Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Indemnification Agreements

On January 12, 2010, Georgia Gulf Corporation (the Company) entered into indemnification agreements (the Indemnification Agreements) with each of its executive officers and directors (each an Indemnitee), which include the following individuals: Paul D. Carrico, Gregory C. Thompson, Mark J. Orcutt, Joel I. Beerman, Mark E. Buckis, William H. Doherty, Mark J. Seal, C. Douglas Shannon, James L. Worrell, Patrick J. Fleming, T. Kevin DeNicola, Robert M. Gervis, Stephen E. Macadam, Mark L. Noetzel, Wayne C. Sales and David N. Weinstein.

In general, the Indemnification Agreements provide that the Company will indemnify the Indemnitee, subject to certain provisions, to the fullest extent permitted or required by Delaware law and to any greater extent that Delaware law may permit in the future against any and all claims, demands, actions, suits or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitrative, investigative or other, and whether made pursuant to federal, state or other law or inquiries or investigations, whether made, instituted or conducted by or in the right of the Company or any other person related to Indemnitee's actions or failure to act in his capacity as an officer or director of the Company (a claim) and any and all expenses, damages, losses, liabilities, judgments, fines, penalties (whether civil, criminal or other) and amounts paid in settlement in connection with such claim, except for any claim initiated by the Indemnitee against the Company or any director or officer of the Company unless the Company has joined or consented to the initiation of such claim. The Indemnification Agreements also provide for the advancement by the Company prior to the final disposition of the claim of any and all expenses relating to any claim incurred or paid by the Indemnitee or reasonably expected to be paid or incurred by the Indemnitee, provided that the Indemnitee undertakes in writing to repay any such amounts to the extent that it is determined the Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification.

An Indemnitee will be entitled to indemnification if he (i) is successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any claim, including without limitation dismissal with or without prejudice or (ii) has satisfied any applicable standard of conduct under Delaware law, depending on the circumstances, as determined by (A) a majority vote of the directors not a party to the claim at issue (the Disinterested Directors), (B) a majority vote of a committee of Disinterested Directors designated by all Disinterested Directors, or (C) independent counsel, if a change of control (as defined) has occurred or there are no Disinterested Directors.

The Indemnification Agreements do not exclude any other rights to indemnification or advancement of expenses to which the Indemnitee may be entitled, including any rights arising under the Company's certificate of incorporation or bylaws, any other contract, any vote of the Company's shareholders or resolution of directors, Delaware law or otherwise. The Indemnification Agreements also require the Company to use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance and require any successor to all or substantially all of the business or assets of the Company to expressly assume the agreement. The Company is entitled to participate in the defense of any claim or to assume the defense of such claim, with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnitee; however, the Indemnitee may have the right to retain separate counsel at the Company's expense in certain circumstances.

The foregoing description does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the form of agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Restricted Stock Units

Edgar Filing: GEORGIA GULF CORP /DE/ - Form 424B3

On January 12, 2010, pursuant to the Georgia Gulf Corporation 2009 Equity and Performance Plan (the Plan), the Company awarded restricted stock units to its non-employee directors as reported on Forms 4 filed on January 14, 2010.
