Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On June 1, 2007, TechTeam Global, Inc. (the Company) entered into a five-year, $40 million revolving credit agreement (Credit Agreement) with JPMorgan Chase Bank, NA (Chase). The Credit Agreement is structured to be a syndicated loan with Chase serving as the administrative agent, and JPMorgan Chase Securities, Inc. serving as sole lead arranger and sole book manager. Chase is currently the only lender under the Credit Agreement (all lenders under the Credit Agreement are hereafter referred to as Lenders).

Pursuant to the terms of the Credit Agreement, the Lenders will make loans up to an aggregate principal amount of $40 million, all of which will be available for the issuance of letters of credit and loans. The Credit Agreement terminates on May 31, 2012.

The Credit Agreement is to be used (i) to replace the Loan Agreement with LaSalle Bank Midwest, N.A. described below under Item 1.02, (ii) to fund the acquisition of NewVectors LLC, and (iii) to meet the ongoing working capital, capital expenditures and general corporate needs of the Company and its subsidiaries. Borrowings under the Credit Agreement are secured by all assets of the Company, as described below.

At the Company's option, any loan under the Credit Agreement that is made to the Company will bear interest at a rate equal to (i) the Eurocurrency rate for U.S. dollars plus an Applicable Margin, ranging from 0.75% to 1.5%, determined by the ratio (the Leverage Ratio) of (a) the Company's total consolidated indebtedness (total debt minus the difference between total cash at the end of a fiscal quarter held by the Company and its subsidiaries based in the United States and $5 million) to (b) the Company's consolidated trailing 12 month EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization), or (ii) the Alternate Base Rate (ABR) which is the higher of (a) the Chase prime rate and (b) the federal funds rate, plus a spread based upon the Company's Leverage Ratio. Until December 1, 2007, the Applicable Margin is 1.0% and the spread on an ABR loan is zero.

Under the Credit Agreement, the Company has the right to enter into derivative agreements with Chase to fix all or a portion of the interest rate on its outstanding borrowings for the term of the Credit Agreement. The Company will also pay an unused commitment fee, the amount of which (between 0.1% and 0.25%) is based upon the Leverage Ratio. From June 1, 2007 through November 30, 2007, the unused commitment fee is 0.15%.

The Credit Agreement contains covenants that are customary for similar credit arrangements, including covenants relating to financial reporting and notification, compliance with laws, preservation of existence, maintenance of books and records, use of proceeds, maintenance of properties and insurance, and limitations on liens, dispositions, issuance of debt, lease obligations and investments. There are also financial covenants that require the Company to maintain on a rolling four quarter basis (1) a maximum Leverage Ratio as of (a) September 30 and December 31, 2007 of 4.0 to 1, (b) March 31, 2008 of 3.75 to 1, (c) June 30, 2007 of 3.5 to 1, or (d) any fiscal quarter thereafter of 3.0 to 1; and (2) a fixed charge coverage ratio of less than (a) 1.0 to 1 as of June 30 or December 31, and (b) 1.25 to 1 thereafter.

The Credit Agreement provides for customary events of default with corresponding grace periods, including failure to pay any principal or interest when due, failure to perform or observe covenants, bankruptcy or insolvency events and change of control.

Under the related Pledge and Security Agreement dated June 1, 2007 between TechTeam Global, Inc., TechTeam Cyntergy, LLC, TechTeam Government Solutions, Inc., Sytel, Inc. and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. as Administrative Agent (Security Agreement), the Company and its subsidiaries based in the United States TechTeam Cyntergy, LLC, TechTeam Government Solutions, Inc., and Sytel, Inc. have agreed to pledge to the administrative agent all of their assets including all accounts receivable, equipment, inventory, and cash or cash equivalents, as collateral for the Company s obligations under the Credit Agreement. These entities have also entered into the Loan Guaranty that guarantee the borrowings under the Credit Agreement. The Company has also agreed to pledge up to 65% of its equity in all of its operating foreign subsidiaries.

Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an event of default, the administrative agent, if requested or consented to by the requisite number of Lenders, shall declare all amounts owing under the Credit Agreement immediately due and payable, terminate the Lenders commitments to make loans under the Credit Agreement, and/or exercise any and all remedies and other rights under the Credit Agreement, the Security Agreement and the Loan Guaranty.

The foregoing description of the Credit Agreement and the Pledge and Security Agreement are qualified in their entirety by reference to the copy of the Credit Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1, the Security Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 10.2, and the Loan Guaranty attached hereto as Exhibit 10.3, which are incorporated herein by reference.

On June 1, 2007, the Company borrowed $35 million to fund the acquisition of NewVectors LLC. The borrowing was made as a Eurocurrency loan. On June 4, 2007, the Company entered into a derivative to fix the interest rate on approximately 85% of the loan for a period of 48 months. See also Item 2.01.
