Item 8.01. Other Events.

On April 14, 2008, Subaye.com, Inc. (“Subaye”), a Delaware corporation and majority owned subsidiary of MyStarU.com, Inc., filed a registration statement on Form S-1 (File no. 333-150226) with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Registration Statement”). The prospectus to the Registration Statement (the “Prospectus”) relates to 2,689,627 shares of common stock of Subaye (the “Shares”), which may be resold by 11 selling security holders named therein (the “Selling Security Holders”). The Selling Security Holders may offer to sell all or a portion of their Shares offered in the Prospectus from time to time once the Registration Statement is declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Subaye’s common stock is not presently traded on any market or securities exchange, and Subaye has not applied for listing or quotation on any public market. Further, there is no assurance that Subaye’s common stock will ever trade on any market or securities exchange. Subaye will not receive any proceeds from the resale of the Shares being offered for sale by the Selling Security Holders.

Subaye is a leading provider of video sharing services, corporate branding videos, internet marketing services and internet video sharing services in China. Subaye’s platform consists of its website, Subaye.com and the Subaye Alliance network, which is its network of third-party websites. Subaye’s services are designed to enable internet users to find and view videos online. As of March 31, 2008, its video database consisted of over 46,233 profiles of corporate video showcases. These showcases offer a cost-effective venue for small to mid-size enterprises to advertise their products and services and establish and enhance their corporate brands. Subaye also provides its users with easy access to an index of over 1.2 million video clips, images and web pages.
