, the Issuer will reasonably promptly secure the obligations under the Indenture, Security Documents and Intercreditor Agreement by pledging or creating, or causing to be pledged or created, perfected security interests with respect to the Collateral, in each case to the extent reasonably requested by the Trustee, and in accordance with the Security Documents (including the Intercreditor Agreement). Such security interests and Liens will be created under the Security Documents in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee, and the Issuer will deliver or cause to be delivered to Trustee all such instruments and documents (including certificates, legal opinions, title insurance policies and lien searches) as the Trustee shall reasonably request to evidence compliance with this covenant. The Issuer agrees to provide promptly after reasonable request by the Trustee such evidence as to the perfection and priority status of each such security interest and Lien. In furtherance of the foregoing, the Issuer will give prompt notice to the Trustee of the acquisition by it or any of the Guarantors after the Issue Date of any new Material Real Property. With respect to any fee interest in any Material Real Property located in the United States (individually and collectively, the "Premises") owned by the Issuer or a Guarantor on the Issue Date or acquired by the Issuer or a Guarantor after the Issue Date, the Issuer or Guarantor will, in case of properties existing on the Issue Date, within 75 days after the Issue Date and, in case of future acquired properties, within 75 days of such acquisition, as applicable, deliver to the Noteholder Collateral Agent the following documents and instruments with respect to any such acquired Material Real Property that does not constitute an Excluded Asset:

The Issuer will deliver to the Noteholder Collateral Agent, at the Issuer's sole cost and expense, mortgagee's title insurance policies in favor of the Noteholder Collateral Agent, as mortgagee for the ratable benefit of itself and the Holders of the Senior Notes in an amount equal to 110% of the net book value of the applicable Material Real Property, and in the form necessary, with respect to the property purported to be covered by such Mortgage, to insure that that the interests created by the Mortgage constitute valid Liens thereon free and clear of all Liens other than Permitted Liens, and such policies will also include, to the extent available, such other advisable lenders' endorsements and shall be accompanied by evidence of the payment in full of all premiums thereon; and

The Issuer will, or will cause the Guarantors to, deliver to the Noteholder Collateral Agent, at the Issuer's sole cost and expense, with respect to each such Material Real Property, (i) corporate and local law Opinions of Counsel, as the Noteholder Collateral Agent or the Trustee shall reasonably request (which opinions shall confirm, among other things, the due authorization, execution and delivery and the enforceability of such Mortgages in accordance with their terms), (ii) ALTA surveys in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the title company to cause the title company to remove the standard survey exception and to issue a survey endorsement with respect to each of the title policies referenced in clause (b) above, and (iii) such affidavits that the title company shall reasonably request in connection with the issuance of the title policies referenced in clause (b) above.

Reports to Holders

Whether or not required by the SEC, so long as any Senior Notes are outstanding, the Issuer will furnish to the Holders of Senior Notes, or file electronically with the SEC through the SEC's Electronic Data Gathering, Analysis and Retrieval System (or any successor system), within the time periods that would be applicable to the Issuer if it were subject to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act:

- (i) All quarterly and annual financial and other information that would be required to be contained in a filing with the SEC on Forms 10-Q and 10-K if the Issuer were required to file these Forms; and
- (ii)

All current reports that would be required to be filed with the SEC on Form 8-K if the Issuer were required to file these reports.

In addition, whether or not required by the SEC, the Issuer will file a copy of all of the information and reports referred to in clauses (i) and (ii) above with the SEC for public availability within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and regulations (unless the SEC will not accept the filing) and make the information available to securities analysts and prospective investors upon request.

If any direct or indirect parent of the Issuer has complied with the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act, if applicable, and has furnished the Holders of Senior Notes, or filed electronically with the SEC's Electronic Data Gathering, Analysis and Retrieval System (or any successor system), the reports described herein with respect to such parent (including any financial information required by Regulation S-X relating to the Issuer and the Guarantors), the Issuer shall be deemed to be in compliance with the provisions of this covenant.

Limitations on Designation of Unrestricted Subsidiaries

The Issuer may designate any Subsidiary (including any newly formed or newly acquired Subsidiary) of the Issuer as an "Unrestricted Subsidiary" under the Indenture (a "Designation") only if:

- (i) No Default shall have occurred and be continuing at the time of or after giving effect to such Designation; and Either (A) the Subsidiary to be so Designated has total assets of $1,000 or less; or (B) the Issuer would be permitted to make, at the time of such Designation, (x) a Permitted Investment or (y) an Investment pursuant to the
- (ii) first paragraph of "—Limitations on Restricted Payments," in either case, in an amount (the "Designation Amount") equal to the Fair Market Value of the Issuer's proportionate interest in such Subsidiary on such date.

