The Business Council of New York State is endorsing Charter Communication's $55 billion deal to acquire Time Warner Cable.

The Business Council, which has 2,400 business members wrote a July 24 letter to the state Public Service Commission saying the deal would be good for both businesses and consumers since Charter is planning to offer higher-speed Internet to Time Warner Cable customers at a cheaper price.

Here is an excerpt from the letter:

The Retail Council of New York State, the Adirondack Regional Chamber of Commerce and the Mohawk Valley EDGE have also written the PSC in support of the merger.
