V. Management Discussion and Analysis

1. Effect of the Issue on the financial conditions

Currently, the main business of the Company is airline services, from which the profit of the Company is mainly derived. It is our future strategy to further enhance and expand our business in the industry. The proceeds of this Non-public Issue will be used as working capital of the Company. Once the proceeds are received, the gearing ratio of the Company will be reduced and the scale of the net assets be increased, thus strengthening its risk resistance capacity and mitigating the pressure resulting from the tension in working capital.

2. Effect of the Issue on the business structure

As currently the main business of the Company is airline services, from which the profit of the Company is mainly derived, and the proceeds of this non-public Issue will be used as working capital of the Company, there will be no change to the main business of the Company after the completion of the Issue.

3. Effect of the Issue on the corporate governance

Upon the completion of Non-public Issue of A Shares and Additional Issue of H Shares, the shareholding of CEA Holding, the controlling shareholder of the Company, will be increased from 59.67% to 74.65%. The controlling shareholder and the beneficial owner of the Company will remain unchanged as a result of the Issue, and the Issue will further increase the proportion of the state-owned shares held in the strategic industry by the PRC.

4. Effect of the Issue on the structure of the senior management

There will be no change of the structure of the senior management of the Company as a result of the Issue.

5. Effect of the Issue on connected transactions and competition within the industry

There is no material effect of the Issue on connected transactions of the Company and the competition within the industry and no further connected transaction and the competition within the industry will arise therefrom.
