Board of Directors

Our Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws provide that our business is to be managed by or under the direction of our board of directors. Our board of directors is divided into three classes for purposes of election. One class is elected at each annual meeting of stockholders to serve for a three-year term. Our board of directors currently consists of nine members, classified into three classes as follows:

- The Class I directors are Messrs. Harvey L. Weiss, Donald L. Nickles and William L. Jews, and their term will end at the 2007 annual meeting of stockholders;
- The Class II directors are Messrs. C. Thomas McMillen, Thomas P. Rosato and John Morton, III, and their term will end at the 2008 annual meeting of stockholders; and
- The Class III directors are Messrs. David J. Mitchell, Gerard J. Gallagher and Asa Hutchinson, and their term will end at the 2009 annual meeting of stockholders.

Any additional directorships resulting from an increase in the number of directors will be distributed among the three classes so that, as nearly as possible, each class will consist of one-third of the directors.

Board Committees

Our Board has an Audit Committee and a Compensation Committee. The board of directors has adopted a charter for each of these committees.

Audit Committee

Our Audit Committee currently has four members, John Morton, III (Chairman), David J. Mitchell, Asa Hutchinson and William L. Jews. Our Audit Committee's role and responsibilities are set forth in a written charter and include the authority to retain and terminate the services of our independent accountants, review annual financial statements, consider matters relating to accounting policy and internal controls and review the scope of annual audits.

All members of the Audit Committee satisfy the current independence standards promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Nasdaq Stock Market, as such standards apply specifically to members of audit committees. The Board has determined that Mr. Morton is an "audit committee financial expert," as the Securities and Exchange Commission has defined that term in Item 407 of Regulation S-K.

Compensation Committee

Our Compensation Committee currently has three members, Donald L. Nickles (Chairman), Asa Hutchinson and John Morton, III. Our Compensation Committee reviews, approves and makes recommendations regarding our compensation policies, practices and procedures to ensure that legal and fiduciary responsibilities of the Board are carried out and that such policies, practices and procedures contribute to our success. The Compensation Committee is responsible for the determination of the compensation of our Chief Executive Officer, and shall conduct its decision-making process with respect to that issue without the Chief Executive Officer present. All members of the Compensation Committee qualify as independent directors under the definition promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Nasdaq Stock Market.

Board and Committee Meetings

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, our board of directors held two meetings. Although we do not have any formal policy regarding director attendance at our annual meetings, we will attempt to schedule our annual meetings so that all of our directors can attend. During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, all of our directors attended at least 75% of the meetings of the board of directors and committees on which they served.

Nominations for Directors

We do not currently have a standing Nominating Committee since our board of directors determined that the independent members of the board of directors adequately fulfill the obligations of a nominating committee without the need of incurring additional costs of committee meetings.

The board of directors considers recommendations of potential candidates from current directors, management and stockholders. Stockholders' nominations for directors must be made in writing and include the nominee's written consent to the nomination and sufficient background information on the candidate to enable the board of directors to assess his or her qualifications. Nominations must be addressed to the chairman of the board at our headquarters address listed below, and generally must be received no later than 60 days nor earlier than 90 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, in order to be considered for the next annual election of directors.

Item 11.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Overview

Since our formation on December 20, 2004 until the consummation of our merger with TSS/Vortech on January 19, 2007, our operations were limited to organizational activities and, after our initial public offering, to activities relating to completing a business combination. No person serving as an executive officer, director or initial stockholder, nor any affiliate thereof, during any part of 2006 received any cash or equity compensation for services rendered to us in 2006. In addition, no compensation of any kind, including finder's and consulting fees, was paid to any person who was an officer, director, initial stockholder or special advisor, or any of their respective affiliates, prior to the merger for services rendered prior to or in connection with the merger. However, our officers, directors and special advisors were reimbursed for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with activities on our behalf, such as participating in the offering process with respect to our initial public offering, identifying potential target businesses, performing due diligence on suitable business combinations and negotiating on our behalf with respect to business combinations.