No Subsidiary may be Designated as an "Unrestricted Subsidiary" if such Subsidiary or any of its Subsidiaries (i) owns (A) any Equity Interests (other than Qualified Equity Interests) of the Issuer or (B) any Equity Interests of any Restricted Subsidiary that is not a Subsidiary of the Subsidiary to be so Designated or (ii) is a Person with respect to which either the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary has any direct or indirect obligation (A) to subscribe for additional Equity Interests or (B) to maintain or preserve the Person's financial condition or cause the Person to achieve any specified levels of operating results, unless such obligation is a Permitted Investment or is otherwise permitted under "—Limitations on Restricted Payments."

If, at any time, any Unrestricted Subsidiary fails to meet the requirements of the two preceding paragraphs as an Unrestricted Subsidiary, it shall thereafter cease to be an Unrestricted Subsidiary for purposes of the Indenture and any Indebtedness of the Subsidiary and any Liens on assets of such Subsidiary shall be deemed to be incurred by a Restricted Subsidiary as of the date and, if the Indebtedness is not permitted to be incurred under "—Limitations on Additional Indebtedness" or the Lien is not permitted under "—Limitations on Liens," the Issuer shall be in default of the applicable covenant.

The Issuer may redesignate an Unrestricted Subsidiary as a Restricted Subsidiary (a "Redesignation") only if:

- (i) No Default shall have occurred and be continuing at the time of and after giving effect to such Redesignation; and All Liens, Indebtedness and Investments of such Unrestricted Subsidiary outstanding immediately following such
- (ii) Redesignation would, if incurred or made at such time, have been permitted to be incurred or made for all purposes of the Indenture.

All Designations and Redesignations must be evidenced by resolutions of the Board of Directors of the Issuer, delivered to the Trustee, certifying compliance with the foregoing provisions.

Information Regarding Collateral

The Issuer will furnish to the Noteholder Collateral Agent and the Trustee, with respect to the Issuer or any Guarantor, prompt written notice at least fifteen (15) days prior to any change in such Person's (i) corporate name, (ii) jurisdiction of organization or formation, (iii) identity or corporate structure or (iv) Federal Taxpayer Identification Number. The Issuer will promptly notify the Noteholder Collateral Agent and the Trustee if any material portion of the Collateral is damaged or destroyed.

Each year, at the time of delivery of the annual financial statements with respect to the preceding fiscal year, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee a certificate of a financial officer setting forth the information required pursuant to the Perfection Certificate or confirming that there has been no change in such information since the date of the prior delivered Perfection Certificate.

Impairment of Security Interest

The Issuer will not, and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, take or knowingly or negligently omit to take, any action which action or omission would reasonably be expected to have the result of materially impairing the security interest with respect to the Collateral for the benefit of Noteholder Secured Parties, except as expressly permitted by "—Amendment, Supplement and Waiver" or the provisions of the Indenture regarding the Security Documents, the Security Documents or the Intercreditor Agreement.

Insurance

The Issuer and Guarantors (x) will cause any insurance policies covering any Collateral to be endorsed or otherwise amended to include a customary lender's loss payable endorsement, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee, which endorsement shall provide that, from and after the Issue Date, subject to the terms, conditions and provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement, if the insurance carrier shall have received written notice from the Trustee of the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default, the insurance carrier shall pay all proceeds otherwise payable to the Grantors under such policies directly to the Trustee during the continuance of an Event of Default; (y) will cause each such policy to provide that it shall not be canceled, modified or not renewed (i) by reason of nonpayment of premium upon not less than 10 days' prior written notice thereof by the insurer to the Trustee (giving the Trustee the right to cure defaults in the payment of premiums) or (ii) for any other reason upon not less than 30 days' prior written notice thereof by the insurer to the Trustee; and (z) will deliver to the Trustee, prior to the cancellation, modification or nonrenewal of any such policy of insurance, a draft copy of a renewal or replacement policy (or other evidence of renewal of a policy previously delivered to the Trustee) and reasonably promptly thereafter deliver a duplicate original copy of such policy together with evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee of payment of the premium as required by such insurance.

The Grantors will notify the Trustee promptly whenever any separate insurance concurrent in form or contributing in the event of loss with that required to be maintained under this covenant is taken out by any Grantor; and promptly deliver to the Trustee a duplicate copy of such policy or policies.

