Item Entry Into A Material Definitive Agreement

1.01

As previously reported, on December 20, 2006, ("Agreement Date") the Registrant, Cobalis Corp., a Nevada corporation ("we"), entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement with Cornell Capital Partners, L.P. ("Cornell Capital") pursuant to which we agreed to issue up to an aggregate principal amount of $3,850,000 of convertible debentures ("Purchase Price"). Of that amount, the $2,500,000 convertible secured debenture (the "Closing Debenture") has been issued and was funded on or about December 23, 2006.

The first $675,000 convertible debenture (the "Filing Debenture"), attached hereto as Exhibit 10.6.1, has been issued and funded as of the date of this report. On February 20, 2007, we filed a registration statement (the "Registration Statement") with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") registering up to 10,583,737 shares of common stock pursuant to a Registration Rights Agreement between us and Cornell Capital dated December 20, 2006 (the "Rights Agreement"). Accordingly, we have received aggregate gross proceeds of $3,175,000 as of the date of this report.

The second $675,000 convertible secured debenture (the "Final Debenture") is schedule to be issued and funded within three days of the Registration Statement being declared effective by the SEC, and in the event that we have also obtained shareholder approval to increase our authorized shares of common stock to 100,000,000 shares. There is no guarantee that the SEC will declare the registration statement effective or that we will obtain shareholder approval to increase our authorized shares.

The Filing Debenture is convertible at the option of Cornell Capital any time up to maturity at a conversion price equal to the lesser of the fixed conversion price of $0.9955, or the market conversion price, defined as 90% of the average of the lowest three daily volume weighted average trading prices per share of our common stock during the fifteen trading days immediately preceding the conversion date, as quoted by Bloomberg, LP. We may, at our option, redeem the debenture beginning after four months after the Registration Statement is declared effective by the SEC, in the event that occurs.

The Filing Debenture has a two-year term and accrues interest at 8% per year payable in our common stock at the rate equal to the conversion price of the debenture in effect at the time of payment. Interest and principal payments on the Filing Debenture is due on the maturity date of February 20, 2009.

The Filing Debenture, like the Closing Debenture and the Final Debenture, is secured by a security agreement with Cornell Capital, which is secured by all our assets, including, but not limited to, assets acquired from Gene Pharmaceuticals, LLC, including the patents for our primary product under development, pursuant to an Asset Pledge Statement. The debentures are also secured by a pledge of 8,400,000 of the shares of our common stock which are owned by Radul Radovich, one of our directors, and his affiliated entities, which comprises approximately 23.6 % of our currently issued and outstanding common stock. Finally, our officers and directors have executed lock-up agreements restricting the sale of shares of our common stock that they own for a period extending for 30 days after all amounts due under the convertible debentures have been paid.

We plan to use the proceeds for general corporate purposes and for working capital. From the proceeds of the Filing Debenture, we agreed to also pay Yorkville Advisors a fee of 10% of each tranche of the Purchase Price. Therefore, the net proceeds to us from the Filing Debenture equal $607,500.

Issuance of the securities sold was exempt from registration pursuant to Rule 506 of Regulation D promulgated under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act. The securities were sold to an accredited investor in a private transaction without the use of any form of general solicitation or advertising. The underlying securities are "restricted securities" subject to applicable limitations on resale.
