Peace Arch Entertainment Announces Update on Letter of Intent with ContentFilm plc

Company Reviews Strategic Alternatives Following Termination of Exclusive Negotiations.

TORONTO--(MARKET WIRE) March 6, 2008 -- Peace Arch Entertainment Group Inc. (AMEX:PAE - News) (Toronto:PAE.TO - News) (Peace Arch), an integrated global entertainment company, announced today that due to current market conditions, Peace Arch has agreed to terminate its exclusive period of negotiation with ContentFilm plc (AIM: CFL) (ContentFilm).

"ContentFilm is an innovative entertainment company with an attractive business model and a strong management team, but given both the turmoil in the credit markets and market conditions in general we have decided not to make an offer to purchase the company", said Jeff Sagansky, CEO of Peace Arch. "Peace Arch will continue to explore strategic acquisitions that can have a big impact on our ongoing mission of building library and distribution assets that create value for our shareholders. We thank the management of ContentFilm for their efforts during this period and we look forward to pursuing other opportunities with them in the near future."

As was previously announced, the Letter of Intent to make an offer for ContentFilm was non-binding (except for the provisions relating to exclusivity and confidentiality) and was subject to various conditions, including negotiation and execution of definitive financing agreements, formal offer conditions, completion of due diligence by both parties and approval by the Board of Directors of each entity.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release includes statements that may constitute forward-looking statements, usually containing the words "believe," "estimate," "project," "expect," or similar expressions. These statements are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements inherently involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements. Factors that would cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, that the corresponding restatement of the Company's financial statements may change based upon the Audit Committee's ongoing analysis, that the Company's ability to file required reports timely with the Securities and Exchange Commission will be impaired, that potential claims or proceedings may arise relating to such matters, that the Audit Committee in consultation with the Company's independent public accounting firm will determine that the proper accounting differs from the accounting treatment upon which the assumptions and forward looking statements in this release are based and other risks detailed in the Company's periodic report filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. By making these forward-looking statements, the Company undertakes no obligation to update these statements for revisions or changes after the date of this release.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

A.

Rule as to Use of Form 6-K,

This form shall be used by foreign private issuers which are required to furnish reports pursuant to Rule 13a-16 or 15d-16 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

B.

Information and Document required to be Furnished,

Subject to General Instruction D herein, an issuer furnishing a report on this form shall furnish whatever information, not required to be furnished on Form 40-F or previously furnished, such issuer (I) makes or is required to make public pursuant to the law of the jurisdiction of its domicile or in which it is incorporated or organized, or (ii) files or is required to file with a stock exchange on which its securities are traded and which was made public by that exchange, or (iii) distributes or is required to distribute to its security holders.

The information required to be furnished pursuant to (I), (ii) or (iii) above is that which is material with respect to the issuer and its subsidiaries concerning: changes in business; changes in management or control; acquisitions or dispositions of assets; bankruptcy or receivership; changes in registrant's certifying accountants; the financial condition and results of operations; material legal proceedings; changes in securities or in the security for registered securities; defaults upon senior securities; material increases or decreases in the amount outstanding of securities or indebtedness; the results of the submission of matters to a vote of security holders; transactions with directors, officers or principal security holders; the granting of options or payment of other compensation to directors or officers; and any other information which the registrant deems of material importance to security holders.

This report is required to be furnished promptly after the material contained in the report is made public as described above. The information and documents furnished in this report shall not be deemed to be "filed" for the purpose of Section 18 of the Act or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section.

If a report furnished on this form incorporates by reference any information not previously filed with the Commission, such information must be attached as an exhibit and furnished with the form.

C.

Preparation and Filing of Report

This report shall consist of a cover page, the document or report furnished by the issuer, and a signature page. Eight complete copies of each report on this form shall be deposited with the Commission. At least one complete copy shall be filed with each United States stock exchange on which any security of the registrant is listed and registered under Section 12(b) of the Act. At least one of the copies deposited with the Commission and one filed with each such exchange shall be manually signed. Unsigned copies shall be conformed.

Translations of Papers and Documents into English

Reference is made to Rule 12b-12(d) [17 CFR 240.12b-12(d)]. Information required to be furnished pursuant to General Instruction B in the form of press releases and all communications or materials distributed directly to security holders of each class of securities to which any reporting obligation under Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Act relates shall be in the English language. English versions or adequate summaries in the English language of such materials may be furnished in lieu of original English translations.

Notwithstanding General Instruction B, no other documents or reports, including prospectuses or offering circulars relating to entirely foreign offerings, need be furnished unless the issuer otherwise has prepared or caused to be prepared English translations, English versions or summaries in English thereof. If no such English translations, versions or summary have been prepared, it will be sufficient to provide a brief description in English of any such documents or reports. In no event are copies of original language documents or reports required to be furnished.