Consolidated Secured Debt Ratio

Commencing on the Issue Date, the Issuer will not permit the Consolidated Secured Debt Ratio as at the last day of each fiscal month for any period set forth below to exceed:

Period	Consolidated Secured Debt Ratio
Issue Date — March 31, 2013	7.50 : 1.00
April 1, 2013 — March 31, 2014	7.00 : 1.00
April 1, 2014 — March 31, 2015	6.75 : 1.00
April 1, 2015 — and thereafter	6.50 : 1.00

Limitations on Mergers, Consolidations, Etc.

The Issuer will not, directly or indirectly, in a single transaction or a series of related transactions, (i) consolidate or merge with or into another Person (other than a merger with an Affiliate solely for the purpose of and with the effect of changing the Issuer's jurisdiction of incorporation to another State of the United States or forming a holding company for the Issuer (provided that such holding company becomes a Guarantor)), or sell, lease, transfer, convey or otherwise dispose of or assign all or substantially all of the assets of the Issuer or the Issuer and the Restricted Subsidiaries (taken as a whole) or (ii) adopt a Plan of Liquidation unless, in either case:

a) The Issuer will be the surviving or continuing Person; or

The Person formed by or surviving such consolidation or merger or to which such sale, lease, conveyance or other disposition shall be made (or, in the case of a Plan of Liquidation, any Person to which assets are transferred) (collectively, the "Successor") is a corporation, limited liability company or limited partnership organized and existing under the laws of any State of the United States or the District of Columbia, and the Successor expressly assumes,

b) by supplemental indenture, security documents and intercreditor agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee, all of the obligations of the Issuer under the Senior Notes, the Indenture, the applicable Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreement; provided, that if such Person is a limited liability company or a partnership, such Person will form a Wholly Owned Restricted Subsidiary that is a corporation and cause such Subsidiary to become a co-issuer of the Senior Notes; and

Immediately prior to and immediately after giving effect to such transaction and the assumption of the obligations (ii) as set forth above and the incurrence of any Indebtedness to be incurred in connection therewith, and the use of any net proceeds therefrom on a pro forma basis, no Default shall have occurred and be continuing.

For purposes of this covenant, any Indebtedness of the Successor which was not Indebtedness of the Issuer immediately prior to the transaction shall be deemed to have been incurred in connection with such transaction. Except as provided in “—General—The Note Guarantees—Release of a Guarantor,” no Guarantor may consolidate with or merge with or into (whether or not such Guarantor is the surviving Person) another Person, unless:

(i) Either:

a) Such Guarantor will be the surviving or continuing Person; or

The Person formed by or surviving any such consolidation or merger assumes, by supplemental indenture, security documents and intercreditor agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee, all of the obligations of such Guarantor under the Note Guarantee of such Guarantor, the Indenture, the applicable Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreement, and is a corporation, limited liability company or limited partnership organized and existing under the laws of any State of the United States or the District of Columbia; and

(ii) Immediately after giving effect to such transaction, no Default shall have occurred and be continuing.

For purposes of the foregoing, the transfer (by lease, assignment, sale or otherwise, in a single transaction or series of transactions) of all or substantially all of the properties or assets of one or more Restricted Subsidiaries, the Equity Interests of which constitute all or substantially all of the properties and assets of the Issuer, will be deemed to be the transfer of all or substantially all of the properties and assets of the Issuer.

Upon any consolidation, combination or merger of the Issuer or a Guarantor, or any transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the Issuer in accordance with the foregoing, in which the Issuer or such Guarantor is not the continuing obligor under the Senior Notes or its Note Guarantee, except as provided in “—General—The Note Guarantees—Release of a Guarantor,” the surviving entity formed by such consolidation or into which the Issuer or such Guarantor is merged or the Person to which the conveyance, lease or transfer is made will succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of, the Issuer or such Guarantor under the Indenture, the Senior Notes, the Note Guarantees, the Security Documents and Intercreditor Agreement with the same effect as if such surviving entity had been named therein as the Issuer or such Guarantor and, except in the case of a lease, the Issuer or such Guarantor, as the case may be, will be released from the obligation to pay the principal of and interest on the Senior Notes or in respect of its Note Guarantee, as the case may be, and all of the Issuer’s or such Guarantor’s other obligations and covenants under the Senior Notes, the Indenture and its Note Guarantee, if applicable.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Restricted Subsidiary may consolidate with, merge with or into or convey, transfer or lease, in one transaction or a series of transactions, all or substantially all of its assets to the Issuer or another Restricted Subsidiary; provided, that if any party to any such transaction is a Note Party, the surviving entity, as the case may be, shall be a Note Party.