On January 19, 2007, we consummated the acquisition of TSS/Vortech. In connection with the completion of the acquisition, the Compensation Committee is developing a comprehensive executive compensation program and philosophy with respect to our executive officers. The Compensation Committee has not selected or hired a compensation consulting firm to assist in the development of a comprehensive executive compensation program and philosophy, but may consider doing so in the future.

The Compensation Committee of our board of directors makes all decisions regarding the compensation of our executive officers, which decisions are subject to ratification by our board of directors. On March 7, 2007, we established a Compensation Committee consisting of Donald Nickles and Asa Hutchinson, and on April 24, 2007, John Morton, III was appointed to the Committee. Our board has determined that each of these directors is an "independent director" within the meaning of the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market and Rule 10A-3 promulgated under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Compensation Committee has the responsibility to:

- review, modify and approve our overall compensation strategy;
- recommend to the board of directors the compensation and terms of employment of our executive officers, including Thomas P. Rosato, our Chief Executive Officer, and to evaluate their respective performance in light of relevant goals and objectives;
- review and recommend to our board the type and amount of compensation to be paid or awarded to the members of our board;

- recommend to our board the adoption, amendment and termination of any bonus, equity and other deferred compensation plans, including the 2006 Omnibus Incentive Compensation Plan;
- determine appropriate insurance coverage for our executive officers and directors; and
- review, discuss and assess its own performance at least annually.

Our board of directors approved the adoption of the 2006 Omnibus Incentive Compensation Plan and the stockholders approved the Plan at the special meeting of our stockholders on January 17, 2007. In connection with the approval of the acquisition of TSS/Vortech, our board of directors also approved the employment agreements of Thomas P. Rosato, our Chief Executive Officer, Gerard J. Gallagher, our President and Chief Operating Officer, and Harvey L. Weiss, our Chairman. In connection with such employment agreements, our board approved the following annual base salaries for our executive officers for 2007: $425,000 for Mr. Rosato, $425,000 for Mr. Gallagher and $200,000 for Mr. Weiss.

General Compensation Philosophy

We recognize the importance of maintaining sound principles for the development and administration of our compensation and benefits programs. The overall compensation philosophy of our company is primarily driven by our business environment and our desire to align the interest of the employees with the interests of our company. It is also based on the principles of competitive and fair compensation, as well as our goal to attract, retain and motivate qualified employees.

The compensation and benefit plans are designed to enable us to meet our corporate goals and performance. The objectives of our compensation structure are to:

- enable the company to attract, engage and retain key executives and employees critical to future success;
- motivate and inspire employee behavior which fosters a high performance culture; and
- support the overall business objectives and ensure that a significant component of the compensation opportunity will be related to factors that both directly and indirectly influence shareholder value.

We measure the success of our compensation plans on overall business performance and our ability to attract and retain key talent which, in turn, will minimize risk and optimize return for our shareholders.

To this end, the Compensation Committee affirms that the total compensation plan should consist of:

- Annual salary. Designed to reward the core competence in the executive role relative to the skills, experience and contribution to our company.
- Annual cash incentive/bonus awards. Designed to reward the executive for specific contributions to our company aligned to both corporate and individual objectives.
- Long-term equity compensation. Designed to align the executives' interests with those of the shareholders.
- Certain other benefits, including retirement and welfare plans.

The use of the above components of our overall compensation plan enables us to reinforce our pay for performance philosophy and strengthen our ability to attract and retain high caliber and experienced executives. We believe that our combination of programs provides an appropriate mix of fixed and variable pay, balances short-term operational performance with longer-term shareholder value and facilitates effective executive recruitment and retention.

We will seek to target both short and long-term compensation levels competitively among a peer group of similar companies based on available survey data. The companies that will comprise our peer group to benchmark executive compensation levels against companies that have executive positions with responsibilities similar in breadth and scope to ours and have businesses which compete with us for executive talent.

