Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 28, 2016, Ares Commercial Real Estate Corporation (the "Company"), entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement (the "Agreement") with Cornerstone Real Estate Advisers LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Buyer") to sell the Company's mortgage banking business. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Agreement, at the closing the Buyer will purchase from the Company (the "Acquisition") all of the outstanding common units of ACRE Capital Holdings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, the holding company that owns the Company's mortgage banking subsidiary, ACRE Capital LLC ("ACRE Capital"). The Acquisition is expected to close within the next three to six months, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of various closing conditions, as described below.

The Agreement provides that the Buyer will pay $93 million in cash as consideration for the Acquisition. The purchase price is subject to certain adjustments, including a working capital adjustment, an adjustment of $1.15 million in respect of certain change of control payments triggered in connection with the Acquisition and a potential adjustment of up to $3 million based on certain 2016 revenue items.

The Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants regarding the business and operations of ACRE Capital. The Company has also agreed to a two-year non-competition and non-solicitation agreement, subject to certain customary exceptions.

The consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement is subject to the receipt of certain consents and approvals of U.S. Government-sponsored entities and governmental entities. The consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement is also subject to the satisfaction of certain other conditions, including, among other things, a customary bringdown of representations and warranties and compliance with covenants, and that no material adverse effect with respect to ACRE Capital shall have occurred prior to the closing.

The Agreement provides for customary termination rights, including, among others, termination rights upon denial of certain required regulatory approvals or upon certain material breaches of representations, warranties or covenants. The Agreement provides for an initial outside termination date of December 31, 2016, subject to up to two successive 30-day extensions under certain circumstances.

The Agreement provides for indemnification with respect to losses relating to breaches of representations and warranties and covenants, subject to certain limitations, and for the repayment of change of control payments in certain circumstances.

The Agreement provides for reimbursement of certain out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Company or the Buyer, as applicable, if the Agreement is terminated by the other party as a result of the failure to receive the consent or approval of certain third parties due to the fault of the non-terminating party.

A copy of the Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The foregoing description of the Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Agreement.

The Agreement is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company, ACRE Capital or the Buyer. The Agreement has been included to provide the Company's stockholders with information regarding its terms. The representations and warranties of each party set Accordingly, the Agreement is included with this filing only to provide stockholders with information regarding the terms of the Agreement, and not to provide stockholders with any factual information regarding the parties or their respective businesses.