Events of Default

Each of the following will be an “Event of Default;”

Failure by the Issuer to pay (x) interest on any of the Senior Notes when it becomes due and payable and the (i) continuance of any such failure for thirty (30) days or (y) any premium due in respect of any optional redemption of the Senior Notes when due and payable;

(ii) Failure by the Issuer to pay the principal on any of the Senior Notes when it becomes due and payable, whether at Stated Maturity, upon redemption, upon a Change of Control Purchase Date, upon acceleration or otherwise;

(iii) Failure by the Issuer to comply with “—Certain Covenants—Limitations on Mergers, Consolidations, Etc.” or in respect of its obligations to purchase Senior Notes upon a Change of Control;

Failure by the Issuer or any Guarantor (A) to comply with any other agreement or covenant in the Indenture (other than the “Consolidated Secured Debt Ratio” covenant), the Security Documents or the Intercreditor Agreement and continuance of this failure for 60 days after notice of the failure has been given to the Issuer by the Trustee or by (iv) the Holders of at least 25% of the aggregate principal amount of the Senior Notes then outstanding and (B) to comply with the “Consolidated Secured Debt Ratio” covenant and continuance of this failure to comply for 30 days after notice of the failure has been given to the Issuer by the Trustee or by Holders of at least 25% of the aggregate principal amount of the Senior Notes then outstanding;

Event of default under any mortgage, indenture or other instrument or agreement under which there is issued Indebtedness of the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary, whether such Indebtedness now exists or is incurred after the Issue Date, if such event of default is a default relating to a failure to pay at stated maturity thereof or would (v) enable or permit the holder or holders thereof or any trustee or agent on their behalf to cause such Indebtedness to become due and payable prior to scheduled maturity and such event of default continues for a period of twenty (20) days, provided, that the principal amount of such Indebtedness, together with any other Indebtedness with respect to which a default has occurred and is continuing, aggregates $10.0 million or more;

One or more final non-appealable judgments or orders that exceed $10.0 million in the aggregate (net of amounts covered by insurance or bonded) for the payment of money have been entered by a court or courts of competent (vi) jurisdiction against the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary and such judgment or judgments have not been satisfied, stayed, annulled, discharged or rescinded within 60 days after the applicable judgment becomes final and non-appealable;

(vii) The Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary pursuant to or within the meaning of any Bankruptcy Law:

a) Commences a voluntary case,

b) Consents to the entry of an order for relief against it in an involuntary case,

c) Consents to the appointment of a Custodian of it or for all or substantially all of its assets, or

d) Makes a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors;

(viii) A court of competent jurisdiction enters an order or decree under any Bankruptcy Law that:

a) Is for relief against the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary as debtor in an involuntary case,

b) Appoints a Custodian of the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary or a Custodian for all or substantially all of the assets of the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary, or

c) Orders the liquidation of the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary, and the order or decree remains unstayed and in effect for 60 consecutive days;

Any Note Guarantee of any Significant Subsidiary ceases to be in full force and effect (other than in accordance with the terms of such Note Guarantee and the Indenture) or is declared null and void and unenforceable or found (ix) to be invalid or any Guarantor denies its liability under its Note Guarantee (other than by reason of release of a Guarantor from its Note Guarantee in accordance with the terms of the Indenture and the Note Guarantee); or

Any security interest and Lien purported to be created by any Security Document with respect to any Collateral, individually or in the aggregate, having a fair market value in excess of $5.0 million at any time shall cease to be in full force and effect, or shall cease to give the Noteholder Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the applicable Noteholder Secured Parties, the Liens, rights, powers and privileges purported to be created and granted thereby (including a perfected first priority security interest in and Lien on, all of the Collateral thereunder (except as otherwise expressly provided in the Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreement or Security Documents)) in favor of the

(x) Noteholder Collateral Agent, or shall be asserted by the Issuer or any other Guarantor not to be, (or any action shall be taken by the Issuer or any Guarantor to discontinue unless otherwise permitted) a valid, perfected, first priority (except as otherwise expressly provided in the Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreement or Security Documents) security interest in or Lien on the Collateral covered thereby; except in each case to the extent that any such loss of perfection or priority results from the failure of the Trustee or Noteholder Collateral Agent to maintain possession of certificates actually delivered to it representing securities pledged under the Security Documents or take other actions required to maintain the creation, perfection or priority of such security interest and Lien.