Compensation Components

Base Salary

The salaries of our executive officers are the only non-variable element of our compensation and are reviewed on an annual basis. The salaries reflect each executive's responsibilities, the importance and impact of the executive's role, and the contribution each executive delivers to us. Salary revisions are based on an evaluation of the individual's performance, as part of the company's Annual Performance Review process and related salary revision matrix, in addition to level of pay compared to homeland security industry peer group company levels. Within this comparison group, we seek to make comparisons to executives who are comparable in terms of (a) level of responsibility and (b) expected level of contribution to our performance. Performance-related increases generally take effect as of January 1 of each year.

Bonuses

Our Compensation Committee will be responsible for establishing and implementing pre-established quantitative and qualitative performance standards for executive bonuses as well as guidelines and requirements for the distribution of such bonuses. To the extent that our employment agreements contain qualitative standards for discretionary bonuses, our board intends to take the following steps to ensure direct correlation between executive compensation and performance:

- initiate a practice of periodically reviewing the performance of all senior executives at board meetings; and
 - establish annual reviews of compensation reports for the named executive officers.

Long-Term Equity Compensation

We believe that long-term incentive compensation, primarily in the form of restricted stock awards, ensures that our executive officers have an ongoing stake in the long-term success of the company, as well as giving our employees the opportunity to share in any appreciation in the value of our common stock. Under the 2006 Omnibus Incentive Compensation Plan, stock options and stock appreciation rights may be granted, we currently have no plans or intentions of using these as a form of compensation.

The Compensation Committee supports the belief that equity participation aligns employees' interests with those of the shareholders. However, we have not yet instituted stock ownership or retention guidelines for our executives.

Other Benefits

We provide a number of benefits as part of our overall remuneration package to all eligible employees including the named executive officers.

We operate a defined contribution retirement plan — a qualified 401(k) Plan which allows each of our employees to contribute up to the limits imposed by the Internal Revenue Code (US), on a pre-tax basis. We provide for matching payments up to 50% of the first six percent of employee contributions.

We also provide other benefits such as medical, dental, life insurance and short and long-term disability coverage to each named executive officer, as well as to all of our full-time employees. In addition, we provide paid time off and other paid holidays to all employees, including our named executive officers, which are in line with our peers in the industry.

Tax Considerations

The Compensation Committee's compensation strategy is to be cost and tax effective. Therefore, the Compensation Committee's policy is to preserve corporate tax deductions, while maintaining the flexibility to approve compensation arrangements that it deems to be in the best interests of our company and our stockholders, even if such arrangements do not always qualify for full tax deductibility.

Employment Agreements

Descriptions of the employment agreements with Messrs Rosato, Gallagher and Weiss are set forth below. The terms and conditions of Messrs. Rosato and Gallagher's employment agreements were negotiated with the sellers of TSS/Vortech as well as with such executives as part of the negotiation of the overall terms and conditions of the acquisition. We expect that now that the acquisition has been completed, the Compensation Committee will, in connection with the development of a comprehensive executive compensation program and philosophy, recommend to our board the compensation and terms of employment for our other executive officers whereupon we may enter into appropriate employment agreements with them.

Change in Control and Severance

As described below, the employment agreements of Messrs. Rosato, Gallagher and Weiss provide for severance benefits. We have not yet developed any comprehensive severance policies for our executive officers but expect to do so in connection with the development of our comprehensive executive compensation program and philosophy.

