Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement

On November 19, 2007, SMF Energy Corporation (the “Company”) obtained an aggregate of $2.0 million in short-term loans (collectively, the “Bridge Loan”) from a small group of individual and institutional investors. The Company’s obligations under the Bridge Loan are unsecured and the Bridge Loan is not convertible into any of the Company’s equity securities. While the Bridge Loan has a six-month term, it must be repaid earlier if and to the extent that the Company conducts an offering of its equity securities and the aggregate net proceeds of the equity offering, together with the net proceeds of the Bridge Loan, exceed $3,500,000. The Company did not pay any sales commission or other compensation with respect to the Bridge Loan and estimates that its other expenses of that transaction will not exceed $50,000. Accordingly, in any such equity offering, it is expected that the first $2.0 million of the net proceeds over $1,550,000 will be used to repay the Bridge Loan. Interest on the unpaid principal balance of the Bridge Loan will be paid monthly at an interest rate of 1.5% per month. The form of Promissory Note is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.1 and incorporated by reference herein.

Each of the Bridge Loan investors also entered into a subordination agreement with the Company and its principal lender, Wachovia Bank, N.A. (the “Bank”), subordinating their rights under the Bridge Loan to the Bank. The forms of subordination agreement used by the various Bridge Loan investors are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2 and are incorporated by reference herein.

The subordination agreements were required by the terms of the Twelfth Amendment to the Loan and Security Agreement between the Company and the Bank, dated November 21, 2007. Besides approving the Bridge Loan, as so subordinated, the Twelfth Amendment also (a) amended the fixed charge coverage ratio covenant to change the average excess availability to be maintained by the Company at the end of each calendar month to $800,000 for November 2007, December 2007 and January 2008 and $1,800,000 thereafter; (b) amended the excess availability covenant to require minimum daily availability of $750,000 on or before November 22, 2007, $500,000 from November 23, 2007 to December 30, 2007 and $750,000 thereafter; and (c) amended the provision setting the maximum amount of letters of credit that may be obtained by the Company to change the maximum from $300,000 to $1,000,000.