If an Event of Default specified in clause (vii) or (viii) above with respect to the Issuer occurs, all outstanding Senior Notes will become due and payable without any further action or notice. If an Event of Default (other than an Event of Default specified in clause (vii) or (viii) above with respect to the Issuer) occurs and is continuing under the Indenture, the Trustee, by written notice to the Issuer, or the Holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Senior Notes then outstanding, by written notice to the Issuer and the Trustee, may declare (an "acceleration declaration") all amounts owing under the Senior Notes to be due and payable immediately. Upon such acceleration declaration, the aggregate principal of and accrued and unpaid interest on the outstanding Senior Notes will become due and payable immediately; provided, however, that after such acceleration, but before a judgment or decree based on acceleration, the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of such outstanding Senior Notes may rescind and annul such acceleration:

- (i) if the rescission would not conflict with any judgment or decree;
- (ii) if all existing Events of Default have been cured or waived except nonpayment of principal and interest that has become due solely because of this acceleration;
- (iii) to the extent the payment of such interest is lawful, interest on overdue installments of interest and overdue principal, which has become due otherwise than by such declaration of acceleration, has been paid;
- (iv) if the Issuer has paid to the Trustee its reasonable compensation and reimbursed the Trustee of its expenses, disbursements and advances; and
- (v) in the event of a cure or waiver of an Event of Default of the type set forth in clause (vii) or (viii) in the first paragraph of this “—Events of Default” section, the Trustee shall have received an Officers’ Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel that such Event of Default has been cured or waived.

No such rescission shall affect any subsequent Default or impair any right consequent thereto.

Subject to the terms, conditions, and provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement, if an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may pursue any available remedy by proceeding at law or in equity to collect the payment of principal of, or interest on, the Senior Notes or to enforce the performance of any provision of the Senior Notes or the Indenture.

The Trustee may maintain a proceeding even if it does not possess any of the Senior Notes or does not produce any of them in the proceeding. A delay or omission by the Trustee or any Holder in exercising any right or remedy accruing upon an Event of Default will not impair the right or remedy or constitute a waiver of or acquiescence in the Event of Default.

Subject to the provisions of the Indenture, the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Senior Notes (which may include consents obtained in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer of Senior Notes) by notice to the Trustee may waive an existing Default and its consequences, except a continuing Default in the payment of principal of, or interest on, any Note as specified in clause (i) or (ii) of the first paragraph of this “—Events of Default” section; provided, however, that the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then-outstanding Senior Notes may rescind an acceleration and its consequences, including any related payment default that resulted from such acceleration. When a Default is waived, it is cured and ceases.

The Holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Senior Notes may direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on it. Subject to the duties of the Trustee in the Indenture, however, the Trustee may refuse to follow any direction that conflicts with any law or the Indenture, that the Trustee determines may be unduly prejudicial to the rights of another Holder, or that may involve the Trustee in personal liability; provided, that the Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee which is not inconsistent with such direction.

In the event the Trustee takes any action or follows any direction pursuant to the Indenture, the Trustee will be entitled to indemnification against any loss or expense caused by taking such action or following such direction.

No Holder will have any right to institute any proceeding with respect to the Indenture or for any remedy thereunder, unless the Trustee:

- (i) has failed to act for a period of 60 days after receiving written notice of a continuing Event of Default by such Holder and a request to act by Holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of Senior Notes outstanding;
- (ii) has been offered indemnity satisfactory to it in its reasonable judgment; and
- (iii) has not received from the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Senior Notes a direction inconsistent with such request.

However, such limitations do not apply to a suit instituted by a Holder of any Note for enforcement of payment of the principal of or interest on such Note on or after the due date therefor (after giving effect to the grace period specified in clause (i) in the first paragraph of this “—Events of Default” section).

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Indenture, the right of any Holder to receive payment of principal of, premium in respect of, and interest on, a Senior Note, on or after the respective due dates therefor, or to bring suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after such respective dates, shall not be impaired or affected without the consent of the Holder.

The Issuer is required to deliver to the Trustee annually a statement regarding compliance with the Indenture and promptly (and in any event within 15 days) after any Officer of the Issuer becomes aware of the occurrence of any Default a statement specifying the Default and what action, if any, the Issuer is taking or proposes to take with respect thereto.