Role of Executive Officers in Executive Compensation

We expect that our Compensation Committee will approve and make recommendations to our board on the compensation for our executive officers, other than Mr. Rosato, with the advice of Mr. Rosato and/or one or more other executive officers designated by Mr. Rosato. We expect Mr. Rosato and any such other executive officers to play no role in the Compensation Committee's determination of their respective compensation. However, to the extent we enter into employment agreements with our executive officers, such agreements would be subject to negotiation between us and the applicable executive officer.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Since our formation on December 20, 2004 until the consummation of our merger with TSS/Vortech on January 19, 2007, our operations were limited to organizational activities and, after our initial public offering, to activities relating to completing a business combination. No person serving as an executive officer, director or initial stockholder, nor any affiliate thereof, during any part of 2006 received any cash or equity compensation for services rendered to us in 2006. In addition, no compensation of any kind, including finder's and consulting fees, was paid to any person who was an officer, director, initial stockholder or special advisor, or any of their respective affiliates, prior to the merger for services rendered prior to or in connection with the merger. However, our officers, directors and special advisors were reimbursed for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with activities on our behalf, such as participating in the offering process with respect to our initial public offering, identifying potential target businesses, performing due diligence on suitable business combinations and negotiating on our behalf with respect to business combinations.

Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change-in-Control

Pursuant to the terms of the employment agreement, if we terminate Mr. Rosato's employment for reasons other than "Cause" or Mr. Rosato terminates his employment for "Good Reason" (as those terms are defined in the employment agreement), Mr. Rosato is entitled to receive his base compensation as and when it would otherwise be payable if his employment had not been terminated (provided, however that if termination occurs during the last twelve months of Mr. Rosato's employment, then Mr. Rosato shall be entitled to receive amounts equal to base compensation (as and on the terms otherwise payable) for twelve months from the date of termination).

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

During the 2006 fiscal year, we did not have a compensation committee. During the 2006 fiscal year, no interlocking relationship existed between our board and the board of directors or the compensation committee of any other company, nor has any such interlocking relationship existed in the past.

Non-Employee Director Compensation

During the 2006 fiscal year, we paid no compensation to our directors. On April 24, 2007, our board of directors, by unanimous vote, adopted a compensation policy for our non-employee directors, based on a recommendation of our compensation committee. The compensation policy provides non-employee directors an annual grant of 10,000 shares of restricted stock under our 2006 Omnibus Incentive Compensation Plan (the "Plan") to be granted on or about May 1 of each calendar year (unless the board determines otherwise), and which vest over a two-year period with one-third of the shares vesting on the grant date, and each one-half of the balance of such shares vesting on the first and second anniversaries of the grant date, respectively. In addition, a new member who joins the board of directors will be entitled to receive a one-time grant of $100,000 worth of restricted stock under the Plan, based on the closing price on the grant date of our common stock on the OTC Bulletin Board, or such other recognized stock exchange on which our common stock trades. Such shares will vest over a three-year period, with one-third of such shares vesting on each of the first, second and third anniversaries of the grant date. Each non-employee director shall also receive an annual retainer fee of $20,000 and $3,000 for each in-person board meeting attended and $1,000 for each telephonic board meeting attended. In addition, each member of the audit committee (except the chairman) shall receive $10,000 per year and the chairman of the audit committee shall receive $30,000 per year. Each member of the compensation committee (except the chairman) shall receive $5,000 per year and the chairman of the compensation committee shall receive $15,000 per year. This non-employee director compensation policy will take effect on May 1, 2007.

Item 12. SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT AND RELATED STOCKHOLDER MATTERS

Security Ownership of Directors and Executive Officers

Percentage of ownership is based on 12,152,813 shares of common stock outstanding on April 26, 2007. Except as indicated in footnotes to this table, we believe that the stockholders named in this table have sole voting and investment power with respect to all shares of common stock shown to be beneficially owned by them based on information provided to us by these stockholders. Unless otherwise indicated, the address for each director and current executive officer is c/o Fortress International Group, Inc., 9841 Broken Land Parkway, Columbia, Maryland 21046.

