Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Employment Agreement with Steven A. Barton

On December 1, 2005, Benchmark Electronics, Inc. (the Company) entered into a three-year employment agreement with Steven A. Barton effective December 1, 2005 (the Agreement) which Agreement superseded the Company's prior employment agreement with Mr. Barton dated as of August 1, 2001.

Under the terms of the Agreement, Mr. Barton has agreed to serve as the Company's Executive Vice President, for an initial term of three (3) years, commencing December 1, 2005. The Agreement automatically renews thereafter for successive one (1) year terms (each such renewal term, a Renewal Term), unless either party gives written notice of termination no fewer than ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of any such Renewal Term. The Initial Term, as the same may be extended by any Renewal Term, is referred to as the Employment Term. In connection with such service, Mr. Barton receives an annual base salary of $250,000, subject to annual increases at the discretion of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company, and an annual bonus with a target opportunity of 50% of his base salary for each calendar year in the Employment Term if the Company attains certain performance objectives for such year, and an over achievement bonus opportunity of up to 50% of his base salary if the Company exceeds the foregoing performance objectives by predetermined amounts. The Company may terminate Mr. Barton's employment at any time and Mr. Barton may terminate his employment upon 30 days' prior written notice. In the event his employment is terminated by the Company without cause or he terminates his employment for good reason, he is entitled to receive the following cash severance benefits:

Accrued but unpaid base salary and target bonus, pro rated through the date of termination;

Any employee benefits to which he is entitled under the Company's benefit plans;

Severance Pay equal to 100% of his base salary for the Severance Period (as defined). The Severance Period means (i) if termination is at or prior to the end of the Initial Term, a period equal to the greater of (a) two (2) full years beginning on the date of termination and (b) the then remaining portion of the Initial Term and (ii) if termination is after the end of the initial term and prior to the end of the then-current Renewal Term, a period equal to one (1) full year beginning on the date of termination;

Continued coverage under the Company's medical, dental, health and other welfare benefit plans during the Severance Period at the same cost to him as was provided to him immediately prior to the date of termination.

Mr. Barton has agreed not to disclose any confidential information pertaining to the Company's business and has agreed not to compete with the Company during his employment and for two years following termination of his employment.

The foregoing is a summary of the terms and conditions of the Agreement only, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Agreement attached to this Current Report as Exhibit 10.1, which is incorporated herein by reference.
