Item 8.01 Other Events

Southern Peru Copper Corporation (the Company) announced that unionized workers at its mining units in Toquepala and Cuajone terminated today the strike commenced on August 31, 2004 and resumed work. The requests of the workers for amendments to the union agreements in effect until 2007 and for additional wage increases based on high metal prices were not accepted by the Company or the Peruvian authorities, which declared the strike illegal. During the strike, the Company kept full operation in other units and partial production in the referred facilities.