All of the shares of our common stock outstanding prior to our initial public offering (“initial shares”) and held by the above stockholders (“initial stockholders”) were placed in escrow with Continental Transfer & Trust Company, as escrow agent, until the earliest of: July 13, 2008; our dissolution and liquidation; or the consummation of a liquidation, merger, stock exchange or other similar transaction which results in all of our stockholders having the right to exchange their shares of common stock for cash, securities or other property subsequent to our consummating a business combination with a target business.

During the escrow period, the initial stockholders will not be able to sell or transfer their securities except to their spouses and children or trusts established for their benefit or otherwise as provided in the stock escrow agreement, but will retain all other rights as our stockholders, including, without limitation, the right to vote their shares of common stock and the right to receive cash dividends, if declared. If dividends are declared and payable in shares of common stock, such dividends will also be placed in escrow.

Purchase of Warrants. Pursuant to an agreement with the underwriters of our initial public offering, C. Thomas McMillen, our former chairman and current vice chairman, and Harvey L. Weiss, our former chief executive officer, president, secretary and current chairman and a member of our board of directors, or certain of their affiliates or designees, collectively purchased 600,000 warrants in the public marketplace at prices not exceeding $0.70 per warrant.

Registration Rights. The holders of the majority of the initial shares are entitled to make up to two demands that we register the initial shares. The holders of the majority of the initial shares may elect to exercise these registration rights at any time after the date on which the initial shares are released from escrow, which, except in limited circumstances, is not before July 13, 2008. In addition, the initial stockholders have certain “piggyback” registration rights on registration statements filed subsequent to the date on which these shares of common stock are released from escrow. We will bear the expenses incurred in connection with the filing of any such registration statements.

Advancement of Certain Costs. Washington Capital Advisors, Mr. Weiss and Mr. Mitchell advanced a total of $70,000 to us to cover costs related to our initial public offering. These loans were repaid from the proceeds of our initial public offering not placed in trust.

Goldman Advisors. Goldman Advisors (“Goldman”), a division of Sunrise Securities Corp., the lead underwriter in our initial public offering, provided financial advisory services to us in connection with the acquisition of TSS/Vortech. Goldman received reimbursement of its reasonable expenses and a fee of $750,000 upon the consummation of the acquisition.

Washington Capital Advisors, LLC. We paid Washington Capital Advisors, LLC (“Washington Capital Advisors”), of which Mr. C. Thomas McMillen, our vice chairman and a director, is the principal equity owner and officer, $7,500 per month for office space and general administrative services. This arrangement was agreed to by Washington Capital Advisors, the successor-in-interest to Global Defense Corporation, also an affiliate of Mr. McMillen, for our benefit and was not intended to provide Mr. McMillen compensation in lieu of salary. Upon completion of the acquisition of TSS/Vortech, we were no longer required to pay this monthly fee. We paid an aggregate of $97,500 pursuant to this agreement.

On January 19, 2007, we entered into a consulting agreement with Washington Capital Advisors, of which Mr. C. Thomas McMillen, our vice chairman and a director, is the principal equity owner and officer, pursuant to which Washington Capital Advisors will be engaged to serve as a consultant for a period of three years. Under the terms of the Consulting Agreement, Washington Capital Advisors will provide advisory services relating to strategic, financial, marketing and business development matters and will also provide mergers and acquisitions assistance. The base compensation to Washington Capital Advisors is $200,000 per year (subject to a minimum annual increase of 5% per year) and Washington Capital Advisors is eligible to receive an annual bonus of up to 50% of its then applicable base compensation (the amount of the bonus and the criteria for the bonus to be determined by the board of directors) with the bonus for 2006 to be prorated for the number of months remaining in 2006 following the closing date. In addition to base compensation and eligibility for a bonus, Washington Capital Advisors will be entitled to a referral fee equal to 5% of the “Gross Profits” (as defined in the Consulting Agreement) attributable to any client or customer (other than the federal government, or any agency or subdivision thereof) identified by Washington Capital Advisors to us or any of our subsidiaries. Pursuant to the terms of the Consulting Agreement, if we terminate the Consulting Agreement for reasons other than “Cause” or Washington Capital Advisors terminates the Consulting Agreement for “Good Reason” (as those terms are defined in the Consulting Agreement), Washington Capital Advisors is entitled to receive its base compensation as and when it would otherwise be payable if the Consulting Agreement had not been terminated (provided, however that if termination occurs during the last twelve months of the Consulting Agreement, then Washington Capital Advisors shall be entitled to receive amounts equal to base compensation (as and on the terms otherwise payable) for twelve months from the date of termination). Under the terms of the Consulting Agreement, Washington Capital Advisors is subject to covenants not to solicit any of our customers or employees and to not otherwise compete against us. In connection with signing the Consulting Agreement, Washington Capital Advisors has signed an Invention Assignment, Non-Compete and Confidentiality Agreement. Washington Capital Advisors is not affiliated with us, TSS/Vortech or any of their respective officers, directors or material equity holders, except that Washington Capital Advisors’ principal equity owner and officer is Mr. McMillen, our vice chairman.

