Item 8.01 Other Events.

On March 23, 2012, MoSys, Inc. (MoSys) entered into an asset purchase agreement (the Agreement) with Synopsys, Inc. and MiniC LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Synopsys, Inc. (together, Synopsys) pursuant to which MoSys sold a portion of its intellectual property pertaining to high-speed serial interface technology (SerDes Technology) for $4,250,000. Under the Agreement, MoSys retained a license to the SerDes Technology to cover its Bandwidth Engine integrated circuit products and existing licensees. However, the agreement limits MoSys' rights to grant new licenses for SerDes Technology that performs at speeds between 6.5 gigabits per second and 12.5 gigabits per second. In addition, MoSys will also provide certain technology transfer support services to Synopsys, and fifteen employees of MoSys' India subsidiary accepted employment with a subsidiary of Synopsys.

Under the Agreement, at closing, Synopsys paid $2,370,000 and agreed to pay an additional $1,880,000 (the Holdback) to MoSys, contingent upon MoSys providing technology transfer support services to Synopsys and the achievement of certain contractually agreed-upon development milestones. A portion of the Holdback is reserved for any costs related to indemnification claims that may arise during the 12 month period following the Agreement date. In addition, under the Agreement, MoSys agreed to indemnify Synopsys from any losses incurred relating to MoSys' breach of representations and warranties, failure to perform certain covenants, fraudulent acts, or claims and losses arising from certain events, which may include, for example, losses arising from litigation. In certain cases, MoSys' potential liability for these indemnification obligations may exceed the Holdback and be in excess of the total purchase price.
