ITEM 7.01 REGULATION FD DISCLOSURE

Webcast:

As previously announced on September 21, 2005, Sabre Holdings Corporation (Sabre Holdings) will hold a conference call and webcast on September 28, 2005, at 8:00 a.m. Central Daylight Time to discuss its progress in integrating its recent acquisition of lastminute.com. During the webcast, other material information about Sabre Holdings may also be discussed, including the earnings guidance described in this report. Interested persons may listen to the webcast and view the presentation slides at www.sabre-holdings.com/investor/. In addition, a digital recording of the webcast and copies of the presentation slides will be available shortly after the webcast at the same website. Sabre Holdings currently maintains archived webcast information on its website for twelve months, but reserves the right to remove the information from its website.

Earnings Update:

When Sabre Holdings announced the lastminute.com acquisition on May 12, 2005, the company said that it expected the acquisition to be neutral to its diluted earnings per share in 2005 on an adjusted basis, post integration costs, and dilutive on a GAAP basis.

Adverse events in London and Egypt disrupted the European peak travel months of July and August, however, which negatively impacted lastminute.com's performance versus the company's expectations. Currency movements over the last few months have also negatively affected lastminute.com's earnings when converted to United States dollars. In addition, key aspects of the lastminute.com integration are progressing ahead of schedule, so the company has accelerated into 2005 some integration expenses that it previously expected to incur in 2006.

During its second quarter earnings call, Sabre Holdings included in its third quarter 2005 GAAP diluted earnings per share estimate an approximate $20 million negative impact due to a forward currency contract purchased in relation to funding the lastminute.com acquisition. It is important to note that because of favorable currency changes since the earnings call, the actual effect of the forward contract on GAAP diluted earnings per share will be immaterial, which partially offsets the impacts described in the previous paragraph.

In light of current circumstances, the company now projects that the lastminute.com acquisition will be dilutive to Sabre Holdings' total 2005 diluted earnings per share, in the range of ($0.04) to ($0.06) on an adjusted basis and ($0.16) to ($0.18) on a GAAP basis. As a result, full year 2005 adjusted diluted earnings per share for Sabre Holdings, including the impact of lastminute.com, is now expected to be in the range of $1.45 to $1.50, versus the previous forecast of $1.50 to $1.55. On a GAAP basis, full year 2005 diluted earnings per share is expected to be in the range of $1.27 to $1.32, versus the previous forecast of $1.32 to $1.37.

The company expects the lastminute.com acquisition to be accretive to Sabre Holdings' third quarter 2005 diluted earnings per share, in the range of $0.06 to $0.07 on an adjusted basis and $0.01 to $0.02 on a GAAP basis. This is primarily due to the seasonality in European travel revenue, which peaks in July and August. Consistent with the company's prior projections, lastminute.com is anticipated to be significantly dilutive to Sabre Holdings' fourth quarter 2005 diluted earnings per share, in the range of ($0.10) to ($0.12) on an adjusted basis and ($0.17) to ($0.19) on a GAAP basis.

Edgar Filing: SABRE HOLDINGS CORP - Form 8-K

Sabre Holdings revised expectations for its third quarter 2005 diluted earnings per share, including lastminute.com, are in the range of $0.46 to $0.49 on an adjusted basis (versus the previous forecast of $0.39 to $0.43), and $0.38 to $0.41 on a GAAP basis (versus the previous forecast of $0.25 to $0.29).

Reconciliations of the GAAP and adjusted diluted earnings per share forecasts are attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K.