Our Audit Committee reviews and approves in advance all related party transactions in accordance with its written charter.

Director Independence

In anticipation of being listed on The Nasdaq Stock Market, we adhere to the rules of The Nasdaq Stock Market in determining whether a director is independent. Our board of directors will consult with counsel to ensure that the board of directors determination of independence of each director and nominee for election as a director is consistent with those rules and all relevant securities laws and regulations regarding the independence of directors. Based on these standards, the board of directors determined that each of the following non-employee directors is an “independent director” as defined by the Nasdaq Stock Market, LLC and has no relationship with us, except as a director and/or stockholder: David J. Mitchell, Donald L. Nickles, Asa Hutchinson, John Morton, III and William L. Jews.

Item 14. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTANT FEES AND SERVICES

The firm of Goldstein Golub Kessler LLP, or GGK, acted as our principal accountant during the fiscal year 2006. Through September 30, 2005, GGK had a continuing relationship with American Express Tax and Business Services Inc., or TBS, from which it leased auditing staff who were full time, permanent employees of TBS and through which its partners provide non-audit services. Subsequent to September 30, 2005, this relationship ceased and the firm established a similar relationship with RSM McGladrey, Inc., or RSM. GGK has no full time employees and, therefore, none of the audit services performed were provided by permanent full-time employees of GGK. GGK manages and supervises the audit and audit staff, and is exclusively responsible for the opinion rendered in connection with its examination. The following is a summary of fees paid or to be paid to GGK and RSM for services rendered.

On April 20, 2007, we decided to engage the independent registered public accounting firm of Grant Thornton LLP to conduct review of our quarterly financial statements and to audit our financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2007. Our Board of Directors approved the change of our independent registered public accounting firm to Grant Thornton LLP. Accordingly, we dismissed GGK, effective April 20, 2007.

The following table presents fees for professional audit services rendered by Goldstein Golub Kessler LLP, or GGK, for the audit of our annual financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2006 and December 31, 2005 and fees billed for other services rendered by GGK during those periods.

Policy on Audit Committee Pre-Approval of Audit and Permissible Non-audit Services of Independent Auditors

Consistent with policies of the Securities and Exchange Commission regarding auditor independence, the Audit Committee has responsibility, pursuant to its written charter, for appointing, setting compensation and overseeing the work of the independent auditor. In recognition of this responsibility, the audit committee has established a policy to pre-approve all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent auditor. The Audit Committee's policy is to approve all audit and non-audit services provided by our independent registered public accounting firm prior to the commencement of the services using a combination of pre-approvals for certain engagements up to predetermined dollar thresholds in accordance with the pre-approval policy and specific approvals for certain engagements on a case-by-case basis. The Audit Committee has delegated authority to the committee chairman to pre-approve between committee meetings those services that have not already been pre-approved by the committee. The chair is required to report any such pre-approval decisions to the full committee at its next scheduled meeting.