If a Default occurs and is continuing and the Trustee receives actual notice of such Default, the Trustee shall send to each Holder notice of the uncured Default within 30 days after such Default occurs. Except in the case of a Default in payment of principal of, or interest on, any Note, including an accelerated payment and the failure to make a payment on the Change of Control Payment Date pursuant to a Change of Control Offer or the Net Proceeds Payment Date pursuant to a Net Proceeds Offer, or a Default in complying with the provisions of “—Certain Covenants—Limitations on Mergers, Consolidations, Etc.,” the Trustee may withhold the notice if and so long as the Board of Directors, the executive committee, or a trust committee of directors and/or Responsible Officers, of the Trustee in good faith determines that withholding the notice is in the interest of the Holders.

Amendment, Supplement and Waiver

Subject to certain exceptions, the Issuer, the Guarantors and the Trustee and Noteholder Collateral Agent together, with the written consent (which may include consents obtained in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer for Senior Notes) of the Holder or Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Senior Notes then outstanding may amend or supplement the Indenture, the Senior Notes or the Note Guarantees or other Senior Note Documents, without notice to any other Holders. Subject to certain exceptions, the Holder or Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Senior Notes may waive compliance with any provision of the Indenture, the Senior Notes or the Note Guarantees or the other Senior Note Documents without notice to any other Holders.

Notwithstanding the above, without the consent of each Holder affected, no amendment or waiver may:

- (i) reduce, or change the maturity, of the principal of any Senior Note;
- (ii) reduce the rate of or extend the time for payment of interest on any Senior Note;
 - reduce any amounts payable upon redemption or any Change of Control or change the date on, or the circumstances under, which any Senior Notes are subject to redemption or purchase (other than provisions of
- (iii) “—Purchase at the Option of Holders Upon a Change of Control” and “—Certain Covenants—Limitations on Asset Sales,” except that if a Change of Control has occurred, no amendment or other modification of the obligation of the Issuer to repurchase the Senior Notes upon a Change of Control may be made without the consent of each Holder of the Senior Notes affected);
- (iv) make any Senior Note payable in money or currency other than that stated in the Senior Notes;
- (v) expressly subordinate in right of payment such Senior Note or any Note Guarantee to any other Indebtedness of the Issuer or any Guarantor;
- (vi) reduce the percentage of Holders necessary to consent to an amendment or waiver to the Indenture or the Senior Notes;
 - waive a continuing default in the payment of principal of or premium or interest on any Senior Notes (except a
- (vii) rescission of acceleration of the Senior Notes by the Holders thereof as provided in the Indenture and a waiver of the payment default that resulted from such acceleration);
- (viii) impair the rights of Holders to receive payments of principal of or interest on the Senior Notes on or after the due date therefor or to institute suit for the enforcement of any payment on the Senior Notes;
- (ix) release any Guarantor that is a Significant Subsidiary from any of its obligations under its Note Guarantee or the Indenture, except as permitted by the Indenture; or
- (x) make any change in these amendment and waiver provisions.

In addition, without the consent of the Holders of at least 66 2/3% in principal amount of the Senior Notes then outstanding, (a) no amendment to the Indenture, the Senior Notes, the Note Guarantees or other Senior Note

Documents may release all or substantially all of the Collateral from the Liens securing the Senior Notes and (b) no amendment to, or waiver of, the provisions of the Indenture, the Senior Notes, the Note Guarantees or other Senior Note Documents may alter the priority of the Liens securing the Collateral in any manner that adversely affects the rights of the Holders of the Senior Notes, in each case other than in accordance with the terms of the applicable Senior Note Documents.

The Issuer and the Trustee and the Noteholder Collateral Agent together, may amend or supplement the Indenture, the Senior Notes, the Note Guarantees or any other Senior Note Documents without notice to or consent of any Holder:

- (i) to cure any ambiguity, defect or inconsistency;
- (ii) to provide for uncertificated Senior Notes in addition to or in place of certificated Senior Notes;
 - to provide for the assumption of the Issuer's obligations to the Noteholder Secured Parties in the case of a merger,
- (iii) consolidation or sale of all or substantially all of the assets, in accordance with "—Certain Covenants—Limitations on Mergers, Consolidations, Etc.;"
 - to release any Guarantor from any of its obligations under its Note Guarantee or the Indenture (to the extent permitted by the Indenture);
- (iv) to add any Subsidiary of the Issuer as a Guarantor;
- (v) to make any change that would provide additional rights or benefits to the Holders or would not materially adversely affect the rights of any Holder;
- (vi) in the case of the Indenture, to comply with requirements of the SEC in order to effect or maintain the qualification of the Indenture under the TIA;
- (vii) to add additional assets as Collateral or otherwise enter into additional or supplemental Security Documents;
- (viii) to release Collateral from the Lien pursuant to the Indenture, the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreement when permitted or required by such agreements;
- (ix) to make, complete or confirm any grant of Collateral permitted or required by the Indenture or any of the Security Documents or to the extent required under the Intercreditor Agreement, to conform any Security Documents to reflect amendments or other modifications to comparable provisions under ABL Facility security documents; or
- (x) to amend the Intercreditor Agreement pursuant to Section 10.5 thereof or otherwise enter into an Intercreditor Agreement in respect of an ABL Facility permitted hereby.

