Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On December 15, 2011, Stoneridge, Inc. (“the Company”) entered into a 2011 Amended and Restated Change in Control Agreement (the “CIC Agreement”) with the following named executive officers: John C. Corey, George E. Strickler, Thomas A. Beaver, Mark J. Tervalon and Michael D. Sloan. The material modifications from the prior change in control agreements in place with these executives are that in these CIC Agreements, the provision for excise tax gross up payments to the executive should the total payments exceed 110% of the safe harbor payments (as defined in the CIC Agreement) has been eliminated and for Mr. Corey and Mr. Strickler the payments (described below) have been changed to three times annual base salary and annual bonus compensation from two times those amounts.

The CIC Agreement is a “double trigger” agreement and supersedes all prior change in control agreements. In order for the executives to receive the payments and benefits set forth in the CIC Agreement both of the following events must occur (i) a change in control in the Company, as defined in the CIC Agreement, and (ii) a termination of the executive’s employment by the Company without cause, or a voluntary termination by the executive for good reason (i.e., reduction in duties, responsibilities or pay), within two years of the change in control. If both “triggering” events described occur and the executive timely delivers a release to the Company, the Company will be obligated to pay to Mr. Corey and Mr. Strickler a lump sum payment 90 days after the second “triggering” event of (i) three times the executive’s annual base compensation plus (ii) three times the executive’s annual bonus. If both “triggering” events described occur and the executive timely delivers a release to the Company, the Company will be obligated to pay to Mr. Beaver, Mr. Tervalon and Mr. Sloan a lump sum payment 90 days after the second “triggering” event of (i) two times the executive’s annual base compensation plus (ii) two times the executive’s annual bonus. In addition, at the same time the Company must pay the executive a lump sum payment equal to the pro rata annual bonus for the year of the termination and continue to cover the executive’s life and health insurance benefits for a period of twenty-four months following the termination. However, if the executive is a “specified employee,” within the meaning of IRC Section 409A, payments to executive pursuant to the CIC Agreement shall be made on the date which is the earlier of the executive’s death or six months after the date of executive’s separation from service with the Company.