Legal Defeasance and Covenant Defeasance

The Issuer may elect to have its obligations and the obligations of the Guarantors discharged with respect to the outstanding Senior Notes, Note Guarantees and the Security Documents. Upon the Issuer's exercise of such option, the Issuer and the Guarantors shall, subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth below, be deemed to have been discharged from their obligations with respect to all outstanding Senior Notes, Note Guarantees and the Security Documents on the date the conditions set forth below are satisfied (hereinafter, "Legal Defeasance"). For this purpose, Legal Defeasance means that the Issuer and the Guarantors shall be deemed to have paid and discharged the entire Indebtedness represented by the outstanding Senior Notes, the Note Guarantees, the Indenture and the Security Documents which shall thereafter be deemed to be "outstanding" only for the purposes of application of the trust money as set forth in the Indenture and the other sections of the Indenture referred to in (i) and (ii) below, and to have satisfied all its other obligations under such Senior Notes and the Indenture and the Guarantors shall be deemed to have satisfied all of their obligations under the Note Guarantees, the Indenture and the Security Documents (and the Trustee and the Noteholder Collateral Agent, on demand of and at the expense of the Issuer, shall execute proper instruments acknowledging the same), except for the following provisions which shall survive until otherwise terminated or discharged under the Indenture:

- The rights of Holders of outstanding Senior Notes to receive, solely from the trust fund, and as more fully set forth
- (i) in the Indenture, payments in respect of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on such Senior Notes when such payments are due;
- (ii) The Issuer's obligations with respect to the Senior Notes under certain provisions in the Indenture relating to the Senior Notes and the covenant in the Indenture relating to the maintenance of office or agency;

- (iii) The rights, powers, trusts, duties and immunities of the Trustee and Noteholder Collateral Agent under the Indenture and the Issuer's and Guarantors' obligations in connection therewith; and
- (iv) The Legal Defeasance provisions of the Indenture.

In addition, the Issuer may elect to have its obligations and the obligations of the Guarantors released with respect to most of the covenants under the Indenture and the Security Documents, and thereafter any omission to comply with such obligations shall not constitute an Event of Default. Upon the Issuer's exercise of such option, the Issuer and the Guarantors shall, subject to the satisfaction of the conditions described below, be released from their respective obligations under the covenants under the Indenture and the Security Documents, except as described otherwise in the Indenture (hereinafter, "Covenant Defeasance"), and the Senior Notes shall thereafter be deemed not "outstanding" for the purposes of any direction, waiver, consent or declaration or act of Holders (and the consequences of any thereof) in connection with such covenants, but shall continue to be deemed "outstanding" for all other purposes under the Indenture (it being understood that such Senior Notes shall not be deemed outstanding for accounting purposes). For this purpose, Covenant Defeasance means that, with respect to the outstanding Senior Notes, the Issuer and the Guarantors may omit to comply with and shall have no liability in respect of any term, condition or limitation set forth in any such covenant, whether directly or indirectly, by reason of any reference elsewhere to any such covenant or by reason of any reference in any such covenant to any other provision in the Indenture or in any other document and such omission to comply shall not constitute an Event of Default, but, except as described above, the remainder of the Indenture and such Senior Notes shall be unaffected thereby. In addition, upon the Issuer's exercise of Covenant Defeasance, certain Events of Default will no longer apply.

In order to exercise either Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance:

- the Issuer must irrevocably deposit with the Trustee, in trust, for the benefit of the Holders, U.S. Legal Tender, U.S. Government Obligations or a combination thereof, in such amounts as will be sufficient (without reinvestment), in
 - (i) the opinion of a nationally recognized firm of independent public accountants selected by the Issuer, to pay the principal of and interest on the Senior Notes on the stated date for payment or on the Redemption Date of the principal or installment of principal of or interest on the Senior Notes,
 - (ii) in the case of Legal Defeasance, the Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel in the United States confirming that:
 - a) the Issuer has received from, or there has been published by the Internal Revenue Service, a ruling, or
 - b) since the date of the Indenture, there has been a change in the applicable United States federal income tax law, in either case to the effect that, and based thereon this Opinion of Counsel shall confirm that, the Holders will not recognize income, gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes as a result of such Legal Defeasance and will be subject to United States federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such Legal Defeasance had not occurred,
 - in the case of Covenant Defeasance, the Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel in the United States reasonably acceptable to the Trustee confirming that the Holders will not recognize income, gain or
 - (iii) loss for United States federal income tax purposes as a result of such Covenant Defeasance and will be subject to United States federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if the Covenant Defeasance had not occurred,
 - (iv) no Default shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such deposit (other than a Default resulting from the borrowing of funds to be applied to such deposit),
 - the Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance shall not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a Default
 - (v) under the Indenture or a default under any other material agreement or instrument to which the Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or by which the Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries is bound (other than any such Default or default resulting solely from the borrowing of funds to be applied to such deposit),
 - the Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate stating that the deposit was not made by it
 - (vi) with the intent of preferring the Holders over any other of its creditors or with the intent of defeating, hindering, delaying or defrauding any other of its creditors or others, and the Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that (vii) the conditions provided for in, in the case of the Officers' Certificate, clauses (i) through (vi) and, in the case of the Opinion of Counsel, clauses (ii) and/or (iii) and (v) of this paragraph have been complied with.

The Collateral will be released from the Lien securing the Senior Notes, as provided under the caption "—Release of Collateral," upon a Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance in accordance with the provisions described above.

Discharge of Indenture

The Issuer may terminate its obligations under the Senior Notes, the Indenture and the Security Documents and the obligations of the Guarantors under the Note Guarantees, the Indenture and the Security Documents and the Indenture and the Security Documents shall cease to be of further effect (except for certain obligations regarding the registration of transfer or exchange of Senior Notes, covenants regarding payment and maintenance of existence and other provisions specified in the Indenture, which shall survive until all of the Senior Notes are no longer outstanding), if:

- (i) all the Senior Notes that have been authenticated and delivered (except lost, stolen or destroyed Senior Notes which have been replaced or paid and Senior Notes for whose payment money has been deposited in trust or segregated and held in trust by the Issuer and thereafter repaid to the Issuer or discharged from this trust) have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation, or
 - (a) all Senior Notes not delivered to the Trustee for cancellation otherwise have become due and payable, will become due and payable, or may be called for redemption, within one year and the Issuer has irrevocably deposited
 - (ii) or caused to be deposited with the Trustee funds in trust sufficient to pay and discharge the entire Indebtedness (including all principal and accrued interest) on the Senior Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation,
- a) the Issuer has paid all sums then due and payable by it under the Indenture, and
- b) the Issuer has delivered irrevocable instructions to the Trustee to apply the deposited money toward the payment of the Senior Notes at maturity or on the Redemption Date, as the case may be.

In addition, the Issuer must deliver an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel stating that all conditions precedent to satisfaction and discharge have been complied with.

Calculations in Respect of Senior Notes

Except as otherwise provided in the Indenture, the Issuer (or its agents) will be responsible for making all calculations called for under the Indenture or the Senior Notes. The Issuer (or its agents) will make all such calculations in good faith and, absent manifest error, its calculations will be final and binding on Holders. The Issuer (or its agents) upon request will provide a schedule of its calculations to the Trustee, and the Trustee is entitled to rely conclusively upon the accuracy of such calculations without independent verification. The Trustee will deliver a copy of such schedule to any Holder upon the written request of such Holder.

Trustee

U.S. Bank National Association will be the Trustee and Noteholder Collateral Agent under the Indenture and has been appointed as the Registrar and Paying Agent.

The Trustee will not be responsible for and will not make any representation as to the validity or adequacy of the Indenture or the Senior Notes, it will not be accountable for the Issuer's use of the proceeds from the Senior Notes, and it will not be responsible for any statement of the Issuer in the Indenture or any document issued in connection with the sale of Senior Notes or any statement in the Senior Notes other than the Trustee's certificate of authentication. The Trustee will not make any representations with respect to the effectiveness or adequacy of the Indenture.

If a Default has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by the Indenture and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise as a prudent person would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of his or her own affairs. The Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by the Indenture at the request, order or direction of any of the Holders pursuant to the provisions of the Indenture, unless such Holders shall have offered to the Trustee reasonable security or indemnity satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities which may be incurred therein or thereby.

Governing Law

The Indenture, the Senior Notes, the Note Guarantees, the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

Certain Definitions

Set forth below is a summary of certain defined terms used in the Indenture. Reference is made to the Indenture and the other Senior Note Documents for the full definition of all terms.
